dither /dɪðə/, dithers, dithering, dithered. 1 When someone dithers, they hesitate because they are unable to make a quick decision about something. EG After dithering about helplessly for a bit, he picked up the phone. V : IF + PREP/ADV THEN about = shilly-shally

2 If someone is in a dither, or all of a dither, they are excited and confused, and cannot decide what to do; an informal expression. EG He's in a terrible dither, poor soul. PHR : USED AS AN A ditto /dɪtəʊ/. 1 Ditto is used to represent the word or phrase that you have just used in order to avoid repeating it, for example in a list. In written lists, ditto can be represented by the symbol 〃 underneath the word that you want to repeat. EG ...a cupboard door with mirror, a bathroom door ditto. ⇑ same = do

2 Ditto is also used to say that you think the same way about something as someone else; an informal use. EG 'I've had enough of this film.'–'Ditto. Let's go, shall we?' CONVENTION = likewise ditty /dɪtiˈ/, ditties. A ditty is a short and simple song or poem; an old-fashioned word, sometimes used humorously. N COUNT diurnal /daɪɜːnəˈl/. Diurnal activities happen during the daytime; a formal word. EG His domestic life had led him to strictly diurnal habits, and by sundown he was always asleep. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ nocturnal divan /dɪvæn/, divans. 1 A divan or divan bed is a bed that has a thick base under the mattress. EG A rumpled divan was the only furniture in the room... She was sitting on a divan with her shoes off. N COUNT

2 A divan is also a long soft seat that has no back or arms and that is meant to be placed next to a wall. N COUNT = sofa dive /daɪv/, dives, diving, dived. American English uses the form dove for the past tense. 1 If you dive, you 1.1 jump head-first into water with your arms held straight above your head. EG She dived into the water and swam energetically away. ▸ used as a noun. EG She plunged straight into the pool with a graceful dive. 1.2 go under the surface of the water, especially the sea, with special breathing equipment. EG They go diving off the west coast of Scotland. V : IF + PREP THEN into ▸ N COUNT V : USU + A

2 When birds and animals dive, they go down head-first quickly and steeply through the air or through water. EG The fin-back whale can dive to a depth of 500 metres... Terns flicker and dive against the hazy sunset. ▸ used as a noun. EG The falcon went into a rapid dive, swooping to a kill. V : USU + A = plummet ▸ N COUNT

3 If you dive into something such as a bag, you put your hand or hands into it quickly in order to get something out. EG He suddenly dived into the chest and produced a silk shirt... The tourists began to dive for their cameras. V + A

4 If you dive in a particular direction, you jump forwards or to one side, for example to get out of the way or to catch something. EG He dived after the ball as it rolled under the hedge. ▸ used as a noun. EG He made a dive for the ball. V + A ▸ N COUNT + SUPP

5 If you dive into a shop, a wood, a crowd of people, etc, you move quickly into it. EG We dived into the Underground to escape the rain. V + A ⇑ leap = plunge

6 If you dive into an activity, you start doing it enthusiastically and without any preparation. EG Don't dive headlong into a task which you know you can't complete. V + A (into/in) ⇑ begin = rush

7 A dive is a bar or club which is not considered to be respectable; used informally and showing disapproval. EG We went into a smoky dive for a cheap lunch. N COUNT : USU MOD + N

8 You say 'Dive in' as a way of inviting people to start eating a meal you have prepared for them. PHR

9 See also diving.

diver /daɪvə/, divers. 1 A diver is 1.1 a person who works or explores under water or at the bottom of the sea, using special breathing equipment. EG The police have sent down divers to look for the body. N COUNT ⇑ swimmer

1.2 a person who takes part in the sport of diving. EG She was a remarkable diver. N COUNT

2 See also divers.

diverge /daɪvɜːdʒ/, diverges, diverging, diverged. 1 If two or more things diverge, they become different from one another. EG ...these countries whose history and circumstances widely diverge... This is where our interests diverge. V ⇑ differ

2 If something diverges from the truth, a standard, a theory, etc, it does not conform to it or fit it. EG We all know women who sharply diverge from this generalization. V + A (from)

3 If two or more roads, paths, etc have been going together in the same direction and then they diverge, they move apart and go in different directions. EG The routes of these two journeys have been diverging. V : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ separate ≠ converge divergence /daɪvɜːdʒəns/, divergences. Divergence is a difference between two or more things, attitudes, opinions, etc that are usually expected to be similar to each other. EG There is an inseparable divergence of interest... Perhaps more important were divergences in equipment... There was much greater divergence on how to handle the crisis. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ≠ convergence divergent /daɪvɜːdʒənt/. Things that are divergent are different from each other. EG It is a country where there are widely divergent ethnic and religious groups... There will always be divergent views on the right emphasis in this matter. ADJ QUALIT divers /daɪvəz/. Divers things or groups are of many different kinds or qualities; an old-fashioned or formal word. EG ...tourist offices of divers nationalities... Divers approaches to the problem were attempted. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ many = varying diverse /daɪvɜːs, daɪvɜːs/. 1 If a group, range, or choice of things is diverse, it is made up of a wide variety of things. EG ...the most numerous and diverse group of all animals, the insects... ...a man of diverse talents... She had a genuine love of literature in all its diverse forms. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ various

2 People, ideas, objects, etc that are diverse are very different or separate from each other. EG ...celebrities as diverse as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, and Ronald Reagan... ...artists from diverse parts of the country. ADJ QUALIT diversify /daɪvɜːsəˈfaɪ/, diversifies, diversifying, diversified. When someone diversifies something or diversifies, they increase the variety of something, especially the variety of the products that they make. EG He was determined to diversify the Post Office's services... Many car manufacturers are diversifying as rapidly as they can. ◊ diversification /daɪvɜːsəˈfɪkeɪʃəⁿn/. EG We want to encourage the diversification of rural employment. V OR V + O = branch out ≠ specialize ◊ N UNCOUNT diversion /daɪvɜːʃəⁿn/, diversions. 1 A diversion is 1.1 an action or event that attracts your attention away from what you are doing or concentrating on. N COUNT = distraction

EG A diversion was caused when Mrs Kaul's chauffeur came back with the flowers... Billy created a most welcome diversion by bringing in a shrew. 1.2 a special route arranged for traffic to follow when the normal route cannot be used. EG You can't go on, there's a diversion. 1.3 an activity that you do for pleasure; an old-fashioned use. EG Hunting was one of Dad's favourite diversions... ...meaningless activities and empty diversions.

N COUNT = detour
N COUNT = amusement

2 Diversion or a diversion is the changing of the direction that something is following or the changing of the purpose that it is intended to have. EG Inflation and diversion of investment were having a bad effect... Possible diversions of the troop convoys were considered.

N COUNT ⇑ change

diversionary /daɪvɜːʃəˈnərɪˈ/. Diversionary activity is intended to attract someone's attention away from something else which you do not want them to think about or know about. EG His speech was widely viewed as a diversionary tactic to disguise the real situation... This was clearly a diversionary proposal.

ADJ CLASSIF: ATTRIB ⇑ distracting diversity /daɪvɜːsəˈtiˈ/, diversities. Diversity is I a range of difference of condition, quality, or type. EG The balance and diversity of nature is threatened... The U.S.A. is a country of enormous size and diversity... His writing displays the diversities of human character and capacity... The banking industry will benefit from a new diversity of financial services. 2 the state or quality of being different or varied. EG We should work toward even greater diversity.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ variety
N UNCOUNT ⇑ variation

divert /daɪvɜːt/, diverts, diverting, diverted. 1 If you divert something, 1.1 you cause it to be used for a different purpose or activity. EG We feel it desirable to divert funds from armaments to health and education... If you don't use it, you can divert the money into savings. 1.2 you change the course or direction that it is following. EG We got held up with all the firemen and police diverting the traffic... Reinforcements can be diverted from Europe to other areas.

V + O + A
V + O : USU + A = re-route

2 If something or someone diverts you, they entertain or amuse you; an old-fashioned use. EG In Europe you may be diverted to discover some old favourite TV serials... For some time he diverted himself by identifying the other sounds he could hear.

V + O (NG/REFL)

divest /daɪvest/, divests, divesting, divested; a formal word. 1 If you divest yourself of a belief, you stop believing it. EG They will have to divest themselves of the notion that they have that power.

V + O (REFL) + A (of) = rid

2 If you divest yourself of something that you are carrying or wearing, you take it off or put it down. EG She divested herself of her bag.

V + O (REFL) + A (OF) = relieve

3 If you divest someone or something of a role, function, or quality, you take it away from them. EG ...divesting public housing of its welfare role... Here, the pursuit of strangers is divested of romance.

V + O + A (of) ⇑ strip

divide /diˈvaɪd/, divides, dividing, divided. 1 When something divides or is divided, it becomes separated into two or more distinct or smaller parts. EG ...an attempt to divide the country into two social classes... At this stage of development the cells begin to divide rapidly. ● If something is divided in or into sections or parts, it has been separated so that it now consists of two or more sections or parts. EG The houses in Florence St are almost all divided into flats... The exam is divided in two parts... Economically, the world is divided into two main groups.

V.ERG ⇑ separate = split ≠ join
● PHR : VB INFLECTS

2 If you divide something among people or groups, you separate it into a number of parts or portions and distribute these parts or portions to the people or groups. EG He divided the rest of his property among his brothers and sisters.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN among/ between = share out

3 If something divides two areas or divides an area into two, it forms a barrier or boundary which keeps the two areas separate from each other. EG A line of rocks seemed to divide the cave into two.

V + O : USU + A

4 If people divide over something or if something divides people, it causes strong disagreement between them. EG This question is dividing the people of Wales... Americans are dividing into two camps over this issue... Beliefs run very deep and religion can either unite or divide. ● You use divide and rule to refer to a policy or technique which is intended to keep someone or an organization in a position of power by causing disagreements within a group of people who might otherwise unite against the person or organization. EG ...the well-proven policy of 'divide and rule'.

V.ERG ≠ unify, unite
● PHR

5 If you divide a larger number by a smaller number or divide a smaller number into a larger number, you calculate how many times the smaller number can fit exactly into the larger number. EG Divide 35 by 7... Divide 7 into 35... 35 divided by 7 is 5... This total is then divided by 52 to arrive at your weekly payment.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN into/by OR V + A (by, into)

6 A divide is 6.1 a significant distinction between two groups, which causes the two groups to be considered as very different and separate. EG The divide between rich and poor was great. 6.2 a moment in time or a point in a process when there is a complete change from one situation to another. EG The invention of the wheel was the second great divide in human history. 6.3 a line of high ground between areas that are drained by different rivers; used in American English. EG They camped on a windswept Kansas divide.

N COUNT : USU SING = gulf, rift
N COUNT : USU SING = watershed
N COUNT ⇑ ridge = watershed

divide off. If something divides two things off, it forms a barrier that keeps them completely separate. EG Huge iron gates divide off the east end of the church.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

divide up. If you divide something up, you 1 separate it into completely separate groups or parts. EG Film divides motion up into a series of static images. 2 share it out among a number of people or groups in approximately equal parts. EG The proceeds had to be divided up among about four hundred people.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, IF : PREP THEN into = break up
PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = share out

divided /diˈvaɪdɪˈd/. 1 If something is divided, it contains or involves two or more opposing ideas, opinions, etc. EG My mind is divided... Public opinion was divided... Many children suffer from divided loyalties when their parents are divorced.

ADJ CLASSIF = split

2 If a group of people is divided, they strongly disagree about something. EG The conference was divided on many issues.

ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN on/ over dividend /dɪvɪdəˈnd/, dividends. 1 A dividend is 1.1 an amount of money that represents part of a company's profits, which it pays to people who have shares. EG In 1977 the company paid a dividend of 15p a share. 1.2 an extra benefit that you did not expect to get. EG The welfare state was regarded as a kind of dividend from economic growth.

N COUNT ⇑ advantage = bonus

2 If something pays dividends, it brings advantages at a later date. EG It may pay dividends later... The time she had spent learning German now paid dividends.

PHR : VB INFLECTS = pay off

divider /diˈvaɪdə/, dividers. 1 A divider is something which forms a barrier between two areas of space or two groups of people. EG Open shelving makes a most attractive room divider... The two-tier education system is a great social divider.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP

2 Dividers are an instrument used for measuring lines and for marking points along them. Dividers consist of two pointed arms joined at one end and look rather like a pair of compasses. EG ...a pair of dividers... ...navigational dividers.

N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N dividing line, dividing lines. A dividing line is a distinction or set of distinctions which marks the difference between two types or groups and keeps them separate. EG The dividing line between wants and needs is a hard one to define.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN between

divination /dɪvɪneɪʃəˈn/ is the art or practice of determining what will happen in the future. EG ...some sort of gift of second sight or divination.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ foretelling

divine /diˈvaɪn/, divines, divining, divined. 1 Something that is divine has the qualities of a god or goddess or results from the actions of a god or goddess. EG At this moment he feels painfully vulnerable to divine retribution... ...the notion that he is created in the Divine Image... These men had all been operating under divine inspiration. ◊ divinely. EG ...a divinely appointed prophet.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ holy ≠ human
◊ ADV

2 A divine is a priest who specializes in the study of theology.

N COUNT

3 If you divine something that you did not know before, you discover or learn it by guessing, because you have no evidence; a fairly literary word. EG No watcher could have divined that the quiet English tourist was really an assassin... She had divined something about me.

V + O/REPORT-CL = guess

4 You describe something as divine when you like or enjoy it very much; an old-fashioned informal use. EG

ADJ QUALIT = heavenly

Isn't it divine in the sun? ◊ divinely. EG We were fantastically and divinely alone. ◊ ADV

diving /daɪvɪŋ/. Diving is 1 the activity of working or exploring underwater or at the bottom of the sea, using special breathing equipment. 2 the sport or activity in which you jump into water head-first with your arms held straight above your head. EG I was never any good at diving. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT ⇑ jumping diving board, diving boards. A diving board is a board high above a swimming pool or other area of water from which people can dive into the water. N COUNT divinity /dɪvɪnɪtiˈ/, divinities. 1 Divinity is 1.1 the study of religion. EG ...a Bachelor of Divinity... My daughter is studying divinity. 1.2 the quality of being divine. EG The divinity of the Pharoah was not doubted in ancient times. N UNCOUNT = theology / N UNCOUNT ⇑ holiness

2 A divinity is a god or goddess. EG ...pagan divinities... Perhaps, after all, they have found a divinity to worship. N COUNT divisible /dɪvɪzəˈbəºl/. 1 A number that is divisible can be divided by another number. EG Each of these numbers is divisible by two. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN by

2 Something that is divisible can be separated into two distinct parts or subjects. EG When the atom was found to be divisible it seemed that it might have an indivisible core. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED : IF + PREP THEN into/from division /dɪvɪʒəºn/, divisions. 1 Division is 1.1 the act of separating a large unit into two or more distinct parts, especially parts which are noticeably different from each other. EG ...the division of physical science into chemistry and physics... This division of the world into developed and undeveloped nations is a gross simplification... ...the division of hours into minutes. 1.2 the separation of something into parts which are distributed among two or more people or things. EG There were bitter battles after his death over the division of his money. 1.3 the process of doing arithmetic calculations by dividing one number into another number. EG A child who can't do division shouldn't be in this class. ● See also long division. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN into / ⇑ separation = split / N UNCOUNT = distribution / N UNCOUNT ≠ multiplication

2 A division is 2.1 a difference that exists between two groups or ideas which appear to be opposed to each other. EG There's a considerable division between left and right in the British Labour Party... In fact, there is a division of opinion among the leaders of the movement... Class divisions become evident very early in a child's life. 2.2 a group of departments in a large organization whose work is done in the same geographical area or is connected with similar tasks. EG He is now a senior vice president in the international division of the bank... ...the BBC's engineering division... The Metropolitan Police Thames Division has its headquarters here. 2.3 a group of military units which fight as a single unit. EG Two tank divisions led the attack. 2.4 a smaller area or unit that is formed within a large one. EG She has a special camera bag, with divisions for each different lens. 2.5 a vote in the British Parliament where the members of parliament go into separate rooms to record their vote. EG The house passed it without division, after a generally harmonious debate. 2.6 one of the groups of teams which make up a football league or other sports league. In each division the teams are considered to be approximately the same standard and they all play against each other during the season. EG United used to be always top of the First Division. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of/between/among = split / N COUNT : USU MOD + N ⇑ department / N COUNT : USU MOD + N / N COUNT ⇑ section / N COUNT/ UNCOUNT / N COUNT : USU MOD + N divisional /dɪvɪʒəºnəl, -ʒɔnəºl/. Divisional is used to describe a division in a large organization or in an army. EG Captain Pomfret was summoned to divisional headquarters... ...the divisional education office in Caxley. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ departmental division of labour. A division of labour is a way of organizing a society or a household so that each member has a particular task to do and therefore contributes to the running of the society or household. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ system division sign, division signs. A division sign is the symbol ÷ used between two numbers to show that the first number has to be divided by the second. N COUNT divisive /dɪˈvaɪsɪv/. Something that is divisive has the effect of dividing people into two or more groups and of causing hostility between them. EG The two-tier school system was seen as divisive by many people. ADJ QUALIT ≠ unifying divorce /dɪvɔːs/, divorces, divorcing, divorced. 1 A divorce is a formal ending of a marriage by law. EG Though she obtained a civil divorce, she's still married in the eyes of the church... Mrs Flanagan had been called as a witness in the divorce case... ...a regime under which divorce is prohibited. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ separation

2 If one person divorces another or if two people divorce, they separate from each other and their marriage is legally ended. EG If she wants to divorce him, she has my sympathy... When my parents divorced, I went to live with my uncle. ◊ divorced. EG The head of the household was a divorced lady with two children... What can you expect of a divorced man? V, OR V + O / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ separated

3 Divorce is a separation between two things which is, or is likely to be, permanent. EG ...the divorce between the ideal and the real... This divorce of art from technology is completely unnecessary... The divorce between power and morality is total. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN between/of

4 If you divorce something from something else, you cause the two things to be considered as very different and separate from each other. EG I don't think it is possible to divorce sport from politics. ◊ divorced. EG Research still remained divorced from construction... ... proposals totally divorced from practical reality. V + O : USU PAST PART, IF + PREP THEN from = dissociate / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN from divorcee /dɪˈvɔːsiː/, divorcees. A divorcee is a person, especially a woman, who is divorced. N COUNT

divot /dɪvət/, divots. A divot is a small piece of grass and earth which is dug out accidentally, for example by a golf club. N COUNT ⇑ turf divulge /daɪvʌldʒ/, divulges, divulging, divulged. If you divulge a piece of information or divulge that it is true, you tell someone about it so that it is no longer a secret. EG I shall divulge the details to no one... The woman divulged that her name was Mrs Musprat. V + O/REPORT-CL ⇑ disclose = reveal ≠ withhold Diwali /dɪwɑːliˈ/ is a Hindu festival of light that is celebrated in the autumn. N UNCOUNT

D.I.Y. is the activity of making or repairing things yourself, instead of buying things ready-made or paying a workman to do the work for you; an abbreviation for 'do-it-yourself'. EG D.I.Y. experts... She was doing some DIY over the weekend. N UNCOUNT dizzy /dɪziˈ/, dizzier, dizziest; dizzies, dizzying, dizzied. 1 If you feel dizzy, you feel 1.1 that you are losing your balance and are about to fall. EG She started to feel dizzy and had to lie down... She was having dizzy spells. ◊ dizziness. EG She was overcome by nausea and dizziness. ◊ dizzily. EG The pain smashed him dizzily to the floor. 1.2 slightly confused and unable to think clearly. EG She was sick and dizzy with grief... They emerged from the lecture, dizzy with facts. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unsteady = giddy / ◊ N UNCOUNT / ◊ ADV WITH VB / ADJ QUALIT : PRED + with = light-headed

2 If something dizzies you, it causes you to feel unsteady or confused. EG They had been dizzied by the pace of technological change. V + O

3 You can use dizzy with words like 'height' and 'peak' to emphasize that the level of something is very high indeed. EG Sugar rose from 8 cents a pound in 1970 to a dizzy peak of 47 cents... ...the dizzy heights of joyous success. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = giddy

D.J., D.J.s. D.J. is an abbreviation for 'disc jockey' and 'dinner jacket'.

djinn /dʒɪn/, djinns. A djinn is the same as a genie. N COUNT

DNA is an acid in the chromosomes in the centre of the cells of living things. DNA determines the particular structure and functions of every cell and is responsible for characteristics being passed on from parents to their children. N UNCOUNT do /duː/, does, doing, did, done; dos. Do functions as both a main verb and as an auxiliary verb. The meanings of 'do' as an auxiliary are given in paragraph 1. For further information about 'do' as an auxiliary, see □ at the end of the entry. The meanings of 'do' as a main verb are given in paragraphs 2 to 20. The meaning of 'do' as a noun are given in paragraphs 21 and 22. 1 Do is used as an auxiliary in the following ways. 1.1 to form the negative of main verbs, by putting 'not' or 'n't' after the auxiliary and before the main verb in its infinitive form. EG She did not appear to be listening... It doesn't matter... You don't have to go. 1.2 to form questions, by putting the subject after the auxiliary and before the main verb in its infinitive form. EG Did he go to the fair... What did he say?... Do the British AUX : SEE □ BELOW / AUX : SEE □ BELOW take sport seriously? 1.3 to give emphasis to the main verb when there is no other auxiliary. EG People do in fact make mistakes... It does seem a bit cold in here... I did have a map somewhere but I must have lost it. 1.4 as a polite or formal way of inviting someone to do something. EG Do sit down... Do have some more tea... Do help yourself to anything you want. 1.5 as a way of trying to persuade someone to do something. EG Do write to me when you get to Kuala Lumpur... Do take care when you cross the main road. 1.6 with a negative to tell someone not to behave in a certain way. EG Don't you play the wise old professor with me!... Oh don't you start!

AUX : SEE ☐ BELOW

AUX : ONLY IMPER, SEE ☐ BELOW

AUX : ONLY IMPER, SEE ☐ BELOW

AUX : not : ONLY IMPER, SEE ☐ BELOW

2 If someone or something does a particular activity, they perform it and finish it. EG We did quite a lot of work yesterday... We are expected to do a lot of reading... I did all the usual things to raise money... I had never done anything which required manual dexterity... All we have to know is what the device does, not how it does it... Every decade there is a census which is done in detail.

V + O

3 You use do with some nouns when you are talking about performing an activity or task, usually a common one. For example, 'do your teeth' means 'brush your teeth', 'do the flowers' means 'arrange the flowers'. EG Who's going to do the washing up?... I do the cooking and Brian does the cleaning... Have you done your homework yet?

V + O

4 You can use do in a clause at the beginning of a sentence to give special emphasis to the information that comes at the end of the sentence. EG All they do is discuss the past... I think what he's done is to accept his own limitations... The least I can do is to hide the chocolates.

V + O

5 If you do a lot, a little, etc with something, you make use of it in the way indicated. EG He did as much with the material as he could... You can do whatever you like with it.

V + O + A (with)

6 If you are doing something, you are busy or active in some way, or have planned an activity for some time in the future. EG What are you doing tonight?... He just sits there all day doing nothing.

V + O

7 If you do something about a problem, you take action to try to solve it. EG They promised that they were going to do something about immigration... There's nothing I can do about it... We're doing all we can... She was desperately ill and very little could be done for her.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN about

8 If an action or event does a particular thing, it has that result or effect. EG Their policies have done more harm for the working class than ours... They are afraid of what it might do to the children.

V + O
⇑ achieve

9 If you talk about how much something does for someone, you are talking about how much it changes them, helps them, or suits them. EG I think home life does a lot for you... I asked Salman Rushdie what winning would do for his career as a novelist... That hat does nothing for you.

V + A (for) ⇑ improve

10 If you ask someone what they do, you want to know what their job or profession is. EG What do you want to do when you leave school?... I wonder what his father does.

V + O : what + S + VB

11 If you say that someone or something does well or badly, you are talking about how successful or unsuccessful they are. EG I didn't do very well in my exams... It all depends how the Labour Party do at this next election... Well done, Andrew... I think on the whole we don't do too badly.

V + A (ADV)
⇑ achieve

12 If a person or organization does a particular service, they provide that service. EG Do you do ferry bookings to Ireland?... We can do travellers cheques.

V + O
⇑ offer

13 If you do a museum, city, country, etc, you visit it as a tourist. EG Americans do London in an afternoon.

V + O

14 If you do a subject, you study it at school or college. EG We haven't done any Shakespeare yet.

V + O

15 If you do a particular person or role, you mimic that person or act that role. EG She does a marvellous elderly aunt.

V + O

16 If you threaten to do someone, you are threatening to hit them or hurt them badly; used in very informal English. EG I'll do you if you don't stop that.

V + O

17 If you say that someone or something does a particular speed, amount, or rate, you mean that they are able to achieve it. EG He can do 120 miles per hour in that car.

V + NUM

18 If you say that something will do or will do you, you mean that it is sufficient in quantity or quality to meet your requirements or to satisfy you. EG This pen will do... Two thousand pounds will do me very well.

V OR V + O : will/would + VB
⇑ suffice

● If you say that something will not do or will never do you mean that it is not suitable or satisfactory. EG That will never do... That kind of answer would hardly have done.

● PHR : VB INFLECTS
⇑ unacceptable

19 If you say that will do to a child, you are telling them to stop behaving in the way that they are. EG That will do, Jonathan.

CONVENTION

20 The word do is also used in the following expressions. 20.1 If you do your best to achieve something, you try as hard as you can to achieve it. EG We do our best to make sure it's up to date information. 20.2 If you ask someone what they did with something, you are asking them where they put it, what they spent it on, etc. EG What did you do with the keys?... What did you do with that £10 I gave you? 20.3 If you say that something is the thing to do or the best thing to do, you mean that it would be a very good idea to do it. EG The best thing to do is come in tomorrow morning. 20.4 If you ask what someone or something is doing in a particular place, you are asking why they are there and expressing surprise that they are there. EG What are you doing here, Francis?... What is a telephone doing in a Victorian Conservatory in this film? 20.5 If you talk about wnat you can do for someone, you are talking about how you can help them. EG Now, what can I do for you?... Send him down and we'll see what we can do. 20.6 If you ask how someone is doing, you are asking if their life is going well and if they are healthy and happy. EG How are you doing? She always wants to know how you've been doing, always talking about you. 20.7 How do you do is used as a formal way of greeting someone when you meet them. When one person says 'how do you do', the other person also answers 'how do you do'. 20.8 If someone is badly done by, they are treated in an unfair way. EG James felt he had been badly done by. 20.9 If you say that someone would do well to do something, you mean that they ought to do that thing. EG She would do well to steer clear of men. 20.10 If you say that one thing has to do with or is to do with another thing, you mean that the two things are connected or that the first thing is about the second thing. EG This book has to do with married life... He's something to do with the Foreign Office... This main basic argument has got nothing to do with agriculture... Mind your own business–it's got nothing to do with you... It's got something to do with an economic crisis. 20.11 If you say that you could do with something, you mean that you need it or would benefit from it. EG I think we could all do with a good night's sleep... The staff could probably do with some more money. 20.12 If you feel done in, you feel completely exhausted; used in informal English. 20.13 easier said than done: see easy. ● to make do: see make. ● no sooner said than done: see soon.

PHR : VB
PHR : VB INFLECTS
PHR : VB INFLECTS
PHR : USED AS C S/O
PHR : AUX INFLECTS, USU : A
PHR
PHR : AUX INFLECTS
CONVENTION
PHR : USED AS C
PHR : to-INF
PHR : AUX INFLECTS
PHR
⇑ want
PHR : USED AS C
⇑ tired
= dead beat

21 A do is a party, dinner party, or other social event; a fairly informal use. EG We're going to a formal do tonight.

N COUNT

22 The dos and don'ts are the things which you must and must not do in a particular situation. EG There are plenty of dos and don'ts in this contract.

PHR : USED AS C O/S ⇑ rules

do away with. To do away with something means to get rid of it. EG Our medicines have not done away with disease... It would be nice to do away with all the paperwork that is usually involved.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP
⇑ finish

do down. If you do someone down, you make other people think that that person is unpleasant or unsuccessful by criticizing them; an informal expression. EG He'll do you down if he can... Don't do yourself down.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV
⇑ discredit

do for. If something does for you or you are done for, it has a very serious and harmful effect on your life; an informal expression. EG If I can't finish this report I'm done for.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ ruin

do in. To do someone in means to kill them; an informal expression. EG They might do you in while you're sleeping.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV
= murder

do out. 1 If you do out a cupboard or other place, you clean it and tidy it; an informal expression. EG I must do out these cupboards tomorrow.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

2 If you do out a room or building, you make it look nice, for example by decorating it; an informal expression. EG The bedroom was done out in pale blue.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV
⇑ decorate

do out of. If you do someone out of something, you unfairly cause them not to have or get something that they were expecting to have; an informal expression. EG He did me out of £500. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV + PREP ⇑ deprive do over. 1 If you do something over, you perform a task again from the beginning; used mainly in informal American English. EG That essay was no good, I'll have to do it over. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ repeat

2 If you do over a house, you redecorate it and change its furnishings; used mainly in informal American English. EG Mrs Kennedy did over the White House. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

3 If someone does a place over, they rob it; an informal expression PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

4 If you do someone over, you hurt them badly, for example by hitting or kicking them; an informal expression. EG I'm going to get someone to do him over. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV = beat up

do up. 1 If you do something up, you fasten it. EG I can't do my top button up... He did his shoelaces up. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

2 If a woman does her hair up, she arranges it so that it is tied or fastened close to her head rather than hanging loosely. EG Judy's hair, which she did up in a plain bun, was grey. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = put up

3 If you do up an old building, you decorate and repair it so that it is in a better condition and looks more modern. EG The theatre was horrible, done up as cheaply as possible. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ renovate

4 If something is done up, it is covered in material or paper, like a parcel. EG I gave her a box, nicely done up in flowered paper. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, USU PASS

do without. If you do without something, you manage or survive in spite of not having it. EG Many Victorian households did without a bathroom altogether... If you don't have cigarettes, you must simply do without. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

DO □ Do can be used both as a main verb and as an auxiliary. The meanings of the auxiliary, described as AUX in the grammar notes, are given in paragraph I of the entry for do. Do used as an auxiliary behaves in the following ways: 1 It is followed by a verb in the infinitive without to. Examples are I do agree with him... They did get a bit worried about me. 2 It inflects and has the forms: do, does, and did. 3 Do, does, and did are used before the subject in questions, as in Where did they go?...Does she still want to come? 4 Do, does, and did are used before the negative not, as in We did not remember the way. The word not has a shortened form n't which can be added to do, does and did, as in I don't like her... She didn't have much money. 5 It can be used to stand for, and refer back to, a previous verbal group, as in She meets lots more people than I do... I like cooking and so does John. 6 It is used in question tags, as in She made a lot of mistakes, didn't she... Buses start at 4 o'clock in Birmingham, don't they?... You don't know her, do you? 7 It is not used with another auxiliary or a modal in a verbal group.

do. is a written abbreviation for 'ditto', used in lists, accounts, etc.

d.o.b. is a written abbreviation for 'date of birth', used especially on official forms.

doc /dɒk/, docs. You can refer to a doctor as doc; an informal word. EG Have you been to see the doc? N COUNT/VOC : ALSO IN TITLES docile /dəʊsaɪl/. A person or animal that is docile is quiet, not aggressive, and easily controlled. EG The prisoners were grateful and docile. ◊ docilely. EG He made the beast turn aside and trot docilely away. ◊ docility /dɒˈsɪlɪtiˈ/. EG I am always surprised at the docility our pupils show when punished. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ submissive ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT dock /dɒk/, docks, docking, docked. 1 A dock is 1.1 an enclosed area in a harbour where ships go to be loaded, unloaded and repaired. EG The ship entered the dock to a fanfare of trumpets. 1.2 a row of docks, with all the sheds, offices and other buildings which are needed to repair, load and unload ships. EG He went to the London Docks and spent two days trying to get a job... During the war women worked on the farms, on the docks and in the factories... Much of the vast dock area in Glasgow has been closed. N COUNT N COUNT : USU PL = dockyard, shipyard

2 If a ship is in dock, it is waiting to be repaired in a dock. EG The Queen Elizabeth II was in dock for major repairs. PHR : USED AS AN A

3 If a ship docks or if you dock a ship, you bring it into a dock at the end of a voyage. EG It was raining the morning they docked at Southampton... I sailed slowly because I didn't want to dock my boat in the dark. V OR V ERG : USU + A

4 If two spacecraft dock or if you dock them, they join together in space. V ERG

5 The dock is the place in a law court where the person accused of a crime stands or sits. EG He explained from the dock why he thought his parents should die... He thought about the other people who should have been in the dock at his side. N SING : the + N

6 If you dock someone's wages or money, you take some of the money away or reduce the amount of money that you give them. EG His wages were docked to pay for the equipment he had broken... She lent her daughter 5 pounds and then docked her pocket money until the debt was paid off. V + O

7 If a vet docks the tail of an animal, most of the tail is cut off. V + O ⇑ remove

8 A dock is also a plant with big leaves which grows wild by the roadside in Britain and some other northern countries. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

docker /dɒkə/, dockers. A docker is a person who works in the docks, loading and unloading ships. EG He drew attention to the rising unemployment among dockers. N COUNT ⇑ worker docket /dɒkɪt/, dockets, docketing, docketed; used mainly in British English. 1 A docket is a certificate or ticket which shows the contents of a parcel, cargo or something else that has to be delivered. It also proves who the parcel, cargo, etc belongs to. EG He stuffed the docket for the second case into his back pocket. N COUNT

2 If someone dockets a parcel, cargo, etc, they attach a docket to it. EG They had been examined, categorized, docketed. V + O ⇑ label dockland /dɒklænd/, docklands. The dockland of a town or city is the area around the docks. EG He lived and worked in the Liverpool dockland. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT dock worker, dock workers; also spelled as one word. A dock worker is a person who works in the docks, loading and unloading ships. N COUNT = docker dockyard /dɒkjɑːd/, dockyards. A dockyard is a place where ships are built, maintained, and repaired. N COUNT = dock, shipyard

doctor /dɒktə/, doctors, doctoring, doctored. 1 A doctor is 1.1 someone who is qualified in medicine and treats people who are ill. EG She felt so ill we had to call the doctor... I went to see Doctor Barker this morning. ▸ The doctor's is used to refer to the surgery or clinic where a doctor works. 1.2 someone who has been awarded the highest academic or honorary degree by a university. EG He is a doctor of philosophy. N COUNT/VOC : ALSO IN TITLES ▸ N SING : the + N N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES ⇑ scholar

2 If someone doctors something, they change it in order to deceive people or to make it more suitable. EG I'm sure he's doctored the figures... We all realized the play needed a certain amount of doctoring. V + O

3 If someone doctors food or drink, they add a poison or drug to it. V + O

4 To doctor an animal, especially a dog or cat, means to castrate or sterilize it. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ neuter doctoral /dɒktəʳrəl/. A doctoral thesis or piece of research is written or done in order to obtain a doctor's degree. EG ...a doctoral dissertation. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB doctorate /dɒktəʳrəˈt/, doctorates. A doctorate is a doctor's degree. EG ...Dr Edwards, a painter with a doctorate in art, psychology and education. N COUNT

doctrinaire /dɒktrɪneə/. A person or attitude that is doctrinaire insists on particular principles or theories without allowing arguments against them and without considering any practical problems; a formal word, used showing disapproval. EG Their attitudes were condemned as doctrinaire. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dogmatic ≠ broad min ed doctrinal /dɒktraɪnəʳl/. Doctrinal is used to describe something that is related to doctrines; a formal word. EG The discussions had collapsed under the weight of doctrinal arguments between rival factions. ADJ CLASSIF : US ATTRIB doctrine /dɒktrɪn/, doctrines. A doctrine is a principle or belief, or a set of principles or beliefs, which is thought by its supporters to be absolutely true and therefore the only one acceptable. EG In Britain we have this very well-established doctrine of parliament being sovereign... ...his ignorance of Christian doctrine... Their doctrines led them to believe in their own moral supremacy. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT document /dɒkjəmə²nt/, documents, documenting, documented. 1 A document is one or more pieces of paper with writing on them which provide an official record or official evidence about N COUNT

something. EG He studied some official documents relating to the nineteenth century... He was issued with travel documents which allowed him to fly back to the United States.

2 To document something means to write about it in a detailed and factual way, or to record this information in another way, for example on film. EG He won a prize for documenting the horrors of war in different African countries... The films tried to document the development of the railways... These incidents are the first documented cases of shark attacks on bathers in Australia... The life of Byron is remarkably well documented. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ record = report, chronicle documentary /dɒkjəˈmɛntəˈriˈ/, documentaries. 1 A documentary is a film or radio or television programme which provides factual information about a particular subject. EG They made a documentary about the life of William Shakespeare... ...documentary films. N COUNT

2 Documentary evidence is based on documents rather than people's opinions. EG There is plenty of documentary evidence on the Roman Empire. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ written = concrete documentation /dɒkjəˈmɛnteɪʃəˈn/ consists of documents which are supplied to provide proof or evidence of something. EG His story was supported by a great deal of documentation. N UNCOUNT dodder /dɒdə/, dodders, doddering, dodered. To dodder means to walk in an unsteady and shaky way, especially because of old age. V : USU + A = totter doddering /dɒdərɪŋ/. Someone who is doddering walks in an unsteady and shaky way, especially because of old age. EG She was doddering and frail. ADJ QUALIT = doddery doddery /dɒdəriˈ/. Someone who is doddery walks in an unsteady and shaky way, especially because of old age. ADJ QUALIT = doddering doddle /dɒdəˈlˈ/. A doddle is a job, task, exam, etc that you find very easy to do; an informal word. EG This should be a doddle. N SING : a + N = cinch dodge /dɒdʒ/, dodges, dodging, dodged. 1 If you dodge, you move suddenly out of the way or out of reach in order to avoid being hit, caught, or seen. EG He was scrambling to his feet, dodging and ducking to escape more blows... He stopped the car and dodged into the post office. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...with a quick dodge to the right. V : USU + A ▸ N COUNT : USU + SUPP

2 If you dodge something, you 2.1 avoid it by quickly moving aside or out of reach so that it cannot hit or reach you. EG The Minister had to dodge flying tomatoes. 2.2 avoid thinking about it or dealing with it. EG This issue should not be dodged... We cannot dodge this accusation. V + O, V + A + O, OR V + -ING + O = duck; V + O, OR V + -ING + O = evade

3 If you dodge something unpleasant, such as paying taxes, you avoid doing it, especially by deceit. EG He's been trying to dodge going to school by pretending to be ill. V + O, OR V + -ING + O = avoid

4 A dodge is a cunning and often deceitful trick which someone uses in order to avoid having to do something EG He had tried all sorts of dodges to avoid being called up. N COUNT = scheme

dodgem /dɒdʒəˈm/, dodgems; used in British English. A dodgem or dodgem car is a small electric car with a wide rubber bumper all round that people can ride in at a fairground. The dodgem cars are driven in an enclosed space and people try to steer them so that they avoid each other or so that they crash into each other. EG Let's go on the dodgems. N COUNT : USU PL dodger /dɒdʒə/, dodgers. A dodger is someone who avoids an obligation or duty, such as paying taxes, by using trickery or deceit. EG He was accused of being a tax dodger. N COUNT : USU + SUPP dodgy /dɒdʒiˈ/; an informal word. 1 Someone who is dodgy has a character that you suspect is dishonest. EG There's something dodgy about him. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ untrustworthy

2 Something that is dodgy seems rather risky, dangerous, or unreliable. EG It's a rather dodgy plan. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ uncertain

dodo /dəʊdəʊ/, dodos, dodoes. The plural can be either dodos or dodoes. 1 A dodo was a very large bird that was unable to fly. Dodos are now extinct. N COUNT

2 If you say that something is as dead as a dodo, you are emphasizing that it no longer exists. PHR : USED AS AN A

3 A dodo is also someone who is silly or foolish; an informal use. EG She was made to feel like an inarticulate dodo. N COUNT ⇑ fool = dope doe /dəʊ/, does. A doe is an adult female rabbit, hare, or deer. N COUNT ≠ buck doer /duːə/, doers. A doer is a person who does jobs promptly and efficiently and does not spend much time thinking about them. EG She is one of the doers of this world. N COUNT does /dʌz/ is the third person singular in the present tense of 'do'.

doesn't /dʌzəˈnt/ is the usual spoken form of 'does not'.

doff /dɒf/, doffs, doffing, doffed. If you doff your hat or coat, you take it off; an old-fashioned word. V + O ⇑ remove ≠ don dog /dɒg/, dogs, dogging, dogged. 1 A dog is 1.1 a very common four-legged animal that is often kept by people as a pet or used to guard or hunt things. There are a lot of different breeds of dog. EG Their dog started barking at me. 1.2 a male dog, wolf, fox, or other animal that is related to the dog. 1.3 a man who seems to you to be unpleasant and evil or harmful; an informal use. EG He let her down, the dirty dog. 1.4 something that is unsatisfactory or of poor quality; used in informal American English. EG This car's a dog. N COUNT; N COUNT : USU; ADJ QUALIT + N = rat; N COUNT

2 If you dog someone, you follow them very closely and never leave them. EG He's been dogging me all day. V + O, OR V + O + A

3 If things such as problems or injuries dog you, they are with you all the time. EG Bad luck had dogged me all year... The tour was dogged by injury and loss of confidence. V + O ⇑ follow = plague

4 The dogs is a sports meeting where dogs, especially greyhounds, race and people bet on which dog will win; used in informal British English. N PLURAL : the + N

5 The word dog is also used in the following expressions. 5.1 To treat someone like a dog means to treat them very badly. EG All the prison guards treated us like dogs. 5.2 A dog's life is a very miserable and unpleasant life. EG It's a dog's life being a football manager. 5.3 If someone tells you to let sleeping dogs lie, they mean that you should not disturb things which seem satisfactory because if you do you will cause trouble. 5.4 If you say 'love me, love my dog', you are telling someone that they must accept you as you are, with all your faults. 5.5 If you say 'You can't teach an old dog new tricks', you mean that some people, especially old people, are reluctant to try new ways of doing things. 5.6 If you say 'Every dog has its day', you mean that everyone has, at some point in their life, a period of time when they are successful or lucky. 5.7 If you say 'give a dog a bad name', you mean that once someone has got a bad reputation, that is the way that people always think of them. 5.8 If you say that dog eats dog in a particular situation, you mean that each person wants to succeed and is willing to harm others in order to achieve this. 5.9 If someone is dressed up like a dog's dinner, they are dressed in a very smart but showy way; used in informal British English. 5.10 If you put on the dog, you behave in an unpleasant, grand way that suggests you think that you are much more important or intelligent than anyone else; used in informal American English. 5.11 If you say that something is going to the dogs, you mean that it is losing the good qualities that it had. EG This country is going to the dogs! 5.12 ● to fight like cat and dog: see cat. ● raining cats and dogs: see rain. PHR : VB INFLECTS; PHR : USED AS AN A; PHR : VB INFLECTS = put on airs; PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ deteriorate

6 See also dogged.

dogcart /dɒgkɑːt/, dogcarts; often spelled with a hyphen. A dogcart is a light cart with two wheels pulled by a horse, which people can ride in. N COUNT dog-collar, dog-collars; also spelled without a hyphen. A dog-collar is 1 a white collar that fastens at the back of the neck, worn by priests and ministers of the Christian Church; an informal use. 2 a collar worn by a dog. N COUNT; N COUNT dog-eared. A book or piece of paper that is dog-eared has been used so much that the corners of the pages are turned down or torn. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ old = tatty dogfight /dɒgfaɪt/, dogfights. A dogfight is 1 a fight between fighter planes, in which they fly close to one another and manoeuvre very fast. 2 a fight between dogs, especially one that has been organized by human beings for entertainment, although in many countries this is illegal. N COUNT ⇑ battle; N COUNT dogfish /dɒgfɪʃ/. Dogfish is both the singular and the plural form. A dogfish is a small shark. There are several kinds of dogfish. N COUNT

dogged /dɒgɪd/ means showing determination to continue with something however difficult it is. EG ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

...his dogged refusal to admit defeat... ...dogged determination. ◊ doggedly. EG They persisted doggedly in their campaign against the law. ◊ doggedness.

◊ ADV WITH VB
◊ N UNCOUNT

doggerel /dɒgəˈrəl/ is poetry which is silly or funny, often written quickly and not intended to be serious. EG She wrote some doggerel on the subject in 1883.

N UNCOUNT

doggie /dɒgi/, doggies; also spelled doggy. Doggie is a child's word for a dog.

N COUNT

doggie paddle; also spelled with a hyphen. The doggie paddle or dog paddle is a swimming stroke in which the arms and legs are moved up and down rapidly, with short strokes under the water; an informal term. The doggie paddle is often used by children who are learning to swim.

N UNCOUNT : USU the+N = dog paddle

doggo /dɒgəʊ/. If you lie doggo, you lie still and keep very quiet so that people will not find you; an informal expression. EG I lay doggo in my tent.

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ hide

doggone /dɒgɒn/ is an informal American word that is used to emphasize what you are saying. EG It's a doggone shame.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = darn

doggy /dɒgi/, doggies. See doggie.

N COUNT

dog-house. If you are in the dog-house, you are in disgrace and people are annoyed with you; an informal expression. EG Poor Nigel is in the dog-house.

PHR : USED AS AN A

dogleg /dɒglɛg/, doglegs. A dogleg is a sharp bend, especially one in a road.

N COUNT

dogma /dɒgmə/, dogmas. A dogma is a belief or a system of beliefs which is accepted as true and which people are expected to accept, without questioning it. EG He had no time for political or other dogmas... ...Christianity in the early days when there was less dogma.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP

dogmatic /dɒgmætɪk/. Someone who is dogmatic is convinced that they are right and gives their personal opinions without looking at the evidence and without considering that other opinions might be justified. EG He was so dogmatic about it that I almost believed what he was saying... His friends were all intensely dogmatic political theoreticians... She was not impressed by his dogmatic assertions. ◊ dogmatically. EG 'This stone,' he said dogmatically, 'is far older than the rest.'

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ opinionated = categorical

◊ ADV WITH VB = categorically

dogmatism /dɒgmətɪzəm/ is a strong and confident assertion of opinion, which is made without looking at the evidence and without considering that different opinions might be justified. EG His education has taught him a distrust of dogmatism. ◊ dogmatist. EG England inherited the worst dogmas and dogmatists of the women's movement from America.

N UNCOUNT

◊ N COUNT

dogmatize /dɒgmətaɪz/, dogmatizes, dogmatizing, dogmatized; also spelled dogmatise. If you dogmatize about something, you speak or write in a very dogmatic and arrogant way, as if you feel certain that you are right and other people are wrong; a fairly formal word.

V : IF + PREP THEN about = pontificate

do-gooder, do-gooders. A do-gooder is someone who does things which they think will help other people, although others think that they are interfering; used showing disapproval.

N COUNT ⇑ benefactor

dog paddle means the same as doggie paddle.

N UNCOUNT

dogsbody /dɒgzbɒdi/, dogsbodies. A dogsbody is a person who has to do all the unpleasant or boring jobs that nobody else wants to do; an informal British word. EG He was employed as a general dogsbody on the project.

N COUNT ⇑ menial dog-tired. If you are dog-tired, you are extremely tired; used in informal English. EG I was dog-tired that evening.

ADJ CLASSIF : PRED = exhausted

doily /dɔɪli/, doilies. A doily is a small, round piece of paper or cloth that has a pattern of tiny holes in it, which you put on a plate under something such as a cake. EG ...a lace doily.

N COUNT ⇑ mat

doings /duːɪŋz/. Someone's doings are their activities at a particular time. EG He gave an admiring account of Larry's doings.

N PLURAL : USU POSS + N

do-it-yourself. See D.I.Y. EG You can get them from good do-it-yourself shops.

N UNCOUNT

doldrums /dɒldrəmz/. If an activity or situation is in the doldrums, it is very quiet and nothing new or exciting is happening. EG The American market is as much in the doldrums as the British one... By and large, athletics were in the doldrums during the 1960s.

PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ inactive = in a rut

dole /dəʊl/, doles, doling, doled. In Britain, the dole is money that is given by the government to people who are unemployed. It is given at regular intervals, for example every two weeks. EG How much is the dole now, 20 quid?... There was no dole for farm labourers. ● Someone who is on the dole is registered as unemployed and receives money regularly from the government. EG They made him redundant but he wouldn't go on the dole... He's spent the last year on the dole.

N SING : the+N ⇑ welfare

● PHR : USED AS AN A

dole out. If you dole something out, you give a certain amount of it to each person or animal in a group. EG The children dole out their sandwich crusts to the ducks.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = dish out

doleful /dəʊlfʊl/. A doleful expression, manner, voice, etc is depressing and miserable. EG 'Things are getting desperate,' he said in a doleful monotone. ▸ used of people. EG ...his rapid transformation from senator to doleful night-club comic. ◊ dolefully. EG Hogan nodded dolefully.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unhappy = mournful doll /dɒl/, dolls, dolling, dolled. A doll is 1 a child's toy which looks like a small person or baby. 2 a girl or young woman, especially one who is pretty; used especially in informal American English. EG Who's the doll over there?

▸ ADJ QUALIT

◊ ADV WITH VB

N COUNT

N COUNT : ALSO VOC

doll up. If a woman dolls herself up, she puts on smart or fashionable clothes in order to try and look attractive for a particular occasion; used in informal English. EG She dolled herself up to meet her new boyfriend. ◊ dolled up. EG She was all dolled up in the latest fashion.

PHRASAL VB : V + O (REFL/NG) + ADV ⇑ dress

◊ ADJ QUALIT

dollar /dɒlə/, dollars. A dollar is a unit of money used in the USA, Canada, and other countries, which is divided into one hundred smaller units called cents. EG They spent half a million dollars on the campaign... Ethel gave him a dollar bill... The pound fell more than 25 per cent against the dollar.

N COUNT : USU NUM + N, OR N SING : the + N = buck

dollop /dɒləp/, dollops. A dollop of soft or sticky food is a small amount of it served in a lump in a casual way. EG ...stew with beans, topped up with a dollop of mashed potato.

N PART + N UNCOUNT

doll's house, doll's houses. A doll's house is a toy in the form of a small house, which children can use when they are playing with dolls.

N COUNT

dolly /dɒli/, dollies. 1 Dolly is a child's word for a doll.

N COUNT : ALSO VOC

2 A dolly or dolly bird is a young woman who is considered to be very pretty but not very intelligent; used in informal British English. EG He was too busy chasing the teenage dollies of Paris.

N COUNT

dolphin /dɒlfɪn/, dolphins. A dolphin is a mammal which lives in the sea and looks like a large fish with a pointed mouth.

N COUNT

dolt /dəʊlt/, dolts. A dolt is a stupid person. EG You would have to be a complete dolt to miss the turn-off.

N COUNT, ALSO VOC

-dom is added to some adjectives and nouns in order to form other nouns that refer to human states or conditions. EG ...free—freedom... ...serf—serfdom... ...star—stardom.

SUFFIX : FORMS N UNCOUNTS

domain /dəˈmeɪn/, domains. A domain is 1 a particular area of activity or interest. EG This question comes into the domain of philosophy... The ultimate responsibility in this domain, as in all others, lay with the chairman. 2 an area over which someone or something has control or influence. EG His domain extended to New York... The Arctic remains the domain of the polar bear.

N COUNT + SUPP = sphere

N COUNT : WITH POSS = kingdom

dome /dəʊm/, domes. A dome is 1 a round roof that is built on a flat circular base. EG The last stone of the dome of St Peter's was put in place in 1590... ...the huge dome of Central Hall. 2 any object that has a similar shape to a dome, for example a man's bald head. EG A band of frizzy grey hair encircled his bald dome.

N COUNT

N COUNT

domed /dəʊmd/. Something that is domed is in the shape of a dome. EG ...a typical example of traditional architecture with its superb domed roofs.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ rounded

domestic /dəˈmɛstɪk/, domestics. 1 Domestic political activities, events, and situations happen or exist within one particular country. EG ...half an hour of world and domestic news... ...foreign and domestic policy... The company needs to acquire domestic sources of oil and natural gas. ◊ domestically. EG Only 9m tonnes of coal will be produced domestically this year.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = home ≠ foreign

◊ ADV

2 Domestic duties and activities are concerned with the running of a home and family. EG We share our money and the domestic chores... ...a work load that is quite impossible to combine with domestic respon- sibilities... ...a scene of cleanliness and domestic efficiency.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ home = household

3 Domestic items and services are intended to be used in people's homes rather than in factories or offices. EG ...advanced domestic appliances... ...a domestic supply of water... The country depended heavily on coal both for industrial and domestic use. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ≠ industrial

4 A domestic situation or atmosphere is one which involves a family and their home. EG Everything sounded very peaceful and domestic... He was not prepared to sacrifice this principle in the interests of domestic harmony. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

5 Someone who is domestic enjoys being at home and running a family. EG She was never a very domestic sort of person. ◊ domestically. EG He's not very domestically inclined. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV

6 A domestic animal is one that is not wild and is kept on a farm to produce food or in someone's home as a pet. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ tame

7 A domestic or a domestic help is a person who is paid to come to help with the work that has to be done in a house such as the cleaning, washing, and ironing. EG Should the women quit their jobs and become domestics? N COUNT ⇑ helper = servant

domesticate /dəˈmɛstɪkeɪt/, domesticates, domesticating, domesticated. 1 If someone domesticates animals or plants that are usually wild, they bring them under control and use them to produce food or as pets. EG Our ancestors domesticated various plant and animal species. ◊ domesticated. EG There were no domesticated animals for ploughing... Cats and ferrets became fully domesticated species. ◊ domestication. EG The domestication of the horse was a significant factor. V + O ⇑ tame ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you domesticate someone, you get them used to helping with the tasks that need to be done around the house, such as cooking, washing, and sewing. EG All my attempts to domesticate Chris came to nothing. ◊ domesticated. EG He thinks that it is unmanly to be domesticated. V + O ⇑ train ◊ ADJ QUALIT domesticity /dəʊmɛstɪsɪˈtiˈ/ is the state of living at home with your family. EG I had put off settling down to such domesticity... Any atmosphere of domesticity has long vanished. N UNCOUNT domestic science is the study of cooking, needlework, and other household skills, usually learned at school. N UNCOUNT domicile /dɒmɪsaɪl/, domiciles. Your domicile is the place where you live; a formal or legal word. EG She took me to what was apparently her own domicile. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ residence = home domiciled /dɒmɪsaɪld/. If you are domiciled in a particular place, you live there; a formal or legal word. EG She is regarded as domiciled in the UK. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, USU + A ⇑ resident dominance /dɒmɪnəns/. 1 The dominance of a person or thing is the power or control that they have over a person, place, or group. EG The treaty gave them dominance of the sea routes... It was to be even longer before their dominance over the party was eroded. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of/over = control

2 If something has dominance in a situation, it is the most important or noticeable element in the situation. EG Agriculture, the original basis of civilization, has lost its dominance in nation after nation... ...the dominance of economics among the social sciences. N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ importance dominant /dɒmɪnənt/. Someone or something that is dominant is 1 more powerful, important, or noticeable than other things of its kind. EG Chapter three examines the dominant feature of the campaign... ...the television experts who play a dominant role in moulding public opinion... As long as the need for food, clothing and shelter is dominant they will continue to work. 2 the most influential person or group in a particular relationship or society. EG She is the dominant partner in their marriage. ADJ QUALIT ≠ submissive dominate /dɒmɪneɪt/, dominates, dominating, dominated. 1 If someone or something dominates a situation or event, they have great influence or control over it by being the most powerful or significant element in it. EG These issues dominated the election... That sort of job doesn't dominate your whole existence for twenty-four hours a day. ◊ domination /dɒmɪneɪʃəⁿn/. EG They were delighted by the company's increasing domination of the UK market. V + O = rule ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If a person or country dominates another place or group of people, they have a great deal of power over the place or people and use this power to govern them. EG This nation, with its great armies, seemed likely to dominate the whole of Western Europe. ◊ domination. EG The domination of Europe over the rest of the world has long since declined. V + O ◊ N UNCOUNT

3 If you dominate a person or a group of people, you have so much power over them that you influence everything that they do. EG The older women were not permitted to dominate the younger male members of the family. ◊ domination. EG It was a relationship not of co-operation but of domination. V OR V + O ⇑ control ≠ submit ◊ N UNCOUNT ≠ submission

4 If something dominates an area, it is so large or tall that it can be seen from all over that area. EG The valley was dominated by the huge Benedictine abbey. V + O dominating /dɒmɪneɪtɪŋ/. Someone who is dominating has a very strong personality and influences the people around them a great deal. EG He was a rather aggressive and dominating character. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ influential = forceful ≠ meek domineering /dɒmɪnɪəɾɪŋ/. Someone who is domineering tries to control other people without any consideration for their feelings or opinions. EG Many of her women friends also had domineering husbands. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ influential = overbearing ≠ meek

Dominican /dəmɪnɪkən/. A Dominican person or thing 1 belongs to or relates to the Christian religious order founded by St Dominic. EG ...a Dominican monk... At the Dominican Church I joined the line and filed inside. 2 comes from, belongs to, or relates to the Dominican republic. ADJ CLASSIF ADJ CLASSIF dominion /dəˈmɪnjən/, dominions. 1 Dominion is the authority that someone in a position of power has over other people. EG Political dominion paved the way for the destruction of the traditional industries... They now had virtually undisputed dominion over a large part of southern India... They have a plan for the achievement of world dominion. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN over

2 A dominion is an area of land that is controlled by a ruler. EG ...the great imperial dominions of the nineteenth century. N COUNT

3 A Dominion was one of the nations which belonged to the British Commonwealth in former times but which had their own government. EG The Dominions did not want Free Trade. N COUNT ⇑ nation

domino /dɒmɪnəʊ/, dominoes. 1 A domino is a small rectangular block, often made of wood, which is marked with two groups of spots on one side. Dominoes are used for playing various games. EG ...a set of dominoes. N COUNT

2 Dominoes is a game in which players put dominoes onto a table in turn, usually by matching the number of spots. EG They played dominoes all night. N UNCOUNT

don /dɒn/, dons, donning, donned. 1 If you don clothing, you put it on; a fairly literary use. EG The other two men donned white cotton gloves. V + O = put on ≠ doff

2 A don is 2.1 a lecturer at Oxford or Cambridge University. EG Dons at Oxford are expected to live in college. 2.2 a lecturer at any university. EG ...a don at the Ankara faculty of political science. N COUNT N COUNT ⇑ teacher donate /dəʊneɪt/, donates, donating, donated. If you donate something to a person or an organization such as a charity, you give it to the person or organization without asking for anything in return. EG The van was donated to us by a local firm... It seemed unfair to ask my family to donate money to such a project. V + O : IF + PREP THEN to ≠ receive donation /dəʊneɪʃəⁿn/, donations. 1 A donation is something which someone gives to a charity or other organization that they wish to support. EG They received a large donation from one of the unions... He made a generous donation to our campaign fund... The rest of the money we get from donations. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN to/from ⇑ gift = contribution

2 The donation of something is the giving of it to a person or organization without asking for anything in return. EG Much was made of the donation of this sum of money. N UNCOUNT done /dʌn/. 1 Done is the past participle of do.

2 A task or activity that is done has been completed successfully. EG When her errand was done she ran home. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ⇑ finished

3 If you say that something is over and done with, you mean that it is completely finished and you do not want to have to think about it any more. EG The whole thing's over and done with. ● done to a turn: see turn. PHR : USED AS C have been offered or a bet that someone has made with you. EG 'Shall we say £20 then?'–'Done!'

4 You say 'done' when you are accepting a deal you CONVENTION

Don Juan /dɒn dʒuːən/, Don Juans. A Don Juan is a man who has seduced many women. N COUNT donkey /dɒŋkiˡ/, donkeys. 1 A donkey is an animal which is like a horse but which is smaller and has longer ears. N COUNT ⇑ ass

2 If you say that someone can talk the hind legs off a donkey, you mean that they talk a great deal without stopping and without letting other people say anything; an informal expression. EG My aunt could talk the hind legs off a donkey! PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 If you say that something has been happening for donkey's years, you mean that it has been happening for a very long time; an informal expression. EG He introduced me to a friend he'd known for donkey's years... She's been there donkey's years. PHR : USED AS AN A = ages donkey jacket, donkey jackets; also spelled with a hyphen. A donkey jacket is a thick, warm jacket, which workmen often wear. N COUNT donkey work is hard work which is not very interesting; used in informal English. EG Nobody tells me anything that's interesting. I just do the donkey work. N UNCOUNT = drudgery donnish /dɒnɪʃ/. Someone who is donnish is considered to be rather serious and clever; used in British English. EG I hope you're not too donnish, Tom. ▸ used of a person's behaviour. EG It seemed that he might look forward to a donnish life devoted to private study. ADJ QUALIT = studious ▸ ADJ QUALIT donor /dəʊnə/, donors. A donor is 1 someone who gives a part of their body or some of their blood to be used by doctors to help a person who is ill. EG There is still a shortage of kidney donors... ...a blood donor scheme. 2 someone who gives something to a charity or other organization that they wish to support. EG About half this amount comes from individual donors and bequests. N COUNT + SUPP ≠ recipient N COUNT ⇑ giver = benefactor don't /dəʊnt/ is the usual spoken form of 'do not'.

doodah /duːdɑː/, doodahs. You can use doodah to refer to something whose name you have forgotten or do not know; an informal word. EG Pass me the doodah will you? N COUNT ⇑ thing doodle /duːdəˡl/, doodles, doodling, doodled. 1 A doodle is a drawing or pattern that you make while you are thinking about something else or when you are bored. EG He made a few doodles with a ballpoint on the back of the bill. N COUNT

2 If you doodle, you make little drawings or patterns while you are thinking about something else, or when you are bored. EG I used to doodle on my papers. V ⇑ draw doom /duːm/, dooms, dooming, doomed. 1 Doom is a terrible future state or event which you cannot prevent. EG I felt a sense of doom... ...prophets of doom. N UNCOUNT ⇑ fate

2 To doom someone or something means to cause them to have a very unpleasant or disastrous future which they cannot avoid. EG What doomed him was the verdict of 'guilty'... He was doomed to unemployment by his ill-health. V + O : IF + PREP THEN to OR + to-INF = condemn doomed /duːmd/. 1 If something is doomed to happen, or if you are doomed to a particular state, something unpleasant is certain to happen, and you can do nothing to prevent it. EG We are, most of us, doomed to unhappiness... He was doomed to be killed in a car crash. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to/to-INF ⇑ fated = destined

2 Someone or something that is doomed is certain to fail or be destroyed, whatever they do to try and prevent it. EG They informed the Prime Minister that his government was doomed... He was a propeller maker. Now that is a doomed trade if ever there was one. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ fated = ill-starred doomsday /duːmzdeɪ/. Doomsday is 1 a day or time when you know that something terrible or unpleasant will happen. EG Doomsday happens in every family sometimes. 2 in the Christian religion, the last day of the world, on which God will judge everyone. EG The trumpets of Doomsday will echo from the heavens... The Congress could howl till Doomsday with no hope of getting any more from the President. N UNCOUNT N PROPER door /dɔː/, doors. 1 A door is 1.1 a swinging or sliding piece of wood, glass, or metal, which is used to close the entrance to a building, room, cupboard, etc. EG My friend knocked on the door... I closed the door behind me... He opened the car door and got out... The police had gone around to the back door. 1.2 the space in a wall which a door can close and by which you enter a building or room. EG As they passed through the door, they saw Tom at the end of the room. 1.3 the entrance to a large building such as a shop, hotel, theatre, etc. EG I'll meet you outside the main door at ten o'clock... A crowd had gathered at the door. N COUNT ⇑ opening = doorway N COUNT

2 The word door is also used in the following expressions. 2.1 When you answer the door, you go and open the door because a visitor has knocked on it or rung the bell. 2.2 If you see someone to the door, you go to the door of your home, office, etc with a visitor when they leave. EG I will see you to the door. 2.3 If you show someone the door, you ask them to leave your home, office, etc because you are very angry with them. 2.4 If someone is on the door, they have the job of waiting by the door of a building such as a nightclub and collecting tickets or checking on the people who come in. EG There were two large men on the door. 2.5 If you shut or slam the door in someone's face, you prevent them from finding something out by refusing to give them information or to answer their questions. EG We tried to find out what really happened, but doors were constantly shut in our faces. 2.6 If something opens the door to a new situation, it makes that new situation possible. EG This new discovery will open the doors to prosperity. 2.7 If something closes the door on a possible situation or action, it makes it unlikely that that situation or action can happen. EG He closed the door on the possibility. 2.8 If someone gets in by the back door, they succeed in getting a job or entering a place by unofficial methods. 2.9 If you lay something at someone's door, you blame them and say that they were responsible for something unpleasant that has happened. EG Responsibility for the strike was laid at the door of the employers. 2.10 When you are out of doors, you are not inside a building, but in the open air. EG A great deal of time is spent out of doors, and the children lead an active, healthy life. 2.11 If you say that something happens two or three doors up or down, you mean that it happens in the house that is the second or third one away from yours as you go along the street; an informal expression. EG The man who lives three doors up complained about our dog. 2.12 The person who lives next door to you lives in the house or flat that is next to yours. EG You shouldn't have any problem with the people next door. 2.13 at death's door: see death. PHR : VB INFLECTS PHR : VB INFLECTS = see out PHR : VB INFLECTS PHR : USED AS AN A PHR : VB INFLECTS PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ obstruct PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ permit PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ prevent PHR : VB INFLECTS PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ attribute PHR : USED AS AN A ≠ indoors PHR : USED AS AN A PHR : USED AS AN A

3 from door to door. 3.1 If someone goes from door to door, they go along a street calling at each house in turn, trying to sell something or persuade people to vote for them. EG He went from door to door, trying to sell brushes. ● see also door-to-door. 3.2 If you talk about a journey or distance from door to door, you mean from the place where the journey starts to the place where it finishes. EG The journey took us three hours from door to door. PHR : USED AS AN A = house to house PHR : USED AS AN A doorbell /dɔːbɛl/, doorbells. A doorbell is a bell on the outside of a house which you can ring so that the people inside know that you are there and that you want to see them. N COUNT = bell door-handle, door-handles. A door-handle is the handle on a door which operates the mechanism that holds the door shut. You turn the door-handle to open or close the door. N COUNT doorknob /dɔːnɒb/, doorknobs. A doorknob is a round handle on a door which you turn in order to open the door or which you can hold when you close the door. N COUNT ⇑ knob doorman /dɔːməˡn/, doormen. A doorman is a person whose job is to stay by the main entrance of a large building, and who opens and closes the door for people, or who helps visitors to the building. N COUNT ⇑ guard doormat /dɔːmæt/, doormats. A doormat is 1 a mat which you put by a door so that people can wipe their shoes on it before coming into the house or room. 2 someone who lets other people treat them badly, and who does not complain; an informal expression. EG Ever since then you've treated me like a doormat. N COUNT N COUNT ⇑ weakling doorstep /dɔːstɛp/, doorsteps. A doorstep is a step in front of a door that leads into a building from the outside. ● If something is on your doorstep, it is N COUNT = step ● PHR : USED AS very near to where you live. EG He certainly didn't want an airport on his doorstep. AN A ↑ close doorstop /dɔːstɒp/, doorstops. A doorstop is something such as a heavy object or a special hook that you use to keep a door open and prevent it closing. N COUNT door-to-door. Door-to-door activities involve going from one house to another along a street, for example in order to try and sell something. EG ...a door-to-door salesman. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = house-to-house doorway /dɔːweɪ/, doorways. A doorway is a space in a wall where a door opens and closes and through which you enter a building or room. EG A child stood in the doorway. N COUNT ↑ opening dope /dəʊp/, dopes, doping, doped. 1 In informal English, dope is 1.1 an illegal drug such as marijuana or cannabis. EG ...twelve year old dope addicts... ...streets free of crime and dope peddling. 1.2 a medicine or drug. EG ...enough dope to knock the average man unconscious. 1.3 information that you are not really supposed to have, but which you get from someone who you can trust. EG We got the dope on the latest offer from Morgan. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT / N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN on = gen, info

2 If someone dopes a person or an animal, they give them a drug that will improve their ability, for example in a race or other sporting competition. EG They discovered that the horse had been doped. V + O

3 If someone dopes you or dopes your food or drink, they put a drug into your food or drink in order to make you unconscious for a while, usually because they have bad intentions towards you. EG He doped her drink... She had been doped and kidnapped. V + O

4 If someone is doped or is doped up, they are in a state where they cannot think clearly because they are under the influence of drugs. EG The girls were doped to the eyeballs... They are all so doped up they wouldn't know a war had started. V + O : ONLY PASS, OR PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, ONLY PASS

5 A dope is a person who you think is stupid. EG This is what the guy means, isn't it, you dope... What did that dumb dope mean saying it was nothing important?. N COUNT : ALSO VOC = idiot dopey /dəʊpi[1]/; an informal word. Someone who is dopey is 1 sleepy, as though they have been drugged. EG Luckily for Louisa she just felt dopey when she woke up the next morning... They were still too dopey to take any notice of us. 2 rather silly. EG She's all right, but her brother's a bit dopey. ADJ QUALIT = groggy / ADJ QUALIT ↑ idiotic dorm /dɔːm/, dorms. A dorm is the same as a dormitory; an informal word. N COUNT

dormancy /dɔːmənsi[1]/ is the state of being dormant; a formal word. N UNCOUNT ↑ inactivity dormant /dɔːmənt/. Something that is dormant is not active, growing or being used at the present time but able to be active later on. Animals, plants, volcanoes and organizations can be dormant, but not humans. EG The idea had lain dormant in Britain during the fifties... He proposed to mobilise this dormant reserve of experience... The fertilised egg in the uterus still remains dormant. ADJ CLASSIF ↑ inactive dormer /dɔːmə/, dormers. A dormer or dormer window is a window that is built upright in a sloping roof. N COUNT

dormitory /dɔːmə[1]tə[ə]ri[1]/, dormitories. 1 A dormitory is 1.1 a large bedroom where several people sleep, for example in a boarding school. EG I lay in bed in the dormitory crying under the sheet. 1.2 a building in a college or university where students live; used in American English. N COUNT / N COUNT ↑ hostel

2 Most of the people who live in a dormitory town or suburb travel to work in another, larger town nearby; used in British English. EG Basingstoke is trying to get rid of its image as a dormitory town... ...a dormitory suburb. N BEFORE N ↑ subsidiary dormouse /dɔːmaʊs/, dormice. A dormouse is a small mouse which is found in southern England and Wales. People think of it as being a very sleepy animal. N COUNT ↑ rodent dorsal /dɔːsə[ə]l/. Dorsal means relating to the back of a fish or animal; a technical word. EG Its dorsal fin broke water. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

dosage /dəʊsɪdʒ/, dosages. A dosage is the total amount of a medicine or drug that should be taken over a period of time. EG It should be administered in 25 mg tablets, with a maximum daily dosage of 150 mg. N COUNT : USU SING dose /dəʊs/, doses, dosing, dosed. 1 A dose is 1.1 a measured amount of a medicine or other substance which is intended to be taken at one time. EG She refused her daily dose of medicine... This is lethal to rats in small doses. 1.2 an amount of something unpleasant which you have to accept even though you do not want to. EG Newspapers dispensed large doses of nationalism to their readers during the war. N COUNT / N COUNT : SUPP

2 If you dose someone or dose yourself, you give someone a certain amount of a medicine or drug, or take a certain amount of it yourself. EG Of course he drank, and he dosed himself with pills... Feverish patients were dosed with quinine. V + O (NG: REFL) : IF + PREP THEN with ↑ administer dose up. If you dose someone up, you give them a large amount of a medicine or drug. EG We'll dose her up with it and see how she responds. PHRASAL VB : V + O (NG: REFL) : ADV

doss down /dɒs daʊn/, dosses down, dossing down, dossed down. If you doss down somewhere, you sleep there for a short time, usually in an uncomfortable place; an informal expression, used in British English. EG ...a rusty stretcher where he had dossed down once or twice. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

dosser /dɒsə/, dossers. A dosser is a city person who does not have a permanent home and sleeps outside in the streets or in cheap and uncomfortable hotels; an informal word, used in British English. N COUNT ↑ tramp doss-house, doss-houses; also spelled without a hyphen. A doss-house is a kind of cheap hotel in a city for people who have no home and very little money; an informal expression, used in British English. N COUNT ↑ lodging dossier /dɒsɪeɪ, -sɪə/, dossiers. A dossier is a collection of papers containing information on a particular event, or on a person such as a criminal or a spy. EG All records of all meetings, files, and dossiers must be destroyed... We have a hefty dossier on his exploits in the war. N COUNT dot /dɒt/, dots, dotting, dotted. 1 A dot is 1.1 a very small round mark which is used, for example, as the top part of the letter i, as a full stop, or as a decimal point. EG She painted little black dots for the clown's eyes... ...parallel lines and rows of dots. 1.2 something that is very small or distant and which looks like a dot. EG Beneath the smoke was a dot that might have been a ship... A dot of light glowed on the roof. 1.3 the small round mark which is used to represent the short sound in Morse code. N COUNT / N COUNT = speck, spot / N COUNT

2 If you dot something, you put a very small, round mark on it or above it. For example, when you write the letter 'i', you dot it. ● If you dot the i's and cross the t's, you deal with all the remaining small details that need to be dealt with before something is completely finished. EG They'd want to dot the i's and cross the t's before signing the agreement. V + O / ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 When things dot a place or an area, they are scattered or spread all over it. EG Countless fishing villages dot the coast. ◊ dotted. EG The hills are dotted with quiet little towns. V + O = speck / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : PRED : with

4 If you arrive somewhere on the dot, you arrive there at exactly the time that you were supposed to. EG She'll be here on the dot. PHR : USED AS AN A

5 The year dot is used in informal English to mean a very long time ago. EG Way back in the year dot, we all ate with our fingers. PHR : USED AS O dotage /dəʊtɪdʒ/. If someone is in their dotage, they are very old and becoming weak. EG Will you look after me in my dotage? PHR : USED AS AN A dote /dəʊt/, dotes, doting, doted. If you dote on someone or something, you show them a great deal of love and care to an extent which other people think is excessive. EG The Duchess of Marlborough doted on him. V + A (on/upon) ≠ loathe doting /dəʊtɪŋ/ means showing a lot of love for someone or something. EG Parents used to buy extra copies to send to doting relatives elsewhere. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = adoring dotted /dɒti[2]d/. 1 Dotted lines are lines which are made of a row of dots. EG The boundaries are shown on the map by dotted lines . ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ≠ continuous

2 If you sign on the dotted line, you formally agree to something that has been suggested to you, often by actually signing an official document. EG Getting them to sign on the dotted line won't be easy. PHR : VB INFLECTS ↑ agree

3 Something that is dotted is covered with large dots. EG ...a dotted red bow-tie. ● See also dot. ADJ CLASSIF = spotted dotty /dɒti[1]/, dottier, dottiest; used in informal British English. 1 Someone who is dotty is slightly mad or likely to do strange things. EG The old girl is ADJ QUALIT = nutty slightly dotty... She really could be very dotty sometimes.

2 If you are dotty about something, you are very enthusiastic about it. EG Her uncle was still dotty about roses. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + about = crazy double /dʌbə^{0}l/, doubles, doubling, doubled. 1 If you say that something is double the amount, size, strength, etc, of something else, you mean that it is twice as large or twice as strong as the other thing or amount. EG The boy was double the size of his sister... They need to eat double that amount... He'll think we're millionaires and start charging us double... We paid her double what she was getting before... If you buy them in Egypt you pay double or three times as much as you pay here. PREDET OR QUANTIF ≠ half

2 Double is used to describe something which 2.1 is twice as large in amount, number, or size as it was or as it usually is. EG They are aiming for a double share of the market by 1989. 2.2 includes or is made of two things of the same kind. EG The double doors facing the window were open... The egg had a double yolk... It is illegal in Britain to park on double yellow lines. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ≠ half

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ≠ single

2.3 is intended to be used by two people. EG The house has three double bedrooms... Double tickets for the dance are £15 each. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

2.4 is in two layers instead of one, because it has been folded. EG The blanket had been folded double. ADJ CLASSIF

3 A double whisky, double gin, etc has two measures in the same glass. EG I ordered a double vodka and orange. ▸ used as a noun. EG A bottle of whisky was produced and three doubles were poured. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

▸ N COUNT

4 Double is used when you are spelling a word or telling someone a number to show that a letter or digit is repeated. EG 'Apple' is spelt a, double p, l, e... My phone number is 9, double 3, 2, 4. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ twice

5 When something doubles or when you double it, it becomes twice as great in number, amount or size. EG The world population is doubling every thirty-five years... The average baby doubles its birth weight at about five months. V ERG ⇑ increase ≠ halve

6 If you double something, you fold it in half so that you make two layers. EG She doubled the blanket before putting it on the bed. V + O

7 A double is 7.1 someone who replaces an actor or actress, for example during dangerous parts of a film or play. EG My first job was as Sophia Loren's double in an air-crash scene. 7.2 someone who looks exactly like another person. EG I saw your double in the street last night. N COUNT ⇑ substitute = stand-in

N COUNT : POSS + N = twin

8 If a person or thing doubles as someone or something else, they have a second job or purpose as well as their main one. EG Her secretary doubled as her housekeeper... This bedroom doubles as a study. V + A (as) ⇑ deputize

9 If you double, you change direction suddenly. EG The tiny animal doubles, stops, and then finally runs back. V ⇑ turn

10 Doubles is a game, for example in tennis or badminton, in which two teams of two players play against each other on the same court. EG Didn't Roche and Newcombe win the doubles that year?... I enjoy playing doubles. N UNCOUNT ≠ singles

11 If you do something at the double or on the double, you do it very quickly or immediately; an informal expression. EG They marched down the street at the double... We shall have to go on the double. PHR : USED AS AN A double back. If you double back, you turn and go back in the direction that you came from. EG When nobody was watching, they doubled back. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ return double back on. When a line doubles back on itself, it bends in the middle, so that the second half of it is parallel to the first half. EG The queue doubled back on itself. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP double up. 1 If you double up, you use the same thing, for example the same room or car, as someone else. EG There weren't enough offices for everyone, so we had to double up. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ share

12 If you are seeing double, there is something wrong with your eyes, and you can see two images instead of one. EG He began to see double. PHR : VB INFLECTS

13 When you bend double, you bend the top half of your body downwards a long way. EG Jack was bent double... The guitar player bent double over her instrument. PHR : VB INFLECTS

14 in double figures: see figure.

2 If something doubles you up, or if you double up or double over, you bend your body quickly or violently, for example because you are laughing a lot or because you are feeling a lot of pain. EG He doubled up with laughter, holding his stomach... I was doubled up in pain... She was doubled over, her whole face distorted with pain. PHRASAL VB : V·ERG + ADV double agent, double agents. A double agent is someone who works as a spy for a particular country or organization, but who also works for its enemies. N COUNT double-barrelled; also spelled double-barreled in American English. 1 A gun that is double-barrelled has two barrels. ADJ CLASSIF

2 A name that is double-barrelled has two parts which are joined by a hyphen, for example 'Miss J. Heydon-Smith'. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ hyphenated double bass, double basses. A double bass is the largest musical instrument in the violin family. N COUNT double bed, double beds. A double bed is a bed that is designed for two people to sleep in. N COUNT double bill, double bills. A double bill is a theatre or cinema performance in which there are two main items on the programme. N COUNT double bluff, double bluffs. A double bluff is an attempt to deceive someone by saying exactly what you intend to do when you know that they will assume you are lying. EG Perhaps, he thought, it was a kind of double bluff. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ deception double-breasted. A jacket or coat that is double-breasted has two very wide sections at the front which overlap when you button them up. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ single-breasted double-check, double-checks, double-checking, double-checked; also spelled without a hyphen, especially when used as a noun. If you double-check something, you examine or test it a second time to make sure that it is completely correct, safe, etc. EG She double-checked her bag to make sure she'd got everything. ▸ used as a noun. EG In spite of all his double-checks, he hadn't noticed that the door wasn't locked. V OR V + O/ REPORT-CL double chin, double chins. A double chin is a fold of loose skin under the chin. EG He had a red-tipped nose and the hint of a double chin. N COUNT : USU SING double cream is very thick cream; used in British English. N UNCOUNT double-cross, double-crosses, double-crossing, double-crossed; also spelled without a hyphen. If someone double-crosses you, they pretend to you that they are doing what you had planned or agreed together, when in fact they are doing the opposite; an informal expression. EG You want me to double-cross the man I work for? ▸ used as a noun. EG I suddenly realized that it was a double-cross. V + O ⇑ betray double-dealing is behaviour which is deliberately deceitful. EG They even accused each other of double-dealing. N UNCOUNT = duplicity double-decker, double-deckers. 1 A double-decker or double-decker bus is a bus that has two floors. N COUNT

▸ N COUNT

▸ N COUNT

2 Double-decker items or structures have two layers instead of one. EG ...a double-decker sandwich. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB double Dutch; also spelled with a hyphen. Double Dutch is talk or writing that you cannot understand at all; an informal expression in British English. EG It all sounded a bit like double-Dutch to me. N UNCOUNT = gibberish double-edged. 1 A comment that is double-edged can be understood in two different ways, so that you can, for example, say something which sounds like a compliment but which is in fact quite rude. EG She made a very double-edged remark about my work. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ ambiguous = barbed double entendre /du:bə^{0}l ɑ:ntɑ:ndrə/, double entendres; also spelled with a hyphen. A double entendre is a word or phrase that has two meanings, one of which is not polite and often sexual; used mainly in formal or literary English. EG They mouthed outrageous double-entendres in crystal clear Edwardian accents. N COUNT double-glaze, double-glazes, double-glazing, double-glazed. If you double-glaze a house or a window, you fit the windows with a second layer of glass in order to keep the inside of the house warmer or quieter. EG Is it really worth double-glazing your house? V + O

2 A blade that is double-edged has two sharp edges. ADJ CLASSIF

double-glazing consists of the second layers of glass which you fit to each of the windows in a house in order to keep the inside of the house warmer or N UNCOUNT quieter. EG The additional cost of building a house with double-glazing is very small indeed.

double-jointed. Fingers that are double-jointed can bend easily both backwards and forwards. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ flexible double negative, double negatives. A double negative is a grammatical construction in which two negatives are used. In English, only one negative is needed, and double negatives, for example 'I didn't never say that', are considered to be incorrect. N COUNT double-park, double-parks, double-parking, double-parked. If someone double-parks, they park a car in a road by the side of another parked car, with the result that the other car is prevented from driving away. V OR V + O ⇑ park double-quick. If something happens double-quick or in double-quick time, it happens very quickly indeed. EG The police arrived double-quick, and arrested him... They had the rest of us locked up in double-quick time. ADV, OR ADJ CLASSIF double room, double rooms. A double room is a bedroom for two people, especially in a hotel. N COUNT double standard, double standards. A double standard is a set of principles that allows more freedom of behaviour to one group of people than to another. EG There were inequalities between men and women and a double standard of morality. N COUNT doublet /dʌblɪt/, doublets. A doublet is a short, tight-fitting jacket which was worn by men in former times. N COUNT double-take, double-takes; also spelled without a hyphen. If you do a double-take, you react to something only after a delay. EG When I told him the news, he did a double take. PHR : VB INFLECTS double-talk; also spelled without a hyphen. Double-talk is talk that can deceive people or is difficult to understand because the things which are said have two possible meanings. N UNCOUNT double vision is a medical condition that makes you see a single object as two separate objects, and that is caused by an illness or by drinking too much alcohol. EG He suffered from double vision. N UNCOUNT doubly /dʌbli/. You use doubly 1 to emphasize that something exists or happens to a greater degree than usual. EG We were doubly disappointed that Jane didn't come either... They were doubly confident after this that he would win. 2 to show that there are two aspects or features that are having an influence on a particular situation. EG He is doubly disadvantaged, both by his age and his nationality... When inflation is accompanied by unemployment, this is doubly true. ADV ⇑ especially / ADV ⇑ twice over doubt /daʊt/, doubts, doubting, doubted. 1 A doubt about something is a feeling of uncertainty about it, for example not knowing whether it is true or possible. EG There was still a doubt in my mind... Both these claims raise doubts... Frank had no doubts about the outcome of the trial... ...but we have serious doubts. ▸ used as an uncount noun. EG As I drove to East London I had moments of doubt that I was doing the right thing. N COUNT : USU PL, IF + PREP, THEN about = misgiving ≠ certainty / ▸ N UNCOUNT

2 Doubt is used in the following phrases: 2.1 If you say that there is no doubt or little doubt or not much doubt about something, you mean that you feel certain that what you are saying is true. EG There's no doubt that it's going to be difficult... There is little doubt about what is being portrayed. 2.2 If you say no doubt about it, you are confirming that something is definitely true. EG Rose was mad, there was no doubt about it. 2.3 If you say that you have no doubt about something, you mean that you feel certain about it. EG They were, I have no doubt, quite indifferent to you... I have no doubt that there will be plenty of youngsters... So if it is a revolution, and I have no doubt that it is, how do we stand in this country? 2.4 If something leaves no doubt that something is true, it makes it completely clear or obvious that it is true. EG The marks left no doubt that the boy had died a violent death. 2.5 You use the expressions without doubt, without a doubt, and without a slightest doubt to emphasize that what you are saying is definitely true. EG Hugh Scanlon became without doubt one of the most powerful men in Britain... My experience tells me that without the slightest doubt this wood has been processed with lime. 2.6 If something is shown or proved to be true beyond all doubt or beyond a doubt, it is shown to be definitely true. EG We have established the ownership beyond all doubt. 2.7 If something is in doubt or open to doubt, it is considered to be uncertain or unreliable. EG Devaluation had put Concorde's future in doubt... Its effectiveness is not in doubt. 2.8 To cast doubt on something means to cause people to suspect that it might not be true or reliable. EG The new evidence cast overwhelming doubt on Christine's story. 2.9 If you are in doubt about something, you feel unsure or uncertain about it. EG ...but do check if you're in any doubt... I was left in no doubt that the weather had indeed deteriorated... If in doubt, try the Royal Free Hospital... When in doubt, trust your instincts. 2.10 If you say that you have your doubts about something, you mean that you do not think it is completely convincing and find it hard to accept. EG I must admit I had my doubts... I continued to have my doubts about this... I had my doubts, but dutifully signed the form. 2.11 If you give someone the benefit of the doubt, you accept that what they say is true, although you are not completely convinced by it. EG They decided to give the President the benefit of the doubt. PHR : USED AS AN A / ⇑ unsure / PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP, THEN on / PHR : USED AS AN A, IF + PREP, THEN about/as to / PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + A (about)/ REPORT CL / PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 You use no doubt 3.1 to say that you think that something is certain or very likely. EG As Jennifer has no doubt told you, we are leaving tomorrow... These are problems I have discussed before, and no doubt will discuss again. 3.2 to suggest that, although you accept that something is probably true, you do not think that it is very important. EG This is no doubt true enough within certain limits, but we cannot accept it wholeheartedly... All this is, no doubt, wise advice, yet nobody seems to pay any attention to my feelings about it. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = undoubtedly / PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

4 If you doubt whether something is true or possible, you believe that it is probably not true or possible. EG I very much doubt whether they knew... I doubt if they will ever want vanilla pudding again... Maybe he changed his mind, but I doubt it... I began to seriously doubt that it would be possible to elude the police. V + REPORT-CL ⇑ disbelieve ≠ believe

5 If you doubt something, you believe that it might not be true or genuine. EG They inwardly doubted the facts... Some of our members doubt the value of demonstrations... He had the courage to doubt, where all the others piously believed. V, OR V + O ⇑ disbelieve = mistrust

6 If you doubt someone or doubt their word, you think that they are perhaps not telling the truth. EG Why should I doubt him?... I apologized for having doubted his word. V + O ⇑ disbelieve = mistrust doubter /daʊtə/, doubters. A doubter is someone who has doubts, especially about their religion or a political system. N COUNT ≠ believer doubtful /daʊtfʊl/. 1 Something that is doubtful 1.1 seems unlikely or uncertain. EG The organisation has a doubtful future... How long this would continue into the future was doubtful... It is doubtful, however, whether the Chairman would approve. 1.2 does not seem genuine. EG She is being offered a painting with a doubtful signature. ◊ doubtfully. EG A magnificent painted ceiling, doubtfully ascribed to Holbein, survives. ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED = debatable / ADJ QUALIT = questionable / ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 If you are doubtful about something, you feel unsure or uncertain about it. EG I was a little doubtful about accepting... He was doubtful that he could ever manage it... Segal is doubtful whether we're meant to take all this very seriously. ◊ doubtfully. EG Ralph looked at him doubtfully. ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED + A (about/of)/ REPORT-CL = dubious / ◊ ADV + VB

Doubting Thomas /daʊtɪŋ tɒməˢs/, Doubting Thomases. A Doubting Thomas is a person who refuses to believe something until they see full proof or evidence of it. N COUNT ⇑ doubter doubtless /daʊtlɪˢs/ means probably or quite certainly. EG But he prospers, doubtless because of a certain strain of ruthlessness... She made a detailed point which, though doubtless true, did not advance the argument. ADV SEN, OR ADV = no doubt dough /dəʊ/, doughs. Dough is 1 a fairly firm mixture of flour, water, and sometimes also sugar and fat, which can be cooked, with various other ingredients, to make things such as pastry, bread, or biscuits. EG He began to shape the dough into rolls. 2 money; an informal word. EG How the hell could we scrape up enough dough to pay him off. N MASS / N UNCOUNT = cash doughnut /dəʊnʌt/, doughnuts. A doughnut is a small cake of sweet, bread-like dough cooked in hot fat. Doughnuts usually have a filling of jam or cream. N COUNT

Some are in the shape of a ring with a hole in the middle.

doughty /daʊti[1]/, doughtier, doughtiest. Someone who is doughty is brave, determined, and not easily defeated; an old-fashioned word. EG ...such a doughty fighter. — ADJ QUALIT = staunch doughy /dəʊi[1]/, doughier, doughiest. Something that is doughy has a thick and sticky texture, like dough. EG The old man took up the doughy mass and placed it upon the hot stone. — ADJ QUALIT dour /dʊə/. Someone who is dour has a rather severe and unfriendly manner. EG ...the dour little preacher... Harris had been dour when they last met. ▸ used of someone's expression or behaviour. EG When she faced me again, it was with her usual dour expression. — ADJ QUALIT = sullen ▸ ADJ QUALIT dourly /dʊəli[1]/. If you smile or say something dourly, you smile or say it in a way that makes you seem rather severe and unfriendly. EG 'Yes,' said Christopher, smiling dourly. — ADV WITH VB

douse /daʊs/, douses, dousing, doused; also spelled dowse. 1 If you douse a fire or a light, you stop it burning or shining. EG He doused the lamp, and we made our way back to the house. — V + O ⇑ extinguish = put out

2 If you douse someone or something, you throw a lot of water or other liquid over them. EG His head had been doused with water... She had doused herself with perfume. — V + O ⇑ wet = drench dove, doves. The word dove is pronounced /dʌv/ for paragraphs 1 and 2, and /dəʊv/ for paragraph 3. 1 A dove is a bird of the pigeon family which makes a soft cooing sound. Doves are often used as a symbol of peace. EG There were white doves on the lawn. — N COUNT

2 If you call someone, especially a politician, a dove, you mean that they are in favour of taking a peaceful and trustful attitude towards rivals in international affairs. — N COUNT ⇑ pacifist ≠ hawk

3 Dove is the past tense of dive in American English.

dovecote /dʌvkɒt/, dovecotes; also spelled dovecot. A dovecote is a box, shelter, or part of a house built for doves or pigeons to live in. — N COUNT dove-grey means greyish brown in colour. EG The sky had been a dull dove-grey... ...an elegant document printed on dove-grey paper. — ADJ COLOUR, OR N UNCOUNT ⇑ grey dovetail /dʌvteɪl/, dovetails, dovetailing, dovetailed. 1 If two things dovetail or if one thing dovetails with another, the two things fit together or are compatible with each other in a very neat way. EG The two schedules dovetailed together without friction... Every scientist feels elated when the numbers dovetail. — V OR V + A (with) : RECIP = match

2 A dovetail or dovetail joint is a wedge-shaped joint used in carpentry for fitting two pieces of wood tightly together. — N COUNT

dowager /daʊədʒə/, dowagers. A dowager is 1 a woman who has received a title from her dead husband. EG ...the dowager Countess of Derby. 2 a rich or grand-looking old lady. EG ...like one of those old dowagers taking the waters. — N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES — N COUNT dowdy /daʊdi[1]/, dowdier, dowdiest. If someone is dowdy, they are wearing dull and unfashionable clothes. EG She felt dowdy as she came through the door. — ADJ QUALIT ≠ chic, smart dowel /daʊəl/, dowels. A dowel is a short, thin piece of wood or metal which is used for joining larger pieces of wood or metal together. — N COUNT ⇑ pin down /daʊn/, downs, downing, downed. 1 Down is used in phrasal verbs, for example 'bring down' and 'water down', and after some other verbs such as 'calm', 'close', and 'write'. See individual verb and phrasal verb entries for such uses, which are not treated here.

2 Down is used when you refer to movement or position in the following ways: 2.1 to say that something moves in a direction that is towards the ground or towards a lower level. EG Do you need help in lifting your suitcase down from the rack?... I was about to slam the car door, wind down the glass, wave to Louise... It rolled along the pavement and then disappeared down a drain... The rain came down in sheets... I managed to creep down into the living room without anyone seeing me... She pulled up her sock, which had slipped down. 2.2 to say that you are looking or pointing in a direction that is towards the ground or towards a lower level. EG She nodded and looked down... She had her head down and she didn't see him... The dog lopes back, its tail hanging down. 2.3 to say that something moves through, along, or in something in a direction that is towards a lower level. EG They walked down the stone steps leading to the river bank... The van started to roll down the hill. 2.4 to say that something is facing towards the ground. EG Philip lay face down on the floor. 2.5 to say that something is situated in a position that is lower than where you are or lower in relation to something else. EG Can you see anything down there?... He could see the house down below, at the bottom of the hill. 2.6 to say that something is destroyed or damaged and falls to the ground. EG Once he built a house in a week. It fell down a week later... Two men are trying to cut down a very large tree... It seems that he burnt down his school when he was seventeen. 2.7 to say that something is lower or closer to the ground by a particular number of levels. EG The salt is on the third shelf down... ...the documentation department three floors down. 2.8 to say that something extends from the top of something else towards or to the bottom of it. EG ...a jumper with a stripe down the middle... A girl with a blonde pigtail down her back came out of the house next door... She was running her finger down a list of names. 2.9 to say that something is put onto a surface. EG Put that book down a second and look at this... David slammed the phone down angrily. 2.10 to say that you eat or drink something, or that it remains in your stomach, especially when you feel ill and have difficulty in eating or drinking without being sick. EG He bravely drank it down... I'm finding it hard to get food down... This time the cognac stayed down. 2.11 to say that something has been folded into an appropriate closed or open position. EG ...driving your sports car around Britain with the roof down, soaking up the sun.

— PREP ≠ up — ADJ AFTER N = downwards — PREP, OR ADV ≠ up — ADV AFTER VB — ADV AFTER N ≠ up — PREP, OR ADV AFTER VB — ADV AFTER VB — PREP, OR ADV AFTER VB — ADV AFTER VB, OR ADV AFTER N ≠ up

3 If something or someone moves up and down, 3.1 they go repeatedly upwards and then downwards. EG I was so happy I jumped up and down and shouted. 3.2 they move repeatedly in one direction and then in the opposite direction. EG The prisoner marched boldly up and down... She was looking up and down the main street.

— PHR : USED AS AN A — PHR, OR PHR + NG : USED AS AN A

4 Down also means 4.1 along a river or stream in the direction that is towards the sea. EG We can go down the river on a boat and have a picnic. 4.2 along a road, path, etc towards another place. EG He walked down the road reading a newspaper... 'Where is it?'–'Down the corridor on the left, sir'... The library is halfway down the street on the left hand side. 4.3 to or in another place, especially one which is thought of as being lower on a map or as being in the south. EG Arthur and Mary decided to travel down by coach... Did you have a good trip down?... It's more expensive down south... ...the consultant down here who got interested is a Mr Baillie... There's a man down in Baltimore who does that. 4.4 to or in a particular place; used in informal spoken English. EG I'm going down the pub... I'm sure I could get a job down London.

— PREP ≠ up — PREP — ADV AFTER VB, OR PREP — PREP

5 If an amount of something is down or goes down, it is decreasing or has been reduced. EG One thing is sure, prices never go down... Sheila said that she was trying to get her weight down... ...you can keep down consumption of goods... Tourism is down 40 percent... By the time a baby is 6 months old, the average weight gain is down to a pound a month.

— ADV AFTER VB ≠ up

6 You also use down 6.1 to say that something has continued throughout a particular period of time. EG It had been occupied as a palace by all our kings and queens down to James I... There has been a chapel here down all the years my family has lived in this house. 6.2 to say that something involves all the levels of a hierarchy from the highest ones to the lowest. EG ...everyone from the managing director down.

— ADV : PREP, OR PREP = through — ADV AFTER N ≠ up

7 If something is down on paper, it is written on it. EG That date wasn't down on our news sheet. — ADJ CLASSIF : PRED : PREP

8 If you are down for something, your name is on a list for that particular thing and so it is planned that you will do it. EG Well, I'm down for physics but not on Wednesdays. — PREP ⇑ registered

9 If you say 'Down!' to a dog, you are telling it to sit or lie. EG Down, boy! — CONVENTION

10 If you say 'Down with' something or someone, you — PHR + NG

are saying that you dislike them and want to get rid of them. EG Down with Imperialism!

11 In a game or competition, if someone is down by a particular number of points, they are losing by that number of points. EG Eastfield were two down at half-time. ADV AFTER VB ≠ up

12 If you say that there are a particular number of things down and a particular number to go, you are saying how many of the things have already been dealt with and how many remain to be dealt with. EG One down, five to go. CONVENTION ↑ finished

13 If something is true down to or right down to the details that you are mentioning, it is true including even those small details. EG She could describe what the other women in the room are wearing, right down to the colour of their stockings. PREP

14 If you down food or drink, you eat or drink it quickly. EG I poured him a glass of Scotch and he downed it at a gulp. V + O ↑ swallow

15 If you are down with an illness, you have that illness; an informal use. EG She's down with the flu... He came down with appendicitis. ADV : VB + ADV : with ↑ ill

16 If you are feeling down, you are feeling unhappy; used in informal English. EG I'm feeling a bit down today. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = depressed

17 If you have a down on someone, you disapprove of them or do not like them. EG Everybody seems to have a down on the unfortunate director. PHR : VB INFLECTS

18 If a computer system is down, it is not functioning and so you cannot use it. EG The computer's down again. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ↑ unavailable

19 The Downs are an area of low grassy hills in the South of England. EG They all enjoy walking enormous distances over the Downs... ...the South Downs. N PLURAL : USU the + N

20 Down is 20.1 small soft feathers that grow on young birds and that are sometimes used to fill duvets or quilts. EG The chicks are covered with down when they emerge from the egg. 20.2 very fine hair. EG ...the fine down on her cheek. N UNCOUNT down-and-out, down-and-outs. A down-and-out is a person who has no job and no home and who has no hope of getting work or finding somewhere to live. EG His research took him among the down-and-outs in the city of Liverpool. N COUNT = tramp down at heel; also spelled with hyphens. Someone or something that is down at heel looks in bad condition, because of lack of money. EG He looked somewhat down at heel... ...a crumbling, Victorian resort, slightly down at heel, full of ghosts. ADJ QUALIT = shabby ≠ new downbeat /daʊnbiːt/. Something or someone that is downbeat is deliberately casual and restrained; used in informal English. EG Johnny was hurt that Nino should be so downbeat. ADJ QUALIT downcast /daʊnkɑːst/. 1 If you are downcast, you are feeling sad and pessimistic. EG Cameron seemed unusually downcast and taciturn. ADJ QUALIT = dejected

21 ● ups and downs: see up.

2 If your eyes are downcast, you are looking towards the ground, usually because you are feeling sad or embarrassed. EG He stood still with his eyes downcast... With downcast eyes I explained that I was not the person they all thought I was. ADJ CLASSIF = lowered ≠ raised downer /daʊnə/, downers; used in informal English. 1 A downer is a drug that causes you to feel sleepy or very calm, for example a barbiturate drug. N COUNT ≠ upper

2 If you are on a downer, you are feeling depressed and pessimistic. PHR : USED AS AN A downfall /daʊnfɔːl/. 1 The downfall of an institution or person is their failure or ruin, when they have previously been successful or powerful. EG ...the downfall of a dictator. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS

2 Something that is the downfall of a particular person or thing is the thing that causes the person or thing to be ruined or to fail. EG Bad publicity was our downfall. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS ↑ ruin downgrade /daʊngreɪd/, downgrades, downgrading, downgraded; also spelled with a hyphen. If you downgrade something, you make it less important, less valuable, or less prestigious. EG The European allies were reluctant to downgrade the nuclear element in deterrence... We are downgrading the quality of our lives. V + O ↑ lower ≠ upgrade downhearted /daʊnhɑːtɪ²d/. If you are downhearted, you are feeling sad and discouraged. EG Don't be too downhearted. ADJ QUALIT ↑ depressed = dejected downhill /daʊnhɪl/. 1 If something is moving downhill, it is moving down a slope towards a lower point. ADV AFTER VB ↑ downwards

EG The children were racing downhill on their sledges.

2 Downhill skiing is skiing in which you go down a slope, especially a prepared slope. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

3 If a thing or situation is going downhill, it is changing and becoming less pleasant or less acceptable. EG Journalism is going downhill nowadays... Believe me, after age thirty it's all downhill. ADV AFTER VB

4 Downhill means easier to do or to manage than before. EG It was downhill all the way after that. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED

Downing Street is used to refer to the Prime Minister or the British government. EG The idea was not well received at Downing Street. N PROPER down-market; also spelled without a hyphen. Something such as a product or service that is down-market is popular and cheap and not very good in quality. EG We sell a lot of down-market books... Chichester has gone distinctly downmarket. ADJ QUALIT OR ADV AFTER VB ↑ lowbrow ≠ upmarket down payment, down payments; also spelled with a hyphen. A down payment is a sum of money which is part of the total cost of something and which is paid immediately when you buy the thing. The remaining amount can be paid later. N COUNT = deposit downpour /daʊnpɔː/, downpours. When there is a downpour, a lot of rain falls fast and heavily. EG It was the heaviest downpour ever recorded. N COUNT downright /daʊnraɪt/ is used to give emphasis to a particular aspect of a person or situation, especially one which is unpleasant or alarming. EG Some of the jobs were downright disgusting... ...accusing them of fraud, avarice, and downright misrepresentation. ADV. OR ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = out and out

Down's syndrome. If a baby is born with Down's syndrome, it has less than normal intelligence and develops a flat forehead and nose and sloping eyes. N UNCOUNT = mongolism downstairs /daʊnstɛəz/. 1 If you go downstairs in a building, you go down towards the ground floor, usually down a staircase. EG He went downstairs and into the kitchen. ADV AFTER VB ≠ upstairs

2 If something or someone is downstairs in a building, they are on the ground floor or on a lower floor than you are. EG Arthur isn't downstairs; he is asleep in bed... My aunt's photograph still stood on the piano downstairs. ADV AFTER VB, OR ADJ AFTER N ↑ below ≠ upstairs

3 A downstairs room or object is one which is situated on the ground floor or a lower floor of a building. EG Jenny's on the downstairs phone. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ upstairs

4 If you refer to a person downstairs, you are referring to someone who lives in a flat or room on the ground floor or on a lower floor of a building. EG I had to leave the baby with the woman downstairs. ADJ AFTER N ↑ below ≠ upstairs downstream /daʊnstriːm/ means towards or nearer to the mouth of a river, from a point further up the river. EG The soil from the river banks is washed downstream. ADV WITH VB ≠ upstream down-to-earth; also spelled without hyphens. Something or someone that is down-to-earth is concerned with doing practical things and solving problems in a practical way, rather than with abstract theories. EG ...his warm, down-to-earth manner... He had much more down-to-earth reasons. ADJ QUALIT ↑ realistic = practical downtown /daʊntaʊn/ means in or to the centre part of a large town or city, where the shops and places of business are. EG May has given up shopping in downtown Belfast... We went downtown to buy a new pair of shoes. ADV WITH VB, OR ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ↑ central downtrodden /daʊntrɒdə⁰n/. Downtrodden people have been oppressed so much that they no longer have the ability or the energy to rebel. EG This country has the most poverty-stricken and downtrodden population in the world. ADJ QUALIT = cowed downturn /daʊntɜːn/, downturns. A downturn is a decline in the economy or in the success of a company or industry. EG The downturn in inflation has only taken place in the last three months... There will be a similar downturn in manufacturing and industry. N COUNT : USU SING ≠ upturn down under; also spelled with a hyphen. Down under is used to refer to Australia or New Zealand; used in informal British English. EG ...my cousin from down under. PHR : USED AS O A downwards /daʊnwədz/; also downward. 1 If something moves, looks, etc downwards or downward, it moves or looks down towards the ground. EG He kept his head on one side as he spoke, looking downward... Beneath them lie more layers extending downwards for thousands of feet... Read from the top ADV AFTER VB, OR ADV AFTER N = down ≠ upward, upwards downwards... I saw my old dad lying face downward on the floor.

2 A downward movement or look moves or points down towards the ground. EG She made a bold downward stroke with the paint brush... ...a downward glance.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ upward

3 You use downwards or downward to say that something falls to a lower level or point on a scale. EG The nations of the West seem to have begun the slow spiral downwards into decay... The USA revised downward its grain output forecast... The long term trend in the male suicide rate is downwards.

ADV AFTER VB = down ≠ upward, upwards

▸ Downward can be used as an adjective. EG ...a downward trend in inflation... This can cause a downward spiral in economic activity.

▸ ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ≠ upward

downwind /daʊnwɪnd/. 1 If something moves downwind, it moves in the same direction as the direction the wind is blowing in. EG The sparks drifted downwind.

ADV AFTER VB ≠ upwind

2 If you are downwind of something, the wind passes over it before reaching you. EG He was downwind of the fire and could smell the food.

ADV AFTER VB : IF + PREP THEN of

downy /daʊni[1]/, downier, downiest. Something that is downy is I filled with or covered with small soft feathers. EG ...thick downy feather beds. 2 covered with very fine hairs. EG Her skin was slightly downy.

ADJ CLASSIF ; ADJ QUALIT ⇑ hairy

dowry /daʊəri[1]/, dowries. A woman's dowry is money and goods which are a gift from her father to the man that she marries. EG ...a carved chair which was part of Maria's dowry.

N COUNT ⇑ property

dowse /daʊz/, dowses, dowsing, dowsed. 1 When someone dowses, they search for underground water or minerals using a special stick called a divining rod.

V : USU + for

2 See also douse.

doyen /dɔɪən/, doyens; a fairly formal word. The doyen of a group or profession is the oldest and most experienced and respected member of it. EG ...the doyen of fashion journalism.

N COUNT : USU SING, the + N + of ⇑ veteran

doyenne /dɔɪən/, doyennes; a fairly formal word. The doyenne of a group or profession is the woman who is the oldest and most experienced and respected member of it.

N COUNT : USU SING, the + N + of ⇑ veteran

doz. is a written abbreviation for 'dozen'.

doze /dəʊz/, dozes, dozing, dozed. When you doze, you sleep lightly or for a short period, especially during the daytime. EG While the adults doze, the young play. ▸ used as a noun. EG I fell into a short doze at about ten o'clock.

V = snooze ; ▸ N COUNT = nap

doze off. If you doze off, you fall into a light sleep, especially during the daytime. EG He dozed off in front of the fire.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = nod off

dozen /dʌzᵊn/, dozens. Dozen is used as the plural form if it is preceded by a number or expression referring to a number. See □ at number and measurement. 1 If you have a dozen things, you have twelve of them. EG ...a dozen eggs... The drive was cluttered with half a dozen cars... ...a few dozen grass mats.

NUM : a/NUM + dozen

2 A dozen or dozens can be used to refer vaguely to a large number, usually when you are exaggerating. EG I've told you a dozen times now!... There had been dozens of attempts at reform.

NUM : BEFORE N, OR NUM IN PL, USED AS N PART = many

3 ● to talk nineteen to the dozen: see nineteen. ● See also baker's dozen.

dozy /dəʊzi[1]/, dozier, doziest. 1 If you are dozy, you are feeling sleepy and not very alert. EG They lay still and dozy for another hour or so.

ADJ QUALIT = drowsy

2 Someone who is dozy is rather stupid and slow to understand things; an informal use. EG Not like that, you dozy fool!

ADJ QUALIT

Dr, Drs. Dr is a written abbreviation for 1 doctor; used before a person's name. EG Dr. Franz was an economist of some standing... ...Drs Miles, Dick, and Jamieson. 2 Drive; used in street names. EG ...Clarendon Dr.

N IN TITLES : HAS PL ; N IN NAMES

drab /dræb/, drabber, drabbest. 1 Something that is drab is dull and not exciting to look at or experience. EG We went into the drab old building... Life was now drab compared with the more exciting life style overseas. ◊ drabness. EG ...the ugliness and drabness of most people's surroundings.

ADJ QUALIT = dreary ≠ exciting ; ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Drab is a dull brown colour.

ADJ COLOUR

3 See also dribs and drabs.

drachma /drækmə/, drachmae, drachmas. The plural can be either drachmae or drachmas. The drachma is the unit of money used in Greece.

N COUNT

draconian /dreɪkəʊnɪən/. Draconian laws or measures are extremely harsh or drastic; used showing disapproval. EG There has been an overall growth in population, despite some draconian efforts to contain it.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ harsh

draft /drɑːft/, drafts, drafting, drafted. 1 A draft is an early version of a letter, book, or speech which you are going to write, containing only the broad ideas and not the details. EG He showed me the draft of an article he was writing... ...the change from the first draft to the final printed version.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ outline

2 When you draft a letter, book, or speech, you write the first version of it. EG They sat down and drafted a letter to the local newspaper... The President drafted a bill which he presented to Congress.

V + O = compose

3 The draft is the practice of ordering people to serve in the armed forces, usually for a limited period of time; used in American English. EG He left America so that he could avoid the draft... He received his draft card three months after he left school.

N SING : the + N = conscription

4 If you are drafted, you are ordered to serve in the armed forces; used in American English. EG I was drafted into the navy... He took a temporary job while he was waiting to be drafted.

V + O : USU PASS = conscripted

5 If you draft people somewhere, you move them to another place so that they can do a specific job. EG Extra staff were drafted from Paris to Rome to arrange the President's visit... He hoped to draft in a force of 20,000 guerrillas to help overthrow the government.

V + O, OR V + O + A (in)

6 A draft is also a written order for payment of money by a bank, especially from one bank to another. EG I arranged for a draft for £500 to be available in Rome... I was paid by draft... ...cheques, bankers' drafts, or letters of credit.

N COUNT, OR by + N

7 See also draught.

draft dodger, draft dodgers. A draft dodger is someone who avoids joining the armed forces when normally they would be obliged to join; used in American English.

N COUNT

draftee /drɑːftiː/, draftees. A draftee is a person who serves in the armed forces because they have been ordered to, rather than because they volunteered; used in American English.

N COUNT ⇑ soldier = conscript

draftsman /drɑːftsmən/, draftsmen. See draughtsman.

draftsmanship /drɑːftsmənʃɪp/. See draughtsmanship.

drafty /drɑːfti[1]/, draftier, draftiest. See draughty.

drag /dræg/, drags, dragging, dragged. 1 If you drag something along, you pull it along the ground slowly and with difficulty, usually because it is too heavy or too big to carry. EG He watched her drag a chair across the room to join them... He listened as the body was dragged up the stairs.

V + O : USU + A = lug, haul

2 If you drag someone or something into a particular place or position, you pull them there roughly and using force. EG He grabbed her and dragged her away... They overturned a car and dragged out the driver... A lot of the plants had been dragged up by the roots.

V + O + A = haul

3 If you drag someone somewhere they do not want to go, you make them go there. EG I'm sorry to drag you to the telephone, but something awful has happened.

V + O + A ⇑ take

4 If you drag your foot or another part of your body, you let it touch the ground and be pulled along behind you as you move. EG He moved slowly, dragging his sore foot... The bird tried to get him away from her nest by dragging a wing as if it had been injured.

V + O ⇑ pull = trail

5 If you drag yourself somewhere, you move there slowly and with difficulty. EG I was able to use the table to drag myself shakily to my feet... Even though she felt ill, she managed to drag herself down to the shops.

V + O (REFL) + A = force

6 If you drag along, drag around, etc, you go somewhere slowly, usually because you do not want to go. EG I dragged along behind my sisters who were chatting happily... She found herself dragging around the park with Maria moaning about her children.

V + A = trail

7 If you drag yourself away from something, you

V + O (NG/REFL)

force yourself to move or to leave somewhere when you do not want to leave. EG Jack dragged his eyes away from the girl... They could not drag themselves away from the party. V + A (away)

8 If a period of time or an event drags, it is very boring and seems to last a long time. EG The part of the play which drags is the last half-hour... The day was dragging, and I was beginning to wonder if night would ever come. V = go on

9 When people drag a lake or river, they pull nets or hooks across the bottom of it in order to look for something which is lost or missing. EG I told her I was leaving because I didn't want the police dragging the river for my body. V + O = dredge

10 If something is a drag on the development or progress of something, it slows it down and makes it more difficult. EG She feels that her children have been a real drag on her career. N SING : a + N + on ⇑ handicap

11 If you say that something is a drag, you mean that it is a nuisance or is very dull; used in informal English. EG She thought that wearing school uniform was a real drag... It was a drag to drive 30 kilometres to work every day. N SING : a + N ⇑ nuisance = bore

12 Drag is the wearing of women's clothes by a male entertainer. EG I went to his new show, but I don't find drag funny. ● If a man, especially a male entertainer, is in drag, he is wearing women's clothes. N UNCOUNT ● PHR : USED AS AN A

13 Drag is also the resistance to the movement that is experienced by something that is moving through air or through a fluid; a technical term in engineering. N UNCOUNT

14 If you take a drag on a cigarette or pipe that you are smoking, you take in air through it; used in informal English. EG He smiled and took a drag on his pipe. N COUNT = draw, puff

15 If you drag your heels or drag your feet, you delay doing something or do it very slowly because you do not want to do it. EG It's quite clear that the Government have been dragging their feet over this bill. PHR : VB INFLECTS = hang back drag down. 1 Someone who drags someone else down reduces them to an inferior social status or to lower standards of behaviour. EG His mother hates me. She thinks I drag him down. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ demean

2 Something that drags you down makes you feel weak or depressed. EG That bout of flu really dragged me down... I felt dragged down by the obligations I had. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ weaken drag in. If you drag in a particular thing, you mention it when it is not really relevant to the conversation. EG They disapproved of my dragging in his wealth. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV drag into. To drag something or someone into an event or situation means to involve them in it when it is not necessary or not desirable. EG I pointed out that it was the politicians who were dragging politics into sport, not the sportsmen... That's no reason for dragging you into it. PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP = bring into drag on. If an event or process drags on or drags along, it progresses very slowly. EG Some legal cases drag on for many years... His divorce was dragging along... The weeks dragged on, but no one ever came to see me. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ last drag out. 1 If you drag something out, you make it last for longer than is necessary. EG We did not know how to prevent them from dragging out the talks. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ prolong = spin out

2 If you drag something out of someone, you persuade them to tell you something that they do not want to tell you. EG The truth had to be dragged out of him. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

drag up. If someone drags up an unpleasant event or an old story from the past, they mention it when it is not really necessary, and so remind people of it. EG There's no need to drag that up again. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = bring up dragon /drægən/, dragons. 1 In stories and legends, a dragon is an animal like a big lizard. It has wings and claws and breathes out fire. N COUNT

2 If you call a woman a dragon, you mean that she is fierce and unpleasant; a fairly informal use. N COUNT dragonfly /drægənflaɪ/, dragonflies. A dragonfly is a brightly-coloured insect with a long thin body and two pairs of wings, which is often found near slow-moving or still water. N COUNT dragoon /drəguːn/, dragoons, dragooning, dragooned. A dragoon was a soldier in old European armies. Dragoons usually fought on horseback but were also trained to fight on foot. N COUNT dragoon into. If you dragoon someone into something that they do not want to do, you force them to do it. EG She seems to have this ghastly need to dragoon us all into her schemes. PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP = bully drain /dreɪn/, drains, draining, drained. 1 If you drain something, you make a liquid, especially water, gradually flow out of it until there is none left. EG It is important to drain the wound. V + O ⇑ empty

2 If a liquid drains somewhere, it it flows there gradually. EG All the sewage drains off into the river... The seas drained away and the sea bed became dry... These veins drain the blood from the brain. V ERG + A

3 If something drains, it becomes dry, because water or other liquid is dripping or flowing off it. EG Put those plates on the rack to drain. V ⇑ drip

4 If you drain wet land, you dry it by causing water to gradually flow out of it, usually so that it can be used for agriculture. EG It was marsh once, drained by Henry VIII for a deer park... The clay was drained and much of it turned into bricks. V + O = dry out ≠ flood

5 If you drain a glass, you empty it by drinking what is in it. EG Mary picked up the glass and drained it... He drained what was left of his drink. V + O

6 If the colour drains from your face, you become very pale. EG Slowly the red drained from Jack's cheeks. V + A (from) ⇑ fade = ebb

7 If a feeling drains away or drains out of you, it gradually becomes less strong until you no longer feel it. EG He felt the tension drain out of him... Gradually he feels his reluctance draining away. V + A ⇑ fade = melt

8 If something drains someone's strength, energy, or resources, it gradually uses them up. EG The project is already draining the charity's funds. V + O ⇑ use up = exhaust

9 If something drains you, it leaves you feeling physically and emotionally exhausted. EG This kind of work drains you. ◊ drained. EG She looked tired and drained after visiting him in prison. V + O ⇑ weaken ◊ ADJ QUALIT = worn out

11 If something is a drain on your resources, it gradually uses them up. EG The banks suddenly are facing a very large drain on their funds... ...a heavy drain on military manpower. ● See also brain drain N SING : a + N + on

12 A drain is 12.1 a pipe that carries water or sewage away from a place. EG ...laying drains under fields. N COUNT 12.2 a metal grid set into the pavement or road through which rainwater can collect into the drainage system. EG He dropped the keys down a large drain set into the pavement. N COUNT

13 If you say that something goes or is thrown down the drain, you mean that it is wasted. EG That's just money down the drain. ● If a business is going down the drain, it is being ruined or is failing financially. EG He wrote to tell me that his business had just gone down the drain. PHR : USED AS AN A ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ fail = go bust, fold drainage /dreɪnɪdʒ/ is 1 the system of pipes, drains or ditches that are used for draining water or other liquids. EG Massive big drainage ditches take the water away. 2 the act or process of draining or the way in which something drains. EG Good drainage doesn't mean dry soil... Bad drainage caused the land to be flooded. N UNCOUNT draining board, draining boards; also spelled with a hyphen. A draining board is the place on a sink unit where things such as cups, plates, cutlery, etc are put to drain after the washing up. N COUNT drainpipe /dreɪnpaɪp/, drainpipes; also spelled as two words. A drainpipe is a large pipe through which unwanted water or sewage flows into a drainage system. EG There were several broken and leaking drainpipes and gutters. N COUNT drake /dreɪk/, drakes. A drake is a male duck. N COUNT

dram /dræm/, drams. A dram is a small measure of an alcoholic drink such as whisky; used especially in Scottish English. EG Would you care for a dram? N COUNT drama /drɑːmə/, dramas. 1 A drama is 1.1 a serious play for the theatre, television, or radio. EG I remember her acting in a drama called The Garden Party. 1.2 a situation that contains interest and excitement, like a play. EG ...a human drama. N COUNT ⇑ work N COUNT

2 You use the word drama to refer to 2.1 plays in general, or a number of plays which have a similar style, especially those written during a particular period of history. EG ...drama, music, and painting... ...an expert on modern poetic drama. 2.2 work that is connected with plays and the theatre, such as N UNCOUNT = theatre N UNCOUNT acting or producing. EG She went in for drama... She enjoyed two years at drama school. 2.3 the quality of being interesting and exciting which a situation has. EG ...the drama of politics. N SING WITH DET ⇑ excitement dramatic /drəmætɪk/, dramatics. 1 A dramatic change or event happens suddenly and is very noticeable and surprising. EG I expect to see dramatic improvements. ◊ dramatically. EG The way in which information is transmitted has changed dramatically. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ sudden = marked ◊ ADV = radically

2 An event, situation, or thing that is dramatic is very exciting, interesting, and impressive. EG Landing on the moon was one of the most dramatic scientific adventures of this century. ADJ QUALIT

3 If something that you say or do is dramatic, it is said or done suddenly, and in a way that is intended to impress or surprise people. EG 'Look!' she said, flinging open the lid with a dramatic gesture. ◊ dramatically. EG He paused dramatically. ADJ QUALIT = theatrical, stirring ◊ ADV AFTER VB

4 Dramatic also means connected with the theatre or written in the form of a play. EG ...Browning's dramatic works. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

5 You use the word dramatics to refer to 5.1 activities concerned with the theatre, such as acting in plays or producing them, usually as an amateur. EG Both of them are involved in amateur dramatics. 5.2 behaviour which seems to show too much emotion, and which you think is done deliberately in order to impress people. EG George's dramatics were beginning to irritate me. N UNCOUNT = theatricals N PLURAL : the/ POSS + N = histrionics dramatis personae /drɑːmətɪs pəsəʊnaɪ/. The dramatis personae of a play are all the characters in that play; a formal expression. N PLURAL : the + N = cast dramatist /dræmətɪst/, dramatists. A dramatist is someone who writes plays. EG He knew all the major English novelists, poets and dramatists. N COUNT ⇑ writer = playwright dramatize /dræmətaɪz/, dramatizes, dramatizing, dramatized; also spelled dramatise. 1 If you dramatize a book or story, you rewrite it as a play. EG His ambition is to dramatise the great works of literature. ◊ dramatization /dræmətaɪzeɪʃəⁿn/, dramatizations. EG It was a dramatization of the story of Ali Baba. V + O ◊ N COUNT ⇑ production

2 If you dramatize an event or situation, you try to make it seem more serious, more important, or more exciting than it really is. EG The conflict has been dramatized in the newspapers... Oh dear! You do dramatise. V OR V + O ⇑ exaggerate drank /dræŋk/ is the past tense of drink.

drape /dreɪp/, drapes, draping, draped. 1 If you drape a piece of cloth somewhere, you arrange it there so that it hangs down and looks attractive or so that it covers something. EG He brought out a shawl which he began to drape carefully over Gertrude's shoulders... They have draped banners across trees and bushes. V + O + A

2 If something is draped with or in a piece of cloth, it is covered by it, usually in an attractive way. EG ...coffins draped with American flags... The lectern was draped in white silk sheets. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/in ⇑ cover = swathe

3 If a piece of cloth drapes something, it covers it. EG Dust sheets draped the corridors. V + O ⇑ cover

4 If you drape a part of your body somewhere, you lay it there in a relaxed way. EG Their feet were draped over the empty seats in front of them. V + O + A = dangle

5 A drape is a curtain; used in American English. EG The drapes were drawn and the lights turned off. N COUNT : USU PL

draper /dreɪpə/, drapers. A draper is someone who has a shop which sells cloth; used in British English. EG ...a draper's shop. ▸ The draper or the draper's is used to refer to the shop itself. N COUNT drapery /dreɪpəⁿri¹/, draperies. 1 You can refer to cloth or clothing that hangs in folds as drapery or draperies. EG ...the idealized drapery of Renaissance saints... A little wind fluttered her silk draperies as she leant forward... Crimson draperies were looped along the walls. N UNCOUNT OR N PLURAL

2 Draperies are also thick curtains. EG Karen ran to the window and pulled the draperies back. N PLURAL

3 Drapery is also, in British English, cloth or things made from cloth that you can buy in a draper's shop or in a department store. EG ...the drapery department. N UNCOUNT drastic /dræstɪk/. 1 A drastic course of action is very strong and severe and is usually taken urgently to solve a problem. EG This may force the Government to take drastic measures... This drastic step may result in the loss of everything. ADJ QUALIT = extreme

2 A drastic change is one that is very significant and noticeable. EG ...the recent drastic decline in flat-building... Everybody should be encouraged to make drastic changes in their eating habits and life-style. ◊ drastically. EG Because of the snow, visibility was drastically reduced. ADJ QUALIT = dramatic ◊ ADV = severely drat /dræt/; a mild, old-fashioned swear word. You say 'drat', 'drat it', 'drat the man', etc when you are annoyed about something. EXCLAM draught /drɑːft/, draughts; also spelled draft in American English. 1 A draught is 1.1 a current of air, usually one coming into a room or a vehicle. EG The draught from the window stirred the papers on her desk... They used to open the windows and doors to create a draught... She found herself a draught-free corner to sit in. 1.2 a large amount of water or air, which you swallow or breathe in all at one time. EG I made a trip to the bathroom for a draught of water... He gulped the brandy down in one draught... He stood there drinking in great draughts of the scented air. 1.3 a medicine in the form of a liquid which you drink; a formal or rather old-fashioned use. EG I shall give them a sleeping draught before we go out... ...a healing draught. N COUNT ⇑ wind N COUNT : USU + SUPP N COUNT + SUPP

2 Draught beer is beer which is kept in barrels rather than bottles. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

3 Beer that is on draught is kept in and served from a barrel and not from a bottle. EG We have Guinness on draught. PHR : USED AS AN A = on tap

4 Draughts is a game for two people, played with 24 round pieces on a board; used in British English. N UNCOUNT = checkers

5 A draught is also one of the round pieces which are used in the game of draughts; used in British English. N COUNT

6 A draught animal is one which pulls heavy loads, for example on a farm. EG Oxen are very good draught animals. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

draughtboard /drɑːftbɔːd/, draughtboards. A draughtboard is a board divided into 64 squares, on which the game of draughts is played; used in British English. N COUNT = checkerboard draughtsman /drɑːftsmən/, draughtsmen; also spelled draftsman in American English. A draughtsman is 1 someone who is very skilled at drawing. EG He trained himself as a draughtsman and is now a professional cartoonist. 2 someone whose job is to prepare very detailed drawings of machinery, equipment, or buildings. EG My father worked as a draughtsman in a shipyard. N COUNT ⇑ artist N COUNT draughtsmanship /drɑːftsmənʃɪp/; also spelled draftsmanship in American English. Draughtsmanship is the ability to draw well or the act of drawing. EG The draughtsmanship of the forgery was excellent. N UNCOUNT ⇑ artistry draughty /drɑːftɪ¹/, draughtier, draughtiest; also spelled drafty in American English. A room or building that is draughty has cold air blowing through it. EG The building was cold and draughty and damp and dirty. ADJ QUALIT draw /drɔː/, draws, drawing, drew, drawn. 1 When you draw or when you draw something, you use a pencil, pen, crayon, etc to make a picture, pattern, or diagram which usually shows only the outlines of something. EG She used to draw funny pictures of everybody during lessons... He sat there, drawing the tree... We ought to draw a map... He admits that he can't draw. V OR V + O ⇑ depict

2 When a vehicle draws away, draws out, draws off, etc, it moves away, out, off, etc smoothly and steadily. EG The cab drew away from the kerb... The car drew out into the middle of the road... Before she could reach the bus stop, the bus had drawn off... The bus drew to a halt. V + A ⇑ move

3 If you draw away, near, etc, you move away, near, etc; a fairly formal use. EG He began to draw away... As the people draw near they can hear the deep growling roar... When we drew level I smiled... The slave drew back in fear. V + A

4 If you draw someone somewhere, you lead them there, perhaps by touching them gently. EG She drew her into the back room... He drew me aside, and whispered in my ear. V + O + A

5 If an event or period of time is drawing near, or drawing closer, it is approaching. EG Their wedding day was drawing nearer all the time. V + A = approach

6 When an event or period of time draws to an end PHR : VB or draws to a close, it finishes. EG The meeting drew to an end. INFLECTS = finish

7 If you draw something from a particular place or in a particular direction, you pull it there with a smooth movement. EG He draws the document from its folder... She drew the comb lightly through her hair... The man drew back his fist and punched him hard in the face... I shivered, and drew my coat closer around me... He drew on his socks. V + O + A

8 If an animal draws a cart or other vehicle, it pulls it. EG She saw two-wheeled and four-wheeled vehicles drawn by huge animals. V + O ⇑ pull = haul

9 If you draw a curtain or blind, you pull it across a window, either to cover or to uncover it. EG He drew the curtains... A neighbour saw that his curtains weren't drawn back... She drew down the blinds, and turned the light on. V + O

10 If someone draws a gun, knife, or other weapon, they pull it out of its holder, so that it is ready to use. EG He was ever ready to draw his sword... She drew on me, but I was too quick for her. V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ pull out

11 To draw a tooth means to pull it out; an old-fashioned use. EG They drew all the lion's teeth. V + O = extract

12 If you draw a deep breath, you breathe in deeply once. V + O

13 To draw breath means to take a break from what you are doing. EG I've hardly had time to draw breath today. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ rest

14 To draw something such as water or energy from a particular source means to take it from that source. EG There was a well outside where we drew water to drink... They draw electricity from the national power network. V + O : USU + A

15 If something that hits you or presses part of your body draws blood, it cuts your skin so that it bleeds. V + O

16 If you draw money out of a bank, building society, or savings account, you take it out from where it is kept so that you can use it. EG He drew fifty pounds from his savings account. V + O + A = withdraw

17 If you draw a cheque, you use it to obtain money or goods; a technical term in banking. EG She drew a cheque on her account. V + O = cash

18 If you draw a salary or a sum of money, you receive it regularly. EG She draws a good salary each month. V + O

19 To draw something means to choose it or to be given it by chance, as part of a competition, game, or lottery. EG The duchess drew the name of the winner... Brazil have drawn Spain in the semi-final of the Cup. V + O

20 A draw is 20.1 an act of choosing or being given something by chance. EG The draw for the next round will be made on Monday. 20.2 a competition where people pay money for numbered or named tickets, then some of those tickets are chosen by chance, and the owners are given prizes. N COUNT ⇑ selection N COUNT = raffle

21 If you say that something is the luck of the draw, you mean that it is the result of chance and you cannot do anything about it. PHR : USED AS C

22 To draw something from a particular thing or place means to take or get it from that thing or place. EG The plan drew strength from its simplicity... The committee members are drawn from all sections of the local community. V + O + A (from) = tap

23 If you draw a particular conclusion, you decide that that conclusion is true. EG What conclusions do you draw from all this? V + O = infer

24 If you draw a distinction, comparison, parallel, etc, you make it or mention it. EG He never hesitates to draw comparisons... He drew a parallel between unemployment and suicide rates. V + O

25 If someone draws a particular reaction, they get that reaction when they do something. EG The police drew praise for their cool handling of the riots... The Government's action drew an angry response. V + O = attract

26 If you draw attention to something or draw someone's attention to it, you make someone aware of it or make them think about it. EG He drew attention to the rising unemployment rates... I drew her attention to her dirty fingernails. PHR + to : VB INFLECTS = point out

27 If something draws you, 27.1 it is so interesting or noticeable that you look at it or move towards it. EG The noise of the radio draws the children... The film was drawing huge crowds. 27.2 it attracts you very strongly. EG She was shy, and perhaps he was drawn to her for that reason. V + O = attract V + O

28 A draw is also a person, place, show, or event that attracts a lot of people to come and see it; a fairly informal use. EG The main draw in Agra is of course the Taj Mahal. N COUNT : USU SING = attraction

29 If someone will not be drawn or refuses to be drawn, they will not reply to questions in the way that you want them to, or will not reveal information or their opinion. EG I asked him, but he refused to be drawn. V + O : ONLY PASS; USU INF WITH BROAD NEG

30 In a game or competition, if one person or team draws with or against another one, or if two people or teams draw, they have the same number of points at the end of the game. EG Brazil and Spain drew in the World Cup... Brazil drew against Spain. V + A (with/against), V, OR V + O = tie

31 A draw is also a result of a game or competition in which two or more people draw. EG The match ended in a goalless draw. N COUNT = tie

32 ● to draw a blank: see blank. ● at daggers drawn: see dagger. ● to draw someone's fire: see fire. ● to draw the line: see line. ● to draw lots: see lot. ● See also drawing, drawn.

draw in. 1 If you say that the evenings or nights are drawing in, you mean that it is becoming dark at an earlier time in the evening, because autumn or winter is approaching. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

2 When a train draws in, it arrives at a station and stops. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

3 If you draw someone in or draw someone into something, you cause them to become involved with it. EG I quite by chance got drawn into a kind of party downstairs... Peter drew her into the discussion. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV/PREP ⇑ involve = rope in

4 If you draw in breath, you breathe deeply. EG She drew in her breath. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

draw off. If you draw off a quantity of liquid, you take it, usually through a pipe or tube, from a larger quantity. EG She drew off some of the beer, to see if it was ready to drink. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV draw on. 1 If a period of time draws on, it gets nearer or passes. EG The evening drew on, and Andrew and I got drunk. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = advance

2 If you draw on something, you make use of it in order to do something. EG The company can draw on their vast reserves to pay for the project. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

3 When someone draws on a cigarette, they breathe in through it and so inhale the smoke. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS draw out. 1 When a train draws out, it starts moving and leaves the station. EG The guard blew his whistle, and the train drew out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = pull out

2 If you draw out something such as a sound, you make it longer. EG 'Ah,' she said, smiling, drawing out the 'ah'. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ lengthen

3 If you draw information out of someone, you get them to tell it to you. EG It was impossible to draw the truth out of him. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = elicit

4 If you draw someone out, you make them feel less nervous and more willing to talk. EG Why not make conversation with them, draw them out, make them laugh and feel at ease? PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV draw up. 1 When you draw up a document, list, or plan, you prepare it and write it out. EG A charter was drawn up, setting out their policies... I was busy drawing up plans for the new course. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + O = formulate

2 When a car or other vehicle draws up, it comes to a particular place and stops. EG Just before eleven a bus drew up. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = pull up

3 If you draw up a chair, you move it nearer to a person or place, for example so that you can watch something or join in with something. EG Three rows of chairs had been drawn up in front of a small stage... He drew his stool up to the table. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = pull up

4 If you draw yourself up, you make your back very straight, rather than stooping. EG He drew himself up to his full height. PHRASAL VB : V + O (REFL) + ADV

draw upon. If you draw upon something, you make use of it in order to do something. EG One had to draw upon some knowledge of human psychology. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS drawback /drɔːbæk/, drawbacks. A drawback is an aspect of something or someone that makes them less good, less pleasant, or less useful. EG This machine has a major drawback from the technological point of view... Her only drawback is that she's so stupid. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ problem = disadvantage drawbridge /drɔːbrɪdʒ/, drawbridges. A drawbridge is a bridge that can be pulled up, for example to prevent people from getting into a castle or to allow ships to pass underneath it. N COUNT ⇑ bridge drawer /drɔːə/, drawers. 1 A drawer is part of a desk, chest, or other piece of furniture which is N COUNT

shaped like a box and can be pulled out so that you can put things in it or take things out of it. EG The document had always been kept in a drawer in his study. ● See also chest of drawers, bottom drawer.

2 Drawers are a piece of underclothing that you wear on the lower part of your body; an old-fashioned word. EG ...a pair of drawers. — N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N = knickers drawing /drɔ:ɪŋ/, drawings. 1 A drawing is a picture made with a pencil, pen, crayon, etc which usually shows only the outlines of something. EG On the cover was a drawing of five students... I looked at the pen and ink drawings. — N COUNT

2 Drawing is the skill or work of drawing pictures, patterns, or maps. EG She had a real passion for drawing and painting. — N UNCOUNT

drawing board, drawing boards; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 A drawing board is a large flat board, often fixed to a metal frame so that it looks like a desk, on which you place your paper when you are drawing or designing something. — N COUNT

2 If you say 'back to the drawing board', you mean that something you have made or done has not been successful and that you must start again or try another idea — PHR : USED AS AN A, OR CONVENTION

drawing pin, drawing pins; also spelled with a hyphen. A drawing pin is a short nail with a broad, flat top which is used for fastening papers or pictures to a board, wall[1], or other surface; used in British English. — N COUNT = thumb tack drawing room, drawing rooms; also spelled with a hyphen. A drawing room is a room, especially a large room in a large house, where people sit and relax, or entertain guests; a rather old-fashioned word. EG The vicar escorted her back to the drawing-room. — N COUNT drawl /drɔ:l/, drawls, drawling, drawled. If someone drawls, they speak slowly and not very clearly, with the vowel sounds of the words lengthened. EG She shifted lazily on the sofa and drawled, 'If you want a drink, dear, you'll have to get it yourself.' ▸ used as a noun. EG He was complaining in his Montana cowboy's drawl. — V OR V + QUOTE ▸ N SING WITH DET + SUPP drawn /drɔ:n/. 1 Drawn is the past participle of draw.

2 A drawn curtain or blind has been pulled across a window or down over a window so that it covers it. EG Someone was pacing back and forth behind the drawn blind. — ADJ CLASSIF

3 If someone or their face looks drawn, their face is thin and they look very tired, ill, worried, or unhappy. EG There was a drawn and haggard look about his eyes... She was a bit drawn. — ADJ QUALIT = pinched

-drawn combines with words such as 'horse' or 'tractor' to indicate that something is pulled by a particular kind of animal or vehicle. EG ...a horse-drawn carriage. — COMB : FORMS ADJ CLASSIFS drawn-out. Something that is drawn-out takes more time than is usual or more time than you would like. EG He was tired of the long drawn-out arguments. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ long = prolracted drawstring /drɔ:strɪŋ/, drawstrings; also spelled with a hyphen. A drawstring is a cord that goes through a seam round an opening, for example at the top of a bag or a pair of trousers. When the cord is pulled tighter, the opening gets smaller. EG ...a drawstring bag... ...trousers with a drawstring waist. — N COUNT : USU SING

dray /dreɪ/, drays. A dray is a large flat cart with four wheels which is pulled by horses. — N COUNT

dread /dred/, dreads, dreading, dreaded. 1 If you dread something which is going to happen or which may happen, you feel very unhappy and worried about it because you know or think that it will be very unpleasant. EG She had begun to dread these excursions... Everything you dread doing you must do straight away... They dreaded him coming... I dread to see him fail. — V + O/to-INF/-ING/ REPORT-CL ⇑ fear

2 Dread is a feeling of great anxiety and fear about something that is going to happen or that may happen. EG He spoke of his growing dread of getting old.... Terror and dread fall upon them... ...his dread that the child would be infected with the disease. — N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of, OR N + REPORT-CL

3 If you say that you dread to think what might happen or what is happening, you mean that you are worried about it and think that it is likely to be unpleasant or undesirable. EG I dread to think what goes on in these schools... I dreaded to think what he might do. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 Dread means terrible and greatly feared; an old-fashioned use. EG She went blind of the dread disease. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

dreaded /dredɪd/ means terrible and greatly feared. EG Consumption was the most dreaded disease of the time... I doubt if he would want to meet the dreaded General van den Bergh. — ADJ CLASSIF dreadful /dredful/. 1 Something that is dreadful is very bad or unpleasant, or of very low quality. EG The weather was dreadful... She had a dreadful effect on me... ...that dreadful man! — ADJ QUALIT = awful

2 Dreadful is also used to emphasize the degree or extent of something bad. EG I was basically a dreadful coward... It'll be a dreadful waste. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB dreadfully /dredfuli[1]/ means 1 very or to a very great extent. EG The three girls were dreadfully dull companions... She was dreadfully upset... I'm so dreadfully sorry... She was most dreadfully sick all day. 2 in a very bad or unpleasant way. EG He had behaved dreadfully. — ADV + ADJ/ADV = awfully, terribly; ADV WITH VB ⇑ badly dream /dri:m/, dreams, dreaming, dreamed, dreamt. The forms dreamed and dreamt are both used as the past tense and past participle of the verb.

1 A dream is 1.1 an imaginary series of events that you experience in your mind while you are asleep. EG In his dream he was sitting in a theatre watching a play... Sam has bad dreams because soon he will be going to prep school... I had a strange dream about you and me last night. 1.2 a situation or event which you often think about because you would very much like it to happen, but which you know is probably not possible. EG My dream was to farm in the American style... His dream of becoming President had come true... These problems can be evaded by retreat into a dream world. ● See also pipe dream. 1.3 a situation or event that does not feel real, especially because it is very strange or unpleasant. EG 'This must stop,' I said politely, feeling this was a bad dream. 1.4 a state of mind in which you do not concentrate properly on what you are doing because you are thinking about other more pleasant things. EG He acted like a man in a dream... He lived in dream and fantasy. — N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of/about ⇑ unreality; N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of, OR N + REPORT-CL ⇑ wish = fantasy; N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING; N COUNT/UNCOUNT ⇑ reverie

2 When you dream, 2.1 you see imaginary pictures and events in your mind while you are asleep. EG That night I dreamt that I was beaten up by Ernest Hemingway... She was either with Allen or in bed dreaming about him. 2.2 you think about a particular situation or event that you would very much like to happen, but which you know is probably not possible. EG He dreamed of having a car... When you are young you dream about all sorts of things. ▸ You can also dream a dream. EG They no longer dream the anarchist dream of society without the State. 2.3 you imagine that you saw, heard, or experienced something, when in fact you did not. EG He must have been dreaming... I seem to have dreamt it. — V : IF + PREP THEN of/about, OR V + REPORT-CL; V : IF + PREP THEN of/about, OR V + REPORT-CL; ▸ V + O; V OR V + O/REPORT-CL

3 If you say that someone would not dream of doing something or would never dream of doing something, you mean that they would never do it because they think it is wrong or is not possible or suitable for them. EG A lot of the boys would never dream of going away for residential courses. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 If you say that someone never dreamed that something would happen, you mean that they did not think that it would happen or would not have believed it. EG Those who founded the Cathedrals never dreamed that they would have been put to such uses. — PHR

5 If you describe something as a particular person's dream, you mean that it would be ideal for that person and that he or she would like it very much. EG It was an astonishing sight, a sort of poacher's dream come true... Europe was a young man's dream. — N SING : a + POSS + N = paradise

6 If you say that something is a dream, you mean that it is wonderful; an informal use. EG The food is a dream. — N SING : a + N ⇑ perfection

7 Dream is used to describe something that you think is wonderful, especially something that you thought you would never be able to have or experience. EG It was a dream house that he knew she would love... ...trekking east and south on dream holidays. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = ideal, fabulous

8 The word dream is also used in the following expressions. 8.1 If you describe something as being beyond your wildest dreams, you mean that it is better than you could have imagined or hoped for. EG ...a salary beyond their wildest dreams... ...enriching mankind beyond our wildest dreams. 8.2 If you say — PHR : USED AS AN A; PHR : USED AS AN

that someone could not imagine a particular thing in their wildest dreams, you mean that it is extremely strange or unlikely. EG Which junior civil servant, in his wildest dreams, could ever conjure up such a scheme? 8.3 If you do something like a dream or if something happens like a dream, you do it perfectly or it happens perfectly. EG I have also been told that I cooked like a dream... The whole thing went like a dream. 8.4 If you describe someone or something as the person or thing of your dreams, you mean that you consider them to be ideal or perfect. EG ...the man of their dreams.

A, USU + BROAD NEG

PHR : USED AS AN A = brilliantly dream up. If you dream up a plan or idea, especially one that is complicated or unpleasant, you work it out or create it in your mind. EG He would never dream up a desperate scheme like that on his own.

PHR : NG + PHR

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O ⇑ conceive = devise

dreamer /driːmə/, dreamers. A dreamer is someone who hopes or believes that pleasant things will happen, although they are not likely to, rather than being realistic and practical. EG ...the poet, the romantic, the inscrutable dreamer.

N COUNT ⇑ escapist ≠ realist

dreamily /driːmili[1]/. If you do something dreamily, you do it slowly and without concentrating on it because you are thinking about something else. EG He stared dreamily around him... 'It's worth a lot of money,' she said dreamily.

ADV = absently

dreamless /driːmlə[2]s/. Dreamless sleep is very deep and peaceful, and without dreams. EG He lay down again and soon fell into a mercifully dreamless sleep.

ADJ CLASSIF = sound

dreamlike /driːmlaɪk/ is used to describe things or situations that seem strange and unreal. EG There was a dreamlike quality to the scene... Already the landscape has a depopulated and dreamlike air.

ADJ QUALIT = unreal

dreamt /drɛmt/ is a past tense and past participle of dream.

dreamy /driːmi[1]/, dreamier, dreamiest. 1 If you say that the expression on someone's face is dreamy, you mean that they look as if they are thinking about something very pleasant. EG ...a little dreamy smile of pure content... A dreamy look came into the mother's eyes.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ content = faraway

2 A sight or sound that is dreamy seems very gentle, as if it were in a dream. EG ...a dreamy, not quite recognizable music... They talked to each other in gentle, dreamy voices.

ADJ QUALIT = soft, lazy

3 A person or idea that is dreamy is very imaginative or creative, but not very practical. EG It was the same Judy, wild-eyed, dreamy, volatile as ever... No doubt, some will say it is dreamy, escapist, or utopian.

ADJ QUALIT = idealistic

4 If you say that something is dreamy, you mean that you think it is wonderful; an informal use. EG The desk girl asked us if we owned those groovy, dreamy motorcycles outside.

ADJ QUALIT = fantastic

5 See also dreamily.

dreary /drɪəri[1]/, drearier, dreariest. Something that is dreary is very dull and uninteresting and makes you feel bored or depressed. EG They don't realise how dull and dreary their world is... He offered me a game of chess and I spent a dreary hour in achieving a draw. ◊ drearily. EG He was dressed drearily in grey.

ADJ QUALIT = boring, dismal

◊ ADV

dredge /drɛdʒ/, dredges, dredging, dredged. To dredge a harbour or river means to clear or search it using a special machine which removes unwanted things from the bottom and sides of it.

V + O = drag

dredge up. If you dredge up a piece of information, you remember it although you learnt it a long time ago. EG ...all these old verses that we seem to dredge up from early memories.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ recall = dig up

dredger /drɛdʒə/, dredgers. A dredger is a boat which is fitted with a special machine used to clear or enlarge harbours, rivers, etc.

N COUNT

dregs /drɛgz/. 1 The dregs of a liquid are the last drops left at the bottom of the container it is in, and any little solid bits that have sunk to the bottom. EG She had drunk her coffee down to the dregs... I finished the dregs of my tea.

N PLURAL ⇑ waste

2 The dregs of a society or institution are the people in it who are the most useless or bad; used showing disapproval. EG ...the dregs of humanity.

N PLURAL + SUPP : the + N

drench /drɛntʃ/, drenches, drenching, drenched. To drench something or someone means to make them completely wet. EG When Tom was tired of being drenched I turned the water off.

V + O : USU PASS = soak ≠ dry

◊ drenched. EG Scores of drenched but hopeful people were still waiting... Joseph was drenched with sweat. ◊ drenching. EG ...drenching rains.

◊ ADJ QUALIT = soaked

◊ ADJ CLASSIF

dress /drɛs/, dresses, dressing, dressed. 1 A dress is a piece of clothing worn by a woman or girl which covers her body and whose hem reaches to somewhere on her legs. EG She was wearing a short black dress.

N COUNT ⇑ garment = frock

2 You can refer to clothes in general as dress. EG More money is spent on dress than on books... They started to wear western dress.

N UNCOUNT

3 You can refer to the special clothes that you wear for a particular occasion as a particular kind of dress. EG He was wearing battle dress. ● See also evening dress, fancy dress, full dress, morning dress.

N UNCOUNT + SUPP : MOD + N = attire

4 Dress is used to describe the special clothes that you wear for very formal occasions. EG They were wearing full dress uniform... ...a dress suit.

ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ⇑ formal

5 When you dress or when you dress yourself, you put on your clothes. EG When he had shaved and dressed, he went down to the kitchen.

V OR V + O (REFL) ⇑ cover ≠ undress

6 If someone dresses in a particular way, they usually wear that style of clothes. EG He still dressed like the bank manager he had been... I really must try to make him change the way he dresses.

V OR V + A

7 When you dress someone, for example a child, you put clothes on him or her. EG He helped her dress the children.

V + O ⇑ cover ≠ undress

8 If you dress for a particular occasion, you put on formal clothes for that occasion. EG They always dressed for dinner.

V + A (for) ⇑ change

9 If you dress a salad, you cover it with a mixture of oil, vinegar, herbs, etc to make it taste nicer. EG Don't dress the salad until we are ready to eat.

V + O

10 When someone dresses a wound, they clean it and cover it with a bandage. EG She carried him to her house, where his wounds were dressed.

V + O ⇑ treat = tend

11 To dress meat, poultry, or fish means to prepare it for selling and cooking by cleaning it and removing bits that you cannot eat. EG ...dressed crab.

V + O

12 See also dressed, dressing.

dress down. 1 If you dress down, you wear clothes that are suitable for a particular occasion but that are less smart than the clothes you usually wear; used in British English.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ≠ dress up

2 If you dress someone down, you scold them. EG The Foreign Minister was dressed down in public.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV = reprimand

3 See also dressing-down.

dress up. 1 If you dress up or dress yourself up, you put on different clothes from the ones you usually wear, either in order to disguise yourself or so that you look smarter than usual. EG He dressed up as a pig... That evening they both dressed themselves up in fancy clothes... I can't be bothered to dress up this evening. ◊ dressed up. EG ...a man dressed up in a soldier's uniform. ● If you are all dressed up, you are wearing very smart, fashionable clothes; an informal expression. EG She was glad that she was all dressed up and had done her hair that morning.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + O (REFL) + ADV

◊ ADJ CLASSIF

● PHR : USED AS C ⇑ smart = dolled up

2 If you dress someone up, you give them special clothes to wear in order to make them look smarter or disguise them. EG He booked hundreds of new courtiers and dressed them up in armour.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV

3 If you dress something up, you make it seem more attractive, interesting, or acceptable than it really is. ◊ dressed up. EG The offer was simply an old one dressed up in new terms.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

◊ ADJ CLASSIF PRED

4 See also dressing-up.

dressage /drɛsɑːʒ/ consists of making the horse you are riding perform controlled movements in response to your signals, especially in a competition.

N UNCOUNT

dress circle; also spelled with a hyphen. The dress circle is the first floor balcony in a theatre. EG We sat in the dress circle.

N SING : the + N

dressed /drɛst/. 1 If you are dressed, you are wearing clothes rather than being naked, or wearing ordinary clothes rather than pyjamas or a nightdress. EG Both men were fully dressed.

ADJ CLASSIF : PRED = clothed

2 If you are dressed in a particular way, you are wearing clothes of a particular kind or colour. EG He was dressed in a black suit... ...neatly dressed workers... A woman dressed in white came up to me.

ADJ CLASSIF : IF PREP THEN in = clad, attired

3 If someone is dressed to kill, they are wearing very smart or glamorous clothes because they want people to notice them and think them very attractive; an informal expression. EG She arrived at the party, dressed to kill as usual.

PHR : USED AS C

4 When you get dressed, you put on your clothes. EG I woke up and got dressed. PHR : VB INFLECTS dresser /drɛ̄sə/, dressers. 1 A dresser is 1.1 a chest of drawers, usually with a mirror on the top; used mainly in American English. EG He walked round the beds to the dresser and opened a drawer. N COUNT

1.2 a piece of furniture in living rooms and kitchens, which has cupboards or drawers in the lower part and shelves in the top part; used in British English. EG ...the blue and white plates on the stripped pine dresser. N COUNT ⇑ cupboard

1.3 someone who works in a theatre and helps the actors and actresses to dress. N COUNT

2 Someone who is a smart dresser, a scruffy dresser, etc wears clothes of the kind or quality indicated; an informal use. EG He was always a smart dresser. N COUNT : ADJ + N dressing /drɛ̄sɪŋ/, dressings. A dressing is 1 a covering that is put on a wound to protect it while it heals. EG Dr Macdonald will be here later to attend to the dressings. N COUNT ⇑ bandage

2 a mixture of oil, vinegar, herbs, etc, which you pour over a salad to make it taste nicer. EG What kind of dressing would you like on your salad?... These oils are ideal for cooking, frying, and salad dressings. N MASS : USU + SUPP ⇑ sauce dressing-down. If someone gives you a dressing-down, they tell you how foolish you have been or how badly you have behaved. EG The Duke gives him a severe dressing-down for his drunkenness. N SING WITH DET = scolding dressing gown, dressing gowns; also spelled with a hyphen. A dressing gown is a piece of clothing in the form of a loose-fitting coat which you wear when you are not dressed in your ordinary clothes, often over pyjamas or a nightdress, for example when you have just got out of bed. N COUNT : USU POSS + N = robe dressing room, dressing rooms; also spelled with a hyphen. A dressing room is a room in a theatre, film studio, or television studio where a performer can get dressed and put on his or her make-up. N COUNT ⇑ changing room dressing table, dressing tables; also spelled with a hyphen. A dressing table is a small table with drawers underneath it and a mirror on top of it which is used in a bedroom. EG She sat at the dressing table wiping off the last of her make-up. N COUNT dressing-up is the activity of putting on special or different clothes, especially as part of a game played by children in which they pretend to be different people. N UNCOUNT ⇑ pretence dressmaker /drɛ̄smeɪkə/, dressmakers; also spelled with a hyphen. A dressmaker is someone, usually a woman, who makes clothes for herself or for other people. N COUNT ⇑ seamstress dressmaking /drɛ̄smeɪkɪŋ/; also spelled with a hyphen. Dressmaking is the activity or work of making clothes. N UNCOUNT ⇑ sewing dress rehearsal, dress rehearsals; also spelled with a hyphen. The dress rehearsal of a play, opera, or show is the final rehearsal before it is performed, in which the performers wear their costumes and the lights and scenery are all used in the way that they will be used in the proper performance. N COUNT dress shirt, dress shirts; also spelled with a hyphen. A dress shirt is a special shirt which men wear on formal occasions with a dinner jacket and a black bow tie. N COUNT dressy /drɛ̄sɪ[1]/, dressier, dressiest. Dressy clothes are elegant clothes which you wear on formal occasions; a fairly informal word. EG The men had worn suits and ties, the women simple but dressy clothes. ▸ used also of people who wear or are wearing such clothes. EG ...a group of dressy ladies. ▸ used also of occasions when such clothes are worn. EG It's going to be a fairly dressy wedding. ADJ QUALIT ▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB drew /druː/ is the past tense of draw.

dribble /drɪbᵊl/, dribbles, dribbling, dribbled. 1 When something dribbles over something else or when you dribble it, it falls or spills in small drops or tiny pieces. EG Pieces of pie and orange juice dribbled down Uncle Harold's chin... His hand trembled as he held the spoon, dribbling sugar all over the tablecloth. V ERG : USU + A ⇑ fall = trickle

2 A dribble of something is a small amount of it which is falling or dripping somewhere. EG There was a dribble of water running down the wall... ...dribbles of dried blood. N PART ⇑ trickle

3 If you dribble, you let saliva trickle from your mouth. EG He wore thick glasses, and dribbled. V

4 Dribble is saliva that is trickling from your mouth. EG Tears and dribble ran down his face. N UNCOUNT

5 When a player dribbles the ball in a game of football, basketball, etc, he or she kicks it or taps it several times in quick succession in order to keep it moving. V + O ⇑ move

6 If people or animals dribble to or from a particular place, they go or come slowly and in small numbers. EG ...the children dribbling back from school. V + A ⇑ travel = trickle dribs and drabs /drɪbz ᵊn dræbz/. If people or things arrive in dribs and drabs, they arrive in small numbers over a period of time rather than arriving all together; an informal expression. EG The food came in dribs and drabs. PHR : USED AS AN A dried /draɪd/. 1 Dried food or milk has had all the water removed from it and so will last for long periods of time. EG Dried milk is very useful when you go camping... ...dried herbs. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = dehydrated dried fruit, dried fruits. Dried fruit is fruit that has been preserved by being dried; used especially to refer to currants, raisins, or sultanas, which are kinds of dried grapes. N MASS dried-up. 1 Someone who is dried-up looks old, small, and very wrinkled, and also often looks as if they are bad-tempered and unpleasant. EG A little dried-up old man came to the door. ADJ CLASSIF = wizened, withered drier /draɪə/, driers. See dryer.

2 Dried is the past tense and past participle of dry.

2 See also dry up.

drift /drɪft/, drifts, drifting, drifted. 1 When something drifts somewhere, 1.1 it is carried there by the movement of wind or water. EG A tiny fishing boat was drifting slowly along... The rain ceased and the clouds drifted away. V + A ⇑ move = float

1.2 it moves there slowly or gradually, and often without any purpose. EG The crowd started to drift away. V + A = scatter

1.3 it moves there in a smooth and effortless way. EG The car drifted round the corner. V + A = sail

2 Drift is the movement of a mass of water such as a river. EG The drift of the current took us downstream. N UNCOUNT ⇑ flow

3 A drift of something is an amount of it which is suspended in the air or in water or is being carried along by the movement of wind or water. EG The valley was visible here and there between drifts of mist... ...swirling drifts of flies. N PART = cloud

4 If snow drifts, it builds up into piles as a result of the movement of wind or water. EG They can't stop the snow drifting. V ⇑ pile up

5 A drift is a mass of snow or something else that has built up into a pile as a result of the movement of wind or water. EG The road was edged with snow drifts... Their bodies lie rotting in drifts on the surface of the streams. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

6 If something drifts, it progresses or develops in a way that is not planned or controlled. EG She didn't want to let the conversation drift... Our Party has drifted for long enough. V ⇑ wander

7 A drift is also 7.1 a movement of people or animals away from somewhere or something or towards somewhere or something, especially one that has become a pattern. EG We have to stop the drift of workers from the countryside. 7.2 a general change or development. EG The drift towards house ownership continues... I think there's a general drift back towards science. N COUNT : USU + of = shift

8 Someone who drifts or who drifts around travels about from place to place without a plan and has no settled job and no settled way of life. EG He drifted about from job to job. N SING WITH DET + SUPP ⇑ trend = shift

9 The drift of an argument or speech is the general point that is being made in it. EG I was able to follow his drift pretty well... He had only just caught up with the general drift of the conversation. V OR V + A (around/about) ⇑ wander drift off. If you drift off to sleep, you gradually fall asleep. EG I watched him drifting off as the music played. N COUNT ⇑ meaning drifter /drɪftə/, drifters. A drifter is a person who does not stay in one place or in one job for very long. EG She was a drifter. No family, no close friends. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = doze off driftwood /drɪftwʊd/ is wood which is floating on the surface of the sea, a river, etc, or which has come from it onto the shore. EG ...an old piece of driftwood he had picked up on the beach. N COUNT drill /drɪl/, drills, drilling, drilled. 1 A drill is 1.1 a tool or machine that is used for making holes. N UNCOUNT

EG ...an electric drill. 1.2 a way of teaching something by means of repetition, or an exercise designed for this purpose. EG ...spelling drills. 1.3 a way of training a group of people, especially soldiers, to do something, by making them practise it repeatedly, or an exercise designed for this purpose. EG ...battle drills... ...a drill sergeant. 1.4 a routine exercise whose purpose is to save lives by showing people what to do in a dangerous situation. EG At the beginning of each term there was a fire drill.

N COUNT

N COUNT : UNCOUNT

N COUNT : MOD + N

2 When you drill into something or when you drill a hole, you make a hole using a drill. EG A hole had already been drilled... Be careful not to drill into gas pipes.

V OR V + O, USU + A ⇑ bore

3 When someone drills for oil or water or when they drill, they make a deep hole in the ground or in the floor of the sea in order to find oil or water. EG Most of the men had experience in drilling off the coast... They've started to drill for water.

V OR V + A (for) ⇑ excavate

4 If you drill people, you try to teach them something using repetitive exercises. EG He doesn't believe in drilling a class for more than ten minutes a day.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN in ⇑ train

5 When soldiers drill or when someone drills them, they practise certain actions or movements repeatedly. EG He was not pleased at having to drill a squad of new recruits... He had to put on the uniform, drill, and go to war.

V ERG

6 The drill is the correct or usual way of doing something; used in old-fashioned British English. EG What's the drill for lunch?

N SING : the + N = procedure

7 Drill is a strong cotton cloth which is often used to make uniforms. EG She was dressed in khaki drill.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ cloth

drill into. If you drill something into someone, you force them to learn it or understand it by repeating it many times. EG Somehow we have to drill into them the importance of saving energy.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP = drum into

drily /draɪli[1]/. See dry.

drink /drɪŋk/, drinks, drinking, drank, drunk. 1 When you drink something or drink, you take liquid into your mouth and then swallow it. EG We sat drinking coffee, smoking cigarettes, and talking... She brought him a cup of tea and he drank eagerly... They drank a bottle of champagne.

V OR V + O ⇑ consume

2 To drink means to drink alcohol, especially regularly or in large quantities. EG She said she didn't smoke or drink... You shouldn't drink and drive... I never drink alone.

V

3 If you drink yourself into a particular state or condition, you drink so much alcohol that you get into that state or condition. EG She had been drinking herself into a stupor for at least six hours... They are drinking themselves to death.

V + O (REFL) + A (into/to)/C

4 A drink is 4.1 an amount of a liquid which you drink or which is suitable for drinking. EG I asked her for a drink of water... Lynne brought me a hot drink. ▸ often used to refer to an alcoholic drink. EG He poured himself a drink... I'm going to have a drink with some friends this evening... The drinks were served in the sitting room. 4.2 a small amount of liquid which you swallow in one go. EG She took a drink of her whisky and smiled at him.

N COUNT

N COUNT : USU a + N IN SING = mouthful

5 Drink is alcohol, for example beer, wine, or whisky. EG There was plenty of food and drink at the party... They drowned their troubles in drink... We are trying to keep him away from drink.

N UNCOUNT

6 The drink is, in informal English, the sea.

N SING : the + N

7 If you drink someone under the table when drinking alcohol, they become too drunk to go on drinking before you do.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

8 If someone takes to drink, they start to drink a lot of alcohol regularly, for example because they are depressed.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

9 If you say to someone 'what are you drinking?', you are asking them what they would like to drink.

CONVENTION

10 to drink someone's health: see health.

drink in something that you see or hear, you pay a lot of attention to it and enjoy it. EG He stood still, drinking in the beauty of the countryside... She drank in every word that the professor spoke.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ absorb = take in drink to. When you drink to someone or something, you raise your glass and say their name before drinking, as a way of showing that you hope they will be happy or successful. EG They agreed on their plan and drank to it.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ⇑ toast

drink up. When you drink up or when you drink up an amount of liquid, you finish it completely. EG Drink up. It's time to go... The two of them drank up a whole bottle of gin.

ADV, OR V + O + ADV

drinkable /drɪŋkəbə[0]l/. 1 Water that is drinkable is clean and safe for drinking.

ADJ CLASSIF

2 Wine or beer that is drinkable tastes nice and is pleasant to drink. EG They have a good range of drinkable wines at reasonable prices.

ADJ QUALIT

drinker /drɪŋkə/, drinkers. 1 Someone who is a tea drinker, a coffee drinker, etc drinks the liquid mentioned.

N COUNT : MOD + N

2 Someone who is a drinker drinks alcohol, especially in large quantities. EG I'm not really a drinker, but I would like a glass of wine please... He became a heavy drinker when his wife died.

N COUNT ≠ teetotaller drinking /drɪŋkɪŋ/. 1 Drinking is the activity of drinking alcohol. EG There had been some heavy drinking at the party.

N UNCOUNT

2 Drinking means related to alcohol and the consumption of alcohol. EG Many people think that the drinking laws in Britain are stupid.

ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

3 Drinking friends or people are people who enjoy drinking alcohol regularly. EG ...one of his drinking companions... I'm not really a drinking man.

ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

drinking fountain, drinking fountains; also spelled with a hyphen. A drinking fountain is a device which supplies water for people to drink in places such as streets, parks, or schools.

N COUNT

drinking water; also spelled with a hyphen. Drinking water is water which it is safe to drink.

N UNCOUNT

drip /drɪp/, drips, dripping, dripped. 1 A drip is 1.1 a slow succession of drops of liquid falling from somewhere. EG There's a drip coming from the ceiling... The drip, drip, drip of the tap was driving her mad. 1.2 a piece of medical equipment by which a liquid is passed in small drops through a tube directly into a patient's bloodstream.

N COUNT ⇑ drop

N COUNT

2 When liquid drips or when you drip it, it falls in individual small drops. EG The rain was dripping down our necks... He dripped a few eye drops into his eyes.

V ERG ⇑ drop = dribble

3 When something, for example a tap or someone's nose, drips, drops of liquid fall from it. EG ...the dripping of the cold water tap.

V

4 If you call someone a drip, you mean that they are rather stupid and dull and lacking in enthusiasm; an informal use.

N COUNT

drip-dry. Clothes, sheets, etc that are drip-dry are made of a fabric that dries free of creases when it is hung up wet. EG ...drip-dry shirts.

ADJ CLASSIF

dripping /drɪpɪŋ/. 1 Someone or something that is dripping wet is very wet. EG Judy came out of the bathroom, still dripping wet.

ADJ CLASSIF = soaking

2 Dripping is the fat which comes out of meat when it is fried or roasted, and which can be used for frying food in.

N UNCOUNT

drive /draɪv/, drives, driving, drove, driven. 1 When you drive or when you drive a vehicle, you operate and control it so that it works and goes where you want it to. EG It is her turn to drive the car home through the snow... Two of them have never learned to drive.

V OR V + O

2 When you drive somewhere, you travel there in a car or other vehicle. EG We thought we'd drive down to the seaside for the day... He saw the accident but drove on.

V + A

3 If you drive someone somewhere, you take them there in a car or other vehicle. EG Can I drive you to the airport?... I used to get driven straight home after work.

V + O + A ⇑ convey

4 A drive is 4.1 a journey by car, van, etc. EG My son has a car but he never takes me for a drive... It'll be a thirty mile drive. 4.2 a piece of hard ground, or sometimes a private road, that leads from the road to a person's garage or front door. EG There were several cars already parked in the drive when they arrived... A private drive leads up from the road to the palace.

N COUNT ⇑ trip

N COUNT ⇑ approach

5 If something drives a machine, it supplies the power that makes it work. EG Steam can be used to drive generators... They use liquid hydrogen now to drive some of the rockets.

V + O

6 Drive is the power supplied by the engine to particular wheels in a car or other vehicle to make the vehicle move. EG Generally, front wheel drive is more stable and predictable than rear wheel drive... I can only get up there in four-wheel drive.

N SING : MOD + N

7 If you drive something, for example a post or a nail, into something else, you push it in or hammer it in using a lot of effort. EG She stood in front of a stake driven into the gravel. V + O + A

8 If you drive a ball somewhere in a game of football, cricket, or golf, you kick or hit it quite hard. V + O + A ⇑ propel

9 If wind drives snow or rain, it forces it to move in a slanting direction rather than falling straight down. EG The snowflakes were driven into my face by a gale. V + O : USU + A = blow

10 If you drive people or animals to or from a place, you make them go to or from that place. EG We were driven into dark dungeons and left there... This could give the police an excuse to drive them out of their homes. V + O + A

11 To drive someone into a particular state or situation means to force them into that state or situation. EG The farming venture drove the company into debt... These are the lengths to which decent men are driven by the boring jobs they have to do... Going on holiday with these horrible kids will drive me mad. V + O + C, OR V + O + A ⇑ force

12 If a desire or feeling drives someone, it encourages them or motivates them. EG A man driven by greed or envy loses his sense of justice. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ motivate

13 Drive is the motivation and persistence to try new things and to do things well. EG Joanna's energy and drive only made me feel more exhausted. N UNCOUNT = impetus

14 A drive is also 14.1 a very strong need or desire in human beings that makes them act in particular ways. EG This hormone is mainly responsible for our sex drive... He paints because of his drive to create something beautiful. 14.2 a special effort made by a group of people for a particular purpose. EG The Poles launched a tremendous investment drive... There is a new anti-pornography drive. 14.3 a large-scale attacking move by an army. 14.4 a stroke, especially in tennis or golf, in which a ball is hit hard to make it travel a long way. N COUNT ⇑ urge / N SING WITH DET : SUPP / N COUNT / N COUNT

15 Drive is also used in the names of some streets. EG The address is 33 Laurel Drive. N SING : USED IN NAMES AFTER N

16 When you drive home a point, you try to force someone to understand or accept it. EG I tried to drive home the point that we couldn't afford a new car. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

17 If you ask what someone is driving at, you are asking what they are trying to say or what they are saying indirectly. EG What are you driving at?... She knew at once what I was driving at. PHR drive away. If you drive an animal or person away, you act in such a way that the animal or person is forced to go away. EG We smoked constantly hoping to drive away the mosquitoes. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ repel = fend off drive off. If you drive off someone or something, you force them to go away and to stop attacking you or threatening you. EG They claimed they had driven off a major force. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ repel drive out. If you drive out someone or something, you force them to leave or disappear. EG The whole point of exorcism is to drive out evil spirits... Successful businesses will always drive out those which are badly managed. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ expel drive-in, drive-ins. A drive-in is a restaurant, cinema, or other place offering a service, where people stay in their cars while using the service provided. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...a drive-in cinema. N COUNT / ▸ ADJ CLASSIF drivel /drɪvə^{ʊ}l/, drivels, drivelling, drivelled; also spelled driveling and driveled in American English. You describe something that is written or said as drivel when you think it is very silly; an informal word. EG You do talk drivel sometimes! N UNCOUNT = rubbish drivel on. If someone drivels on, they talk for a long time about things that are boring or irrelevant; an informal expression. EG She spent an hour drivelling on about it. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = rabbit on driven /drɪvə^{ʊ}n/ is the past participle of drive.

18 ● to drive a hard bargain: see bargain. ● See also driving.

driver /draɪvə/, drivers. A driver is a person who drives a car, bus, taxi, or train. EG Her father was a bus driver... Most drivers would like to have radios in their cars. ● See also back-seat driver. N COUNT driver's licence, driver's licences; also spelled driver's license in American English. A driver's licence is the same thing as a driving licence. N COUNT drive shaft, drive shafts; also spelled with a hyphen. A drive shaft is a shaft in a car or other vehicle that transfers power from the gear box to the wheels. N COUNT driveway /draɪvweɪ/, driveways. A driveway is a piece of hard ground that leads from the road to a person's garage or front door. EG The car turned into a dark driveway. N COUNT = drive driving /draɪvɪŋ/. 1 Driving is the way you drive a car or your ability to drive a car. EG She was found guilty of dangerous driving... I failed my driving test three times. N UNCOUNT

2 In the front of a car, the driving door and the driving seat are on the side where the driver sits. EG The man got out of the driving seat and went round to the passenger door. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ passenger

3 If someone is in the driving seat, they are in control of a situation. PHR : USED AS AN A

4 Driving is used to describe a person, influence, force, etc that has a strong effect on a situation and makes things change. EG He certainly couldn't be called a driving politician... They claim that the union is the driving force behind the revolution. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ moving

5 Driving rain or snow falls fast and heavily, usually in a slanting direction. EG The driving snow had increased... ...a driving blizzard. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB driving licence, driving licences; also spelled driving license in American English. A driving licence is a card showing that you are qualified to drive because you have passed a driving test. N COUNT ⇑ permit = driver's licence driving school, driving schools. A driving school is a business that employs instructors who give people lessons in how to drive a car. N COUNT drizzle /drɪzə^{ʊ}l/, drizzles, drizzling, drizzled. 1 Drizzle is very light, fine rain, almost like mist. EG He walked back home through the fine drizzle that was now falling. N UNCOUNT

2 If it is drizzling, it is raining very lightly. EG It had rained all day and was still drizzling. V : USU it + V ⇑ rain droll /drəʊl/. Something or someone that is droll is amusing; a rather old-fashioned word. ADJ QUALIT drollery /drəʊlərɪ^{i}/ is humour; a rather old-fashioned word. N UNCOUNT

dromedary /drʌmə^{ʊ}dərɪ, drɒm-/, dromedaries. A dromedary is a camel which has one hump. N COUNT drone /drəʊn/, drones, droning, droned. 1 To drone means to make a low, monotonous humming or buzzing noise. EG The engine droned on and on as we flew northward. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the steady drone of the traffic. V = whine, hum / ▸ N SING WITH DET

2 A drone is a male bee. EG The queen is likely to mate with two or three drones. N COUNT

drone on. If someone drones on, they talk boringly about something for a long time in a low, monotonous voice. EG I remember him droning on about how important it was to study literature. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV : IF + PREP THEN about ⇑ talk drool /druːl/, drools, drooling, drooled. 1 To drool means to let saliva fall from your mouth, without being able to stop it. EG He used to drool at the corners of his mouth. V = dribble, slobber

2 Drool is saliva that falls from your mouth. EG Bibs are useful for keeping drool off a baby's clothes. N UNCOUNT = dribble

3 If you drool over someone or something, you look at them with great pleasure because you think they are very attractive or nice; an informal use. EG You go around in that bikini and Gaskell's drooling over you all the time. V : IF + PREP THEN over/at = moon droop /druːp/, droops, drooping, drooped. If something droops, it hangs or leans downwards with no strength or firmness. EG His shoulders drooped and his head hung to his chest... His eyelids drooped as though he was on the verge of sleep. ◊ drooping. EG ...a full, drooping moustache. V ⇑ hang = sag / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ hanging droopy /druːpɪ^{i}/, droopier, droopiest. Something that is droopy hangs down limply. EG ...the waiter with the droopy moustache. ADJ QUALIT = wilting ≠ stiff drop /drɒp/, drops, dropping, dropped. 1 If you drop something, 1.1 you let it fall by mistake. EG He bumped into a chair and dropped his cigar... Careful! Don't drop it! 1.2 you let go of it deliberately so that it falls on or in a particular place. EG Planes dropped bombs all through the night... She poured herself some whisky and dropped in a few ice cubes. V + O ⇑ release / V + O

2 If something drops, it falls straight down. EG The stone dropped to the bottom of the pond... The bottle dropped out of the suitcase. V ⇑ fall

3 If the ground drops, it goes down so that it is at a V : USU + A lower level. EG The ocean floor dropped steeply fifty yards from the shore.

4 If you drop into a particular position or place, you lower your body quickly into that position or place. EG She closed her eyes and dropped into a chair... She dropped down onto her knees. V + A

5 To drop also means fall down because you are exhausted, very ill, or dead. EG She scrubbed and polished until she dropped. V = collapse

6 If a level or amount drops, it becomes less. EG The temperature of their bodies dropped ten degrees... As the car approaches the bend, the speed drops to seventy. ▸ used as a noun. EG Unemployment means a serious drop in income for many people. V : USU + A ⇑ decrease = fall ≠ rise ▸ N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING

7 If your voice drops or if you drop your voice, it becomes less loud. EG Bill's voice dropped when he saw his father on the other side of the room... They dropped their voices as they entered the church. V ERG ⇑ lower ≠ raise

8 If you drop a person or thing somewhere, you take them there, for example by car, and leave them there. EG He ordered his taxi to drop him at the corner of the street... We'd better drop the parcel over to Jane's house tomorrow. V + O ⇑ deliver

9 If you drop something you are doing, using, dealing with, or discussing, you stop doing it or dealing with it, or abandon it. EG Most of the charges were dropped when Brown pleaded guilty... I was certain he would drop everything to help... 'Have you apologized to her?'–'Look, just drop it, all right?' ● If you let something drop, you abandon it and do not continue doing it. EG I've been thinking about my French course. I don't think I'm going to let it drop now. V + O ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ discontinue

10 If you drop someone, you are no longer friendly towards them; an informal use. V + O = ditch

11 If a player is dropped from a team, he or she is no longer included in the team. V + O ⇑ exclude

12 To drop a sound or word means to leave it out and not say it. EG Drop the 'sir', will you?–My name's Mr Defoe. V + O ⇑ omit = skip

13 If you drop a hint or piece of advice, you give it to someone in a casual way. EG Don't drop hints about promotion or pay increases to your boss... It's up to you to drop a word of warning in her ear. V + O ⇑ utter

14 To drop a game in a sports competition means to lose it. EG He's dropped one game so far. V + O

15 If you drop to a lower position in a competition, you fall to a lower position. EG He has dropped to fifth place. V + A (to)

16 In knitting, when you drop a stitch, a loop of wool comes off the knitting needle with the result that a hole appears in the knitting. V + O

17 A drop is a small amount of liquid shaped like a little ball. EG A drop of blood slid down his leg... ...rain drops... He carried the bucket of water without spilling a drop. N COUNT

18 A drop of a liquid is a very small amount of that liquid; an informal use. EG A little drop of scotch would be very welcome... 'Do you have milk in your tea?'–'Just a drop thank you'. N PART = dash

19 A drop is also 19.1 the distance between a high point and a low point; used of the vertical part of an object, for example a wall or the face of a cliff. EG The cliff plunged in a vertical drop of 300 feet... I wouldn't jump off that wall. It's quite a drop to the ground. 19.2 a delivery of something from a vehicle, especially from an aeroplane. EG They are requesting air drops of essential foodstuffs... I would have done fifteen drops today, but my van ran out of petrol. N SING WITH DET / N COUNT : USU + SUPP

19.3 in informal English, a place where something, for example a letter or a message, can be left. EG ...a mail drop. 19.4 a small round sweet. EG He sucked peppermint drops. N COUNT : USU + MOD / N COUNT : MOD + N

20 Drops are a kind of medicine which you take drop by drop in your ears or eyes. EG I'll get some eye drops for her at the chemist. N COUNT : USU PL

21 The word drop is also used in the following expressions. 21.1 If you drop someone a line or a note, you write them a short letter; a fairly informal expression. EG I'll drop you a line tomorrow. 21.2 If you drop a brick or drop a clanger, you say something tactless or inappropriate. 21.3 To drop dead means to die, especially suddenly. EG Our member of parliament dropped dead at a public meeting. 21.4 If you say 'drop dead' to someone, you are indicating in a rude way that you dislike them very much and want them to go away. 21.5 If you say that something is a drop in the ocean, you mean that it is a very small amount compared to the amount required and will have very little effect. EG Ten pounds is only a drop in the ocean. We need thousands. PHR : VB INFLECTS / PHR : VB INFLECTS / PHR : VB INFLECTS / CONVENTION / PHR : USED AS C

21.6 If you do something at the drop of a hat, you do it quickly and without hesitating. EG When she's drunk, she's liable to burst into song at the drop of a hat. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ suddenly drop away. If support or interest drops away, it becomes less strong. EG Public interest in the royal marriage has dropped away... Trade Union support dropped away. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ decrease = wane drop back. If someone who is moving along drops back, they go slower so that they end up in a position behind someone else or behind other people who are going in the same direction. EG The two-motor cycles dropped back to take up position at the rear of the convoy. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

drop by. To drop by means to visit someone informally; a fairly informal expression. EG If there's anything you want to see, just drop by. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = drop round drop in. If you drop in on someone or drop in, you visit them informally, usually without having arranged it before; a fairly informal expression. EG I thought I'd just drop in and see how you were... I dropped in on her during the afternoon. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF : PREP THEN on = pop in drop off. 1 If you drop off to sleep or drop off, you go to sleep, usually without intending to. EG He has a habit of dropping off in front of the television... I dropped off to sleep in the middle of the lecture. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF : PREP THEN to = doze off

2 If you drop someone off, you take them in a vehicle to a place where they want to go and leave them there. EG I can drop Daisy off on my way home. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ transport

3 If support or interest drops off, it becomes less strong. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

drop out. 1 If you drop out of an institution or group or drop out, you leave it without telling anyone or without finishing a course or task. EG The boys had dropped out of school and gone to work... There are only seven people left in the group–five dropped out last month. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV , IF : PREP THEN of

2 If a word or expression drops out of the language, it is no longer used. EG Today the word 'teeny-bopper' has virtually dropped out of usage. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + of

3 See also drop-out.

drop round; a fairly informal expression. 1 To drop round means to visit someone or go somewhere casually, without making any formal arrangement to do so. EG I'll drop round when I've finished the shopping. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A / to-INF = drop by

2 If you drop something round, you take it to a person's home for them. EG Bill can drop your books round on his way home. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

droplet /drɒplɪ²t/, droplets. A droplet is a very small drop of liquid. N COUNT ⇑ drop drop-out, drop-outs; an informal word usually used showing disapproval; also spelled as one word. A drop-out is 1 a person who rejects social customs and accepted ways of behaving such as working hard and wearing smart clothes. EG This part of town is full of hippies and dropouts. 2 someone who has left school or college before they have finished their studies. N COUNT ⇑ dissenter / N COUNT ⇑ dissenter dropper /drɒpə/, droppers. A dropper is a small glass tube with a hollow rubber part on one end which you use for drawing up and dropping small amounts of liquid. N COUNT droppings /drɒpɪŋz/ are the faeces of some small and medium-sized animals and birds. EG ...mouse droppings. N PLURAL

dropsy /drɒpsi¹/ is a medical condition in which parts of the body fill up with fluid. Dropsy can be caused by various diseases. N UNCOUNT

dross /drɒs/ is 1 the waste material that floats on the surface of a metal such as gold that has been melted. 2 anything that is of a very poor quality. EG We can't publish this dross. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT = rubbish drought /draʊt/, droughts. 1 Drought is lack or shortage of rainwater. EG ...the effects of famine and drought. N UNCOUNT drove /drəʊv/, droves. 1 Drove is the past tense of drive.

2 A drought is a long period of time during which no rain falls. EG ...natural disasters such as droughts, earthquakes, or typhoons. N COUNT

2 A drove is a very large group, especially of people. EG They were trying to maintain law and order N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N COUNT IN amongst the droves of injured citizens... They would come in droves to see Australia's natural wonder. PL = horde drown /draʊn/, drowns, drowning, drowned. 1 When someone drowns or when something drowns them, they die because they have gone under water or another liquid and cannot breathe. EG A man fell from a bridge and drowned... A boy was drowned this morning... The ship sank within minutes, drowning all the passengers on board. V ERG

2 To drown someone means to kill them by holding their head under water or another liquid so that they cannot breathe. EG I couldn't make myself drown the poor animal. V + O

3 If someone drowns their sorrows, they drink alcohol in order to forget something sad or terrible that has happened to them. EG He was drowning his sorrows in a bottle of whiskey. PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 If water drowns a place, it covers it completely. EG This could also cause the melting of ice at the poles, drowning many of the world's cities. V + O ⇑ cover = inundate

5 If you drown food or drink, you put a lot of a particular liquid on it or in it and so hide its flavour. V + O = drench

6 If something drowns a sound or drowns it out, it is so loud that it makes it impossible to hear that sound properly. EG His words were drowned by loud cheers from the crowd... The noise from the aeroplane drowned out the voice from the loudspeaker. V + O : USU PASS, OR PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

drowse /draʊz/, drowses, drowsing, drowsed. To drowse means to be almost asleep or just asleep for a while because you feel very calm and relaxed. EG She drowsed in the sun. V ⇑ sleep drowsy /draʊzi[1]/, drowsier, drowsiest. 1 If you feel drowsy, you feel sleepy in a way which leaves you unable to think clearly or do anything. EG Things were quiet for a while and I became pleasantly drowsy... These tablets will make you drowsy. ◊ drowsiness. EG A pleasant drowsiness fell upon him. ◊ drowsily. EG 'That's how it began,' she answered drowsily. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ sleepy ◊ N UNCOUNT ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Something that is drowsy is so peaceful that it makes you feel relaxed and sleepy. EG He thought of home, of drowsy fields and villages baking in the sun. ADJ QUALIT drudge /drʌdʒ/, drudges. A drudge is a person who has to work hard at a job which is not very important or interesting. N COUNT drudgery /drʌdʒəri[1]/ is work that is not enjoyable to do because it is hard or boring, and does not give the person who does it any importance in society. EG ...the monotonous drudgery of the assembly line. N UNCOUNT = grind drug /drʌg/, drugs, drugging, drugged. 1 A drug is 1.1 a chemical which is given to a person in order to treat or prevent an illness or disease. EG This drug is prescribed to treat hay fever. 1.2 a substance that is illegal in many countries which some people smoke or inject into their blood because it has a stimulating effect or because they are addicted to it. EG They had reason to believe that the girl was on drugs... I don't think she takes drugs... ...the problems of drug addiction. 1.3 an activity which you enjoy so much that you want to do it more and more. EG Travelling has become a drug for me: I just can't stop! N COUNT ⇑ medicine N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ chemical = narcotic N COUNT ⇑ obsession = addiction

2 To drug someone means to give them a chemical substance in order to make them become sleepy or unconscious. EG All three dogs lay quiet having been slightly drugged... We drugged the camel until it was unconscious. ◊ drugged. EG She spoke as if half asleep or drugged... ...a drugged sleep. V + O = sedate, dope ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = doped

3 To drug food or drink means to deliberately mix a chemical substance with it which will cause the person who eats or drinks it to become sleepy or unconscious. ◊ drugged. EG They were sleeping heavily under the effect of the drugged sweets she had given them. V + O ⇑ contaminate = dope ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = doped druggist /drʌgɪst/, druggists. A druggist is a person who is qualified to prepare and sell drugs and medicines; used in American English. ▸ also used of the shop where a druggist works. EG Is there a druggist round here? N COUNT = pharmacist drugstore /drʌgstɔː/, drugstores. A drugstore is a shop where a large range of things are sold, including medicines, and where you can also buy and eat simple meals; used in American English. N COUNT druid /druːɪd/, druids. A druid is a priest of a religion which was followed in Britain, Ireland, and France before Christianity. N COUNT drum /drʌm/, drums, drumming, drummed. 1 A drum is 1.1 a musical instrument consisting of a skin stretched tightly over the end of a round frame which you beat with sticks or with your hands. EG She started to beat her drum, singing a native song... He plays the drums superbly. 1.2 a large cylindrical container that is used to contain or transport fuel. EG ...oil drums. 1.3 a hollow cylindrical structure that turns and is used in a machine or to wind wire or rope. EG The bands are brought into contact with the rotating drums. N COUNT N COUNT N COUNT ⇑ cylinder

2 If you drum your fingers or drum with your fingers, you hit a surface such as a table or desk top with the ends of your fingers, making a continuous beating sound. EG He drummed his fingers on the desk... He was waiting, drumming on the table with his fingers. V OR V + O ⇑ strike = tap

3 If something drums, it makes a beating noise because it is regularly hitting a surface or object. EG The rain started to drum on the roof. ◊ drumming. EG There was the sound of a tremendous drumming of hoofs inside the van. V = tap, beat ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 See also drumming.

drum into. If you drum something into someone or drum something in, you tell someone something many times so that they will eventually listen, understand, or remember it. EG These facts had been drummed into him. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV/PREP = din into drum out. To drum someone out of a club, society, or other organization means to force them to leave it. EG He was drummed out of the club. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ expel = banish drum up. If you drum up support, you do things that attract and win people's support. EG We were busy canvassing and drumming up support. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O drumbeat /drʌmbiːt/, drumbeats. A drumbeat is the sound of a beat on a drum. EG He faintly heard the drumbeats and the shouting of dancers in the distance. N COUNT drum major, drum majors. A drum major is a sergeant in the army who is in charge of the drummers in a military band, or who leads the band when they are marching. N COUNT ⇑ soldier drum majorette, drum majorettes. A drum majorette is a girl or young woman who marches with others at the front of a band in a procession. Drum majorettes wear uniforms and carry sticks which at intervals they throw into the air and catch. N COUNT drummer /drʌmə/, drummers. A drummer is a person who plays the drums in a band, group, or orchestra. N COUNT ⇑ musician drumming /drʌmɪŋ/ is the action of playing the drums. ● See also drum. N UNCOUNT drum roll, drum rolls; also spelled with a hyphen. A drum roll is a series of drumbeats that follow each other so quickly that they make a continuous sound. A drum roll is sometimes used to introduce someone as they come onto the stage in a theatre. N COUNT drumstick /drʌmstɪk/, drumsticks. A drumstick is 1 a stick used for beating a drum. 2 the lower part of the leg of a bird such as a chicken which is cooked and eaten. N COUNT N COUNT : USU MOD + N drunk /drʌŋk/, drunks. 1 If someone is drunk, they have consumed so much alcoholic drink that it is difficult for them to speak clearly, move properly, work, etc. EG He had decided that he was never going to get drunk in his whole life... I knew Dan was slightly drunk and I wasn't impressed... He was often so drunk he couldn't write a word. ● See also blind drunk. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ intoxicated = inebriated ≠ sober

2 A drunk is 2.1 someone who frequently gets drunk. EG Today, San Francisco has more drunks than any other American city. 2.2 someone who is drunk. EG The drunk stared at me furiously. N COUNT = drunkard N COUNT

3 If you are drunk with a strong emotion, sensation, or experience, you are in a state of great excitement because of it. EG She returned to England in May 1913 drunk with the freedom she had tasted. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, + with/on ⇑ excited = intoxicated ≠ calm drunkard /drʌŋkəd/, drunkards. A drunkard is someone who frequently gets drunk; used showing disapproval. EG Her husband was a drunkard who seldom earned any money. N COUNT = drunk drunken /drʌŋkᵊn/. 1 Drunken is used to describe events and situations that are caused by or that involve people who are drunk. EG ...a place where a long drunken party had just broken up... ...drunken ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = boozy ≠ sober whoops of laughter... Several members of the company collapsed immediately in a drunken stupor.

4 Drunk is also the past participle of drink.

2 A drunken person is drunk or is frequently drunk. EG They recommended stiffer penalties for drunken drivers... His thoughts wobbled like a drunken man's. ◊ drunkenly. EG ...filthy children whose parents fought drunkenly with each other in the street. — ADJ QUALIT ATTRIB = inebriated ≠ sober; ◊ ADV drunkenness /drʌŋkənəs/ is the habit of being frequently drunk. EG They acquired a reputation for drunkenness and crime. — N UNCOUNT ≠ sobriety

dry /draɪ/, drier, dryer, driest; dries, drying, dried. Drier and dryer are both used as the comparative form of the adjective. The adverb can be spelled dryly or drily. 1 Something that is dry has no water or other moisture on it or in it. EG They threw onto the fire some dry branches... Polish it with a dry cloth... He was rubbing himself dry with her towel... Is the paint dry yet? ◊ dryness. EG The dryness of the ground showed that it had not rained for a long time. ● If you say that something is as dry as a bone, you mean that it is very dry indeed. EG The earth seemed as dry as a bone. — ADJ QUALIT ≠ damp, moist, wet; ◊ N UNCOUNT; ● PHR : USED AS AC

2 When something dries or when you dry it, it becomes dry. EG He dried his feet with the towel... The washing hung drying in the sun... Leave it to dry. — V ERG

3 When you dry the dishes after a meal, you wipe the water off the plates, knives, cups, etc when they have been washed, using a cloth. EG I'll wash up and you can dry... He dried the dishes carefully. — V OR V + O = wipe, dry up

4 A river, lake, or well that is dry is empty of water, usually because of hot weather and lack of rain. EG By early summer the river was almost dry and there were no fish in it... What shall we do if the well runs dry? — ADJ QUALIT

5 An oil-well that is dry is no longer producing any oil. — ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ disused

6 If you say that a cow is dry, or that a woman's breasts are dry, you mean that they are no longer able to provide milk. — ADJ CLASSIF

7 Weather, a period of time, or a place that is dry has little or no rainfall. EG The night was dry and clear... These plants will need watering in dry weather... This is a dry area that only gets a few months' rain a year. ◊ dryness. EG I hadn't planned on the sudden dryness–the lack of grass for the animals. — ADJ QUALIT ≠ wet; ◊ N UNCOUNT ≠ wetness

8 If you are dry, you are thirsty and need to drink something; an informal use. EG I'm so dry I could drink anything. — ADJ QUALIT : PRED = parched

9 If your mouth or throat is dry, it has little or no saliva in it, and so feels very unpleasant. EG My throat was dry, and my head ached. ◊ dryness. EG The dryness in my mouth vanished. — ADJ QUALIT ≠ moist; ◊ N UNCOUNT

10 A cough that is dry does not produce any phlegm. — ADJ CLASSIF

11 If your eyes are dry, they are not full of tears. EG No normal person could watch this film with dry eyes. — ADJ CLASSIF ≠ tearful

12 A place that is dry is one where there are laws or rules which forbid anyone to drink, sell, or buy alcoholic drink; an informal use. EG The country is dry and no liquor is allowed. — ADJ CLASSIF

13 Dry humour is very amusing, but in a subtle and clever way that does not make you actually laugh aloud. EG She had a good sense of humour and I enjoyed her dry accounts of her work experiences. ◊ drily. EG She said drily that he looked just as stupid as he behaved. ◊ dryness. EG She remarked with some dryness on the fact that no-one was working. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ witty = ironic, wry; ◊ ADV; ◊ N UNCOUNT = irony

14 A voice that is dry is cold or dull, and does not express any emotions. EG He suggested in a cool dry voice that perhaps they had better leave. ◊ drily. EG 'I suppose I shall have to resign,' she said drily. — ADJ QUALIT = flat; ◊ ADV

15 A piece of writing or a speech that is dry is dull and uninteresting. EG I thought the book was very dry. ● If you say that something is as dry as dust, you mean that it is very dull and uninteresting. EG Her lectures are as dry as dust. — ADJ QUALIT = uninspired; ● PHR : USED AS AC

16 Dry bread is bread which is plain and not covered with butter or jam. EG He managed to swallow a little soup and dry toast. — ADJ CLASSIF

17 Sherry or wine that is dry does not have a sweet taste. EG They were drinking dry white wine. — ADJ CLASSIF ≠ sweet

18 A sound that is dry is rough, sharp, or crackling, and not smooth. EG The branch snapped with a dry cracking noise. — ADJ QUALIT = harsh

19 If an actor or actress dries, he or she forgets his or her lines in a play. — V

20 high and dry: see high.

dry out. 1 If something dries out or dries off, it loses all the water or moisture that was in it or on it. EG You should let that wood dry out before you use it for anything... The clothes soon dried off in the sun. — PHRASAL VB V ERG = A

2 If someone dries out or is dried out, they are cured of alcoholism; a fairly informal use. EG They sent him to a special hospital to dry out. — PHRASAL VB V ERG = A ⇑ cure dry up. 1 If something dries up or if something dries it up, it loses all the water or moisture that was in it. EG The heat had dried up the grass. ◊ dried-up. EG She looked at the dried up piece of cake with disgust. — PHRASAL VB V ERG = A; ◊ ADJ QUALIT = stale

2 If a river, lake, or well dries up, it becomes empty of water, usually because of hot weather and the lack of rain. EG The pool dried up in the late summer. ◊ dried-up. EG They came upon a dried-up oasis. — PHRASAL VB V = ADV ≠ flood; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

3 When you dry up after a meal or dry up the dishes, you wipe the water off the plates, knives, cups, etc when they have been washed, using a cloth. EG I started to dry up a cup rather slowly. — PHRASAL VB V = ADV, OR V + O = A

4 If you dry up when you are speaking, you stop speaking in the middle of what you were saying, because you do not know or cannot remember what to say next. EG Halfway through the speech she dried up completely. — PHRASAL VB V = ADV ≠ continue

5 If something dries up, it stops being productive. EG They were worried that the oil well would dry up... The market for luxury goods dried up during the recession. — PHRASAL VB V = ADV ⇑ fail = run out

6 If you say 'dry up' to someone, you are telling them in a rather rude way to stop talking and be quiet. — CONVENTION = shut up

7 See also dried-up, drying-up.

dry-clean, dry-cleans, dry-cleaning, dry-cleaned. To dry-clean clothes or other things made of cloth means to clean them using a liquid chemical and not water. — V + O ≠ wash dry cleaner, dry cleaners. A dry cleaner is someone who has a shop where clothes and other things made of cloth can be dry-cleaned. ▸ You can also refer to the shop as the dry cleaner or the dry cleaner's. EG Take it to the dry cleaner's. — N COUNT dry-cleaning is 1 the action or work of dry-cleaning things, for example clothes. EG ...a dry-cleaning shop. 2 clothes and other things made of cloth that have been dry-cleaned, or that are going to be dry-cleaned. — N UNCOUNT; N UNCOUNT dry dock, dry docks. A dry dock is a place in a harbour from which water can be removed after a ship has entered it, so that the ship can be repaired or finished. — N COUNT dryer /draɪə/, dryers; also spelled drier. 1 A dryer is 1.1 a machine for drying clothes. 1.2 a hairdryer. — N COUNT; N COUNT

2 Dryer and drier are the comparative forms of dry.

dry-eyed. Someone who is dry-eyed is not crying. EG Then, dry-eyed, he turned and walked away. — ADJ CLASSIF ≠ tearful dry ginger is a fizzy, ginger-flavoured drink that is used for mixing with whisky or other alcoholic drinks. — N UNCOUNT ⇑ mixer dry goods are cloth, thread, and other things that are sold at a draper's shop; used in American English. — N PLURAL = haberdashery drying-up. Drying-up or the drying-up is the task of drying plates, knives, cups, etc after they have been washed. EG We helped with the drying-up. — N UNCOUNT, OR N SING WITH DET dry land is land; used when contrasting it with the sea or the air. EG We'll soon be on dry land again. — N UNCOUNT = terra firma dry rot is a serious disease of wood. It is caused by a fungus and causes wood to decay. EG If you suspect that you have dry rot in your house call a surveyor. — N UNCOUNT dry-stone wall, dry-stone walls. A dry-stone wall is a wall that has been built by skilfully fitting stones together without using any mortar. — N COUNT

DT's /diːtiːz/. If an alcoholic has the DT's, he or she cannot stop his or her body from shaking, is unable to think clearly, and may see and feel things which do not exist. — N PL : the + N = shakes dual /djuːəl/. 1 Dual means having two parts, functions, or aspects in the same situation or unit. EG Wages have, as already noted, a dual function in the economy... ...another example of her dual personality... ...dual purpose furniture, such as bed-settees... ...dual nationality. — ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ⇑ double ≠ single

2 Dual is used to describe two separate things that are of the same kind or that do the same job, but that are not exactly the same. EG This factory has a system of dual rates of pay for the same job. — ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ⇑ different dual carriageway, dual carriageways. A dual carriageway is a road which has two lanes of traffic travelling in each direction with a strip of grass or concrete down the middle to separate the two lots of traffic; used in British English. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT dualism /djuːəˡlɪzəᵊm/ is the state of having two main parts or aspects, or the belief that something has two main parts or aspects; a formal word. EG ...the old dualism of God and the devil... He seeks a dualism such as mind and matter. N UNCOUNT ⇑ plurality dub /dʌb/, dubs, dubbing, dubbed. 1 To dub someone or something a particular name means to give them that name, especially as a nickname or as a way of describing them. EG Some locals have dubbed it Dracula's castle... London was dubbed 'the insurance capital of the world'. V + O + C, OR V + O + A (as) = christen

2 If a film or soundtrack is dubbed, the soundtrack you hear is not the actors speaking, but other actors speaking a different language. EG The series sells in forty-seven countries and is dubbed into six languages... Later on, probably a different voice will be dubbed in. V + O : USU PAST PART ⇑ change

dubbin /dʌbɪn/ is a kind of thick grease that is rubbed into leather to make it soft and waterproof; used in British English. N UNCOUNT dubious /djuːbɪəs/. 1 Something that is dubious is not considered to be completely honest or safe, and therefore cannot be trusted or approved of. EG The take-over was executed after some dubious manoeuvres by James... As regards civil rights, he has a very dubious record indeed... ...goods of dubious origin. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ doubtful = questionable, suspect

2 If you are dubious, you are not completely sure about something and have not yet made up your mind about it. EG He was dubious about Baker's choice of pilot. ◊ dubiously. EG The others looked at him dubiously, not quite knowing how much to believe. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ uncertain = unsure ≠ positive ◊ ADV

3 Dubious qualities are considered to be bad rather than good. EG He was also possessed of the dubious distinction of being Gerran's son-in-law... They were not the first to use these chemicals in military operations. This dubious honour goes to the British. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ uncertain = questionable ducal /djuːkəᵊl/ places or things belong to or are connected with a duke. EG ...trees that would not have disgraced a ducal park. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB duchess /dʌtʃɪˢs/, duchesses. A duchess is a woman who has a rank equivalent to a duke, or who is a duke's wife or widow. EG ...a memorial put up by the Duchess of Marlborough. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES duchy /dʌtʃɪ/, duchies. A duchy is the area of land that is owned or ruled by a duke. EG ...the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES ⇑ territory = dukedom duck /dʌk/, ducks, ducking, ducked. 1 A duck is 1.1 a very common water bird with short legs, webbed feet, a short neck, and a large flat beak. There are many kinds of duck, either wild or kept for their eggs, meat, or feathers. 1.2 a female duck. The male is called a drake. N COUNT

2 Duck is the meat of a duck when it is cooked and eaten. EG ...wild duck in orange sauce. N UNCOUNT

3 If you take to something like a duck to water, you discover that you are naturally good at it or that you like it very much. EG They have taken to the idea like ducks to water. PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 If you say that something is like water off a duck's back, you mean that it has absolutely no effect at all. EG My suggestions were like water off a duck's back. PHR : USED AS A C ⇑ ineffective

5 If you duck, 5.1 you move your head or the top half of your body quickly downwards, especially in order to avoid being seen or hit by something. EG My own technique with a cricket ball was to duck... He ducked his head. 5.2 you go quickly under water, or dip your head quickly under water, for a short time. EG She ducked under and came up with a large shell. V OR V + O

6 To duck into a particular place means to move quickly into that place, especially in an attempt to escape danger. EG When they see you coming, they duck into their holes. V OR V + O : USU + A ⇑ plunge = dive

7 If you duck something such as a blow, you avoid it by ducking. EG He managed to duck the blow. V + A ⇑ disappear = dive

8 If you duck someone, you force them or their head under water for a short time. EG They duck you right under. V OR V + O = dodge

9 If you duck a duty or responsibility, you are careful to avoid it, especially because you are afraid of it or because you don't like it. EG She has a tendency to duck responsibility. V + O ⇑ immerse duck out. If you duck out of something that you are supposed to do, you avoid doing it, especially by making an excuse. EG It was too late to duck out of going with them. V + O = shirk ducking /dʌkɪŋ/, duckings. If you give someone a ducking, you push them under water. EG The child got a nasty ducking. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + of = back out duckling /dʌklɪŋ/, ducklings. A duckling is a young duck. N COUNT ⇑ wetting ducks and drakes. When someone plays ducks and drakes, they throw a flat stone across an area of water in such a way that the stone bounces across the surface. N COUNT ⇑ duck duct /dʌkt/, ducts. A duct is 1 a pipe, tube, or channel which is intended to carry a liquid or gas. EG The generator is positioned outside the water duct. 2 a tube in your body which carries liquid such as tears or bile; a formal use. EG The condition is caused by an obstructed tear duct. N UNCOUNT dud /dʌd/, duds. Something that is dud does not work in the way that it is supposed to, and is therefore useless. EG He'd stepped on a dud mine. ▸ used as a noun. EG I had discovered that the grenade was a dud. N UNCOUNT dud cheque, dud cheques. A dud cheque is a cheque which is not worth any money because the person who wrote it does not have any money in his or her bank account. N COUNT : USU + SUPP dude /djuːd/, dudes; used in informal American English. A dude is 1 a man; an old-fashioned use. EG ...every damn dude in the platoon. 2 a black man who dresses in a showy style. N COUNT N COUNT + SUPP

dude ranch, dude ranches. A dude ranch is an American farm where people can have holidays during which they can do activities such as riding or camping. N COUNT ▸ N COUNT : IF SING a + N

dudgeon /dʌdʒəᵊn/. If you are in high dudgeon, you are very angry or resentful, usually because your feelings have been hurt by what someone has said or done. EG He slammed the door and went off in high dudgeon. N COUNT ◊ N UNCOUNT due /djuː/, dues. 1 If something is due at a particular time, it is expected to happen, be done, or arrive at that time. EG We were due in London at 2 a.m.... The committee was due to meet on 22 August... The cars were due in thirty-five minutes... The next issue of the magazine is due out in December. PHR : USED AS A/AN = fuming

2 Due attention, consideration, etc is the proper, reasonable, or deserved amount of it under the circumstances. EG In designing the machines due attention was paid to the people who would work them... He paused a moment, giving my comments due consideration... ...failing to exercise due care and control of the child. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, USU + A/ to-INF

3 You say with due respect when you are about to disagree politely with someone. EG With all due respect, I think you will find that the situation is not as you have described. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB + N UNCOUNT ⇑ reasonable = proper

4 If you say that something will happen or take place in due course, you mean that you cannot make it happen any quicker and it will happen when the time is right for it. EG The people we love die, as we shall ourselves in due course... There is no doubt that every home will have a computer in due course. PHR : USED AS AN A = eventually

5 Something that is due, or that is due to someone, is owed to them, either as a debt or because they have a right to it. EG That money was due to me and I have not had it... Do not forget to claim any additional pension you are due under the state scheme... Old people expect to be treated with the respect due to their age and experience. ▸ used as a preposition, especially in American English. EG We made the telephone calls due us from the police station. ● If you say 'credit where credit's due', you are admitting that you ought to praise someone for something that they have done or for a good quality that they possess. EG I don't like her but, credit where credit's due, she is a good teacher. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN to ▸ PREP ● PHR

6 To give someone their due means to admit that there are some good things about them, even though there are things that you do not like about them. EG To give him his due he had no idea that he was making you angry... The BBC, give them their due, actually asked him to appear on a television programme. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = be fair

7 Dues are sums of money that you pay regularly to an organization that you belong to, such as a club or N PLURAL ⇑ money trade union, for your membership fees. EG Most union members pay their dues willingly.

8 If an event is due to something, it happens or exists as a direct result of that thing. EG His death was due to natural causes... My desire to act was due to Laurence Olivier's performance in 'Hamlet'. PREP ⇑ because of

9 You can say due to to introduce the reason for something happening. Some speakers of English believe that it is not correct to use due to in this way. EG Due to repairs, the garage will be closed next Saturday. PREP = owing to

10 Due north, south, east, or west means exactly in the direction mentioned. EG They were travelling due east, out into the hills. ADV ⇑ exactly = precisely duel /djuːəl/, duels, duelling, duelled; also spelled dueling and dueled in American English. 1 A duel is 1.1 a formal fight between two people in which they use guns, swords, or other weapons in order to settle a quarrel. EG Feelings were so intense that they fought a duel. 1.2 a situation, event, or activity, in which two people or groups are involved in a struggle or conflict. EG ...a duel between central and local government. N COUNT ⇑ contest

2 To duel means to fight a duel. EG Duelling was made illegal. V duet /djuːˈet, djuːˈɛt/, duets. A duet is a song or other piece of music sung or played by two people. EG I don't think I know of any duets for piano and trumpet. N COUNT duff /dʌf/, duffs, duffing, duffed; used in informal British English. Something that is duff is useless or broken. EG It might look all right, but I'll bet you it's a duff one. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED duff up. If you duff someone up, you fight them and injure them, usually using your fists. EG They dragged him into the alley and duffed him up. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV = beat up duffel /dʌfəˈl/, duffels; also spelled duffle. A duffel is the same as a duffel coat. N COUNT duffel bag, duffel bags; also spelled duffle bag. It is also spelled with a hyphen. A duffel bag is a bag shaped like a cylinder and made of strong cloth such as canvas. Duffel bags have string at one end which is used to close the bag and to carry it with. EG He threw his stuff in a duffel bag and left. N COUNT duffel coat, duffel coats; also spelled duffle coat. It is also spelled with a hyphen. A duffel coat is a heavy coat that fastens with rod-shaped buttons and loops, and usually has a hood. EG ...a shapeless black duffel coat. N COUNT

duffer /dʌfə/, duffers. A duffer is someone who is unable to learn what someone else is trying to teach them or who is unable to do something well or properly; an informal word. EG I'm a complete golfing duffer. N COUNT

duffle /dʌfəˈl/. See duffel.

dug /dʌg/ is the past tense and past participle of dig.

dugout /dʌgaʊt/, dugouts. A dugout is 1 a canoe that is made by hollowing out a log. 2 a shelter made by digging a hole in the ground and then covering it or tunnelling so that the shelter has a roof over it. Dugouts are usually made by soldiers. N COUNT N COUNT duke /djuːk/, dukes. A duke is 1 a nobleman who has a rank just below that of a prince. EG She was a good friend of six British dukes... ...the Duke of York. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES

2 the prince or ruler of a small independent state. EG ...the Duke of Upper Saxony. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES

dukedom /djuːkdəm/, dukedoms. A dukedom is 1 the rank or title of a duke. 2 the land owned by a duke. EG So he became heir to a dukedom. N COUNT N COUNT dulcet /dʌlsɪˈt/. Dulcet sounds are gentle and pleasant to listen to; a literary word, often used humorously. EG Her dulcet tones came over the airwaves. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = sweet dull /dʌl/, duller, dullest; dulls, dulling, dulled. 1 Someone or something that is dull 1.1 does not seem to have any interesting features. EG I thought the book dull and unoriginal... It's a terribly dull place; nothing much goes on here at all... I found that he was the same dull sedate person he had always been. ◊ dullness. EG ...the dullness of his life. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ uninteresting = boring, dreary

1.2 is not very lively or energetic. EG I often feel dull and awkward when I go to parties... She became dull and silent during the last part of the long journey. ◊ dully. EG 'How long will I have to be away from home?' he asked dully. ◊ dullness. EG A strange dullness had replaced her usual cheerfulness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ listless ≠ vivacious ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Light or a colour that is dull is rather dark. EG The sea had been a dull grey... The whole canyon is in dull shadow... ...a dull glow. ◊ dully. EG The lights of the houses gleamed dully on the hillside. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ dimly

3 Dull weather is rather cloudy. EG It's very dull today but I don't think it'll rain. ADJ QUALIT = overcast

4 Sounds that are dull are not very clear or loud. EG Instead of the dull boom we expected there was a terrible crack... There was a dull thud as his head hit the floor. ◊ dully. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ sharp ◊ ADV

5 Feelings or pain that are dull are not very clear or sharply defined. EG The dull ache in her belly began again... Because he was fat, he hated school games with a dull passion. ◊ dully. EG His ankle throbbed dully as the blood rushed to it. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ≠ acute ◊ ADV WITH VB

6 Someone who is dull is not very intelligent and learns things very slowly. EG ...the dullest boy in the class... ...these factors affect both intelligent and dull children. ◊ dullness. EG Her dullness and his impatience made it impossible for her to learn from him. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ stupid = slow ◊ N UNCOUNT

7 A knife that is dull has a blade that is not sharp; a fairly formal use. EG What use is a knife with a dull blade? ADJ QUALIT ⇑ blunt ≠ sharp

8 If something dulls a pain, emotion, or feeling, it causes it to be felt less intensely. EG In her experience, the taking of food dulled pain... Her sensitivity is dulled. V + O ⇑ lessen = numb

9 If something dulls or if you dull something, it becomes darker or less lively. EG His eyes dulled. V ERG ≠ brighten dullard /dʌlɔd/, dullards. A dullard is a person who is stupid and unimaginative; an old-fashioned word. EG ...an incompetent, bumbling dullard. N COUNT = dimwit, blockhead duly /djuːliˈ/. 1 Duly is used to say that an action or process has been done in the proper, correct, or expected way. EG She was declared duly elected to Parliament... Don't worry. Everything has been duly taken care of. ADV ⇑ properly

2 If something duly happens, it happens at the proper or expected time. EG De Gaulle duly attended the ceremony at the appointed time... The book duly appeared in March as had been promised... I was expecting the question which he duly asked. ADV WITH VB dumb /dʌm/, dumber, dumbest. 1 Someone who is dumb is 1.1 completely unable to speak. EG She was deaf and dumb from birth. 1.2 not able or willing to say anything for a short while, for example because they are angry, shocked, or surprised. EG The girl stood, dumb and sullen... We were struck dumb with horror and grief. 1.3 not very clever or intelligent; an informal, offensive use. EG They used to call you dumb if you worked on a farm. ADJ CLASSIF ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ⇑ silent ADJ QUALIT ⇑ stupid = dim ≠ clever

2 Something that is dumb is 2.1 done or expressed without words. EG Silence can upset some people who interpret it as dumb insolence... He was in a dumb rage. 2.2 silly and annoying; an informal use showing disapproval. EG All they bought me was this dumb T-shirt... ...in order to prevent dumb mistakes later on. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ⇑ silent ADJ QUALIT = stupid

3 You can refer to animals as dumb animals to emphasize that they cannot speak to people and perhaps that they are helpless. ADJ CLASSIF

dumbbell /dʌmbɛl/, dumbbells; also spelled with a hyphen. A dumbbell is 1 a short bar with weights on either side which people use for physical exercise to strengthen their arm and shoulder muscles. 2 a stupid person; an informal use, mainly in American English. EG They had watched many a dumbbell turn into a national hero on the baseball pitch. N COUNT N COUNT ⇑ fool = dummy dumbfounded /dʌmfaʊndɪˈd/. If you are dumbfounded, you are so surprised that you are unable to speak. EG He was watching, dumbfounded, when suddenly he heard a scream... ...a circle of dumbfounded police officers. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED dumbly /dʌmliˈ/. If you do something dumbly, you do it without saying anything, for example because you are afraid or because you do not understand. EG Numb with fear, the men followed dumbly the order to sit down... For a moment he stared dumbly at the wall. ADV WITH VB

dumbo /dʌmbəʊ/, dumbos. If you call someone a dumbo, you mean that they are rather stupid; an informal word. N COUNT : ALSO VOC ⇑ fool = dope dumbstruck /dʌmstrʌk/. If you are dumbstruck, you are so shocked or surprised that you cannot speak. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED = dumbfounded dumb waiter, dumb waiters; also spelled with a hyphen. A dumb waiter is a lift used to carry things, such as food or dishes, from one floor of a building to another. N COUNT

dum-dum /dʌm dʌm/, dum-dums. A dum-dum or a dum-dum bullet is a bullet that is very soft or hollow at the front and that causes large and serious wounds because it breaks into small pieces when it hits someone. N COUNT dummy /dʌmi¹/, dummies. 1 A dummy is 1.1 a large model that looks like a human being and is used, for example, to display clothes in a shop. EG I like the dress that's on the dummy... ...a ventriloquist's dummy. 1.2 a model or imitation of something that has been made to look similar to the real thing or to show some of its characteristics. 1.3 in British English, a rubber object that a baby is given to suck so that it feels comforted and stays quiet. N COUNT

2 Dummy means not real but used, made, or carried out as if it were real. EG The cannon was loaded with dummy shells... They used several dummy firms for the arms deal. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = fake ≠ genuine

3 A dummy or dummy hand is a hand of cards in a game of bridge which is placed on the table where all the players can see it. N COUNT

4 If you call someone a dummy, you mean that you think they are very stupid; an informal use. N COUNT : ALSO VOC dummy run, dummy runs. A dummy run is a trial or test procedure, which is carried out in order to see if something works properly and if there are any problems. EG Let's do a dummy run on the computer and see if the program works. N COUNT = trial run dump /dʌmp/, dumps, dumping, dumped. 1 If you dump something, 1.1 you unload it or throw it down in a careless manner. EG They came back with armful of dry things and dumped them on the fire... She dumped her bag on Judy's table. 1.2 you throw it away or leave it somewhere because you do not want it any more. EG They dumped a load of rubbish in the river... The stolen car was found dumped in one of the side streets. ◊ dumping. EG ...the dumping of acid wastes in the North Sea. V+O : USU + A ⇑ put = drop / V+O : USU + A ⇑ dispose of = ditch / ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If a firm or company dumps goods, it sells large quantities of them at prices far below their real value, usually in another country, in order to gain a bigger market share or to keep prices high in the home market. EG Drugs or chemicals that are banned in Western countries are often dumped in Third World countries. V+O : USU + A ⇑ sell

3 To dump computer data or part of a computer's memory means to copy it from one storage system of a computer onto another, such as from disc to magnetic tape; a technical term. V+O

4 A dump is 4.1 a place where rubbish is left, sometimes without permission, for example on open ground outside a town. EG Twelve tons of toxic waste have been discovered on an old rubbish dump in Kent. 4.2 a place where an army stores food, weapons, or ammunition temporarily while it is stationed in a particular place. EG The ammunition dump was hit by a shell. 4.3 a place which is very ugly and unpleasant to live in; an informal use. EG It's a real dump. 4.4 the act or process of copying data or memory from one storage system onto another; a technical term in computing. N COUNT = tip / N COUNT ⇑ store / N COUNT = hole, slum / N COUNT ⇑ copy

5 If you dump someone somewhere, you let them get out of a vehicle there after you have taken them there; an informal use. V+O+A = drop

6 If you are down in the dumps, you are feeling very depressed and miserable; an informal expression. PHR : USED AS A C ⇑ unhappy

dumper truck, dumper trucks; also spelled with a hyphen. A dumper truck is a truck whose carrying part can be tipped backwards so that the load falls out. N COUNT = dump truck dumping ground, dumping grounds. 1 A dumping ground is a place where rubbish is left, sometimes without permission, for example on open ground outside a town. N COUNT

2 If you say that a place is a dumping ground for a particular thing, you mean that that thing is left there, usually in large quantities, because it is no longer wanted. EG This country has become a dumping ground for every sort of surplus military hardware. N COUNT + for ⇑ store = repository dumpling /dʌmplɪŋ/, dumplings. A dumpling is 1 a small lump of dough that is cooked with meat and vegetables. 2 a pudding consisting of an apple or other fruit covered in a sweet dough and cooked. N COUNT / N COUNT ⇑ pudding dump truck, dump trucks. A dump truck is the same as a dumper truck. N COUNT

dumpy /dʌmpi¹/, dumpier, dumpiest. Someone who is dumpy is short and fat. EG ...a cross, dumpy woman. ADJ QUALIT

dun /dʌn/. Something that is dun is of a dull grey-brown colour. EG ...a flat, dun stretch of ground. ADJ COLOUR

dunce /dʌns/, dunces. A dunce is a person who is stupid and finds it difficult or impossible to learn what someone is trying to teach them; used showing disapproval. EG He was such a dunce at school. N COUNT : ALSO VOC = dimwit dune /dju:n/, dunes. A dune is a hill of sand near the sea or in a sand desert. EG The wind carves it into gulleys and later into sand dunes. N COUNT dung /dʌŋ/ is faeces from animals, especially from large animals such as cattle and horses. EG ...fresh buffalo dung. N UNCOUNT ⇑ excrement dungarees /dʌŋgəˈri:z/ are trousers that are attached to a piece of cloth which covers your chest and which has straps going over your shoulders. N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N ⇑ clothing dungeon /dʌndʒəⁿn/, dungeons. A dungeon is a dark underground prison or prison cell in a castle. EG They were driven into dark dungeons, straight off the battlefield. N COUNT ⇑ cellar dunk /dʌŋk/, dunks, dunking, dunked. 1 If you dunk something such as a biscuit or a piece of bread in a drink or in soup, you dip it into the drink or soup before eating it. EG He used to dunk his biscuits in his tea. V+O : USU + A

2 If you dunk something in a liquid, you put it in the liquid, especially for a particular purpose and for a short time. EG Just dunk it thoroughly in white spirit for five minutes. V+O+A (in) ⇑ dip duo /dju:əʊ/, duos. A duo is 1 two musicians or singers who play music or sing together as a pair. EG ...a world-famous singing duo. 2 two people together, especially people who have something in common; an informal use. EG When they're together they make a frightening duo. N COUNT / N COUNT + SUPP = pair duodenal /dju:əˈdi:nəⁿl/ means relating to or contained in the duodenum; a medical term. EG ...a duodenal ulcer. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB duodenum /dju:əˈdi:nəⁿm/, duodenums. Your duodenum is the part of your small intestine just below your stomach; a medical term. N COUNT

dupe /dju:p/, dupes, duping, duped. 1 If someone dupes you, they trick you, often in order to make you do something which they want you to do, but which you do not want to do. EG I was duped into opening my heart and expressing my thoughts... The people could see how they had been duped. V+O : IF + PREP THEN into : USU PASS ⇑ deceive = con, fool

2 A dupe is someone who is tricked by someone else. EG I couldn't decide whether he was a dupe or a scoundrel. N COUNT duplex /dju:pleks/, duplexes. 1 Something such as a device or process that is duplex has two parts; a technical term. EG This stimulates a duplex transaction. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = dual, two-fold

2 In American English, a duplex is 2.1 a semi-detached house. EG The house was an older duplex encircled by nicely shaped hedges. 2.2 a flat which has rooms on two floors. N COUNT = semi / N COUNT duplicate, duplicates, duplicating, duplicated. The word duplicate is pronounced /dju:plɪkət/ when it is a noun and an adjective, and /dju:plɪkeɪt/ when it is a verb. 1 To duplicate something written or drawn means make exact copies of it, often using a special machine such as a photocopier. EG The story was typed and duplicated... ...a duplicating machine. V+O ⇑ copy = photocopy

2 Duplicate is used to describe things that have been made as an exact copy of other things, usually in order to serve the same purpose. EG It could be driven away by someone with a duplicate key... We would have to build a duplicate city for the new urban millions. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ identical

3 A duplicate is something that is identical to something else because it has been copied exactly. EG We get a written draft, a duplicate, which you use if the first one's lost. N COUNT ⇑ copy

4 If you have something in duplicate, you have two identical copies of it. EG Usually now we ask for a draft in duplicate. PHR : USED AS A/C

5 If you duplicate something that has already been done, you repeat or copy it. EG ...an oversight that would allow candidates to duplicate material in two answers... We really haven't duplicated the old system. ◊ duplication /dju:plɪkeɪʃəⁿn/. EG There had been some duplication of effort involved. V+O / ◊ N UNCOUNT duplicator /djuːplɪkeɪtə/, duplicators. A duplicator is a machine which makes copies of writing or drawings from a specially prepared original. EG You can use the typewriter or duplicator. N COUNT duplicity /djuːplɪsɪtɪ[1]/ is speech or action that has the aim of making people believe something which is not true. EG I was trying to plan some way of tackling her duplicity. N UNCOUNT ⇑ deceit = deception ≠ honesty durable /djʊəʳrəbəᵊl/. Something that is durable is strong and lasts a long time without breaking or becoming weaker. EG ...buyers looking for well-finished and durable products. ◊ durability /djʊəᵊrəbɪlɪtɪ[1]/. EG You should always consider the durability of a product... ...the durability of their love. ADJ QUALIT = tough ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ endurance = strength duration /djʊreɪʃəᵊn/. 1 The duration of an event or state is the length of time during which it happens or exists. EG I shall be away for the duration of the holiday. N SING : the + N + of

2 If you say that something will happen for the duration, you mean that it will happen for as long as the event or activity which is being talked about continues. EG Now the storm has started I shall have to put up with you for the duration. PHR USED AS AN A duress /djʊəᵊres/ is physical or moral pressure that is used to make someone do something which they do not want to do. EG ...a decision made early in life under duress. N UNCOUNT : under + N

Durex /djʊəᵊreks/. Durex is both the singular and the plural form. Durex is a British trademark for a contraceptive sheath. N COUNT

during /djʊəᵊrɪŋ/. Something that happens during a period of time 1 happens continuously or several times from the beginning to the end of that period of time. EG I worked in Littlewoods during the summer holidays last year... Fry had worked a great deal with her at Oxford during the war... She heated the place during the winter with a huge wood furnace... I take mild tranquillisers every night during the week. PREP ⇑ in

2 happens or develops gradually from the beginning to the end of that period of time. EG During my fast I had lost fifteen pounds in weight... Both characters had to age during the course of the play... No credible generation of artists has emerged during the 1970s. PREP ⇑ in

3 happens at some point in the course of that period of time. EG He had died during the night... Disease broke out during the journey... She left Bengal during the late spring of 1740. PREP ⇑ in dusk /dʌsk/ is the time just before night when the daylight has almost gone but when it is not completely dark; a fairly literary word. N UNCOUNT, OR N SING : the + N

dusky /dʌskɪ[1]/, duskier, duskiest; a literary or formal word. 1 A place, time of day, or light that is dusky is rather dark or shadowy. EG He returned to the dusky room... ...the late, dusky summer evening... ...in the dusky light of the morning. ADJ CLASSIF = dim ≠ bright

2 Dusky means rather dark in colour. EG ...dusky blond hair... Heavy gold earrings gleamed against her dusky cheeks. ADJ QUALIT

dust /dʌst/, dusts, dusting, dusted. 1 Dust is very small dry particles of earth or sand. EG A fine red dust covered everything... Each car threw up a cloud of white dust from the road... The hot wind had brought down dust clouds from the Sahara... Lying face down in the dust, he cried for his dead son. N UNCOUNT

1.2 the very small pieces of dirt which you find inside buildings, for example on furniture, floors, or lights. EG Children don't care about mess or dust as long as they feel they are loved... She wrote 'I love you' in the dust on the coffee table. N UNCOUNT

1.3 a fine powder which consists of very small particles of a substance such as gold, wood, or cloth. EG The autumn sun sparkled on the pavements like gold dust... We cut some of the wood to dust. N UNCOUNT

2 If you allow the dust to settle or let the dust settle, you let a situation calm down before you try to do anything else; an informal expression. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ wait

3 If something bites the dust, it fails and stops working; an informal and humorous expression. EG My vacuum cleaner's finally bitten the dust. PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 When you dust or when you dust something such as furniture, you remove dust from it, usually using a cloth. EG He dusted all the furniture and then polished it... She spent the day dusting and cleaning. V OR V + O ⇑ clean

5 If you dust something with a fine substance such as powder, you cover it lightly with that substance. EG She put on lipstick and dusted her face with powder. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with

6 If you dust a fine substance such as powder onto something, you cover or sprinkle the object with that substance. EG He dusted a powder onto his roses to kill all the insects. V + O : USU + A dust down. If you dust something down, you remove dust from it, usually with a brush or a cloth. EG They dusted down the whole house before they started decorating. PHRASAL VB : V + O = ADV ⇑ clean dust off. If you dust dirt off something, you take it off, usually using a cloth or a brush. EG She dusted every bit of dirt off her dining table. PHRASAL VB : V + O = ADV ⇑ clean dustbin /dʌstbɪn/, dustbins. A dustbin is a large, round container with a lid which people put their rubbish in and which is usually kept outside their house; used mainly in British English. N COUNT = trash can dustcart /dʌstkɑːt/, dustcarts; also spelled with a hyphen. A dustcart is a lorry into which the dustmen put the rubbish from people's dustbins; used in British English. N COUNT = garbage truck duster /dʌstə/, dusters. A duster is a cloth which you use for removing dust from furniture, ornaments, or other objects. N COUNT dust-jacket, dust-jackets; also spelled without a hyphen. A dust-jacket or a dust-cover is a loose paper cover which is put on a book to protect it. It often contains information about the book and its author. EG They put his photograph on the dust-jacket of his first novel. N COUNT : USU SUPP

dustman /dʌstmənᵊn/, dustmen. A dustman is a person whose job is to empty the rubbish from people's dustbins and take it away to be disposed of; used in British English. N COUNT ⇑ worker = garbage collector dustpan /dʌstpæn/, dustpans. A dustpan is a small flat container made of metal or plastic, into which you sweep dust and dirt with a brush. N COUNT

dustsheet /dʌstʃiːt/, dustsheets; also spelled with a hyphen. A dustsheet is a large cloth which is used to cover objects such as furniture in order to protect them from dust; used in British English. N COUNT dust-up, dust-ups; also spelled as one word. A dust-up is a quarrel that often involves some fighting; an informal word. EG John was in a bit of a dust-up outside the pub last night. N COUNT dusty /dʌstɪ/, dustier, dustiest. 1 Something that is dusty is 1.1 covered with, or full of, tiny bits of earth or sand, usually because there has been no rain for a long time. EG We rode along a dusty mountain track in Morocco... The day was very hot and very dusty. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dry

1.2 covered with the kind of dust that is found in houses. EG ...a room full of dusty, broken furniture... The goods in the shop window were dusty. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dirty

2 A dusty colour is dull and has a slightly grey tinge. EG She was wearing a dress of dusty blue. ADJ QUALIT : COLOUR

Dutch /dʌtʃ/. 1 A person or thing that is Dutch comes from the Netherlands or is connected with the Netherlands or its people. ADJ CLASSIF

2 Dutch is the language that is spoken in the Netherlands. N UNCOUNT

3 The Dutch are the people of the Netherlands. EG The Germans and the Dutch were not represented at the conference. N PLURAL : the + N

4 If two or more people go Dutch, each of them pays their own bill, for example in a restaurant, rather than one person paying for both of them or all of them; an informal expression. EG She insisted upon going Dutch. PHR : VB INFLECTS = share the cost

5 See also double Dutch.

Dutch cap, Dutch caps. A Dutch cap is a circular rubber contraceptive device used by women. N COUNT = diaphragm

Dutch courage is the courage that you get by drinking alcoholic drinks; an informal expression. N UNCOUNT

Dutchman /dʌtʃməᵊn/, Dutchmen. A Dutchman is a man who is a native of the Netherlands. N COUNT

Dutchwoman /dʌtʃwʊmən/, Dutchwomen. A Dutchwoman is a woman who is a native of the Netherlands. N COUNT

dutiful /djuːtɪfʊl/. If you are dutiful, you do everything that you are expected to do. EG He was a dutiful son. ◊ dutifully. EG He dutifully said his prayers every night. ADJ QUALIT = obedient ◊ ADV WITH VB duty /djuːtɪ[1]/, duties. 1 Duty is all the work that you have to do because it is part of your job or your position in society. EG He reported for duty at the manager's office... I had to do jury duty last month. N UNCOUNT

2 If someone such as a policeman or a nurse is on duty at a particular time, they are working at that time. If they are off duty at a particular time, they PHR : USED AS A/C are not working at that time. EG There were only two prison wardens on duty when the riot started.

3 A duty is a task which you have to do because it is part of your job or position in society. EG Nursing auxiliaries help qualified nurses with their basic duties. N COUNT

4 If you say that something is your duty, you mean that you feel you ought to do it because it is right or because it is part of a code of behaviour that you believe in. EG As a doctor, it was my duty to preserve life... She did her duty and cared for her ageing parents for ten years... This young woman obviously has no sense of duty. N COUNT : WITH POSS, OR N UNCOUNT = obligation

5 Duty or a duty is a tax which you pay to the government on goods that you buy. EG The government increased the duty on petrol... Customs duties are collected at the border. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT + SUPP duty-bound. If you are duty-bound to do something, you are obliged to do it because it is felt to be right; a formal word. EG You are duty-bound to stay by her sick bed. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to-INF duty-free. 1 Duty-free goods are sold at airports, on ships, etc at a cheaper price than usual because you do not have to pay the tax that is usually paid when the goods are brought into a country. EG ...duty-free cigarettes. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ tax-free

2 If you buy goods duty-free, you buy them at a cheaper price than usual because you do not have to pay the tax that is usually paid when goods are brought into a country. ADV WITH VB ⇑ tax-free duty-free shop, duty-free shops. A duty-free shop is a shop, for example at an airport, where you can buy duty-free goods. N COUNT duvet /duːveɪ/, duvets. A duvet is a large bag filled with feathers or similar material which you use to cover yourself in bed instead of a sheet and blankets; used in British English. N COUNT = quilt duvet cover, duvet covers. A duvet cover is a washable cover for a duvet. N COUNT dwarf /dwɔːf/, dwarfs, dwarfing, dwarfed. 1 If something dwarfs a person or object, it is a lot bigger than them and makes them look very small. EG David was dwarfed by a huge bare desk... Commercial buildings are now beginning to dwarf the city churches. V + O : USU PASS = tower over

2 Dwarf is used to describe plants or animals which are much smaller than normal. EG ...little trimmed dwarf Japanese Bonsai trees... ...dwarf breeds of dog. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = miniature

3 A dwarf is 3.1 a person who is much smaller than the usual size. EG There are some children who remain as dwarfs because they lack a particular hormone. 3.2 an imaginary creature in fairy stories and legends who is like a small ugly man and often has magical powers. N COUNT ⇑ midget ≠ giant / N COUNT

dwarfish /dwɔːfɪʃ/. Someone or something that is dwarfish is surprisingly small. EG ...a dwarfish man with nimble hands. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ tiny ≠ gigantic dwell /dwel/, dwells, dwelling, dwelled, dwelt. Dwelled and dwelt are both used as the past tense and past participle of the verb. If you dwell somewhere, you live there; a formal word. EG He had gone off to the Himalayas and had dwelt there for some years. V + A ⇑ reside dwell on. If you dwell on something or dwell upon it, you think, speak, or write about it a great deal. EG She began to dwell on memories of how her mother had lived her life... His mind often dwelt upon the fact that there were only two more weeks before he had to join the army. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = brood about, think about dweller /dwelə/, dwellers. A city dweller, slum dweller, etc is a person who lives in the kind of place or house indicated. EG They are hoping to provide Western-style housing for all their city dwellers. N COUNT : MOD + N = resident dwelling /dwelɪŋ/, dwellings. A dwelling or a dwelling place is a place where someone lives; an old-fashioned or formal word. EG ...hillside cave dwellings... They will be given a choice of various dwelling places. N COUNT ⇑ home dwelt /dwelt/ is the past tense and past participle of dwell.

dwindle /dwɪndəl/, dwindles, dwindling, dwindled. If something dwindles, 1 it becomes smaller, less strong, or less in number. EG Her money had dwindled away to nothing... The number of people going to the cinema seems to dwindle steadily. ◊ dwindling. EG Actors are playing to dwindling audiences as interest in the theatre diminishes. 2 it becomes less important. EG After losing the war, the dynasty began to dwindle. V + A = diminish, decline ≠ increase / ◊ ADJ QUALIT dye /daɪ/, dyes, dyeing, dyed. 1 If you dye something such as hair or cloth, you change its colour by soaking it in a special liquid. EG She mixed finely pounded indigo leaves to dye her cloth deep blue. ◊ dyed. EG ...a woman with dyed red hair. V + O / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 A dye is a substance made from plants or chemicals which is mixed into a liquid and used to change the colour of something such as cloth or hair. EG There are four basic dyes... Dip them in a yellow dye... ...a tin of dye powder. N MASS ⇑ colouring dyed-in-the-wool means having very strong opinions about something which you refuse to change. EG He spoke as a dyed-in-the-wool aristocrat himself. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = diehard dyer /daɪə/, dyers. A dyer is a person whose job is to dye things. EG There were blacksmiths, tanners, dyers, and weavers. N COUNT dying /daɪɪŋ/. 1 Dying is the present participle of die.

2 A dying person or animal is very ill and likely to die soon. EG She walked away and left a dying man. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 The dying are people who are so ill or so badly injured that they will not live very much longer. EG He is out there in France, tending the dying in the trenches. N PLURAL : the + N

4 Dying is used to describe something which happens at the time when someone dies, or is connected with that time. EG She begged him with her dying breath to look after his little sister... He swore he would remain faithful until his dying day. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

5 A dying tradition or industry is becoming less important. EG Coal is by no means a dying industry. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB dyke /daɪk/, dykes; also spelled dike. 1 A dyke is a thick wall that is built to stop water flooding onto very low-lying land from a river or from the sea. N COUNT

2 A dyke is a lesbian; an informal and offensive use. N COUNT

dynamic /daɪnæmɪk/, dynamics. 1 Someone who is dynamic is full of energy or full of new and exciting ideas. EG The new President of Mexico is a dynamic and able man. ▸ used of people's actions or ideas. EG They have rejected my suggestions but seem to have no dynamic alternatives to offer. ◊ dynamically. EG We would like to see them participate more dynamically. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ forceful = energetic / ▸ ADJ QUALIT / ◊ ADV = actively

2 A dynamic is a force of society, history, or the mind that produces change; a technical term. EG The conference discussed land shortage and the dynamics of rural society... The population explosion imports its own dynamic into the world economy. N COUNT

3 Dynamic is used to describe something which relates to a force which produces power or movement; a technical term. ◊ dynamically. EG This is a government-approved, dynamically tested car restraint. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ◊ ADV

4 Dynamics is the scientific study of motion, energy and forces; a technical term. N UNCOUNT dynamism /daɪnəmɪzəm/ is the quality that someone has when they are full of energy or full of new and exciting ideas. N UNCOUNT dynamite /daɪnəmaɪt/, dynamites, dynamiting, dynamited. 1 Dynamite is an explosive that is made by soaking something such as sawdust with nitroglycerin. EG ...rebels wielding sticks of dynamite. N UNCOUNT

2 To dynamite something means to blow it up by using dynamite. EG They dynamited the houses... Their most famous coup was the dynamiting of the King David Hotel. V + O ⇑ blow up

3 If you say that something or someone is dynamite, you mean that they are very dangerous or exciting. EG In the wrong hands this report could be dynamite... Haldane the philosopher was still political dynamite. N UNCOUNT dynamo /daɪnəməʊ/, dynamos. 1 A dynamo is a device that uses the movement of a machine or vehicle to produce electricity. Dynamos are used in cars and can be used on a bicycle to provide the power for its lights. N COUNT

2 If you call someone a dynamo, you mean that they are very energetic and are always busy and active. EG Her mother, a restless human dynamo, could never bear the stay in one house for more than a year. N COUNT

dynastic /daɪnæstɪk/ means typical of or relating to a dynasty. ADJ CLASSIF

dynasty /dɪnəsti[1]/, dynasties. A dynasty is 1 a series of rulers of a country who all belong to the same family. EG The dynasty he founded ruled for 700 years. 2 a period of time during which a country is ruled by members of the same family. EG Colonization took place during the Habsburg dynasty. N COUNT dysentery /dɪsə[0]ntri[1]/ is an infection in a person's intestines that causes severe diarrhoea, in which blood and mucus are mixed with a person's faeces. N UNCOUNT ⇑ illness
N COUNT : SUPP ⇑ era

dyslexia /dɪsleksɪə/ is difficulty with reading which a person has because of a slight disorder of the brain; a technical term. N UNCOUNT dyslexic /dɪsleksɪk/. Someone who is dyslexic has difficulty with reading because of a slight disorder of the brain; a technical term. ADJ CLASSIF dyspepsia /dɪspepsɪə/ is the same as indigestion; a formal or technical term. N UNCOUNT dyspeptic /dɪspeptɪk/. Someone who is dyspeptic is suffering from indigestion or often suffers from it; a formal or technical term. ADJ CLASSIF dystrophy /dɪstrəfi[1]/. See muscular dystrophy.

Ee

E, e /iː/, E's, e's. 1 E is the fifth letter of the English alphabet. N COUNT

2 E, in music, is the third note in the scale of C major. N COUNT/UNCOUNT

3 E or e is also an abbreviation for various words beginning with E or e, such as 'English', 'east', or 'eastern'.

each /iːtʃ/. 1 If you refer to each thing or each person in a group, you are referring to every member of the group and considering them as individuals. EG Each county is subdivided into several districts... Each day Kunta felt a little worse... The average walk for water is five miles each way... She kept a card index for each child... If you have more than one employer, you will need a certificate for each one. ▸ used as a pronoun. EG There were peaches, pears, and apricots. I opened two tins of each, six in all... They were all just sitting there, each of them thinking private thoughts. DET : N COUNT IN SING
▸ PRON : IF + PREP THEN of

2 Each is used to emphasize that you are referring to every individual thing or person in a group. EG We each have our private views about it... He counted out five wads of twenty notes each... He offered me the tin of biscuits and my sister and I had one each. PRON

3 Each other is used when you are saying that each member of a group does something to the others or has a particular connection with all the others. EG She and John looked at each other... They've known each other for years and years... We know each other's minds very well. PRON eager /iːgə/. 1 If you are eager for something or to do something, you want to have or do it very much. EG The majority were moderate, and eager to express their opinions... People eager for a quick cure are likely to be disappointed. ◊ eagerness. EG ...my eagerness to learn. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + for/to-INF = keen, impatient
= one another

◊ N UNCOUNT
= impatience

2 If you look or sound eager, you look or sound as if you expect something interesting or enjoyable to happen. EG He looked round the circle of eager faces... The eager crowd streamed into the halls of the court. ◊ eagerly. EG They began to talk eagerly. ◊ eagerness. EG ...the vitality and eagerness of a normal toddler. ADJ QUALIT
⇑ expectant = excited
◊ ADV WITH VB
◊ N UNCOUNT
= enthusiasm

eagle /iːgə[0]l/, eagles. An eagle is a large, strong bird that lives by eating small animals. There are several different kinds of eagle. ● If you say that someone has an eagle eye, you mean that they are very good at noticing small details. EG She read each page with an eagle eye. N COUNT
● PHR : USED AS O

ear /ɪə/, ears. 1 The ears of a person or animal are the two matching parts of their body, one on each side of their head, with which they hear sounds. EG The ball dropped down past his right ear and into the neck of his shirt... They have large eyes, but only small ears... He leaned over and whispered something in Philip's ear. N COUNT

2 If you have an ear for music or language, you are able to hear its sounds accurately and to interpret them or reproduce them well. EG ...his marvellous ear for the sound of words. N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN for ⇑ ability

3 The word ear is often used to refer to people's willingness to listen to what someone is saying. EG He tried to give a sympathetic ear to her complaints... Do not close your ears to that little clicking noise in the hope that it will go away... ...listening with eager ear to the threats of big business. N COUNT/UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP
⇑ hearing

4 The ears of a cereal plant such as wheat or barley are the parts at the top of the stem, which contain the seeds or grains and are used for food. N COUNT

5 The word ear is also used in the following informal expressions. 5.1 If you say that someone is all ears, you mean that they are ready and eager to listen. EG Tell me about the party.–I'm all ears. 5.2 If you say that someone's ears are flapping, you mean that they are listening very hard to something that is being said, even though it has nothing to do with them. 5.3 If you say that something goes in one ear and out the other, you mean that what has been said is forgotten immediately. 5.4 If you keep or have your ear to the ground, you make sure that you are well informed about other people and their opinions or activities. 5.5 If someone says that you will be out on your ear, they mean that you will be or may be thrown out or dismissed suddenly and unpleasantly. EG You'll find yourself out on your ear if you go on like this... Seconds later they were out on their ears. 5.6 If you play by ear or play a piece of music by ear, you play music by relying on your sense of tune and harmony or on your memory, rather than by reading printed music. EG In fact I can only play by ear and have never been able to read music. 5.7 If you play it by ear, you decide what to say or do in a situation by responding to events rather than by following a plan which you have decided on in advance. EG I've no idea what they're going to say, so I'll have to play it by ear. 5.8 If someone gives you a thick ear, they punch or slap you on the side of your head; an expression used in British English. EG You'll get a thick ear if you don't stop it. 5.9 If you turn a deaf ear to someone or something, you take no notice of what is being said. EG Young people sometimes seem to turn a deaf ear to the words of their anxious parents. 5.10 If you are up to your ears in something, it is taking up all your time, attention, or resources. EG She was up to her ears in paint, but made me very welcome... She was up to her ears in debt. 5.11 If you listen to something or someone with only half an ear, you do not give full attention to what is being said. 5.12 ● a flea in the ear: see flea. ● wet behind the ears: see wet.
PHR : USED AS C
= listening
PHR : VB INFLECTS
PHR : USED AS AN A
PHR : VB INFLECTS
PHR : USED AS AN A = fired
PHR : VB INFLECTS
PHR : VB INFLECTS
⇑ improvise
PHR : USED AS O
PHR : VB INFLECTS
⇑ ignore
PHR : USED AS AN A
PHR : USED AS AN A

earache /ɪəreɪk/; also spelled with a hyphen. Earache is a pain in the inside part of your ear. N UNCOUNT, OR N SING : an + N eardrum /ɪədrʌm/, eardrums; also spelled with a hyphen. Your eardrum is a thin piece of tightly stretched skin inside your ear, which vibrates when sound waves reach it so that signals are carried along the nerves connecting your eardrum to your brain, enabling you to hear sounds. N COUNT ⇑ membrane

earful /ɪəfʊl/. If you say that you gave someone an earful, you mean that you spoke angrily to them for quite a long time; an informal word. EG I gave him an earful on how he had oppressed me all our married life... If anyone touched him, they'd get an earful. N SING : an + N ⇑ rebuke = mouthful

earl /ɜːl/, earls. An earl is a British nobleman who ranks below a marquess and above a viscount. EG The earl and countess are taking breakfast... ...the Earl of Essex. N COUNT ALSO IN NAMES BEFORE N

earldom /ɜːldəᵊm/, earldoms. An earldom is the rank or state of being an earl. N COUNT earlier /ɜːliᵊə/ is the comparative of early. It is also used to refer to a point or period in time before the present or before the one that you are talking about. EG Her parents had died of cholera four years earlier... I had seen Komis earlier in the evening... ...as I said earlier... I mentioned that problem earlier on... Mr Habib will resume his earlier efforts to reach a settlement... ...in earlier times, when this fashion was popular. ADV AFTER VB, OR ADJ QUALIT : COMPAR ≠ later earliest /ɜːliᵊɪˢt/ is the superlative of early. EG The components of the earliest computers were large and mechanical... One of my earliest memories is of a total eclipse of the sun. ● At the earliest means not before the date or time mentioned. EG 'When can you get here?'–'Six o'clock at the earliest'... No developments were expected before the second half of August at the earliest. ADJ QUALIT : SUPERL ⇑ first ● PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ soonest earlobe /ɪəlɔʊb/, earlobes; also spelled with a hyphen. Your earlobes are the soft, rounded parts of your ears, which hang down below the rest. N COUNT = lobe early /ɜːliᵊ/, earlier, earliest. 1 Early means 1.1 near the beginning of a day. EG I got up early and ate my breakfast... ...very early in the morning... ...in the early morning mist.... ...in the early hours of 4 August. 1.2 near the beginning of a week, year, or other period of time. EG It was early evening when we finished... ...early last week... ...in early December... ...early in 1915. 1.3 near the beginning of a period in history or in the history of something such as the world, a society, or an activity. EG ...in the early 1980s... Pyle had enlisted early in the war... Their role in the strike had become evident early on... ...in the early days of railways. 1.4 near the beginning of someone's life. EG Mrs Dunn taught all her children to read at an early age... The men realized this quite early on in their lives. 1.5 near the beginning of something such as a piece of work or a process. EG This is in a very early stage of development... ...in those early chapters, when he's writing about his family... I don't know. It's too early to say. ADV + ADV/PREP, OR ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ≠ late ADV + ADV/PREP, OR ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ young ADV + ADV/PREP, OR ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB 1.6 before the time that was arranged or expected. EG The day's practice ended early because of bad light... He knew he was three minutes early. 1.7 happening at a younger age than normal, or happening before the normal time. EG After her husband's early death she supported her family single-handed... We had an early lunch. 1.8 flowering or cropping before or at the beginning of the main season. EG ...early flowers such as daffodils and crocuses... ...a nice crop of early potatoes. ADV AFTER VB/NG ADV AFTER VB, OR ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = premature ADV AFTER VB, OR ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ≠ late

2 As early as means at a particular time or period that is surprisingly early. EG As early as 1978 the United States had taken steps to counteract this. PHR + NUM/NG

3 If you answer that it is early days to a question about something, you mean that it is too soon for you to be completely sure about it; used in spoken English. EG 'How has it worked out?'–'Well, it's early days yet to say whether it works.' ● bright and early: see bright. ● early night: see night. PHR : USED AS C

early-warning. An early-warning system is a system that is supposed to give a warning at the earliest possible moment of something bad that is likely to happen, for example a system of radar stations which are supposed to give a warning if an enemy has launched missiles against your country. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ alarm earmark /ɪəmɑːk/, earmarks, earmarking, earmarked; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 If something is earmarked for a particular purpose, it has been reserved for that purpose. EG The fund contained more than $300,000 earmarked for sensitive political projects... Choice sites are earmarked long before they become vacant. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN for = set aside

2 If something has the earmarks of a particular thing, it has features which enable you to recognize it as being of a particular type. EG It had the earmarks of something prepared for a past college exam... This had all the earmarks of a moral dilemma. N PLURAL : USU + of ⇑ characteristics = hallmarks, signs earn /ɜːn/, earns, earning, earned. 1 If you earn money, you receive money in return for work that you do. EG The average worker, earning $15,058 in 1981, now pays $5,523 in taxes... I'm not earning any money... They have to earn a living somehow. V OR V + O = make

2 If something earns money, it brings or produces money as profit or interest. EG Something is uneconomic when it fails to earn an adequate profit... ...to earn the foreign currency that their country badly needs. V + O ⇑ provide

3 If someone or something earns a particular thing, they gain or deserve it because of their actions or qualities. EG ...a system that would earn the hatred of the world: Apartheid... He has earned his place in history. V + O = merit earner /ɜːnə/, earners. An earner is someone or something that earns money or produces profit. EG ...a reliable wage earner... ...when the woman is either the major or the sole earner. N COUNT : USU MOD + N earnest /ɜːnɪˢt/. 1 Someone who is earnest is very sincere and serious in what they say or do, believing that their actions are important and often unable to see when something is funny or ridiculous. EG She was an earnest but clumsy nurse... She was approached by an earnest young man from the University. ▸ used of people's actions, hopes, and beliefs. EG Her deliberate and earnest efforts proved successful... ...an earnest Victorian report on the sordid night life... It is my earnest wish that you use this money to further your research. ◊ earnestness. EG ...speaking with great earnestness. ADJ QUALIT ≠ frivolous ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you are in earnest, you are sincere in your intentions. EG He was a likeable young man, and very much in earnest about what he came to say... Is the President in earnest about the desire to negotiate? PHR : USED AS AN A = serious

3 If something is done or happens in earnest, it happens to a much greater extent and more seriously than before. EG Work on the tunnel began in earnest soon after... Then she started crying in earnest. PHR : USED AS AN A ≠ half-heartedly earnestly /ɜːnɪˢstliᵗ/. 1 If you say something earnestly, you say it very seriously, often because you believe that it is important or are trying to persuade someone else to believe it. EG 'Are you sure you can manage it?' she asked earnestly... He was in a corner of the room talking earnestly to Julie. ADV WITH VB

2 If you do something earnestly, you do it in a thorough and serious way, intending to succeed. EG You must promise that you will go into it seriously and earnestly. ADV WITH VB ⇑ thoroughly = whole-heartedly earnings /ɜːnɪŋz/. Your earnings are the sums of money that you earn by working. EG The Equal Pay Act has failed to bring women's earnings up to the same level. N PLURAL = income, wages earnings-related. An earnings-related payment or benefit provides higher or lower payments according to the amount a person was earning while working. EG In that year the government introduced its earnings-related pension scheme. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ regulated earphone /ɪəfəʊn/, earphones. A set of earphones is a piece of equipment which changes electrical signals into sounds. The earphones fit over your ears, so that you can listen to music, speech, etc in private. EG Pressing his hands more firmly over the earphones, he listened again... Around his neck was a pair of earphones. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ device = headphones earpiece /ɪəpiːs/, earpieces; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 The earpiece of a telephone receiver, hearing aid, or other device is the part that is held up to or put into your ear. It changes electrical signals into sound. N COUNT

2 The earpieces of a pair of glasses are the parts which fit over your ears to keep the glasses on. N COUNT

earplug /ɪəplʌg/, earplugs; also spelled with a hyphen. An earplug is a small piece of soft material such as wax or cotton wool which you put into your ear to keep out noise, water, or cold air. N COUNT, USU PL ⇑ plug earring /ɪərɪŋ/, earrings; also spelled with a hyphen. An earring is a piece of jewellery, often one of a pair, which people wear in or hanging down from the lobes of their ears. N COUNT earshot /ɪəʃɒt/. If you are within earshot of something, you are close enough to hear what is being said. If you are out of earshot, you are not close enough to hear what is being said. EG There were too many people within earshot... Bond stood within earshot of the desk... Luckily, Amy was out of earshot. PHR : USED AS AN A ear-splitting. An ear-splitting noise is very loud. EG ...an ear-splitting screech... The crash was ear-splitting. ADJ CLASSIF earth /ɜːθ/, earths, earthing, earthed. 1 The earth is 1.1 the planet on which we live. EG The earth moves around the sun... The oceans cover 70% of the N PROPER : the + N earth's surface... The Rift Valley marks a weakness in the earth's crust... They have vanished from the face of the earth. ▸ This planet is also referred to as Earth. EG Unlike Earth, Jupiter has no features to break up its surface... man's life on Earth. ▸ N PROPER

1.2 the land surface on which we live and move about. EG For twenty minutes the earth shook. N SING: the + N = ground

2 Earth is the substance on the land surface of the earth, for example clay or sand, in which plants grow. EG Trees and shrubs may be the only thing holding earth on the steeper slopes... a cliff of naked red earth... He was pulling dead roots from the dusty earth. N UNCOUNT = soil

3 An earth is a hole in the ground in which an animal such as a fox lives. N COUNT

4 The earth in an electric plug or piece of electrical equipment is the wire in it through which electricity can pass into the ground and which makes the equipment safe even if something goes wrong with it. EG Cut the neutral and live wires about 1 inch long, leaving the earth a bit longer. N COUNT : USU SING = ground

5 If an electric plug or piece of electrical equipment is earthed, it has been fitted with a wire through which electricity can pass into the ground in order to make the equipment safe. EG My stereo isn't earthed. V - O : USU PASS

6 On earth is used for emphasis 6.1 with words such as 'how', 'why', 'what', or 'where', or with negatives. It is often used in questions to suggest that there is no obvious or easy answer to the question being asked or the problem being mentioned. EG What on earth are you talking about?... How on earth do we raise half a million dollars?... He was wondering what on earth he should do... There's no reason on earth why it shouldn't work. PHR : USED AS AN A, WITH WH OR BROAD NEG

6.2 after a noun group that contains a superlative adjective in order to emphasize the adjective. EG He regarded film-making as the most glamorous job on earth... ...one of the most difficult people on earth. PHR : USED AS AN A = around

● Like nothing on earth is used to suggest that something is very unusual and often extremely unpleasant; an informal expression. EG It tasted like nothing on earth... They looked like nothing on earth... The cut bled like nothing on earth. ● PHR : USED AS AN A

7 The word earth is also used in the following expressions. 7.1 If you come back to earth, you stop day-dreaming and think about or recognize reality and real facts, especially when these are unpleasant. EG I came back to earth with a thud, my brilliant plans crashing around me. PHR : VB INFLECTS = wake up

7.2 If you say that something costs the earth or that you paid the earth for it, you mean that it costs or cost a very large amount of money; an informal expression. EG If you go to a commercial photographer he'll charge the earth for it. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ a lot = a fortune

7.3 If you say that someone has gone to earth, you mean that they are hiding so that their enemies cannot find them. EG The guerrillas dispersed and went to earth. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ hide

7.4 If you promise someone the earth, you promise them everything that they want; an informal expression. EG All the election manifestos promise the earth. PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.5 If you run someone or something to earth, you find them after searching for them for a long time. EG He went off to meet John, who he had finally run to earth. PHR : VB INFLECTS

8 The word earth is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● hell on earth: see hell. ● to move heaven and earth: see heaven. ● the salt of the earth: see salt. ● See also down-to-earth.

earth-bound; also spelled as one word. 1 If something is earth-bound, it is unable to leave the surface of the earth by flying. EG ...earth-bound insects. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ grounded

2 If you say that someone is earth-bound, you mean that they do not have enough imagination to think how things might be different. EG ...to make comprehensible to our earth-bound senses a vision of divine order. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dull = limited earthen /ɜːθəʊᵊn/ means 1 made of clay that is baked so that it becomes hard. EG The traditional breakfast of porridge was cooked in earthen pots. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 made of hard earth; used especially of floors. EG The earthen floor was covered with rugs and cushions. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = dirt

earthenware /ɜːθəˢnweə/. Earthenware bowls, pots, or other things are made of clay that is baked so that it becomes hard. EG She bought a small earthenware bowl... ...an old earthenware pot. ▸ used as a noun. EG The earthenware included rice pots with a round base. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = earthen ▸ N UNCOUNT earthly /ɜːθlɪ/. 1 Earthly means happening in the material world of our life on earth and not in any spiritual life or life after death. EG She believed that our earthly life is all that matters... We may speculate about either end of our earthly existence. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ worldly ≠ spiritual

2 Earthly is used in questions and negative statements to suggest that it would be surprising to disagree with an action or opinion or the reasons for it. EG There is no earthly reason for me to dislike her... I failed to see what earthly purpose this could serve. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = possible earthquake /ɜːθkweɪk/, earthquakes. An earthquake is a shaking of the ground caused by movement of the earth's crust. N COUNT ⇑ tremor earth-shattering. Something that is earth-shattering is very surprising or shocking. EG ...an earth-shattering discovery. ADJ CLASSIF = momentous earthwork /ɜːθwɜːk/, earthworks. Earthworks are large mounds of earth that have been built for defence, especially mounds which were built a very long time ago. EG The earthworks commanded a view of the valley floor. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ bank earthworm /ɜːθwɜːm/, earthworms. An earthworm is a common kind of worm with a long body. Earthworms live under the ground, moving through the soil and breaking it up. N COUNT ⇑ worm earthy /ɛːθɪ/. 1 Someone who is earthy is open and direct in their talk, especially about subjects which other people avoid or feel ashamed about; often used showing approval. EG 'I love these simple, earthy types,' Clarissa said... ...a buxom, earthy, attractive girl. ▸ used of a way of thinking or talking. EG ...earthy commonsense. ◊ earthiness. EG There was an appealing earthiness about her. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ natural ≠ coy, refined ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Something that is earthy looks, smells, or feels like earth. EG ...earthy colours... ...the subtle, earthy fragrance of wild thyme. ADJ QUALIT

earwig /ɪəwɪg/, earwigs. An earwig is a small, thin brown insect that has a pair of pincers at the back end of its body. N COUNT ease /iːz/, eases, easing, eased. 1 Ease is lack of difficulty. EG The greater ease and frequency of divorce were also discussed... The boxes are designed to fit one inside the other for ease of transportation... She performed this trick with ease. N UNCOUNT : IF PREP THEN of, with ⇑ facility ≠ difficulty

2 Ease is also the state of being very comfortable and able to live as you want, without any worries or care. EG ...a life of ease and luxury. N UNCOUNT ⇑ comfort

3 If you are at ease or at your ease, you are feeling confident and comfortable, and are able to talk to people without feeling worried or anxious. EG He was at ease with strangers... I was never at ease in the part until almost the end of the run... My smiling face set her at ease. PHR : USED AS AN A ≠ awkward

4 If you are ill at ease, you are rather uncomfortable, anxious or worried. EG He was ill at ease with people whom he didn't understand... Brody felt ill at ease and patronized. PHR : USED AS C = awkward

5 To ease an unpleasant situation means to reduce the degree of unpleasantness or difficulty that has been caused by a particular problem. EG The bungalows were built in 1946 to ease the housing shortage after the last war... Community groups were making efforts to ease tensions in the area. V - O = alleviate ≠ aggravate

6 When something eases or when you ease it, it becomes less in degree, quantity, speed, or intensity. EG The snow had eased... My grip had eased... He had taken the drugs to ease the pain... Her words helped to ease his grief. V ERG ⇑ decrease

7 If you ease something somewhere, you move it slowly, carefully, and gently in a particular direction or towards a particular place. EG Gary eased back his chair... I came in at the back and started easing my way through the crowd... He threw his bag onto the back seat of the car and eased himself in. V - O (NG REFL) : A

8 At ease or stand at ease is an order given to a group of soldiers or policemen to stand with their feet apart and their hands behind their backs. CONVENTION = stand easy

ease off. If something eases off it becomes less in degree, quantity, speed, or intensity. EG The pace of our activity gradually eased off. PHRASAL VB : V ADV ⇑ decrease = slacken ease up. 1 If you ease up on someone, you treat them less severely; an informal expression. EG Come on, ease up on those kids a bit; they've had a hard day! PHRASAL VB : V ADV : IF : PREP THEN on = go easy quantity, speed, or intensity. EG The rain has eased up a bit now-we could make a dash for the car. ADV ⇑ decrease easel /iːzəl/, easels. An easel is a wooden frame that supports a picture which an artist is painting or drawing. N COUNT easily /iːzɪli[1]/. 1 You use easily 1.1 to emphasize that something is very likely to happen. EG She might easily decide to cancel the whole thing... Dishwashers may easily ruin wood or hand-painted china. 1.2 to emphasize that there can be no doubt that something is the case. EG This car is easily the most popular model. 1.3 to say that something happens more quickly than is usual or normal. EG He tired very easily... It didn't rot very easily, and it was cheap. ADV WITH VB = well; ADV WITH VB = by far; ADV WITH VB

2 If something eases up, it becomes less in degree, PHRASAL VB : V

2 Other meanings of easily can be found in the entry for easy in paragraphs I and 6.

east /iːst/. The word east is often spelled with a capital letter, especially for paragraph 5. 1 The east is 1.1 the direction which you look towards in the morning in order to see the sun rise. EG Ben noticed the first faint streaks of dawn in the east. 1.2 the part of a place, country, or region which is towards the east. EG There was a good rail link with the East... The south and east of the Square have been rebuilt... The political divisions between North, West, and East are so well established that they seem unlikely to be broken down. N SING : the + N = west ≠ west; N SING : the + N

2 East means towards the east or to the east of a place or thing. EG They were heading almost due east, out into the wild hills... Remains have been found farther east in Java, and in China... There were areas of open country east of the river. ADV AFTER VB = eastward ≠ west

3 The east part of a place, country, or region is the part which is towards the east. EG He did say something about her having gone on a safari in East Africa... The Beagle sailed down the east coast of South America... ...the Labour MP for Salford East. ADJ CLASSIF : ALSO IN NAMES = eastern

4 An east wind blows from the east. EG There was a cold blue sky and a biting east wind. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

5 The East is also used to refer to 5.1 the USSR and other communist countries in the eastern part of Europe. EG He urged a balance of forces between East and West... It was hailed as a breakthrough in East-West relations. 5.2 the countries in the southern and eastern part of Asia, including India, China, and Japan, which have a different culture and different traditions from Europe and the USA. EG He was looking for new routes for the profitable spice trade with the East... He was deeply interested in meditation, the East, and yoga. ● See also Far East, Middle East, Near East. N SING : the + N = Far East, Orient; N SING eastbound /iːstbaʊnd/. Eastbound roads, cars, trains, etc lead or are travelling towards the east. EG Morris slouched in the seat of his eastbound aircraft... The eastbound carriageway of the M4 was blocked for 2 hours. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ westbound

Easter /iːstə/ is a Christian religious festival when Christians celebrate the death and resurrection of Christ. EG School holidays are at Christmas, Easter and during the summer. N UNCOUNT

Easter egg, Easter eggs. An Easter egg is an egg that is given as a present at Easter. It is usually a chocolate egg or a hen's egg with a painted shell. N COUNT easterly /iːstəli[1]/. 1 An easterly point, area, or direction is to the east or towards the east. EG We walked out to the most easterly point of the ridge. ADJ QUALIT = eastern ≠ westerly

2 An easterly wind blows from the east. EG ...the bitter easterly wind. ADJ CLASSIF

eastern /iːstə[5]n/. The word eastern is often spelled with a capital letter. Eastern means 1 in or from the east of a region or country. EG He was the mayor of a small town in Eastern Portugal... ...the eastern shores of Lake Tanganyika... ...an eastern route. 2 coming from or associated with the people or countries of the East, such as India, China, or Japan. EG It was in Bengal in the nineteenth century that Eastern and Western cultures merged... ...Eastern philosophy. 3 coming from or associated with the countries in the east of Europe and the USSR. EG The electronic technology of the West had outstripped that of the Eastern bloc. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB; ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = Oriental; ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = communist easterner /iːstənə/, easterners. An easterner is a person who was born in or who lives in the eastern part of a place or country, especially an American from the East Coast of the USA. EG Like many another easterner, he was impressed by the California style. N COUNT easternmost /iːstənməʊst/. The easternmost part of an area or the easternmost thing in a line is the one that is farther towards the east than any other. EG ...the easternmost promontories of the region. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ westernmost

East German, East Germans. 1 East German means belonging or relating to the German Democratic Republic, which is also called East Germany. EG ...East German cars. ADJ CLASSIF

2 An East German is a person who comes from the German Democratic Republic. N COUNT

eastward /iːstwəd/, eastwards. Eastward or eastwards means towards the east. EG The two cousins hurried eastward against the sharp wind... They travelled eastwards round the Mediterranean. ADV AFTER VB ≠ westward

▸ Eastward is also used as an adjective. EG ...a grassy eastward slope. ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

easy /iːzi[1]/, easier, easiest. 1 Something that is easy is able to be done without difficulty or effort, because it is not complicated and causes no problems. EG The house is easy to keep clean, easy to heat... How easy is it in Britain for novelists to get their work published?... ...an easy ten-minute walk... This new dancing looked easy... Admission to a tour of Parliament is easier on days when the House is not sitting. ◊ easily. EG A baby buggy can be easily carried on a bus or in a car... I like the French yoghurts which can easily be obtained in supermarkets. ◊ easiness. ADJ QUALIT = simple ≠ difficult; ◊ ADV WITH VB; ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 You can say easier said than done, or more easily said than done, when you feel that although someone's advice may be good in theory, it would be difficult to actually do what they suggest. EG 'Just tell him how you feel.'–'Ha! Easier said than done!' CONVENTION

3 If you say that something is easy or too easy, you are criticizing someone because you believe that they have simply accepted or done the most obvious or least difficult thing, and have not considered the situation carefully enough. EG I think that's a bit too easy an answer... That's easy for you to say, you have so much energy... It is only too easy to believe that one is misunderstood. ADJ QUALIT

4 You can use the word easy in expressions such as far from easy, none too easy, and no easy task, in order to emphasize that you think that something is very difficult. EG It was no easy matter to divert her attention... Resolving their differences will take time and will be far from easy... It was not easy to see how anything could be done about it. PHR : USED AS C

5 If you say that something is as easy as pie, you are saying and emphasizing in an informal way that it is very easy to do. PHR : USED AS C

6 Easy also means relaxed and without any emotional tension, strain, or pressure. EG He had an easy temperament... It was an easy, rambling conversation... They have a natural, easy confidence in themselves. ◊ easily. EG ...a friendly man who talked freely and easily. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ≠ tense; ◊ ADV WITH VB

7 If you take it easy or take things easy, you relax and do not do very much at all; an informal expression. EG You must realise that you've not been well and you have to take it easy for a bit... I've retired and I'm going to take things easy for a while. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ rest

8 If you say that you are easy about something, you mean that you do not have a strong opinion about it and do not mind what happens; used in informal British English. EG 'Do you want to go out tonight?'–'I'm easy; it's up to you.' ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN about

9 If you say that you are not easy or do not feel easy about something, you mean that you are not sure that it is correct or justified. EG I never felt easy about Freud's Oedipus theory. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, WITH BROAD NEG, IF + PREP THEN about

10 Something that is easy on your ear, eye, stomach, etc, is very pleasant to listen to, look at, eat, etc; an informal use. EG He said that she was easy on the eye, and he liked having her around... It's easy on the brains but hell on the feet. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + on

11 Easy also means comfortable and without any troubles or worry. EG I wanted to leave you to make life easier for you... Oh yes, we're all for having it as easy as possible. ADJ QUALIT = simple

12 An easy victim or easy prey has very little defence against bad treatment or attack. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ unprotected

13 Easy is also used in the following informal expressions. 13.1 If you go easy on something, you avoid using too much of it. EG Go easy on the salt, it's PHR : VB INFLECTS bad for your heart. 13.2 If you go easy on someone, you treat them less severely than you think they deserve to be treated. EG Go easy on him for a while, he's got a lot of family problems. 13.3 If you say 'Easy does it', you are telling someone to be careful and not to use too much effort, especially when they are moving something large and awkward. 13.4 'Easy come, easy go' means that the person referred to does not care much about money and possessions. PHR : VB INFLECTS = ease up on CONVENTION = steady CONVENTION

14 Stand easy is an order given to a group of soldiers on parade, instructing them to stand in a relaxed way with their feet apart. CONVENTION

easy chair, easy chairs. An easy chair is a large, comfortable chair in which you can relax. N COUNT easy-going. Someone who is easy-going is not easily annoyed, worried, or upset by problems or other people's actions; used showing approval. EG My father was a gentle, easy-going person. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ tolerant = even-tempered easy touch. An easy touch is the same as a soft touch; an informal expression. N SING : an + N eat /iːt/, eats, eating, ate, eaten. 1 When you eat something or when you eat, you put food into your mouth, chew it, and swallow it. EG She had never eaten Chinese food before... He was too tired even to eat. V OR V + O ⇑ consume

2 To eat also means to have a meal. EG He said he would eat at his hotel. V : USU + A

3 If something is eating you, it is making you worried or anxious; an informal use. EG What's eating you, Professor Zapp? V + O : USU CONT ⇑ trouble = bother

4 In informal English, eats are food. EG You bring the drinks and I'll arrange the eats. N PLURAL

5 The word eat is also used in the following informal expressions. 5.1 If you eat like a horse, you have a very large appetite and always eat a lot. EG There's nothing wrong with her-she eats like a horse. 5.2 If you say 'I could eat a horse', you mean that you are extremely hungry. 5.3 If you have someone eating out of your hand, you have them completely under your control. EG She has her boss eating out of her hand. PHR : VB INFLECTS PHR ⇑ obedient eat away. To eat something away means to slowly reduce it or remove it by rubbing against it or by chemical action. EG He showed them where the waves were eating the walls away... The silver was eaten away. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = wear away eat in. When you eat in, you have a meal at home rather than go out to a restaurant. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV eat into. 1 If rust, acid, etc, eats into something, it attacks and destroys its surface. EG Rust had eaten right into the metal. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ destroy

6 The word eat is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to eat your hat: see hat. ● to eat someone out of house and home: see house. ● to eat your words: see word.

2 To eat into time, energy, resources, etc, means to gradually spend or use them up. EG Trivial interruptions tend to eat into the working day. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ use up eat out. When you eat out, you have a meal at a restaurant instead of at home. EG Do you eat out a lot in London? PHRASAL VB : V + ADV eat up. 1 If you eat up or eat something up, you eat everything that you are given to eat. EG We greedily ate up a whole plate of food that we didn't really want. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ consume = polish off

2 To eat time, money, fuel, etc, up means to use it or consume it in great quantities. EG Rising costs were eating up most of the profits. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

3 If you are eaten up with jealousy, curiosity, desire, etc, you feel it very intensely; an informal expression used showing disapproval. EG She was eaten up with envy. PHRASAL VB : ONLY PASS = consumed eatable /iːtəbə^{l}/. Something that is eatable is good enough or tasty enough for a person to eat and enjoy. EG The food here is barely eatable. ADJ CLASSIF = edible eaten /iːtə^{n}/ is the past participle of eat.

eater /iːtə/, eaters. An eater is 1 a person or animal that eats particular things or in a particular way. EG Birds were once primarily fruit eaters. 2 in informal English, a variety of apple, pear, or other fruit which is usually eaten raw rather than cooked. N COUNT : MOD + N N COUNT eating /iːtɪŋ/. An eating apple or pear is one that is usually eaten raw rather than cooked. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

eau-de-cologne /əʊdəkəlˈəʊn/ is a fairly weak, sweet-smelling perfume. EG He sprayed a little eau-de-cologne over himself. N UNCOUNT eaves /iːvz/. The eaves of a house are the lower edges of its roof. EG ...racks of drying fish hang under the eaves of farmhouses. N PLURAL (the ~s) N eavesdrop /iːvzdrɒp/, eavesdrops, eavesdropping, eavesdropped. If you eavesdrop, you listen to what other people are saying without them knowing that you are doing so. EG Some journalists will always try to eavesdrop on the private conversations of the royal family. V : IF = PREP THEN on SPY eavesdropper /iːvzdrɒpə/, eavesdroppers. An eavesdropper is a person who listens secretly to what other people are saying; used showing disapproval. N COUNT ebb /ɛb/, ebbs, ebbing, ebbed. 1 When the tide or the sea ebbs, its level is falling. EG Fish react to the state of the tide as it ebbs and flows. V ⇑ retreat

2 The ebb of the sea or tide is one of the regular periods, about two per day, when it is falling to a lower level. EG ...the stormy ebb and flow of the sea... They set sail on the ebb tide. ● The tide is described as being on the ebb when it is falling to a lower level. EG They ran aground while the tide was on the ebb, and were stuck for eight hours. N SING : the + N ⇑ recession ● PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ receding ≠ coming in

3 If a feeling or a person's strength ebbs, it becomes weaker and gradually disappears; a fairly literary use. EG Only then did the strength ebb from his fingers... After a while he felt his strain and confusion, even his body's pains, begin to ebb. V ⇑ disappear = drain

4 If someone or something is at a low ebb, they are not being very successful or profitable. EG George's fortunes at this time were also at a low ebb, nudging bankruptcy... By the 1960s Catholic politics were at a low ebb. PHR : USED AS AN A = suffering

5 You talk about the ebb and flow of something when you want to describe a situation in which periods of progress and success are followed by periods of trouble or difficulty. EG In the ebb and flow of political struggle it was inevitable that one of them would go under. PHR : USED AS O ⇑ fluctuation = ups and downs ebb away. If a feeling or a person's strength ebbs away, it gradually becomes weaker until it disappears completely. EG Their rage ebbed away, to be replaced by a mounting fear. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ disappear = subside ebony /ɛbənɪ^{l}/, ebonies. 1 Ebony is a very hard, heavy, dark-coloured wood that is used for making furniture and other things. EG ...ebony hairbrushes. ▸ Ebony is also used to refer to the tree from which this wood comes. N UNCOUNT ▸ N COUNT ⇑ tree

2 Something that is ebony is a very deep, black colour. EG She had cropped hair and ebony eyes. ADJ COLOUR

ebullience /ɪ^{l}bʌlɪ^{l}əns/ is the quality of being lively and full of enthusiasm or excitement; a formal word. EG Their Irish ebullience made them outgoing and spontaneous. N UNCOUNT ⇑ liveliness = exuberance ebullient /ɪ^{l}bʌlɪ^{l}ənt/. Someone who is ebullient is lively and full of enthusiasm or excitement; a formal word. EG Even Lewis, that most ebullient of men, looked downcast. ADJ QUALIT = exuberant eccentric /ɪ^{2}ksɛntrɪk/. 1 Someone who is eccentric has habits or opinions that other people think strange and peculiar. EG Living here in the capital city was a noble, if slightly eccentric, Frenchman... ...eccentric right-wing views. ▸ used of a person's behaviour, clothing, etc. EG They were dressed in strangely eccentric clothing... Perhaps I did look a little eccentric at that stage. ◊ eccentrically. EG He lived alone, and, it was said, ate rarely and eccentrically. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ different = weird ≠ orthodox, conventional ◊ ADV ⇑ strangely ≠ conventionally

2 An eccentric is a person who has habits or opinions or who wears clothes which other people think strange and peculiar. EG She was a mild eccentric, an amusing oddity. N COUNT = oddball eccentricity /ɛksɛntrɪsɪtɪ^{l}/, eccentricities. 1 Eccentricity is unusual behaviour that other people consider strange and peculiar. EG She emphasized his eccentricity to the detriment of his truly remarkable achievements... He had not approved the eccentricity of Rose's behaviour. N UNCOUNT ⇑ strangeness ≠ conventionality

2 An eccentricity is a habit or attitude which other people think is strange and peculiar. EG Davis in the staid office was conspicuous by his eccentricities... These little habits are the origins of quirks and eccentricities that appear in later behaviour. N COUNT : USU PL = idiosyncrasy ecclesiastic /ɪ^{2}kliːzɪæstɪk/, ecclesiastics. An ecclesiastic is a priest or clergyman in the Christian Church; a formal or old-fashioned word. N COUNT ecclesiastical /ɪˌkliːzɪˈæstɪkəˈl/ means belonging to or connected with the Christian Church or its priests and ministers. EG He fell into disfavour with his ecclesiastical superiors. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ religious echelon /ˈɛʃəˈlɒn/, echelons. An echelon is 1 a level of power or responsibility in an organization, together with the people at that level. EG ...the higher echelons of Whitehall. 2 a military formation in which soldiers, vehicles, ships or aircraft follow each other but are spaced out sideways so that they can see ahead of them. EG ...the first echelon of the assault force. N COUNT + SUPP = rank ; N COUNT : USU + SUPP echo /ˈɛkəʊ/, echoes, echoing, echoed. 1 An echo is 1.1 a sound which is caused when a loud, sharp noise, for example a scream, is reflected off a surface such as a cliff or the walls of a building. EG Judy found herself listening to the last echo of her shoes clicking on the marble floors... They were the only seats not affected by the echo. 1.2 an expression of an attitude or opinion which has already been expressed by someone else. EG The echo of public sentiment in Congress was inevitable. 1.3 one of a number of small details or features which remind you of something else. EG But still some echoes of the old ways linger... It's a story with echoes but not imitations of Waugh. N COUNT ; N COUNT : USU + of ⇑ repetition ; N COUNT : USU + of ⇑ reminder = trace

2 A sound that echoes is reflected off a surface, such as a cliff or the walls of a building, so that it can be heard again after the original sound has stopped. EG The cry echoed back from the pink granite of the mountain... The noise of our footsteps seemed to go echoing around the walls. V : USU + A = bounce

3 A place that echoes is one in which a particular sound continues or is repeated after the original sound has stopped. EG The bamboo grove echoed with bird calls and the screams of monkeys. ◊ echoing. EG They took us to a hotel with empty echoing halls. V : USU + A = ring, resound ; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

4 If you echo something that someone else has said, 4.1 you express your agreement with their attitude or opinion. EG This was a view echoed by Mr Healey in a Sunday Times article... As Party Treasurer, he echoed the gut feeling of the trade unions. 4.2 you repeat words or sounds which the other person has just said or made. EG 'They lived in the open air, simply under a tree.'–'Under a tree,' echoed Etta in amused distaste... He let out his spare breath with a little gasp that was echoed by his audience. V + O ; V + O (NG/QUOTE)

5 If something echoes something else, it is a copy of a particular detail or feature of it. EG The masonry colours and shapes echo those of the jungle-clad mountains of South America... The listeners were echoing the rhythm with slight tilts of their bodies. V + O = reproduce

6 To echo also means to continue to be discussed and be important or influential in a particular situation or amongst a particular group of people. EG We will try to examine some of those causes which still echo and re-echo throughout our 'affluent' society... People who were baptized or buried here have names that still echo beyond their parish. V + A = resound

éclair /ɪˈkleə/, éclairs. An éclair is a long thin cake made of very light pastry, which is filled with cream and usually has chocolate on top. N COUNT

eclectic /ɪˈklɛktɪk/ means choosing what seems to be best or most useful from several different sets of ideas or beliefs, rather than following one complete set of ideas or beliefs only; a formal word. EG ...a doctrine that drew upon an eclectic mixture of both Western and Asian thought. ▸ used as a noun. EG As far as art is concerned, I'm an eclectic. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ mixed = selective ; ▸ N COUNT ⇑ person eclecticism /ɪˈklɛktɪsɪzəˈm/ is the principle or practice of choosing what seems to be best or most useful from several different sets of ideas or beliefs; a formal word. EG We have noted before the eclecticism of the populist theories. N UNCOUNT eclipse /ɪˈklɪps/, eclipses, eclipsing, eclipsed. 1 An eclipse of the sun is an occasion when the moon comes between the earth and the sun, so that for a short time you cannot see part or all of the sun. An eclipse of the moon is an occasion when the earth comes between the sun and the moon, so that for a short time you cannot see part or all of the moon. EG One of my earliest memories is of a total eclipse of the sun. N COUNT ⇑ obscuring

2 If someone or something suffers an eclipse, they lose some or all of their importance, influence, or prestige, usually because someone or something new has become more popular or famous. EG Painters and sculptors were protesting against their eclipse... This led to the eventual eclipse of the decorative, 'flat' style of painting. ● If something is in eclipse or is going into eclipse, it is or is becoming much less important or influential than it previously was. EG Then came the final confrontation between a European power in eclipse and its misgoverned colony. N SING : USU WITH POSS ⇑ decline = deposition ; ● PHR : USED AS AN A = in decline

3 If something eclipses something else, the first thing is more important or influential than the second thing, so that the second thing is no longer noticed. EG Cameroon has been careful not to let the energy boom eclipse more mundane economic progress... It is the second biggest newspaper group in the country, eclipsed only by the Argus Company. V + O ⇑ overshadow = top, outshine ecological /ˌiːkəlɒdʒɪkəˈl/. 1 Ecological means involved with or concerning the pattern and balance of relationships between plants, animals, people, and their environment. EG Use of nitrogen fertilizers has damaged the ecological balance in some of the world's lakes... ...the local ecological impact of removing all the vegetation. ◊ ecologically EG It was an ecologically sound system of farm management. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ environmental ; ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV

2 Ecological groups, movements, and people are concerned with the preservation of the environment and natural resources and improving the quality of life. EG The poll forecasts a significant loss of voters from the SDP to ecological and anti-nuclear groups. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ environmental ecologist /iˈkɒləˈdʒɪst/, ecologists. An ecologist is 1 a person who studies the pattern and balance of relationships between plants, animals, people, and their environment. EG ...amateur ecologists. 2 a person who believes that the environment and natural resources should be used properly and be preserved, rather than be exploited wastefully. EG Many people–individuals, church groups, far leftists, ecologists, Welsh Nationalists–are fighting this policy. N COUNT ⇑ scientist ; N COUNT = conservationist ecology /iˈkɒləˈdʒi/. Ecology is 1 the pattern and balance of relationships between plants, animals, people, and their environment in a particular region. EG Herbicides used in the 1970s caused damage to the ecology that would take a hundred years to heal... The tourists had no knowledge of desert ecology or the effect that their very presence had on the landscape. 2 the study of the relationships between plants, animals, people, and their environment, and the balances between these relationships. EG ...the most recent research in ecology. N UNCOUNT ; N UNCOUNT ⇑ science economic /ˌiːkəˈnɒmɪk, ˌɛk-/ means 1 concerned with economics and with the organization of the money, industry, and trade of a country, region, or social group. EG What has gone wrong with the economic system during the last ten years?... ...all aspects of social, political and economic life... ...a period of economic and industrial crisis. ◊ economically. EG Katanga was extremely unevenly developed economically... Are we going to be saved economically by our natural gas supplies? 2 relating to services, businesses, etc, that produce a profit. EG We have to keep fares high enough to make it economic for the service to continue. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ financial ; ◊ ADV ⇑ financially ; ADJ QUALIT ⇑ profitable = cost-effective economical /ˌiːkəˈnɒmɪkəˈl, ˌɛk-/. 1 Something that is economical does not require a lot of money to operate, for example a car that only uses a small amount of petrol. EG This system was extremely economical because it ran on half-price electricity. ◊ economically. EG This courier service could be most economically operated. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ cheap ≠ expensive ; ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ cheaply

2 If someone is economical, they spend money carefully and sensibly and do not waste it on unnecessary things. EG She thought of herself as an economical housewife. ◊ economically. EG We live very economically. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ careful ≠ extravagant ; ◊ ADV WITH VB = frugally

3 Economical also means using the minimum amount of time, effort, language, etc, that is necessary. EG She spoke in short, economical sentences... How could the most economical use of our time be organized? ◊ economically. EG The book is very economically written, but very warm. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ minimal = efficient ; ◊ ADV

economics /ˌiːkəˈnɒmɪks, ˌɛk-/ is 1 the study of the production of wealth and the consumption of goods and services in a society, and the organization of its money, industry, and trade. EG Economics is the oldest of the social sciences... She had a degree in economics. ● See also home economics. 2 the system of organizing the money, production, and trade of a country, region, or social group. EG ...the N UNCOUNT ⇑ science ; N PLURAL : WITH POSS economics of the timber trade... The big pitfall in Mitterand's economics may prove to be in nationalization.

economist /ɪˈkɒnəmɪst/, economists. An economist is a person who studies, teaches, or writes about economics. EG ...the ideas of the great English economist, J M Keynes. — N COUNT economize /ɪˈkɒnəmaɪz/, economizes, economizing, economized; also spelled economise. If you economize, you save money by spending it very carefully and not buying expensive things. EG Don't economize on things which will hardly save you any money... If you're really going to buy a car, we'll have to economize on other things. — V IF · PREP THEN on = cut costs ≠ splash out economy /ɪˈkɒnəmɪ/, economies. 1 An economy is the system according to which the money, industry, and trade of a country or region are organized. EG New England's economy is still largely based on manufacturing... All Western economies are competing against each other. — N COUNT

2 A country's economy is the wealth that it gets from business and industry. EG Unofficial strikes were damaging the British economy... These businesses contribute hundreds of millions of pounds to the economy of the country. — N COUNT · USU the + N IN SING

3 Economy is 3.1 careful spending or the careful use of things in order to save money. EG The mania for economy had struck even here... His seaside shack was small, for reasons of economy... I switched off all the lights as an economy measure. 3.2 the use of the minimum amount of time, effort, words, etc, that is necessary to achieve something, so that nothing is wasted. EG The apparent economy of effort is an illusion... ...economy of language. — N UNCOUNT ⇑ saving ≠ extravagance / N UNCOUNT + of

4 If you make economies, you take action in order to save money, by not spending money on unnecessary things. EG Make some stringent economies, be as frugal as a monk. — N COUNT ⇑ saving ≠ extravagance

5 Economy can be used to describe 5.1 cheap services, such as travel that has no luxuries or extras. EG I'll have to travel economy class. 5.2 large-size packages of goods which are cheaper than the normal-sized packages on sale. EG Buy our new economy packs of 100. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = family ecosystem /ˈiːkəʊsɪstəᵊm, ˈɛkəʊ-/, ecosystems. An ecosystem is all the plants and animals that live in a particular area together with the complex relationship that exists between all of them and their environment; a technical word. EG ...the intricate prairie ecosystem... ...highly sensitive and delicately balanced ecosystems. — N COUNT ecstasy /ˈɛkstəsɪ/, ecstasies. 1 Ecstasy is 1.1 an extreme emotional feeling of very great happiness. EG His big face was transfixed in ecstasy... She trained for years in order to experience the ecstasy of singing. 1.2 an extreme emotional state of any kind. EG She worked herself into an ecstasy of self-pity. — N UNCOUNT/COUNT = rapture / N COUNT/UNCOUNT = frenzy

2 If you are in ecstasies about something, or if you go into ecstasies about it, you are or you become very excited about it. EG ...Kathleen, whose mere proximity would send him into ecstasies. — PHR USED AS AN A ⇑ excited = raving ecstatic /ɪˈkstætɪk/ means showing or feeling great enthusiasm and happiness. EG Eddie was ecstatic over his new rifle... He felt a wild ecstatic happiness. ◊ ecstatically. EG Clarissa listened ecstatically. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ enthusiastic = rapturous, euphoric / ◊ ADV ecumenical /iːkjuːmɛnɪkəᵊl, ɛk-/ is used to describe activities, ideas, and movements which try to unite different Christian Churches; a formal word. EG ...an ecumenical institute... Both chaplains work as part of an ecumenical team. ◊ ecumenically. — ADJ CLASSIF / ◊ ADV

ecumenicism /iːkjuːmɛnɪsɪzəᵊm, ɛk-/ is the belief that all the different branches of the Christian Church should co-operate and be united. EG The church here has managed to practise ecumenicism for years. — N UNCOUNT

ecumenism /iːkjuːmɛnɪzəᵊm, ɛk-/ is the same as ecumenicism. — N UNCOUNT

eczema /ˈɛksɪᵊmə/ is an uncomfortable skin disease which makes your skin itch and become rough and sore. EG The commonest form of allergy in babies is eczema. — N UNCOUNT ⇑ dermatitis

ed., eds. ed. is an abbreviation for 'editor'. EG ...Frank Field (ed.) 'Education and the Urban Crisis'. — N COUNT

-ed is 1 added to verbs to form their past tense or their past participle. If the verb ends in -e, one of the -e's is dropped. If the verb ends in -y, it is usually changed to -i- before -ed. EG walk—walked... behave—behaved... carry—carried. 2 added to nouns to form adjectives that describe someone or something as having a particular feature or features. EG ...hood—hooded... ...hump—humped... ...pattern—patterned. 3 added to nouns or verbs combined with other words, to form compound adjectives. EG ...shape—shaped—cone-shaped... ...colour—coloured—tomato-coloured. — SUFFIX · FORMS ADJS / SUFFIX · FORMS ADJS

eddy /ˈɛdɪ/, eddies, eddying, eddied. 1 To eddy means to move round and round in unexpected directions, without any clear direction, intention, or plan. EG The wind whipped and eddied around the buildings. — V · USU + A = swirl

2 An eddy is a a movement in water or in the air which goes round and round instead of flowing in one continuous direction. EG ...every trick and eddy of the tide. — N COUNT ⇑ current = twist edge /ɛdʒ/, edges, edging, edged. 1 An edge is 1.1 the physical limit of an object or place, for example the line that you see where one thing stops and another thing begins. EG Little children played in the sand at the water's edge... The bird had a white stripe along the front edge of each wing... The paper was old and yellowed and flaking at the edges... They lived in a cottage on the edge of the moors. 1.2 the narrow side of a flat, solid object. EG The line was as straight and as thin as the edge of a ruler. 1.3 the sharp side of the blade of a knife or an axe. EG I picked up the knife and sharpened the edge. — N COUNT · IF · PREP THEN of = border, rim / N COUNT · IF · PREP THEN of / N COUNT

2 If something is edged with a particular thing, that thing forms a border for it. EG ...a beautiful garden edged with flowering trees. — V · O · USU PASS · with

3 If someone or something edges away from or towards a particular place or person, they move very slowly in that direction. EG He edged away from the thug... I edged my way to the window. — V + A, OR V + O + A = inch

4 The edge of something is the point at which something different, especially something bad, may start to happen. EG The world had been brought to the edge of war... He seemed so out of control, so close to the edge, that I believed he could kill. — N SING : the · N, USU · of = brink

5 An edge to someone's voice is a quality of sharpness, bitterness, or controlled anger in it. EG There was a new edge to his voice now, and he spoke louder. — N SING : an · N, IF · PREP THEN to

6 On edge. 6.1 If you are on edge, you are tense, nervous, and unable to relax. EG Father comes home on edge because of troubles that he's having in his work. 6.2 If something sets your teeth on edge, you find it extremely unpleasant. EG Her voice set my teeth on edge. — PHR : USED AS AN A / PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ irritate = grate

7 If something or someone has an edge on or over something or someone else, they have an advantage that makes them stronger or more likely to be successful than the other thing or person. EG Social pressures have the edge over bureaucratic ones. — N SING WITH DET : IF · PREP THEN over

8 If you say that someone or something has edge, you mean that they have a powerful effect, for example on the way that people think. EG There's little edge to this book. — N UNCOUNT ⇑ power = bite

9 If something takes the edge off a situation, usually an unpleasant one, it weakens its effect on people or things. EG His smile took the edge off her anger. — PHR : VB INFLECTS = blunt ≠ whet

-edged means having a particular number of edges, or having edges of a particular colour, size, or shape. EG A blue-edged handkerchief... ...a sharp-edged knife... ...a seven-edged coin. — COMB · FORMS ADJS edgeways /ˈɛdʒweɪz/. In informal English, if you say that you cannot get a word in edgeways, you mean that you are unable to say anything because someone else is talking so much. — PHR edging /ˈɛdʒɪŋ/, edgings. An edging is something that is put along the borders or sides of something else in order to make it look attractive. EG The square, with its edging of chestnut trees, looked clean and fresh in the spring sunshine. — N COUNT · USU SING ⇑ border = fringe edgy /ˈɛdʒɪ/, edgier, edgiest. When you are edgy, you are nervous, anxious, and likely to lose control of your feelings; an informal word. EG Rick seemed very edgy. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ agitated = on edge edible /ˈɛdɪbəᵊl/. Something that is edible is safe to eat and not poisonous. EG All parts of the plant are edible... ...edible mushrooms. ◊ edibility /ɛdəbɪlɪtɪ/. EG ...to guarantee the edibility of smoked salmon. — ADJ CLASSIF ≠ inedible / ◊ N UNCOUNT edict /ˈiːdɪkt/, edicts; a formal word. An edict is 1 a firm, authoritative command or instruction. EG I told — N COUNT ⇑ order the factory inspector we would defy his edict. 2 a public order or instruction given by a government or other authority, which everyone must obey. EG ...an edict from the Pope himself... He was banned by Government edict. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = decree edifice /ɛdɪfɪs/, edifices. An edifice is 1 a large and impressive building. EG She walked past the school, a huge Victorian edifice that loomed up over the other buildings. 2 a system of beliefs or a traditional institution; a formal use. EG The whole edifice of modern civilization is beginning to sway... ...a towering edifice of images and symbols. N COUNT ⇑ structure

N COUNT : USU SUPP ⇑ structure

edify /ɛdɪfaɪ/, edifies, edifying, edified. To edify someone means to make them into a better person by explaining something to them or giving them useful information; a formal word. EG ...a series of popular talks intended to edify and entertain. ◊ edifying. EG ...not a very edifying experience. ◊ edification /ɛdɪfɪkeɪʃᵊn/. EG ...books bought for instruction or edification. V + O : NO IMPER ⇑ teach = instruct, improve ◊ ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT edit /ɛdɪt/, edits, editing, edited. 1 If you edit a text such as an article or a book, you examine it and make corrections to it so that it is suitable for publishing. EG I type and edit and index stuff for Derek's friends. ◊ editing. EG ...one of the standard textbooks on editing. ◊ edited. EG This is the edited text. V OR V + O ⇑ correct ◊ N UNCOUNT ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If you edit a book or series of books, you collect several pieces of writing by different authors and prepare them for publishing. EG He edits a sociology series for a paperback publisher... ...'The Save and Prosper Book of Money,' edited by Margaret Allen. V + O

3 If you edit a film or a television or radio programme, you choose some of what has been filmed or recorded and arrange it in a particular order. EG We edited the film together... He got his first taste of editing a daily programme. V + O ⇑ prepare

4 Someone who edits a newspaper, magazine, or other regular publication is in charge of it. EG The men who own and edit newspapers are neither better nor worse than the people who read them. V + O ⇑ oversee = run

5 An edit is the process of examining and correcting a text so that it is suitable for publishing; a technical term in publishing. EG The first edit took over a month. N COUNT ⇑ correction edit out. If you edit something out, you take out parts of a text, film, etc, for example because they are not necessary or because they might be offensive to some people. EG We had to edit out the expletives. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ exclude = cut edition /ɪˈdɪʃᵊn/, editions. An edition is 1 a particular version of a book, magazine, or newspaper that is printed at one time. EG ...the city edition of the New York Times... The Macmillan edition is out of print. 2 the total number of copies of a particular book, newspaper, etc that are printed at one time. EG It was published in a limited edition. 3 a single television or radio programme that is one of a series about a particular subject: compare episode . EG Tonight's edition of Kaleidoscope begins at a quarter to ten. N COUNT + SUPP N COUNT + SUPP N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of editor /ɛdɪtə/, editors. An editor is 1 a person who is in charge of a newspaper or magazine and who decides what will be published in each edition of it. EG Peter Smith, editor of a local newspaper... She was appointed editor two years ago. 2 a journalist who is responsible for a particular section of a newspaper or magazine. EG The foreign editor had gone home, leaving his deputy in charge... The venerable literary editor of a quarterly magazine. 3 a person whose job is to check articles, stories, novels, etc, and make changes and corrections before they are published. EG She's a very good editor and cuts much more energetically than I do. 4 a person who prepares a film, or a radio or television programme by selecting some of what has been filmed or recorded and putting it in a particular order. 5 a computer program that enables you to make alterations and corrections to stored data. EG ...a screen editor. N COUNT ⇑ journalist N COUNT : USU MOD + N, IF + PREP THEN of N COUNT N COUNT N COUNT

editorial /ɛdɪtɔːrɪəl/, editorials. 1 Editorial means 1.1 involved in preparing a newspaper, magazine, book, etc, for publication. EG Hearst expanded his editorial staff... He increased the editorial budget substantially. 1.2 involving the attitudes, opinions, and contents of a newspaper, magazine, television programme, etc. EG ...a limited measure of editorial control over State television and radio... ...the paper's editorial policy. ◊ editorially. EG The Daily Mirror said editorially that the Pope was 'mistaken'. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ◊ ADV

2 An editorial is an article in a newspaper which gives the opinion of the editor or publisher on a topic or item of news. EG 'It is not every day,' said the Church Times in an editorial, 'that a bishop makes such a statement'... ...a humorous article on the editorial page. N COUNT

editorialize /ɛdɪtɔːrɪəlaɪz/, editorializes, editorializing, editorialized; also spelled editorialise. If someone such as a journalist editorializes, he or she expresses an opinion rather than stating facts, especially in an article which is supposed to be reporting facts rather than giving opinions. ◊ editorializing. EG This later editorializing style is very well integrated with the humorous beginning... In spite of all the editorializing, it was well worth reading. V ⇑ opine ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB, OR N UNCOUNT editorship /ɛdɪtəˢʃɪp/. The editorship of a newspaper or magazine is the position and authority of its editor. EG Conditions on the paper were considerably improved under McPherson's editorship... Then came promotion to editorship of the magazine. N SING WITH DET : USU WITH the/POSS ⇑ leadership educate /ɛdjᵊkeɪt/, educates, educating, educated. To educate someone means 1 to teach them over a long period, especially at a school or college, so that they gain knowledge and understanding in several subjects. EG Many more schools are needed to educate the young... He was educated at Eton... He was sent home as being impossible to educate. 2 to give them an education, for example by paying for it or by sending them to a particular school. EG He had paid out good money to educate Julie at a boarding school in Yorkshire. 3 to teach them better ways of doing something or a better way of living. EG Not enough is being done to educate smokers about the benefits of stopping the habit. V + O, OR V V + O V + O = inform educated /ɛdjᵊkeɪtɪᵈ/. Someone who is educated has or shows a high standard of learning. EG The villagers respected me because I was an educated man. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ learned ≠ illiterate educated guess, educated guesses. An educated guess is a guess which is based on a certain amount of knowledge and therefore likely to be correct. EG You'll get three opinions, the best of them an educated guess. N COUNT ⇑ deduction education /ɛdjᵊkeɪʃᵊn/ is 1 the system of teaching people, usually at a school or college. EG I think this government's policy on higher education is a disaster... Only a small proportion of our children stay in full-time education after the age of 16... Examinations play a large part in education. 2 the gradual process by which a person gains knowledge and understanding through learning. EG Your education is important to me... Education should be a preparation for life. 3 the knowledge or training that you have gained through formal and systematic study. EG Wealth and education seem to be what you need to be successful in life. 4 the field of study concerned with theories and methods of teaching. EG She's a lecturer in education. 5 the general area of work that is concerned with teaching people, especially in school or college. EG There is scope for women in welfare, child care and education. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT ≠ illiteracy N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT educational /ɛdjᵊkeɪʃᵊnəl, -ʃənᵊl/ means 1 concerned with and related to education. EG A university is an educational institution... National wealth depends to a high degree on a country's educational standards... ...educational cuts. ◊ educationally. EG She was sent to a special school for the educationally subnormal. 2 teaching you something that you did not know before. EG It was a very educational experience. ADJ CLASSIF ◊ ADV ADJ QUALIT = educative educationalist /ɛdjᵊkeɪʃᵊnəlɪst/, educationalists. An educationalist is a specialist in the theories and methods of education. N COUNT ⇑ teacher

educationist /ɛdjᵊkeɪʃᵊnɪst/, educationists. An educationist is the same as an educationalist. N COUNT ⇑ teacher educative /ɛdjᵊkətɪv/. An educative quality or activity is one that teaches you something you did not know before. EG Our primary function is still an educative one. ADJ CLASSIF educator /ɛdjᵊkeɪtə/, educators. An educator is a person who educates people. EG ...the sociologist and educator, Dr Richard Saunders. N COUNT ⇑ teacher

Edwardian /ɛdwɔːdiᵊən/ is used to refer to the style of architecture, dress, etc that was popular in ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ period

Britain at the beginning of the 20th century. EG ...Edwardian England.

-ee is added to verbs of doing in order to form nouns that refer to a person to whom the action is being done. EG ...pay—payee... ...employ—employee. SUFFIX FORMS N COUNTS

EEC /iː iː siː/ is the abbreviation for 'European Economic Community': an organization of Western European countries, including the UK, that have joint policies on matters such as trade and agriculture. N PROPER the N = Common Market eel /iːl/, eels. An eel is a long, thin, snake-like fish. Some types of eel are cooked and eaten. N COUNT

e'er /ɛə/ means ever; a poetic word. ADV

eerie /ɪəri¹/, eerier, eeriest. Something that is eerie is strange and frightening. EG ...the only person in that eerie place... ...the eerie feeling that someone was watching me. ◊ eerily. EG The crowd fell eerily silent... The lights gleamed eerily. ADJ QUALIT = creepy ◊ ADV ⇑ strangely = uncannily efface /i¹feɪs/, effaces, effacing, effaced. 1 If someone or something efaces a mark, they rub it out or wipe it off so that it cannot be seen; a formal word. EG In the sand, all the footprints had effaced one another. V + O ⇑ remove = erase

2 If you efface a wrong or unpleasant feeling or action, you replace it by a better one. EG He'd hoped to efface the memory of an embarrassing speech... ...to efface the faults of five decades. V + O ⇑ remove = blot out

3 If you efface yourself, you behave in a modest way or in such a way that you avoid being noticed. EG He would have to efface himself before his visitor. ● See also self-effacing. V + O (REFL) = humble effect /i¹fɛkt/, effects, effecting, effected. 1 An effect is 1.1 a change that is caused in a person or thing by another person or thing. EG ...the effect of noise on people in the factories... ...the effect on a man of a woman crying... ...the effects of the detonation... This has the effect of separating students from teachers. 1.2 a physical change or feeling in your body that is caused by an illness or drug. EG ...the effects of sea-sickness... My arm went numb, then the effect passed off... ...under the effect of the anaesthetic. ● See also side-effect. 1.3 an impression that a speaker or artist deliberately creates by their style. EG Irony was the effect he worked for in conversation... Don't move, or you'll destroy the whole effect. ● If you do something for effect, you do it in order to impress people and to draw attention to yourself. EG Here she paused for effect. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN on = result, consequence N COUNT N COUNT : USU SING ● PHR : USED AS AN A = dramatically

2 Effect is the power to influence a situation in the way that you want. EG Ordinary fire-fighting equipment could have little or no effect upon such an inferno... He pulled hard, but without any noticeable effect. N UNCOUNT = impact

3 If you say that something is done to good effect, to no effect, etc, you are indicating how successful or impressive the action is. EG He uses his distinctive voice to great effect... I did try, although to little effect. PHR : USED AS AN A

4 A person's effects are the things that they have with them at a particular time, for example when they are arrested or admitted to hospital, or the things that they owned when they died; a formal use. EG His personal effects would be returned to the bereaved family. N PLURAL : POSS + N ⇑ possessions = belongings

5 The effects in a film are the specially created sounds and scenery. ● See also special effects, sound effects.

6 You add in effect to a statement or opinion that is not precisely accurate, but which you feel is a reasonable description or summary of a particular situation. EG In effect he has no choice... What in effect I'm saying is that he couldn't write a novel. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = effectively

7 You use to this effect, to that effect, or to the effect that to indicate that a statement is a summary of something that was said or written, and not the actual words used. EG ...a rumour to the effect that he had been drunk... He shouted 'No, you fool, the other way!' or words to that effect. PHR : NG + PHR

8 If you effect something that you are deliberately trying to achieve, you succeed in causing it to happen; a fairly formal use. EG Production was halted until repairs could be effected... ...to effect the rescue of the prisoner... He did it himself, thereby effecting a considerable saving in time and money. V + O ⇑ cause

9 If you put, bring, or carry a plan or idea into effect, you cause it to happen in practice. EG Signing the agreement was one thing, putting it into effect was another. PHR : VB INFLECTS

10 If a law, policy, etc takes effect, comes into effect, or goes into effect at a particular time, it officially begins to act, apply, or be valid from that time. EG The tax cuts take effect on July 1st... Professor Master's resignation takes effect from next October... PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + A ⇑ begin

11 You can also say that something takes effect when it starts to produce the results that are intended. EG It takes time for policies to take effect... The anaesthetic is taking effect now. PHR : VB INFLECTS = work

12 If you say that something will happen with immediate effect or with effect from a particular time, you mean that it will begin to act, apply, or be valid immediately or from the stated time; a formal use. EG Your salary will be increased with immediate effect... ...with effect from April. PHR : USED AS AN A effective /i¹fɛktɪv/. 1 Something that is effective 1.1 works well and produces the results that were intended. EG ...effective ways of reducing pollution... ...an effective incomes policy... In order to be effective we need your support. ◊ effectiveness. EG Methods vary dramatically in effectiveness. 1.2 is so impressive that it attracts people's attention. EG I remember her making a most effective entrance in a play I saw. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ good = successful ≠ ineffective ◊ N UNCOUNT ADJ QUALIT = striking

2 Effective also means having a particular role or result in practice, though not officially or in theory. EG He assumed effective command of the armed forces... ...the effective leader. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = actual

3 When something such as a law or an agreement becomes effective, it begins officially to act, apply, or be valid. EG ...a ceasefire, to become effective as soon as accepted by the rebels. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED = operative effectively /i¹fɛktɪvli¹/. 1 Effectively means in a manner that works well, so as to produce the results that were intended. EG ...an attempt to make the system work more effectively. ADV WITH VB = efficiently

2 You can also use effectively with a statement to indicate that it is not precisely accurate, but that you feel it is a reasonable description or summary of a particular situation. EG The television was on, effectively ruling out conversation... The illness of any one of them would effectively prevent all of them from going. ADV WITH VB = in effect effectual /i¹fɛktʃʊ⁰əl/. An effectual action, plan, etc, is one that succeeds in producing the results that were intended; a formal word. EG The law would have to be very tough indeed to be effectual. ◊ effectually. EG He hacked less effectually at several boards. ADJ QUALIT = effective ≠ ineffectual ◊ ADV WITH VB

effeminacy /i¹fɛmɪnəsi¹/. If you refer to a man's or boy's effeminacy, you mean that he behaves, looks, or sounds like a woman or girl; used showing disapproval. EG His timidity, his slight effeminacy, were worrying. N UNCOUNT ⇑ femininity ≠ manliness effeminate /i¹fɛmɪnə¹t/. A man or boy is described as effeminate if he behaves, looks, or sounds like a woman or girl; used showing disapproval. EG They find European males slightly effeminate... 'Who?' he said, in an effeminate mincing voice. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ feminine = womanish effervescence /ɛfəvɛsə⁰ns/ is 1 the releasing of bubbles of gas by a liquid. 2 the quality of being lively and enthusiastic in your behaviour. EG Kitty's letter gave a calm appraisal of Tom's effervescence. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT ⇑ liveliness effervescent /ɛfəvɛsə⁰nt/. 1 An effervescent liquid is a liquid that releases bubbles of gas. EG ...a slightly effervescent wine which is very agreeable... ...an effervescent drink. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ gassy = sparkling

2 Someone who is effervescent is lively and enthusiastic in their behaviour. EG ...a very effervescent personality. ADJ QUALIT = bubbly effete /i¹fiːt/ means weak and powerless; used showing disapproval. EG ...the effete, preposterous Anthony Blanche... West European nations have become 'effete'. ◊ effeteness. ADJ QUALIT ≠ vigorous ◊ N UNCOUNT efficacious /ɛfɪkeɪʃəs/. Something that is efficacious is successful in solving a problem or achieving an aim; a formal word. EG Cameron's remedy had been remarkably efficacious... These lotions, usually efficacious in cases of prickly heat, seemed slow in having any beneficial results. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ effective = efficient efficacy /ɛfɪkəsi¹/ is the ability to do something or do it well and produce the results that were intended; a formal word. EG ...doubts over the efficacy of his N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS ⇑ effectiveness leadership... ...the efficacy of our policy... ...the efficacy of prayer.

efficiency /ɪˈfɪʃəⁿnsɪ/ is 1 the quality of being able to do a task successfully and without wasting time or energy. EG ...an increase in business efficiency... ...improve the efficiency of their reading... Her efficiency in developing ideas. 2 the difference between the amount of energy a machine needs to make it work, and the amount it produces; a technical term in physics and engineering. EG Electricity is produced at something like 30% efficiency from the power station... ...the efficiency of the battery.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ effectiveness = competence

N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ ratio

efficient /ɪˈfɪʃəⁿnt/. A person, machine, organization, etc that is efficient does a job well and successfully, without wasting time or energy. EG Engines and cars can be made more efficient... You need a very efficient production manager... Nationalized industries could be efficient and successful. ◊ efficiently. EG You must work more efficiently... ...if a business is being efficiently run... ...turbines operate efficiently at higher speeds.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ effective ≠ useless, wasteful

◊ ADV ⇑ effectively = competently

effigy /ɛfɪdʒɪ/, effigies. 1 An effigy is 1.1 a roughly made figure or dummy, often ugly or funny, that represents someone you hate or despise. EG The students burned effigies of the president. 1.2 a statue or carving of a famous person; a formal use. EG ...his tombstone, with an elaborately carved effigy of him as a knight in armour... ...a coin with her effigy on it.

N COUNT ⇑ image

N COUNT = image

2 If you burn or hang a person in effigy, you burn or hang a figure or dummy that represents them, because you hate or despise them. EG Poor Sir Ralph got himself burned in effigy by farmers... Chicago bosses were hanged in effigy.

PHR : USED AS AN A

efflorescence /ɛflɔːrɛsəⁿns/; a literary word. Efflorescence is 1 the blooming of flowers on a plant, especially when this happens suddenly. EG ...the efflorescence of tropical weed... ...the efflorescence of early summer. 2 a period of artistic activity of high quality. EG ...the efflorescence of literature in the same period... ...a brief sculptural efflorescence.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ flowering

N UNCOUNT + SUPP = upsurge

effluent /ɛfluənt/, effluents. Effluent is liquid waste material that comes out of factories or sewage works; a formal word. EG ...poisoned by industrial waste and untreated effluent... ...rivers receiving effluents from the textile industry.

N UNCOUNT/COUNT

effort /ɛfət/, efforts. 1 Effort is 1.1 energy in the form of thought, action, time, or money that people or organizations use in their work. EG ...a change in the direction of scientific effort... ...a bonus to reward initiative, skill and effort... ...a waste of effort... Little effort has been made to investigate this claim. 1.2 an unusual amount of physical or mental energy that you need in order to do something, because it is painful or difficult. EG Robert spoke with effort... He frowns with mental effort, but the sums won't make sense.

N UNCOUNT = endeavour

N UNCOUNT ⇑ difficulty

2 An effort is 2.1 a particular attempt to do something by using energy in the form of thought, action, time, or money. EG ...the efforts of governments to restrain inflation... They have joined forces in an effort to topple the government... ...efforts at forming a new coalition... She thanked them for their efforts on her behalf... Daintry made one more effort to escape. 2.2 a particular action or activity that is done by a group of people in order to achieve something. EG We could raise money for the war effort.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ try

N COUNT : MOD + N ⇑ campaign = drive

3 If you describe an object or an action as an effort of a particular kind, you mean that it has been done with difficulty, and that the results are not very good. EG His portrait of Debbie was a rather amateurish effort.

N COUNT : ADJ + N = endeavour

4 The word effort is also used in the following expressions. 4.1 If you say that something such as an action is an effort, you mean that an unusual amount of physical or mental energy is needed to do it. EG Getting up was an effort... With practice, it becomes less of an effort. 4.2 If you do something by an effort of will, you need courage or determination to do it, because it is difficult or painful. EG At times a great effort of will was needed to go to work. 4.3 If you make the effort to do something, you use the extra energy that is needed to do it, even though you may not really want to. EG Mothers had to make the effort to go out to a play area with their children. 4.4 If you say that something is worth the effort, you mean that it will justify the energy that you have spent or will spend on it. EG It's not worth the effort to get them to do the washing up.

PHR : USED AS C ⇑ difficult

PHR : USED AS O/S

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ try

PHR : USED AS C

effortless /ɛfətlɪˢs/. 1 An effortless action or achievement is one that is done easily, without using much energy. EG ...moving up the steps with apparently effortless ease... His rise in politics appears to have been effortless. ◊ effortlessly. EG He even finished his MA thesis, almost effortlessly... ...floating effortlessly on the water.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ easy ≠ laborious

◊ ADV WITH VB

2 An effortless quality is a quality that a person has naturally and has not had to learn. EG ...the effortless superiority of the man... ...that apparently effortless style and ready smile.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ natural = easy ≠ forced effrontery /ɪˈfrʌntəⁿrɪˈ/ is bold, rude, or cheeky behaviour. EG He has the effrontery to use my lighter without asking... For sheer brazen effrontery, Ernest takes some beating.

N UNCOUNT

effulgence /ɪˈfʌldʒəns/ is brightness of light; a literary word. EG In the evening sunshine they glow with a salmon-coloured effulgence.

N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ radiance = aura

effusion /ɪˈfjuːʒəⁿn/, effusions; a formal or literary word. An effusion is 1 a sudden pouring out of light, liquid, etc. EG ...a tremendous effusion of colour, the last glow. 2 the expression of your emotions or ideas with more enthusiasm and for longer than is usual or expected. EG Her gesture checked my effusion, which would have led to nothing anyway... If the rumour is contradicted, this effusion would be in vain.

N COUNT/UNCOUNT

N COUNT/UNCOUNT = outburst

effusive /ɪˈfjuːsɪv/. A person who is effusive expresses pleasure, gratitude, or approval enthusiastically. EG Mrs Schiff was less effusive in her congratulations... ▸ used of a person's behaviour. EG ...an effusive welcome. ◊ effusively. EG The doctor thanked him effusively.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ enthusiast = fulsome

◊ ADV = profusely

EFL /iː ɛf ɛl/ is an abbreviation for 'English as a Foreign Language'; used to describe books, courses of study, and teachers that are involved with the teaching of English to people whose first language is not English. EG ...EFL dictionaries... ...an EFL teacher.

N UNCOUNT, OR BEFORE N ⇑ subject

e.g. /iː dʒiː/ is an abbreviation that means 'for example'; it is used before a noun, or as a conjunction introducing another sentence. EG Reasonable work expenses, e.g. trade union subscriptions, fares, and overalls, will be taken into account... They try to make them fit their own private interests, e.g. by appealing to different sections of the community.

= for instanc

egalitarian /ɪˈgælɪtɛərɪən/. An egalitarian idea, system, person, or society is one that expresses or supports the belief that all people are equal and should have the same rights and opportunities; a formal word. EG The new educational facilities must lead to a far more egalitarian society... ...an egalitarian tax structure... ...egalitarian principles. ▸ used as a noun to refer to a person. EG ...kind, intelligent and an egalitarian to his fingertips.

ADJ QUALIT

▸ N COUNT

egalitarianism /ɪˈgælɪtɛərɪənɪzəⁿm/ is the belief that all people are equal and should have the same rights and opportunities, or the practice of this belief.

N UNCOUNT

egg /ɛg/, eggs. 1 An egg is 1.1 an oval or rounded object produced by female birds. It has a hard shell and contains a baby bird which later emerges by breaking the shell. Some animals, insects, and other creatures also lay eggs like birds. EG ...birds' eggs... The alligator then lays her eggs in it... These eggs hatch into larvae. 1.2 a hen's egg considered as food. You break the shell and eat the contents, usually after cooking. EG ...a dozen eggs, a jar of pickles, and some bread... They always had bacon and egg for breakfast. 1.3 a hard, oval object made so that it resembles a hen's egg. EG ...chocolate eggs... ...holding up the marble egg and looking at it. ● See also Easter egg. 1.4 a cell produced in the body of a female animal, that can develop into a baby if it is fertilized by a male reproductive cell. EG Another egg descends into the uterus... During fertilization the sperm and the egg combine.

N COUNT ⇑ embryo

N COUNT/UNCOUNT ⇑ food

N COUNT + SUP ⇑ shape

N COUNT = ovum

2 The word egg is also used in the following informal expressions. 2.1 If you have egg on your face, you have been made to appear foolish. EG He accumulated egg on his face thicker than any president since Eisenhower. 2.2 If you put all your eggs in one basket, you are relying on one particular action or decision, instead of trying several things at once and leaving yourself an alternative if one of them fails. EG

PHR : USED AS

PHR : VB INFLECTS

The government could not afford to put all its economic eggs in one basket again. 2.3 In British English, 'Don't teach your grandmother to suck eggs' is used to suggest that someone is trying to tell you how to do something when you already know how to do it. 2.4 If you say that something will happen as sure as eggs is eggs, you mean that you are absolutely certain that it will happen. EG If we decide to have a picnic, it'll rain, as sure as eggs is eggs. 2.5 ● a chicken and egg situation see chicken.

PHR VB INFLECTS

PHR USED AS AN A

egg on. If you egg someone on, you encourage them to do something foolish or daring. EG Egged on by Iago, Othello makes up his mind to kill Desdemona.

PHRASAL VB V + O + ADV ≈ urge on eggcup /ɛgkʌp/, eggcups. An eggcup is a small container in which you can put a boiled egg while you eat it.

N COUNT

egghead /ɛghɛd/, eggheads. An egghead is someone who you disapprove of because you think they are too interested in ideas and theories, and not enough in practical actions; an informal word. EG ...the pompous egghead!

N COUNT ≈ highbrow

eggplant /ɛgplɑːnt/, eggplants. An eggplant is an aubergine; used especially in American English.

N COUNT: UNCOUNT

eggshell /ɛgʃɛl/, eggshells. 1 An eggshell is the hard covering round the egg of a bird or animal.

N COUNT: UNCOUNT

2 Eggshell also means 2.1 delicate in structure and easily broken. EG ...wooden legs carved with that same eggshell elegance. 2.2 having a dull painted surface or producing a dull surface. EG ...eggshell paint... ...an eggshell finish.

ADJ CLASSIF: ATTRIB

egg-timer, egg-timers. An egg-timer is a device that helps you measure the time needed to boil an egg. It usually consists of a small glass cylinder with sand in it. The cylinder has a narrow section in the middle, and when the egg-timer is turned upside down, the sand trickles through the middle for about three minutes, the length of time that it takes to boil an egg.

N COUNT

egg whisk, egg whisks. An egg whisk is a device used in cooking for beating eggs, cream, etc into a light, fluffy state.

N COUNT

ego /iːgəʊ, ɛgəʊ/, egos. Your ego is your opinion of your own worth and the influence that this has on your self-confidence. EG It was a blow to my ego, and meant I would have to look for a new job... He quite possibly possessed the most colossal ego of modern times.

N COUNT: USU POSS/MOD + N

egocentric /iːgəʊsɛntrɪk, ɛg-/. If you are egocentric, you think only of yourself and what you want, and do not consider the wishes of other people. EG ...egocentric and authoritarian adults. ◊ egocentricity /iːgəʊsɛntrɪsɪtiˈ, ɛg-/. EG He was accused of pathological egocentricity.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ selfish ≠ considerate

◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ selfishness

egoism /iːgəʊɪzəˈm, ɛg-/ is the same as egotism.

N UNCOUNT

egoist /iːgəʊɪst, ɛg-/, egoists. An egoist is the same as an egotist.

N COUNT

egoistic /iːgəʊɪstɪk, ɛg-/ means the same as egotistic.

ADJ QUALIT

egomania /iːgəʊmeɪnɪə, ɛg-/ is a state of mind or a way of behaving in which a person thinks only of his or her own desires or interests, and does not care about harming other people in order to get what he or she wants. EG He was eaten up with conceit, violent egomania.

N UNCOUNT

egomaniac /iːgəʊmeɪnɪæk, ɛg-/, egomaniacs. An egomaniac is a person who thinks only of himself or herself and who does not care about harming other people in order to get what he or she wants.

N COUNT

egotism /iːgətɪzəˈm, ɛg-/ is a set of attitudes or behaviour that show that you only care about yourself, or that you believe that you are more important than other people. EG It was a piece of blatant egotism.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ self-interest ≠ altruism

egotist /iːgətɪst, ɛg-/, egotists. An egotist is a person who acts selfishly and believes that he or she is more important than other people; used showing disapproval. EG She was already so much the egotist that her eyes were blind to anyone or anything but herself.

N COUNT

egotistic /iːgətɪstɪk, ɛg-/. The form egotistical is also used. If you are egotistic, you believe that you and your own needs, ideas, etc, are more important than other people and their needs, ideas, etc; used showing disapproval. EG Success makes a man egotistic... She was supremely egotistical at heart.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ self-centred ≠ altruistic ego trip, ego trips. An ego trip is an action or a series of actions that someone does for their own satisfaction and enjoyment, often one that shows that they think they are more important than other people, used showing disapproval. EG He's on another ego trip.

N COUNT

Egyptian /iˈdʒɪpʃəˈn/. 1 Egyptian means belonging to or connected with Egypt, its people, or its language. EG ...the Egyptian government.

ADJ CLASSIF

2 An Egyptian is someone who comes from Egypt, especially a man. EG ...a student named Hamid, an Egyptian with big dark eyes.

N COUNT ⇑ person

eh /eɪ/. You say eh 1 when you are asking someone to reply to you or to agree with you. EG Here in an official capacity, eh?... 'Looks good, eh?' he asked exuberantly... Who knows we're here? Eh? 2 when you are asking someone to repeat what they have just said because you did not hear it the first time. EG 'Tell me.'–'Eh?'–'Does she drink?'... 'Well, I still have a chequebook.'–'Eh?'–'I said I still have a chequebook.'... He looked up vaguely from the paper. 'Eh?' he said.

≈ pardon

eiderdown /aɪdədaʊn/, eiderdowns. An eiderdown is a bed covering, placed on top of sheets and blankets, that is filled with small soft feathers or warm material.

N COUNT ≈ quilt

eight /eɪt/, eights. Eight is the number 8: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG ...eight months of exile. ● See also figure of eight.

NUM

eighteen /eɪtiːn/ is the number 18: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME.

NUM

eighteenth /eɪtiːnθ/ The eighteenth item in a series is the one that you count as number eighteen: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG The last major addition to the building came in the early eighteenth century.

ORDINAL

eighth /eɪtθ/, eighths. 1 The eighth item in a series is the one that you count as number eight: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG In his room back on the eighth floor he unpacked and changed.

ORDINAL

2 An eighth is one of eight equal parts of something. EG It was about an eighth of an inch thick.

N COUNT ⇑ fraction

eighth note, eighth notes. An eighth note, in music, is a quaver; used in American English.

N COUNT

eightieth /eɪtiˈɪθ/. The eightieth item in a series is the one that you count as number eighty: see □ at NUMBER and AGE. EG I saw him at his eightieth birthday party.

ORDINAL

eighty /eɪtiˈ/, eighties. Eighty is the number 80: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, and MONEY. EG Sibelius' Second Symphony was written more than eighty years ago.

NUM

eisteddfod /aɪstɛdfɒd/, eisteddfods. An eisteddfod is a Welsh festival at which competitions are held in music, poetry, drama, and art.

N COUNT

either /aɪðə, iːðə/. 1 You use either 1.1 in front of the first of two or more alternatives, when you are stating the only possibilities or choices that there are. The other alternatives are introduced by 'or'. EG I was expecting you either today or tomorrow... You either love him or you hate him... Either you eat your spinach or you go without ice cream. 1.2 in a negative statement in front of the first of two alternatives, when you are emphasizing that the negative statement refers to both the alternatives. EG Dr Kirk, you're not being either frank or fair... I wouldn't dream of asking either Mary or my mother to take on the responsibility.

CONJ COORD ≠ neither

CONJ COORD

2 You can also use either 2.1 to refer to one of two things, people, or situations, when you want to say that they are both possible and it does not matter which one is chosen or considered. EG One speech by either of them stating the facts would have ended his uncertainty. Either is acceptable... What are your views, either or both of you? ▸ used as a determiner. EG If these arguments were sound, then either one of two conclusions might be drawn... Either way, I can't lose. 2.2 in a negative statement to refer to each of two things, people, or situations, when you are emphasizing that the negative statement includes both of them. EG 'Which one do you want?'–'I don't want either.'... Some are without upper limbs, some without lower, some without either... There was no sound from either of the flats. ▸ used as a determiner. EG She could not see either man.

PRON: SING, IF: PREP THEN of ⇑ any ≠ neither

▸ DET: N COUNT IN SING

PRON: IF: PREP THEN of, WITH BROAD NEG ⇑ any

▸ DET: N COUNT IN SING, WITH BROAD NEG

3 You can use either by itself at the end of a negative statement 3.1 to indicate that there is a similarity between a person or thing that you have just mentioned and one that was mentioned earlier, for example when the same fact is true about both of them. EG 'I haven't got that address.'–'No, I haven't got it either'... I can't play golf either... I knew that John wouldn't want to go out and I didn't think Eileen would either. 3.2 to indicate that you are adding an extra piece of information to a previous statement that you have made. EG Not only was he ugly, he was not very interesting to talk to either... He doesn't have all his facts right either.

ADV: WITH

BROAD NEG

ADV : WITH BROAD NEG = what's more

4 You can use either to introduce a noun that refers to each of two things when you are talking about both of them. EG The two ladies sat in large armchairs on either side of the stage... I passed some kids playing football using coats as goals at either end of the street... In either case the answer is the same.

DET + N COUNT IN SING

ejaculate /iˈdʒækjəˌleɪt/, ejaculates, ejaculating, ejaculated. 1 When a man ejaculates, he discharges semen through his penis. ◊ ejaculation /iˈdʒækjəˌleɪʃəⁿn/.

V ⇑ discharge

◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you ejaculate, you suddenly say or shout something, for example because you are very surprised; an old-fashioned, literary use. EG 'Stout man!' ejaculated Mr Annett. ◊ ejaculation. EG He screamed, an ejaculation of hopelessness.

V + QUOTE = exclaim

◊ N UNCOUNT : COUNT

eject /iˈdʒɛkt/, ejects, ejecting, ejected. 1 To eject something means to push or send it out, usually with force. EG The machine ejected a handful of cigarettes... Some ants eject formic acid when irritated. ◊ ejection /iˈdʒɛkʃəⁿn/.

V + O ⇑ throw out = emit

◊ N UNCOUNT

2 To eject someone means to force them to leave a particular place or position. EG If someone is trying to enter your house by force you can eject him by force... We reserve the right to eject without notice any objectionable person. ◊ ejection.

V + O : USU + A ⇑ throw out = remove, expel

◊ N UNCOUNT

ejector seat, ejector seats. An ejector seat is a special seat which can throw the pilot out of a fast military aeroplane in an emergency.

N COUNT

eke /iːk/, ekes, eking, eked. If you eke something out, you make your supply of it last as long as possible, by being careful to using no more than is necessary. EG Migrants send home cash that helps eke out low village incomes. ● If you eke out a living or an existence, you manage to survive in a difficult situation in which you have very little food, money, etc. EG In his early days he eked out a precarious living from designing book jackets... These unfortunate creatures eke out a miserable existence.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = stretch

● PHR : VB INFLECTS

elaborate, elaborates, elaborating, elaborated. The word elaborate is pronounced /iˈlæbərət/ when it is an adjective, and /iˈlæbəreɪt/ when it is a verb. 1 Something that is elaborate is 1.1 very complex because it has a lot of different parts. EG ...elaborate cooling systems... ...the elaborate network of canals or water storage tanks... ...elaborate apparatus for digesting cellulose. 1.2 made with a lot of detailed artistic designs. EG ...the elaborate embroidered and jewelled headdress... The south side of the church is elaborate, decorated with fine stone carvings. ◊ elaborately. EG Every inch of its surface was elaborately decorated.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ complicated = intricate ≠ simple

ADJ QUALIT = ornate ≠ plain

◊ ADV = richly

2 Elaborate systems, behaviour, or ceremonies consist of many different actions or rules that have to be done or obeyed carefully and in a particular order. EG The Coptic Pope is chosen by his own Church in an elaborate ceremony... In some countries, the elaborate appeals procedures can delay the final outcome of a court case for several years.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ complicated = intricate ≠ simple

3 Elaborate plans, methods, etc, are carefully planned or organized with great attention to detail. EG ...elaborate precautions on the part of the French police... Elaborate preparations were being made to get me over to Tokyo.

ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ detailed = extensive

4 If you elaborate something or elaborate on something that you have already mentioned, 4.1 you provide more details about it, in order to make it clearer and more understandable. EG It isn't a statement I want to elaborate on... Some of these points will have to be further elaborated as we go along. ◊ elaboration /iˈlæbəreɪʃəⁿn/. EG An elaboration of this idea will follow in Chapter 12. 4.2 you develop a system, plan, or theory by making it more complicated and more effective. EG Bees have taken this basic arrangement and elaborated it to an extreme degree. ◊ elaboration /iˈlæbəreɪʃəⁿn/. EG ...the elaboration of an ideology or rule.

V + O, OR V + A (on) ⇑ explain = expand

◊ N UNCOUNT

V + O = refine

◊ N UNCOUN

élan /eɪlɑːn, -læn/ is a quality or type of behaviour that is both energetic and confident; a literary word. EG She walked into the room with a certain élan.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ confiden = flair, das elapse /iˈlæps/, elapses, elapsing, elapsed. When time or a period of time elapses, it passes or goes by; a formal word. EG Too much time had elapsed since I had attempted any serious study... A century and a half elapsed before typewriters became commercially available.

V = go by elastic /iˈlæstɪk/. 1 Elastic is a rubber material that stretches when you pull it and returns to its original size and shape when you let it go. Elastic is often used in clothes to make them fit tightly, for example round the waist. EG It snapped back like a piece of elastic... ...a pair of elastic knickers.

N UNCOUNT

2 Something that is elastic is able to stretch easily and then return to its original size and shape. EG ...a softer, more elastic and lighter material... Inside the pad is a soft, elastic sort of bladder.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ flexible = stretchy ≠ rigid

3 Elastic ideas, policies, etc, are able to change in order to suit new circumstances or conditions as they arise. EG Liberal policy was sufficiently elastic to accommodate both views.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ flexible = adaptabl ≠ fixed elastic band, elastic bands. An elastic band is a thin circle of very stretchy rubber that you can put around bundles of things such as papers in order to hold them together.

N COUNT = rubber b

elasticity /iːlæstɪsɪtiˈ, ɪlæstɪsɪtiˈ/ is 1 the ability to change and adapt in order to suit new circumstances or conditions as they arise. EG These simple methods possess a certain elasticity as to their practical application. 2 the ability of a material or substance to return to its original shape and size after it has been stretched. EG We set up an experiment to measure the elasticity of the thread.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ flexibility ≠ rigidity

N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ flexibility = stretch

elated /iˈleɪtɪdˈ/. When you are elated, you are extremely happy and excited. EG Judy, suddenly elated, gave his hand a squeeze... Her hands were still shaking, but she felt elated, excited.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED = exhilarat ≠ deflated elation /iˈleɪʃəⁿn/ is a feeling of great happiness that is caused by such things as success, relief, or enjoyment. EG This little incident filled me with considerable elation.

N UNCOUNT = delight

elbow /ɛlbəʊ/, elbows, elbowing, elbowed. 1 An elbow is 1.1 the part of a person's arm where the upper and lower halves of the arm are joined. EG She sat with her elbows on the table, resting her head on her hands. 1.2 the part of a sleeve that covers your elbow. EG He was wearing an old suit whose jacket had worn through at the elbows.

N COUNT ⇑ joint

N COUNT

2 If you elbow someone aside or to one side, you use one of your elbows to push them out of the way. EG He stood in the doorway but she elbowed him to one side and walked out... I elbowed my way through the crowd to the front of the hall.

V + O + A = jostle

elbow grease is the strength and energy that you use when doing physical work like rubbing or polishing; an informal expression. EG Removing all the old paint can be extremely hard work and involves lots of elbow grease.

N UNCOUNT = effort

elbow room; also spelled with a hyphen. Elbow room is the freedom in a particular place or situation to do what you want to do or need to do; an informal expression. EG I needed a little more elbow room to do the job properly.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ space

elder /ɛldə/, elders. 1 The elder of two people is the one who was born first. EG He had none of his elder brother's charm... Posy was the elder of the two... The elder Jaykar was very gentle with his son.

ADJ CLASSIF : U the + ADJ ≠ younger

2 A person's elder is someone who is older than them, especially when they are quite a lot older; a fairly formal use. EG Their father had taught them to show respect towards their elders... She was my elder by some two years.

N COUNT : USU WITH POSS = senior ≠ junior

3 An elder is 3.1 a fairly old member of a tribe who has influence and authority. EG Eddie was a respected elder of the tribe. 3.2 a person who holds a position of responsibility in some Christian churches. EG ...one of the Elders of the Mormon church. 3.3 a bush or small tree which has groups of small white flowers and red or black berries. EG She started to walk down the winding path through the elders.

N COUNT ⇑ senior

N COUNT

N COUNT ⇑ shrub = elderberr elderberry /ɛldəbərɪˈ/, elderberries. An elderberry is one of the edible red or black berries that grow on an elder bush or tree. ▸ also used to refer to the bush or tree itself.

N COUNT ⇑ berry

elderly /ɛldəli¹/. 1 Elderly people are old; often used as a polite way to refer to old people. EG The coach was full of elderly ladies having a good time. ▸ The elderly is used to refer to people who are elderly. EG ...the elderly and the frail... ...unless the elderly are adequately cared for.
ADJ QUALIT ≠ young
▸ N PLURAL : the + N = the aged

2 Something that is elderly is rather old or old-fashioned and therefore no longer as good or efficient as when it was new, or not as good or efficient as a modern form of it. EG The ship was still under way, her elderly oil-fired steam engines throbbing along. ...a tired, worn-out, elderly organization.
ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB = oul dated ≠ modern elder statesman, elder statesmen. An elder statesman is 1 an old and respected politician or former politician who still has influence because of his or her experience. EG Beaverbrook and Lloyd George were among the elder statesmen who attended these functions. 2 an experienced member or former member of a company or other organization who still has influence because of his or her experience.

N COUNT
N COUNT

eldest /ɛldɪ²st/. The eldest person in a group of people, especially the children in a family, is the one who was born before all the others. EG Her eldest son was killed in the First War... Gladys was the eldest of four children. ▸ used in informal English as a noun. EG Saul, Emily's eldest, has just got married.
ADJ CLASSIF : USU the + ADJ
▸ N SING : POSS + N

elec. is an abbreviation for 'electric' or 'electricity'.

elect /i¹lɛkt/, elects, electing, elected. 1 When people elect someone to represent them, they choose him or her to act as their representative, by voting. EG They met to elect a president... Why should we elect him Mayor?... You could be elected as a member of Parliament... Two women have been elected to the council. ◊ elected. EG ...a democratically elected government.
V + O, OR V + O + C, OR V + O + A (as/to) = appoint
◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 If you elect to do something, you choose to do it; a formal use. EG ...the questions he had elected to answer in the exam... They may elect to opt out of the scheme.
V + TO-INF ⇑ decide

3 Elect is added after words such as 'president' or 'governor' to indicate that a person has been elected to the post but has not officially started to carry out the duties involved; a formal use. EG ...the President elect.
ADJ AFTER N ⇑ chosen

election /i¹lɛkʃᵊn/, elections. 1 An election is an organized process in which people vote to choose a person or group of people to represent them in parliament, on a committee, etc, or to hold an official position such as president or chairman of a group. EG Labour did badly in the election... Unemployment was a key issue during the last election campaign... I may vote for her at the next election. ● See also by-election, general election.
N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ choice

2 The election of a particular person or group of people is their success in an election, as a result of which they gain political power or take up an official position in an organization. EG ...within two months of her election as Tory leader... ...his election to the chairmanship... ...after the election of Mr Heath's government in 1970.
N SING : USU WITH POSS ⇑ installation

electioneering /i¹lɛkʃᵊnɪəʳᵊɪŋ/ means the activities that politicians and their supporters carry out in order to persuade people to vote for them or for their political party in an election, for example making speeches and visiting voters in their homes. EG He continued his electioneering tour.
N UNCOUNT ⇑ campaigning elective /i¹lɛktɪv/. An elective post, committee, etc is one to which people are appointed as a result of winning an election. EG Blacks began to win elective offices, many of them becoming mayors.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ democratic elector /i¹lɛktə/, electors. An elector is a person who has the right to vote in an election. EG ...the democratic right of electors to choose their own MP... ...a petition signed by 10,357 electors of Bristol South East.

N COUNT : USU PL = voter

electoral /i¹lɛktəʳᵊrəl/ means intended for an election, happening in an election, or resulting from an election. EG ...a contribution to their electoral funds... He helped lay the foundations of electoral success. ◊ electorally. EG Labour leaders believed it would be electorally popular.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
◊ ADV

electoral register, electoral registers. An electoral register or electoral roll is an official list of all the people who have the right to vote in an election. EG She has flatly refused to go on the electoral register in Ripon.
N COUNT : USU the + N

electorate /i¹lɛktəʳᵊrə¹t/, electorates. The electorate of a country or area is all the people in it who have the right to vote in an election. EG The Government was responsible to the electorate as a whole... ...constituencies with small electorates.
N COUNT : USU SING, USU the + N

electric /i¹lɛktrɪk/. 1 An electric device or machine works by using electricity. EG I switched on the electric fire... ...its grimy walls and naked electric light bulbs... ...an electric motor... ...an electric fan.
ADJ CLASSIF

2 An electric current, voltage, etc is one that is produced by electricity. EG There was a powerful electric current running through the wires.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 An electric plug, socket, etc is one that is designed to carry electricity. EG Check light bulbs and electric plugs... The electric wiring is dangerous... ...fixed near a suitable electric socket.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 If you describe the atmosphere as electric, you mean that people are in a state of great emotional excitement. EG When she came on stage the atmosphere was already electric.
ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ tense = feverish electrical /i¹lɛktrɪkᵊl/. 1 Electrical devices or machines work by using electricity. EG ...electrical appliances such as dishwashers and washing machines... ...electrical equipment. ◊ electrically. EG ...electrically operated windows.

ADJ CLASSIF
◊ ADV

2 Electrical systems or components supply or use electricity. EG The trouble is in the electrical system... ...electrical fittings... Each chip consisted of about ten electrical components.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 Electrical energy is energy in the form of electricity. EG Chemical energy in the battery is turned into electrical energy. ◊ electrically. EG The electrically charged layer in the upper atmosphere.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
◊ ADV

4 Electrical industries, engineers, etc are involved in the production of electricity or electrical goods. EG ...the electrical and mechanical engineering industries.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

electric blanket, electric blankets. An electric blanket is a blanket with wires inside it, which carry an electric current that keeps the blanket warm.
N COUNT

electric-blue. Something that is electric-blue is very bright blue in colour. EG ...electric-blue dragonflies. ▸ used as a noun. EG The sofa set was in electric blue.
ADJ COLOUR
▸ N UNCOUNT

electric chair. The electric chair is a method of execution, used especially in the United States, in which a person being executed is strapped to a special chair and killed by a powerful electric current which is passed through his or her body.
N SING : the + N ⇑ device electrician /ɪlɛktrɪʃᵊn, iːlɛk-/, electricians. An electrician is a person whose job is to install and repair electrical equipment.

N COUNT

electricity /ɪlɛktrɪsɪti¹, iːlɛk-/. Electricity is 1 a form of energy that is used for heating and lighting, and to provide power for machines in houses and factories. EG They generate the electricity in power stations... ... powered by electricity from a battery. 2 the supply of electricity to homes and factories. EG There were no telephones and no electricity... How can we reduce our electricity and gas bills?
N UNCOUNT
N UNCOUNT

electric shock, electric shocks. An electric shock is a sudden painful feeling that you get when you touch something which is connected to a supply of electricity. Strong electric shocks can kill people.
N COUNT ⇑ jolt

electrify /i¹lɛktrɪfaɪ/, electrifies, electrifying, electrified. 1 An event that electrifies someone makes them feel very excited and surprised. EG ...the news that had electrified the world... ...electrified by these events, Rosa could not speak. ◊ electrifying. EG Kennedy had made an electrifying speech.
V + O ≠ bore
◊ ADJ QUALIT = exciting

2 A region of a country that is electrified is supplied with electricity. EG Only 30 per cent of the villages are electrified... ◊ electrification /i¹lɛktrɪfɪkeɪʃᵊn/. EG Rural electrification has reached only about 5 per cent of the country.
V + O : USU PASS ⇑ supply
◊ N UNCOUNT

3 When a railway system or railway line is electrified, electric cables are put over the tracks, or electric rails beside them, so that the trains can be powered by electricity. EG British Rail plans to electrify over 50 per cent of its network... ◊ electrification. EG ...railways investing heavily in electrification.
V + O, OR V ⇑ adapt
◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ adaptation

4 If someone electrifies a fence or other barrier, they connect it to a supply of electricity, so that a person or animal that touches it will get an electric shock. ◊ electrified. EG ...electrified wire-netting. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF electro- is added to words to form other words that refer to electricity or to electrical processes. EG chemical → electro-chemical... magnetic → electro-magnetic. PREFIX electrocute /ɪˈlɛktrəˈkjuːt/, electrocutes, electrocuting, electrocuted. 1 If you electrocute yourself or if you are electrocuted, you are accidentally killed or badly injured by touching something that is connected to a source of electricity. EG Don't touch that wire, you'll electrocute yourself!... ...he fell and was electrocuted on the rails. ◊ electrocution /ɪˈlɛktrəˈkjuːʃəⁿ/. EG They somehow managed to escape electrocution when they cut through the power cable... V+O (REFL/NG) ⇑ be killed
V + O ⇑ charge

2 If a criminal is electrocuted, he or she is executed by means of an electrical apparatus. ◊ electrocution. V+O ◊ N UNCOUNT electrode /ɪˈlɛktrəʊd/, electrodes. An electrode is a small piece of metal or other substance that is used to take an electric current to or from a source of power, a piece of equipment, or a living body. EG ...a heating effect which flows from one electrode to another. N COUNT ⇑ part electrolysis /ɪlɛktrɒlɪsɪs, ɪːlɛk-/ is the process of passing an electric current through a substance in order to produce chemical changes in the substance; a technical term in physics. EG ...hydrogen generated from water by electrolysis. N UNCOUNT electrolyte /ɪˈlɛktrəlaɪt/electrolytes. An electrolyte is a substance, usually a liquid, which electricity can pass through. EG ...batteries that functioned perfectly when a new electrolyte, copper sulphate, was added. N COUNT electromagnetic /ɪˈlɛktrəʊmægnɛtɪk/ is used to describe electrical and magnetic forces or effects. EG X-rays are electromagnetic waves... ...energy in the form of electromagnetic radiation. ADJ CLASSIF electron /ɪˈlɛktrɒn/, electrons. An electron is a tiny particle of matter that is smaller than an atom and has a negative electrical charge; a technical term in physics. N COUNT electronic /ɪlɛktrɒnɪk, ɪːlɛk-/, electronics. Electronic is an adjective and electronics is a noun. 1 An electronic device is one that has transistors, silicon chips, or valves which control and change the electric current passing through the device. EG ...the dramatic reduction in size and complexity of electronic components... ...electronic equipment. ADJ CLASSIF

2 An electronic process or activity involves the use of electronic devices. EG ...constant electronic surveillance before boarding an airplane. ◊ electronically. EG Each vehicle might be electronically tracked. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ◊ ADV

3 Electronics is 3.1 the technology of using transistors, silicon chips, or valves, especially in the manufacture of devices such as radios, televisions, and computers. EG ...modern developments in electronics... ...the British electronics industry. 3.2 equipment that consists of electronic devices. EG The boat carries a mass of sophisticated electronics. N UNCOUNT ⇑ science N PLURAL

electroplate /ɪˈlɛktrəʊˈpleɪt/, electroplates, electroplating, electroplated. To electroplate something means to put a layer of silver or other metal on it by dipping it in a special liquid through which an electric current is passed; a technical term. V+O ⇑ coat elegance /ɛlɪgəns/. If a person or thing has elegance, it has a pleasing and graceful appearance, manner, or style. EG ...the elegance of classical ballet... The street had retained some of its old elegance. N UNCOUNT ⇑ beauty ≠ clumsiness elegant /ɛlɪgənt/. 1 Someone or something that is elegant is pleasing and graceful in appearance. EG ...the little church with its elegant square tower... ...an elegant dark suit... ...a tall, elegant woman. ◊ elegantly. EG Her umbrella is elegantly capped with a glass knob... ...an elegantly dressed woman. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ beautiful = stylish, smart ◊ ADV = tastefully

2 An idea, statement, or plan that is elegant is simple, clear, and clever. EG The plan was imaginative in conception and elegant in form... His proposal has an elegant simplicity. ◊ elegantly. EG ...elegantly described in precise mathematical language. ADJ QUALIT = refined ≠ clumsy ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ simply elegiac /ɛlɪdʒaɪək/. Something that is elegiac expresses or shows sadness; a literary word. EG His paintings are never reflective or elegiac... ...an elegiac mood. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ sad elegy /ɛlɪdʒɪ/, elegies. An elegy is a sad poem, often about someone who has died. EG ...a romantic elegy on the fate of his mistress. N COUNT = lament element /ɛlɪmənt/, elements. 1 An element of something is a single part which combines with others to make up a whole. EG The different elements in the play are hard to balance properly... ...the basic elements of a job... ...analysis into component elements. N COUNT + SUP = constituent ≠ whole

2 A particular element of a situation, activity, or process is an important quality or feature that it has or needs. EG Surprise would be an essential element in any such action... You must bring the human element into it... The time element was the catch. N COUNT + SUP = factor

3 The elements of a subject or activity are the first and most important things that you need to know about it. EG He had troubles with the very elements of reading. N PLURAL + SU ⇑ essentials = basics

4 Particular elements within a society or organization are groups of people who have similar aims, beliefs, or habits. EG ...sympathetic elements outside the party... ...the younger elements in the armed forces. ...a danger that the dynamic element in the community will go elsewhere. N COUNT + SUP USU PL ⇑ group ≠ individual

5 If something has an element of a particular quality or emotion, it has a certain amount of this quality or emotion. EG Nonetheless, it contains an element of truth... Perhaps there was some element of jealousy... ...to add an element of suspense and mystery to my novels. N PART + N UNCOUNT

6 An element is 6.1 a substance that consists of only one type of atoms; a technical term in chemistry. For example, gold, oxygen, and carbon are all elements. EG If hydrogen is removed from water, the element that remains is oxygen. 6.2 a metal part in an electric fire, water heater, etc, which changes the electric current into heat. EG You need a new element in the kettle. N COUNT ≠ compound N COUNT : USU SING

7 The elements are the weather conditions, especially when it is stormy weather. EG ...the minimum of shelter and protection against the elements... The elements were wild. N PLURAL : the N

8 If you are in your element, you are in a situation or doing something that you really enjoy and do well. If you are out of your element, you are in a situation or doing something that you do not enjoy or do not do very well. EG She's really in her element now... He felt totally out of his element. PHR : USED AS A elemental /ɛlɪmɛntəˈlˈ/. An elemental idea or feeling is one that is simple and basic but forceful; a fairly literary word. EG ...outbursts of elemental rage... ...the elemental underlying truth... ...an elemental aspect of his work. ADJ QUALIT ≠ sophisticated elementary /ɛlɪmɛntəˈrɪˈ/. Something that is elementary 1 is very simple and straightforward, involving only the most basic ideas or actions that are absolutely necessary for it to exist. EG Most towns had taken some elementary precautions of a civil defence nature... ...elementary democracy. 2 is of a simple standard, concerning the ideas, rules, or methods that you learn when you first begin to study a subject. EG I did both elementary maths and additional maths at 'O' level... ...books at very elementary levels... He is less likely to make elementary errors. ADJ QUALIT = initial ADJ QUALIT ⇑ basic ≠ advanced elementary school, elementary schools. In America, an elementary school is a school where children are taught for the first six or eight years of their education. N COUNT = primary school elephant /ɛlɪfənt/, elephants. An elephant is a very large four-legged animal with a long, flexible nose called a trunk, which it uses to pick up things. An adult elephant has tusks of ivory at each side of its mouth. Elephants are found in India and Africa. ● See also white elephant. N COUNT elephantine /ɛlɪfæntaɪn/. Something that is elephantine resembles or is suitable for an elephant, for example by being rather clumsy or by being very large and easy to see. EG ...an elephantine parody of the marriage service... He walked with a curious elephantine stealth. ADJ CLASSIF : US ATTRIB elevate /ɛlɪveɪt/, elevates, elevating, elevated. 1 If you elevate someone or something to a particular status or position, you give them greater V+O+A (to/into) : NO IMPER importance or status than they really deserve. EG Some people elevate football into a religion.

2 To elevate something means to lift it up so that it is higher than the surrounding area. EG Earth movements in the past elevated great areas of the seabed. V + O
= raise ≠ lower elevated /ɛlɪveɪtɪd/. 1 A person or a job or role that is elevated is very important or of very high rank. EG It is in keeping with your elevated position in the profession. ADJ QUALIT ATTRIB = exalted ≠ lowly

2 If thoughts or ideas are elevated, they are on a higher level morally or intellectually than that usual in ordinary life. EG Let's discuss it on a slightly more elevated plane. ADJ QUALIT = lofty ≠ pedestrian

3 If land or buildings are elevated they are raised up higher than the surrounding area. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ lowered elevation /ɛlɪveɪʃən/, elevations. 1 The elevation of someone or something is 1.1 the act of raising them to a position of greater importance or higher rank. EG ...the elevation of the standards of the average man... ...the elevation of man to divinity. 1.2 the promotion of someone to an important position or job or to a particular rank in society. EG His elevation to the peerage caused great surprise. N SING : the + N of

N SING : WITH POSS, USU + to
≠ demotion

2 An elevation is 2.1 a piece of ground that is higher than the area around it. EG I was on a slight elevation and could see the whole length of the gorge. 2.2 the front, back or side of a building, or a drawing of one of these; a technical term in architecture. EG This drawing shows the front elevation. N COUNT
= hill
≠ dip
N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING

3 The elevation of a place is its height above sea level. EG ...a fairly flat plateau at an elevation of about a hundred feet. N COUNT : USU SING = altitude ≠ depth

elevator /ɛlɪveɪtə/, elevators. An elevator is 1 a lift that carries people up and down inside buildings; used especially in American English. 2 a machine used for lifting heavy objects and goods, for example in a warehouse. N COUNT

N COUNT

eleven /ɪlɛvən/, elevens. 1 Eleven is the number 11; see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG The flight had been postponed until eleven o'clock the next morning. NUM

2 An eleven is a team of eleven people in football, cricket, hockey, etc. EG Richard's been picked for the first eleven. N COUNT : USU MOD + N

elevenses /ɪlɛvənzɪz/ is a light snack that you have in the middle of the morning, for example a cup of tea or coffee and biscuits; an informal word used in British English. EG I went indoors to put on the kettle for our elevenses. N UNCOUNT eleventh /ɪlɛvənθ/, elevenths. 1 The eleventh item in a series is the one that you count as number eleven: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG ...the eleventh floor of the building. ORDINAL

2 An eleventh is one of eleven equal parts of something. N COUNT : USU + of

eleventh hour. The eleventh hour is the last possible moment before something happens. EG I was asked, at the eleventh hour, to step in and direct the play... We are hoping for an eleventh-hour political settlement. N SING : the + N = last minute

elf /ɛlf/, elves. An elf is a small magical person in fairy stories who plays tricks on people. N COUNT elfin /ɛlfɪn/. 1 If you say that someone looks elfin, you mean that they have small, delicate features. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 Elfin is also used to describe things that belong to elves or that are said to have been made by elves. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB elicit /ɪlɪsɪt/, elicits, eliciting, elicited. 1 If you elicit a response or a reaction, you cause it to happen by saying or doing something. EG She went round the ward, talking to each woman in turn but eliciting little response from any of them... Threats to reinstate the tax elicited jeers in Brussels. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from

⇑ cause
= provoke

2 If you elicit a piece of information, you find it out by asking careful questions; a formal use. EG In five minutes she had elicited all the Herriard family history. V + O/REPORT-CL
⇑ discover = extract

elide /ɪlaɪd/, elides, eliding, elided. If you elide a part of a word, you do not pronounce it when you are speaking; a technical term in linguistics. V + O eligible /ɛlɪdʒəbəl/. 1 Someone who is eligible for something is qualified or suitable to take part in it, receive it, or be connected with it, for example because they are of the correct age. EG You may even be eligible for a grant to help you study... Not all applicants are legally eligible to work in the United States. ◊ eligibility /ɛlɪdʒəbɪlɪtɪ/. EG ...the eligibility of applicants. ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN for/to-INF

◊ N UNCOUNT

2 An eligible man or woman is not yet married and considered to be a suitable partner. EG ...the deliciously eligible bachelor who was organizing the party. ◊ eligibility. ADJ QUALIT = marriageable

◊ N UNCOUNT

eliminate /ɪlɪmɪneɪt/, eliminates, eliminating, eliminated; a fairly formal word. 1 To eliminate something means to remove it completely, especially when it is something that you do not want or need. EG It is not safe to eliminate all fat and starches from the diet... ...a co-ordinated plan to eliminate illiteracy by 1980... Poverty must be eliminated. ◊ elimination /ɪlɪmɪneɪʃən/. EG Elimination of this squalor is the main object of socialist policies. V + O = eradicate = cut out

◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you eliminate something from a group or list, you remove it, usually because you have just learned that it is unsatisfactory in some way. EG He continued testing hypotheses and eliminating them or confirming them... ◊ elimination. EG It's a process of elimination... ...the elimination of spelling errors. V + O
= rule out
≠ include

◊ N UNCOUNT
IF : PREP THEN of

3 When a person or team is eliminated from a competition, they are defeated and so take no further part in the competition. EG Four minor candidates were eliminated in the first round. V + O : USU PASS = knock out

4 To eliminate someone means to kill them in order to stop them causing problems; an informal use. EG Out of six attempts to eliminate him, three were exposed immediately. ◊ elimination. EG ...the swift, quiet elimination of some sixty of their leaders. V + O ⇑ kill = liquidate, assassinate

◊ N UNCOUNT
IF : PREP THEN of

elision /ɪlɪʒən/ is the leaving out of the sound of some part of a word when it is spoken; a technical term in linguistics. N UNCOUNT elite /ɪliːt/, elites. 1 An elite is a group of the most powerful, rich, or talented people in a place or community. EG ...a small intellectual elite. N COUNT

≠ the masses

2 Elite people or organizations are considered to be the best of their kind. EG ...a small group of elite investment bankers... He's one of the few people who went through both the elite training establishments. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB = top, select elitism /ɪliːtɪzəm/ is 1 the belief that a society or country should be ruled by a small group of people who are superior to everyone else. EG This kind of elitism is even more marked in public schools. 2 a system of government in which a society or country is ruled by a small group of people who are considered to be superior to everyone else. EG The elements of elitism in the present system are likely to remain. 3 the feeling of superiority someone has when they believe they are part of an elite. EG ...the elitism which almost inevitably insinuates itself in the minds of such people. N UNCOUNT ≠ egalitarianism

N UNCOUNT
≠ egalitarianism

N UNCOUNT
⇑ awareness

elitist /ɪliːtɪst/, elitists. 1 Elitist people, systems, or ideas practise or support elitism. EG It had been a very elitist society... They have a very much more selective and elitist system at the top... ...elitist arguments... ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ select ≠ egalitarian

2 An elitist is a person who believes that a society or country should be ruled by a small group of people who are superior to everyone else. EG In some ways he's quite like you-an elitist. N COUNT elixir /ɪlɪksɪə/, elixirs. An elixir is 1 an imaginary liquid that is considered to have magical powers, for example to cure illness, keep people young, turn ordinary metals into gold, etc. EG ...their search to find the elixir of life. 2 an alcoholic drink; a humorous use. EG Captain Imrie's own private elixir. For emergency use only. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of
≠ egalitarian

N COUNT : USU SING
⇑ alcohol

Elizabethan /ɪlɪzəbiːθən/. Something or someone that is Elizabethan happened, was made, or lived in England when Elizabeth the First was Queen, in the second half of the sixteenth century. EG ...the unique nature of Elizabethan painting. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB elk /ɛlk/, elks. Elk can also be used as the plural form. An elk is the largest type of deer, sometimes two metres high at the shoulder and with big, flattened antlers. N COUNT = moose

ellipse /ɪlɪps/, ellipses. An ellipse is an oval shape like a flattened circle. N COUNT ellipsis /ɪlɪpsɪs/, ellipses /ɪlɪpsiːz/. Ellipsis is the missing out of one or more words from a sentence when the sentence can be understood without them; a technical term in linguistics. N UNCOUNT : COUNT ⇑ omission

elliptic /ɪlɪptɪk/ means the same as elliptical. ADJ CLASSIF elliptical /ɪlɪptɪkəl/. 1 Something that is elliptical has an oval shape like a flattened circle. ◊ elliptically. ADJ CLASSIF = elliptic

◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Speech or writing that is elliptical is difficult to ADJ QUALIT understand, or easily misunderstood, because some words have been missed out. ◊ elliptically. ◊ ADV WITH VB

elm /ɛlm/, elms. An elm is a type of tall tree that has broad leaves which it loses in winter. ▸ Elm is also used to refer to the wood of the elm tree, which is hard and heavy. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT elocution /ɛləkjuːʃᵊn/ is the art of speaking clearly in public with a standard accent. EG He taught elocution at a junior college. N UNCOUNT ⇑ speech elongate /iːlɒŋgeɪt/, elongates, elongating, elongated. If you elongate something or if it elongates, you stretch it so that it becomes longer; a formal word. EG Rise up on your toes and elongate the complete length of your spine. V ERG ⇑ lengthen = stretch ≠ shorten elongated /iːlɒŋgeɪtɪᵈ/. Something that is elongated is very long and thin. EG Their bodies are thin and elongated. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ long ≠ squat elongation /iːlɒŋgeɪʃᵊn/, elongations. The elongation of something is the process of making it longer. EG ...the elongation of the circles into ellipses. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ lengthening ≠ contraction elope /ɪˈləʊp/, elopes, eloping, eloped. When one person elopes with another or when two people elope, they go away secretly together in order to get married, usually without their parents' permission. EG They eloped a month before Tom's graduation. V OR V + A (with) : RECIP ⇑ run away elopement /ɪˈləʊpmənt/, elopements. An elopement is an act of eloping. EG He had read of her elopement while at Oxford. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT eloquence /ɛləkwəns/ is 1 the ability to speak and write well and in a convincing way. EG He may have inherited his eloquence from his father, a Christian preacher. 2 the art of speaking or writing well and in a convincing way. EG But the eloquence and fluent imagery of that period never returned. N UNCOUNT = fluency / N UNCOUNT eloquent /ɛləkwəntᵈ/. 1 Speech or writing that is eloquent is well expressed and effective in persuading people. EG His stories were eloquent and funny... The speech was eloquent. ◊ eloquently. EG They spoke eloquently of their concern. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ persuasive = expressive / ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 A person who is eloquent is good at speaking and able to persuade people; used showing approval. EG He was tall, eloquent, and had noticeably fine manners. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ persuasive

3 Behaviour that is eloquent shows feelings and reactions very clearly and obviously although nothing is spoken or written. EG No one spoke but the faces were eloquent in their malevolent pleasure at my confusion. ◊ eloquently. EG She pushed eloquently at her untouched pastry. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ expressive / ◊ ADV WITH VB

else /ɛls/. 1 You use else after words such as 'anywhere', 'someone', 'what', and 'little', to mean 1.1 other than this. EG I don't like it here. Let's go somewhere else... I'm too tired. Somebody else will have to go... The experience of China was unlike anything else that had ever happened to me... I had nothing else to do... I always enjoy going to someone else's house. 1.2 more than this. EG Stop her before she says anything else... Everyone else is downstairs... What else do you want to know?... Who else was there living in the house?... Her past medical history included hay-fever but little else. ADJ : PRON/ADV + ADJ / ADJ : PRON/ADV + ADJ

2 You can say 'if nothing else' to indicate that what you are mentioning is, in your opinion, the only good thing in a particular situation. EG It was a fine publicity stunt if nothing else... If nothing else, we should have a good laugh. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = at least

3 You use or else 3.1 when you want to mention the unpleasant effects or results of a particular action or event. EG Either you stop drinking, or else the children and I will leave you... You've got to be very careful or else you'll miss the turn-off into our drive. CONJ COORD = otherwise / CONJ COORD

3.2 to mention the second of two possibilities when you are not sure if the first possibility is true or not. EG I think I was at school in Switzerland, or else I was staying with a school friend during the vacation... He's got some fierce hangover, or else he hasn't slept in a month. 3.3 in informal spoken English, to threaten someone when you are warning them not to do something. EG Don't talk to me like that again, or else. PHR : USED AT END OF SENTENCE AS ADV SEN

elsewhere /ɛlsweə/means in or to another place or other places. EG I will say good day to you and take the matter up elsewhere... This gesture is popular in Europe and elsewhere... Elsewhere in the tropics, rainfall is notoriously variable and unreliable... I shall go elsewhere. ADV ≠ here

ELT /iː ɛl tiː/ is the abbreviation for 'English Language Teaching'. N UNCOUNT

elucidate /ɪˈluːsɪdeɪt/, elucidates, elucidating, elucidated. If you elucidate something, you make it clear and understandable by explaining it fully, especially when it has not been understood before; a formal word. EG ...a lesson elucidating the points that have been made in the previous lecture. ◊ elucidation /ɪˌluːsɪdeɪʃᵊn/. EG These are issues which deserve more thorough elucidation. V + O ⇑ explain = clarify / ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ explanation elude /ɪˈluːd/, eludes, eluding, eluded; a formal word. 1 If a fact or idea eludes you, you do not succeed in understanding it, realizing it, or remembering it. EG Yet new ideas may for ever elude them... The new subject matter eluded these artists. 2 If you elude someone or something, you avoid them or escape from them. EG I had to learn how to elude him, outsmart him... I was hopelessly preoccupied with problems of eluding the police. V + O : NO PASS ⇑ escape = evade / V + O = evade elusive /ɪˈluːsɪv/. Something or someone that is elusive is difficult to find, achieve, describe, or remember. EG Their camouflage and nocturnal habits make long-eared owls elusive... Happiness is an elusive quality... Poppy seeds are slate grey in colour and have an elusive taste. ◊ elusively. ◊ elusiveness. ADJ QUALIT / ◊ ADV / ◊ N UNCOUNT elves /ɛlvz/ is the plural of elf.

em- is a form of en- that is used before b-, m-, and p-. EG ...bitter—embitter. PREFIX emaciated /ɪˈmeɪsɪeɪtɪᵈ/. A person or animal that is emaciated is extremely thin and weak because of illness or lack of food. ADJ QUALIT = skeletal emaciation /ɪˌmeɪsɪeɪʃᵊn/ is the state of being extremely thin and weak because of illness or lack of food. EG They starved themselves into a state of emaciation. N UNCOUNT ⇑ thinness emanate /ɛmənəteɪt/, emanates, emanating, emanated. If a quality, idea, feeling, etc, emanates from you, or if you emanate such a quality, feeling, or idea, it comes from you or was originally started by you; a formal word. EG These ideas are said to emanate from Henry Kissinger... He emanates concern... A dim glow of light still emanated from the room. ◊ emanation /ɛmənəɪʃᵊn/. V + A (from), OR V + O ⇑ disseminate = radiate / ◊ N UNCOUNT emancipate /ɪˈmænsɪpeɪt/, emancipates, emancipating, emancipated. To emancipate someone means to free them from social, political, or legal restrictions that are considered to be degrading or unnecessary, or from having to do degrading work; a formal word. EG Some housewives do not wish to be emancipated... ...a government determined to emancipate the poor. ◊ emancipation /ɪˌmænsɪpeɪʃᵊn/. EG Marx spoke of the emancipation of mankind. V + O = liberate / ◊ N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of emasculate /ɪˈmæskjəˌleɪt/, emasculates, emasculating, emasculated. If someone or something is emasculated, their strength or power is removed so that they become weak or ineffective. EG ...measures designed to emasculate worker militancy. ◊ emasculation /ɪˈmæskjəˌleɪʃᵊn/. V + O ⇑ weaken ≠ strengthen / ◊ N UNCOUNT embalm /ɪmˈbɑːm/, embalms, embalming, embalmed. If a dead person is embalmed, various spices, oils, or chemicals are put on their body to preserve it and prevent it from decaying. EG They embalmed his body and put it in a coffin. V + O embankment /ɛmbæŋkməntᵈ/, embankments. An embankment is a thick wall or mound of earth that is built to carry a road or railway over an area of low ground, or to prevent water from a river or the sea from flooding the area. EG The car ran up an embankment covered with grass... ...a railway embankment... ...Chelsea Embankment. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N embargo /ɛmbɑːgəʊ/, embargoes, embargoing, embargoed. 1 An embargo is an order that is made by a government to stop trade with another country. EG The states imposed an embargo on oil shipments... ...his decision to lift the grain embargo... They would not enforce a trade embargo with any member nations. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN on

2 To embargo goods or transport means to officially prohibit them going to another country. EG ...embargoing arms sales to South Asia... They embargoed five more Sicilian ships carrying 6.6 million gallons of wine. V + O = ban embark /ɪmˈbɑːk/, embarks, embarking, embarked. When someone embarks on a ship, they go on board before the start of a voyage. EG She had V : USU + A ≠ disembark embarked on the S.S. Gordon Castle at Tilbury...

◊ embarkation /ɛmbɑːkeɪʃɔ⁰n/. EG They returned to their port of embarkation, Toulon. ◊ N UNCOUNT embark on. 1 If you embark on or upon something, especially something new, difficult, or exciting which may take a long time to finish, you start doing it. EG Peru embarked on a massive programme of reform... ...the decision to embark upon a new translation of the Bible... ...embarking on his favourite story of the secret valley. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = begin, undertake

2 If you are embarked on or upon a course of action, you have already started doing it. EG We are already embarked on a course which will change our lives considerably. PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP : ONLY PASS embarrass /ɪᵐbærəs/, embarrasses, embarrassing, embarrassed. 1 To embarrass someone means to make them feel shy, ashamed, or guilty about something. EG He didn't want to talk either, which embarrassed her... It embarrasses me even to think about it... He had been highly embarrassed by this confession. V + O

2 To embarrass a politician, political party, government, or other public group means to cause political problems for them. EG The march could embarrass the government. V + O ⇑ upset embarrassed /ɪᵐbærəst/. A person who is embarrassed feels shy, ashamed or guilty about something. EG I felt really embarrassed about it... She had been too embarrassed to ask her friends. ▸ used of people's behaviour or actions. EG 'I'm sorry,' she added with an embarrassed laugh... They were met with embarrassed silence. ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED ▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ awkward = uncomfortable embarrassing /ɪᵐbærəsɪŋ/. Something that is embarrassing makes you feel shy, ashamed, or guilty. EG He said something that would be embarrassing for me to repeat... This put the Americans in an embarrassing position. ◊ embarrassingly. EG Their possessions were embarrassingly few. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV embarrassment /ɪᵐbærəsməᵐnt/, embarrassments. 1 Embarrassment is a feeling of shyness, shame, or guilt. EG His cheeks were hot with embarrassment... ...her embarrassment at having to visit me... He pulled off his cap and bowed gently, to my embarrassment and surprise. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN at/of ⇑ emotion

2 An embarrassment is an action, event, or situation which causes problems for a politician, political party, government, or other public group. EG For Labour, it was a political embarrassment. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ problem

3 If you refer to a person as an embarrassment, you mean that you disapprove of them but cannot avoid your connection with them. EG Unfortunately, he was an embarrassment to so many people. N SING : an + N ≠ asset

4 Embarrassment is also a difficult situation that you are in because of lack of money. EG He was suffering considerable financial embarrassment. N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ problem embassy /ɛmbəsɪ¹/, embassies. An embassy is 1 a group of government officials, headed by an ambassador, who work in a foreign country and represent their government in that country. EG She was attached to the Canadian embassy... ...a request by the Argentine Embassy. 2 a building in which an ambassador and his or her officials work. EG They went to a reception at the Soviet Embassy in Delhi. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N embattled /ɪᵐbætə⁰ld/. 1 An embattled area or country is one that is involved in fighting a war, especially when it is surrounded by its enemies. ADJ CLASSIF = beleaguered

2 A person, group, or organization that is embattled is having a lot of problems or difficulties. EG ...supporting an embattled Labour Government... The modern mother feels embattled. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ troubled = beset embed /ɪᵐbɛd/, embeds, embedding, embedded. 1 If an object is embedded in a mass of surrounding substance, it is fixed there firmly and deeply. EG He examined the locks; both were embedded in the woodwork... ...its rudder embedded in mud... ...several thorns embedded in his arms. V + O : USU PASS + in ⇑ fix = stick

2 If something such as an attitude or feeling is embedded in a society or in someone's personality, it has become a permanent and noticeable feature of it. EG ...racist ideas which had become so deeply embedded. ...a deeply embedded feeling of guilt. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ fix = root embellish /ɪᵐbɛlɪʃ/, embellishes, embellishing, embellished. 1 If something is embellished with other things such as decorations, the decorations are added to it to make it more attractive. EG Hampton Court was already embellished with masterly paintings... ...a dress embellished with tiny circular mirrors. V + O : USU PASS + with ⇑ decorate = adorn

2 To embellish a story or account of something means to make it more interesting by adding details which are possibly untrue. ◊ embellished. EG ...embellished accounts of the day's events. V + O = embroider ◊ ADJ QUALIT embellishment /ɪᵐbɛlɪʃməᵐnt/, embellishments. An embellishment is 1 a decoration added to something to make it seem more attractive. EG ...a flat surface that seemed to cry out for decorative embellishments... ...public tasks such as construction, artistic embellishment and maintenance of the city. N COUNT : UNCOUNT ⇑ addition = frill

2 a detail added to a story or account of something to make it seem more interesting, even if it is not actually true. EG ...the exact truth without any exaggerations or embellishments... ...copying articles from other papers and repeating them with embellishments. N COUNT ⇑ addition = frill ember /ɛmbə/, embers. The embers of a fire are small pieces of partly burned coal, wood, etc that remain and glow with heat after the fire has finished burning. EG I watched her stare into the embers of the fire... N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ remains embezzle /ɪᵐbɛzə⁰l/, embezzles, embezzling, embezzled. If someone embezzles money, they take or use it illegally for their own purposes, when it belongs to a company or organization that they work for. EG For years he'd been embezzling very large sums of money from the company. ◊ embezzlement. EG ...embezzlement by public officials. V + O, OR V + A ⇑ steal = misappropriate ◊ N UNCOUNT embitter /ɪᵐbɪtə/, embitters, embittering, embittered. If someone is embittered, they feel anger and despair because of the harsh, unpleasant, and unfair things that have happened to them. EG Internment camps had done nothing to harden or embitter her. ◊ embittered. EG He appeared a profoundly disappointed and embittered man... People on the dole queue may become embittered and unemployable. ◊ embittering. EG ...an embittering experience. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ sadden = sour ◊ ADJ QUALIT = bitter ◊ ADJ QUALIT emblazon /ɪᵐblеɪzə⁰n/, emblazons, emblazoning, emblazoned. If designs, words, or letters are emblazoned on something, they are clearly drawn, printed, or sewn on it. EG ...sweatshirts emblazoned with the name of their college... ...a flag on which the imperial double-headed eagle was emblazoned. V + O : USU PASS + A (on/with) ⇑ decorate emblem /ɛmbləᵐm/, emblems. An emblem is 1 a design or object that has been chosen as a symbol representing an organization such as a country, a sports club, or a business company. EG There was a small golden emblem on his tie... The Bald Eagle remains the proud emblem of the USA. 2 something that represents a quality or idea. EG ...an emblem of kingship... ...an emblem of some deep truth. N COUNT : USU + SUPP = insignia N COUNT : SUPP ⇑ symbol = mark emblematic /ɛmbləmæɪtɪk/. Something, such as an object in a painting, that is emblematic of something else, such as an abstract idea, stands for it or represents it. EG ...the emblematic function of this type of art... We began to replace our old things withnew items, emblematic of our new identification. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ representative embodiment /ɪᵐbɒdɪ¹məᵐnt/. A person, organization, or thing that is the embodiment of a quality or idea shows or expresses the quality or idea to a high degree. EG She was the embodiment of loyalty... To the alchemists, gold was the embodiment of incorruptibility. N SING WITH DET : USU + of ⇑ expression = epitome embody /ɪᵐbɒdɪ¹/, embodies, embodying, embodied. 1 A person, organization, or thing that embodies an idea or quality contains and expresses it as an important feature in what they say or do. EG These proposals were embodied in the Industrial Relations Act... ...the institutions which embody traditional values... They expect their leaders to embody their aspirations. V + O ⇑ express = manifest

2 Something which embodies people or things includes them as part of its structure or organization. EG The three corps embodied sixteen armoured brigades. V + O ⇑ include embolden /ɪᵐbəʊldə⁰n/, emboldens, emboldening, emboldened. If a fact or event emboldens someone, it increases their self-confidence so that they feel able to take some further action. ◊ emboldened. EG Emboldened by this success, he V + O : USU PASS ⇑ encourage ◊ ADJ QUALIT had begged a further favour... Thus emboldened, the President challenged the Democrats in Congress. PRED ⇑ encouraged = heartened embolism /ɛmbəlɪzə⁰m/, embolisms. An embolism is a blockage in a vein or artery in the body of a person or animal, caused by a blood clot or air bubble; a technical term in medicine. EG Although he had been partly paralysed by an air embolism, he had survived. N COUNT : USU SUPP

embossed /ɛmbɒst/. A design or group of letters or words that is embossed on something is added to it in such a way that it stands up or sticks out from the surface. EG The words were embossed in gold at the base of the portrait... ...embossed chinaware and cutlery. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ raised embrace /ɪ²mbreɪs/, embraces, embracing, embraced. 1 When you embrace someone or something, you put your arms around them and hold them tightly, usually in order to show your love or affection for them. EG Before she could embrace him he stepped away... They laughed and embraced... We embraced each other. ▸ used as a noun. EG They greeted us with warm embraces... Sam and Eric, locked in an embrace, were fighting each other. V OR V + O ▸ N COUNT = hug

2 If something embraces a group of people, things, or ideas, it includes them in a larger group or category. EG It embraces elements of chemistry, physics, and engineering... ...the extended family, embracing several generations. V + O ⇑ include

3 If you embrace a religion, political system, or idea, you start believing wholeheartedly in it. EG She embraced the Catholic faith. V + O ⇑ adopt ≠ renounce embrasure /ɪ²mbreɪʒə/, embrasures. An embrasure is 1 an opening in a wall where a window or door is fixed, when it is wider on the inside than on the outside; a technical term in architecture. 2 an opening in the wall of a castle or other fortification, through which defenders could shoot at their enemies. N COUNT ⇑ hole N COUNT embrocation /ɛmbrə⁶keɪʃə⁰n/, embrocations. Embrocation is a liquid which is rubbed onto the body to reduce pain from aches or bruises. N MASS = liniment embroider /ɪ²mbrɔɪdə/, embroiders, embroidering, embroidered. 1 If you embroider something such as a cloth or piece of clothing, you sew a decorative design onto it. EG She embroidered it with figures of winged creatures... ◊ embroidered. EG ...an embroidered shirt... ...a veil embroidered with red and blue flowers. V OR V + O ◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 If you embroider a story or account of something, or embroider on it, you try to make it more interesting by adding details to it from your imagination. EG This mystery of the sea has been retold and embroidered... Ancient writers have embroidered on these early reports. ◊ embroidered. EG ...a wildly distorted and embroidered version of an anecdote. V + O, OR V + A (on) ⇑ add = embellish ◊ ADJ QUALIT = embellished embroidery /ɪ²mbrɔɪdə⁰rɪ¹/, embroideries. Embroidery is 1 cloth, clothing, or other material on which designs have been sewn. EG She began folding up her embroidery. 2 the act or process of sewing designs on cloth or other material. EG ...Jane's first attempts at embroidery. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT embroil /ɪ²mbrɔɪl/, embroils, embroiling, embroiled. 1 If someone is embroiled in something, they have become deeply involved in it, so that it causes them many problems or difficulties. EG They were deeply embroiled in a fiery discussion... It would be foolish to become embroiled in this struggle... This course would inevitably embroil the Party with the unions. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN in/with ⇑ involve = entangle

2 If someone is embroiled with another person, they are involved in a relationship with them that causes problems for them. EG She got embroiled with some young man much younger than her. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN with = entangle embryo /ɛmbrɪəʊ/, embryos. 1 An embryo is an unborn animal or human being in the very early stages of development, in humans up to the third month of pregnancy; compare foetus. EG ...the cell of a human embryo... ...snake embryos. N COUNT ⇑ beginning

2 Something that is in embryo is at a very early stage of its development. EG The electron microscope has been around, in embryo at any rate, for a long time. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ rudimentary

3 The word embryo also means in a very early stage of development. EG An embryo sand dune is formed... ...the survivors of the massacre who now staff the embryo government. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB embryonic /ɛmbrɪɒnɪk/. Something that is embryonic is at a very early stage in its development; a formal word. EG Embryonic peasant movements began to emerge. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ rudimenta emend /ɪ¹mɛnd/, emends, emending, emended. To emend a piece of writing means to remove mistakes from it. ◊ emendation /i:mɛndeɪʃə⁰n/. V + O ⇑ improve ◊ N UNCOUNT COUNT emerald /ɛmə⁰rəld/, emeralds. 1 An emerald is a precious stone which is clear and bright green. EG ...an emerald necklace. N COUNT ⇑ gem

2 Emerald also means bright green in colour. EG ...glorious emerald silk. ADJ COLOUR emerge /ɪ¹mɜ:dʒ/, emerges, emerging, emerged. To emerge means 1 to come out from an enclosed space such as a room or vehicle or from a position where you could not be seen. EG I saw the woman emerge from a shop... The chick becomes independent as soon as it emerges from its shell... A figure emerges from the crowd. V : IF + PREP THEN from/out of

2 If you emerge from a particular state of mind or of existence, such as sleep, you change from one state to another, for example by waking from sleep. EG He seemed to emerge from his reverie. V + A (from) ⇑ wake

3 If you emerge from a difficult or unpleasant experience, you come to the end of it. EG There was little chance of them emerging from imprisonment as better or wiser individuals. V + A (from)

4 If a fact or result emerges from a period of thought, discussion or investigation, it becomes known as a result of it. EG One really interesting thing emerged from this research... It emerged that she had been drinking. V, V + REPORT C OR V + A (from = transpire

5 If something large and complex such as an industry or economic or political system emerges, it comes into existence over a long period of time. EG Large-scale industry emerged only gradually as technology evolved. V ⇑ develop = appear emergence /ɪmɜ:dʒəns/. The emergence of something is the process or event of its coming into existence. EG ...the emergence of new ideas. N SING : USU the + N + of emergency /ɪ¹mɜ:dʒənsɪ¹/, emergencies. 1 An emergency is an unexpected and difficult or dangerous situation, especially an accident, which arises suddenly and which requires quick action to deal with it. EG The bells were only supposed to be used in emergencies... We have personnel and facilities for any emergencies... ● state of emergency: see state. N COUNT = crisis

2 An emergency action is one that is done or arranged quickly and not in the normal way, because an emergency has occurred. EG The plane made an emergency landing... They were holding emergency talks... ...emergency repairs. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ unforeseen

3 Emergency equipment or supplies are those intended for use in an emergency. EG ...emergency supplies of food... ...an emergency exit. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB emergency services. The emergency services are the organizations whose responsibility it is to take quick action to deal with emergencies when they occur, especially the fire brigade, the police, and the ambulance service. N PLURAL : USU the + N emergent /ɪ¹mɜ:dʒənt/; a fairly formal word. 1 An emergent country is one that has recently become independent. EG ...the needs of underdeveloped and emergent countries. 2 An emergent idea, political movement, social group, etc is one that is coming into existence and beginning to have a strong influence on people. EG ...an emergent industrial middle-class. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ developing emeritus /ɪ¹mɛrɪtəs/ is used with a professional title to indicate that the person bearing it has retired but keeps the title as an honour. EG ...Emeritus Professor of Anthropology... Their emeritus chairman is Father Basil Wrighton... ...the Professor Emeritus of Theology. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADJ AFTER N : USU USED IN TITLES ⇑ honorary emery /ɛməri¹/ is a hard grey metal, which is often ground to a powder that is stuck onto paper, cardboard, or cloth to make a tool for smoothing or polishing surfaces. N UNCOUNT ⇑ abrasive emery board /ɛməri¹ bɔ:d/, emery boards. An emery board is a long, narrow piece of wood or cardboard with a rough surface, which women use for smoothing and shaping their fingernails. N COUNT ⇑ file emetic /ɪmɛtɪk/, emetics. 1 An emetic is something that is given to someone to swallow, in order to make them vomit. N COUNT

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ developing = emerging

2 Something that is emetic makes you vomit. ADJ CLASSIF migrant /ɛmɪgrənt/, emigrants. An emigrant is a person who has left their own country to live in another country. N COUNT ≠ immigrant migrate /ɛmɪgreɪt/, emigrates, emigrating, emigrated. If you emigrate, you leave your native country to live in another country; compare immigrate, migrate. EG He and his mother received permission to emigrate to Canada... He had emigrated from Germany in the early 1920's. V, IF + PREP THEN from/to = move

◊ emigration /ɛmɪgreɪʃəⁿn/. EG These people sought salvation in mass emigration... ...her emigration to France. ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ journey

émigré /ɛmɪgreɪ/, émigrés. An émigré is someone who has left their country for political reasons; a formal or literary word. EG ...revolutionary émigrés from Russia. N COUNT ⇑ emigrant eminence /ɛmɪnəⁿns/. 1 Eminence is the quality of being very well-known and highly respected. EG Jimmie was a man of some local eminence... ...a mathematician of eminence. N UNCOUNT ⇑ repute = prominence eminent /ɛmɪnənt/. 1 An eminent person is well-known, important, and respected, especially because they are very good at their profession; used showing approval. EG One of the most eminent scientists in Britain... The committee has 10 members, each eminent in his or her particular field. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ famous = prominent, noted

2 Your Eminence is the title of respect that you use when you are addressing a Roman Catholic cardinal. N COUNT : DETPOSS + N

2 In formal English, an eminent quality is one that is very great in degree or very noticeable. EG You showed eminent good sense in coming to us. ADJ QUALIT

◊ eminently. EG Children are eminently practical... All you want is to go home and get a good night's sleep, which you eminently deserve. ◊ ADV : USU + ADJ = strongly emir /ɛmɪə/, emirs. An emir is a Muslim ruler, especially in South-West Asia and West Africa. N COUNT ⇑ leader emirate /ɛmɪərɪᵊt/, emirates. An emirate is a country that is ruled by an emir. N COUNT ⇑ land emissary /ɛmɪsəⁿrɪᵊ/, emissaries. An emissary is a person who is sent by a government or leader to another government or leader for a particular purpose, especially as a messenger; a formal word. EG ...the emissary of a vast revolutionary organization. N COUNT = envoy emission /ɪᵊmɪʃəⁿn/, emissions. An emission of something such as gas or radiation is the release of it into the atmosphere; a formal word. EG The reduction in emissions of sulphur and nitrogen oxides is vital... ...emissions of mercury into the atmosphere. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP + A = discharge emit /ɪᵊmɪt/, emits, emitting, emitted; a fairly formal word. 1 To emit a sound or noise means to produce it so that other people can hear it. EG He was heard to emit heartbroken sighs... Some satellites send out signals almost continuously, others emit short bursts. V + O = give out

2 If something emits heat, light, or a smell, it sends it out by means of a physical or chemical process. EG The fireball emits a first heat wave lasting only a fraction of a second. V + O ⇑ produce = give out

3 To emit something also means to release it from the place in which it is contained. EG When a boil is lanced it emits pus... ...a machine which emitted cartons of orangeade when money was inserted. V + O = discharge emollient /ɪᵊmɒljənt/, emollients. An emollient is a liquid or cream which you put on your skin to soften it; a formal word. N MASS emolument /ɪᵊmɒljᵊʊᵐməᵊnt/, emoluments. An emolument is money or some other form of payment which a person receives for doing work; a formal word. EG Emoluments earned by UK residents abroad may be taxed. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ income = wage emotion /ɪᵊməʊʃəⁿn/, emotions. 1 An emotion is a feeling such as fear, love, hate, anger, or jealousy, which can be caused by the situation that you are in or the people you are with. EG He began to feel a welcome new emotion: pride... Chopin aroused very complicated emotions in her... She looked around her room without emotion. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

2 Emotion is the part of a person's character that consists of their feelings as opposed to their thoughts. EG ...the split between reason and emotion... How deeply intertwined were his emotion and his judgement. N UNCOUNT ≠ reason emotional /ɪᵊməʊʃəⁿnəl, -ʃənəⁿl/. 1 Emotional means concerned with your emotions and the way that you are feeling rather than with your physical health or condition. EG There are obviously emotional problems too... ...intolerable emotional stress... Emotional states can affect our hormone levels. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ mental = psychological ≠ physical

◊ emotionally. EG He felt physically and emotionally exhausted... ...emotionally disturbed youngsters. ◊ ADV

2 An emotional situation or issue is one that causes people to have strong feelings. EG The disarmament issue became a tensely emotional one. ADJ QUALIT = emotive

◊ emotionally. EG ...an emotionally charged atmosphere. ◊ ADV

3 An emotional person or attitude is influenced by feelings rather than by rational thinking. EG ...their own emotional approach to life... I think the Welsh are a much more emotional people. ADJ QUALIT ≠ rational

◊ emotionally. EG Intellectually, I have no doubt he is right. Emotionally, I don't think he'll succeed. ◊ ADV WITH VB, OR ADV SEN ≠ rationally

4 If someone is or becomes emotional, they show their feelings very openly, especially because they are upset. EG He could be very emotional at such moments and would weep freely... Nell was far more emotional about it than he was. ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED ⇑ demonstrative emotive /ɪᵊməʊtɪv/. Something that is emotive is likely to make people feel strong emotions. EG Destruction of the world's forests is now an emotive issue... Sir John was tough and used extremely emotive language. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ evocative empathize /ɛmpɔᵊθaɪz/, empathizes, empathizing, empathized; also spelled empathise. If you empathize with someone, you understand their situation, problems, and feelings, perhaps because the situation that they are in is one which you have been in yourself. EG Josh had understood. At last he empathized with the woman's dilemma. V, IF + PREP THEN with ⇑ feel empathy /ɛmpɔᵊθɪᵊ/ is the ability to share another person's feelings and emotions as if they were your own. EG She could see our sadness, our empathy with the pain she was surely suffering... Lawrence had real sensitivity, real empathy. N UNCOUNT ⇑ affinity = sympathy emperor /ɛmpəᵊrə/, emperors. An emperor is a man who rules an empire or is the head of state in an empire. EG The company was chartered by the Emperor of Austria in 1711. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES, USU the + N ⇑ ruler emphasis /ɛmfəsɪs/, emphases /ɛmfəsiːz/. Emphasis is 1 special or extra importance that is given to an activity, statement, event, or situation. EG ...a setting where the emphasis is on parental care... Too much emphasis is being placed on basic research. 2 extra force that you put on a word or phrase when you are speaking in order to make it seem more important. EG 'Do you really want to study philosophy?' the professor asked, slowly and placing emphasis on each word. N UNCOUNT : COUNT, IF + PREP THEN on/upon = stress N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ stress emphasize /ɛmfəsaɪz/, emphasizes, emphasizing, emphasized; also spelled emphasise. To emphasize something means to indicate strongly that it is particularly important or significant. EG John went on to emphasise a point I'd already made... Mr Thompson was at pains to emphasize that he was threatening nobody... I keep emphasizing how dramatically things have changed. V OR V + O, REPORT-CL ⇑ express = underline, stress emphatic /ɪᵊmfætɪk/. 1 An opinion or point that is emphatic is expressed very strongly, because the speaker thinks that it is important. EG Their reply was too emphatic for anyone to doubt them... ...an emphatic and written refutation. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ forceful ≠ hesitant

2 If you are emphatic, you use forceful language, showing that you believe that what you are saying is important. EG But Wendy was emphatic. 'You must do it,' she said... Pat was emphatic about how valuable the course had been for her. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = insistent

3 An emphatic way of speaking is one in which you speak slowly and carefully, adding extra stress to many words in order to make them sound more important. EG My father read English verse with the emphatic stress of his own classical schooldays. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ heavy = weighty emphatically /ɪᵊmfætɪkəⁿlɪᵊ/. 1 If you say something emphatically, you say it using forceful language, showing that you believe that what you are saying is important. EG 'That'll be the day,' said Foster emphatically... He emphatically defended the proposition that we could make further savings... I agree most emphatically. ADV WITH VB ⇑ forcefully

2 Emphatically is used with descriptions to suggest that there can be no doubt about the truth of the description. EG The sign is now used by protestors to signify something emphatically different... She is emphatically not a recluse. ADV + ADJ/not ⇑ very = manifestly empire /ɛmpaɪə/, empires. An empire is 1 a number of nations that are separate but that are all N COUNT controlled by the government or ruler of one particular country. EG ...the ancient empires of Russia, Austria and Turkey. 2 a group of companies, often controlled by one person, which have a wide influence over a particular area of activity. EG His publishing empire was flourishing.

N COUNT : USU MOD + N

empirical /ɪmˈpɪrɪkəᵊl/. Empirical knowledge, study, etc, relies on practical experience rather than theories. EG ...the empirical study of anatomy. ◊ empirically. EG The theory could be tested empirically.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ≠ theoretical ◊ ADV WITH VB, OR ADV SEN

empiricism /ɛmˈpɪrɪsɪzəᵊm/ is the belief that people should rely on practical experience rather than theories as a basis for knowledge and in order to deal with problems; a term in philosophy. ◊ empiricist, empiricists. EG He would have defined himself as an empiricist.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ practicality ◊ N COUNT

emplacement /ɪmˈpleɪsməˈnt/, emplacements. An emplacement is a specially prepared position, usually strong and fortified, from which a heavy gun can be fired; a technical military word. EG ...massive gun emplacements on top of the cliffs.

N COUNT : USU AFTER N

employ /ɪmˈplɔɪ/, employs, employing, employed. 1 If you employ someone, you pay them to work for you. EG The factory employed a total of forty workers... There are still more people employed in textiles than in computers... He was employed as a research assistant.

V + O, OR V + O + A (as) : USU PASS

2 If you are in someone's employ, you work for them; a formal expression. EG The company has 450,000 workers in its employ.

PHR : USED AS AN A

3 To employ something for a particular purpose means to use it in order to do something or achieve something. EG If nuclear weapons are employed the world will be destroyed... You will need to employ a great deal of tact and diplomacy.

V + O, OR V + O + A (as)

4 If you say that someone would be better employed doing something else, you mean that they should spend their time doing something that is more useful and necessary than what they are doing at the moment. EG You would be better employed tidying your room!

PHR + ING/CONJ (if)

employable /ɪmˈplɔɪəbəᵊl/. Something or someone that is employable is capable of being employed or used in a job. EG ...She has no employable skills.

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ unemployable

employee /ɛmplɔɪˈiː, ɪmˈplɔɪiː/, employees. An employee is a person who is paid to work for an organization or for another person. EG ...an employee of the state... ...a BBC employee.

N COUNT ⇑ worker ≠ employer employer /ɪmˈplɔɪə/, employers. An employer is a person who has other people working for him or her, or a company that people work for. EG Some employers are reluctant to take on new workers... She was in trouble with her employer.

N COUNT ≠ employee

employment /ɪmˈplɔɪməˈnt/ is 1 work that you do in order to earn money. EG Village crafts used to provide a good deal of employment... He had retired from regular employment. 2 the fact or condition of employing people. EG They called for the employment of members of minority groups... ...better conditions of pay and employment. 3 the availability of jobs for the population of a town, area, or country. EG They were asking for guarantees of full employment and wages.

N UNCOUNT ≠ unemployment

N UNCOUNT

N UNCOUNT ≠ unemployment

employment agency, employment agencies. An employment agency is an organization that earns money by helping people to find work.

N COUNT

emporium /ɛmpɔːˈrɪəm/, emporiums or emporia. An emporium is a large shop that sells a lot of different things; an old-fashioned or formal word.

N COUNT = department store

empower /ɪmˈpaʊə/, empowers, empowering, empowered. If someone is empowered to do something, they have the legal authority or power to do it; a formal word. EG The Act of 1936 empowered the police to ban political processions... His assistant will be empowered to act on his behalf in less weighty matters.

V + O + to-INF : USU PASS ⇑ authorize empress /ɛmprɪˈs/, empresses. An empress is a woman who rules an empire; also used to refer to the wife of an emperor. EG ...the Empress Elizabeth of Russia.

N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES, USU the + N

emptiness /ɛmpᵗɪˈnɪˈs/. 1 A feeling of emptiness is an unhappy or frightening feeling that nothing is worthwhile, especially one which arises because you are very tired or have just experienced something upsetting. EG This way of life can lead only to self-destruction and emotional emptiness... You are left with this sort of numb emptiness.

N UNCOUNT

2 Emptiness is the state of affairs when an area or space has nothing in it. EG ...the Galapagos Islands isolated in the emptiness of the Pacific.

N UNCOUNT

3 An emptiness is a very large area of land, sea, or space that has nothing in it; a literary use. EG I felt very alone and very small suddenly in this great emptiness.

N COUNT : USU SING

empty /ɛmpᵗiˈ/, emptier, emptiest; empties, emptying, emptied. 1 A place or vehicle that is empty has no people or things in it. EG The room was empty... We drove along apparently empty streets... As far as the eye could see the desert was empty.

ADJ QUALIT ≠ full

2 A container that is empty no longer has anything in it. EG She dropped two empty Coca-Cola bottles into a wastebasket... He noticed that Meadows' glass was empty... She took the envelope, now empty of money, and laid it on the table. ▸ used as a noun, usually referring to bottles. EG She put the empties in the dustbin.

ADJ CLASSIF : PREP THEN of ≠ full ▸ N COUNT : U PL

3 If someone's hands are empty, they are not holding or carrying anything.

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ full

4 A gesture, threat, or relationship that is empty has no real value, meaning, or effectiveness. EG They ignored his threats as empty rhetoric... ...an empty and foolish gesture... Their marriage has been empty for years.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ meaningl = barren

5 If you describe a person's life or a period of time as empty, you mean that it has nothing interesting or important in it. EG His life was empty and meaningless... How shall I exist during the empty days ahead?

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lacking = dreary

6 If you feel empty, you feel unhappy and have no energy, usually because you are very tired or have just experienced something upsetting. EG He felt empty and beaten.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED = numb

7 If you empty a container, you remove the contents from it, especially by taking, pouring, or tipping them out. EG She picks up an ashtray and empties it into a wastepaper basket... Then he emptied the gun of bullets... Empty his pockets, Rudi...

V + O : USU + A ≠ fill

8 If you empty a substance or object out of a container, you remove it from the container. EG You ought to empty the water out of those boots... Two men carrying a wooden keg emptied its contents into the opening.

V + O + A

9 A speech, debate, or performance that empties a place causes the audience to leave in large numbers, especially because they are very bored. EG The average debate on this subject was still guaranteed to empty the House of Commons.

V + O = clear ≠ fill

10 If a room or container empties, everything or everyone that is in it goes out of it. EG The play was over and the auditorium began to empty... ...problems about half-full baths emptying at such and such a rate.

V : IF + PREP THEN of ≠ fill

11 A river that empties into a lake or sea flows into it. EG I wondered where the Hwang Pu emptied into the mighty Yangtze.

V + A (into) ⇑ flow empty-handed. If you come back from somewhere empty-handed, you have failed to get what you hoped to get or were expected to get. EG You wouldn't want us to come back empty-handed, would you?... He walked back to the filling-station empty-handed.

ADJ CLASSIF : U PRED ⇑ unsuccess

empty-headed. If you say that someone is empty-headed, you mean that they do not think sensibly and often do silly or stupid things. EG He was putting on an act to impress an empty-headed girl.

ADJ QUALIT = feather-brained

Empyrean /ɛmpɪˈriːən/. The Empyrean is the sky; a literary word. EG ...soaring up into the Empyrean.

N SING : the + N

emu /iːmjuː/, emus. An emu is a large Australian bird with long legs. Emus can run fast, but cannot fly.

N COUNT

emulate /ɛmjəˈleɪt/, emulates, emulating, emulated. If you emulate something or someone, you imitate them because you admire them very much; a formal word. EG He is forever trying to emulate people like Howard Hawks... ...a management system that has been envied and emulated worldwide. ◊ emulation /ɛmjəˈleɪʃəᵊn/. EG ...the unconscious emulation of social fashions.

V + O = copy ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ imitation

emulsifier /ɪˈmʌlsɪfaɪə/, emulsifiers. An emulsifier is a substance used in food manufacturing which helps to combine liquids of different thicknesses. EG ...food additives such as thickeners, flavour enhancers, emulsifiers, colourings, to name a few.

N COUNT

emulsify /ɪˈmʌlsɪfaɪ/, emulsifies, emulsifying, emulsified. When two liquids of different thicknesses emulsify or when something emulsifies them, they combine; a technical term in the food industry. V ERG ⇑ mix emulsion /ɪˈmʌlʃəⁿn/, emulsions, emulsioning, emulsioned. 1 Emulsion is a substance that is used to make photographic film sensitive to light; a technical term in photography. EG There was a fault in the photographic emulsion. N UNCOUNT: COUNT ⇑ coating

2 Emulsion or emulsion paint is a water-based paint, which is not shiny when it dries. It is used for painting walls and ceilings. EG ...dark brown carved wood set against white emulsion. N UNCOUNT ⇑ paint

3 If you emulsion something, you paint it with emulsion paint. EG ...an ordinary, flat emulsioned wall. V + O

en- is 1 added to adjectives or nouns that refer to human states or conditions, to form verbs that describe putting someone into one of these states or conditions. EG ...rich—enrich... feeble—enfeeble. 2 added to nouns that refer to places or things, to form verbs that describe putting someone or something into or onto one of these places or things. EG ...cage—encage... tomb—entomb... throne—enthrone. PREFIX enable /ɪˈneɪbəⁿl/, enables, enabling, enabled. 1 If someone or something enables you to do something, they give you the opportunity to do it. EG Contraception enables women to plan their families... Such safety systems would probably have enabled the pilot to land without mishap... This would enable me to go to Canada. V + O + to-INF = allow ≠ prevent

2 To enable someone to do something also means to give them permission or the right to do it. EG ...to enable former peers to sit in the Commons if elected. ◊ enabling. EG Clearly some enabling legislation is called for. V + O + to-INF = allow ≠ forbid; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF: ATTRIB

3 To enable something to happen means to make it possible for it to happen. EG The shell has to be slightly porous to enable oxygen to pass in. V + O + to-INF = allow ≠ prevent enact /ɪˈnækt/, enacts, enacting, enacted. 1 When a government or authority enacts a law or bill, they officially pass it, so that it becomes legal; a technical term in law and politics. EG The Tories are trying to enact a 'nationality' bill... Many states have enacted battered-child laws. V + O ≠ rescind

2 If people enact a story or play, they perform it by acting. EG They enacted tales of feudal princes and magic birds. V + O = act out enactment /ɪˈnæktməˈnt/, enactments. 1 The enactment of a law is the process in a parliament or legislative assembly by which it is agreed upon and made official. EG They succeeded in forcing the Bill's acceptance and immediate enactment. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ passing

2 The enactment of a play, story, or character is the performance of it by an actor or group of actors. EG ...his dramatic enactment of Marcus's plight. N UNCOUNT enamel /ɪˈnæməⁿl/, enamels, enamelling, enamelled; also spelled enameling and enameled in American English. 1 Enamel is 1.1 a substance like glass which can be heated and put onto metal, glass or pottery in order to decorate or protect it. EG ...coloured enamel bowls from Yugoslavia... ...an ashtray made of blue enamel. 1.2 a hard, shiny paint that is used especially for painting metal and wood. EG ...a small unopened can of red enamel. 1.3 the hard white substance that forms the outer part of a tooth. EG I chipped the enamel on my front tooth when I fell over. N UNCOUNT; N UNCOUNT; N UNCOUNT ⇑ coating

2 If you enamel something, you decorate it or cover it with enamel. ◊ enamelled. EG ...a line of enamelled blue pennants. V + O; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF: ATTRIB

enamoured /ɪˈnæməd/; also spelled enamored in American English. 1 If you are enamoured of something, you are very impressed by it and like it very much. EG I was, of course, always enamoured of the theatre. ADJ QUALIT: PRED, USU + of = keen on

2 If you are enamoured of a person, you are in love with them. EG He became enamoured of a sixteen-year-old girl in New York. ADJ QUALIT: PRED, USU + of encamp /ɪˈnˈkæmp/, encamps, encamping, encamped. When people encamp, they set up their camp; a formal word. EG His tribe had encamped for the summer up at the quarry... The army was encamped outside the walls. V: USU + A = camp encampment /ɪˈnˈkæmpməˈnt/, encampments. An encampment is a group of tents or other shelters put together in one place, for example by soldiers or gypsies. EG We made our way down to the encampment below. N COUNT = camp encapsulate /ɪˈnˈkæpsjəˈleɪt/, encapsulates, encapsulating, encapsulated. If something encapsulates certain facts, ideas, etc, it represents all the most important aspects of those facts or ideas in a very small space or in a single object or event. EG ...an edict of 1503 which encapsulates the history of the continent... There's always a lot more than can be encapsulated in a questionnaire. V + O ⇑ contain = encompass encase /ɪˈnˈkeɪs/, encases, encasing, encased. When a container or covering encases something, it holds or keeps the thing completely inside it. EG Lynn glanced at the felt boots that encased Posy's feet... The crab is encased in bone. V + O: IF PASS THEN + A (in) ⇑ cover enchant /ɪˈnˈtʃɑːnt/, enchants, enchanting, enchanted. 1 If someone or something enchants you, they fill you with a feeling of great delight. EG Her charisma managed to enchant the audience. ◊ enchanted. EG Both her listeners were quite enchanted... Morris Zapp was less than enchanted with his view. V + O; ◊ ADJ QUALIT = thrilled

2 To enchant someone or something also means to put a magic spell on them, especially in fairy stories. ◊ enchanted. EG ...an enchanted island. V + O; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

enchanter /ɪˈnˈtʃɑːntəˈ/, enchanters. An enchanter is a person who uses magic to put spells on people and things in fairy stories. N COUNT = sorcerer enchanting /ɪˈnˈtʃɑːntɪŋ/ means attractive, delightful, and charming in appearance or behaviour. EG ...the most enchanting smile... He could be very enchanting but also rather forbidding. ◊ enchantingly. EG She was enchantingly pretty, too pretty perhaps. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ pleasant; ◊ ADV: USU + ADJ enchantment /ɪˈnˈtʃɑːntməˈnt/, enchantments. 1 Enchantment is the feeling of great delight that something very beautiful or mysterious gives you. EG Those woods where he played as a boy still retained for him a secret, subtle enchantment. N UNCOUNT = magic

2 An enchantment is a magic spell, for example in fairy stories. N COUNT

enchantress /ɪˈnˈtʃɑːntrɪˈs/, enchantresses. An enchantress is 1 a woman who men find extremely attractive and fascinating. EG ...dark enchantresses in black lace. 2 in fairy stories, a woman who uses magic to put spells on people and things. N COUNT; N COUNT = witch encircle /ɪˈnˈsɜːkəⁿl/, encircles, encircling, encircled. To encircle someone or something means to completely surround or enclose them. EG David walked into the room, encircled by guards... Access to the area was provided by the M5 and M6 motorways, which encircle Birmingham... 'Not now,' she said, encircling me with her arms. V + O enclave /ɛŋˈkleɪv/, enclaves. An enclave is a place or area that is surrounded by areas which are completely different in some important way, for example because they are inhabited by people of a different nationality or a different culture. EG ...the original population was now reduced to a tiny handful of islands and enclaves... ...a city with an enclave of posh shops and a ring of poorer suburbs. N COUNT: USU + SUPP

enclose /ɪˈnˈkləʊz/, encloses, enclosing, enclosed. 1 To enclose an object or an area means to surround it with something solid so that it is separate from everything that is outside. EG The fence that enclosed the house was painted white... This parcel was enclosed in something clear and shiny. ◊ enclosed. EG The reaction takes place extremely rapidly within an enclosed space. V + O: IF + PREP THEN in/with = contain; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = confined

2 If you enclose something with a letter, you put it in the same envelope. EG I enclose a small cheque... Write to them enclosing a stamped addressed envelope. ◊ enclosed. EG Many thanks for your letter and the enclosed leaflet, which looks quite interesting. V + O: IF + PREP THEN in/with ⇑ insert; ◊ ADJ CLASSIF enclosed /ɪˈnˈkləʊzd/. An enclosed community, existence, etc, is kept separate from the normal and typical activities of the outside world. EG Growing up at Charleston wasn't a particularly enclosed existence for Quentin... They lived in an enclosed community. ADJ QUALIT: USU ATTRIB ⇑ separated = sheltered enclosure /ɪˈnˈkləʊʒəˈ/, enclosures. An enclosure is 1 an area of land that is surrounded by a wall or fence and that is used for a particular purpose. EG ...the public enclosure of a racecourse... We were led to a fenced enclosure. 2 something that is put in the N COUNT same envelope as a letter. EG The letter said there was an enclosure, but they obviously forgot to put it in.

encode /ɪ²ŋ¹kəʊd/, encodes, encoding, encoded. If you encode a message or some information, you put it into a code. EG Messages can be encoded for greater security. V+O = code ≠ decode encompass /ɪ²ŋ¹kʌmpəs/, encompasses, encompassing, encompass. 1 If someone or their activity encompasses certain things, they have a wide range that includes all those things. EG She actually encompasses themes such as Judaism in her last novel... ...a policy which encompasses all aspects of conservation... New York's public education system encompasses nearly 900 schools. V+O ⇑ include = cover

2 If something encompasses an area of land, it completely covers or surrounds it. EG ...a landscape encompassing perhaps 200 square miles... ...the European world empires which, between them, encompassed the earth. V+O ⇑ cover encore /ɒŋkɔː/, encores, encoring, encored. 1 An encore is a short extra performance at the end of a longer one, which an entertainer gives because the audience asks for it. EG What shall I sing as an encore? N COUNT

2 To encore someone means to ask them to perform an encore. EG We were encored five times. V+O = call back

3 Encore is the word shouted by an audience when they want a performer to perform an encore. CONVENTION = more encounter /ɪ²ŋ¹kaʊntə/, encounters, encountering, encountered. 1 If you encounter someone who you do not know or do not know very well, you meet them, especially when it is unexpected and unplanned; a formal use. EG At the beginning of their journey they encounter an English couple. V+O : NO CONT = run into

2 If you encounter problems or difficulties, you experience them. EG One still encounters general resistance to this idea... They've never encountered any discrimination. V+O = meet with

3 To encounter something means to meet or experience it, often for the first time. EG Evolution could proceed as organisms encountered new environments... ...remote native tribes that had never previously encountered white men. V+O

4 An encounter is 4.1 a casual or unexpected meeting. EG We've just had a very strange encounter with a civil servant! 4.2 a difficult or dangerous meeting. EG I don't propose to describe that encounter; it was too painful... He beamed his way through a series of frosty encounters with his leading opponents. 4.3 a particular type of experience. EG ...sexual encounters... ...encounters with new ideas. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN with / N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN with/between / N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN with encourage /ɪ²ŋ¹kʌrɪdʒ/, encourages, encouraging, encouraged. 1 If you encourage someone, 1.1 you tell them that what they are doing is good and that they should continue to do it. EG He seemed to like me and encouraged me. 1.2 you give them the courage or confidence to do something. EG Her husband encouraged her to get a car... Her success encouraged me to try the same thing. ◊ encouraged. EG Jack felt encouraged. V+O, OR V+O+to-INF? / V+O+to-INF, OR V+O = prompt ≠ dissuade ◊ ADJ QUALIT = emboldened

2 If someone or something encourages a particular activity, 2.1 they support it actively and help it to happen. EG Group meetings in the factory were always encouraged... Attendance every day was encouraged. 2.2 they stimulate it and cause it to increase. EG Could the Scarman Report encourage racism?... This encouraged the growth of Marxism. V+O : USU PASS ⇑ approve / V+O encouragement /ɪ²ŋ¹kʌrɪdʒmə²nt/. If someone gives you encouragement, they tell you that what you are doing is good and that you should continue to do it. EG All I need is some encouragement! N UNCOUNT ⇑ support encouraging /ɪ²ŋ¹kʌrɪdʒɪŋ/. Something that is encouraging gives hope, courage, or confidence to someone. EG I don't find what you've just said very encouraging. ◊ encouragingly. EG She spoke encouragingly about the company's sales figures. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ hopeful = promising / ◊ ADV WITH VB encroach /ɪ²ŋ¹krəʊtʃ/, encroaches, encroaching, encroached. 1 To encroach on or upon something means to slowly take possession or control of it, so that someone else loses it bit by bit. EG This new law doesn't encroach on the rights of the citizen. V : USU + A (on/upon) ⇑ trespass = intrude

2 If something encroaches on or upon land, it gradually moves over it or covers more and more of it. EG The steppe was encroached upon by the advancing wild wheat. V : USU + A (on/upon) ⇑ move encroachment /ɪ²ŋ¹krəʊtʃmə²nt/, encroachments. An encroachment is an act of taking all or part of something away from someone or something. EG ...encroachments of civil liberties... ...an encroachment on their property. N COUNT/UNCOUNT : IF PREP THEN of/upon ⇑ violation encrustation /ɪ²ŋ¹krʌsteɪʃə⁰n/, encrustations. An encrustation is 1 a layer that has built up on a surface during the course of a very long period of time. EG ...encrustations of moss. 2 a layer of jewels, gold, silver, etc, that is decorating something. EG ...the waist-length plumes, the encrustations of gold lace. N UNCOUNT/COUNT / N UNCOUNT/COUNT : IF + PREP THEN o encrusted /ɪ²ŋ¹krʌstɪ²d/. If a surface is encrusted with something, it has a layer or crust of that thing on it. EG At that time, the whole continent was encrusted with ice... These things are gold and silver, and most of them are encrusted with jewels... I gazed out at the snow-encrusted landscape. ADJ QUALIT : PREP THEN w ⇑ cover encumber /ɪ²ŋ¹kʌmbə/, encumbers, encumbering, encumbered. If something encumbers you, it prevents you from moving or doing what you want easily and freely. EG I was so encumbered with clothes I just couldn't run... The soldiers were encumbered with women and children. V+O : USU PAS A (with) ⇑ prevent = burden encumbrance /ɪ²ŋ¹kʌmbrəns/, encumbrances. An encumbrance is something or someone that encumbers you. EG If he overstayed his welcome he would become a hated encumbrance. N COUNT = burden encyclical /ɛnsɪklɪkə⁰l/, encyclicals. An encyclical is an official letter written by the Pope and sent to all Roman Catholic bishops, usually in order to make a statement about the official teachings of the Church. N COUNT encyclopedia /ɛnsaɪklə⁶piːdɪə/, encyclopedias; also spelled encyclopaedia. An encyclopedia is a book or set of books in which facts about many different subjects or about one particular subject are arranged for reference, usually in alphabetical order. EG They made us read whole pages of the encyclopedia... ...the last volume of the encyclopedia. N COUNT encyclopedic /ɛnsaɪklə⁶piːdɪk/; also spelled encyclopaedic. If something is described as encyclopedic, it is very full, complete, and thorough in the amount of knowledge or information that it has. EG She knew her subject with encyclopedic thoroughness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ comprehe sive = exhaustiv end /ɛnd/, ends, ending, ended. 1 The end of a period of time, an event, or an experience is the last part of it or the final point in it.. EG ...at the end of August... ...one afternoon near the end of my stay... We will leave that till the end. N SING : the + N USU WITH POSS = close ≠ beginning

2 An end to something or the end of it is the act or result of stopping it so that it does not continue any longer. EG ...an immediate end to all armed attacks... They were advised to try and bring the sit-in to an end... That was the end of the matter. N COUNT : USU SING, IF + PREP THEN to/of ⇑ stop = close

3 An end is 3.1 one of the two extreme points of something long and narrow. EG ...sharpen a stick at both ends... The table was set for six, two at each side and one at each end... Ellen and Hooper were sitting at opposite ends of the couch... ...a door at the other end of the room. 3.2 the point on something long and narrow that is farthest away from you or from the point where it is attached to something else. EG The end of its tail quivered... The gas dried her hair up and frizzled the ends. 3.3 the part of something that is left after the rest has been used or destroyed, especially something that is long and narrow in shape. EG ...cigarette ends.. ...the unburnt ends of branches. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ extremity / N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ extremity = tip / N COUNT : USU + SUPP = remains

4 The end of a book, film, speech, etc, is the last part of it. EG I wept at the end of the book... She read the first draft from beginning to end. N COUNT, OR to N = conclusion ≠ beginning

5 The other end is one of two places that are connected because people are communicating with each other by telephone or writing, or are travelling from one place to the other. EG The phone at the other end rang... There was an awkward interval of silence at both ends. Then he wrote to me again. N COUNT + SUPP

6 A particular end of an activity or relationship is a particular part, aspect, or area of it. EG I'm surprised at how well John keeps up his end of the conversation... Chris took care of the day-to-day running of the company and I looked after the business end. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ part

7 An end is also the purpose for which something is done or towards which you are working. EG ...their use of industrial power for political ends... To that N COUNT : USU MOD + N

nd the committee is trying to develop a formula which will be acceptable to all concerned. ● If you onsider something to be an end in itself, you do it ecause it seems desirable and not because it is kely to achieve anything lasting or useful. EG He egarded violence as an end in itself.

● PHR : USED AS C

End is also used to refer to either of the two xtreme points of a scale or of something that you re considering as a scale or a line. EG ...at the other nd of the social scale... There is support at both nds of the political spectrum in many countries.

N COUNT : SUPP

A person's end is their death, especially when eferring to the way that they die; a literary use. EG He did not deserve such a cruel end.

N COUNT : USU SING

0 When a situation or period of time ends, it stops nd continues no longer. EG The current agreement nds on November 24... He took her out a couple of imes before term ended... The day ended in uncerainty and gloom.

V : USU : A ↑ stop = finish
≠ begin

1 When someone ends an activity, they cause it to top and prevent it from continuing any longer. EG He refused to end his nine-week-old hunger strike... That ended the discussion. ◊ ending. EG ...the ending of all manufacture and testing of nuclear weapons.

V : O
= terminate ≠ start
◊ N SING : the + N

2 If a situation or event ends in a particular way, it as that particular result. EG ...a desperate initiative which ended in failure... A row broke out which nded with Colley's being shot... Where will it all nd?

V : A

3 When a speech, piece of writing, activity, etc ends r when someone ends it, it stops in a particular way. EG The play ends with all the children playing and reciting... She ended a polemical article with the sentence, 'Art corrupts.'... Jaykar ended on a dry laugh. Her telegram ended 'Please return immediately'.

V OR V.ERG : A (with/on)/QUOTE ↑ finish = conclude ≠ begin

4 An object that ends with or in something has a particular thing on its tip or point, or as its last part. EG Each finger ends with a sharp claw, not a flat blunt nail.

V + A (with/in)
↑ finish
= terminate

5 A journey, road, river, etc, that ends at a particular place stops there and goes no further. EG They watched the harbor where their journeys had ended... The trail ends one mile from Bakewell.

V : USU : A ↑ stop
≠ begin

6 If you say that something ends at a particular point, you mean that it is true or exists up to that point, and no further. EG It was quite impossible to know where the truth ended and falsehood began.

V + A
↑ be = stop
≠ begin

7 The word end is also used in the following expressions. 7.1 You say at the end of the day when you are talking about what happens after a long series of events or what appears to be the case after you have considered the relevant facts; an informal expression. EG The question at the end of the day is whether the house is actually worth that amount.

PHR : USED AS AN A
↑ finally = ultimately

7.2 If something is at an end, it is finished and will not continue. EG The service was nearly at an end.

PHR : USED AS AN A

7.3 If you say that something is the end, you are expressing how impatient or annoyed you are with a situation, person or thing; an informal expression used in British English. EG This is the end... He's the absolute end.

PHR : VB INFLECTS
= be the limit

7.4 If you do something to the bitter end or to the very end, you do it for as long and to as great an extent as you possibly can, especially when you find this unpleasant. EG We have always pursued everything to the bitter end.

PHR : USED AS AN A

7.5 If something comes to an end, it stops. EG And here the story comes to an end.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.6 If someone ends it all, they commit suicide. EG She obviously wasn't interested in him, and he had decided to end it all.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.7 To the end of time means for ever. EG I will love you to the end of time.

PHR : USED AS AN A

7.8 If you consider something to be the end of the world, it is something that seems really terrible and that you find very upsetting. EG Well that's not the end of the world.

PHR : USED AS C, USU WITH BROAD NEG
= calamity

7.9 In the end means finally, after a considerable time, and often as a result of the previous situation. EG She went back to England, I believe, in the end... They kept on raising the price and in the end he got thirty thousand for it.

PHR : USED AS AN A
= eventually

7.10 If you keep or hold your end up, you show bravery and competence in dealing with a difficult or frightening situation. EG Once there, he felt he should keep his end up and never be frightened of speaking for himself.

PHR : VB INFLECTS
≠ chicken out

7.11 If you make ends meet, you are able to manage financially because you have just enough money for your needs. EG Many were finding it difficult to make ends meet, especially those with young children.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.12 No end means a lot; an informal expression. EG She had no end of trouble at school... It upset me no end.

PHR : USED AS N PART OR AS AN A
= a great deal

8 On end. 8.1 Something that is on end is upright, instead of in its normal or natural position, for example lying down, flat, or on its longest side. EG He asked them to stand an egg on end.

PHR : USED AS AN A
≠ prone

8.2 When something happens for days or weeks on end, it happens continuously and without stopping for the amount of time that is mentioned or specified. EG I don't see anybody for weeks on end.

PHR : USED AS AN A
= consecutively
= at a time

9 The word end is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in the dictionary. ● to burn the candle at both ends: see candle. ● in at the deep end: see deep. ● to go off the deep end: see deep. ● to make your hair stand on end: see hair. ● a means to an end: see mean. ● to be on the receiving end: see receive. ● the end of the road: see road. ● to get the wrong end of the stick: see stick. ● at the end of your tether: see tether. ● the thin end of the wedge: see wedge. ● to be at your wits' end: see wit. ● See also dead end, ending, loose end, never-ending, and odds and ends.

end up. 1 If you end up somewhere, you eventually arrive there, even though you did not originally intend to go there. EG Many of their friends and neighbours have ended up in prison for terrorist activities. 2 If you end up doing something or end up in a particular state, you do it or get to that state even though you did not originally intend to. EG We ended up taking a taxi there... If we go on in this way, we shall end up with millions and millions of unemployed.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A = wind up

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A : ING = finish up

endanger /ɪⁿndeɪnʤə/, endangers, endangering, endangered. If you endanger something, you cause it to be in a dangerous situation where it might be destroyed or damaged. EG They claimed the herbicides did not endanger human life... The security of the country was not endangered. ◊ endangered. EG He's always argued that the whale is an endangered species.

V + O
↑ risk = jeopardize ≠ secure
◊ ADJ QUALIT

endear /ɪⁿndɪə/, endears, endearing, endeared. If something endears you to someone or if you endear yourself to them, you become popular with them and well liked or loved by them. EG Needless to say, this sort of talk did not endear him to Mr Nixon... The King did not endear himself to the ministers.

V + O (NG/REFL) + A (to)

endearing /ɪⁿndɪərɪŋ/. If a person or their behaviour is endearing, it causes you to feel very fond of them. EG ...a slightly foolish but wonderfully endearing smile. ◊ endearingly. EG ...endearingly childish behaviour.

ADJ QUALIT
↑ likeable = appealing
◊ ADV : USU + ADJ

endearment /ɪⁿndɪəməⁿnt/, endearments. An endearment is a loving or affectionate word or phrase that you say to someone you love. EG He held me close to him, murmuring endearments... ...terms of endearment.

N COUNT : UNCOUNT

endeavour /ɪⁿndevə/, endeavours, endeavouring, endeavoured; also spelled endeavor in American English. Endeavour is a formal word. 1 If you endeavour to do something, you try very hard to do it. EG He endeavoured to adopt a positive but realistic attitude... We do endeavour to assess any case on its merits.

V + to-INF
= strive

2 An endeavour is an attempt to do a particular thing, especially something new or original. EG ...the history of scientific endeavours... We must wish ourselves good fortune in our endeavours.

N COUNT
= effort

3 Endeavour is hard work and effort in attempting to do things, especially new or original things. EG ...this exciting new field of endeavour. ...our pride in human endeavour and success.

N UNCOUNT
↑ effort

endemic /ɛndɛmɪk/. A condition or illness that is endemic in a particular place is found naturally or commonly among the people there; a formal word. EG Until the 1940's, malaria was endemic in Ceylon... ...Africa's endemic poverty... Violent class conflict is endemic in our society.

ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN in/to ↑ common = prevalent

ending /ɛndɪŋ/, endings. An ending is 1 the last part of a book, story, play, or film; used especially when you are considering the way that the story ends. EG The best kind of story is the one with a happy ending. 2 the last part of a word. EG ...words that had the same ending, such as 'wanted', 'wor-

N COUNT
= conclusion ≠ beginning

ried', and 'killed'. 3 the tip or end of something, such as a nerve. EG ...nerve endings. N COUNT + SUPP

endive /ɛ̄ndaɪv/, endives. 1 An endive is a plant with crisp, curly leaves that are eaten in salads. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 Endive is chicory; used in American English. N UNCOUNT

endless /ɛ̄ndlɪ²s/. 1 If something is endless, it seems as if you will never reach the end of it because it is very large or lasts for a very long time. EG They spend their time in an endless search for food... Mr Starke would ask endless repetitive questions... ...the perfect, languorous, endless hot summer that we all dream of. ◊ endlessly. EG In Bombay, every citizen seems endlessly on the move... She used to nag me endlessly about the family's money. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ unlimited = intermi- nable ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ continually = perpetually

2 An area of land that is endless is very large and has few changes in its appearance, vegetation, etc. EG ...an endless sandy waste... The forest is an endless woven carpet of dense, dark green. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = continuous endocrine /ɛ̄ndə⁶krɪ⁵n/ refers to the system of glands that secrete hormones directly into the bloodstream, such as the pituitary or thyroid glands; a technical term in medicine. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB endorse /ɪ²ndɔ̄:s/, endorses, endorsing, endorsed. 1 If you endorse someone or something, you say publicly that you support or approve of them. EG The Germans and Italians endorsed the plan... Delegates will be invited to endorse unilateral nuclear disarmament. V + O = back

2 If someone's driving licence is endorsed, an official record is made on it that they have been found guilty of a driving offence. EG He was ordered to pay a fine of £200 and his licence was endorsed. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ mark

3 When you endorse a document, you write a note or comment on it. EG If you want a receipt the account should be sent intact, endorsed 'receipt required.' V + O ⇑ mark

4 When you endorse a cheque, you write your name on the back of it so that it can be paid into someone else's bank account. V + O

endorsement /ɪ²ndɔ̄:smə²nt/, endorsements. 1 An endorsement is 1.1 a formal or public statement that you support or approve of something or someone. EG The Pope has issued his fullest endorsement ever of the Solidarity trade union movement. 1.2 a note on someone's driving licence saying that they have been found guilty of a driving offence. EG He's already got three endorsements. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

2 If you make an endorsement of a document or cheque, you write a note on the document or write your name on the back of the cheque. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ writing endow /ɪ²ndaʊ̄/, endows, endowing, endowed. 1 If someone or something is endowed with particular qualities, abilities, or characteristics that are considered to be good or remarkable, they have them or are given them. EG Nature has endowed the Cobra Lily with the means of catching its own food... Eugene O'Neill had been endowed with Clark Gable looks. V + O : USU + A (with), USU PASS ⇑ give = bless

2 If someone endows a person or institution, they give them a large amount of money so that they can receive a certain annual income or pay for a project, building, etc. EG He personally endowed a ward in Manhattan General Hospital... It was a richly endowed school. V + O ⇑ support endowment /ɪ²ndaʊ̄mə²nt/, endowments. 1 An endowment is a gift of money that is made to an institution such as a school or hospital in order to provide it with an annual income. EG Every penny of our endowment is spent on equipment. N COUNT ⇑ provision = settlement

2 If someone has an endowment of a particular quality or ability, they possess it as a natural quality or ability; used in formal English. EG She had, moreover, a reasonable endowment of intelligence. N COUNT = portion endowment policy, endowment policies. An endowment policy is an insurance policy which will give you a sum of money after a certain number of years. EG This policy offers life-time cover with flexibility to convert to an endowment policy. N COUNT end product, end products; also spelled with a hyphen. An end product is something that is produced or achieved by means of a particular activity or process. EG It's a tough course with a fairly tough exam, so that the end-product is a really worthwhile qualification. N COUNT, USU SING end result, end results; also spelled with a hyphen. The end result of a process or activity is the final outcome produced by it. EG This sense of one's own worth is the end result of years of loving, sensitive care. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ outcome = culmination endurance /ɪ²ndjᵘʊ̄ərəns/ is the ability to experience an unpleasant or painful situation for a period of time calmly and patiently. EG They admired the troops for their courage and endurance... The practice of law was boring me beyond endurance... ...a test of human endurance. N UNCOUNT = stamin patience endure /ɪ²ndjᵘʊ̄ə/, endures, enduring, endured. 1 If you endure a painful or difficult situation, you bear it calmly and patiently. EG You must be ready to endure hardships and even death... Sam could hardly endure this delay... It was more than I could endure. V + O ⇑ experie = face

2 If something endures, it continues to exist without any loss in quality or importance. EG Certain kinds of relationships endure longer than others... ...a city which will endure for ever. ◊ enduring. EG ...one of Hollywood's most enduring and respected actors... ...hopes for an enduring peace. V ⇑ last = survive ◊ ADJ QUAL USU ATTRIB = lasting endways /ɛ̄ndweɪz/. Something that is endways to something else is placed at right angles to it. EG The cottage is built endways to the road. ADV WITH V

enema /ɛ̄nɪmə/, enemas. An enema is a liquid which is put into a person's rectum in order to empty their bowels, for example before an operation is performed. N COUNT

enemy /ɛ̄nəmɪ¹/, enemies. 1 If someone is your enemy, 1.1 they hate you or want to harm you. EG I have many enemies... He didn't have an enemy in the world... These creatures have no natural enemies. 1.2 they are opposed to you and to what you think or do. EG He is one of the most formidable enemies of the regime... ...an enemy of society. N COUNT = foe ≠ friend N COUNT : IF PREP THEN ⇑ opponer ≠ friend

2 The enemy is an army or other force that is opposed to you in a war, or a country with which your country is at war. EG After a fierce battle the enemy had been forced back a thousand yards... ...enemy aircraft. N COUNT, OR SING : the + = foe ≠ ally energetic /ɛ̄nədʒɛ̄tɪk/. 1 Someone or something that is energetic has or shows a lot of enthusiasm and determination to succeed. EG He is an energetic campaigner in the cause of road safety... ...an energetic programme of applied research. ◊ energetically. EG This right is not merely questioned but energetically denied. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ enthusia = lively ≠ apatheti ◊ ADV WITH ⇑ strongly

2 An energetic activity involves a lot of physical movement and power. EG Do something energetic, play golf, swim, or ski. ◊ energetically. EG ...acrobats energetically tumbling across the stage. ADJ QUALIT = active ◊ ADV WITH ⇑ vigorous energize /ɛ̄nədʒaɪz/, energizes, energizing, energized; also spelled energise. If something energizes you, it gives you the enthusiasm and determination to do something. EG ...a sparkling friendliness which had a curious energizing effect on Tom. V + O ⇑ encourag energy /ɛ̄nədʒɪ¹/, energies. 1 Energy is 1.1 the ability and strength to do active physical things and the feeling that you are full of physical power and life. EG You must eat to give you energy... It was several seconds before I could muster the energy to get up and switch the machine off... This sequence combines the elegance of classical ballet with the energy of modern dance. 1.2 the determination and enthusiasm to achieve something and the belief that you will succeed; used showing approval. EG Michael praised Tony's diligence, energy and imagination... ...a woman of energy and ambition. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT ⇑ strength

2 Your energies are the amount of effort and attention that you have available to use in order to achieve something. EG Men like Muhammed Abdu poured their energies into religious reform... You would be wiser to direct your emotional energies into social rather than amorous activities. N COUNT : POS N, SING = PL ⇑ capability = efforts

3 Energy is also the power from electricity, coal, wind, etc that makes machines work. EG Wood is an efficient source of energy... ...the energy crisis... ...Britain's current nuclear energy programme. N UNCOUNT enervated /ɛ̄nəveɪtɪ²d/. If you feel enervated, you feel that you have lost your strength and liveliness. EG I leaned back, already enervated. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ tired = drained enervating /ɛ̄nəveɪtɪŋ/ If you feel that something is enervating, you feel that it takes away your strength and liveliness. EG ...a particularly enervating day. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ tiring = draining enfant terrible /ɒ̄fɒ̄ tɛrɪ̄bə⁶l/, enfants terribles. An enfant terrible is a clever but unconven- N COUNT ⇑ prodigy ional person whose unusual behaviour or ideas cause anger or embarrassment among their friends r colleagues; a literary term. EG Jacques Derrida was an enfant terrible of the French intelligentsia.

enfeebled /ɪⁿfiːbᵊld/. Someone or something that is enfeebled has become very weak. EG ...enfeebled through age... ...an enfeebled state of mind... ...an enfeebled economy. ADJ QUALIT = weakened ≠ strengthened enfold /ɪⁿfəʊld/, enfolds, enfolding, enfolded; a formal word. 1 If you enfold someone or something, you hold them close in a very gentle, loving way. EG Their arms reached out to enfold him. V + O IF + PREP THEN in = embrace

2 Something that enfolds something else covers it or is wrapped around it. EG ...this darkness that continually enfolds me. V + O IF + PREP THEN in ⇑ surround = cloak enforce /ɪⁿfɔːs/, enforces, enforcing, enforced. 1 If people in a position of authority enforce a law or a rule, they make sure that it is obeyed, usually by punishing people who do not obey it. EG ...the government's inability to apply and enforce its own laws and regulations. V + O ⇑ implement

2 If you enforce a particular condition, you force it to be done or to happen without anyone having an opportunity to avoid or prevent it. EG Our belief was that workers had a right to enforce a closed shop. V + O : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ force enforceable /ɪⁿfɔːsəbᵊl/. Something that is enforceable can be enforced. EG ...a civil contract enforceable by law. ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN by enforcement /ɪⁿfɔːsmᵊnt/. If someone carries out an enforcement of an act or rule, they enforce it. EG ...the enforcement of discipline. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of enfranchise /ɪⁿfrænʧaɪz/, enfranchises, enfranchising, enfranchised. To enfranchise someone means to give them the right to vote in elections; a formal word. EG ...the reform Acts of 1884 and 1918 enfranchised working men and women. V + O ⇑ entitle enfranchisement /ɛnfrænʧaɪzmᵊnt/ is the condition of someone being enfranchised; a formal word. EG ...the enfranchisement of the masses. N UNCOUNT engage /ɪⁿgeɪʤ/, engages, engaging, engaged; a fairly formal word. 1 If you engage in an activity, you do it or are involved in doing it. EG It was considered inappropriate for a former President to engage in commerce... The work we're engaged on is a study of heat transfer. V + A (in/on/upon)

◊ enforced. EG ...a life of enforced inactivity. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If something engages you or your attention or interest, it keeps you interested in it and thinking about it. EG Boredom has a chance to develop if the child's interest is not engaged... ...a social policy which engages the hearts and minds of men. V + O ⇑ attract = capture

3 If you engage someone in conversation, you have a conversation with them. EG This allowed him to engage the woman in further conversation. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ talk = involve

4 If you engage someone to do a particular job, you appoint them to do it. EG No continental opera would engage an English singer... The only alternative left to us is to engage the services of an outsider. V + O, OR V + O + A (as) ⇑ employ = hire

5 When a part of a machine or other mechanism engages or when you engage something in a machine or other mechanism, it moves into a position where two or more parts fit together. EG Press the lever until you hear the magazine catch engage. V ERG : ALSO V OR V + A (with) : RECIP

6 If a military force engages the enemy, it attacks them and starts a battle. EG ...forces waiting to engage the US strike fleet. V OR V + O : RECIP ⇑ attack engaged /ɪⁿgeɪʤd/. 1 When two people are engaged, they have agreed to marry each other. EG A week later, Tony became engaged to Caroline... They were not officially engaged. ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ promised

7 See also engaged, engaging.

2 If a telephone or telephone line is engaged, it is already being used by someone else so that you are unable to get through. EG Receptionists' telephones are always engaged... 'Is there any answer?'–'It's engaged.' ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED = busy engagement /ɪⁿgeɪʤmᵊnt/, engagements. An engagement is 1 an arrangement that you have made to do something at a particular time; used in formal English. EG Mr Baverstock is regretfully unable to accept your invitation. He pleads a prior engagement... I keep my engagement book in my office. 2 an arrangement that has been made for an actor, musician, or other performer to perform somewhere on a particular occasion. EG This part in Romeo and Juliet was Ellen's last professional engagement in London... His lecture bureau had booked seventy-odd engagements for him. 3 an agreement that two people have made with each other to get married. EG All that remained was to announce their engagement and fix the date of the wedding. ▸ used to refer to the period of time during which two people are engaged before they get married. EG ...a letter which she wrote to Harold during their engagement. 4 a battle with an enemy. EG There are valuable lessons to be learned from the first engagements with the enemy. N COUNT : USU SING, USU POSS + N ⇑ time engagement ring, engagement rings. An engagement ring is a ring worn by a woman when she is engaged to be married. N COUNT engaging /ɪⁿgeɪʤɪŋ/. Someone who is engaging is pleasant and charming. EG ...this harmless and engaging young man... ...an engaging frankness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ nice engender /ɪⁿʤɛndə/, engenders, engendering, engendered. If someone or something engenders a particular feeling, atmosphere, or situation, they cause it to occur; a formal word. EG This engenders a sense of responsibility. V + O = foster engine /ɛnʤɪn/, engines. An engine is 1 a machine that uses heat or other kinds of energy to produce power, especially in order to make a vehicle move. EG He couldn't get his engine started so he left the car at home... ...a jet engine... ...engine oil. 2 a large vehicle that pulls a railway train. EG ...British Rail's latest high-speed engine... ...a steam engine. N COUNT = locomotive engineer /ɛnʤɪnɪə/, engineers, engineering, engineered. 1 An engineer is 1.1 a skilled person who uses scientific knowledge to design and construct machinery, engines, electrical devices, or roads and bridges. EG ...a brilliant young mining engineer. 1.2 a person who repairs mechanical or electrical devices such as telephones or central heating systems. EG The telephone engineers can't come until Wednesday. 1.3 a soldier who is in a regiment in the army which is responsible for building bridges, roads, etc. EG ...truly heroic work by army engineers. N COUNT ⇑ worker

3 If a public toilet is engaged, it is already being used by someone else. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

-engined means having an engine or engines of a particular type or number. EG ...a twin-engined patrol plane... ...petrol-engined cars. COMB : FORMS ADJS

2 To engineer a building, bridge, etc means to construct it following scientific principles and methods. EG Thus the core of a building might be engineered to last twenty-five years. V + O = build

3 If you engineer an event or situation, you arrange or cause it in a clever or indirect way, especially in order to obtain some advantage for yourself. EG She had engineered the whole excursion. V + O, OR V + O + to-INF = rig engineering /ɛnʤɪnɪərɪŋ/ is the activities and work involved in designing and constructing machinery, engines, electrical devices, or roads and bridges. EG Why don't many girls go into science or engineering?... ...a major engineering feat. ● See also civil engineering, genetic engineering. N UNCOUNT ⇑ science

English /ɪŋglɪʃ/. 1 English means belonging or relating to England, or to its people or language. It is also sometimes used to mean belonging or relating to Great Britain. EG ...the English language. ADJ CLASSIF

2 English is 2.1 the language that is spoken by people who live in Great Britain and Ireland, the United States, Canada, Australia, and many other countries. EG Half the letter was in Swedish and the rest in English. 2.2 the study of the English language or of English literature. EG Karen obtained A levels in English, French, and Geography. N UNCOUNT ⇑ subject

English breakfast, English breakfasts. An English breakfast is a breakfast which consists of cooked food, such as bacon and eggs, in addition to toast and marmalade and tea or coffee. EG The ticket (£50 for two) includes a full English breakfast and a bottle of champagne. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

Englishman /ɪŋglɪʃmᵊn/, Englishmen. An Englishman is a man who comes from England or Great Britain. N COUNT ⇑ man

Englishwoman /ɪŋglɪʃwʊmən/, Englishwomen. An Englishwoman is a woman who comes from England or Great Britain. N COUNT ⇑ woman

engrave /ɪⁿgreɪv/, engraves, engraving, engraved. If you engrave something with a design or inscription or if you engrave a design or inscription on it, you cut the design or inscription into its surface. EG It was prettily engraved with flowers on V + O + A (with), V + O QUOTE, OR V + O QUOTE + A (on) the back... Get a skilful jeweller to engrave on the bracelet the name of your child... They engraved on it, 'Dedicated to the Lord'. ◊ engraved. EG ...Victorian engraved glass. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 To engrave something such as designs or pictures means to print them on paper from a metal or wooden plate on which they have already been cut. EG Her name was engraved at the top of the sheet of watermarked paper. ◊ engraved. EG We received engraved invitations to the wedding. V + O, OR V + O + A (on) ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

3 If something is engraved on your mind, memory, heart, etc, it is fixed permanently there, so that you feel that you will never forget it. EG This episode remains sharply engraved on my mind. V + O/QUOTE + A (on) : USU PASS = etched engraver /ɪ²ŋ¹greɪvə/, engravers. An engraver is someone who cuts designs or inscriptions on metal, glass, wood, etc. EG He learnt to be a wood engraver. N COUNT engraving /ɪ²ŋ¹greɪvɪŋ/, engravings. 1 An engraving is 1.1 a picture that has been printed from an engraved plate. EG Most of my pictures are etchings, engravings or screen prints. 1.2 a picture or design that has been cut into metal, glass, wood, etc. EG ...steel engravings. N COUNT

2 Engraving is the art or skill of an engraver. N UNCOUNT engrossed /ɪ²ŋ¹grəʊst/. If you are engrossed in something, it completely holds your attention and interest, and you are not thinking about anything else at all. EG She was engrossed in her book. ADJ QUALIT : PRED, IF + PREP THEN in = absorbed ≠ bored engrossing /ɪ²ŋ¹grəʊsɪŋ/. Something that is engrossing is so interesting that you do not want to do or think about anything else. EG ...two of the most engrossing books I have ever read. ADJ QUALIT = absorbing engulf /ɪ²ŋ¹gʌlf/, engulfs, engulfing, engulfed. 1 To engulf something means to completely cover and hide it. EG The house was soon engulfed in flames. V + O

2 If a feeling or emotion engulfs you, you are so affected by it that you cannot feel or think about anything else. EG Finally panic engulfed him... ...a world engulfed in hatred and intolerance. V + O ⇑ affect = swamp enhance /ɪ²nhɑːns/, enhances, enhancing, enhanced. To enhance something means to improve its value, quality, or attractiveness. EG Will it enhance my reputation?... The nutritional value of rice is enhanced by baking it with milk. V + O enhancement /ɪ²nhɑːnsmə²nt/. The enhancement of something is the improvement of it in relation to its value, quality or attractiveness. N UNCOUNT enigma /ɪ²nɪgmə/, enigmas. An enigma is a person, thing, or situation that is mysterious, puzzling, and difficult to understand. EG In spite of all our investigations it remains an enigma... She's a riddle-an enigma. N COUNT ⇑ mystery = puzzle enigmatic /ɛnɪgmætɪk/. Something that is enigmatic is mysterious, puzzling, and difficult to understand. EG Donne is the most enigmatic of all our poets... ...an enigmatic smile. ◊ enigmatically. EG 'You can try,' he said enigmatically. ADJ QUALIT ≠ obvious ◊ ADV WITH VB

enjoin /ɪ²nʤɔɪn/, enjoins, enjoining, enjoined; a formal word. 1 If you enjoin someone to do something, you order them to do it, especially when you are in a position of authority. EG He enjoined them to be fierce and uncompromising... They were enjoined to be submissive. V + O + to-INF ⇑ tell = command, instruct

2 If you enjoin a particular kind of behaviour on someone, you order or recommend that they behave in that way, especially when you are in a position of authority. EG Zoe put a finger to her lips to enjoin silence... This religion enjoins poverty upon all its followers. V + O : IF + PREP THEN on/upon = impose

enjoy /ɪ²nʤɔɪ/, enjoys, enjoying, enjoyed. 1 If you enjoy something, 1.1 you find pleasure and satisfaction in doing or experiencing it. EG I enjoyed the holiday enormously... She is someone who loves people and enjoys life... Painting is something that I really enjoy doing. 1.2 you are lucky enough to have something, for example a right, benefit, or privilege. EG They enjoyed exceptional living standards... He was well aware of the privileges he enjoyed. V + O, OR V + -ING ⇑ like ≠ dislike V + O = possess

2 If you enjoy yourself, you are very happy and take great pleasure in the situation that you are in. EG He is thoroughly enjoying himself. V + O (REFL) enjoyable /ɪ²nʤɔɪəbə⁰l/. Something that is enjoyable gives you pleasure and satisfaction. EG We had an enjoyable day at Poole. ◊ enjoyably. EG This book tells you how you can live simply and enjoyably. ADJ QUALIT = pleasant ◊ ADV enjoyment /ɪ²nʤɔɪmə²nt/, enjoyments. 1 Enjoyment is the feeling of pleasure and satisfaction that you have when you do or experience something that you enjoy. EG ...the enjoyment that reading brings... Do you think I do it for enjoyment? N UNCOUNT

2 The enjoyment of something such as an advantage or a privilege is the benefit of having it. EG ...the enjoyment of wealth. N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ possessio

3 An enjoyment is an activity that gives you pleasure. EG His enjoyments in life are limited to fighting, shooting, and drinking. N COUNT enlarge /ɪ²nlɑːʤ/, enlarges, enlarging, enlarged. 1 When you enlarge something or when it enlarges, it becomes bigger. EG The original Norman windows were enlarged by Christopher Wren... The pores enlarge and secrete more oil... Mrs White was then free to enlarge the scope of her activities. ◊ enlarged. EG The leaders met to discuss the aims for the new, enlarged EEC... V ERG ⇑ expand ◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 To enlarge a photograph means to develop a bigger print of it. EG We had some of our wedding photos enlarged. V + O = blow up enlarge on. If you enlarge on or enlarge upon a subject, you give a lot of details about it when you are speaking or writing; a formal expression. EG He enlarged on the glorious future he had in mind. PHRASAL VB : PREP, HAS PAS ⇑ talk = expand o enlargement /ɪ²nlɑːʤmə²nt/, enlargements. 1 The enlargement of something is the action or process of making it bigger. EG ...the enlargement of crowded hospitals... We must resist the enlargement of existing university programmes. N SING : the + of ⇑ expansion

2 Enlargement is also the state of something that has become bigger. EG The chest X-ray showed moderate enlargement of the heart. N UNCOUNT enlighten /ɪ²nlaɪtə⁰n/, enlightens, enlightening, enlightened. To enlighten someone means to give them more knowledge and greater understanding about something. EG The object of the exercise is to amuse and enlighten the general reader. ◊ enlightening. EG I find her enlightening to talk to... It was a most enlightening book. V + O ⇑ inform ◊ ADJ QUALIT = illuminati enlightened /ɪ²nlaɪtə⁰nd/. If you describe someone or something as enlightened, you mean 1 that they deal with problems and tasks in a good way, which brings benefits without causing unnecessary harm or suffering for other people; used showing approval. EG Our enlightened social policies are much admired all over the world... ...a more enlightened approach to part-time farming. 2 that they possess knowledge about things in general, and are free from false or mistaken beliefs. EG ...pious and enlightened men. ADJ QUALIT ≠ ignorant ADJ CLASSIF ≠ ignorant enlightenment /ɪ²nlaɪtə⁰nmə²nt/ means the act of enlightening or the state of being enlightened. EG These talks were intended to bring culture and enlightenment to the hearers. N UNCOUNT ≠ ignorance enlist /ɪ²nlɪst/, enlists, enlisting, enlisted. 1 If someone enlists or is enlisted, they join the army, navy, or air force. EG He had enlisted in the Marines... They were enlisted into the 21st Regiment. V ERG : IF + PRE THEN in/into

3 An enlargement is a photograph that has been made bigger. EG ...poster-sized enlargements. N COUNT

2 If you enlist someone or their help, you persuade them to help or support you in something you are trying to do. EG He enlisted Nick's help... He enlisted the aid of another back-bench Conservative. V + O : IF + PREI THEN in, OR + to-INF = drum up enlisted /ɪ²nlɪstɪ²d/. An enlisted man or woman is a member of the American army or navy who is below the rank of an officer. EG ...two officers and four enlisted men. ADJ CLASSIF enlistment /ɪ²nlɪstmə²nt/ is the act of joining the army, navy, or air force. EG ...enlistment in the Air Force. ▸ An enlistment is the period of time for which someone is a member of one of the armed forces. EG ...a normal five-year enlistment. N UNCOUNT ▸ N COUNT ⇑ period enliven /ɪ²nlaɪvə⁰n/, enlivens, enlivening, enlivened. To enliven events, situations, or people means to make them more lively or cheerful. EG Tea was a hilarious meal, much enlivened by Malcolm. V + O = brighten ≠ depress en masse /ɒn mæs/. If a group of people do something en masse, they do it all together and at the same time. EG They threatened to resign en masse. ADV WITH VB enmeshed /ɪ²nmɛʃt/. If you are enmeshed in a situation, you are involved in it, even though you do not want to be, and you find it difficult or impossible to escape from it. EG He felt he was being enmeshed ADJ QUALIT : PRED, USU + in = caught up n the family business against his will... The whole country was enmeshed in turmoil.

enmity /ɛnmɪtɪ[1]/, enmities. Enmity is a feeling of anger or hatred for a person that you strongly disagree with. EG ...his long-standing enmity for Mr Baldwin... Tribal enmities have been inflamed by the new ruling. — N UNCOUNT/COUNT = hostility ≠ love ennoble /ɪ[2]nəʊbə[3]l/, ennobles, ennobling, ennobled. 1 To ennoble someone means to make them a member of the nobility. EG He was subsequently ennobled as Lord Beaumont of Whitley. — V + O ⇑ elevate

2 To ennoble something means to make it more noble, honourable and dignified. — V + O ⇑ elevate ennui /ɒnwiː/ is a feeling of tiredness, boredom, and dissatisfaction that is caused by a lack of excitement or activity; a literary word. — N UNCOUNT

enormity /ɪ[1]nɔːmɪtɪ[1]/, enormities. 1 If you refer to the enormity of something such as a problem or difficulty, you are referring to its very large size or extent and its seriousness. EG We were really not aware of the enormity of that problem... Smith did not seemingly grasp the enormity of the danger involved. — N SING : the + N, IF + PREP THEN of = magnitude

2 An enormity is something that is considered to be a terrible crime or sin; a fairly formal word. EG I had at last been forgiven for some of my own enormities. — N COUNT enormous /ɪ[1]nɔːməs/. 1 Something that is enormous is extremely large in size or amount. EG There was an enormous cat crouching on the counter eating fish... There is an enormous amount of hard work in child care. — ADJ QUALIT = massive

2 Enormous is also used to emphasize the great scale or extent of something. EG To his enormous delight he was elected MP for Bristol South... ...an enormous success. — ADJ QUALIT = huge enormously /ɪ[1]nɔːməsli[1]/. You use enormously to emphasize the scale or extent of something. EG It has increased enormously the demand for food in the third world... I became enormously fond of her... He had a blurred impression of being in an enormously long room. — ADV

enough /ɪ[1]nʌf/. 1 Enough is used in front of a noun to say that a quantity is as much as you need in order to achieve a particular purpose or result. EG I haven't enough room... I don't think I've really got enough information on that to speak confidently. ▸ used as a pronoun. EG I've got five thousand dollars–I hope it's enough... I had not seen enough of his work. ▸ In formal English, used after a noun. EG The fact that he did so much is proof enough that Mary's ideas were relevant to him. — DET + N UNCOUNT/PLURAL = sufficient ▸ PRON : IF + PREP THEN of ▸ DET AFTER N

2 If you say something such as 'I've had enough', 'I've seen enough' or 'I've heard enough', you mean that you do not want to see or hear any more. EG I didn't want to stay in Germany any longer. Two years was enough... With all respect, I think you have said enough... I've got enough to worry about... We've made enough of a mess of Northern Ireland. ▸ used as a determiner. EG Don't ask me to help you, I've got enough problems of my own. ▸ used as an adverb. EG They've suffered enough already. — PRON : IF + PREP THEN of ▸ DET + N UNCOUNT/PLURAL ▸ ADV AFTER VB

3 If you say that someone or something is 'old enough', 'fast enough', or 'large enough', you mean that they can do, achieve, or be the particular thing that is mentioned, because of their age, speed, or size. EG He was old enough to understand... We were close enough to be able to see their faces... The student isn't trying hard enough. — ADV AFTER ADJ/ADV/VB = sufficiently

4 If you say that someone or something is 'sincere enough' or 'common enough', you are saying that although you admit that something or someone is sincere or common, you are not prepared to state just how sincere or common they actually are. EG She sounded sincere enough, but I couldn't take any chances... That's a common enough experience... That would suit Godley well enough. — ADV AFTER ADJ/ADV = fairly

5 You use expressions such as oddly enough, strangely enough, and interestingly enough in order to comment on a piece of information and to say that it seems especially odd, strange, or interesting. EG Oddly enough, I do believe you... Funnily enough, old people seem to love bingo... I think, interestingly enough, America is now dependent on Africa for 40% of its oil imports. — PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

6 The word enough is also used in the following expressions. 6.1 If you say 'Enough is enough' to someone, you mean that you want them to stop what they are doing, for example to stop criticizing you. 6.2 Enough said means that what you have just said is sufficient to make a particular point clear, and there is no need to say any more. 6.3 If you say that you have had enough, you mean that you are unhappy and dissatisfied with a situation and you want it to stop. EG I've had enough... He seemed to have had enough of talk about wars and wounds. 6.4 You say that's enough to tell someone, especially a child, to stop behaving in a particular way, usually when you think they are being silly or unpleasant. EG 'That's enough!' the doctor said sharply. 6.5 fair enough: see fair. ● sure enough: see sure. — CONVENTION = say no more

PHR : AUX INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN of = be fed up

CONVENTION

en passant /ɒm[1] pæsɑːŋ/. If you deal with or speak about something en passant, you do it quickly and briefly while you are doing something else, especially because you do not think it is important or significant; a rather literary expression. EG She felt that it was unimportant and could be dealt with en passant. — ADV WITH VB = cursorily ≠ in detail enquire /ɪ[2]ŋ[1]kwaɪə/, enquires, enquiring, enquired. See inquire.

enquirer /ɪ[2]ŋ[1]kwaɪərə/, enquirers. See inquirer.

enquiry /ɪ[2]ŋ[1]kwaɪərɪ[1]/, enquiries. See inquiry.

enrage /ɪ[2]nreɪdʒ/, enrages, enraging, enraged. If something enrages you, it makes you very angry indeed. EG She chose a quotation that she knew would enrage him... She was enraged by these remarks. ◊ enraged. EG He raced back towards the forest with the enraged dogs at his heels... He got up, suddenly enraged. — V + O ⇑ anger = rile ◊ ADJ QUALIT ⇑ angered enraptured /ɪ[2]nræptʃəd/. Someone who is enraptured is filled with fascination, joy, and delight about something; a literary word. EG We would gaze enraptured at the sunsets. — ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ joyful = ecstatic enrich /ɪ[2]nrɪtʃ/, enriches, enriching, enriched. 1 To enrich something means to improve the quality or value of something by adding something else to it. EG Libraries were enlarged and enriched by new books... General debates on public affairs can greatly enrich our parliamentary system. ◊ enriched. EG ...enriched breakfast cereals. — V + O, IF + PREP THEN with = enhance ≠ impoverish ◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 To enrich someone means to increase the amount of money that they have. EG The purpose of the colonies was to enrich the colonists and the Spanish realm. — V + O ≠ beggar enrichment /ɪ[2]nrɪtʃmə[2]nt/ is the act of enriching someone or something or the state of being enriched. — N UNCOUNT ≠ impoverishment enrol /ɪ[2]nrəʊl/, enrols, enrolling, enrolled; also spelled enroll and enrolls in American English. If you enrol or are enrolled at a college or other institution or on a course, you join it by being officially registered and by paying a fee. EG He had gone to college to enrol on an art course... I enrolled at the University of Vienna. — V ERG = register enrolment /ɪ[2]nrəʊlmə[2]nt/, enrolments; also spelled enrollment in American English. 1 Enrolment is the act of enrolling or the state of being enrolled at an institution or on a course. EG ...the enrolment of Prince Charles at the University. — N UNCOUNT = registration

2 An enrolment is the number of people who are enrolled at an institution or on a course. EG University enrolments had risen by 50 per cent. — N COUNT ⇑ membership en route /ɒn ruːt/. If something happens en route to somewhere, it happens on the way there or between two places. EG You'll see plenty to interest you en route. — ADV AFTER VB

ensconce /ɪ[2]nskɒns/, ensconces, ensconcing, ensconced. If you ensconce yourself or are ensconced in a particular place, you put yourself there firmly and comfortably, with no immediate intention of moving away. EG I knew she'd ensconce herself in the corner by the fire... Karl was happily ensconced at West Point. — V + O (NG/REFL) + A (in/at) = install ensemble /ɒnsɒmbə[1]l/, ensembles. An ensemble is 1 a group of things or people considered as a whole rather than as separate individuals. EG It is better to consider the buildings as an ensemble than individually. 2 all the clothes that you are wearing at a particular time, especially if you have chosen them carefully so that they look nice together. EG A black silk tie completed the ensemble. 3 a small group of musicians who regularly play or sing together. EG The Amadeus Quartet is one of the most famous ensembles in the world. — N COUNT : USU SING = outfit N COUNT enshrine /ɪnʃraɪn/, enshrines, enshrining, enshrined. To enshrine something, such as a political idea or a legal right, means to contain and protect it, especially within a society or legal system. EG The universities' autonomy is enshrined in their individual charters. V + O : USU PASS enshroud /ɪnʃraʊd/, enshrouds, enshrouding, enshrouded. To enshroud something means to cover it completely so that it can no longer be seen; a formal or literary word. EG Gases and debris enshrouded the centre of the explosion. V + O = shroud ensign /ɛnsaɪn, ensigns. An ensign is 1 a flag flown on a ship to show what country that ship belongs to. ● See also white ensign, red ensign. 2 a junior officer in the United States Navy. 3 a junior officer in the British army until the late nineteenth century. N COUNT : USU + SUPP / N COUNT / N COUNT enslave /ɪnsleɪv/, enslaves, enslaving, enslaved. 1 To enslave someone means to make them into a slave. EG He was enslaved and ill treated. ◊ enslaved. EG ...slave-owning governments and enslaved peoples. V + O : USU PASS ≠ free ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 To enslave a person or society means to trap them in a situation from which they cannot escape. EG Men were enslaved by developing industrialism. V + O : USU PASS enslavement /ɪnsleɪvmənt/ is 1 the act of making someone into a slave or the state of being a slave. EG ...the systematic enslavement and exploitation of the masses. 2 the state of being caught or trapped in a situation from which it is difficult to escape. EG ...enslavement to the status quo. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS ⇑ oppression / N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to = tie ensnare /ɪnsnɛə/, ensnares, ensnaring, ensnared. 1 If you ensnare an animal, you catch it in a trap or snare. V + O = snare

2 If you ensnare someone, you gain power or control over them, especially by using dishonest or devious methods. EG A look would ensnare and enchant her completely... I decided to try to ensnare Mr Peake into doing it. V + O = trap ensue /ɪnsjʊ:, -ʃɔ:/, ensues, ensuing, ensued. If something ensues, it happens immediately after another event, especially as a result of it. EG Death might ensue within seven weeks... Inevitably, a shouting match ensued between us and the bus driver. V ⇑ happen = follow ensuing /ɪnsjʊ:ɪŋ/ means happening immediately afterwards. EG He had half killed the policeman in the ensuing fight... ...the ensuing months. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ following ensure /ɪnʃʊə, -ʃɔ:/, ensures, ensuring, ensured. To ensure something or ensure that something happens means to make certain that it happens. EG The first duty of the state is to ensure that law-abiding people are protected from crime... The door did not lock, but at least it ensured a reasonable amount of privacy. V + O/REPORT-CL ⇑ guarantee = assure entail /ɪntɛɪl/, entails, entailing, entailed. If something entails something else, the second thing follows necessarily and inevitably from the first. EG Balancing the budget would entail public spending cuts of thirteen billion pounds... The move entailed radical changes in lifestyle. V + O : IF + PREP THEN in ⇑ require = involve, mean entangle /ɪntæŋgəl/, entangles, entangling, entangled. 1 If something is entangled in something else, such as a rope, wire, or net, it is caught in it very firmly. EG Suddenly she was entangled in the seaweed. ◊ entangled. EG ...the mass of entangled boughs... ...veils of black netting entangled with silver paper. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN in/with = enmeshed ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If you are entangled in something, you are involved in difficulties from which it is hard to escape. EG They became entangled in a mass of contradictions... The country became entangled in a grave economic crisis. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN in ⇑ involved = embroiled

3 If you are entangled with someone, you are involved in a relationship with them that causes problems or difficulties. EG She got entangled with a pretty awful crook herself... A professional should do his work and not become entangled emotionally. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN with entanglement /ɪntæŋgəlmənt/, entanglements. An entanglement is a relationship with someone, often a sexual one; used showing disapproval. EG For years Uncle Tom avoided entanglements. Then he met his match in Effie Mansell. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN with entente /ɒntɒnt/, ententes. An entente or an entente cordiale is a friendly agreement between two or more countries. EG The entente between Britain and France shows signs of breaking down. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN with/ between ⇑ friendship enter /ɛntə/, enters, entering, entered; a fairly formal word. 1 To enter means to come into or go into a particular place. EG They stopped talking as soon as they saw Brody enter... The island ends in vertical cliffs, the streams entering the sea by waterfalls. V OR V + O = come ≠ leave

2 To enter an organization or institution means to become a member of it. EG I could not enter the university without Latin... He entered Parliament in 1950. V OR V + O = join

3 If you enter a particular activity or situation, you become involved in it. EG She entered politics and was MP for Little Stansmere... She had entered my world. V + O, OR V (into) = come i

4 If something new enters a situation, it is suddenly added to it, often rather unexpectedly. EG A note of resolution entered the bishop's voice... A new factor unfortunately has entered trade union negotiations. V + O, OR V (into) = creep i

5 To enter a new period of time or process means to begin it. EG I entered my second year at university... The industry entered a period of lower growth. V + O, OR V (into) = go into

6 If you enter a competition, race, or examination, you take part in it. EG I entered one or two competitions and won prizes... Exxon, the largest oil company, may enter the takeover game. V OR V + O ⇑ particip

7 If you enter someone else for a race or competition, you register their name with the organizers so that they can take part. EG They had pooled their meagre savings to enter the horse in the Derby. V + O, OR V (in/into)

8 To enter something in a notebook, register, financial account, etc, means to write it down. EG Enter it in the cash book. V + O, OR V (in/for) = record enter into. 1 When you enter into something important, serious, or complicated, you start to do it or to become involved in it, expecting that it will take a long time to be completed. EG No correspondence will be entered into... The Labour Government refused to enter into negotiations... The particulars are too long to enter into here. PHRASAL VI PREP, HAS P

2 Something that enters into something is an important or necessary consideration or factor in it. EG Obviously personal relationships enter into balances of power... Money doesn't enter into it at all... Calling on my mother didn't enter into our original plan. PHRASAL VI PREP, HAS P ⇑ affect come into enter upon. When you enter upon something, you start to do it or become involved in it; a rather formal expression. EG Brandt entered upon this new policy in the 1960s. PHRASAL VE PREP, HAS P = embark enterprise /ɛntəpraɪz/, enterprises. 1 An enterprise is 1.1 a company or business. EG ...large industrial enterprises... ...India's most famous capitalistic enterprise, the Tata steel firm. 1.2 something new, difficult, or important that you do or try to do. EG He said he had doubts about the whole enterprise. N COUNT : US SUPP / N COUNT : US SUPP ⇑ deed = venture

2 Enterprise is 2.1 a system of business, especially one in a particular country. EG This has done much to cripple national enterprise. 2.2 the ability to think of new and effective things to do, together with an eagerness to do them; used showing approval. EG ...men of enterprise, energy, and ambition. N UNCOUNT : +SUPP / N UNCOUNT : ⇑ boldness = initiativ enterprising /ɛntəpraɪzɪŋ/. Someone who is enterprising shows the ability to think of new things to do and has an eagerness to do them. EG You are no longer the enterprising cook that once you were. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ inventive = adventu entertain /ɛntəteɪn/, entertains, entertaining, entertained. 1 To entertain people or to entertain means 1.1 to do things which other people, especially an audience, enjoy and find interesting or amusing. EG We entertained the guests with a detailed description of the party... A series of popular talks intended to inform and entertain. 1.2 to give someone food and hospitality, for example by inviting them to your house. EG She never entertained... He had a beautiful house and entertained all the eminent people. V OR V + O = amuse / V OR V + O

2 If you entertain an idea or suggestion, you allow yourself to consider it as possible or as worth thinking about seriously. EG I wondered what on earth could have led me to entertain so ludicrous a suspicion. V + O : NO IMP = harbour entertainer /ɛntəteɪnə/, entertainers. An entertainer is a person whose job is to amuse and please audiences, for example by telling jokes, singing, or dancing. EG She was one of the last entertainers to survive from the Edwardian music hall. N COUNT ⇑ performe entertaining /ɛntəteɪnɪŋ/. 1 People or things that are entertaining are amusing and full of interest and ADJ QUALIT = fun

herefore give people pleasure. EG Films should be entertaining... She is full of entertaining stories.

Entertaining is hospitality that you give to guests. EG Public relations executives usually have more entertaining to do than, say, personnel managers... ...business entertaining.

N UNCOUNT

entertainment /ɛntəteɪnmə²nt/, entertainments. 1 Entertainment is shows, performances, films, etc, that people watch for pleasure. EG ...the entertainment business... He performs magical tricks for entertainment... This was not Morris's idea of an evening's entertainment.

N UNCOUNT

2 An entertainment is a performance which people watch for pleasure. EG Jennifer O'Neill heads the cast of this original entertainment.

N COUNT = show

enthral /ɪ²nθrɔ:l/, enthrals, enthralling, enthralled; also spelled enthraling and enthraled in American English. To enthral someone means to hold their attention and interest completely, for example by showing or telling them something which pleases or delights them. EG Daniel was enthralled by the book. ◊ enthralling. EG ...all the enthralling details of a well-equipped wedding.

V + O : USU PASS. IF + PREP THEN by/with = engross, captivate ◊ ADJ QUALIT = riveting

enthrone /ɪ²nθrəʊn/, enthrones, enthroning, enthroned. 1 When kings, queens, or bishops are enthroned, they officially take on their role during a ceremony in which they are placed on a throne; used in formal English.

V + O : USU PASS ⇑ instal = crown

2 To enthrone an idea means to give it a prominent place in your life or thoughts because you consider it to be very important; used in formal English. EG They wanted to help their Russian brethren to enthrone socialism.

V + O, OR V + O + A : USU PASS ⇑ exalt = elevate enthronement /ɪ²nθrəʊnmə²nt/, enthronements. An enthronement is 1 a ceremony to mark the start of the reign of a king, queen, or bishop. EG ...the enthronement of George Neville as Archbishop of York. 2 the act of giving something a prominent place in your life or thoughts because you consider it to be very important. EG ...the enthronement of reason.

N COUNT : USU the + N + of ⇑ installation

N SING WITH DET + SUPP ⇑ elevation

enthuse /ɪ²nθj⁰u:z/, enthuses, enthusing, enthused. 1 If you enthuse over something, you talk about it in a way that shows that you are excited and pleased about it. EG She was enthusing innocently but trivially over something that had caught her eye... 'Brilliant,' he enthused.

V + A (over/about), OR V + QUOTE = rave

2 If something enthuses you, you feel excited and enthusiastic about it. EG ...a speech which will certainly enthuse Labour's activists.

V + O : USU PASS ⇑ stimulate = encourage enthusiasm /ɪ²nθj⁰u:zɪæzɔ⁰m/, enthusiasms. 1 Enthusiasm is great eagerness to be involved in a particular activity, because it is something you like and enjoy or that you think is important. EG Some years ago he had embarked with great enthusiasm on an ambitious critical project... ...her enthusiasm for the theatre.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = passion

2 An enthusiasm is an activity or subject that interests you a great deal and that you spend a lot of time on. EG Pop music, together with football, is the chief enthusiasm of the post-war average man.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ interest = passion enthusiast /ɪ²nθj⁰u:zɪæst/, enthusiasts. An enthusiast is a person who is very interested in a particular activity or subject and who feels strongly about it. EG ...a great soccer enthusiast.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP = fanatic enthusiastic /ɪ²nθj⁰u:zi¹æstɪk/. If you are enthusiastic about something, you show a lot of excitement, eagerness, or approval of it by the way that you behave and talk. EG Sarah is very enthusiastic about learning to read... Enthusiastic crowds filled the streets. ▸ used of things that people do and say. EG The response was enthusiastic. ◊ enthusiastically. EG I responded very enthusiastically.

ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN about ⇑ eager = excited, exuberant ◊ ADV

entice /ɪ²ntaɪs/, entices, enticing, enticed. If you entice someone away from a particular thing, place, or activity to another one, you attract them away from the first one to the second one. EG He enticed his former employer into another dice game... An attempt is being made to entice otters back to the river.

V + O = lure, tempt enticing /ɪ²ntaɪsɪŋ/. Something that is enticing is extremely attractive and has the effect of tempting you. EG Tanya's invitation seemed too enticing to refuse. ◊ enticingly.

ADJ QUALIT = tempting ◊ ADV WITH VB

entire /ɪ²ntaɪə/ is used to refer to 1 the whole of something, including all the details, parts, or aspects of it. EG That fact alone changed the entire situation... I had resolved to tell nobody, to shoulder the entire burden myself... He took to pieces and reassembled an entire engine. 2 the whole of a particular period of time. EG He retired at the age of 62, having spent his entire career on Wall Street... That was the only time in my entire life that I was off this farm. 3 the whole of a particular place or area. EG There's a huge geological fault running through the entire State... We've covered the entire wall with beer mats.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

entirely /ɪ²ntaɪəli¹/. 1 Entirely means 1.1 completely and only in the way mentioned, without anyone or anything else being included or involved. EG It was entirely the work of these women's organizations... In its early days the school was attended almost entirely by 'problem' children... It was the most heavenly stew, made entirely of parsnips and herbs. 1.2 all the time and without any exception or change. EG We all lived out our lives entirely on the farm.

ADV = exclusively

ADV WITH VB

2 Entirely is also used to emphasize what you are saying. EG I must say I agree entirely... McGovern had told them something entirely different from what he had told me... It seems to me the change was not entirely an improvement... He seemed entirely at ease.

ADV = totally entirety /ɪ²ntaɪərɪti¹/. If something is used or affected in a particular way in its entirety, the whole of it is used or affected in that way, without any exception. EG If published it must be published in its entirety... The agricultural surplus was taken over almost in its entirety by the ruler.

PHR : USED AS AN A = in part entitle /ɪ²ntaɪtə⁰l/, entitles, entitling, entitled. 1 If something entitles you to have something or do something, it gives you the right to have it or do it. EG Their educational qualifications entitle them to a higher salary... Women aged 60 and over are entitled to free prescriptions.

V + O + A (to) USU PASS = qualify

2 If a book, film, painting, etc is entitled, for example, 'Sunrise', this means that its title is 'Sunrise'. EG ...a report entitled 'Attitudes Towards Geriatrics.'

V + O + C (NAME) USU PASS ⇑ name entitlement /ɪ²ntaɪtə⁰lmə²nt/, entitlements. Entitlement to something is the right to have it or do it; a formal word.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

entity /ɛntɪti¹/, entities. An entity is a complete, separate thing that is not divided and that is not part of anything else; a formal word. EG When do children start being aware of themselves as separate entities?

N COUNT : USU SUPP ⇑ individual

entomb /ɪ²ntu:m/, entombs, entombing, entombed; a fairly formal word. 1 If something is entombed, it is buried or trapped underground. EG The site is now entombed in the foundations of a block of luxury flats.

V + O : USU PASS = bury

2 When a person's dead body is entombed, it is put into a grave or tomb. EG ...the linen cloth in which the body of Christ was entombed.

V + O : USU PASS = bury

entomology /ɛntə⁶mɒlədʒi¹/ is the study of insects. ◊ entomologist, entomologists.

N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT

entourage /ɒnturɑ:ʒ/, entourages. The entourage of someone famous or important is the group of assistants, servants, or other people who travel with them. EG Among his entourage was a retired general.

N COUNT : USU WITH POSS = retinue

entrails /ɛntreɪlz/. The entrails of people or animals are their inside parts, especially their intestines.

N PLURAL = guts

entrance, entrances, entrancing, entranced. The word entrance is pronounced /ɛntrəns/ when it is a noun, and /ɪ²ntrɑ:ns/ when it is a verb. 1 An entrance is a way into a place, for example a door or gate. EG ...the entrance to the National Gallery... We camped near the entrance of the water-filled gorge.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN to/into/of ⇑ opening = entry

2 Someone's entrance is 2.1 their arrival in a room or building. EG She had only broken off to acknowledge our entrance. 2.2 the way that they arrive in a room, especially when they try to be noticed and admired. EG The ripples created by her entrance had not yet subsided... Her father would make a sudden, startling entrance. 2.3 their coming on to the stage when they are in a play; a technical term in the theatre. EG I remember her making a most effective entrance in a melodramatic play.

N COUNT : USU POSS + N

N COUNT : USU POSS + N = entry ≠ exit

N COUNT : USU POSS + N ⇑ arrival ≠ exit

3 If you gain entrance to a particular place, you are able to go in it. EG I denied him entrance... They must produce identity cards before they can gain entrance to the proceedings.

N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to/into ⇑ access = entry

4 If you gain entrance to a particular profession, society, or institution, you are accepted as a member of it. EG Entrance to the professions is open to many

N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to/into more people... She had failed her college entrance exams.

5 If you are given an entrance to a particular activity, system, or group of people, you are given a means of becoming involved with it. EG His father's reputation gave him an entrance to a wide circle of people.

N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN to/into ⇑ access = introduction

6 If something entrances you, it causes you to feel delight and wonder. EG The novelties and souvenirs simply entranced her. ◊ entranced. EG Everyone sat entranced. ◊ entrancing. EG He had the most entrancing generosity.

V + O : USU PASS = captivate ◊ ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADJ QUALIT

entrance fee, entrance fees. An entrance fee is a sum of money which you pay before you enter a cinema, museum, etc, or which you have to pay in order to join an organization. EG He used to look at the pictures outside cinemas, unable to afford the entrance fee.

N COUNT = entry fee

entrant /ɛntrənt/, entrants. An entrant is a person who has recently become or is about to become a member of an institution, such as a university. EG 400,000 hopeful entrants sat university entrance exams. 2 a person who is taking part in a competition. EG Each entrant plays the music of their choice.

N COUNT ⇑ participant = competitor

entrap /ɪ²ntræp/, entraps, entrapping, entrapped. If you entrap someone or something, you trap them by tricking or deceiving them; a formal word.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN in, USU PASS

entrapment /ɪ²ntræpmə²nt/ is the practice of arresting someone by using unfair or illegal methods; a technical term in law. EG ...victims of entrapment and government misconduct.

N UNCOUNT/ UNCOUNT

entreat /ɪ²ntri:t/, entreats, entreating, entreated. If you entreat someone to do something, you ask them very humbly and seriously to do it; a formal word. EG He entreated her not to be angry.

V + O, OR V + O + to-INF = implore entreaty /ɪ²ntri:ti¹/, entreaties. An entreaty is a humble and serious request; a formal word. EG Nobody listened to my entreaties... Entreaty failed, so I tried threats.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = pleading

entrée /ɒntreɪ/, entrées. 1 The entrée to a particular place or group of people is the right to enter that place or to be accepted and welcomed by that group. EG I have the entrée into his house... She hopes one day to regain her entrée to polite society.

N SING WITH DET + SUPP ⇑ acceptance

2 An entrée is the main course of a meal or, in very formal banquets, a dish eaten immediately before the main course. EG He ordered the most expensive hors d'oeuvre and entrée that the restaurant offered... ...during the lull between the entrée and dessert.

N COUNT ⇑ course

entrench /ɪ²ntrɛntʃ/, entrenches, entrenching, entrenched. If something such as power, a custom, or an idea is entrenched, it is firmly and strongly established, so that it would be difficult to change it. EG He was well entrenched, but the final power in the business lay with someone else. The Nationalists entrenched their power further by adding six seats to the Parliament. ◊ entrenched. EG ...strongly entrenched ideas... ...the entrenched power of the landed nobility.

V + O : USU PASS = strengthen ◊ ADJ QUALIT : USU ADV + ADJ

entrenchment /ɪ²ntrɛntʃmə²nt/, entrenchments. An entrenchment is a series of trenches which are dug for defence by soldiers in war.

N COUNT ⇑ earthworks entrepreneur /ɒntrəprənɜ:/, entrepreneurs. An entrepreneur is a person who sets up business deals in order to make a profit. EG Entrepreneurs with a belief in the future potential of the market... ...a creative entrepreneur.

N COUNT ⇑ businessman entrepreneurial /ɒntrəprənɜ:rɪəl/ means having the qualities that are needed for people to succeed as entrepreneurs. EG ...competitive, entrepreneurial capitalism.

ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ commercial entropy /ɛntrəpi¹/ is, in formal English, a state of disorder, confusion, and disorganization.

N UNCOUNT = chaos

entrust /ɪ²ntrʌst/, entrusts, entrusting, entrusted. If you entrust something important to someone or entrust them with it, you give them the responsibility of looking after it or dealing with it. EG Children are too young to be entrusted with family money... It was a task the Foreign Secretary had entrusted to him.

V + O + A (to/ with) ⇑ trust entry /ɛntri¹/, entries. 1 An entry is 1.1 a way into a place, for example a door or gate. EG ...the pretty screen at the entry to Hyde Park... The entry is up the Royal Staircase. 1.2 a brief note or group of figures written in a diary or account book or put onto a computer. EG Let me look up the entries for mid-June. 1.3 a short article about something or someone in a dictionary or encyclopedia. EG I was in the library looking up the entry for the French President in the Encyclopaedia Britannica. 1.4 a piece of work, such as a story or drawing, or the answers to a set of questions, which you complete in order to take part in a competition. EG Here are some extracts from the five winning entries. 1.5 the total number of people taking part in an event or competition, or joining an institution or school class. EG In 1914 the entry for the Championship had grown to 194... The sixth form entry went down slightly this year.

N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN to/into ⇑ access = introduction N COUNT + SUPP = reference N COUNT = submission N COUNT : USU SING

2 A person's entry is 2.1 their arrival in a particular place. EG At Derek's entry a few heads turned. 2.2 the way that they arrive in a room, especially when they try to be noticed and admired. EG He made his entry as Napoleon.

N COUNT N COUNT ⇑ arrival = entrance

3 If you are allowed entry into a country, a building, etc, you are allowed to go in it. EG Many of his associates were deported from, or refused entry to, Britain... The gallery will be open Sunday afternoons from next weekend. Entry will be free.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ access = admission

4 The words no entry are used on signs to indicate that you are not allowed to go into a particular area or through a particular door or gate. EG There was a 'no entry' sign on the gate.

= no thoroughfare

5 Someone's entry into a particular society or group is their joining of it. EG He succeeded in negotiating British entry into the European Community... It provided the occasion for his entry into national politics.

N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to/ into = entrance

6 Entry in a competition is the act of taking part in it. EG Entry is free to all readers... Send the completed entry form to the magazine by 10th December 1986.

N UNCOUNT, OR N BEFORE N ⇑ participation

7 The entry of information into a computer is the process of putting it in. EG They welcomed this new system for rapid data entry.

N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = input entry fee, entry fees; also spelled with a hyphen. An entry fee is an entrance fee.

N COUNT

entryism /ɛntri¹ɪzə⁰m/ is the policy or practice of trying to gain political power by joining and taking over an existing political party, rather than by establishing a new party or by using other means.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ infiltration

entwine /ɪ²ntwaɪn/, entwines, entwining, entwined. If you entwine something in something else, you twist it in and around that thing. EG One second later her fingers were entwined in my own.

V ERG : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN in/with enumerate /ɪ¹nju:mərеɪt/, enumerates, enumerating, enumerated. When you enumerate a list of things, you name each one in turn. EG I don't quite know where to begin in enumerating the innovations. ◊ enumeration /ɪ¹nju:mərеɪʃə⁰n/.

V + O ⇑ state ◊ N UNCOUNT

enunciate /ɪ¹nʌnsɪeɪt/, enunciates, enunciating, enunciated; a formal word. When you enunciate a word or part of a word, you pronounce it clearly. EG You must enunciate your consonants more clearly. ◊ enunciation /ɪ¹nʌnsɪеɪʃə⁰n/. EG ...the art of vocal enunciation.

V, OR V + O/ QUOTE = articulate ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 When you enunciate a thought, idea, or plan, you express it very clearly and precisely. EG No one doubts his ability to enunciate policies which connect with popular need. ◊ enunciation. EG ...Rutherford's enunciation of atomic structure.

V + O/QUOTE ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ expression

envelop /ɪ²nvɛləp/, envelops, enveloping, enveloped. To envelop something means to cover, surround, or enclose it completely. EG She was enveloped in an ill-fitting sacklike garment... ...that certain honesty that seems to envelop everything he does.

V + O = engulf

envelope /ɛnvəlɔup, ɒn-/, envelopes. An envelope is a rectangular paper cover in which a letter is sent to someone through the post. EG The solicitor took a sealed envelope from the folder... She opened the envelope and drew out the contents.

N COUNT

enviable /ɛnvɪəbə⁰l/ is used to describe things, qualities, or situations that you wish you had yourself. EG ...a nice man, whose job was not as enviable as it appeared to be... She learned to speak foreign languages with enviable fluency... You are in a position that many would consider enviable.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ attractive = superb envious /ɛnvɪəs/. Someone who is envious of someone else envies them. EG Ralph watched them, envious and resentful. ▸ used of people's behaviour and expressions. EG Envious glances were cast at Anne.

ADJ QUALIT = jealous, covetous

◊ enviously. EG They were watched enviously by the rest of the crowd. ◊ ADV WITH VB

environment /ɪˈnvaɪrənˈmaɪənt/, environments. 1 Someone's environment is 1.1 all the circumstances, people, things, and events around them that influence their life. EG A child can easily adjust to changes in its environment... Could the college provide a stimulating environment?... It was cruel to plunge her into such a totally alien environment and culture... Are we more influenced by environment or heredity? 1.2 the particular surroundings in which they live or exist, especially a region that has particular land, sea, or weather conditions. EG There could scarcely be a less promising environment for an amphibian than the desert... Science offers us total mastery over our environment and over our destiny. N COUNT ; UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = surroundings / N COUNT : USU SING + SUPP = habitat

3 The environment is the natural world of land, sea, air, plants, and animals that exists around towns and cities. EG We are fighting pollution to protect the environment... ...the Secretary of State for the Environment. N SING : the + N ⇑ nature environmental /ɪˈnvaɪrənˈmentəl/ means 1 concerned with or relating to the natural world in which we live. EG ...the environmental group Greenpeace... ...pesticides, herbicides, and all kinds of environmental pollutants. ◊ environmentally. EG ...a worldwide campaign against the environmentally unacceptable use of pesticides. 2 relating to or caused by the surroundings in which a person or animal lives. EG Clearly it is responding to environmental change or stimuli... Corals are very demanding in their environmental requirements. ◊ environmentally. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ◊ ADV environmentalist /ɪˈnvaɪrənˈmentəlɪst/, environmentalists. An environmentalist is a person who wants to protect and preserve the natural environment, for example by preventing pollution. EG Environmentalists have been protesting about the destruction of Amazon rain forests. N COUNT = conservationist environs /ɪˈnvaɪrənz/. The environs of a place are the area immediately surrounding it. EG ...the national press that inhabits Fleet Street and its environs... ...the environs of Istanbul. N PLURAL WITH POSS ⇑ surroundings = neighbourhood envisage /ɪˈnvɪzɪdʒ/, envisages, envisaging, envisaged. If you envisage a situation or state of affairs, you imagine it as being true, real, or likely to happen, especially in the future. EG The last forecast envisaged inflation falling to about 10 per cent... The party envisages that socialism can come without civil war. V + O/REPORT-CL ⇑ foresee envision /ɪˈnvɪʒəˈn/, envisions, envisioning, envisioned. If you envision something, you envisage it; used in American English. V + O/REPORT-CL envoy /ɛnvɔɪ/, envoys. An envoy is 1 someone who is sent as a messenger, especially from one government to another. EG The U.S. special envoy made a surprise announcement. 2 a diplomat in an embassy who is immediately below the ambassador in rank. N COUNT = emissary / N COUNT envy /ɛnviˈ/, envies, envying, envied. 1 Envy is the feeling you have when you wish you could have the same thing or quality that someone else has. EG Her undisputed good looks caused envy and admiration. N UNCOUNT ⇑ emotion

2 If you envy someone, you wish that you had the same things or qualities that they have. EG You know, I envy a person like Jaykar very much... It would be unfair to envy him his good fortune. V + O, OR V + O + O ⇑ desire

3 If a thing or quality is the envy of a particular person, they wish very much that they could have or achieve it. EG Such a good time would be the envy of many of today's marathon runners. ● green with envy: see green. PHR : USED AS C enzyme /ɛnzaɪm/, enzymes. An enzyme is a chemical substance that is found in living creatures which produces changes in other substances without being changed itself, for example the digestive enzymes in your stomach; a technical term in biology and medicine. EG ...a rare enzyme deficiency. N COUNT ⇑ catalyst eon /iːɔˈn/, eons. See aeon.

EP /iː piː/, EPs. An EP is a record which is designed to be played at either 33 rpm or 45 rpm and which lasts for about 8 minutes on each side; an abbreviation for 'extended play'. N COUNT

epaulet /ɛpəlɛˈt/, epaulets; also spelled epaulette. An epaulet is a decoration worn on the shoulder of certain uniforms, especially military ones. EG There were narrow gold epaulets at the shoulders of his tunic. N COUNT ephemeral /iˈfɛməˈrəl/. Something that is ephemeral lasts only for a very short time; a fairly literary word. EG ...the ephemeral nature of fads and fashions. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ transitory epic /ɛpɪk/, epics. 1 An epic is a book, poem, or film which is longer or larger than others of its type, and which tells a story of heroic deeds. EG ...the latest James Bond epic... ...a historical epic of great richness. N COUNT : USU MOD + N

2 Something that is described as epic is considered to be very impressive or ambitious. EG ...the beginning of that epic 6,000 mile retreat... ...his triumphant return after his epic voyage. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ great epicentre /ɛpiˈsɛntə/, epicentres. The epicentre of an earthquake is the place where the earthquake starts. EG We could see that the damage was worse as the epicentre was approached. N COUNT epicure /ɛpɪkjʊə/, epicures. An epicure is a person who enjoys eating food which is of very good quality; a formal, old-fashioned word. N COUNT = gourmet epidemic /ɛpɪdɛmɪk/, epidemics. An epidemic is 1 the occurrence of a disease which affects a very large number of people living in an area and which spreads quickly to other people. EG ...an influenza epidemic... There was an epidemic of yellow fever in Philadelphia. 2 the rapid development and spread of something. EG When tennis became fashionable there was an epidemic of white socks and canvas shoes. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ outbreak / N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ outbreak epidermis /ɛpɪdɜːmɪs/. Your epidermis is the thin, protective, outer layer of your skin. EG These cells are just under the epidermis. N SING : the/POSS + N epiglottis /ɛpɪglɒtɪs/, epiglottises or epiglottides. Your epiglottis is the thin flap at the back of your tongue which closes when you swallow food in order to prevent the food from going down your windpipe. N COUNT epigram /ɛpɪgræm/, epigrams. An epigram is a short saying or poem which expresses an idea in a very clever and amusing way. EG ...brilliant epigrams of his own invention. N COUNT epigrammatic /ɛpɪgrəmætɪk/. Something that is epigrammatic is like an epigram. EG ...almost epigrammatic jokes. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ snappy epilepsy /ɛpɪlɛpsiˈ/ is a brain condition which causes a person suddenly to lose consciousness and sometimes to have violent fits. EG He couldn't take that job at the zoo because of his epilepsy. N UNCOUNT / ⇑ condition epileptic /ɛpɪlɛptɪk/, epileptics. 1 Epileptic means caused by epilepsy or suffering from epilepsy. EG He fell into my arms in an epileptic fit. 2 An epileptic is a person who suffers from epilepsy. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / N COUNT epilogue /ɛpɪlɒg/, epilogues. An epilogue is a passage or speech which is added to the end of a book or play as a conclusion. EG The novel ends with an epilogue in the form of a poem. N COUNT ≠ prologue

Epiphany /iˈpɪfəniˈ/ is a Christian festival held on January 6th, which commemorates the arrival of the three wise men who came to see Jesus Christ soon after he was born. N UNCOUNT episcopal /iˈpɪskəpəˈl/; often spelled with a capital letter, especially for paragraph 2. 1 Episcopal is used to describe the activities, duties, responsibilities, etc, of a bishop or bishops. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 The Episcopal Church is a branch of the Anglican Church in Scotland and America. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

Episcopalian /iˈpɪskəpeɪlɪən/. 1 Episcopalian means belonging to an Episcopal Church. EG They were married by an Episcopalian minister in Boston. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ Christian

2 An Episcopalian is a member of an Episcopal church. N COUNT ⇑ Christian episode /ɛpɪsəʊd/, episodes. 1 An episode is a period or event in which something exciting, sad, or important has happened. EG A wartime episode had demonstrated his judgement of men... Has this episode changed your way of working or your attitude?... A series of isolated episodes from history. N COUNT : USU MOD + N ⇑ happening

2 An episode of a book or play is one part of it when it is appearing in several parts over a period of time, for example on television, on the radio, in a magazine, etc. EG At the end of the first episode the kidnapper finally makes an appearance... Subsequent episodes will go out on Tuesdays on ITV. N COUNT = instalment episodic /ɛpɪsɒdɪk/. Something that is episodic occurs at irregular and infrequent intervals; a formal word. ADJ QUALIT = intermittent, sporadic epistle /ɪˈpɪsəˀl/, epistles. 1 An epistle is a letter; a formal word, sometimes used humorously. EG ...a smudged, greasy, and tear-stained epistle which I received the other day. N COUNT

2 An Epistle is also one of the books in the New Testament which were originally written as letters to early Christians by the apostles. EG ...the First Epistle to the Corinthians. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ letter epistolary /ɪˈpɪstələˀrɪ/. An epistolary novel or story is one that is presented in the form of a series of letters; a formal word. EG There's a whole chapter on how to write an epistolary novel. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB epitaph /ɛpɪtɑːf, -tæf/, epitaphs. An epitaph is a short description, thought, or message about someone who is dead, often written on their gravestone. EG He began to collect old books of epitaphs. N COUNT ⇑ inscription epithet /ɛpɪθɛt/, epithets. An epithet is an adjective or short, descriptive phrase which is used in praise or criticism of someone. EG No one could have denied to him the epithet of handsome... ...the most vulgar kind of racial epithets. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

epitome /ɪˈpɪtəmɪ/. The epitome of something is the thing that is considered to be the most typical example of its sort; a formal word. EG His wealth of knowledge made him seem ageless and the epitome of a philosopher... ...the very epitome of Eastern grace and confidence. N SING : the + N + of ⇑ example = model epitomize /ɪˈpɪtəmaɪz/, epitomizes, epitomizing, epitomized; also spelled epitomise. If something epitomizes something else, it is a perfect or very typical example of this thing. EG His failure epitomizes that of the whole movement... Conrad's novel epitomised both the good and the evil in Victorian society. V + O ⇑ exemplify = typify epoch /iːpɒk/, epochs. An epoch is a long period of time which is marked by an important event or series of events, often causing a great change in people's lives. EG We are at the end of one historical epoch, and at the dawn of another. N COUNT + SUPP = age epoch-making. Something that is epoch-making is considered to be extremely important or significant. EG ...Needham's epoch-making account of Chinese science and civilization. ADJ CLASSIF = momentous ≠ petty eponymous /ɪˈpɒnɪməs/. An eponymous hero or heroine is the character in a play or book whose name is the title of that play or book; a literary term. EG ...Cedric, the eponymous hero of Little Lord Fauntleroy. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

Epsom salts /ɛpsəˀm sɔlts/ is a white powder which you can mix with water and drink as a medicine to help you empty your bowels. N PLURAL ⇑ purgative equable /ɛkwəbəˀl/. Someone who is equable is always fair and reasonable, even in difficult circumstances. EG 'Oh yes, sir.' Bond's voice was patient, equable. ◊ equably. EG 'Ladies first, Hans,' says William equably. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB equal /iːkwəl/, equals, equalling, equalled; also spelled equaling and equaled in American English. 1 If two things are equal or if one thing is equal to another, they are 1.1 the same in size, number, or amount. EG The cake was divided into twelve equal parts... Mix together equal parts of coarse salt and soda crystals. A table-tennis ball is roughly equal in size to a golf ball. 1.2 of the same standard. EG ...cars that are at least equal to the imports. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ identical ≠ unequal ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to = comparable

2 Equal is used with a noun that describes a feeling or quality to say that this feeling or quality is present to the same extent as in another person or thing. EG The prevailing creed is held with equal fervour by all political parties. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = as much

3 If you treat people on an equal basis or give them equal rights, you treat them all in the same way and consider them to have the same rights as each other without considering their sex, status or race. EG There is a trend towards equal opportunities for men and women. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = identical ≠ unequal

4 If you say that people are or should be equal, you mean that everyone has or should have the same rights and opportunities as each other. EG All men are equal. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ⇑ alike

5 Someone who is your equal has the same ability, status, or rights and responsibilities as you have. EG ...his intellectual equals... Women should be the legal equals of men. N COUNT : WITH POSS ⇑ peer

6 If someone is equal to a particular job or situation, they have the necessary ability, strength or courage to deal successfully with it. EG The staff are not equal to all these demands. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to

7 If something equals a particular number or amount, it is the exact equivalent of it. EG 79 minus 14 equals 65... The standard dry measure then in use equalled twenty litres. V + C

8 To equal something or someone means to be as good, to do as well, or in some other way to be of the same standard as them. EG Few cars can equal a Ferrari for speed... ...specialized institutions, of which many now equalled the universities in repute. V + O = match, rival

9 If you say that one thing equals another thing, you are comparing them and saying that they are both as remarkable as each other. EG My respect for your intelligence is only equalled by my admiration for your integrity... I had seen nothing to equal the extravagance of her flowers. V + O : USU + BROAD NEG ⇑ match

10 If you are on equal terms with someone or two people do something on equal terms, neither person has any advantage over the other or is regarded as being superior or better in any way. EG This law enables British shipbuilders to compete on equal terms with foreign yards. He was the first black man I got to know on equal terms. PHR : USED AS AN A on a level

11 If you say 'Other things being equal', you mean that a situation is or will be the case if nothing unexpected happens or if there are no other factors which affect it. EG This would lead, other things being equal, to a price increase of not less than 2%... Education is a good thing, other things being equal. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

12 If something has no equal, there is nothing that is as good as it or that reaches the same standard. EG ...an act of charity that has no equal in modern times. PHR : VB INFLECTS = be unsurpassed equality /ɪˈkwɒlɪtɪ/ is the same status, rights and responsibilities for all the members of a society, group or family. EG Equality was a matter of official policy... ...equality of opportunity... Equality does not guarantee happiness in love. N UNCOUNT ≠ inequality equalize /iːkwəlaɪz/, equalizes, equalizing, equalized; also spelled equalise. 1 To equalize something such as a situation means to give everyone the same rights or opportunities in a particular area, for example society, education, wealth, etc. EG It was thought that comprehensive schools would help to equalize society... Capital taxation will play a major part in equalizing the distribution of wealth. ◊ equalization /iːkwəlaɪzeɪʃəˀn/. EG ...the equalization of wealth through taxation. V + O, OR V ⇑ balance = level ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 In a game such as football, if a team or player equalizes, they score a goal that makes the score of the two teams equal. EG England equalized at the beginning of the second half. V equalizer /iːkwəlaɪzə/, equalizers. In a game such as football, an equalizer is a goal that makes the score of the two teams equal. EG The equalizer came only minutes before the final whistle. N COUNT equally /iːkwəlɪ/. 1 Equally means 1.1 in sections, amounts, or spaces, that are the same size as each other. EG The fence posts should be equally spaced. On his death the land was divided equally between them. 1.2 to the same degree or extent as other people. EG Men and women must become equally responsible for bringing up children... ...two equally qualified men. 1.3 to the same degree or extent as someone or something else that has already been mentioned. EG Irene was equally brilliant in timing and expertise... The sky seemed equally endless and desolate... Another tree of the same species, equally enormous, grew a stone's throw further on. ADV WITH VB ⇑ evenly ≠ unequally ADV + ADJ/ADV ADV + ADJ/ADV = just as

2 Equally is also used to introduce another comment on the same topic, which balances or contrasts with the previous comment. EG Each country must find its own solution to unemployment.–Equally, each must find its own way of coping with inflation. ADV SEN = by the same token equals sign, equals signs. An equals sign is the sign =, which is used in arithmetic to indicate that two numbers or sets of numbers are equal. N COUNT ⇑ symbol equanimity /ɛkwənɪmɪtɪ/ is a calm state of mind and attitude to life, so that you never lose your temper or become very upset; a formal word. EG They were content to accept their defeat with equanimity. N UNCOUNT : USU with + N ⇑ calmness equate /ɪˈkweɪt/, equates, equating, equated. If you equate a particular thing with something else, you say or believe that it is similar to or equal to this other thing. EG They equated socialism with the V + O + A (with/to) = identify welfare state... It is imperative that war should on no account be equated with glory.

equation /ɪˈkweɪʒəⁿn/, equations. An equation is 1 a mathematical statement saying that two amounts or values are the same, for example 6x4=12x2. EG The solution can be expressed crudely, by a mathematical equation. 2 a situation or problem in which two or more parts have to be considered together so that the whole situation or problem can be understood or explained. EG We have to consider the demand and the supply side of the economic equation.

N COUNT

N COUNT

equator /ɪˈkweɪtə/. The equator is an imaginary line drawn round the middle of the earth at an equal distance from the North Pole and the South Pole. EG The Galapagos lie scattered across the equator.

N PROPER : the + N

equatorial /ɛkwəˈtɔːrɪəl/. Something that is equatorial is near or at the equator. EG Too much rain is the problem of the equatorial lands in the Amazon and Congo basins.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

equerry /ɪˈkwɛrɪˈ/, equerries. An equerry is an officer of a royal household or court who acts as a personal assistant to a member of the royal family.

N COUNT

equestrian /ɪˈkwɛstrɪən/. Equestrian means connected with the activity of riding horses. EG ...a colossal equestrian statue of the Duke of Wellington... ...equestrian gloves.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

equidistant /iːkwɪdɪstənt/. A place that is equidistant from two other places is the same distance away from each of these places. EG These places on the Continent lay conveniently equidistant between Lionel's various offices.

ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ⇑ positioned

equilateral /iːkwɪlætəˈrəl/. A shape or figure that is equilateral has sides that are all the same length; a mathematical term. EG ...a tiny equilateral triangle.

ADJ CLASSIF

equilibrium /iːkwɪlɪbrɪəm/, equilibria; a formal word. 1 Equilibrium is 1.1 a balance existing between several different influences or aspects of a situation so that none is more important or powerful than another. EG I believe this state of equilibrium, evident at the end of the second year, will be maintained. 1.2 a calm state of mind and attitude to life in which you are able to control your feelings and emotions so that you are never very angry or upset for a long time. EG Change in the world around us disturbs our inner equilibrium.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

N UNCOUNT = composure ≠ turmoil

2 If something is in equilibrium it is in a state or condition in which no influence or aspect of a situation is more important or powerful than another. EG We must reduce the rise of unemployment in order to keep the economy in equilibrium.

PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ stable

equine /ɛkwaɪn/ means 1 connected with or relating to horses. EG ...research into equine health. 2 looking like a horse. EG ...a long, slightly equine face.

ADJ CLASSIF ADJ QUALIT

equinox /iːkwɪnɒks, ɛk-/, equinoxes. An equinox is one of the two days in the year when day and night are of equal length. EG ...the autumn equinox.

N COUNT : USU MOD + N ≠ solstice

equip /ɪˈkwɪp/, equips, equipping, equipped. 1 If someone equips you with something, or if you equip yourself with it, you obtain it for a particular purpose. EG They will equip themselves with a great variety of computerised gadgets... You will be equipped with all the weapons you need. ◊ equipped. EG ...a large and well equipped army.

V + O (NG/REFL) : IF + PREP THEN with/for = supply

◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 If something is equipped with a particular device, it contains that device. EG The card will be equipped with a built-in computer chip... Not all microscopes are equipped to do this.

V + O : USU PASS

3 If something equips you for a particular task or experience, it prepares you mentally for it, especially by educating you in a particular way. EG His contribution to the boy's welfare was to equip him for the world in which he would live... Kindness will not equip them to stand on their own feet. ◊ equipped. EG He did not think himself equipped to comment... They were plainly ill equipped to deal with the situation.

V + O (NG/REFL) : IF + PREP THEN for

◊ ADJ QUALIT : PRED, USU ADV + ADJ = fit

equipment /ɪˈkwɪpmə²nt/ consists of the things which are used for a particular purpose, for example a hobby or job. EG ...basic kitchen equipment... This is an important piece of equipment... A fair amount of money goes on equipment and research expenditure... They exported a million dollars' worth of stereo equipment.

N UNCOUNT

equipoise /ɛkwɪpɔɪz/ is a balance existing between several different influences or aspects of a situation so that none is more important or powerful than another; a formal word.

N UNCOUNT = equilibrium equitable /ɛkwɪtəbəˀl/. Something that is equitable is fair and reasonable in a way that gives equal treatment to everyone. EG ...economic growth of a more balanced and equitable kind. ◊ equitably. EG Land would inevitably become more equitably distributed.

ADJ QUALIT = just

◊ ADV

equity /ɛkwɪtɪˈ/ is 1 the quality of being fair and reasonable in a way that gives equal treatment to everyone. EG ...an assurance of equity and social justice. 2 the principle used in law which allows a fair judgement to be made in a case where the existing laws do not provide a reasonable answer to the problem; a technical term in law.

N UNCOUNT = fairness

N UNCOUNT

equivalence /ɪˈkwɪvələns/. If there is equivalence between two things, they have the same use, function, size, or value. EG Can we establish the equivalence of these two values?

N UNCOUNT = correspondence

equivalent /ɪˈkwɪvələˀnt/, equivalents. 1 An equivalent is something that has the same use or function as something else. EG ...Kabutocho, Japan's equivalent of Wall Street... A good quilt can be the equivalent of at least three blankets.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

2 Equivalent means having the same use, function, size, or value as something else. EG Women were paid less than men doing equivalent work... His job was roughly equivalent to that of the State Department's chief.... I wonder if they have equivalent institutions in other countries.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED, IF + PREP THEN to/of = similar ≠ different equivocal /ɪˈkwɪvəkəˀl/. 1 If you say something which is equivocal, it is deliberately vague or ambiguous because you want to avoid speaking the truth; a formal word. EG She gave an equivocal reply. ▸ used of people. EG He found me equivocal on the subject.

ADJ QUALIT ≠ unequivocal

▸ ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED

2 Equivocal behaviour, attitudes, and events are difficult to understand, interpret, or explain. EG The anarchists' attitude to violence is so often equivocal and subjective.

ADJ QUALIT ≠ unequivocal

equivocate /ɪˈkwɪvəkeɪt/, equivocates, equivocating, equivocated. When someone equivocates, they deliberately use vague and ambiguous language in order to deceive people or to avoid speaking the truth. EG For Adams the temptation to equivocate was especially strong. ◊ equivocation /ɪˈkwɪvəˀkeɪʃəⁿn/. EG 'Wishy-washy liberal equivocation,' she shouted.

V = hedge

◊ N UNCOUNT

er /ə, ɜː/ is used to represent 1 the sound that people make when they hesitate, especially while they decide what to say next. EG And it was not until 1845 that, er, Texas became part of the USA... 'Do you want the coach from Cardiff?'–'Er, yes.' 2 the sound that people make when they want to attract someone's attention before speaking. EG Er, ladies and gentlemen, dinner is served.

-er. You add -er 1 to adjectives that have one or two syllables in order to form comparative adjectives. It is also added to some adverbs that do not end in -ly in order to form comparative adverbs. EG ...hard—harder... ...big—bigger... ...simple—simpler... ...pretty—prettier... ...soon—sooner. 2 to verbs to form nouns which refer to a person, animal, or thing that does the action described by the verb; for example a reader is someone who reads and a money-saver is something that saves money. EG ...rob—robber... ...question—questioner... ...cleanse—cleanser. 3 to words to form nouns which refer to a person who is associated or involved with the thing described by the word; for example a pensioner is someone who is entitled to a pension. EG ...teenage—teenager... ...backbench—backbencher. 4 to nouns to form nouns or adjectives which refer to things with a particular characteristic or feature; for example a three-wheeler is a vehicle with three wheels. EG ...double-decker... ...eight-pounder. 5 to words to form nouns which refer to a person with a particular job. EG ...miner... ...hairdresser... ...steelworker. 6 to the names of places to form nouns which refer to a person who comes from that place. EG ...New Zealand—New Zealander... ...London—Londoner... ...island—islander.

SUFFIX : FORMS ADJS/ADVS IN COMPAR

SUFFIX : FORMS NOUNS

SUFFIX : FORMS NOUNS

SUFFIX : FORMS NOUNS OR ADJ CLASSIFS

SUFFIX : FORMS N COUNTS

SUFFIX : FORMS N COUNTS

era /ɪərə/, eras. An era is a continuous period of time that is considered as a single unit because it has a particular feature that makes it notable. EG Such cases have been rare in the post-war era... We are moving swiftly into the era of the temporary prod- uct... Her candidacy marked the beginning of a new era for the party.

N COUNT : USU SUPP = age

eradicate /ɪræ̈dɪkeɪt/, eradicates, eradicating, eradicated. To eradicate something means to destroy it completely; a formal word. EG Why should I be against measures attempting to eradicate the problem altogether?... ...positive and overt efforts to eradicate every trace of discrimination. ◊ eradication /ɪˈræ̈dɪkeɪʃəⁿn/. EG ...the eradication of apartheid. — v+o = eliminate, wipe out; ◊ N UNCOUNT = removal erase /ɪreɪz/, erases, erasing, erased. 1 If you erase a thought or feeling, you destroy it completely so that you can no longer remember something or no longer feel a particular emotion. EG Although he is now a wealthy man he cannot erase the memories of childhood... The whisky erased any uneasiness and soon we were chatting as old friends. — v+o = blot out

2 If you erase sound which has been recorded on a tape or information which has been stored in a computer, you completely remove or destroy it. EG We cannot erase the recording... You can erase those two files. — v+o = wipe, delete

3 If you erase writing, you remove it from somewhere, especially by rubbing it with a rubber or a cloth. — v+o = wipe out

4 To erase something also means to destroy or remove it completely so that it no longer exists; a formal use. EG The process of weathering has erased most craters. — v+o eraser /ɪreɪzə/, erasers. An eraser is a piece of rubber used for rubbing out writing; used especially in formal or American English. EG Try to remove dirt marks with an eraser. — N COUNT = rubber erasure /ɪreɪʒə/, erasures. 1 An erasure is a letter or word that has been removed from a text by being rubbed out; a formal use. EG Every detail of it was written with scarcely an erasure or correction. — N COUNT

2 The erasure of something is the complete loss or destruction of it. — N UNCOUNT : USU +SUPP

ere /eə/ is an old-fashioned or poetic word that means the same as 'before' when it is used to refer to time. EG Sam well knew this habit of hers and had ere now taken advantage of it. — PREP OR CONJ SUBORD erect /ɪrekt/, erects, erecting, erected. 1 If you erect a building, wall, etc, you build it; a formal use. EG It would be splendid to erect a memorial to the 42nd regiment... This is the famous La Punta Fortress, erected to shield Havana from the French and English armies. — v+o = construct, build, put up

2 If you erect something, you fit the pieces of it together and put it in an upright position, so that it is ready to be used. EG Six policemen started to erect a roadblock... Thirty camp-beds had to be erected in the canteen each night... This type of chair, easily erected or folded away, is ideal for use in the garden. — v+o = put up ≠ take down

3 If you erect a political or social system or institution, you create it. EG The mission of socialism was not to erect a conglomeration of separate nations... I don't want to see a system like that erected. — v+o = set up

4 Erect means in a straight and upright position. EG Humans walk erect on their hind legs... In the door, small but erect, stood an old man... She held herself erect, trembling slightly. ◊ erectly. EG Each plant begins by growing erectly. — ADJ QUALIT; ◊ ADV WITH VB

5 If an animal's tail or ears are erect, they are stiff and sticking out or up, rather than hanging down or lying flat. EG For a dog, an erect tail indicates aggression. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = rigid ≠ drooping

6 If a man's penis or a woman's nipples are erect, they are stiff, swollen, and sticking up or out. — ADJ CLASSIF erection /ɪrekʃəⁿn/, erections. 1 If a man has an erection, his penis is stiff, swollen, and sticking up. — N COUNT

2 The erection of something is the act of building it or placing it in an upright position. EG ...the erection of a gravestone. — N UNCOUNT : USU +SUPP = putting up ergo /ɜːgəʊ/ is a formal or humorous word which means the same as 'therefore'. — ADV SEN = so, hence ergonomics /ɜːgənɒmɪks/ is the study of how working conditions, machines, and equipment can be arranged, in order that people can work with them more efficiently. — N UNCOUNT ermine /ɜːmɪn/ is expensive white fur that comes from stoats. — N UNCOUNT

erode /ɪˈrəʊd/, erodes, eroding, eroded. 1 If rock or soil erodes or is eroded by the weather, sea, or wind, it cracks and breaks so that it is gradually destroyed. EG Rain and rivers eroded the soft sandstones... Kimberly would be sliding down into it if the edges started eroding. — V ERG : USU PASS

2 If someone's power, authority, rights, etc erode or are eroded, they are gradually destroyed or removed; a formal use. EG International confidence in the dollar has eroded... Our freedom is being eroded by quite well meaning and insidious bureaucrats. — V ERG : USU PASS erode away. 1 If rock or soil erodes away or is eroded away, it cracks and breaks so that it is gradually destroyed completely. EG The deposits that had accumulated on the mountainside were eroded away. — PHRASAL VB : V ERG + ADV, USU PASS = wear away

2 If someone's power, authority, rights, etc erode away or are eroded away, they are gradually destroyed or removed completely. EG You would think colonialism of this kind would have eroded away... Our sovereign right to legislate has been eroded away. — PHRASAL VB : V ERG + ADV, USU PASS

erogenous /ɪˈrɒdʒɪnəs/. An erogenous part of your body is one where sexual pleasure can be felt or caused; a formal word. EG ...an erogenous zone. — ADJ QUALIT erosion /ɪˈrəʊʒəⁿn/ is 1 the gradual destruction and removal of rock or soil in a particular area by rivers, the sea, or the weather. EG Floyd has reported severe and destructive soil erosion and progressive loss of plant nutrients. 2 the gradual destruction or removal of a person's power, rights, authority, etc. EG ...the gradual erosion of individual freedom. 3 a gradual reduction in the number of people or things in a particular group. EG They will have to go a long way before there is much erosion of the numbers out of work. — N UNCOUNT : USU +SUPP = weathering; N UNCOUNT + SUPP; N UNCOUNT + SUPP

erotic /ɪˈrɒtɪk/. 1 Activities and situations that are erotic involve sexual desire and feelings. EG She had loved him with a wild erotic joy... ...erotic dreams. ◊ erotically. EG He found her loose dress erotically appealing. — ADJ QUALIT; ◊ ADV

2 Paintings, books, films, etc, that are erotic describe or show situations that involve naked people or sexual acts, usually in a skilful and artistic way, and are often intended to produce feelings of sexual pleasure. EG ...an anthology of erotic verse... ...erotic photographs. — ADJ QUALIT

erotica /ɪˈrɒtɪkə/ are works of art that show and describe naked people and sexual activity, usually in a skilful and artistic way, and are often intended to arouse sexual feelings in the viewer or reader: compare pornography. — N UNCOUNT eroticism /ɪˈrɒtɪsɪzəⁿm/ is 1 the erotic quality of a book, picture, sculpture, etc. EG The powerful eroticism of the book was a revelation. 2 sexual interest and excitement. EG ...the helpless rapture of adolescent eroticism. — N UNCOUNT; N UNCOUNT

err /ɜː/, errs, erring, erred. 1 If you err, you make a mistake; an old-fashioned, formal use. — V

● When you say to err is human, you mean that it is natural for human beings to make mistakes. — ● PHR

2 If you err on the side of something, you tend to support a particular way of behaving in what you say or do. EG Often one finds that advisers err on the side of caution. — PHR : VB INFLECTS errand /erənd/, errands. An errand is a short trip that you make in order to do a job for someone, for example when you go to a shop to buy something for them. EG As children grow older, they enjoy going on errands... Colonel Burr sent me on an errand to the Register's office. ● If you run an errand for someone, you do or get something for them, usually by making a short trip somewhere. EG It was the children's job to run errands. — N COUNT; ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ help errant /erənt/; a formal word. 1 Errant is used to describe someone whose behaviour or actions are considered unacceptable or wrong by other people. EG They came straight up to me, like errant children, begging forgiveness... ...errant capitalist intellectuals. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 Errant is also used to describe a husband or wife who is unfaithful to his or her partner. EG ...laws that compel an errant husband to support his ex-wife. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

errata /ɪˈrɑːtə/ are the mistakes that are made during the printing of a book; a formal word. — N PLURAL erratic /ɪˈrætɪk/. Something that is erratic does not follow a regular pattern, but happens at unexpected times or moves along in an irregular way. EG ...a dreadful symbol of the country's erratic attempts to move into the future... I made my erratic way through the dining saloon. ◊ erratically. EG The boat — ADJ QUALIT ≠ steady; ◊ ADV was now rolling, erratically and violently, through almost fifty degrees.

erroneous /ɪˈrəʊnɪəs/. Beliefs, opinions, methods, etc, that are erroneous are incorrect or only partly correct. EG Criminal law is founded on the erroneous belief that every man is a responsible human being... This idea seemed to me totally erroneous. ◊ erroneously. EG Textbooks have erroneously called this an oxygen deficit machine.

ADJ QUALIT = mistaken ≠ accurate error /ˈerə/, errors. An error is something you have done which is considered to be incorrect or wrong, or which should not have been done. EG His own country had made the same strategic error... The doctor committed an appalling error of judgement... ...errors in grammar... A degree of error is inevitable in guides such as this. ● See also trial and error.

◊ ADV WITH VB = mistakenly

N COUNT; UNCOUNT = mistake

2 If you do something in error or if it happens in error, you do it or it happens because you have made a mistake, especially in your judgement. EG Another innocent village had been wiped out in error.

PHR: USED AS AN A

ersatz /ˈeəzæts, ɜːˈ-/. Something that is described as ersatz is an imitation of an expensive substance such as coffee or silk, usually because the real substance is either too expensive or too difficult to obtain; used showing disapproval. EG It tasted more like ersatz coffee to me.

ADJ CLASSIF: USU ATTRIB ↑ substitute = fake ≠ authentic erstwhile /ˈɜːstwaɪl/. You use erstwhile to describe someone or something that used to have the job, position, or role indicated, but no longer has it; a formal and old-fashioned word. EG My erstwhile brother-in-law wants to see me.

ADJ CLASSIF: ATTRIB = former erudite /ˈerʊdaɪt/. People or books that are erudite have or show great academic knowledge; used showing approval. EG ...one of the most erudite political philosophers of his age... ...erudite works.

ADJ QUALIT = learned, scholarly erudition /ˌerʊːdɪˈʃəⁿn/ is great academic knowledge; a formal word, used showing approval. EG ...a thinker of great originality and immense erudition.

N UNCOUNT = learning

erupt /ɪˈrʌpt/, erupts, erupting, erupted. 1 When a volcano erupts, it throws out a lot of hot, molten lava, ash, and steam in a violent and destructive way. ◊ eruption /ɪˈrʌpʃəⁿn/, eruptions. EG ...a volcano on the point of eruption.

V: NO IMPER ↑ burst = explode

◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 If something such as fire or a loud sound erupts from somewhere, it suddenly comes out of it in a surprising or frightening way. EG A burst of gunfire erupted from Fort Esther... Again laughter erupted from the children. ◊ eruption.

V + A (from) = burst out

◊ N COUNT

3 If war or fighting erupts, it suddenly begins in a surprising and violent way. EG ...the urban riots that erupted this summer in Britain... Fighting and plundering and arson have erupted all over the city. ◊ eruption. EG ...the eruption of a major war between the super-powers.

V = break out, explode

◊ N COUNT: USU + of

4 When a place, meeting, or group of people erupts, the people involved suddenly become very disorganized and violent. EG US cities may erupt in protest against the latest Reagan policies... The demonstration erupted into a brutal battle between police and students. ◊ eruption. EG ...the spontaneous eruption of the masses, when they sense a crisis.

V + A = break out, explode

◊ N COUNT: USU + of

5 If a new situation or movement erupts, it suddenly happens in a surprising and unexpected way. EG Spontaneous discussion erupted about colour prejudice... The women's movement erupted, and sex roles started breaking down... A strange new society is apparently erupting in our midst. ◊ eruption. EG ...the eruption of religious sects in the seventeenth century.

V ⇑ happen = break out

◊ N COUNT: USU + of

6 If a sore or spot erupts on your skin, it suddenly appears there. EG Skin sores resembling burns erupted on parts of her body. ◊ eruption. EG ...an eruption of pimples.

V: USU + A ⇑ appear

◊ N COUNT: USU + of

-ery; also spelled -ry. The suffix -ery is added to some nouns that refer to objects of a particular kind, to form nouns that refer to groups or collections of these objects. EG ...machine—machinery... ...jewel—jewellery... ...weapon—weaponry... ...gadget—gadgetry.

SUFFIX: FORMS NOUNS

-es is added in place of '-is' at the end of some nouns to form plurals. EG ...crisis—crises... ...hypothesis—hypotheses... ...oasis—oases. ● See also -s.

SUFFIX: FORMS NOUNS IN PLURAL

escalate /ˈeskəleɪt/, escalates, escalating, escalated. If a bad or unpleasant situation escalates or if someone escalates it, it becomes greater in size, seriousness, or intensity. EG There is a danger that the conflict might escalate to a nuclear confrontation... By so doing, we escalate the problems. ◊ escalation /ˌeskəleɪʃəⁿn/, escalations. EG ...a steady escalation of violence.

V: ERG = worsen, increase

◊ N COUNT; UNCOUNT

escalator /ˈeskəleɪtə/, escalators. An escalator is a moving staircase on which people can go from one level to another without walking.

N COUNT

escalope /ˈeskəlɒp/, escalopes. An escalope is a thin boneless slice of meat, especially veal.

N COUNT

escapade /ˈeskəpeɪd/, escapades. An escapade is an adventurous, daring, or naughty act or incident that causes trouble. EG He was involved in covering up the Watergate escapade... The whole school knew every detail of this mad escapade.

N COUNT ⇑ adventure = exploit escape /ɪˈskeɪp/, escapes, escaping, escaped

1 If you escape a situation or duty that you think is dangerous, unpleasant, or difficult, you succeed in avoiding it. EG How does one escape from the influence of such dominating ideas... Goodness knows how I escaped being like that... Ralph walked in the rear, thankful to have escaped responsibility for a time.

V, V + ING, V + A (from), OR V + O; NO PASS ⇑ avoid

2 If you escape from a person, situation, or feeling which you do not like or which you are afraid of, you succeed in getting away from them. EG Many crossed the border to escape the carnage in their homeland... She would marry the first man who asked her, in order to escape her father.

V, V + A (from), OR V + O; NO PASS

3 If you escape or escape from a place such as a prison, you succeed in getting away from there, even though people are trying to keep you there by force. EG In 1966 the master spy George Blake escaped from prison... Even if he managed to escape, where would he run? ◊ escaped. EG ...escaped convicts.

V, IF + PREP THEN from/out of/to

◊ ADJ CLASSIF

4 If you escape, 4.1 you get away from a place or person when someone is trying to catch you, for example if you have just committed a crime. EG This enabled him not only to complete the mission, but to escape unharmed... The two other burglars were tipped off by a lookout and escaped. 4.2 you survive something unpleasant or dangerous, such as an attack or a natural disaster. EG Fortunately we all escaped unscathed... The minister escaped without a scratch.

V, V + A (from), OR V + O; NO PASS

V + C, OR V + A

5 If something escapes you or escapes your notice or attention, it remains unknown, unnoticed, or forgotten. EG And there's a major point that seems to have escaped you, Captain Imrie... I doubt that that such tactics escaped their notice.

V + O = elude

6 Gases, heat, liquids, etc that escape come out from a physical object, channel, or container which is intended to hold them. EG ...a hissing sigh, rather like the sound of air escaping from a tyre.

V, OR V + A (from) ⇑ emerge

7 If you describe a situation or activity as an escape, you mean that it is a way of avoiding something which you think is dangerous, unpleasant, or difficult. EG To be ill is the honourable way out, the escape from intolerable emotional stress... Reading is an escape from reality... Paris would be an escape from the provincialism I detested... There can be no escape for the man who does not conform.

N COUNT; UNCOUNT: IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ release = refuge

8 An escape is an act of escaping from a particular place or situation. EG They were now enabled to make their escape... It was a daring escape... She had nourished dreams of escape herself, once.

N UNCOUNT; COUNT: IF + PREP THEN from/to 9 An escape of gas or liquid is a leak of it from a pipe or container.

N COUNT

escapee /ɪˈskeɪpiː/, escapees. An escapee is a person who has escaped, especially from prison. EG There has been a steady stream of escapees.

N COUNT ≠ detainee

escapism /ɪˈskeɪpɪzəⁿm/ is activity that helps you to think about pleasant or fantastic things instead of the uninteresting or unpleasant aspects of your everyday life. EG Thinking about the future is a form of escapism... His films are pure escapism.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ fantasy

escapist /ɪˈskeɪpɪst/, escapists. 1 Escapist is used to describe ideas, stories, films, etc that help you to think about pleasant or fantastic things instead of the uninteresting or unpleasant aspects of your everyday life. EG It is accepted by all as light, escapist, television stuff... The film is an escapist fantasy.

ADJ QUALIT = diverting

2 An escapist is someone who thinks a lot about imaginary things in order to avoid thinking about their ordinary life.

N COUNT ⇑ dreamer ≠ realist

escapologist /ˌeskəˈpɒlədʒɪst/, escapologists. An escapologist is someone who entertains audiences

N COUNT ⇑ entertainer

by being tied up and placed in a dangerous situation, such as a tank full of water, and escaping from it while the audience watches.

escarpment /ɪˈskɑːpmənt/, escarpments. An escarpment is a wide, steep slope on a ridge or mountain. N COUNT eschew /ɪˈstʃuː/, eschews, eschewing, eschewed. If you eschew something, you deliberately avoid doing it or becoming involved in it; a formal word. EG Evans eschewed costly ideas such as financing new prisons... A civilized leader must eschew violence. V + O = shun escort, escorts, escorting, escorted. The word escort is pronounced /ˈeskɔːt/ when it is a noun, and /ɪˈskɔːt/ when it is a verb. 1 An escort is 1.1 a person or vehicle that travels with someone in order to protect or guard them. EG ...a police escort... We set off on our march, under escort of course. ▸ used as a verb. EG He had supplied soldiers to escort the miners to the mountains. 1.2 a person who accompanies another person of the opposite sex to a social event, especially when they are not emotionally involved with each other. EG I was wearing a fur coat and my escort was, I think, in a dinner jacket. ▸ used as a verb. EG John would be only too pleased to escort you, I'm sure. N COUNT, OR under + N : USU MOD + N ▸ V + O N COUNT ⇑ companion ▸ V + O

2 If you escort someone, you accompany them somewhere, especially in order to make sure that they leave a place or get to their destination. EG He escorted me to the door... The vicar escorted her back to the drawing-room... The ship had been refuelled and escorted out of Moroccan waters. V + O + A

-ese is 1 added to the names of countries in order to form nouns and adjectives. EG ...China—Chinese... ...Japan—Japanese... ...Congo—Congolese. 2 added to adjectives, nouns, or the names of places to form uncount nouns that refer to unattractive or confusing ways of writing or speaking; used showing disapproval. EG ...legal—legalese... ...telegraph—telegraphese... ...Brooklyn—Brooklynese. SUFFIX : FORMS NOUNS/ADJS SUFFIX : FORMS N UNCOUNTS

Eskimo /ˈeskɪməʊ/, Eskimos. The plural can be either Eskimos or Eskimo. 1 An Eskimo is a member of the group of peoples who live in Alaska, Northern Canada, eastern Siberia, and other parts of the Arctic. N COUNT

2 Eskimo is the language spoken by Eskimos. N UNCOUNT

ESL /iː es el/ is an abbreviation for 'English as a second language'.

esophagus /iːˈsɒfəgəs/. See oesophagus.

esoteric /ˌesəʊˈterɪk/. Something that is esoteric is understood only by a small number of people, especially because they have special knowledge or particular tastes and interests; a formal word. EG It is written in an esoteric script that few people can read... The arguments are rather esoteric... There are indications that his esoteric popularity may be ebbing. ADJ QUALIT = obscure ≠ well known

ESP /iː es piː/ is an abbreviation for 1 'English for specific purposes' or 'English for special purposes', the technique of teaching English to students who need it for a particular job or profession or for some other purpose. 2 'extra-sensory perception'. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT

esp. is a written abbreviation for 'especially'. EG Everyone in the area, esp. children under 5, is at risk.

especial /ɪˈspeʃəl/ means the same as special; a formal word. EG He took especial care to vary his routine... This sculpture is of especial importance. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB especially /ɪˈspeʃəlɪ/. 1 You use especially to emphasize 1.1 the importance of something when it is a member of a group which has just been mentioned. EG They don't trust anyone. Especially people in our position... Children's bones and organs, especially, are very sensitive to radiation. 1.2 a characteristic of something which has just been mentioned. EG He loved young people, especially if he thought they had talent... I'm not attracted to sociology, especially the way it's taught here. ADV SEN = particularly ADV SEN = particularly

2 Especially also means much more than usually or normally. EG I tried to appear especially cheerful for her benefit... They didn't seem to find it especially hard to do these exams. ADV + ADJ/ADV = particularly

Esperanto /ˌespəˈræntəʊ/ is an invented language which consists of parts of several languages, and which was designed to help people from different countries communicate easily with each other. N UNCOUNT espionage /ˈespɪənɑːʒ/ is the activity of finding out the political, military, industrial, etc secrets of your enemies or rivals by using spies. EG The Swiss government threatened to throw them in jail for espionage. N UNCOUNT = spying esplanade /ˌesplənˈeɪd/, esplanades. An esplanade is a wide, open road where people walk for pleasure, especially by the sea in seaside towns. EG She would meet me for lunch in the King's Hotel on the Esplanade. N COUNT = promenade espousal /ɪˈspaʊzəl/. The espousal of a particular policy, cause, or plan is the act of strongly supporting it; a formal word. EG This espousal of disarmament lost him many friends. N SING WITH DET + SUPP : USU + of ⇑ support espouse /ɪˈspaʊz/, espouses, espousing, espoused. If you espouse a particular policy, cause, or plan, you become very interested in it and give your support to it; a formal word. EG The ideas she espoused were incomprehensible to me. V + O espresso /eˈspresəʊ/, espressos. Espresso is a coffee drink that is made by forcing steam or boiling water through ground coffee beans. N MASS ⇑ coffee esprit de corps /espriːdəˈkɔː/ is a feeling of loyalty and pride that is shared by the members of a group who consider themselves to be different from other people in some special way; a formal expression. N UNCOUNT espy /ɪˈspaɪ/, espies, espying, espied. If you espy something, you see or notice it; an old-fashioned or humorous word. EG Peter went right in and at this point espied the briefcase in the corner of the room. V + O

Esq. is a written abbreviation for 'esquire'. EG J. F. Walton, Esq., 52 Leicester Road, London EC3.

-esque is added to the names of famous people, for example writers, composers, or painters, in order to form adjectives that describe something as being written, composed, painted, etc in a similar style to theirs. EG ...Pinter—Pinteresque... ...Mahler—Mahleresque. SUFFIX : FORMS ADJS esquire /ɛskwaɪə/ is a formal title that can be used after a man's name if he has no other title, especially on an envelope that is addressed to him. N IN TITLES : AFTER NAME = Esq.

-ess is used at the end of some nouns that refer to women or to female animals. EG ...actress... ...waitress... ...princess... ...lioness. SUFFIX : FORMS N COUNTS essay /ˈeseɪ/, essays, essaying, essayed. 1 An essay is 1.1 a short piece of writing on one particular subject that is written by a student. EG I had to produce an essay on Herrick for my tutor. 1.2 a short piece of writing on one particular subject that is written by a writer for publication. EG ...a volume of essays... I read some of his political essays. N COUNT N COUNT

2 If you essay something, you try to do it; a formal use. EG She essayed a smile. V + O = attempt essayist /ˈeseɪɪst/, essayists. An essayist is a writer who writes essays for publication. EG ...the best political essayist in the country today. N COUNT essence /ˈesəns/, essences. 1 The essence of something is its basic, central, and most important characteristic which gives it an individual identity. EG Competition is the essence of all games... London has changed a good deal, though her essence, it seems to me, has remained undisturbed. N SING WITH DET : USU WITH POSS = soul

2 You use the expression in essence when you are talking about the most important or central aspect of an idea, situation, event, etc. EG But this is not in essence a book about religion... ...a technique capable of solving what have become in essence sociological and political problems. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = essentially, fundamentally

3 If you say that something is of the essence, you mean that it is absolutely necessary in order for a particular action to be successful. EG Timing is of the essence in the art market. PHR : VB INFLECTS = vital, crucial essential /ɪˈsenʃəl/, essentials. 1 Something that is essential is considered to be extremely important or extremely necessary for a particular situation or activity. EG It is essential to set your targets realistically... Land is essential for food and for work... It is absolutely essential that you continue... Qualifications are not essential, but some previous experience is useful... A degree is by no means an essential journalistic qualification. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN for/to = vital

4 Essence is a concentrated liquid that is used for flavouring food. EG ...brandy essence. N MASS : USU + SUPP

2 Essential is also used to describe the most basic or important aspect of something, especially when you consider this aspect to be very typical. EG ...the ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = fundamental essential feature of the situation... The people around me translate the essential points of the lectures into English.

3 An essential is something that you consider to be extremely important or necessary for the situation you are in or for the activity you are trying to do. EG ...other essentials such as fuel and clothing... I always considered a washing machine an essential. N COUNT : USU PL ≠ luxury

4 Essentials are the most important principles, ideas, or facts involved in a particular subject. EG Their laws deal with essentials, not appearances. N PLURAL ≠ trivia

5 You use in essentials or in all essentials to say that you are not describing something in great detail, but are referring to the main aspects of it. EG What Hal had written had been 'in all essentials a piece of fiction'... His development, in essentials, was the same as that of poor John. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = basically, essentially essentially /ɪˈsɛnʃəˈlɪˈ/. You use essentially 1 to say what you think is the most important and relevant feature of someone or something, and to say that you are not describing it in detail. EG Phyllis was essentially a soft, caring person... The argument is essentially a technical one... Essentially, what you're saying is that a teacher shouldn't be seen to agree with this. 2 to emphasize a particular quality that something or someone has, and to say that you think this quality is their most important one. EG This is a new and essentially fertile idea... We were living in a country not essentially different from our own. 3 to indicate that what you are saying is true in general terms, and that other, more detailed factors, are not necessary for you to be able to make your point. EG Such theories are essentially correct... Pat Branson essentially stopped eating. ADV SEN = basically ADV : ADJ = really ADV ⇑ broadly = basically

-est. You add -est to adjectives that have one or two syllables in order to form superlatives. It is also added to some adverbs that do not end in -ly. EG ...hard—hardest... ...big—biggest... ...simple—simplest... ...pretty—prettiest. SUFFIX : FORMS ADJS/ADVS IN SUPERL establish /ɪˈstæblɪʃ/, establishes, establishing, established. 1 If someone establishes a system, organization, or state of affairs, they create it and set it up in a way that is intended to be permanent. EG A just, ordered society without a bureaucracy has yet to be established... There he had set out to establish his own business... They had already established a clear superiority. ◊ established. EG ...his distrust of established authority... Though illegal, this was a well-established custom among the prisoners. V + O = set up, found ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 If you establish contact or communications with a group of other people, 2.1 you make the arrangements necessary to allow you to talk to them. EG At six o'clock they managed to establish radio contact with the survivors. 2.2 you start to have discussions with them. EG The proposal to establish contact with pressure groups was warmly welcomed... A solid relationship and a mutual trust were established very early between them. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/between = set up V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/between ⇑ create = set up

3 If you establish that something is the case, you discover facts that show that it is certainly true. EG I understand you've so far been unable to establish the cause of death... A court of enquiry established that there were faults on both sides. V + O/REPORT-CL = determine

4 If you establish yourself as something, you become firmly associated with a particular kind of activity, often because you are known to do it well. EG The third world has established itself as a low-cost manufacturer... The Liberals established themselves as the major alternative. ◊ established. EG They took over an existing restaurant with an established clientele... ...several established carpenters. V + O (REFL) : IF + PREP THEN as ◊ ADJ QUALIT

5 If you establish your reputation as something, you cause people to have a particular opinion of you, often because you have done something very well. EG He immediately established his reputation as a radical... ...the performances that established his international reputation. V + O : IF + PREP THEN as = set up establishment /ɪˈstæblɪʃməˈnt/, establishments. 1 The establishment of an organization or system is the act of creating it for a particular purpose. EG ...the establishment of free trade unions... The establishment of legal minimum pay is one of the objectives. N SING : the + N of = creation

2 An establishment is a shop, business, or some other sort of institution. EG At least one establishment in Savile Row now sells clothes off-the-peg... The Government opened up its research establishments to industry. N COUNT : SUPP

3 You use the establishment to refer to 3.1 a group of people in a country who have power and influence, especially civil servants and businessmen rather than politicians. The establishment is generally opposed to making changes to the existing political and social order. EG It taught me more about the British Establishment... ...a pillar of the French Establishment. 3.2 a group of people who have power in a particular organization or area of activity. EG ...the financial establishment... The university establishment couldn't tolerate him. N SING : the + ADJ CLASSIF + N

estate /ɪˈsteɪt/, estates. 1 An estate is 1.1 a large area of land in the country, together with the property on it, which is owned by one person, family, or organization; used especially to refer to a country house and the farms and cottages nearby. EG He bought an estate near Oxford... The colonel returned to his estate in Somerset for the weekend. 1.2 a large area of land, usually in or near a city, which has factories or houses on it; used in British English. EG Singapore's industrial estates are comparable to those of any Western city... ...a housing estate. N COUNT ; ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N

2 Someone's estate is 2.1 all the money and property that they leave behind them when they die. EG He divided his estate among his four brothers. 2.2 their position in society or among a particular group of people, which is judged by the amount of financial, social, or political power that they have; used in formal English. EG So low had Suzuki's estate fallen that his own cabinet ministers disregarded his wishes. N COUNT : POSS + N = standing

3 An estate is also an estate car; used in British English. N COUNT

estate agent, estate agents. An estate agent is someone who works for a company that sells houses and land for people; used in British English. N COUNT = realtor estate car, estate cars. An estate car is a car which has a long body with a door at the back end and space behind the back seats; used in British English. N COUNT = station wagon esteem /ɪˈstiːm/, esteems, esteeming, esteemed. 1 Esteem is admiration and respect that you feel towards another person; an old-fashioned and formal use. EG I know the high esteem and friendship you feel for our colleague here... Zapp had no great esteem for his fellow labourers. ● See also self-esteem. N UNCOUNT, OR N SING WITH DET

2 If you hold someone or something in high esteem or in great esteem, you admire and respect them very much. EG This organization was one which he held in high esteem. PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 If you esteem someone or something in a particular way, you have a particular opinion about them; used in formal or old-fashioned English. EG I esteem him nothing but a fool. V + O + C ⇑ think = deem esteemed /ɛstiːmd/. Esteemed is used to describe someone who you greatly admire and respect; a formal or old-fashioned word. EG ...our esteemed employer, Otto Gerran. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ honoured = revered esthete /iːsθiːt/. See aesthete.

esthetic /ɛsθɛtɪk/. See aesthetic.

estimable /ɛstɪməbəˈl/. Someone or something that is estimable deserves respect and admiration; a formal word. EG ...valuable and estimable characteristics. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ good = worthy estimate, estimates, estimating, estimated. The word estimate is pronounced /ɛstɪmeɪt/ when it is a verb, and /ɛstɪmət/ when it is a noun. 1 If you estimate an amount or quantity, you calculate it approximately. EG It has been estimated that four-fifths of the children in these schools will suffer... The hurricane caused damage estimated at 300 million pounds. ◊ estimated. EG In 1975 there were an estimated 6,000 children in community homes... Its estimated cost has climbed to a staggering £35 billion. V + REPORT-CL, V + O + to-INF, OR V + O + A (at) ⇑ guess = reckon ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If you estimate something, you make a judgement about it based on the available evidence. EG She was estimating Anne's attitude to Tim... How would you estimate our chances?... He estimated he would do the hundred miles by noon. V + O, REPORT CL, OR V + O + to-INF = assess

3 An estimate is 3.1 an approximate calculation of an amount or quantity. EG According to some estimates the number of farms has increased by 50 per cent... Moscow has clearly revised downward its N COUNT = assessment crop estimate from 230 million to 200 million tons.

3.2 a judgement about a person or situation which you make based on the available evidence. EG Thomas wasn't living up to anyone's estimate of him... I've had to revise my estimate somewhat in her favour. — N COUNT : USU WITH POSS = assessment

3.3 a formal statement from a manufacturer, builder, plumber, etc which tells you how much a particular job is likely to cost. EG It is a good idea to get at least two written estimates to compare costs. — N COUNT

4 You say at a rough estimate to indicate that the quantity or amount you are talking about is not exact, but is based on your approximate calculation. EG It will take three years, at a rough estimate. — PHR : USED AS ADV SEN estimation /ɛstɪmeɪʃᵊn/, estimations; a formal word. 1 Your estimation of a person or situation is an opinion or impression that you have formed about them. EG His comments were, in my estimation, correct and most useful... Their children's estimation of them will gradually get lower. — N SING : USU WITH POSS

2 An estimation is an approximate calculation of something that can be measured. EG ...an estimation of the speed of the air leaving the lungs. — N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of estranged /ɪˈstreɪndʒd/. 1 If you are estranged from your husband or wife, you are no longer living with them. EG Lionel and his estranged wife had never had children... He was thirty-five years old and estranged from his second wife. — ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN from

2 If you are estranged from your family or friends, you have quarrelled with them and are not on speaking terms; a formal use. EG He knows I am estranged from my father; he does not know why. — ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN from = alienated estrangement /ɪˈstreɪndʒməᵊnt/, estrangements. Estrangement is the state of being estranged from someone or the length of time for which you are estranged; a formal word. EG ...his estrangement from his son... This sense of isolation and estrangement was easy enough to understand. — N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ separation = alienation estrogen /ɛstrədʒən, iːstrə-/. See oestrogen.

estuary /ɛstjʊəᵊrɪ¹/, estuaries. An estuary is the wide part of a river near where it joins the sea. — N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N et al. /ɛt æl/. The expression et al. is used after a name or a list of names to indicate that other people are also involved. EG ...an admirable paper by Harris et al.

etc (pronounced the same as 'et cetera') is a written abbreviation for 'et cetera'; used at the end of a list to indicate that there are other items, events, or situations which you could mention if you had enough time and space, in addition to the ones which you have mentioned. EG ...window frames, floorboards, beams, etc... She had to empty bed pans, do the cleaning, make beds etc, etc. — = and so on et cetera /ɪˈtsɛtəᵊrə/. See etc.

etch /ɛtʃ/, etchs, etching, etched. 1 If you etch a design or pattern on a surface, you cut it into the surface by using acid or by using a knife, chisel, etc. EG I really enjoy etching... I read stories etched on the gravestones. ◊ etched. EG ...an etched glass door. — V OR V + O = score ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If shadows, lines, etc etch a surface, they mark it, and look as though they might have actually been cut into the surface. EG Outside, icy branches etch lacy designs on the frosted window panes... The dry air etched his face full of fine lines. — V + O

3 If something is etched on your mind or memory, it has made a very strong impression on you so that you feel you will never forget it. EG It will remain permanently etched on my memory... Some memories are etched with surprising clarity. — V + O : USU PASS = imprint etching /ɛtʃɪŋ/, etchings. An etching is a picture printed from a metal plate that has had a design cut into it with acid. EG His etchings and drawings never went out of fashion. — N COUNT eternal /iˈtɜːnəᵊl/. 1 Something that is eternal 1.1 lasts for ever. EG ...the promise of eternal bliss... For our Nordic ancestors, hell was the land of eternal cold. ◊ eternally. EG The door to Heaven stands eternally open, my son... Something remained eternally unspoiled in him. 1.2 seems to last for ever, especially because it is boring or annoying. EG Can't you stop this eternal quarrelling?... Bobby was the eternal practical joker. ◊ eternally. EG ...the eternally recurring difficulties of his sick wife. — ADJ CLASSIF = everlasting ◊ ADV = forever ADJ CLASSIF = perpetual ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV

2 Eternal truths, values, etc, never change and are believed to be always true and relevant in all situations. EG ...an unchanging society which lives by eternal principles. ◊ eternally. EG Political theories are not eternally valid. — ADJ CLASSIF = immutable, absolute ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV eternal triangle. You use the eternal triangle to refer to an emotional relationship involving love and jealousy between two men and a woman or two women and a man. — N SING : the + N eternity /iˈtɜːnɪtiᵊ/, eternities. 1 Eternity is time without an end or a state of existence outside time, especially the state which some people believe they will pass into after they have died. EG The preacher promised us eternity. — N UNCOUNT

2 An eternity is a period of time which seems to be very long indeed, usually because during that time you are experiencing something very boring or unpleasant; an informal use. EG What an eternity ago that seems!.. I lay there for an eternity, retching and gasping. — N COUNT : IF SING an + N = age ether /iːθə/. 1 Ether is a colourless liquid that burns easily. It is used in industry as a solvent and in medicine as an anaesthetic. — N UNCOUNT

2 The ether is the air; a literary or formal use. EG ...a stutter of Morse code whispering through the ether. — N SING : the + N ethereal /iˈθɪəɾɪəl/. Something that is ethereal is so light and delicate that it seems almost supernatural; often used showing approval. EG ...her ethereal beauty. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unearthly = fragile ethic /ɛθɪk/, ethics. 1 An ethic of a particular kind is an idea or moral belief that influences the behaviour, attitudes, and philosophy of life of a group of people. EG ...the American 'frontier' ethic of expansion and opportunity... ...the Protestant work ethic. — N SING WITH DET + SUPP = principle

2 Ethics are moral beliefs and rules about right and wrong. EG ...a conscious, rational, scientific code of ethics... ...the basic ethics which any religion sets forward. — N PLURAL = morality

3 Someone's ethics are the moral principles about right and wrong behaviour which they believe in. EG She despised his business ethics.... ...the dubious ethics of publishing information gained by deception or burglary. — N PLURAL + SUPP

4 Ethics is the study of questions about what is morally right and wrong. EG ...lectures on Church History, Ethics, and Systematic Theology. — N UNCOUNT ethical /ɛθɪkəᵊl/ means 1 influenced by or arising from a system of moral beliefs about right and wrong. EG They don't have any ethical codes to follow... ...an ethical problem... He had no real ethical objection to drinking. ◊ ethically. EG I found Captain Imrie's proposal distasteful and ethically objectionable. 2 morally right when considered in relation to a system of beliefs about right and wrong. EG It has never seemed so ethical and so right as it does now. — ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = moral ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV ADJ QUALIT ≠ unethical

Ethiopian /iːθɪəʊpɪən/, Ethiopians. 1 Ethiopian means belonging or relating to Ethiopia, or to its people or language. — ADJ CLASSIF

2 An Ethiopian is a person who comes from Ethiopia. — N COUNT

ethnic /ɛθnɪk/. 1 Ethnic means connected with or relating to different racial groups of people, especially when referring to the native people of a particular region or to racial minorities within a particular country or city. EG ...the ethnic composition of the voters of New York... ...ethnic minorities. ◊ ethnically. EG These people are geographically and ethnically distant from us. — ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ national ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV

2 Ethnic clothes, music, food, etc, are characteristic of the traditions of a particular ethnic group, and very different from what is usually found in modern Western culture; used showing approval. EG She's really into ethnic music these days. — ADJ QUALIT = traditional ethnographic /ɛθnəᵘgræfɪk/. Something that is ethnographic is connected with or relates to ethnography. — ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ anthropological ethnography /ɛθnɒgrəfiᵘ/ is the branch of anthropology in which different cultures are studied and described. — N UNCOUNT ethnology /ɛθnɒlədʒiᵘ/ is the branch of anthropology in which the organization and cultures of different races of people are studied and compared. ◊ ethnologist, ethnologists. EG ...one of the world's most distinguished ethnologists. ◊ ethnological /ɛθnəᵘlɒdʒɪkəᵊl/. — N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ethos /iːθɒs/. An ethos is the set of ideas and attitudes that is associated with a particular group of people or a particular type of activity. EG The working-class ethos of 'togetherness'... ...the prevailing social ethos. — N SING WITH DET : USU + SUPP etiquette /ɛtɪkɛt/ is a set of customs and rules for polite behaviour, especially in a particular class of people or in a particular profession. EG May I ask your opinion on a question of etiquette? N UNCOUNT = manners

-ette is added to the names of objects to form nouns that refer to similar, but smaller, objects. EG ...statue—statuette... ...kitchen—kitchenette. SUFFIX : FORMS N COUNTS etymological /ɛtɪməˈlɒdʒɪkəˀl/ means concerned with or relating to etymology. EG ...an etymological dictionary. ◊ etymologically. ADJ CLASSIF ◊ ADV

etymology /ɛtɪmɒlədʒi/, etymologies. 1 Etymology is the study of the origins and historical development of words. N UNCOUNT

2 The etymology of a particular word is its history. N COUNT eucalyptus /juːkəlɪptəs/, eucalyptuses. Eucalyptus can also be used as the plural form. A eucalyptus is an evergreen tree that is grown to provide timber, gum, and an oil that is used in medicines. EG ...a forest of pines and eucalyptus. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

Eucharist /juːkərɪst/, Eucharists. The Eucharist is the Christian religious ceremony in which Christ's last meal with his disciples is remembered and celebrated. EG ...celebrating the Eucharist. N SING : the + N. OR N COUNT

Eucharistic /juːkərɪstɪk/ means concerned with or relating to the Eucharist. ADJ CLASSIF

eugenics /juːdʒɛnɪks/ is the study of how to improve the human race by carefully selecting parents who will produce stronger children; a scientific term. EG ...the problems and ethical issues arising out of eugenics. N UNCOUNT eulogize /juːləˀdʒaɪz/, eulogizes, eulogizing, eulogized; also spelled eulogise. If you eulogize something or eulogize over it, you praise it very much; a formal word. EG ...a new brand of literature that eulogized peasant life... On 28 May 1356, Bishop Henry was eulogizing over what Geoffrey had done. V + A, V + O, OR V + O + A (as) eulogy /juːləˀdʒi/, eulogies. A eulogy is a speech or piece of writing that praises someone or something very much; a formal word. EG ...the various eulogies that have been written about the Queen Mother... For ten years he had heard nothing but eulogy. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = panegyric eunuch /juːnək/, eunuchs. A eunuch is a man who has been castrated. Eunuchs were often employed in the past to guard women in Eastern countries. N COUNT

euphemism /juːfɪmɪzəᵐm/, euphemisms. A euphemism is a polite word or expression that people use when they are talking about something which they or other people find unpleasant or embarrassing, such as sex, bodily functions, war, etc. EG 'Escort' is the jail euphemism for a guard... 'Defence aid' is the modern euphemism for guns and ammunition. N COUNT euphemistic /juːfɪmɪstɪk/. Language that is euphemistic uses polite words or expressions when referring to things that people find unpleasant or embarrassing. ◊ euphemistically. EG Then came what the French euphemistically call 'the events of May'–the student revolution. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB

euphoria /juːfɔːrɪə/ is a feeling of great happiness and elation. N UNCOUNT

euphoric /juːfɒrɪk/. If you are euphoric you feel great happiness and elation. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ happy

Eurasian /juərɛɪʃəᵐn, -ʒəᵐn/, Eurasians. 1 Eurasian means concerned with or relating to both Europe and Asia. ADJ CLASSIF

2 A Eurasian is a person who has one European and one Asian parent; an old-fashioned use. N COUNT, OR ADJ CLASSIF

eureka /jʊriːkə/. Someone might say 'eureka' when they suddenly discover something such as the answer to a problem, or when they solve a mystery; an old-fashioned or humorous word. EXCLAM

Euro- is added to words to form other words that describe something which is connected with Europe or with the EEC. EG ...communism—Eurocommunism... ...dollar—Eurodollar... ...MP—Euro-MP. PREFIX

Europe /juərəp/. Europe is 1 the continent which is joined to Asia in the east, and which is to the north of Africa and the Mediterranean Sea and to the east of the Atlantic Ocean; also used to refer to the people who live in Europe. EG ...the western coasts of Europe and Africa... Among them were some of the most notable political thinkers in Europe. 2 all of Europe except for the United Kingdom; used in British English. EG Are our British dramatists equally unknown in Europe? 3 the same as the EEC. EG I gather that you are very much in favour of Britain being in Europe. N PROPER = The Continent N PROPER

European /juərəpɪən/, Europeans. 1 European means coming from or relating to Europe. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

2 A European is a person who comes from Europe. EG She was the only European living in the neighbourhood. N COUNT euthanasia /juːθəneɪzɪə/ is the practice of killing someone painlessly in order to relieve their suffering when nothing can be done to help them, for example when they have an incurable illness. EG He is totally against euthanasia. N UNCOUNT = mercy killing evacuate /ɪˈvækjuˈeɪt/, evacuates, evacuating, evacuated. 1 If someone is evacuated, they are sent to a place of safety, away from a building, town, or area where there is danger. EG I was evacuated to Swindon... Tell them you intend to evacuate the children... They will be evacuated tomorrow night. ◊ evacuation /ɪˈvækjuˈeɪʃəᵐn/, evacuations. EG ...arrangements for the evacuation of children. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ relocate ◊ N UNCOUNT : COUNT ⇑ relocation

2 If people evacuate a place or if they are evacuated, they move out of it for a period of time, especially because it is dangerous. EG The entire complex was being evacuated... During the war Westminster was evacuated four times... We grabbed sleeping bags and evacuated. ◊ evacuation. EG Orders went out to prepare for the evacuation of the city. V + O : USU PASS. OR V ⇑ leave = clear ◊ N UNCOUNT : COUNT evacuee /ɪˈvækjuˈiː/, evacuees. An evacuee is someone who has been sent away from a place because it is too dangerous, especially in war. EG We crowded into the village hall, to await the arrival of the evacuees from Liverpool. N COUNT evade /ɪˈveɪd/, evades, evading, evaded. 1 If you evade something, 1.1 you find a way of not doing something that you really have to do. EG ...his desire to evade paying unnecessary tax... ...children who evade reading and writing. 1.2 you avoid talking about something or dealing with something important. EG With great skill they evade the problem altogether... He had found a loophole which allowed him to evade responsibility... She never ever lied to us or evaded any question. 1.3 you move in such a way as to avoid meeting someone or to avoid being touched or hit by someone or something. EG He circled the table like one trying to evade the smoke from a bonfire... He caught her arm before she could evade him, drawing her towards him. V + O, OR V + ING ⇑ avoid = dodge V + O = duck V + O = escape

2 If something such as success, glory, or love evades you, you never manage to achieve it. EG Military glory had evaded him on his last campaign... Beauty and truth evade her. V + O = elude evaluate /ɪˈvælju'eɪt/, evaluates, evaluating, evaluated. If you evaluate something, you decide on its significance, value, or quality after carefully studying its good and bad features. EG He was asked to evaluate the situation... ...the children's performance in school, as evaluated by their teachers... He's the kind of individual that's very hard to evaluate. V + O ⇑ judge = assess evaluation /ɪˈvælju'eɪʃəᵐn/, evaluations. An evaluation is a decision about the significance, value, or quality of something, based on a careful study of its good and bad features. EG ...a realistic evaluation of the working of Britain's economy... I attempted an honest evaluation of my own life. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = appraisal evanesce /ɛvənɛs/, evanesces, evanescing, evanesced. To evanesce means to disappear gradually from sight or memory; a formal or literary word. EG ...an apparition evanescing into darkness. V + A = fade evanescent /ɛvənɛsəᵐnt/. Something that is evanescent gradually disappears from sight or memory; a formal or literary word. EG ...evanescent wants and desires. ADJ CLASSIF evangelical /iːvændʒɛlɪkəᵐl/. People and beliefs that are evangelical are Christian and emphasize the importance of the four gospels and the need for personal belief in Christ in order to obtain salvation. EG ...an article about evangelical Christianity... ...a minister who is evangelical and charismatic in his beliefs. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ Christian evangelism /ɪˈvændʒəlɪzəᵐm/ is the teaching of Christianity, especially to people who are not Christians. EG Many of these students are involved in evangelism. N UNCOUNT evangelist /iˈvænʤəlɪst/, evangelists. An evangelist is a person who travels from place to place in order to try to convert people to Christianity. EG ...Joseph Booth, a white evangelist from the United States. N COUNT evangelize /iˈvænʤəlaɪz/, evangelizes, evangelizing, evangelized; also spelled evangelise. To evangelize means to try to convert people to Christianity. V OR V+O evaporate /iˈvæpəreɪt/, evaporates, evaporating, evaporated. 1 When a liquid evaporates, some of it disappears because it has changed from a liquid state to a gas state, for example because it has been heated. EG Boil until the carrots are tender and all the water has evaporated... Near the equator, the sun evaporates greater quantities of water. V ERG = vaporize ≠ condense

◊ evaporation /iˈvæpəreɪʃəⁿn/. EG ...incredibly fast evaporation. ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If a feeling or attitude evaporates, it gradually becomes less and eventually disappears completely. EG All the glamour of the past nine weeks evaporated... Outraged public opinion, which fuelled the movement, had evaporated. V = melt away evaporated milk is thick unsweetened milk from which some water has been removed. N UNCOUNT

evasion /iˈveɪʒəⁿn/, evasions. 1 Evasion of something is the act of not doing something that you are supposed to do, especially when it is something that is required by law. EG He is guilty of gross tax evasion... ...the evasion of death duties... ...an evasion of our responsibilities. N UNCOUNT/COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ avoidance

2 Evasion is also the deliberate act of avoiding talking about something or of dealing with something important. EG His answer was a predictable example of parliamentary evasion... ...a growing pattern of reticence and evasion. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ avoidance evasive /iˈveɪsɪv/. If you are being evasive, or give evasive answers, you are deliberately trying to avoid talking about something. EG Victor became evasive, and told us that he had nothing more to say... ...a civil but evasive answer. ◊ evasively. EG The Count had answered evasively. ◊ evasiveness. EG There was a certain evasiveness in Mary's replies. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you take evasive action, you deliberately move away from people or things so that you do not have to meet or touch them. EG It might be necessary to take evasive action. PHR : VB INFLECTS

eve /iːv/, eves. The eve of a particular event or occasion is the day before it. EG It was a devastating attack on the eve of the election. ● See also Christmas Eve, New Year's Eve. N COUNT : USU SING, USU + SUPP ⇑ period

even /iːvəⁿn/, evens, evening, evened. 1 You use the word even 1.1 to suggest that what comes just after or just before it in the sentence is rather surprising. EG The hotel had everything. There was even a swimming pool... She liked him even when she was quarrelling with him... I shall give the details to no one, not even to you... No one dared even to whisper... A fire could be built on the rocks. On the sand, even. 1.2 with comparatives, to emphasize the fact that something is greater in degree than the thing you have just mentioned or are about to mention. EG I must be even more tired than I thought... Tomorrow might be even better... Barber had something even worse to tell me. 1.3 when you are adding a word which is more extreme than the one you have just used but which is actually a more accurate description of something. EG People seemed content, even happy... It seemed that the captain was upset, even agitated. ADV SEN ADV + ADJ/ADV IN COMPAR = still ADV = indeed

2 Even is also used in the following expressions. 2.1 You use even if or even though to introduce a clause which appears to partly contradict the main clause in the sentence, but that does not actually affect the truth of the main clause. EG Even if you disagree with her, she's worth listening to... Very good work, even if I do say so myself... I was always rather afraid of men, even though I had lots of boyfriends. 2.2 You use even so to introduce a surprising statement which is the opposite to what you would normally expect to be true; usually used in spoken English. EG He smokes and drinks, but even so I bet he'll live till he's a hundred... This could lead you up some blind alleys. Even so, there's no real cause for concern. CONJ SUBORD ADV SEN = nevertheless

2.3 You use even now or even then to say that it is surprising that something is true at the time you are talking about, when you consider what has already happened. EG Even now, after a week alone in the house, she still expected to hear his key in the front door... I often lend her money even now... I raised an eyebrow at what even then were outrageous prices... I suppose we looked very odd, even then. 2.4 You also use even then to say that something is the case in spite of what has just been stated or whatever the circumstances may be. EG He says that the only chance of a place on the course is if you achieve good A-level results and get the fees together. Even then, he's not promising. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN ADV SEN

3 If one thing happens even as something else happens, they both happen at exactly the same time; a formal or literary use. EG Even as he spoke, he realized that he had forgotten her name... The idea may mature even as it is being tried out. CONJ SUBORD = while

4 A temperature, rhythm, rate, etc that is even stays at about the same level without much change or variation. EG ...an even body temperature... The oars were going in a fierce, even rhythm. ◊ evenly. EG Mary was breathing quietly and evenly. ADJ QUALIT = steady ◊ ADV

5 Surfaces that are even are smooth and flat. EG ...a nice even surface... The road wasn't very even. ADJ QUALIT = level

6 If your teeth are even they are regular and well-formed. ADJ QUALIT ≠ crooked

7 Something that is even has been arranged or shared out so that there is an equal amount or number in each place, or so that the spaces between things are about equal. EG The distribution of land was much more even than, say, in the Middle East or in Latin America. ◊ evenly. EG Public investment in agriculture has not been evenly spread... Opinion seems to be fairly evenly divided. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV = equally

8 If a contest or competition is even, it is equally balanced between the two sides who are taking part. EG This has been a pretty even contest. ◊ evenly. EG Government and rebel soldiers are evenly matched. ADJ QUALIT ≠ one-sided ◊ ADV WITH VB

9 If you are even with someone, in informal English, 9.1 you do not owe them anything, such as money or a favour. EG I'll give you two pounds and then we're even. 9.2 you have caused them the same amount of harm or annoyance as they have caused you. EG He'd sworn at me and I'd sworn at him. Now we were even. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN with

10 If you say that you are going to get even with someone, you mean that you are going to cause them the same amount of harm or annoyance as they have caused you. EG Just you wait–I'll get even with you! PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN with

11 If your voice is even, you are speaking in a very controlled way which makes it difficult for people to tell what your feelings are. EG Ralph surprised himself, not so much by the quality of his voice, which was even, but by the bravado of his intention. ◊ evenly. EG Vaughan said evenly, 'Trust me, Martin. You won't be sorry.' ADJ QUALIT = steady, calm ◊ ADV WITH VB

12 If you say that there is an even chance of something happening, or that the odds or chances are even, you mean that the probability of it happening is exactly the same as the probability of it not happening. EG She would have had only an even chance of being saved... I should think the odds are about even. ADJ CLASSIF = fifty-fifty

13 Evens is used to describe something which people bet on, such as a horse in a race, which is thought to be just as likely to succeed as to fail; a technical term in betting and sport. EG Silver Star is the evens favourite. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

14 An even number can be divided exactly by the number two. EG I want to invite an even number of people... Houses with even numbers are on the right, odd numbers on the left. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ odd

15 ● to break even: see break. ● on an even keel: see keel.

even out. When something evens out or when you even it out, its distribution becomes more equal, especially because some of it has gone from one place to another. EG In Asia, irrigation systems help to even out the supply of water over the growing season... No amount of 'social engineering' will even out the world's unfairness. PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV = balance out even up. To even up a contest or game means to make it more equally balanced than it was, because previously one side was better or stronger than the other. EG Frank and I will change sides. That should even things up a bit. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = balance even-handed. Someone who is even-handed is completely fair, especially when they are judging or testing other people. EG He had been a fair and even-handed assessor. ◇ even-handedly. EG She dispensed justice even-handedly. ◇ even-handedness. ADJ QUALIT = impartial ◇ ADV WITH VB ◇ N UNCOUNT evening /iːvnɪŋ/, evenings. 1 The evening is the part of each day between the end of the afternoon and the time when you go to bed. EG It's a lovely summer evening, go out and enjoy it before bedtime... Will she be in later this evening?... She left on Tuesday evening. ▸ used in front of a noun. EG He was silently finishing his evening meal. N COUNT; UNCOUNT ⇑ period ▸ N BEFORE N

2 A particular kind of evening is an entertainment or activity that takes place during an evening. EG Tell me about the meditation evenings that you go to. N COUNT : SUPP

3 If it is a particular time in the evening, it is between the end of the afternoon and midnight. EG He arrived about six in the evening. PHR : USED AS AN ADJ = p.m.

evening class, evening classes; also spelled with a hyphen. An evening class is an educational class for adults that is held in the evening. EG I am now going to evening classes once a week. N COUNT evening dress, evening dresses. 1 An evening dress is a special dress, usually a long one, that a woman wears on a formal occasion in the evening. N COUNT

2 Evening dress consists of the formal clothes worn by people at formal occasions that take place in the evening. N UNCOUNT ⇑ outfit evening star. The evening star is the planet Venus, that shines brightly in the sky just after sunset. N SING : the + N evensong /iːvəˀnsɒŋ/ is the evening service in the Church of England. N UNCOUNT

event /ɪˈvɛnt/, events. 1 An event is 1.1 something that happens, especially when it is unusual or important. EG Next day the newspapers reported the event... ...the most important event in family life... ...the events leading up to the war... ...the course of events. ▸ used in the plural to refer to a whole situation. EG Events now moved swiftly... The authorities were quite unable to control events. N COUNT ▸ N PLURAL 1.2 a planned and organized occasion, for example a social gathering or a sports match. EG ...the Berkeley Ball, a major annual social event... ...the sponsoring of sports events. N COUNT 1.3 one of the races or competitions that are part of an organized occasion, especially in sports. EG Lord Exeter presented the medals for this event... ...a team event. ⇑ competition

2 You say in the event of something, in the event that something happens, in that event, etc when you are talking about a possible future situation, especially when you are planning what to do if it does occur; used in formal English. EG In the event of a tie, the winner will be decided by the toss of a coin... In the unlikely event that they give you any real trouble, give me a ring... In that event, we would probably take the matter to court. PHR

3 You say at all events or in any event, after you have been discussing a situation, in order to indicate that the statement you are making is true or likely, in spite of anything that has happened or may happen. EG At all events, it seems that the lunch might be cancelled... In any event, government was faced with the prospect of widespread protest. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = anyway

4 You say in the event, after you have been discussing what could have happened in a particular situation, in order to indicate that you are now describing what actually did happen; a formal expression. EG In the event, it turned out to be rather fun... ...a scepticism which in the event proved abundantly justified... In the event, there were no further casualties. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = in fact even-tempered. Someone who is even-tempered is usually calm and does not easily get angry. EG She was a happy, even-tempered woman. ADJ QUALIT = placid eventful /ɪˈvɛntfʊl/. Something that is eventful is full of interesting, exciting, or important events. EG ...the most exhausting and eventful day of his life... My social life at that time was so eventful. ADJ QUALIT = busy eventual /ɪˈvɛntʃʊəˀl/ means happening or being achieved at the end of a situation or process. EG ...the company's eventual collapse in 1971... ...anxiety about the eventual outcome... The eventual aim is to cut out the waste. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ final = ultimate eventuality /ɪˈvɛntʃʊæltɪˈ/, eventualities. An eventuality is a possible future event or result, often one that is unpleasant or surprising; a formal word. N COUNT = contingency EG He was ready for any eventuality... an eventuality that no one had foreseen... We are insured against all eventualities.

eventually /ɪˈvɛntʃʊəˀlɪˈ/ means 1 in the end, especially after a lot of delays, problems, or arguments. EG Eventually, in the afternoon, they got through to the hospital... Rodin eventually agreed that Casson was right. ADV ⇑ finally = at last 2 at the end of a situation or process or as the final result of it. EG The three firms eventually became Imperial Airways... His activities eventually led him into politics. ADV ⇑ finally ever /ɛvə/. 1 Ever means at any time in the future, or at any time in the past. It always adds some degree of emphasis and is used in the following ways: 1.1 in negative sentences, questions, conditional structures, and with words expressing uncertainty such as 'doubt'. EG I don't think I'll ever be homesick here... Nothing like it had ever been built before... Have you ever been to Paris?... I shall kill you if you ever mention my visits here... He was unlikely ever to have seen her. ADV ≠ never ● If you say did you ever do something or have you ever done something, you are expressing surprise or shock at something you have just seen, heard, or experienced, and expect people to agree with you. EG Have you ever seen such big ears?... Did you ever hear anything like it?. ● PHR : AUX INFLECTS 1.2 with superlatives, often when you are exaggerating, and in comparisons, especially when you are comparing a present situation with the past or the future. EG ...one of the best novels ever written... I am happier than I have ever been... He's better than you'll ever be... ...more women working than ever before. ADV : COMPAR/SUPERL + ADV

2 Ever also means all the time. It is used in the following ways: 2.1 in expressions like 'ever-increasing' and 'ever-present', to show that something exists all the time or continues doing something or being something all the time. EG ...an ever-increasing prison population... ...an ever-present sense of danger... ...his ever open notebook... Achievement has come to be ever more important to the scientist. COMB : FORMS ADJS = always, constantly 2.2 in order to introduce a quality that a person usually shows all the time, before you go on to talk about a particular situation when they showed it. EG Ever unpredictable, Tallulah could be angry one moment and calm the next... Ever hopeful, McKellen never gave up on the cinema... Ever the optimist, I thought everything would be okay. ADV + ADJ/NG = always

3 Ever is used in informal English in order to give emphasis in the following ways: 3.1 after 'never', in order to emphasize that something never happens, never has happened, or never will happen; used especially in spoken English. EG She never ever wears a hat... I will never talk to him. Ever. ADV : never + ADV 3.2 with superlatives to emphasize strong approval or disapproval; used especially in spoken English. EG They're the sweetest kids ever... It was the most awful film ever. ADV : SUPERL + ADV 3.3 in comparative structures when you want to emphasize that something still has a particular quality to a great degree. EG She looked frailer than ever... The news is as awful as ever. ADV : COMPAR + ADV 3.4 in order to emphasize statements that you make when you are very angry. EG I was a fool ever to marry you... This is the last time I ever want to see you... Don't you ever come here again! ADV 3.5 in questions, often when you do not really expect an answer, in order to emphasize your surprise at something that has been said or something that has happened. EG 'I'm sorry. I'd rather not say.'–'Why ever not?'... Who ever would have thought that?... How ever did you manage it?... Where ever have you been? ADV : WH + ADV = on earth 3.6 in order to emphasize an exclamation that is in the form of a question. EG 'You like girls, don't you?'–'Do I ever!' ADV

4 You use ever since when you want to say that something started being true at a particular time in the past, and to emphasize that it is still true now or to emphasize the long period of time it has been true for. EG 'How long have you lived here?'–'Ever since I was married.'... Jack has loved trains ever since his boyhood... We have been devoted friends ever since. CONJ SUBORD, PREP, OR ADV WITH VB

5 The word ever is also used in the following expressions. 5.1 You use the expression all someone ever does when you want to emphasize that they do the same thing all the time or very often; used showing disapproval. EG All she ever does is make jam. PHR 5.2 You say as ever in order to indicate that someone's behaviour is not at all unusual because PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

they behave like that all the time or very often. EG The children, as ever, were down in the recreation room. 5.3 You often find ever after at the end of children's stories, especially fairy tales. It indicates that the situation at the end of the story continued for a long time. EG They lived happily ever after. 5.4 Ever so and ever such are used to emphasize what you are saying, especially when you are expressing enthusiasm or gratitude; used in informal spoken English. EG They are ever so kind... Thank you ever so much... They're ever such nice people... It's ever such a nice day. 5.5 If you say that someone hardly ever does something, you mean that they do it very rarely. EG I hardly ever drink. 5.6 Yours ever or Ever yours are written at the end of a letter before you sign your name, as an informal and friendly way of ending the letter. EG Yours ever, Harry. 5.7 See also forever.

PHR : USED AS AN A

PHR = very

ADV BRD NEG

CONVENTION

evergreen /ɛvəgriːn/, evergreens. An evergreen is a tree or bush which has green leaves all the year round. EG ...forests of evergreens. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...a small evergreen shrub.

N COUNT

▸ ADJ CLASSIF ≠ deciduous everlasting /ɛvəlɑːstɪŋ/. Something that is everlasting continues to exist for a long time and may never come to an end; a literary word. EG ...the everlasting snows of the mighty Himalayas... It promises only everlasting misery for the tiny community... Hawkins, to his everlasting credit, refused... Grant us life everlasting. Amen. ◊ everlastingly. EG He was everlastingly optimistic.

ADJ CLASSIF, OR ADJ AFTER N = eternal

◊ ADV = forever

evermore /ɛvəmɔː/ means for all the time in the future; a formal or literary word, sometimes used in prayers. EG Watch over us, now and for evermore.

ADV = always

every /ɛvriˈ/. 1 Every is used to refer to each member of a particular group of more than two things or people, when you are emphasizing that you are considering them all. EG She spoke to every person at that party... Posy changed the subject every time it was raised... He read every one of my scripts... I have answered every single question.

DET + N COUNT IN SING

2 Every is used to emphasize that you are talking about the whole of something by referring to each of the smaller parts of it. EG I loved every minute of it... She's taken the whole lot! Every drop of it!... He washed off every bit of dirt.

DET + N COUNT IN SING

3 Every is used to refer to all the members of a group of people or set of things that there may possibly be. EG The crowd was of all ages and every colour... They are willing to help at every opportunity... They are encouraged in every way.

DET + N COUNT IN SING

4 Every is used when you talk about frequency 4.1 in order to say that something happens at regular periods of time. EG They met every day... We go to Mass every Sunday... The government changes every 5 years... I visit her about once every six months. 4.2 in expressions such as 'every now and then' in order to indicate that something happens occasionally; by using every, you make the activity seem slightly more frequent and regular. EG Every now and then she would cry out... ...every now and again... ...every once in a while... Every so often, she spends a weekend in London.

DET ⇑ each

DET + A

5 If you say, for example, that something happens every second day, every other day, or every alternate day, you mean that it happens on one day in each period of two days. EG It seemed easier to shave every second day... We only save enough money to take a real vacation every other year. ● If you say that something happens every third day, every fourth year, etc, you mean that it happens on one day in each period of three days, in one year in each period of four years, etc.

PHR + NG

● PHR + NG

6 Every is used in front of a number when you are considering how many things or people within a group are affected by something, or when it is the second number in a comparison. EG One woman in every two hundred is a sufferer... Five out of every six hectares of land were unused... Since 1976, nine women have lost jobs for every five men.

DET : NUM + PREP + DET + NUM

7 Every is used to emphasize that you are confident that a feeling, quality, or action is correct, necessary, or will happen in a particular situation. EG I have every expectation of good crops... Guibaud had every reason to be pleased... They show every sign of continuing to advance... We have every right to marry. ● If you say that someone or something is every bit as good, true, etc as someone or something else, you are defending or supporting the first person or thing, because other people think they are less good, true, etc; an informal use. EG She believes she is every bit as good as you are.

DET + N COUNT IN SING ≠ no

● PHR ⇑ equally

everybody /ɛvrɪbɒdiˈ/. See everyone.

everyday /ɛvrɪdeɪ/. Everyday is used to describe something which 1 forms a regular and basic part of normal life, and is not especially interesting or unusual. EG People could resume a normal everyday life... ...their role in everyday affairs... ...things which were common and everyday to him but luxuries to them... I rarely run out of everyday food. 2 happens or is used each day. EG Exercise is part of my everyday routine... ...everyday home activities like cooking... The furniture was threadbare from everyday use.

ADJ CLASSIF = ordinary

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ regular = day-to-day

everyone /ɛvrɪwəˀn/. The form everybody is also used. Everyone and everybody are used when you are talking about people. 1 You use everyone and everybody to refer to all the people in a particular group, usually of more than two. EG Everybody in the office laughed... She was genuinely interested in everyone she met... ...everyone except Dana... ...a small organization where everyone knows everyone else... Has everybody eaten as much as they want?

PRON INDEF ≠ no one, nobody

2 You use everyone and everybody to refer generally to all people in the world. EG Everybody has his dream... Everyone has their own ideas about it... You can't please everyone... Everyone knows that.

PRON INDEF ≠ no one, nobody

3 You use everyone and everybody when you want to refer to a large number of people. EG Everyone is waiting to see his new film... Everyone knew Eddie... Everybody kept asking where you were... What's the point of having a Jaguar, if everybody else has one?

PRON INDEF ≠ no one, nobody

everything /ɛvrɪθɪŋ/. 'Everything is used when you are talking about things, ideas, actions, situations, etc. 1 You use everything to refer in general terms to all the objects, actions, activities, or facts in a particular situation that you are talking about. EG I don't agree with everything he says... A vet is supposed to know about everything from a cow to a mouse... I will arrange everything... Dust slowly covered everything.

PRON INDEF ≠ nothing

2 You use everything to refer to all possible or likely actions, activities, or situations when you are making a general statement about them. EG That's your answer to everything... The twins did everything alike... You think of everything.

PRON INDEF ≠ nothing

3 You use everything to refer to a whole situation or to life in general, especially in relation to the way it is changing or the way it is affecting you. EG Is everything all right?... Everything's fine... Everything went on just as before.

PRON INDEF : USU USED AS S = things

4 You use everything to refer to a general atmosphere that exists in a situation. EG Everything is quiet... Here everything was bustle and talk.

PRON INDEF : USU USED AS S = all

5 You use everything to emphasize an aspect or quality that you consider to be very striking or important. EG There is everything wrong with this place... This has nothing to do with terrorism and has everything to do with politics.

PRON INDEF ≠ nothing

6 You use everything to refer to something that you consider to be the most important and valuable thing in your life. EG Money isn't everything... She means everything to me.

PRON INDEF = all ≠ nothing

7 You say and everything after a particular thing or list of things in order to indicate that they are only examples and that other things may have been involved; used in informal English. EG I've argued with him and everything, but he won't listen!... We bought a huge window-the frame, glass and everything-for just a few dollars.

everywhere /ɛvrɪwɛə/. Everywhere is used especially when you are talking about places. 1 You use everywhere to refer in general terms to a whole area or all the places in a particular area. EG Everywhere in Asia it is the same... People everywhere are becoming aware of the problem.

ADV

2 You use everywhere to refer to all the places that someone or something goes to, when you are speaking in general terms rather than considering specific places. EG Everywhere I went, people were angry or suspicious... She always carried a gun with her everywhere.

ADV WITH VB

3 You use everywhere to refer to lots of places or a very large area, when you are exaggerating or emphasizing the number of places or the size of the area. EG Today videos are everywhere... I was looking everywhere for Jenny... Jack's been everywhere.

ADV AFTER VB

4 You use everywhere to make a general statement about a situation that exists in all places in the world. EG The laws of nature are the same everywhere... Children everywhere love to have stories read to them. ADV

evict /ɪˈvɪkt/, evicts, evicting, evicted. To evict someone means to officially force them to leave a house that they are living in or a piece of land that they are occupying, because they have broken a law or contract. EG ...attempts to evict families from their homes... Being a good tenant, he can't be evicted... Indians have been evicted from their traditional lands. V + O eviction /ɪˈvɪkʃəⁿn/, evictions. Eviction is the act or process of officially forcing someone to leave a house or piece of land. EG ...seeking Barnett's eviction from the Malibu house... The family faces eviction for non-payment of rent... ...an eviction notice. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

evidence /ɛvɪdəns/, evidences, evidencing, evidenced. 1 Evidence is 1.1 anything that you see, experience, read, or are told that causes you to believe that something is true or has really happened. EG In China, we saw evidence everywhere that a real effort was being made to promote tourism.... Later we got evidence of another leak... There is no evidence to suggest it will occur... He gave no evidence for his statement... ...the historical evidence. 1.2 the information which is used in a court of law to try to prove something and which is obtained from documents, objects, or witnesses; a technical term in law. EG There was no real evidence against Davis... The photograph was part of the evidence in a divorce case. 1.3 the way a person behaves in a particular situation, which shows what they feel or think about it. EG He was hoping for evidence of interest but found only cynicism... If he was irritated by his cameraman, he showed no evidence of it. N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = sign, indication
2 If you give evidence in a court of law or an official enquiry, you officially tell facts that you know about people or events, or describe an occasion at which you were present. What you say helps the court or enquiry to reach a final decision. EG The doctor gave evidence at an inquest... He had given evidence for the defence in the Lady Chatterley case... She will give evidence to a committee of enquiry. ● If something you say is held in evidence, it is officially written down, especially by the police, and may be used as evidence in a court of law. EG These things have been noted and will be held in evidence. PHR : VB INFLECTS = testify ● PHR : AUX INFLECTS
3 If someone or something is in evidence, they are present and can be clearly seen in a particular situation. EG The servants were never in evidence... Lawlessness was particularly in evidence in the towns. PHR : USED AS AN A = noticeable
4 If a particular feeling, ability, attitude, etc is evidenced by something, it is shown to exist; used in formal English. EG Boredom is often evidenced among college students... You evidenced no talent for music... We were attracting a growing number of females, as evidenced by the formation of the Women's Section. V + O : USU PASS = demonstrate, exhibit evident /ɛvɪdənt/. If something such as a feeling, attitude, or reason is evident, it is easily noticed or understood. EG She took a sip with evident enjoyment... Their exact purpose was not always evident to observers... This is most strikingly evident in the field of economics... It was evident that his faith in the Government was severely shaken. ADJ QUALIT = clear, obvious evidently /ɛvɪdəntlɪˈ/ is used 1 to indicate that you think something is true but that you are not sure, because you do not have enough information or proof. EG They said it would come last week, but evidently they had failed to send it... Evidently he feared I was going to refuse... ...a list of names referring, evidently, to her class at school. 2 to say that something is obviously true, for example because you have seen proof of it yourself. EG I found her in bed, evidently in great pain... You are evidently a craftsman... She was evidently excited. 3 to introduce a statement or opinion and to emphasize that it is true or correct; a formal use. EG Evidently, such men are usually powerful and wealthy... Evidently, a sculpture must exist as an object. ADV SEN = clearly ADV SEN = plainly ADV SEN = clearly evil /iːvəⁿl/, evils. 1 Evil is 1.1 a powerful force that is believed to cause wicked and bad things to happen. EG ...the conflict between good and evil... ...the forces of evil and darkness... There was never any trace of evil in her–she was good all through. 1.2 all the wicked and bad things that happen in the world. EG ...the good and the evil in Victorian Britain... He felt pain as he contemplated the evil in the universe. N UNCOUNT

2 An evil is a very unpleasant or harmful situation or activity. EG Taxation is a necessary evil in my view... ...social evils... ...a sermon on the evils of drink. N COUNT : USU SUPP
3 Someone who is evil is very wicked by nature and takes pleasure in doing things that harm other people. EG I've known for years that Molly was really evil. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ bad ≠ good
4 Something that is evil 4.1 causes a great deal of harm to people and is regarded as morally bad. EG Slavery was the most evil and inhumane system of labour ever devised... No political system is evil unless it involves force and cruelty. 4.2 is influenced by the devil. EG ...an evil and dreadful and sinister place... This prayer was believed to protect a man from possession by evil spirits while he slept. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ harmful = wicked ADJ CLASSIF
5 If you describe something as evil, you mean that it is very unpleasant. EG ...the evil noise of the underground trains... ...an evil smell. ◊ evilly. EG The kitchen stank powerfully and evilly of rotting fish. ADJ QUALIT = foul ◊ ADV
6 An evil hour or evil day is a time that you think will be a very unpleasant experience or when something unpleasant will happen. EG It is my duty to keep off the evil day of her marriage as long as I can. ADJ QUALIT ATTRIB

evildoer /iːvəⁿlduːə/, evildoers. An evildoer is a person whose behaviour is wicked and who causes harm and suffering to others. N COUNT ⇑ wrongdoer evil eye. The evil eye is the magical power to cast a spell on someone or something by looking at them, so that bad things happen to them; also used to refer to the actual look that someone with this power gives to someone or something. EG She gave me the evil eye. N SING : the + N ⇑ look evince /ɪˈvɪns/, evinces, evincing, evinced. If someone evinces a feeling or quality, they show it very clearly; used in formal English. EG I have never heard one of our boys evince any interest in the movement. V + O evocation /iːvəkeɪʃəⁿn/, evocations. An evocation is an act of evoking an emotion, memory, or response; a formal word. EG It was disturbing, this evocation of her young self... ...nostalgic evocations of rural America... ...the wealth of visual evocation which the novel offers. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : USU SUPP evocative /ɪˈvɒkətɪv/. Something that is evocative produces memories, emotions, and responses in people. EG ...an evocative description. ◊ evocatively. EG Old photographs are evocatively displayed round the building. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV evoke /ɪˈvəʊk/, evokes, evoking, evoked. To evoke a particular emotion, memory, reaction, etc, means to cause it to be felt, expressed, or recalled. EG The quarrel seemed to evoke the bitterest passions... He had never quite lost the sense of wonder evoked by the sight of his own home. V + O ⇑ produce evolution /iːvəluːʃəⁿn/ is 1 a process of gradual change that takes place over many generations, during which animals, plants, insects, etc, slowly change some of their physical characteristics. EG The processes of evolution are still going on among plants, birds, and animals... ...the evolution of the human species... The Darwinian theory of evolution is really very ancient. 2 a process of gradual and uninterrupted change and development in a particular situation over a period of time. EG Cultural and social evolution has now become extremely rapid... ...the evolution of parliamentary democracy. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT : SUPP evolutionary /iːvəluːʃənəⁿrɪˈ/ means relating to the process of gradual change and development in animals, plants, insects, etc. EG ...the evolutionary process... ...evolutionary theory. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB evolve /ɪˈvɒlv/, evolves, evolving, evolved. 1 When animals, plants, insects, etc evolve, they gradually change and develop into different forms. EG Once more the continent was cut off and its animals evolved in isolation... The early fish have evolved into some 30,000 different species. V OR V + O : IF PREP THEN into, from 2 If something evolves or you evolve it, it gradually develops and changes over a period of time into something different and usually more advanced. EG I think that this policy must have evolved over time... Good planting schemes can take years to evolve... V ERG ⇑ change = develop

How did Giotto evolve this very personal and original style?

ewe /juː/, ewes. A ewe is a female adult sheep. N COUNT

ewer /juːə/, ewers. A ewer is a large jug with a wide opening; an old-fashioned word. N COUNT

ex /ɛks/. Someone's ex is their ex-wife, ex-husband, ex-girlfriend, etc. N SING : POSS + N

ex- is added to nouns and adjectives that refer to people and things to show that the person or thing no longer has the characteristic described by the noun or adjective. EG ...British→ex-British... ...serviceman→ex-serviceman... ...wife→ex-wife. PREFIX = former exacerbate /ɪɡzæsəbeɪt, ɪksæs-/, exacerbates, exacerbating, exacerbated. To exacerbate something means to make it a lot worse; a formal word. EG Withholding aid only exacerbates the situation. V + O = worsen, aggravate exact /ɪɡzækt/, exacts, exacting, exacted. 1 Something that is exact is 1.1 accurate, correct, and specific rather than based on a guess or an approximation. EG He noted the exact time and place on the sketch... He searched his vocabulary for the exact word to define his feelings. 1.2 correct and complete in every detail. EG ...an exact replica of Hamburg airport... The ceremony had to be performed in an exact manner and with dignity. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ right = precise ≠ approximate ADJ CLASSIF = precise ≠ rough

2 You say to be exact to indicate that you are now giving more detailed information or a slight correction that relates to what you have been saying. EG There was a double bed: a big panel bed, to be exact, with a Tuscan rose chenille spread... I had a hunch that this would be possible, or to be more exact, could see no reason why it should not be so. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = in fact

3 Exact is used to emphasize that something is very similar to something else that you have just been talking about, or that it has a precise and close relationship with it. EG That was the exact type of moccasin I was trying to describe to you... It is the exact opposite of Pop art. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 Someone who is exact, especially in their work, is very careful and detailed in their thinking and methods. EG ...a modest man and an exact and patient scientist. ADJ QUALIT = meticulous

5 An exact science is one that is based on measurement and formulation of laws rather than on description and classification, for example maths or physics. EG History is not an exact science. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

6 When someone exacts something, they demand and obtain it from someone else, especially because they are in a superior or more powerful position; a formal use. EG They exacted absolute obedience from their followers... The sum he had exacted on occupying the city was not unreasonable. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from exacting /ɪɡzæktɪŋ/. If someone or something is exacting, they demand hard work and a great deal of care. EG The task proved to be exacting... Both were tireless workers and exacting bosses... The state of repair failed to measure up to their exacting standards. ADJ QUALIT = rigorous exactitude /ɪɡzæktɪtjuːd/ is the quality of being very accurate and careful. EG He copied the words which followed with exactitude... ...military exactitude. N UNCOUNT = accuracy exactly /ɪɡzæktlɪ/. 1 Exactly means with complete accuracy and precision. EG I don't know exactly where it is, but it's in the south of France... Sam answered the owl's cry, imitating it exactly... You've exactly one hour to do those. ADV = precisely ≠ roughly

2 You can use exactly to emphasize the truth of a statement, or the similarity or close relationship that something has with something else. EG He's exactly like a little baby... I think the computer presents exactly that challenge... That's exactly what they told me. ADV = just, precisely

3 If you say 'exactly', you are agreeing with someone or emphasizing that what they have said is correct. EG 'Do you mean that we are stuck here?'–'Exactly, my dear.'... 'You were told you wouldn't be able to go if you'd lost your tickets?'–'Exactly, yes.' CONVENTION = just so, precisely

4 You use not exactly 4.1 to indicate that a word is not quite what you mean, or that a situation is not quite as has been stated, especially when it is explained more accurately in the following statement. EG He didn't exactly block me, but he didn't move either... He was ineffective, not exactly a weakling, but ineffective... 'She's taken the day off.'–'Is she sick?'–'Not exactly.' 4.2 to suggest in a rather ironic, sarcastic, or humorous way, that the opposite of what is being said is true. EG His father was not exactly poor: he left 10 million pounds... The divorce wasn't exactly amiable. ADV : ALSO USED AS CONVENTION ADV

exactness /ɪɡzæktnɪs/ is the quality of being accurate and very precise. EG He chose to express himself delicately and with great exactness. N UNCOUNT = precision exaggerate /ɪɡzædʒəreɪt/, exaggerates, exaggerating, exaggerated. 1 If you exaggerate, you say something which is more than the true facts, for example because you want to emphasize how impressive or important something is. EG I am exaggerating a little... She did not exaggerate about the height of the tower... I don't think it is possible to exaggerate the power of television. ◊ exaggeration /ɪɡzædʒəreɪʃən/, exaggerations. EG Isn't that a bit of an exaggeration?... One can speak, without exaggeration, of a peaceful revolution. V OR V + O ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT

2 If something exaggerates a situation, quality, feature, etc, it makes the situation, quality, feature, etc appear more obvious or more important than it really is. EG The figures quoted here tend to exaggerate the inequality between rich and poor... Ballet exaggerates ordinary body movements. ◊ exaggeration. EG He spoke with a mocking exaggeration of my accent. V + O ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT exaggerated /ɪɡzædʒəreɪtɪd/. Something that is exaggerated is or seems larger, better, worse, or more important than it actually needs to be. EG Brody heaved an exaggerated sigh... I considered this remark exaggerated but complimentary... ...an exaggerated swing of the hips. ◊ exaggeratedly. EG ...an exaggeratedly intense smile... Her features moved slowly, exaggeratedly, like a bad actress. ADJ QUALIT = overdone ◊ ADV exalt /ɪɡzɔːlt/, exalts, exalting, exalted; a formal word. To exalt someone means 1 to praise them very highly. EG Some historians exalt Churchill as a war leader. 2 to raise them to a higher position in society. EG The Prime Minister exalted many of his friends. V + O = extol V + O = elevate exaltation /ɛɡzɔːlteɪʃən/; a formal word. Exaltation is 1 an intense feeling of great joy and happiness. EG ...peasants in a state of religious exaltation. 2 the act of praising something or someone very highly. EG ...the exaltation of nature and the soil. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT exalted /ɪɡzɔːltɪd/; a formal word. Someone who is exalted is 1 very high in rank or importance. EG I had never met so exalted a person... They were men who owed their exalted positions to politics rather than experience. 2 full of joy and happiness. EG I spread my arms wide and felt joyous and exalted and free. ADJ QUALIT = prominent ADJ QUALIT = exultant exam /ɪɡzæm/, exams. An exam is an official and formal test that you take to show your knowledge or ability in a particular subject or to obtain a qualification. EG After the third term we'll be sitting the exam... ...chemistry exams... ...exam results. N COUNT = examination examination /ɪɡzæmɪneɪʃən/, examinations. 1 An examination is an official and formal test that you take to show your knowledge or ability in a particular subject or to obtain a qualification; a more formal word than 'exam'. EG ...a three-hour written examination... ...examination results. 2 See also examine. N COUNT examine /ɪɡzæmɪn/, examines, examining, examined. 1 If you examine something, 1.1 you look carefully or closely at it. EG I examined the lighter, then handed it back... She sat back in a chair and examined her fingernails. ◊ examination /ɪɡzæmɪneɪʃən/, examinations. EG Mrs Oliver applied herself to an examination of the address book. V + O = inspect, scrutinize ◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT = inspection

1.2 you officially look at or inspect every part of it as carefully as possible in order to discover something about it. EG Divers were sent down to examine the hull... Government experts were still examining the wreckage of the plane. ◊ examination. EG A detailed examination was made of the plane's flight recorder... The weapon was taken away for examination. V + O = go over ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT = inspection

2 If a doctor examines you or a part of your body, he or she looks at your body or at a particular part of it in order to make sure that you are healthy. EG We stayed with her until the doctor examined her... An optician is qualified to examine your eyes and prescribe glasses. ◊ examination. EG A full examination of the chest failed to reveal anything... There are three consulting-rooms and two examination rooms. V + O ◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT = check-up

3 When people examine an idea, proposal, plan, etc, they consider or discuss it very carefully. EG The V + O = investigate committee has been examining whether Mr Grantham's letter contravenes the Offical Secrets Act... It is necessary to examine this claim before we proceed any further... His novel examines the borderline between fact and fiction. ◊ examination. EG ...an important case which merits closer examination... Self-criticism calls for a constant examination of values and attitudes. ◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT

4 To examine someone means to find out how much they know by asking them questions or by making them take an exam. EG These pupils were examined in a total of 39 subjects. V + O OR V ⇑ test examiner /ɪᵌgzæmɪnə/, examiners. An examiner is a person who sets or marks an exam. EG ...the values and requirements of examiners. N COUNT example /ɪᵌgzɑːmpᵊl/, examples. 1 An example of something is a particular situation, event, object, person, etc, often one of a number of similar things, that illustrates a point you are making, or that supports an argument, theory, or opinion. EG London and Liverpool are examples of a policy of decentralization... Primary fuels: examples of these are crude oil, coal and natural gas... Professional people, doctors, lawyers, booksellers-just to mention a few examples-are sprinkled all over the city... Could you give me an example of an application of this principle? N COUNT

2 You use for example to introduce and emphasize something that illustrates a point you are making, or that supports an argument, theory, or opinion. EG Japan, for example, has two languages... In our library we have quite a lot of newspapers, The Times, for example, and the New York Times... This file contains a sheet of paper with a list of names, addresses and telephone numbers that are important to you. For example: doctor; dentist; vet; garage, and so on... Although no one can claim that the probation service is well paid, there have been improvements and the work is now better paid than, for example, most teaching posts. ADV SEN = for instance

3 An example of a particular class of objects, style, etc, is something that has many of the typical features of such a class or style, and that you consider clearly represents it. EG It's a very fine example of traditional architecture... The most commonly cited example of a primitive device is the abacus... He brought along several examples of his work for her to look at... There's a particularly good example in the middle of the book. N COUNT

4 An example is a person, or their way of behaving or acting in a particular situation, that inspires or encourages other people to behave or act in a similar way. EG ...a shining example to progressive people everywhere... Pizzaro did, of course, have the example of Cortes to inspire and guide him, too... Children then see an example of successful co-operation which they can copy... They are presumably as capable of profiting by example as any others. N COUNT : ALSO by + N

5 If you follow someone's example, you behave in the same way as they did in the past, or in a similar way, especially because you think it is a good idea or you have been encouraged or inspired by it. EG He published a written protest, and invited others to follow his example... A number of people followed Reverend Shuttleworth's example and were subsequently arrested. PHR : VB INFLECTS

6 If you set an example, you encourage or inspire people by your behaviour to behave or act in a similar way to the way that you do or have done in a particular situation. EG She set such a good example to us all... I suppose the kind of example I'm setting her is one which undermines authority. PHR : VB INFLECTS

7 If you make an example of someone, you punish them severely as a warning to other people, so that people will be afraid and will not commit the same crime or behave in the same way. EG It was decided to make an example of some of the top conspirators. PHR : VB INFLECTS

8 An example is a clause or sentence in a dictionary that comes after the definition of a particular word and that illustrates the way the word is used. EG Examples are printed in italics. N COUNT = illustration exasperate /ɪᵌgzɑːspəreɪt/, exasperates, exasperating, exasperated. If someone or something exasperates you, they annoy you and make you feel rather frustrated or upset. EG She frequently exasperates her friends. ◊ exasperated. EG He had an exasperated look on his face... She was getting more and more exasperated. ◊ exasperating. EG I have seldom had a more exasperating day. V + O ◊ ADJ QUALIT

◊ exasperation /ɪᵌgzɑːspəreɪʃəᵊn/. EG He looked at the little boy in exasperation... I was almost crying from exasperation. ◊ N UNCOUNT

excavate /ɛkskəveɪt/, excavates, excavating, excavated. 1 When people excavate a piece of land, they remove earth carefully from it and look for very old things such as pots, bones, or buildings which are buried there, in order to discover information about the past. EG The Project has excavated and partially restored the hilltop fort... He excavated at many sites in Kenya and Tanzania. ◊ excavation /ɛkskəveɪʃəᵊn/, excavations. EG ...the excavation of a Neolithic lake village... Further excavations had to wait until the following year. V OR V + O ⇑ dig ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT

2 To excavate also means to dig a hole in the ground, for example in order to build something there. EG The turtles burrow deep into the sand and excavate a small chamber... They were excavating an underground helicopter base at the time. V OR V + O excavator /ɛkskəveɪtə/, excavators. An excavator is a very large machine that is used for digging, for example on a building site. N COUNT exceed /ɪᵌksiːd/, exceeds, exceeding, exceeded. 1 If something exceeds a particular amount or number, it is greater or larger than the amount or number. EG Average annual temperatures exceed 20 centigrade... His gross income will very likely exceed £900,000 this year... Sales exceeded all expectations. V + O = top

2 If you exceed a limit or rule, you go beyond it, even though you are not supposed to or it is against the law. EG A motorist was caught exceeding the speed limit... The company is not allowed to exceed its budget... You were exceeding your duty in opening those letters. V + O = go over exceedingly /ɪᵌksiːdɪŋlɪ¹/ means very or very much; a rather old-fashioned word. EG The Colonel was exceedingly wealthy... Doug is an exceedingly amiable fellow. ADV + ADJ/ADV = enormously excel /ɪᵌksɛl/, excels, excelling, excelled. If someone excels in something or excels at it, they are very good at doing it. EG We want to improve, to excel... He excels at sports... It is in this area of running that women excel... They had excelled in acts of inhumanity. V : IF : PREP THEN at/in = shine ≠ fail excellence /ɛksələns/. 1 Excellence is the quality of being very good at something. EG Sports is an area in which excellence is still treasured... The job has new responsibilities and a new standard of excellence to maintain. N UNCOUNT

2 See also par excellence.

Excellency /ɛksələnsɪ¹/, Excellencies. You use Excellency when you are referring to or addressing officials of very high rank, for example ambassadors or governors. EG His Excellency is willing to see you now... Will that be all, your Excellency?... Good morning, Excellency. N WITH PL IN TITLES : USU DETPOSS + N excellent /ɛksələnt/. 1 Something that is excellent is very good indeed. EG I think the teaching at the school is excellent... That's an excellent idea... Her work was always excellent. ◊ excellently. EG The system works excellently... There are some excellently preserved fossils here. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV

2 You can say excellent to show that you approve of something. EG 'We'll come round in the morning.'-'Excellent. I'll see you then'. EXCLAM ⇑ good except /ɪᵌksɛpt/, excepts, excepting, excepted. 1 You use except in order to introduce the only things, people, or ideas that your main statement does not apply to. EG Anything, except water, is likely to block a sink... All the boys except Piggy started to giggle... He no longer went out, except when Jeannie forced him... I knew nothing about Judith except what I'd heard at second hand... I didn't see him, except casually, in two months... There was little I could do except wait... I can scarcely remember what we ate, except that it was plentiful and simple. PREP OR CONJ SUBORD = apart from, save ≠ including

2 Except for is used to introduce the only things, people, or ideas that prevent your main statement from being completely true. EG The classroom was silent, except for the busy scratching of pens on paper... The room was very cold and, except for Morris, entirely empty... Except for emergencies I PREP = apart from, excepting ◊ ADJ QUALIT have found it easier not to expect any help from my children.

3 You can also use except to introduce a reason or excuse that you have for not doing something or for not completely agreeing with a statement. EG I'd tell you about it, except it would probably put you to sleep... I even felt like apologizing to them except that they wouldn't know what I was talking about.

CONJ SUBORD : USU + REPORT-CL = only

4 To except something means to regard it as not included in a general statement, judgement, or rule. EG Most of the reviews saved my embarrassment a little by excepting the script from their general criticism of the film... Men! I hate them! Present company excepted, of course.

V + O = exclude ≠ count excepting /ɪ²ksɛptɪŋ/ is used to introduce the only things, people, or ideas that prevent your main statement from being completely true. EG He was the only human male for a couple of miles around (excepting an old stone-deaf handyman).

PREP OR CONJ SUBORD

exception /ɪ²ksɛpʃə⁰n/, exceptions. 1 An exception is a particular thing, person, or situation that is not included in a general statement, judgement, or rule. EG I think we have more paper per employee in this department than in any other, perhaps with the exception of Planning... Women, with a few prominent exceptions, are conspicuous by their absence in politics... As always with human behaviour, there are exceptions to this general rule.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of/to

2 You use without exception to indicate that the statement you are making is true in all cases. EG Without exception these measures would be costly... Almost without exception, the fastest-growing cities are in Africa.

PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

3 If you take exception to something, you feel offended or annoyed by it, usually with the result that you complain about it. EG There are three things you've just said that I want to take exception to... I take exception to being called 'love'.

PHR : VB INFLECTS = object

exceptionable /ɪ²ksɛpʃə⁰nəbə⁰l/. Something that is exceptionable causes you to feel offended or annoyed, usually with the result that you complain about it. EG What I do find really quite exceptionable in his argument is the idea that a woman is unfit to run a company.

ADJ QUALIT = objectionable exceptional /ɪ²ksɛpʃə⁰nəl, ʃənə⁰l/. 1 Someone who is exceptional is unusually talented, clever, or gifted. EG She was an exceptional teacher... ...an exceptional mathematician... My brother isn't exceptional; there are plenty of youngsters like him. ▸ used of a person's abilities and achievements. EG ...an act of exceptional daring.

ADJ QUALIT = extraordinary, rare

2 Exceptional situations, incidents, cases, etc, are unusual and only likely to happen very rarely. EG Permission will be granted only in very exceptional circumstances... There is no provision in the basic pension for exceptional needs.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unusual ≠ normal

exceptionally /ɪ²ksɛpʃə⁰nəlɪ¹/. You can use exceptionally 1 to emphasize that something has a particular quality to a very high degree indeed. EG ...an exceptionally fine meal... February had been exceptionally wet. 2 to indicate that what you are talking about is unusual and only likely to happen very rarely. EG Exceptionally, some causes do bring on to the streets large numbers of people.

ADV + ADJ/ADV = extraordinarily

ADV SEN ≠ normally

excerpt /ɛksɜ:pt/, excerpts. An excerpt is a short piece of writing or music which is taken from a larger piece, such as a book or symphony. EG Here are a few excerpts from her diary.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ part = extract excess, excesses. The word excess is pronounced /ɛksɛs/ when it is an adjective, and either /ɪ²ksɛs/ or /ɛksɛs/ when it is a noun. 1 An excess of something is a larger amount than is actually needed, allowed, or usual. EG Inflation results from an excess of demand over supply... This report should discourage us all from eating an excess of fat.

N SING : an + N. USU + of = surfeit

2 In excess of means more than a particular amount; a rather formal expression. EG Only a few years ago interest rates in excess of 20 per cent would have been unthinkable.

PREP = above, over

3 Excess is used to describe something which is more than is actually needed, allowed, or usual. EG Exercise can at least help the body to burn off excess calories... The body promptly gets rid of excess water through the urine.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = surplus

4 If you do something to excess, you do it too much; used showing disapproval. EG He spent all his time alone in the flat, cleaning and tidying it to excess... Don't eat to excess.

PHR : USED AS AN A

5 Excess is behaviour that is unacceptable because it is considered too extreme or immoral. EG ...a life given up to excess or the search for excitement.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

6 Excesses are acts or actions which are very extreme, irresponsible, cruel, immoral, etc. EG I'm tired of hearing of your mother's excesses... ...the excesses of the French Revolution.

N PLURAL

excessive /ɪ²ksɛsɪv/ is used to describe things that are considered to be too great, too large, or too extreme. EG Excessive rainfall washes out valuable minerals from the soil... Their profits can only be described as excessive... ...excessive pessimism. ◊ excessively. EG He laughed excessively, even holding his sides... He walked excessively fast.

ADJ QUALIT

◊ ADV

exchange /ɪ²kstʃeɪnd⁰ʒ/, exchanges, exchanging, exchanged. 1 If two or more people exchange things of a particular kind, they give them to each other at the same time. EG They hardly exchanged a word... The three of us exchanged addresses... We exchanged greetings over the wall... The boys were ready to exchange blows.

V + O

2 If you exchange something or exchange it for something else, you replace it with something else, especially something that is better or more satisfactory. EG We will be glad to exchange damaged goods... The sales girl refused to exchange the sweater... Their rags were exchanged for new clothing... She exchanged the jewels for money.

V + O . IF + PREP THEN for = change

3 If you exchange your house or job with someone, you live or work in the place where they normally live or work, while they live or work where you normally live or work. EG The Ingrams exchanged houses with some friends who live in London... I'm Philip Swallow-exchanging with Professor Zapp.

V OR V + O . IF + PREP THEN with

4 An exchange is 4.1 the act of doing or giving something to another person at the same time as they do or give something to you. EG ...an almost imperceptible exchange of glances... ...a direct and personal exchange of views... ...a polite exchange of information. 4.2 the act of temporarily going to live in another person's house or doing another person's job at the same time as they go to live in your house or do your job. EG ...the exchange of visiting teachers... What are the advantages of a holiday home exchange? 4.3 a brief conversation, usually an angry one; a formal use. EG Our exchange was heated and soon a confrontation had brewed... Throughout these exchanges I had a curious feeling of detachment. 4.4 an event during a war when armies or nations use weapons against each other; a military use. EG ...the nightmare of unrestricted nuclear exchange.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ transfer

N COUNT ⇑ interchange

N COUNT

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

5 in exchange. 5.1 You use in exchange to say that something is done or given in return for something else. EG They helped him. In exchange, he was to provide them with information. 5.2 If you give a person something in exchange for something else, you give it to them because they are giving the other thing to you. EG They were given food, shelter and clothes in exchange for two years labour without wages... They sold chemicals and textiles in exchange for agricultural products.

PHR : USED AS AN A

PREP = in return for 6 An exchange is also 6.1 a place where people trade and do business with each other. EG ...the Corn Exchange. 6.2 the same as a telephone exchange. EG Get the exchange to call their number.

N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES

N COUNT

7 See also foreign exchange, stock exchange, telephone exchange.

exchange rate, exchange rates. An exchange rate is the rate at which a sum of money of one country's currency is exchanged for an equivalent sum of money of another country's currency.

N COUNT

Exchequer /ɪ²kstʃɛkə/. The Exchequer is the department in the British government which is responsible for receiving, issuing and accounting for money belonging to the state. ● See also Chancellor of the Exchequer.

N PROPER : the + N

excise, excises, excising, excised. The word excise is pronounced /ɛksaɪz/ when it is a noun, and /ɪ²ksaɪz/ when it is a verb. 1 Excise is a tax that the government of a country puts on goods which are produced for sale in that country. ● See also Customs and Excise.

N UNCOUNT : USU BEFORE N

2 If you excise something, you remove it completely; a formal or technical use. EG The lump was excised and a series of tests done.

V + O = cut out

excitable /ɪ²ksaɪtəbə⁰l/. Someone who is excitable is rather nervous and becomes excited very easily. EG ...a wavy-haired child who was a little excitable. ◊ excitability /ɪ²ksaɪtə¹bɪlɪ¹tɪ¹/. ADJ QUALIT = temperamental ◊ N UNCOUNT excite /ɪ²ksaɪt/, excites, exciting, excited. 1 If something or someone excites you, 1.1 they give you strong feelings of happiness, nervousness, worry, etc that make you unable to relax. EG 'What happened, doctor?'—'Don't excite yourself, please. Everything is normal.' 1.2 they make you very interested and enthusiastic. EG The idea of journalism excited me... He is like a modern Luther. Theological debate excites him. 1.3 they cause you to feel sexual desire. EG Why does the way she walks excite me so much? 2 If something excites a particular feeling, emotion, or reaction, it causes it to happen. EG These rumours excited the suspicion of corruption in the Civil Service... The experiment excited much admiration... One paragraph in particular excited his interest. 3 If something excites an organ, tissue, or nerve in your body, it causes a response in it, or increases its activity; a technical use. V+O = stimulate / V+O = arouse / V+O = arouse / V+O = stimulate excited /ɪ²ksaɪtɪ²d/. If you are excited, you are 1 so happy that you are full of energy and cannot relax, especially because you are looking forward to an enjoyable and special event and cannot stop thinking about it. EG He was so excited he could hardly sleep... There were hundreds of excited children to meet us... He sat back and looked at the water with bright, excited eyes. ◊ excitedly. EG They were excitedly discussing plans for a party at the weekend... They turned to each other, laughing excitedly. 2 sexually aroused or stimulated. EG As the female approaches, the male becomes greatly excited. ADJ QUALIT / ◊ ADV WITH VB / ADJ QUALIT excitement /ɪ²ksaɪtmə²nt/, excitements. Excitement is the state of being excited; also used of something that causes you to be excited. EG Struggling to conceal his excitement, he accepted her invitation... The arrival of the colour TV made Dr O'Shea quite ill with excitement... ...the excitement of going to the moon... But the excitements of the day were not over. N UNCOUNT/COUNT exciting /ɪ²ksaɪtɪŋ/. Something that is exciting causes you to feel very excited and interested. EG Growing up in the heart of London was exciting... It did not seem a very exciting idea. ◊ excitingly. EG Life was excitingly unpredictable. ADJ QUALIT / ◊ ADV

excl. is a written abbreviation for 'excluding' and 'exclusive'; used especially in advertisements.

exclaim /ɪ²kskleɪm/, exclaims, exclaiming, exclaimed. When you exclaim, you speak suddenly, loudly, or emphatically because you are excited, shocked, or angry. EG 'Oh, you poor child!' exclaimed Mrs Socket... 'Desiree! What are you doing here?' she exclaimed... All of the women exclaimed at how well formed the baby was. V+QUOTE/REPORT-CL, OR V+IF+PREP THEN at/over = cry out

EXCLAM □ In this dictionary EXCLAM is used in the grammar notes beside entries to mean 'exclamation'. It is used beside words and expressions which you say when you are reacting to something that has been said or to something that has happened, usually to show that you feel pain, anger, anxiety, fear, etc. The definition tells you what context the EXCLAM is used in. Examples are ouch!, big deal!, and crikey!

exclamation /ɛkskləmeɪʃə⁰n/, exclamations. An exclamation is a sound, word, or sentence that is spoken suddenly, loudly, or emphatically and that expresses excitement, admiration, shock, or anger. EG He drew back with a sharp exclamation... They embraced him with exclamations of joy. N COUNT = cry exclamation mark, exclamation marks. An exclamation mark is the sign (!) which is used in writing to show that a word, phrase, or sentence is an exclamation. N COUNT exclamation point, exclamation points. An exclamation point is an exclamation mark; used in American English. N COUNT exclude /ɪ²kskluːd/, excludes, excluding, excluded. 1 If you exclude something, 1.1 you deliberately do not include it in a piece of work, discussion, activity, etc. EG This Act explicitly excluded from its provisions cases of death by murder... For the moment we will exclude the special case of the religious wars. 1.2 you reject a possibility after considering it carefully in the process of discovering the truth or a solution to a problem. EG Valid thinking must exclude alternatives at every step... A fake call from some local phone box was not excluded. V+O, IF+PREP THEN from = debar ≠ admit / V+O(NG/REFL) 2 If you exclude someone, you prevent them from entering a place or taking part in an activity. EG ...jobs from which the majority of workers are excluded.

excluding /ɪ²kskluːdɪŋ/ is used to say that someone or something is not included in the group of people or things that you are referring to. EG We are open seven days a week, excluding Christmas Day... She was feared by everyone in the hotel, not excluding Freddie. PREP = excepting exclusion /ɪ²kskluːʒə⁰n/. 1 Exclusion is the act of deliberately not including something or of preventing something from being included. EG We will be concentrating on one subject with the deliberate exclusion of other distracting matters. 2 You say that something happens to the exclusion of something else, to show that it happens to such a great extent or in such a dominant way that there is no room for anything else to be considered or to be present. EG ...the ability to concentrate on a problem to the exclusion of all other matters. 3 Exclusion is also the act of preventing someone from entering a place or taking part in an activity. EG ...their exclusion from the rights and liberties that others enjoy... ...the laws relating to the admission and exclusion of aliens. N UNCOUNT USU WITH POSS ⇑ omission / PREP / N UNCOUNT USU WITH POSS exclusive /ɪ²kskluːsɪv/, exclusives. 1 Something that is exclusive is 1.1 limited to people who have a lot of money or who belong to a high social class, and is therefore not available to everyone. EG ...a rather exclusive gathering of top executives and their wives... ...an exclusive residential district. 1.2 used or owned by only one person or group, and not shared with anyone else. EG They have exclusive use of the machine... You should have informed us it was your exclusive property. 2 If two things are exclusive or are mutually exclusive, they are separate and very different from each other, so that there seems to be no connection between them, or it seems impossible for them to exist together. EG There is no reason why these two functions should be mutually exclusive. 3 An exclusive story in a magazine or newspaper is one that is published only in that particular paper and in no other. EG ...an exclusive interview. ▸ used as a noun. EG The story was a Times exclusive. 4 Financial terms or arrangements that are exclusive do not include all the charges or all the facilities or services offered. EG ...at a rate of £70 per week, exclusive of VAT... Our terms are exclusive. ADJ QUALIT = select / ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ≠ shared / ADJ CLASSIF = incompatible / ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB / ▸ N COUNT = scoop / ADJ CLASSIF PRED, IF+PREP THEN of = excluding exclusively /ɪ²kskluːsɪvlɪ¹/ is used to refer to situations or activities that involve only the thing or things mentioned, and nothing else. EG The pygmy ant-eater lives exclusively on termites... The style is exclusively western. ADV = only, entirely excommunicate /ɛkskəmjuːnɪkeɪt/, excommunicates, excommunicating, excommunicated. If a Roman Catholic is excommunicated, it is publicly and officially stated that the person is no longer allowed to be a member of the Roman Catholic church. This is a punishment for some very great wrong that they have done. EG She was excommunicated by Cardinal Manning. V+O ⇑ expel excommunication /ɛkskəmjuːnɪkeɪʃə⁰n/, excommunications. Excommunication is the state of being excommunicated or the act of excommunicating someone. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ expulsion excrement /ɛkskrɪ¹mə²nt/ is the solid waste matter that is passed out of a person or animal's body through their bowels; a formal word. EG The road was filled with camel and donkey excrement. N UNCOUNT = faeces excrescence /ɪ²kskrɛsə⁰ns/, excrescences. An excrescence is a lump or growth on the surface of an animal or plant; a formal or technical word. N COUNT excreta /ɪ²kskriːtə/ is waste matter such as urine, sweat, or faeces, which is passed out of a person or animal's body; a formal word. N UNCOUNT ⇑ waste matter excrete /ɪ²kskriːt/, excretes, excreting, excreted. When you excrete waste matter from your body, you get rid of it, for example by sweating or going to the lavatory. EG Water is excreted from the body in urine. ◊ excretion /ɪ²kskriːʃə⁰n/, excretions. V OR V+O ⇑ eliminate / ◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT excruciating /ɪ²kskruːʃɪeɪtɪŋ/. Something that is excruciating is 1 extremely painful. EG I had the ADJ QUALIT/USU ATTRIB

most excruciating cramp in my leg. ATTRIB ◊ excruciatingly. EG Walking was excruciatingly painful. 2 extremely difficult to bear or to cope with, usually because it is very sad, unpleasant, or embarrassing. EG ...a home which had come to be associated with excruciating unhappiness. ◊ excruciatingly. EG It was an excruciatingly humiliating experience. ◊ ADV / ADJ QUALIT / ◊ ADV + ADJ / ADV

exculpate /ɛkskʌlpeɪt, ɪkskʌlpeɪt/, exculpates, exculpating, exculpated; a formal word. If you exculpate someone, you show that they are not guilty of doing something wrong, or at fault or to blame for something bad that has happened. EG In 1956 he was legally exculpated. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ clear = exonerate excursion /ɪ²kskɜ:ʃə⁰n, -ʒə⁰n/, excursions. 1 An excursion is 1.1 a short journey, especially one that you make for a particular purpose. EG ...a shopping excursion... ...midnight excursions to deserted beaches. 1.2 a short journey that is organized by a holiday company, tourist organization, etc, so that people can visit an interesting place. EG You could go on a day excursion to the nearby island of Aegina. N COUNT ⇑ trip = outing / N COUNT = outing

2 An excursion into something is an attempt to develop or understand a new idea or something that you have not experienced before. EG ...a rare excursion into contemporary music. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN into ⇑ journey excusable /ɪ²kskju:zəbə⁰l/. If something is excusable, you can forgive it. EG He made an excusable mistake. ADJ QUALIT = forgivable excuse, excuses, excusing, excused. The word excuse is pronounced /ɪ²kskju:s/ when it is a noun, and /ɪ²kskju:z/ when it is a verb. 1 An excuse is a reason which you give in order to explain why something has been done or has not been done, or in order to avoid doing something. EG You don't have to make any excuses to me... The government had no excuse to be ignorant of it... There is no excuse for this happening in a new building... He kept finding excuses not to go home... He had found the perfect excuse for retiring early. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN for ⇑ explanation = justification

2 If you excuse yourself or someone else, you provide reasons or a justification for your actions or their actions, especially when other people disapprove of these actions. EG I'm not going to try and justify or excuse myself... I hope you're not excusing him... Within five minutes he was excusing himself as usual. V + O (NG/REFL) ⇑ explain = justify

3 If you excuse your behaviour, you explain or justify it, especially when other people disapprove of the way you have acted or behaved. EG The Vice President admitted taking bribes, excusing it as momentary weakness... We'll do it better tomorrow, I told myself, excusing our idleness. V + O : IF + PREP THEN as

4 If you excuse someone for something wrong that they have done, you forgive them for it. EG I could never excuse him for being so rude... Such delays cannot be excused... I excused him much of his prejudice because I liked him. V + O : IF + PREP THEN for, OR V + O + O = pardon

5 If you excuse someone from a duty or responsibility, you free them from it. EG She asked to be excused from acting that evening... ...a certificate excusing him from games at school... You can apply to be excused payment if your earnings are low. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN from = exempt

6 If you ask someone to excuse you, you are asking them to allow you to leave. EG You'll have to excuse me; I ought to be saying goodnight... Will you excuse me just a second?... This is where I ought to excuse myself. V + O (NG/REFL)

7 excuse me. You can use the expression excuse me in the following ways: 7.1 to get someone's attention, especially when you are about to ask them a question. EG 'Excuse me,' he said, 'but is there a fairly cheap restaurant near here?'. 7.2 when you are disagreeing with someone or expressing a different or contradictory point of view. EG Excuse me, but with all respect, I think you have misunderstood. 7.3 to apologize to someone when you have disturbed or interrupted them. EG Well, excuse me for disturbing you at home... Excuse me butting in. 7.4 to indicate that you don't want to talk to someone. EG Excuse me, I'm busy. 7.5 to indicate that you are about to leave the room, usually just for a short while. EG 'Excuse me.' He stood up. 'I have to make a telephone call.' 7.6 to apologize when you have done something slightly embarrassing or impolite, such as burping, hiccupping or sneezing. 7.7 when you are asking someone to repeat what they have just said; used in American English. PHR = pardon me / PHR = sorry / PHR + -ING / for = sorry / PHR = sorry / CONVENTION = pardon me / CONVENTION = pardon me / CONVENTION = sorry

ex-directory. In Britain, if a person or his or her telephone number is ex-directory, the number is not listed in the telephone directory, and the telephone company will refuse to give it to people who ask for it. ADJ CLASSIF execrable /ɛksɪkrəbə⁰l/. Something that is execrable is very bad or unpleasant; a formal word. EG Why do tourists come here? The food is execrable, the hotels lousy. ADJ QUALIT = abysmal execute /ɛksɪkju:t/, executes, executing, executed. 1 To execute someone means to kill them as a punishment for a serious crime. EG ...the last woman to be executed in Britain... ...a month or two later they executed the king. ◊ execution /ɛksɪkju:ʃə⁰n/, executions. EG ...the execution of Charles 1... The rebel faced capture and possible execution... The executions were carried out at dawn. V + O : USU PASS = put to death / ◊ N COUNT / UNCOUNT

2 If you execute something such as a plan, you do it in the way that has been planned, agreed, or requested; a formal use. EG Never once did I doubt that I would be able to execute my plans... ...a carefully premeditated and carefully executed crime. ◊ execution. EG He was arrested on a charge of obstructing a police officer in the execution of his duty. V + O = carry out, implement ≠ abort, cancel / ◊ N UNCOUNT = implementation

3 If you execute a difficult action or movement, you successfully perform it. EG The pilot began to execute a series of playful aerobatics... The dance was very skilfully executed. ◊ execution. V + O / ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 If you execute a work of art, you create it. EG His pictures are executed with tremendous humour... The other one was executed in gold thread on a dark red background. ◊ execution. V + O : USU PASS / ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 If you execute a legal document such as a will, you carry out the instructions that are contained in it; a technical term in law. EG The will was duly executed... But they did not execute the warrant immediately. V + O executioner /ɛksɪkju:ʃə⁰nə/, executioners. An executioner is a person who has the job of executing criminals. N COUNT = hangman executive /ɪ²gzɛkjə⁴tɪv/, executives. 1 An executive is someone who is employed by a business at a senior level. Executives decide what the business should do, and ensure that it is done. EG ...a senior executive... ...business executives. N COUNT ⇑ manager

2 The executive sections and tasks of an organization are concerned with the making of decisions and with ensuring that decisions are carried out. EG ...the executive function of actually running the business... ...our executive board. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 Executive goods are expensive, fashionable, and designed or intended for people who are executives or who are at the same social or economic level as executives; an informal use. EG She swivels back and forth in her executive chair... ...the fashionable executive two-litre car. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 The executive of an organization such as a political party is a committee within that organization that has the authority to make decisions and that ensures that these decisions are carried out. EG ...the Party's National Executive... ...the executive of the National Union of Teachers... Five executive members resigned. N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL

5 The executive is the part of the government of a country that is concerned with carrying out decisions or orders, as opposed to the part that makes laws or the part that deals with criminals: compare legislature and judiciary. EG ...the highest reaches of the judiciary and the executive... ...the executive branch of government. N SING : the + N executor /ɪ²gzɛkjə⁴tə/, executors. An executor is someone whose name you write in your will when you want them to be responsible for dealing with your affairs after your death; a technical term in law. EG It was my duty as her executor to go through her personal papers. N COUNT ⇑ appointee exegesis /ɛksɪdʒi:sɪs/, exegeses /ɛksɪdʒi:si:z/. An exegesis is an explanation and interpretation of a piece of writing, especially a religious piece of writing, after very careful study; a technical term. EG ...a lengthy exegesis on classical Marxist theory. N COUNT exemplar /ɪ²gzɛmplɑ:/, exemplars; a formal word. An exemplar is 1 a typical example of a group or class of things. EG Ostensibly, he is a walking exemplar of change. 2 someone or something that is N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of / N COUNT : IF + considered to be so good that they should be copied or imitated; used showing approval. EG They are the pillars of society, our exemplars of success and social attainment. PREP THEN of = model exemplary /ɪᵌgzɛmplərɪˈ/. 1 If you describe someone or something as exemplary, you mean that you consider them to be excellent or extremely good. EG He had been an exemplary father... He was possessed of an exemplary patience. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB

2 An exemplary punishment is an unusually harsh one which is intended to discourage other people from committing similar crimes. EG He was singled out for the exemplary punishment of execution. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ deterrent exemplify /ɪᵌgzɛmplɪfaɪ/, exemplifies, exemplifying, exemplified. 1 To exemplify a situation, quality, class of objects, etc, means to be a typical example of it. EG Perhaps above all other groups teachers exemplify the virtues of the middle class. V + O = typify

2 If you exemplify something, you give an example of it. EG I'm going to try and exemplify one or two of these points. ◊ exemplification /ɪᵌgzɛmplɪfɪkeɪʃəᵊn/, exemplifications. EG You could make the point more clearly with further exemplification. V + O = illustrate ◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = illustration exempt /ɪᵌgzɛmpᵊt/, exempts, exempting, exempted. 1 If you are exempt from a particular rule, duty, or obligation, you are not affected or bound by it. EG Harold was exempt from military service... These houses are exempt from paying rates. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, USU + from ⇑ freed = excused

2 To exempt a person or thing from a particular rule, duty, or obligation means to state officially that they are not bound or affected by it. EG The new rules exempt such loans from capital transfer tax... They made efforts to exempt him from responsibility. ◊ exemption /ɪᵌgzɛmpᵊʃəᵊn/, exemptions. EG ...exemption from jury service... ...tax exemptions for home-owners. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ free = excuse ◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ freedom exercise /ɛksəsaɪz/, exercises, exercising, exercised. 1 Exercises are 1.1 a series of energetic movements which you do in order to get fit or remain healthy. EG ...gymnastic exercises... ...breathing exercises. 1.2 a series of movements or repeated actions which you do in order to practise for a particular activity, such as playing a musical instrument. EG I always start my singing practice with scales and exercises... Every morning the whole cast had to do exercises. 1.3 operations or manoeuvres that are performed by a section of the army, navy, or air force. EG They're carrying out fleet exercises somewhere off the North Cape... ...peacetime exercises and training. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ movement N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ practice N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ operation

2 An exercise is a short piece of work that you do, for example in school, which is designed to help you learn a particular mental skill such as arithmetic. EG Can we proceed now with exercise five?... ...spelling exercises. N COUNT ⇑ practice

3 An exercise in something is an activity which is planned to achieve a particular purpose. EG ...the first large-scale exercise in computer modelling... The rally was organized by the state as an exercise in patriotism. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN in

4 Exercise is energetic movement that you do to keep healthy or train for a sport. EG The horses emerged to the park for exercise... I have had all the exercise I need for one day. N UNCOUNT ⇑ exertion

5 When you exercise, you move your body energetically in order to get fit and to remain healthy. EG Often I could not fall asleep unless I exercised to the point of exhaustion. V

6 If you exercise authority, rights, responsibilities, etc, you use them well or effectively. EG They already exercise considerable influence in all western countries... They had no intention of exercising restraint... ...a book designed to help you exercise the right to buy your council house. V + O

7 The exercise of authority, a right, a responsibility, etc, is the careful and effective use or practice of it. EG The exercise of personal responsibility is encouraged. N SING : the + N + of ⇑ operation

8 If something exercises you or your mind, you think or talk about it a great deal, especially because you are worried or concerned about it. EG The question put by Mary had exercised many a group of gossiping faculty members... This problem has much exercised the minds of academics as well as politicians. V + O ⇑ concern = occupy exercise book, exercise books. An exercise book is a small book with blank pages that pupils and students use for doing their schoolwork. N COUNT ⇑ notebook exert /ɪᵌgzɜːt/, exerts, exerting, exerted. 1 If someone or something exerts influence, authority, pressure, etc, they use it in a strong or determined way, especially in order to produce an effect on someone or something. EG His teachings still exert a strong influence on his former students... The social pressures exerted by a small community are enormous. V + O : USU + A

2 If you exert yourself, you make a physical or mental effort to do something. EG He had to exert himself to make conversation with the visitor. V + O (REFL) ⇑ usu = force exertion /ɪᵌgzɜʃəᵊn/, exertions. Exertion is physical effort or exercise. EG Her head throbbed with exertion... I was weakened by my exertions. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

ex gratia /ɛksgreɪʃə/. An ex gratia payment or grant is one that is given as a favour or gift and not because it is legally necessary; a formal or legal term. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ voluntary exhale /ɪᵌgzhᵊeɪl/, exhales, exhaling, exhaled. When you exhale, you breathe out the air that is in your lungs. EG He exhaled slowly and smiled... He exhaled another great billow of cigar smoke. ◊ exhalation /ɛgzəleɪʃəᵊn/, exhalations. EG ...a soft exhalation of breath. V OR V + O ≠ inhale ◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT exhaust /ɪᵌgzɔːst/, exhausts, exhausting, exhausted. 1 To exhaust someone means to make them so tired, either physically or mentally, that they have no energy left. EG She exhausted Nell both nervously and physically. ◊ exhausted. EG All three men were hot, dirty, and exhausted... She was too exhausted to argue... He stumbled and fell, exhausted. ◊ exhausting. EG ...a difficult and exhausting job. V + O (NG/REFL) ⇑ tire = drain ◊ ADJ QUALIT = worn out ◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 If you exhaust something such as money or food, you use it up or finish it completely. EG They soon exhausted the food resources of the surrounding area. V + O = drain

3 If you exhaust a subject or topic, you talk about it so much that there is nothing else to say about it. EG When the subject had been thoroughly exhausted, everyone went home. V + O ⇑ deal with

4 An exhaust or an exhaust pipe is a pipe which carries the gas or steam out of the engine of a car, lorry, motorbike, etc. N COUNT

5 Exhaust is the gas or steam that is produced when the engine of a car, lorry, motorbike, etc is running, and that has to be allowed to escape. N UNCOUNT exhaustible /ɪᵌgzɔːstəˈbəᵊl/. Something that is exhaustible exists only in a limited quantity. EG ...possible long term shortages of exhaustible resources. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ inexhaustible exhaustion /ɪᵌgzɔːstʃəᵊn/ is the state of being so tired that you have no energy left. EG She was almost fainting with exhaustion. N UNCOUNT ⇑ tiredness exhaustive /ɪᵌgzɔːstɪv/. An exhaustive study or search is thorough and complete. EG He studied the problem in exhaustive detail... This list is by no means exhaustive. ◊ exhaustively. EG ...exhaustively researched evidence. ADJ QUALIT = comprehensive ◊ ADV exhibit /ɪᵌgzɪbɪt/, exhibits, exhibiting, exhibited. 1 If you exhibit a particular quality, ability, or feeling, it can be easily seen or noticed by other people; a formal use. EG He still exhibited signs of stress... Different sectors within the same society exhibit different rates of change. V + O = show, display

2 When something such as a picture or sculpture is exhibited, it is put in a public place such as a museum or art gallery, so that people can come to look at it. EG The paintings are exhibited in chronological sequence... I exhibited some tapestries I had done in America. V + O : USU PASS = display

3 When artists exhibit, they show their work in public. EG She was still working and exhibiting last year. V

4 An exhibit is 4.1 something that is put on show to the public in a museum or art gallery. EG Our local museum has over a thousand exhibits. 4.2 something that a lawyer shows in court as evidence in a legal case. EG Exhibit number two is a pocket diary belonging to the accused. N COUNT ⇑ object N COUNT : ALSO N + NUM ⇑ object

5 If you exhibit something to someone, you show it to them in order to make them believe you or admire you. EG Glenn exhibited the rat's tooth to all his friends... They exhibited their supposedly occult powers. V + O : IF + PREP THEN to = display exhibition /ɛgzɪbɪʃᵊn/, exhibitions. 1 An exhibition is a collection of pictures, sculptures, or other things in a public place where people can come to look at them. EG Did you see the Shakespeare exhibition?... ...exhibition galleries. N COUNT ⇑ show

2 Exhibition is the showing of pictures, sculptures, or other things in a public place. EG The film was refused a licence for public exhibition... ...the exhibition of her work. ● If something is on exhibition, it is being shown in a public place. EG Cecil Beaton's war photographs are on exhibition at the Imperial War Museum. N UNCOUNT ⇑ show = display ● PHR : USED AS AN A = on view

3 An exhibition of rudeness, arrogance, etc is very rude behaviour, very arrogant behaviour, etc. EG ...an exhibition of petulance and arrogance. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ show

4 An exhibition of skill, talent, etc is something that someone does, which shows how skilled, talented, etc they are at doing something. EG ...a remarkable exhibition of musicianship. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ show

5 If you make an exhibition of yourself, you behave very stupidly or rudely in public, so that other people notice you and disapprove of you. PHR : VB INFLECTS

6 In Britain, an exhibition is also a small amount of money that is given as a prize to students in some private schools and colleges. N COUNT = award exhibitionism /ɛgzɪbɪʃᵊnɪzᵊm/ is 1 a type of behaviour in which someone tries to get people's attention all the time, especially by boasting or by trying to make people notice their talents and abilities; used showing disapproval. ◊ exhibitionist, exhibitionists. EG As a child I was inclined to be an exhibitionist. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT ⇑ show-off

2 a type of behaviour, usually the result of psychological problems or mental illness, in which a man deliberately reveals his genitals in public places, especially in front of women; a technical term. ◊ exhibitionist, exhibitionists. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT exhibitor /ɪᵍzɪbɪtə/, exhibitors. An exhibitor is a person whose work is being shown in an exhibition. EG Flanagan was also a prominent exhibitor in a large-scale exhibition. N COUNT ⇑ participant exhilarate /ɪᵍzɪləreɪt/, exhilarates, exhilarating, exhilarated. If something exhilarates you, it gives you a strong feeling of happiness and excitement. EG The refugees were exhilarated by the news... This city exhilarates and stimulates me. ◊ exhilarated. EG No longer cold, he felt exhilarated with cleanliness. ◊ exhilarating. EG ...an exhilarating experience. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ excite = thrill ◊ ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADJ QUALIT exhilaration /ɪᵍzɪləreɪʃᵊn/ is a strong feeling of excitement and happiness. EG There was a sense of exhilaration about being alone on the beach. N UNCOUNT exhort /ɪᵍzɔːt/, exhorts, exhorting, exhorted. If you exhort someone to do something, you try hard to persuade them to do it; a formal word. EG I exhorted the men not to drink too much. ◊ exhortation /ɛgzɔːteɪʃᵊn/, exhortations. EG ...fervent exhortations to revolutionary action... ...a rhetorical, almost poetic, work of exhortation. V + O ⇑ persuade = invocation ◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ persuasion = invocation exhume /ɛksʰjuːm/, exhumes, exhuming, exhumed. To exhume a dead person's body means to take it out of the ground where it is buried so that you can examine it, especially in order to find out how the person died; a formal word. ◊ exhumation /ɛgzjuːmeɪʃᵊn/, exhumations. EG He never liked being present at exhumations, but it was part of his job. V + O ⇑ dig up = disinter ≠ bury ◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT exigency /ɛksɪdʒənsi¹, ɪᵍzɪdʒənsi¹/, exigencies. The exigencies of a situation or a job are the difficulties that you have to deal with as part of it; a formal word. EG ...the exigencies of the war... ...the exigencies of her profession. ▸ used as an uncount noun. EG The government was compelled by military exigency to introduce many reforms. N COUNT : USU PL = demands ▸ N UNCOUNT exigent /ɛksɪdʒənt/; a formal word. 1 Something that is exigent needs immediate attention or action. ADJ QUALIT = urgent

2 Someone who is exigent asks or expects other people to do more than it is reasonable to expect them to do. EG She became even more exigent over his pronunciation. ADJ QUALIT = demanding exiguous /ɪᵍzɪgjuːəs/. If something is exiguous, there is very little of it; a formal word. EG He invested his exiguous savings in ordinary shares. ADJ QUALIT = meagre exile /ɛgzaɪl, ɛksaɪl/, exiles, exiling, exiled. 1 Exile is the state of being forced to live away from your country, especially for political reasons. EG He lived here in exile... ...eight whole months of exile. N UNCOUNT = banishment

2 To exile someone means to send them away from their own country so that they have to live somewhere else, especially for political reasons. EG I was exiled from Ceylon for a year. ◊ exiled. EG The exiled King Umberto had asked for a personal representative to accompany him. V + O ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

3 An exile is someone who has been exiled. EG ...political exiles. N COUNT ⇑ expatriate exist /ɪᵍzɪst/, exists, existing, existed. 1 To exist means 1.1 to be present in the world or universe as a real, living, or actual thing and not, for example, to be something that people have imagined or made up, or something that has disappeared or been destroyed. EG That word doesn't exist in English... Communities who live by hunting and gathering still exist... Nobody can actually know God exists, but we believe he exists... I got a present from an aunt in Hungary whom I didn't know existed... Within our society there still exist rampant nationalism and racism. 1.2 to live, especially under difficult conditions or with very little food or money. EG How we're to exist out here I don't know... She existed only on milk. V : NO CONT V : USU + A = survive

2 See also existing.

existence /ɪᵍzɪstəns/, existences. 1 Existence is the state of being real, alive, or actual, rather than being something that people have imagined or made up. EG Do you believe in the existence of God?... There are those who argue that the existence of nuclear weapons has reduced the risk of war... It will be much faster than any submarine now in existence... These institutions do not come into existence except as a result of state policy... In the course of evolution, dinosaurs simply passed out of existence. N UNCOUNT ≠ non-existence

2 You refer to someone's way of life as an existence when they live under difficult conditions. EG These unfortunate creatures eke out a miserable existence... The family lived a more or less vagabond existence. N COUNT + SUPP existent /ɪᵍzɪstənt/. You can describe something as existent when it exists; a formal word. EG ...an attempt to refine the existent machinery to make it even more efficient. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ non-existent existential /ɛgzɪstɛnʃᵊl/ means relating to human existence and experience; a formal word. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

existentialism /ɛgzɪstɛnʃᵊlɪzᵊm/ is a modern philosophical belief which stresses the importance of human experience, and says that everyone is responsible for the results of their own actions; a technical term. N UNCOUNT ⇑ philosophy existentialist /ɛgzɪstɛnʃᵊlɪst/, existentialists. An existentialist is a person who agrees with the philosophy of existentialism; a technical term. EG ...the writings of the Existentialists. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...an existentialist approach. N COUNT ▸ ADJ CLASSIF existing /ɪᵍzɪstɪŋ/ is used to describe something which is now in use or in operation, especially when you are contrasting it with something which is planned for the future. EG We have to find ways of making the existing system work better... Many members of my party are not satisfied with the existing press laws. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = present exit /ɛgzɪt, ɛksɪt/, exits, exiting, exited. 1 An exit is 1.1 a door in a public building such as a theatre, large shop, railway station, etc, through which people can leave. EG He hurried towards the exit... ...the fire exit. 1.2 an act of leaving a place. EG Her exit was perfectly timed.. Opposition councillors staged a mass exit after ten minutes... He made a hasty exit from the Men's Room. 1.3 a point on a motorway where traffic can leave it or join it. EG I missed my exit from the motorway and had to drive on another four miles. N COUNT = way out ≠ entrance N COUNT ⇑ departure ≠ arrival N COUNT

2 If you exit from somewhere, you leave there. EG I exited from the surgery. V : IF + PREP THEN from exit visa. An exit visa is an official stamp in someone's passport, or an official document, which allows them to leave a particular country. N COUNT ⇑ permit exodus /ɛksədəs/. When there is an exodus, a lot of people leave a place together. EG ...the exodus of senior politicians and public figures from London in the summer... These measures are likely to increase poverty and speed up the exodus to the cities. N SING WITH DET ⇑ departure ≠ influx ex officio /ɛks əfɪʃɪəʊ/ is used to indicate that someone is entitled to something because of their rank, office or position; used in formal English. EG ...an ex officio member of the University Council. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADV exonerate /ɪɡzɒnəreɪt/, exonerates, exonerating, exonerated. To exonerate someone means to demonstrate officially that they are not responsible for something wrong or unpleasant that has happened; a formal word. EG Although he was eventually exonerated, he never recovered from the strain of the trial. ...to exonerate me from the crimes they had charged me with. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from = clear ≠ blame, convict exorbitant /ɪɡzɔːbɪtənt/. If you describe something as exorbitant, you mean that it is much bigger or much more expensive than it should be. EG She charged them an exorbitant rent... ...exorbitant prices. ◊ exorbitantly. EG Even a house of this size seems exorbitantly large by our standards. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ high = excessive ◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV

exorcism /ɛksɔːsɪzəm/, exorcisms. Exorcism is 1 the removing of evil spirits from a place or person. EG They called in a priest to preform the exorcism. ◊ exorcist, exorcists. EG They felt they had to call in an exorcist. 2 the process of getting rid of unhappy or painful memories and emotions. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ◊ N COUNT N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ eradication exorcize /ɛksɔːsaɪz/, exorcizes, exorcizing, exorcized; also spelled exorcise. 1 To exorcize an evil spirit or demon means to force it to leave a particular place or person by means of special prayers and ceremonies. V + O ⇑ expel

2 To exorcize a place or person means to force an evil spirit or demon to leave them by means of special prayers and ceremonies. V + O ⇑ free

3 If you exorcize a painful or unhappy memory, you succeed in removing it from your mind. V + O ⇑ remove exotic /ɪɡzɒtɪk/. Something that is exotic is strange, unusual, and interesting because it comes from a distant country. EG ...rich exotic foods... ...exotic places in Southern Mexico. ◊ exotically. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV expand /ɪkspænd/, expands, expanding, expanded. 1 If you expand something, or if it expands, 1.1 it becomes greater in number or amount. EG ...major measures to expand the Royal Air Force... Between 1960 and 1970 the city's population expanded by 12 per cent. 1.2 it becomes larger in size. EG Natural materials expand with heat and contract with cold and damp... He breathed deeply, his lungs fully expanded. V-ERG ⇑ increase ≠ decrease V-ERG ⇑ enlarge

2 If a business expands, it becomes bigger and more successful. EG His retail business in Darlington expanded rapidly between the wars. V = grow expand on. If you expand on or expand upon something, you give more information or details about it when you write or talk about it. EG This highly relevant observation is expanded on by Dr. White... I went on to expand upon this theme. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = enlarge on expanse /ɪkspæns/, expanses. An expanse of sea, sky, etc is a very large amount of it that you can see from a particular place. EG ...a wide expanse of blue sky. N COUNT + of ⇑ area = stretch expansion /ɪkspænʃən/ is the process of becoming greater in size, number, or amount. EG ...the rapid expansion of British agriculture... ...economic expansion. N UNCOUNT ⇑ increase = growth expansionism /ɪkspænʃənɪzəm/ is the policy of expanding the economy of a particular country, or the land that it rules; used showing disapproval. EG Their expansionism continued successfully for several centuries. ◊ expansionist. EG ...expansionist policies. N UNCOUNT ◊ ADJ CLASSIF expansive /ɪkspænsɪv/. 1 If you are expansive, you are willing to talk a lot, because you are happy and relaxed. EG That week had made him jovial and expansive. ◊ expansively. EG 'Have another drink, help yourself,' he said expansively. ◊ expansiveness. EG The locals started to regret their earlier expansiveness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ talkative ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Something that is expansive is very large or extensive; a formal use. EG ...expansive ambitions. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

expatiate /ɪkspeɪʃɪeɪt/, expatiates, expatiating, expatiated. If you expatiate on or about something, you write or speak in detail or at great length about it; a formal word. V + A (on/upon/ about) ⇑ expand = enlarge on expatriate /ɛkspætrɪɪᵗɪᵗ/, expatriates. An expatriate is someone who is living in a country which is not their own. EG ...British expatriates. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...an expatriate American. N COUNT ⇑ foreigner ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB expect /ɪkspɛkt/, expects, expecting, expected. 1 If you expect something to happen, you believe that it will happen, because of what you know about the situation. EG Nobody expected the strike to succeed... The talks are expected to last two or three days... Panic here and there was only to be expected... The journey was not as nice as Clarissa had expected. V + O/ to-INF/ REPORT-CL, OR V + O + to-INF = anticipate

2 If you expect something, 2.1 you believe that it is going to happen or arrive, because you have been told that it will. EG Rodin was expecting an important letter from France... We are expecting rain. ◊ expected. EG We would resist this expected attack... The expected income is eight-tenths of this amount. 2.2 you believe that it is your right to get it or have it done for you. EG We expect sincerity from our politicians... I expect no sympathy... They expect to have the door opened for them. V + O/ to-INF/ REPORT-CL, OR V + O + to-INF ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

3 If you expect a person, you are waiting for them to arrive, because you have invited them or arranged to see them. EG She would expect him at eight... He was clearly not expected to dinner this evening. ◊ expected. EG ...ushering in the expected guest. V + O : USU + A ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

4 If you expect someone to do something, you require them to do it as a duty or obligation, for example as part of their work. EG He is expected to put his work before his family... I'm sure she doesn't expect you to take the plane... We stood there, not knowing what was expected of us. ◊ expected. EG ...an expected formality. V + O + to-INF ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

5 If you expect to do something, you plan to do it or hope to achieve it. EG He expects to be home after lunch... I don't expect to be in England very long... We expect to sell 70,000 by September. V + to-INF

6 If you say that a woman is expecting, you mean that she is pregnant. V : ONLY CONT

7 If you say 'I expect', you mean that you think that what you are saying is likely to be proved correct. EG 'I expect that's Mrs Oliver's,' said Celia... I expect it'll be in the attic upstairs. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN, USU + REPORT-CL

8 If you say 'What can you expect?' or 'What do you expect?' you mean that there is nothing surprising about a person's behaviour or a situation, because they have occurred before and could be predicted. EG What could you expect from a family like that? PHR expectancy /ɪkspɛktənsi/ is the feeling that something exciting or interesting is about to happen; a formal word. EG ...an air of expectancy... There had been such a sense of expectancy beforehand. ● See also life expectancy. N UNCOUNT ⇑ hope = anticipation expectant /ɪkspɛktənt/. 1 If someone is expectant, they are excited because they think something interesting is about to happen. EG The assembly, sensing a crisis, was tensely expectant... ...an expectant hush. ◊ expectantly. EG She looked at him expectantly. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ waiting = eager ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 An expectant mother or father is someone whose baby is going to be born soon. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ future expectation /ɛkspɛkteɪʃən/, expectations. An expectation is 1 a strong hope that something will happen or that you will get something that you want. EG The plan has succeeded beyond our expectations... Living standards and expectations are increasing... Harold soon abandoned any expectation that Vita would take an interest. 2 a strong belief that something is likely to happen. EG I was watched in the expectation that I would go too far. 3 a strong belief that something or someone is likely to be a particular kind of thing or person. EG Her mother turned out to be, against all expectations, a young redhead. 4 a strong belief that someone should behave in a particular way. EG You're so busy living up to other people's expectations... ...women with expectations of old-fashioned gallantry. N COUNT : SING = PL = aspiration N COUNT N COUNT : SING = PL N COUNT : USU PL, SING = PL expectorant /ɛkspɛktərənt/, expectorants. An expectorant is a cough medicine that helps to loosen phlegm in your chest; a formal or medical term. N COUNT expediency /ɪkspiːdiənsi/. Expediency or expedience is usefulness or convenience in a particular situation, often gaining an immediate advantage while ignoring moral principles or later effects; a formal word. EG ...a matter of military expediency... We are sacrificing the long-term interest to short-term expediency... The government is torn between principle and expediency... His policies were dictated by expedience. N UNCOUNT ⇑ suitability expedient /ɪkspiːdiənt/, expedients; a formal word. 1 An expedient is an action or plan that achieves a particular purpose, but may not be morally acceptable. EG Incomes controls were used only as a short-term expedient. N COUNT = measure

2 Something that is expedient is useful or convenient in a particular situation. EG They adopt the measures ADJ QUALIT

they regard to be most expedient... The President did not find it expedient to attend the meeting.

expedite /ɛkspɪdaɪt/, expedites, expediting, expedited. If you expedite something, you cause it to be done more quickly; a formal word. EG We must do more to expedite development... This helped to expedite the army's withdrawal. V+O ⇑ hasten = speed up expedition /ɛkspɪdɪʃᵊn/, expeditions. An expedition is 1 an organized journey, usually involving several people, that is made for a particular purpose such as exploration. EG ...the British expedition to Mount Everest... The men were away on a hunting expedition. ▸ The expedition is also used to refer to the people who make such a journey. EG The expedition set out from St Louis. 2 a short journey or outing that you make for pleasure. EG I often go off on little expeditions when I have an afternoon off... ...a shopping expedition... ...sightseeing expeditions. N COUNT; N COUNT = excursion expeditionary force /ɛkspɪdɪʃᵊnəᵊrɪ fɔːs/, expeditionary forces. An expeditionary force is a group of soldiers who are sent to fight in a foreign country; a military term. N COUNT expeditious /ɛkspɪdɪʃəs/ means quick and efficient; a formal word. EG ...the most expeditious method of obtaining reduced hours. ◊ expeditiously. EG The reports will be examined as expeditiously as possible. ADJ QUALIT; ◊ ADV WITH VB expel /ɪᵊkspɛl/, expels, expelling, expelled. 1 If someone is expelled from a school or organization, they are officially told that they no longer belong to it, for example because they have broken the rules very seriously. EG He had been expelled from his previous school for stealing... 200 party members were expelled or resigned. V+O : USU PASS ⇑ dismiss = throw out

2 If someone is expelled from a place, they are made to leave it, often by force. EG Peasants were expelled from their villages. V+O : USU PASS + A ⇑ displace = evict

3 To expel something means to force it out from a container or from your body. EG Water is sucked in at one end and expelled at the other... She sank into her chair, expelling her breath in a long sigh. V+O expend /ɪᵊkspɛnd/, expends, expending, expended. If you expend energy, time, or money, you spend it or use it; a formal word. EG They expend large sums of money to maintain this beach... ...the energy expended in this operation... They were expending every ounce of effort. V+O expendable /ɪᵊkspɛndəbəᵊl/, expendables; a formal word. 1 A person who is expendable may be dismissed or allowed to die because they are no longer considered to be necessary or important in a particular situation. EG Mr Conrad, you are not expendable... My part would be played and I would become expendable... ...expendable airborne units. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ unnecessary = disposable ≠ vital

2 Something that is expendable may be thrown away, abandoned, or destroyed because it is no longer necessary or useful. EG The land is expendable; the people must go somewhere. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...food supplies or other expendables. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ unimportant = inessential; ▸ N COUNT expenditure /ɪᵊkspɛndɪtʃə/, expenditures; a formal word. Expenditure is 1 the amount of money that is spent on a particular thing or in a particular situation. EG We restricted our expenditure on food... The government has had to cut down on public expenditure... ...tax expenditures. 2 the using of money, energy, or time for a particular purpose. EG ...the expenditure of millions of pounds on inquiries... This was done expertly, with a minimum expenditure of energy. N UNCOUNT/COUNT = spending; N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ use = outlay expense /ɪᵊkspɛns/, expenses. 1 Expense is the money that something costs you or that you need to spend in order to do something. EG ...the roads they're building at vast expense... Cut down on expenses until all your debts are paid off... ...household expenses... It's well worth the expense. ● If you go to great expense to do something, you spend a lot of money in order to achieve it. EG The Government has gone to great expense to set up procedures. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ cost = expenditure; ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

2 Expenses are amounts of money that you spend while doing something in the course of your work, which will be paid back to you afterwards. EG The Executive Committee have their travelling expenses paid... Good. Now for the question of your expenses and fee. N PLURAL

3 If you do something at someone's expense, 3.1 they pay the money for you to do it. EG ...flying everywhere first class at the company's expense... He circulated the document at his own expense to the world's leading newspapers. 3.2 you say or do something to make fun of them or to make them seem foolish. EG He was unkind to people, making jokes at their expense. PHR : USED AS AN A

4 If you do something at the expense of something else or someone else, you do it in a way that harms them or reduces their importance. EG Economic growth must not be pursued at the expense of environmental pollution... They increase their own income at the expense of the rural masses. PREP expense account, expense accounts; also spelled with a hyphen. An expense account is an arrangement that is made by the company you work for, which allows you to spend their money on things that are part of your job, for example travelling or looking after their clients. EG As an executive, you will be entitled to an expense account. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...an expense-account lunch. N COUNT; ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB expensive /ɪᵊkspɛnsɪv/. Something that is expensive costs a lot of money. EG ...expensive clothes... 'Vogue' was more expensive than the other magazines... It would be too expensive to alter existing lighting. ◊ expensively. EG Sheila was very expensively dressed... We can do that fairly easily and not too expensively. ADJ QUALIT = costly ≠ cheap; ◊ ADV ≠ cheaply experience /ɪᵊkspɪərɪəns/, experiences, experiencing, experienced. 1 Experience is 1.1 knowledge or skill in a particular job which you have gained because you have worked at the job for a long time. EG I had no military experience... ...in my experience as a teacher... ...experience of working with children... He was senior to me in experience... She's had nine months experience. 1.2 the state or process of feeling something or being affected by it. EG The experience of colour is wholly subjective... ...the experience of fear. 1.3 all the events, knowledge, and feelings that make up an individual's life or the character of a society. EG Everyone learns best from his own experience... ...speaking from personal experience. N UNCOUNT ⇑ practice; N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ sensation; N UNCOUNT

2 An experience is something that happens to you or something that you do, especially something important that affects you. EG The funeral was a painful experience... ...my later experiences in the village. N COUNT + SUPP

3 If you experience a situation or problem, it happens to you or you are affected by it. EG Similar problems have been experienced by other students... They are experiencing a population explosion... Few of the soldiers had experienced combat. V+O ⇑ undergo = face

4 If you experience an emotion or a physical feeling, you have it or feel it. EG He experienced a pang of sadness... They experienced a mild burning sensation. V+O ⇑ feel experienced /ɪᵊkspɪərɪənst/. Someone who is experienced is skilled or knowledgeable in a particular job because they have worked at it for a long time. EG She is an experienced lecturer... We need someone more experienced... My colleagues are less experienced in history. ADJ QUALIT experiential /ɪᵊkspɪərɪɛnʃəᵊl/ means relating to or resulting from experience; a very formal word. EG ...a personal, experiential reality. ADJ CLASSIF experiment /ɪᵊkspɛrɪˈməᵊnt/, experiments, experimenting, experimented. 1 An experiment is 1.1 a scientific test which is done in order to prove that a theory is true or to discover what happens to something in particular conditions. EG ...the results of a scientific experiment... ...new information gathered by observation or experiment... ...experiments in physics. 1.2 the trying out of a new idea or method in order to see what it is like and what effect it has. EG ...the failure of this great experiment in industrial democracy. N COUNT/UNCOUNT; N COUNT/UNCOUNT ⇑ trial

2 If you experiment with something or experiment on it, you do a scientific test on it in order to prove that a theory is true or to discover what happens to it in particular conditions. EG In 1939 he experimented with young rats. ◊ experimentation /ɪᵊkspɛrɪˌmɛnteɪʃᵊn/. EG ...a place for medical experimentation. V; ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ testing = research

3 To experiment also means to try out a new idea or method to see what it is like and what effects it has. EG ...small businesses anxious to experiment with computers... It's well worth experimenting to produce good cakes... Your willingness to experiment V does you credit. ◊ experimentation. EG ...experimentation with cut-out shapes.

◊ N UNCOUNT

experimental /ɪkˈspɛrɪˈmɛntəl/. Something that is experimental 1 uses new ideas or methods. EG The college is noted for its experimental forms of teaching... It's a very experimental novel. ◊ experimentally. EG ...the first parking meters, introduced experimentally in Soho in 1958. 2 uses, is used in, or results from scientific experiments. EG There is some experimental detail which seems to back this up... ...an experimental psychologist. ◊ experimentally. EG These are then measured experimentally and the results compared. 3 is done in order to see what it is like, or what effects it has. EG One of them gave an experimental tug at Clarissa's bag. ◊ experimentally. EG He passed his tongue experimentally over his teeth.

ADJ QUALIT
= innovative
◊ ADV WITH VB
ADJ CLASSIF
◊ ADV WITH VB
ADJ CLASSIF
⇑ exploratory = tentative
◊ ADV WITH VB

experimenter /ɪkˈspɛrɪˈmɛntə/, experimenters. An experimenter is 1 someone who does scientific tests in order to prove a theory or discover what happens to things in particular conditions. EG Experimenters have licences granted by the Home Office. 2 someone who likes trying new ideas or methods.

N COUNT
⇑ scientist
N COUNT

expert /ɛkspɜːt/, experts. 1 An expert is 1.1 a person who is very skilled at doing something. EG What an expert can do in minutes may take you hours... ...experts in various skills... Experts were called in to dismantle the bomb. 1.2 a person who has studied a particular subject and knows a lot about it. EG ...an expert on Eastern philosophy... ...the financial expert who writes in The Times... ...experts in obscure subjects... Experts say the company will fail.

N COUNT
= specialist
N COUNT
= specialist

2 Someone who is expert at doing something is very skilled at it. EG Only expert acrobats can master these activities... They have to be expert at dealing with any problems that arise. ◊ expertly. EG Burke drove expertly and fast in and out of the traffic... They'd been expertly repaired.

ADJ QUALIT
= practised
◊ ADV
⇑ skilfully

3 If you say that someone has expert hands or an expert eye, you mean that they are very skilful or experienced in using their hands or eyes for a particular purpose. EG He rubbed his expert hands over the wound... ...not noticeable except to the expert eye... He ran an expert eye over the photographs.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
= trained

4 Expert advice, opinion, or help is advice, opinion, or help that is given by someone who has studied a subject thoroughly or is very skilled at a particular job. EG We would like an expert opinion... Get expert treatment from a specialist... The appliance needs expert attention.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
⇑ professional = specialist expertise /ɛkspɜːtiːz/ is special skill or knowledge that is acquired by training, study, or practice; a formal word. EG ...his professional expertise... ...the technical expertise of the two Spanish firms.

N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = know-how

expiate /ɛkspɪeɪt/, expiates, expiating, expiated. If you expiate guilty feelings or bad behaviour, you do something to indicate that you are sorry for what you have done; a formal word. EG He hoped to expiate his guilt over leaving her... Her frightful behaviour to Stephanie must be expiated. ◊ expiation /ɛkspɪeɪʃəⁿn/. EG He sought expiation for what he had done.

V + O
⇑ redeem = atone for
◊ N UNCOUNT
= atonement expiration /ɛkspɪreɪʃəⁿn/, expirations. 1 The expiration of a period of time is its ending; a formal use. EG ...expiration of the legal waiting period... ...after the expiration of seven academic years.

N UNCOUNT

2 Expiration is also the action of breathing air out of your lungs; a formal or medical use.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

expire /ɪkˈspaɪə/, expires, expiring, expired. 1 When something expires, it reaches the end of the period of time for which it is valid or during which it is allowed to exist. EG My passport is due to expire in three months... The lease on the house had expired... The Government's term of office expired in 1979.

V
⇑ cease = run out

2 When someone expires, they die; a literary use. EG The old lady expired within the hour.

V
= pass away

expiry /ɪkˈspaɪərɪ/. The expiry of a period of time is its ending, especially in relation to legal documents, agreements, etc that stop being valid at the end of that time. EG The French licences have no expiry date... ...the expiry of the period of study.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ end = expiration explain /ɪkˈspleɪn/, explains, explaining, explained. 1 If you explain something, you give details about it or describe it so that it can be understood. EG John went on to explain the legal situation... He began explaining to her how a pawn ticket worked... Mrs Travers explained that the girl used to be a prostitute.

V OR V + O/QUOTE/REPORT-CL, V + A (to), OR V + O + A (to)

2 To explain also means to give people reasons for a particular event or situation that they do not understand or do not approve of. EG If the battery was dead, that would explain why he couldn't call on the radio... Just a minute. Let me explain... He never wrote to me to explain his decision... When he calmed down, he explained himself.

V OR V + O (NG REFL)

explain away. If you explain away a mistake or a situation that you are responsible for, you give reasons for it in order to say that it is not very important or that it is not really your fault. EG He was seen on TV later, explaining away his department's latest blunder.

PHRASAL VB V + O + ADV
⇑ dismiss

explanation /ɛksplənəɪʃəⁿn/, explanations. An explanation is 1 something that tells you why a particular event or situation happened. EG There was no reasonable explanation for her decision... ...explanations of why the communication failed. 2 something that describes a situation in detail. EG It is hard to give a simple explanation of Rose Gibbon's job... ...a scientific explanation of the universe.

N COUNT
⇑ account
N COUNT
⇑ description

explanatory /ɪkˈsplænətəⁿrɪ/ statements are intended to make people understand something by describing it or giving the reasons for it; a formal word. EG They produce free explanatory leaflets on heating... Davis sent an explanatory letter.

ADJ CLASSIF
⇑ descriptive

expletive /ɪkˈspliːtɪv/, expletives. An expletive is a rude word or expression such as 'Damn!' which you say loudly and suddenly when you are annoyed, excited, or in pain; a formal word.

N COUNT
⇑ exclamation

explicable /ɛksplɪkəbəⁿl, ɪkˈsplɪk-/. Something that is explicable can be explained and understood because it is logical or sensible; a formal word. EG His behaviour is explicable only in terms of his origins... For no explicable reason your mind goes blank.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ understandable ≠ inexplicable

explicate /ɛksplɪkeɪt/, explicates, explicating, explicated. To explicate something means to explain it and make it clear; a formal word. EG ...informal activities that help the student define, explicate and test his values.

V + O
= clarify

explicit /ɪkˈsplɪsɪt/. 1 An opinion or attitude that is explicit has been expressed clearly, so that there is no doubt about what is meant. EG ...the explicit support of the Prime Minister... Don't leave without explicit permission!... Facing failure means accepting explicit criticism from others. ◊ explicitly. EG ...explicitly violent scenes. ◊ explicitness.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ clear ≠ unspoken
◊ ADV
◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Someone who is explicit says something very clearly and exactly, so that nobody is in any doubt about what is meant. EG She could, however, be more explicit with Peter... Let's be explicit... She was not explicit about what she really felt. ◊ explicitly. EG This was explicitly admitted by the Premier.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ clear = frank ≠ vague
◊ ADV
= openly explode /ɪkˈspləʊd/, explodes, exploding, exploded. 1 If an object such as a bomb explodes or if you explode it, it bursts loudly and with great force, often causing damage or injury. EG A bomb had exploded in the next street... In 1974 India exploded a nuclear device... Clear the harbour before the ship explodes.

V-ERG

2 If something explodes, 2.1 it makes a sudden very loud noise; used in literary English. EG The thunder exploded again... A branch exploded with a sharp crack. 2.2 it appears suddenly and brightly; used in literary English. EG Sunlight exploded, flooding everything... The hawthorn was exploding white and pink along the hedges. 2.3 it increases suddenly and rapidly in importance or seriousness. EG The discontent will explode into prison riots before long... The issue has exploded because an MP is involved. 2.4 it increases rapidly in number or amount. EG The population was still exploding.

V ⇑ bang
V ⇑ appear = break out
V ⇑ develop = erupt
V ⇑ increase = multiply

3 If someone explodes, they express strong feelings suddenly and violently. EG She picked up her newspaper and exploded with rage... The Judge exploded: 'Who are you?'... I expected Sheila to explode again into laughter.

V + A/QUOTE
= erupt

4 If you say that someone or an animal explodes in some way, you mean that they move suddenly and energetically in the way mentioned; used in literary English. EG The fighter suddenly explodes with a series of blows and kicks.

V + A = burst out

5 If someone explodes a theory, they prove that it is wrong or impossible. EG I could explode some of the

V + O
⇑ disprove = destroy

myths about him... The book fails to explode the assumption that religious experience is abnormal.

exploit, exploits, exploiting, exploited. The word exploit is pronounced /ɪksplɔɪt/ when it is a verb, and /ɛksplɔɪt/ when it is a noun. 1 If someone exploits you, they treat you unfairly by using your work or your ideas and giving you very little money or anything else in return; used showing disapproval. EG They would help to exploit and repress their own people... Adults exploit children far too often... Of course she's not exploiting me! ◊ exploitation /ɛksplɔɪteɪʃən/. EG ...to protect the public from commercial exploitation... ...the exploitation of children in factories.

V+O ⇑ mistreat = take advantage of

◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you exploit something such as a raw material, an idea, or someone's ability, you develop it in order to make money out of it. EG Slate was exploited commercially... You can exploit a talent which you already possess... Everyone is seeking to exploit opportunities for improving efficiency. ◊ exploitation. EG ...the comprehensive exploitation of the Earth's resources.

V+O ⇑ use

◊ N UNCOUNT + of

3 Someone's exploits are the brave, interesting, or humorous actions that they have done at a particular time. EG ...his exploits in the War... ...the exploits of Alexander the Great... ...laughing at Midge's exploits.

N COUNT : USU PL + SUPP ⇑ deed

exploitable /ɪksplɔɪtəbəl/. 1 Something that is exploitable can be used as a basis for making money. EG ...commercially exploitable forest... ...the fear of missing exploitable talent.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ usable

2 People who are exploitable can be made to work for very low pay. EG ...a large and easily exploitable work force.

ADJ QUALIT

exploitative /ɪksplɔɪtətɪv/. If you describe a person, company, or other organization as exploitative, you mean that they treat people unfairly because they are interested only in making money; a formal word used showing disapproval. EG Foreign capital was exploitative and a menace to national sovereignty... ...exploitative employment agencies.

ADJ QUALIT

exploiter /ɪksplɔɪtə/, exploiters. An exploiter is a person who uses people or things in order to make money, often in an uncaring way. EG ...the misuse of power by property-hungry exploiters... The first serious exploiters of Lebanon timber were the Phoenicians.

N COUNT ⇑ user

exploratory /ɪksplɒrətəri/; a fairly formal word. An exploratory action or investigation 1 is done in order to assess a situation or people's opinions before deciding on a course of action. EG They will begin exploratory talks on a new grain agreement... ...forecasts and exploratory calculations. 2 is done in order to find out what is in a particular place. EG An early exploratory expedition had failed... ...exploratory digging in southern Iraq.

ADJ CLASSIF = preliminary

ADJ CLASSIF = investigative explore /ɪksplɔː/, explores, exploring, explored. 1 If you explore a place, you travel there because you have not been there before, or because nobody else has been there before, in order to find out what it is like. EG Between the wars, he explored three continents by canoe... Every part of the island has been explored. ◊ exploration /ɛksplɔreɪʃən/, explorations. EG ...voyages of exploration... ...underwater exploration... ...the exploration of space.

V+O

◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

2 If you explore something with a part of your body, you cause that part of your body to touch and move about over it to feel what it is like. EG With widespread hands he explored the grass around him.

V+O = investigate

3 If you explore an idea, method, or suggestion, you think about it carefully and try it out or discuss it with other people in order to assess whether it is possible or a good idea. EG The conference explored the possibility of closer trade links... Stop the tape and explore the implications of what you've heard... ...issues that the group had already explored. ◊ exploration. EG ...a fundamental exploration of the main alternatives... ...ideas in need of further exploration.

V+O = examine, investigate

◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = investigation

4 If people explore an area for something such as oil or minerals, they study the area and do tests on the land or dig holes in it because they hope to find oil, minerals, or something else of value there. ◊ exploration. EG Mining companies have neglected exploration in developing countries... ...exploration for fossil fuels... ...exploration and exploitation of offshore oil.

V OR V+O ⇑ search

◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

explorer /ɪksplɔːrə/, explorers. An explorer is someone who travels to places about which very little is known, in order to discover what is there. EG ...an Arctic explorer... ...explorers, climbers, and journalists.

N COUNT ⇑ traveller

explosion /ɪksplɒʊʒən/, explosions. An explosion is 1 a sudden, violent, loud burst of energy, for example one caused by a bomb. Explosions often result in damage or injury. EG Twenty men were killed in the explosion... ...the areas hit by the nuclear explosion... ...an explosion in a chemical plant. 2 an act of deliberately causing a bomb or similar device to explode. EG ...the explosion of nuclear devices in the atmosphere... ...over a thousand nuclear explosions had been conducted since 1945. 3 a large and rapid increase in the number or amount of something. EG The population explosion may yet have disastrous effects... ...the explosion of job opportunities... ...an explosion in demand for telephones. 4 a sudden and violent expression of someone's feelings, especially anger. EG The explosion is avoided when Chris turns and walks away... ...an explosion of rage. 5 a sudden and serious outbreak of political protest or violence. EG ...the explosion of mass protest... The explosion was precipitated by the police raids. 6 a sudden very loud noise. EG He drove off, with a loud explosion from his exhaust... ...an explosion of loud laughter.

N COUNT = blast

N COUNT = detonation

N COUNT + SUPP

N COUNT = outburst

N COUNT ⇑ upheaval = eruption

N COUNT = burst

explosive /ɪksplɒʊsɪv/, explosives. 1 An explosive is a substance or device which causes something such as a bomb to explode. EG The heat set off some explosive... ...searching premises for explosives, gelignite, and firearms.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 Something that is explosive 2.1 is capable of exploding or is likely to explode under particular conditions. EG ...a very powerful explosive device. 2.2 involves an explosion or results from it. EG Modern bullets produce an explosive effect upon impact... ...measuring the explosive power. ◊ explosively. EG Sodium reacts explosively with water. 2.3 happens suddenly and makes a loud noise. EG ...the explosive thunderclap of sound... The final applause was explosive. 2.4 happens, develops, or increases in number very suddenly and rapidly. EG ...the explosive growth in world population... ...the explosive renaissance of the British Theatre.

ADJ CLASSIF

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ violent

◊ ADV WITH VB

ADJ QUALIT = deafening

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ rapid

3 An explosive situation is likely to have difficult, serious, or dangerous effects. EG Unemployment has become the most explosive political issue... ...dangerously explosive international repercussions. ◊ explosiveness.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unstable = sensitive

◊ N UNCOUNT

4 If you describe someone as explosive, you mean that they tend to express their anger suddenly and violently. EG ...an explosive temper. ◊ explosively. EG 'A good kid!' he said explosively, and as though shocked by his own show of emotion.

ADJ QUALIT = fierce

◊ ADV WITH VB

exponent /ɪkspəʊnənt/, exponents; a formal word. 1 An exponent of an idea, theory, or plan is a person who supports and explains it, and who tries to persuade other people that it is a good idea. EG Mr Heath is not the only exponent of this ideal... ...the leading exponents of apartheid.

N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ supporter = advocate

2 An exponent of a particular skill or activity is a person who is good at it. EG ...the supreme exponent of the English humorous essay... ...the living exponents with whom an audience comes into contact.

N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ expert

exponential /ɛkspəʊnɛnʃəl/ means growing or increasing very rapidly; a formal word. EG Computer technology is embarking on a period of exponential growth. ◊ exponentially. EG Money spent by Education Authorities has risen exponentially.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ rapid

◊ ADV WITH VB

export, exports, exporting, exported. The word export is pronounced /ɛkspɔːt/ when it is a noun, and /ɪkspɔːt/ when it is a verb. 1 The export of a product or raw material is the sale and sending of it to another country. EG ...the export of agricultural produce... Germany banned all exports of uranium... They grow coffee, cotton and bananas for export... ...a thriving export trade.

N UNCOUNT ≠ import

2 An export is a product or raw material which is sold and sent to another country. EG Production of coal, a major export, is down sharply... ...one third of exports from industrial nations go to the developing countries.

N COUNT ⇑ commodity ≠ import

3 To export products or raw materials means to sell them to another country. EG Africa is exporting beef to Europe... Raw materials are exported at low prices... The firm exports 90 per cent of its production...

V OR V+O ≠ import

4 To export ideas or values means to introduce them into another country and encourage people there to accept them or adopt them. EG The values of today's Europeans are now exported by them to all parts of the world.

V + O
⇑ spread ≠ import exportable /ɪkspɔːtəbəl/ means suitable to be exported. EG ...a greater share of the exportable surplus... ...exportable cultural achievements.

ADJ CLASSIF
⇑ marketable

exporter /ɛkspɔːtə/, exporters. An exporter is a country, firm, or person that sells and sends goods to another country. EG Britain is now a net exporter of all three cereals... ...the company's position as a leading exporter.

N COUNT
⇑ seller ≠ importer

expose /ɛkspəʊz/, exposes, exposing, exposed. 1 To expose something that is usually hidden means to uncover it and make it visible. EG The mouth opens to expose a great number of sharp teeth... The rocks are exposed at low tide... His shirt was open, exposing the blue and red lines of the tattoo on his chest.

V + O
≠ conceal

2 To expose a person or animal to something dangerous or unpleasant means to put them in a situation in which it might harm them. EG They had been exposed to radiation... The creature stands out in the open, exposed to attack... Amphibians cannot expose themselves directly to the sun.

V + O (NG/REFL) + A (to)
≠ shield, protect

3 If someone is exposed to an idea or feeling, they are given experience of it, or introduced to it, especially when it is new to them. EG We were exposed to the latest theories on child care... We are all of us exposed to grief.

V + O (NG/REFL) + A (to) : USU PASS

4 To expose a person or situation means to reveal the truth about them, especially when it involves dishonest or shocking behaviour that has been kept secret. EG ...the political scandals he could expose... He was eventually exposed in the perjury case.

V + O
= denounce

5 A man who exposes himself shows people his genitals in a public place, usually because he is mentally or emotionally disturbed.

V + O (REFL)
⇑ show
= flash

exposé /ɛkspəʊzeɪ/, exposés. An exposé is a piece of writing which reveals the truth about a situation or person, especially when it involves dishonest or shocking behaviour that has been kept secret. EG ...a lucid exposé of the hypocrisy surrounding the payment... ...an exposé which triggered off a parliamentary debate.

N COUNT
⇑ revelation = disclosure

exposed /ɪkspəʊzd/. If a place is exposed, it has no natural protection against bad weather or enemies, for example because it has no trees or is on very high ground. EG The house is in a very exposed position... ...the most exposed of seaside promenades... When the animal has left the exposed feeding grounds it is safe from attack.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ open ≠ sheltered exposition /ɛkspəˈzɪʃən/, expositions; a formal word. An exposition is 1 a detailed explanation of an idea or a discussion of a problem. EG The paper contained a clear exposition of the theory of evolution. 2 an exhibition in which goods, works of art, etc are shown to the public. EG ...the Montreal Exposition of 1967.

N COUNT
⇑ description = account

N COUNT

expostulate /ɪkspɒstjəˈleɪt/, expostulates, expostulating, expostulated; a formal word. If you expostulate, you express strongly your disagreement with someone or your dissatisfaction with something that they have done. EG He was expostulating with the porter... Sir William Bull expostulated against this policy of suppression... Morris expostulated, 'How many times have you said that!' ◊ expostulation /ɪkspɒstjəˈleɪʃən/, expostulations. EG They planned to stay for another six weeks in spite of Thomas's furious expostulations.

V OR V + QUOTE
⇑ object = remonstrate

◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT
⇑ objection

exposure /ɪkspəʊʒə/, exposures. 1 Exposure is 1.1 the state of being in a position or situation in which something affects you or influences you very strongly, usually in a harmful way. EG He was suffering from exposure to nuclear radiation... Exposure to the air had bleached his hair... The body cannot cope with sudden exposure to stress... ...an age when youngsters are receiving maximum exposure to new ideas. 1.2 the harmful effect on a person's body caused by very cold weather, sometimes resulting in their death. EG The group's leader died of exposure on the mountain.

N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to ≠ protection

N UNCOUNT
⇑ condition
= hypothermia

2 Exposure is also 2.1 the revealing of the truth about a situation or person, especially when it involves dishonest or shocking behaviour that has been kept secret. EG She concealed it from her parents, fearing that exposure would mean the banishment of Rosamund... ...the public exposure of a president who was threatened with impeachment. 2.2 a lot of publicity that is given by television, newspapers, etc to a person or event. EG ...giving the widest possible exposure to scenes of casualties and damage... He had, in a few short days of intense exposure, become a folk hero.

N UNCOUNT
= coverage

3 In photography, an exposure is 3.1 a single photograph, especially one on a length of film that is used to take several photographs. EG ...a camera capable of taking a hundred exposures before the film needs changing. 3.2 the amount of light that is allowed to enter a camera when taking a photograph, which is controlled by the speed of the shutter and the size of the opening. EG ...pictures of aircraft at very slow exposures.

N COUNT

N COUNT/UNCOUNT

expound /ɪkspaʊnd/, expounds, expounding, expounded. If you expound an idea or opinion, you give a clear and detailed explanation of it; a formal word. EG He expounded his latest theory to his students.

V + O
⇑ explain

express /ɪkspres/, expresses, expressing, expressed. 1 If you express an idea or feeling, 1.1 you put it into words by speaking or writing. EG He expressed his sorrow and regret to the King... We are anxious that students' views should be expressed... ...if I may express an opinion. ◊ expressed. EG He didn't have the courage to defy his father's expressed will. 1.2 you show it in the look on your face or in your behaviour. EG A child's feelings are often expressed by crying... Her eyes expressed annoyance... They hooted their car horns to express their disapproval.

V + O ⇑ utter = voice

◊ ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

V + O
= convey

2 When you express yourself, 2.1 you put ideas into words, especially openly or clearly, by speaking or writing them. EG He could express himself more freely outside the office... ...junior clerks incapable of expressing themselves in decent English... I expressed myself better in French. 2.2 you show your thoughts or feelings by your actions or by artistic activities. EG She expresses herself through art... ...the way Italians express themselves in music... The children had a big open space in which to express themselves.

V + O (REFL) : USU + A
⇑ explain

V + O (REFL) : USU + A
⇑ reveal

3 If an idea or feeling expresses itself in some way, it can be clearly seen in someone's actions or in its effects on a situation. EG The logic expressed itself in the Government's decision... That increased confidence expressed itself in other ways.

V + O (REFL) : USU + A ⇑ show
= manifest

4 If you express a quantity or mathematical problem in symbols or equations, you write it using these symbols or equations; a technical use. EG Express T in terms of these variables... Express it in the form A plus J equals B... Here it is expressed as a percentage.

V + O : USU + A
⇑ describe = represent

5 An express command or order is one that is clearly and deliberately stated, usually in writing; a formal use. EG This may not be published save by the express direction of the School... The action was taken on his express order. ◊ expressly. EG Jefferson had expressly asked her to invite Freeman... The Charter expressly forbids the building of any chapel.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
= explicit ≠ implicit

◊ ADV WITH VB
= explicitly, specifically

6 An express intention or purpose is a deliberate and specific one that you have before you do something. EG She came with the express purpose of causing trouble. ◊ expressly. EG They bought the house expressly for her... He does not cry expressly to annoy you!

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

◊ ADV WITH VB

7 Express is used in British English to describe special services which are provided by companies or organizations such as the Post Office, in which things are sent or done faster than usual for a higher price. EG ...an express letter... Send it by express delivery... We also have an express laundry service. ▸ used as an adverb. EG This letter is very important. Please send it express.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
⇑ fast

▸ ADV WITH VB
⇑ quickly

8 An express or express train is a fast train which stops at very few stations. EG ...the Orient Express... The express for Paris was waiting to go.

N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N

9 An express is also a fast bus or coach which goes from one place to another directly or with very few stops.

N COUNT

expression /ɪkspreʃən/, expressions. 1 In this dictionary, the word expression is used to refer to any groups of two or more words, for example phrases or sentences, that are being considered as one unit.

2 An expression is 2.1 a word or phrase that is usually used in a particular situation or by particular people, and that you are quoting, explaining, or commenting on. EG She's always using slang expressions... I think they're full of–if you'll pardon the expression–bull... The expression is 'fly in the ointment'. 2.2 a symbol or equation which represents a quantity or problem; a technical use in mathematics. EG This gives us an expression for the mean value.

3 The expression of ideas or feelings is 3.1 the act of putting them into words by speaking or writing. EG We parted with many expressions of goodwill... His speech provoked expressions of support from MPs of all parties... ...the freedom of expression of the press. 3.2 the act of showing them through your actions or through artistic activities. EG Giving and sharing are spontaneous expressions of joy... His carvings that have become one of the finest expressions of African art... The act was a legitimate expression of his duty as a police officer. 3.3 the way in which they show themselves in things that happen. EG All political parties are but the expression of class interest... These sentiments found expression in the formation of the London Industrial Development Board.

4 Your expression is the way that your face looks at a particular moment. It shows what you are thinking or feeling. EG When I saw the expression on his face, I realised how angry he was... His facial expressions made us laugh... I couldn't see Helen's expression, because her head was turned. ▸ used as an uncount noun. EG Anthony's face showed not a flicker of expression.

5 Expression is the ability to show feeling when you are acting, singing, or playing a musical instrument. EG Their playing of Beethoven was full of expression.

expressionism /ɪkˈspreʃəˌnɪzəm/ is a style of art, literature, and music, which uses symbolism and exaggeration in order to represent emotions as opposed to physical reality; a technical term. ◊ expressionist, expressionists.

expressionless /ɪkˈspreʃənlɪs/. If someone's face or voice is expressionless, it shows no emotional feelings; often used showing disapproval. EG His face was completely expressionless... She gave me an oddly expressionless look... ...expressionless brown eyes... ...an expressionless voice. ▸ used of artistic performances. EG He played the viola in an accurate, expressionless way.

expressive /ɪkˈspresɪv/. 1 Something that is expressive indicates clearly a person's feelings or intentions. EG She had given Lynn an expressive glance... ...one crude expressive syllable... He had an expressive face. ◊ expressively. EG He drew a finger expressively across his throat. ◊ expressiveness. EG ...a glare that gave her face a startling expressiveness.

2 Someone's expressive ability is their ability to speak or write clearly and interestingly. EG It is not easy to evaluate a child's expressive powers in an exam.

3 If something is expressive of particular ideas or qualities, it has features which indicate or demonstrate them; a formal use. EG The election result seemed expressive of their organizational superiority.

expressway /ɪkˈspresweɪ/, expressways. An expressway is a wide road that is specially designed so that a lot of traffic can move along it very quickly; used mainly in American English. EG ...a four-lane expressway... ...the Long Island Expressway.

expropriate /ɛksˈprəʊprɪeɪt/, expropriates, expropriating, expropriated; a formal word. 1 If a government or other authority expropriates money or other property, they take it away from its owners for public use. EG The surplus will be expropriated by the government. ◊ expropriation /ɪkˌspraʊprɪˈeɪʃəˈn/. EG ...the expropriation of land.

2 If someone expropriates money or other property, they take it away from its owners illegally for their own use. EG The funds had been expropriated by Darcy. ◊ expropriation.

expulsion /ɪkˈspʌlʃəˈn/, expulsions; a formal word. Expulsion is 1 the expelling of someone from a school, university, or organization. EG ...his expulsion from the university... He risked lifetime expulsion from international athletics for larceny. 2 the expelling of someone from a place, often by force. EG ...the temporary expulsion of military advisers. 3 the expelling of something from a container or from your body. EG Her lips quivered with each expulsion of breath.

expunge /ɪkˈspʌnʤ/, expunges, expunging, expunged. To expunge something means to remove it completely, for example from a piece of writing or from your memory, because it causes problems or bad feelings; a formal word. EG ...his battle to expunge the clause from the contract... He had tried to expunge memories of the failure.

expurgate /ɛkspəgeɪt/, expurgates, expurgating, expurgated. To expurgate a piece of writing means to remove parts of it before it is published in order to avoid offending or shocking people; a formal word. ◊ expurgated. EG Even Shakespeare was dangerous, except in the expurgated version.

exquisite /ɪˈkskwɪzɪt, ɛkskwɪzɪt/. Something that is exquisite 1 is extremely beautiful in appearance. EG She has the most exquisite face... The city has two small but exquisite harbours. ◊ exquisitely. EG Their children were exquisitely dressed. 2 demonstrates a high degree of artistic skill or style. EG ...the exquisite jewellery of the Aztecs... ...exquisite craftsmanship... This next letter is translated from her exquisite French. ◊ exquisitely. EG ...exquisitely carved statuettes. 3 is extremely pleasant and polite. EG ...a man with exquisite manners... ...the exquisite courtesy of simple folks... ...his usual exquisite tact. ◊ exquisitely. EG ...his exquisitely polite voice. 4 is greater in effect because it happens at the right time or in a suitable way; a literary use. EG With exquisite condescension he stated, 'I have passed your message on.'... ...the exquisite irony of the situation. ◊ exquisitely. EG ...an exquisitely comical effect... He left a pause, exquisitely timed to show he was joking. 5 is felt very strongly and is greatly appreciated. EG ...the exquisite pleasure of being free... ...sipping the water slowly with exquisite relief. ◊ exquisitely. EG His tongue was exquisitely sensitive.

ex-serviceman, ex-servicemen. An ex-serviceman is a man who used to be in a country's army, navy, or air force; used in British English.

ext. is written on business letters to indicate someone's telephone extension number in an office. EG Ring the Information Bureau (928-5000 ext. 7430)... She can be contacted on Ext. 2307.

extant /ɛkstænt, ɛkstənt/. Something that is extant still exists in spite of being very old; a formal word. EG ...one Spanish law that is still extant in California... ...according to an extant document... ...the old but now no longer extant structure.

extemporize /ɪkˈstɛmpəraɪz/, extemporizes, extemporizing, extemporized; also spelled extemporise. If you extemporize, you speak, act, or perform something immediately, without any rehearsing or preparation; a formal word. EG Certain performers are funnier when they extemporize.

extend /ɪkˈstend/, extends, extending, extended. 1 If something extends for a particular distance, it continues to exist for that distance from a point or central area. EG The road now extends two kilometres beyond the River... ...empires which extended over large areas... A red carpet extended all the way to the sidewalk.

2 If something extends from a surface or from the main part of something, it sticks out from it. EG ...chalk boulders extending from the cliffs.

3 If something extends for a period of time, it continues for that time. EG His working day often extends well into the evening... ...the end of a saga extending over thirty years.

4 If something extends to other people, ideas, or activities, it includes or affects them. EG The consequences of unemployment extend well beyond the labour market... His radicalism did not extend to the sphere of economics... This tendency extends even into old age.

5 If you extend something, 5.1 you make it bigger or longer than it was before. EG Have you ever thought of extending your house?... They aren't sure whether or not to extend the runway. 5.2 you cause it to exist or be valid for a longer period of time. EG The

N COUNT ⇑ phrase

N COUNT

N COUNT/UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ utterance

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of = manifestation

N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = manifestation

N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ look

▸ N UNCOUNT = emotion

N UNCOUNT

N UNCOUNT

◊ N COUNT

ADJ QUALIT = blank ≠ expressive

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ revealing

◊ ADV WITH VB

◊ N UNCOUNT

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ communicative

ADJ QUALIT : PRED + of ⇑ indicative

N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N

V + O = seize

◊ N UNCOUNT

V + O = steal

◊ N UNCOUNT

N UNCOUNT/COUNT

N UNCOUNT/COUNT

N UNCOUNT/COUNT + SUPP = discharge

V + O = erase

V + O = bowdlerize

◊ ADJ CLASSIF

ADJ QUALIT = delightful

◊ ADV

ADJ QUALIT = beautiful

◊ ADV

ADJ QUALIT = perfect

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ appropriate

◊ ADV

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ intense

◊ ADV

N COUNT ⇑ person

N SING + NUM

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ existing

V OR V + O = ad lib

V + A = reach, stretch

V + A = protrude

V + A = last

V + A ≠ be restricted

V + O ⇑ enlarge

V + O ⇑ prolong

authorities extended her visa... It was repaired from time to time to extend its life... ...extending loan repayment times. ◊ extended. EG Albery gave me an extended contract... ...extended news bulletins on TV... ...going home on extended leave. 5.3 you cause it to include or affect more people, ideas, or activities than it did before. EG It is designed to extend people's knowledge of modern methods... Import controls were extended to the paper industry... Congress wants the law extended to cover all states. 5.4 you spread it out or unfold it. EG The cloth can be extended into a hood.

6 If you extend a part of your body, you straighten it or stretch it out. EG He sat in the boat with his arms extended along its sides.

7 If you extend something to someone, 7.1 you hold it out for them to take; a formal use. EG I extended the document to the judge... He extended his hand, and Brody shook it. 7.2 you offer it to them in a polite or friendly way. EG The invitation she had extended was promptly accepted... Industrialists will extend a warm welcome to him. 7.3 you give it to them or make it available to them in order to help them. EG Aid in the form of food and housing was extended to those in need... ...the tradition of extending asylum to refugees... The banks agreed to extend credit for the purchase of new equipment.

8 If something extends you or if you extend yourself, you have to use all your ability or strength. EG Simon was never really extended at school... Athletes were more interested in extending themselves to the limits of their abilities.

extendable /ɪ²kstɛ̲ndəbə⁰l/. Something that is extendable 1 can be made longer in length. EG Some species have small extendable tentacles... ...an extendable ladder. 2 can be made to exist or be valid for a longer period of time. EG The tenancy of the Lodge was only extendable on a weekly basis.

extension /ɪ²kstɛ̲nʃə⁰n/, extensions. 1 An extension is 1.1 a new room or building which is added to an existing building or group of buildings. EG ...a new extension to the library... Some house extensions need planning permission. 1.2 an extra period of time for which something continues to exist or be valid, usually as a result of official permission. EG I had applied for an extension to our visas... He asked for extension of his residence permit. 1.3 a development that includes or affects more people, ideas, or activities. EG ...the extension of bombing to the British mainland... Nationalist leaders demanded the extension of democratic rights... The role of women within the family and, by extension, within the community, has changed. 1.4 a part which is connected to a piece of equipment in order to make it reach something further away. EG Unroll the extension lead and put the vacuum plug into the socket... ...an extension ladder. 1.5 one of two or more telephones in a building, all of which have the same number. EG I'm thinking of getting an extension in the bedroom. 1.6 a telephone that is connected to the switchboard of a company or institution, and that has a special number. EG Call me at the university, extension 2251... Make sure the switchboard have your correct extension.

2 In Britain, extension colleges and courses arrange teaching and examinations for people who cannot attend full-time courses. EG ...the National Extension College... ...the University Extension Service.

extensive /ɪ²kstɛ̲nsɪv/. Something that is extensive 1 covers a large physical area. EG ...an extensive Roman settlement in north-west England... If the rash is extensive, call the doctor. 2 is very great in effect. EG Many buildings suffered extensive damage in the blast... The device had undergone extensive testing. ◊ extensively. EG The aircraft were extensively modified. 3 contains many details, ideas, or items on a particular subject. EG ...a very extensive reading list... We had fairly extensive discussions... ...extensive television coverage... ...an extensive knowledge of aeronautics. ◊ extensively. EG I have quoted extensively from it.

extent /ɪ²kstɛ̲nt/. 1 The extent of something is its length, area, or size. EG ...the extent of the solar system... The door opened to the extent of its short tight chain... ...to expand the empire to its largest extent.

2 The extent of a situation or difficulty is its size or scale. EG We reported the extent of local damage and casualties... The full extent of the problem is not yet known... They will benefit from it to the same extent as the Japanese.

3 You use expressions such as to a large extent, to some extent, or to a certain extent in order to indicate that something is partly true, but not entirely true. EG The community is, to a very large extent, a closed one... To some extent his warnings have proved absolutely correct... Well I think to a certain extent it's true.

4 You use expressions such as to what extent, to that extent, or to the extent that when you are discussing how true a statement is. EG To what extent are diseases linked with genes?... The aim of the policy was to deal with inflation, and to that extent it had considerable success... A computer is intelligent only to the extent that it can store information.

5 You use expressions such as to the extent of, to the extent that, or to such an extent that in order to indicate that a situation has reached an interesting or difficult stage, and that someone has done or is likely to do something surprising or dangerous. EG They are prepared to fight for their rights, even to the extent of going on strike... The party lost all appeal and purpose to the extent that by 1949 it chose to disband itself... Sanitary conditions had deteriorated to such an extent that there was widespread danger of disease.

extenuate /ɪ²kstɛ̲njʊ⁴eɪt/, extenuates, extenuating, extenuated. If something extenuates a wrong action, it causes it to be judged less seriously by giving reasons that partly excuse it; a formal word. ◊ extenuating. EG It was essential to have a complete dossier, with every extenuating circumstance, before issuing a verdict. ◊ extenuation /ɪ²kstɛ̲ntjʊ⁴eɪʃə⁰n/. EG Without that extenuation, he would have been jailed.

exterior /ɪ²kstɪə̲rɪə/, exteriors. 1 The exterior of something is its outside surface. EG The rooms in the town hall were as grand as the exterior... Keep your car exterior in good condition... ...the exterior of a space capsule.

2 Your exterior is your usual appearance or behaviour, especially when it is very different from your character. EG Beneath his professional doctor's exterior, he was wildly fun-loving and reckless... Dirk's surly exterior concealed a warm and generous nature.

3 You use exterior to refer to something that is situated or happening outside something or someone. EG Exterior drains must be kept clear... ...the exterior approaches to the prison... ...the objects of the exterior world.

exterminate /ɪ²kstɜ̲:mɪneɪt/, exterminates, exterminating, exterminated. If a group of animals or people is exterminated, all of the animals or people are killed. EG Fishing must stop before the species is exterminated... Their job is to exterminate rats and mice... The inhabitants were tortured to death or exterminated by starvation. ◊ extermination /ɪ²kstɜ̲:mɪneɪʃə⁰n/. EG We have to think of a way to prevent the extermination of these beautiful creatures.

exterminator /ɪ²kstɜ̲:mɪneɪtə/, exterminators. An exterminator is a person whose job is to kill animals such as rats or mice, because they are a nuisance or a danger. EG ...a rodent exterminator.

external /ɪ²kstɜ̲:nə⁰l/, externals. 1 External means 1.1 happening, coming from, or existing outside a particular place, person, or area of activity. EG ...the external walls of the chimneys... ...customs which they see as alien and external to their village world... They did it in response to external pressures. ◊ externally. EG Internally and externally, the colonial world is conditioned by its situation in a world system. 1.2 involving or intended for foreign countries. EG ...the nation's £27 billion external debt... ...the French External Relations Minister... ...the BBC external service. 1.3 happening or existing in the world in general and affecting you in some way. EG New social arrangements in the external world erupt into our lives... ...external reality... ...something beyond our genes and external events.

2 External examiners, accountants, etc come into an organization from outside in order to do a job there that must be done fairly and impartially. EG External

◊ ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

V + O ⇑ increase

V + O + A ⇑ stretch

V + O

V + O : IF + PREP THEN to/towards = proffer

V + O : IF + PREP THEN to = give

V + O : IF + PREP THEN to = grant

V + O (NG/REFL) = stretch

ADJ CLASSIF

ADJ CLASSIF

N COUNT ⇑ wing

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

N COUNT, OR N BEFORE N

N COUNT ⇑ telephone

N COUNT, OR N + NUM

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, ALSO USED IN NAMES ⇑ part-time

ADJ QUALIT

ADJ QUALIT = severe

◊ ADV WITH VB

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ detailed = comprehensive

◊ ADV WITH VB

N SING : WITH POSS ⇑ dimension

N SING : WITH

the/POSS ⇑ amount

PHR, USED AS ADV SEN ≠ entirely

PHR

PHR

V + O ⇑ reduce = mitigate

◊ ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

◊ N UNCOUNT

N COUNT

N COUNT : SUPP ≠ inner self

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = external

V + O ⇑ kill = wide out

◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ destruction

N COUNT : USU MOD + N

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB, IF + PREP THEN to = outer

◊ ADV WITH VB = outwardly

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, ALSO IN NAMES ⇑ outside

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ outside

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

examiners have been quick to notice this trend... Their accounts are audited by a firm of external auditors.

3 An external part of an animal's body is on the outside of its body, or is attached to the outside. EG The tadpoles have feathery external gills... The external skeleton is highly versatile. ● A medicine that is for external use is intended to be used only on the outside of your body, and not to be eaten or drunk. EG For external use only.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ outer

● PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ outer

4 When you talk about externals or the externals, you are referring to the features of a situation that are obvious but unimportant; a formal use. EG The popular historian is concerned only with externals... Your generation knows all about the externals... Misled by externals, he had failed to see the truth.

N PLURAL : ALSO the+N ⇑ superficial externalize /ɪ²kstɜːnəlaɪz/, externalizes, externalizing, externalized; also spelled externalise. If you externalize your ideas or feelings, you express them in words or actions; a formal word. EG Their discontent was externalised in political action... He tried to externalize his thoughts in pencilled images... Her cold anger was not externalized in any gesture or change in voice.

V+O

extinct /ɪ²kstɪŋkt/. 1 An extinct species of animal or plant no longer has any living members. EG The wolf is now nearly extinct... The species will be made extinct by the end of this century. ▸ used of groups of people. EG ...tribes that had become extinct.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED ⇑ dead = wiped out

2 If a particular kind of worker, way of life, or type of activity is extinct, it no longer exists because of changes in society. EG We can expect the farm worker to become extinct in the near future. 3 An extinct volcano does not erupt or is unlikely to erupt.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ active

extinction /ɪ²kstɪŋkʰʃəʰn/ is 1 The extinction of a species of animal or plant is the death or destruction of all its remaining members, so that the species no longer exists. EG ...the extinction of some plant and animal species... Bears and wolves were hunted to extinction... Apes are in danger of extinction... ...plants threatened with extinction.

N UNCOUNT

2 When the extinction of a particular way of life or type of activity occurs, people no longer have that way of life or take part in that activity. EG ...an attractive way of life now threatened with extinction... ...the extinction of private ownership.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ ending = abolition extinguish /ɪ²kstɪŋgwɪʃ/, extinguishes, extinguishing, extinguished; a formal word. 1 If you extinguish a fire or a light, you stop it burning or shining. EG ...a new method of extinguishing forest fires... Someone had extinguished the lights in the kitchen... An air hostess made him extinguish his cigar.

V+O = put out

2 If someone or something extinguishes an idea or feeling, they destroy it so that it no longer exists. EG We have to extinguish the memory of the defeat... Her spark of hope was extinguished... The first sight of Betty extinguished every thought of the music.

V+O ⇑ eliminate = banish extinguisher /ɪ²kstɪŋgwɪʃə/, extinguishers. See fire extinguisher.

extn. is written on business letters to indicate someone's telephone extension number in an office. EG He may be contacted on Extn 2241.

N SING+NUM

extol /ɪ²kstəʊl/, extols, extolling, extolled. If you extol an idea, quality, or person, you praise them enthusiastically, often in order to make other people like or approve of them; a formal word. EG She continued to extol the virtues of equality... Luce continued to extol MacArthur and his policy... Ancient customs were extolled as a better guide to living... Mrs Datchet had been extolling the splendours of the lake.

V+O, OR V+O+A (as) = laud

extort /ɪ²kstɔːt/, extorts, extorting, extorted. 1 If someone extorts money from you, they get it from you using force, threats, or other unfair or illegal means. EG They extorted every penny from us... Moneylenders offer help, but extort a heavy price.

V+O : IF+PREP THEN from ⇑ extract = squeeze

2 To extort also means to get something from another person with difficulty; a literary use. EG It was the first surprised look I managed to extort from that old knowing face... It is no good trying to extort promises.

V+O : IF+PREP THEN from ⇑ extract

extortion /ɪ²kstɔːʃəʰn/. 1 Extortion is the crime of obtaining something from someone, especially money, by using force or threats. EG ...a criminal specializing in extortion and armed robbery... He faces trial on extortion charges.

N UNCOUNT

2 You also describe someone's behaviour as extortion if you think they are trying to obtain more money for something than it is worth; used showing disapproval. EG 'It's extortion,' she said. 'He's not worth this much.'

N UNCOUNT = robbery

extortionate /ɪ²kstɔːʃəʰnət/. You describe something as extortionate when it is bigger or more costly than you consider to be fair; used showing disapproval. EG ...a worker making extortionate demands upon the employer... ...extortionate profits... ...bars where the music is loud and the drinks extortionate.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ high = excessive extra /ɛkstrə/, extras. 1 You use extra 1.1 to describe a thing, person, or amount that is added to others of the same kind. EG If you're cold put an extra pullover on... Take an extra pair of shoes and a sweater... Extra land is being brought under cultivation... A hundred extra postmen are being taken on.

QUANTIF ⇑ further = additional

1.2 to describe an amount of money that is more than the normal or expected amount. EG Ask if there will be any extra costs... ...an extra £2.80 a week... Send 25p extra for postage and packing... You have to pay extra for breakfast.

QUANTIF, OR ADV AFTER VB = additional

2 An extra is 2.1 something that is not necessary in a situation, activity, or object, but that makes it more comfortable, useful, or enjoyable. EG The only extras she used were cheese and mixed herbs... With the extras, the car cost £4,000... They miss the extras which most other children take for granted. 2.2 an additional amount of money that is added to the price that you have to pay for something. EG There are no extras to pay... Service charges may be shown as extras. 2.3 a person who plays an unimportant part in a film, for example as a member of a crowd. EG ...laughing like extras in a bad film... Even the extras were dressed like kings and queens.

N COUNT ⇑ addition = luxury

N COUNT ⇑ charge

N COUNT ⇑ actor

3 You can also use extra to say that something such as a person's behaviour has more of a particular quality than usual. EG He was extra polite to his superiors.

ADV+ADJ/ADV ⇑ very = especially extra- is sometimes added 1 to adjectives in order to form other adjectives, especially when someone such as an advertiser wants to say that a product has more of a particular quality than usual; an informal use. EG ...large→extra-large... ...long→extra-long... ...special→extra-special. 2 to adjectives in order to form other adjectives that describe something as not being part of something else; a formal use. EG ...parliamentary→extra-parliamentary... ...territorial→extra-territorial.

PREFIX ⇑ very

PREFIX ⇑ outside

extract, extracts, extracting, extracted. The word extract is pronounced /ɪ²kstrækt/ when it is a verb and /ɛkstrækt/ when it is a noun. 1 When a person or an animal extracts something from a particular place, they pull it out using force or skill. EG He tried to extract his pole from the mud... They have sharp claws for extracting grubs from holes... The new corks still have to be extracted with a corkscrew... That tooth should be extracted at once.

V+O : IF+PREP THEN from ⇑ withdraw = pull out

2 If you extract something, you take it carefully and deliberately out of a container; a literary use. EG Mrs. Oliver extracted a small notebook from her bag... He reached into his pocket and extracted a bundle of notes... He took out an envelope, extracted a document and handed it to me.

V+O : IF+PREP THEN from ⇑ withdraw = take out

3 To extract a raw material means to get it from the ground or from another substance by using machines or industrial processes. EG The Japanese extract ten million tons of coal each year... ...the cost of extracting the silicon. ◊ extraction. EG ...industries involved in mineral extraction.

V+O = produce

◊ N UNCOUNT

4 If you extract information or a particular response from someone, you get it from them with difficulty, because they are unwilling to say or do what you want. EG Sir James had extracted from Francis a fairly detailed account... ...apologies extracted under threat of legal action.

V+O : IF+PREP THEN from = elicit

5 If someone extracts an advantage from a situation, they use the situation in order to gain the advantage, often in an unfair or dishonest way. EG They will extract the maximum propaganda value from this affair. ◊ extraction. EG ...the extraction of profit from their labour.

V+O+A (from) ⇑ obtain

◊ N UNCOUNT = extortion

6 If you extract facts or ideas from a large amount of information, you study the information carefully and

V+O : IF+PREP THEN from

choose the facts that are important for your purpose. EG ...the habit of trying to extract causes and effects... I extract moral values from what I read.

7 An extract is 7.1 a part of a piece of writing, speech, or music that is printed, spoken, or played separately, for example in order to demonstrate something or to give an example of someone's style. EG ...extracts from 'The Sunday Times'... I would like to quote two extracts from the book... ...extracts from that tape... I think these extracts show that the proposals are ill-conceived. 7.2 a substance that has been obtained using a scientific process. EG ...obtaining from that extract a crude mixture of compounds... ...the extracts of certain plants and barks.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ passage = excerpt

N COUNT ⇑ product

extraction /ɪkstrækʃən/, extractions. 1 At the dentist's, if you have an extraction, the dentist pulls out one of your teeth. EG Few patients need an extraction.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ removal

2 Your extraction is the country or people that your family originally comes from; a formal use. EG Alistair was of Scottish extraction... His father was Irish by extraction.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ descent

3 Other meanings of extraction can be found in the entry for extract.

extractor /ɪkstræktə/, extractors. 1 An extractor is 1.1 a person or machine involved in obtaining raw materials. EG ...timber extractors. 1.2 a device that squeezes liquid out of something. EG ...a juice extractor.

N COUNT

N COUNT

2 An extractor or extractor fan is a device that is fixed to a window or wall to draw smells, steam, or hot air out of a room or building.

N COUNT

extra-curricular /ekstrə kərɪkjələ/; also spelled as one word. Extra-curricular activities are student activities that are not part of the course that they are doing, for example sports or hobbies. EG ...informal, extra-curricular discussions about politics... We offer a wide range of extracurricular activities.

ADJ CLASSIF

extradite /ekstrədaɪt/, extradites, extraditing, extradited. To extradite someone means to officially send them back to their own country so that they can be tried in a court of law for a crime that they have been accused of; a formal word. EG They have refused to extradite the terrorists... The Americans want to extradite him. ◊ extradition /ekstrədɪʃən/, extraditions. EG France requested their extradition from the United States... ...extradition proceedings.

V + O = send back

◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

extramarital /ekstrəmærɪtəl/. You use extramarital to refer to close relationships between a married person and another person who is not their husband or wife; a formal word. EG ...an extramarital affair.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

extra-mural. You use extra-mural to refer to 1 people, departments, or courses in a college or university, which are involved mainly with part-time students. EG ...the Department of Extra-mural Studies... ...extra-mural lecturers. 2 activities done by someone from an organization that are not part of their official duties. EG He co-ordinates most of the extra-mural activities.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = outside

extraneous /ɪkstreɪnɪəs/. Something that is extraneous exists, happens, or concerns things outside the situation or subject that you are talking about; a formal word. EG We need to be absolutely clear about all this and avoid all extraneous issues.

ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN to = irrelevant extraordinary /ɪkstrɔːdənərɪ/. 1 Someone or something that is extraordinary 1.1 has some special or extreme quality. EG My grandfather was a most extraordinary man. ◊ extraordinarily. EG ...an extraordinarily beautiful girl... ...the extraordinarily successful copying machine. 1.2 is unusual or surprising in a particular situation. EG What an extraordinary thing to say... It was the most extraordinary behaviour for a policeman. ◊ extraordinarily. EG The bomb caused extraordinarily high levels of radiation.

ADJ QUALIT = exceptional

◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ different = remarkable

◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV = remarkably

2 An extraordinary meeting is arranged specially to deal with a particular situation or problem, rather than happening regularly; a formal use. EG An Extraordinary General Meeting of the Union will debate the proposal... ...this month's extraordinary party congress.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ special

extrapolate /ɪkstræpəleɪt/, extrapolates, extrapolating, extrapolated. If you extrapolate, you examine known facts and use logic or reason in order to calculate a quantity or make statements about what is likely to happen in the future; a formal word. EG To assess future needs, the Department simply extrapolated past demand trends... ...the inadequacy of extrapolating from the experience of English-speaking students.

V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN from extrapolation /ɪkstræpəleɪʃən/, extrapolations; a formal word. 1 Extrapolation is the act or process of extrapolating. EG Avoid the disasters predicted by continuous extrapolation.

N UNCOUNT = inference

2 An extrapolation is a quantity, idea, or calculation which is the result of extrapolating from existing ones. EG ...one simple extrapolation from existing technology... ...simple extrapolations from current events.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN from

extra-sensory perception is an ability that some people think exists, by which people can feel or know things that they could not have felt or known through the ordinary senses such as touch, sight or hearing.

N UNCOUNT

extraterrestrial /ekstrətɪterɪstrɪəl/, extraterrestrials. 1 Extraterrestrial means happening, existing, or coming from somewhere beyond the planet Earth; a formal use. EG Extraterrestrial activity will be limited to exploration... ...a concentrated search for extraterrestrial life.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ≠ earthly

2 An extraterrestrial is a living creature that some people think exists or may exist in another part of the universe. EG ...the first to contact intelligent extraterrestrials... What would extraterrestrials look like ?

N COUNT = alien

extravagance /ɪkstrævəgəns/, extravagances. 1 Extravagance is the spending of more money than is reasonable or than you can afford, often on things that you do not really need. EG The African states were shocked at such extravagance... It is easy to criticize governments for extravagance and waste.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ excess

2 An extravagance is an act of extravagant behaviour, especially spending more money than is reasonable or than you can afford. EG In the quiet streets of Bloomsbury, commercial development would be an unjustifiable extravagance... It was a little extravagance of my father to buy new plants every year.

N COUNT ⇑ excess

extravagant /ɪkstrævəgənt/. 1 Someone who is extravagant 1.1 spends more money than is reasonable or than they can afford, often on things they do not really need. EG He said his wife was extravagant... I was simply too extravagant for the company's good. ◊ extravagantly. EG I lived extravagantly, taking cabs everywhere. 1.2 uses more of something than is reasonable. EG She considered him extravagant with electricity. 1.3 is extreme in their behaviour and likely to do foolish or harmful things. EG Mother was extravagant and romantic... ...a reckless, extravagant, disreputable fellow.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ wasteful ≠ thrifty

◊ ADV

ADJ QUALIT = wasteful

ADJ QUALIT = profligate

2 Something that is extravagant 2.1 costs more money than is reasonable or than you can afford. EG ...extravagant and often harmful luxuries... ...extravagant gifts. ◊ extravagantly. EG ...merchandise known to be extravagantly priced. 2.2 uses more of something than is reasonable. EG ...machines that are extravagant in their requirements of energy... The car is an extravagant consumer of land.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ costly

◊ ADV

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ wasteful = inefficient

3 Extravagant behaviour is extreme behaviour that is often done for a particular effect. EG ...people whose admiration is extravagant and often insincere... He raised his eyebrows in extravagant surprise... She treated me with extravagant contempt. ◊ extravagantly. EG Harold was extravagantly affectionate with his daughters... ...extravagantly eccentric behaviour.

ADJ QUALIT = exaggerated

◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV

4 Extravagant ideas are unrealistic and impractical; used showing disapproval. EG You have the most extravagant ideas... ...extravagant expectations.

ADJ QUALIT

5 Extravagant entertainments, designs, etc are elaborate and impressive. EG ...extravagant feather patterns... ...extravagant musical entertainments. ◊ extravagantly. EG ...the extravagantly elaborate funerals.

ADJ QUALIT

◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV

extravaganza /ɪkstrævəgænzə/, extravaganzas. An extravaganza is a public activity or performance which takes place in a very elaborate, colourful, and expensive way. EG ...spaceship-inspired extravaganzas... ...extravaganzas at Cardiff Castle.

N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ entertainment extreme /ɪkstriːm/, extremes. 1 Extreme means very great in degree or intensity. EG He died in extreme poverty... Large numbers of old people suffer extreme discomfort each winter... You must proceed with extreme caution... Extreme cold can wake a hibernating animal. ◊ extremely. EG ...an extremely difficult and dangerous task... Ralph and I have always got on extremely well... He played an extremely important part in the revolution.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV : USU + ADJ

2 Extreme situations and behaviour are much more severe or unusual than you would expect. EG People are capable of surviving in extreme conditions... Baby battering is the most extreme example of such behaviour... Their methods may seem extreme to many parents.

ADJ QUALIT

3 Extreme opinions, beliefs, or political movements are unacceptably severe or unreasonable; used showing disapproval. EG ...extreme views... ...the extreme Right Wing of the Party.

ADJ QUALIT ≠ moderate

4 The extreme point, edge, or end of something is its furthest point, edge, or end. EG ...the extreme south of the country... ...the extreme tip of the bullet.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ far

5 An extreme of behaviour is a type or example of behaviour which is considered to be so exaggerated that it is unacceptable; used showing disapproval. EG There's now a danger that we're going to the other extreme and being too lenient... Society does not tolerate the extremes of human behaviour.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

6 If you go to extremes, take something to extremes, or carry something to extremes, you do or say something in a way that is considered unacceptable, unreasonable, or foolish. EG We had to go to extremes to get any reaction... That's taking generosity to extremes... Surely we can have clean air and water without carrying any policy to extremes?

PHR : VB INFLECTS

7 You use in the extreme to give emphasis to an adjective, especially when you want to say that something is undesirable or very surprising; a formal expression. EG I thought the suggestion dangerous in the extreme... Her manner was friendly and welcoming in the extreme.

PHR : USED AS AN A ≠ in the least

extremis /ɪ²kstriːmɪs/. See in extremis.

extremism /ɪ²kstriːmɪzə⁰m/ is the behaviour or beliefs of extremists. EG ...the political extremism which brought their country close to civil war.

N UNCOUNT ≠ moderation

extremist /ɪ²kstriːmɪst/, extremists. An extremist is a person who wishes to bring about political or social change by doing things that other people consider too severe or disruptive, especially by using violence; used showing disapproval. EG A bomb planted by Nationalist extremists seriously injured an army officer. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...an extremist splinter group... ...minor political parties with extremist views.

N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ activist ≠ moderate

▸ ADJ CLASSIF ≠ moderate

extremity /ɪ²kstremɪti¹/, extremities. 1 The extremity of a situation is the degree to which it is severe or unacceptable. EG ...a mumble that suggested the extremity of drunkenness... ...the extremity of the tragedy.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = height

2 If you talk about the extremity of someone's ideas or beliefs, you mean that they are very extreme and unacceptable. EG ...the extremity of this racialist position.

N UNCOUNT ≠ moderation

3 An extremity is 3.1 the furthest end or edge of something; a formal use. EG ...the northern extremity of the west wing. 3.2 a very serious situation; a formal use. EG She tried to remember how things had ever reached such an extremity.

N COUNT

N COUNT ⇑ degree

4 Your extremities are the ends or outermost parts of your body, especially your hands and feet. EG The warmth spread outwards till it reached his extremities.

N PLURAL : USU POSS + N

extricate /ɛkstrɪkeɪt/, extricates, extricating, extricated. 1 If you extricate yourself or another person from a difficult or serious situation, you free yourself or the other person from it. EG She found it impossible to extricate herself from the relationship. ◊ extrication /ɪ²kstrɪkeɪʃə⁰n/.

V + O (NG/REFL) : USU + from = disentangle

◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you extricate yourself or someone else from a place where they are trapped or caught, you free yourself or the other person from the place. EG He once more extricated himself from this embrace... It was exceedingly difficult to extricate her from the hole. ◊ extrication.

V + O (NG/REFL) : USU + from = liberate

◊ N UNCOUNT

extrovert /ɛkstrəvɜːt/, extroverts. An extrovert is a person who is very active, lively, and sociable, and who finds it easy to talk to other people and make friends. EG If, however, you are an extrovert you are quite likely to enjoy it. ▸ used as an adjective. EG He had thought her gay, insensitive, extrovert... ...a rather extrovert student.

N COUNT ≠ introvert

▸ ADJ QUALIT

extrude /ɪ²kstruːd/, extrudes, extruding, extruded. To extrude something means to force or squeeze it out through a small opening; a formal word.

V OR V + O

extrusion /ɪ²kstruːʒə⁰n/, extrusions. Extrusion is the act or process of extruding something; a formal word.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ squeezing exuberance /ɪ²gzjuːbə⁰rəns/ is behaviour which is energetic, excited, and cheerful. EG She always greeted him with the same exuberance.

N UNCOUNT = enthusiasm

exuberant /ɪ²gzjuːbə⁰rənt/. If you are exuberant, you are full of energy, excitement, and cheerfulness. EG ...the exuberant director of the Theatre Royal. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG He ran to Fanny and gave her an exuberant kiss. ◊ exuberantly. EG Children danced exuberantly around the tree.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lively

◊ ADV WITH VB

exude /ɪ²gzjuːd/, exudes, exuding, exuded; a formal word. 1 If you exude a particular quality, feeling, etc, you seem to have it or feel it to a great extent. EG She exuded vitality, enthusiasm, and generosity... The rider did not speak, but exuded panic.

V + O ⇑ give off = ooze

2 If something exudes a liquid or smell or if a liquid or smell exudes from it, the liquid or smell comes out slowly and steadily. EG Some frogs exude a poisonous chemical from their skins.

V ERG = give off

exult /ɪ²gzʌlt/, exults, exulting, exulted; a formal word. If you exult, 1 you feel and show great happiness and pleasure because of some triumph or success that you have had. EG I both trembled and exulted at my fortune. ◊ exultation /ɪ²gzəlteɪʃə⁰n/. EG He spoke with an air of suppressed exultation. Dixon guessed with growing exultation that this must be the painting he had been searching for. 2 you speak in a way which indicates how pleased or proud you are of something that has happened. EG 'I've never played golf like I did last week,' he exulted. 3 you get great pleasure from something. EG He exulted in the title of the Napoleon of Fleet Street.

V : USU + A ⇑ rejoice

◊ N UNCOUNT = jubilation

V + QUOTE ⇑ say = crow

V : USU + A = glory

exultant /ɪ²gzʌltənt/. If you are exultant, you feel very happy and triumphant; a formal word. EG This made her mildly exultant. ▸ used of a person's behaviour. EG Her tone was loud, exultant. ◊ exultantly. EG She laughed again, exultantly.

ADJ QUALIT ▸ = jubilant

◊ ADV WITH VB

eye /aɪ/, eyes, eyeing or eying, eyed. 1 An eye is 1.1 one of the two organs on the face of a person, animal, or bird that are used for seeing. EG She went into hospital for an operation on her left eye... After a while my eyes became accustomed to the dark. 1.2 the part of an eye which you can see when you look at someone's face. EG ...blue eyes... She opened her eyes. 1.3 the area of skin around an eye. EG My eyes are always swollen after I've been crying.

N COUNT ⇑ organ

N COUNT

N COUNT

2 If you eye something, you look at it carefully or suspiciously. EG They eyed each other's newly bought shoes... Posy was eyeing the man thoughtfully.

V + O : NO IMPER

3 If you say that someone has an eye for something, you mean that they can recognize or see it clearly and make good judgements about it. EG The mechanic looked at the car engine with a practised eye... This artist has a marvellous eye for detail... It was their eye for profit that made them successful.

N SING : USU a + MOD + N, OR an + N + for ⇑ discrimination

4 An eye is also 4.1 anything which seems to look at things in the way that an eye does, for example a camera. EG The events of the war took place under the eye of a television camera. 4.2 one of the dark spots on a potato which new stems grow out of. 4.3 a small metal loop which a hook fits into to make a fastening on a piece of clothing. EG Her skirt was fastened with hooks and eyes.

N SING WITH DET : USU + SUPP

N COUNT

N COUNT

5 The eye of a needle is the small hole at one end of it which the thread passes through.

N COUNT

6 The eye of a storm, tornado, or hurricane, is the calm centre of it. EG ...the eye of a storm... ...the eye of a hurricane.

N SING : the + N + of

7 The word eye is also used in the following expressions. 7.1 If you are all eyes, you are very observant and looking round eagerly; an informal expression. EG The children were all eyes at the circus. 7.2 If you say that something happens before, in front of, or under your eyes, it happens where you can see it very clearly, and you are emphasizing that it is surprising or unpleasant. EG Her father was murdered before her very eyes. 7.3 If you cast or run your eye over something, you look or glance quickly at it. EG He ran his eye over the newspaper article.

PHR : USED AS C ⇑ interested

PHR : USED AS AN A

PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.4 If something catches your eye, you suddenly notice it. EG The flowers in your window caught my eye. 7.5 If you catch someone's eye, you do something to attract their attention, so that you can speak to them or ask them to do something. EG Can you catch the waiter's eye? 7.6 If you clap, lay, or set eyes on someone or something, you see them; an informal expression. EG She was the most extraordinary person I had ever laid eyes on. 7.7 If someone has their eye on you, they are watching you and making judgements about you. EG I've had my eye on you for a long time. 7.8 If you say that something appears to be true to someone's eyes or in someone's eyes, you mean that this is their opinion, although other people might disagree with you. EG The habits of strangers sometimes seem peculiar to our eyes... Her children could do no wrong in her eyes. 7.9 If you keep your eyes open or keep an eye out for someone or something, you are looking or watching for them carefully; an informal expression. EG You'll have to keep your eyes open for trouble tonight. 7.10 If you keep your eyes peeled or skinned, you are constantly watching for something; an informal expression. EG Keep your eyes peeled for pickpockets on Oxford Street. 7.11 If you keep an eye on something or someone, you watch them and make sure that they are safe, especially while the person who owns them or normally looks after them is absent. EG Can you keep an eye on the baby while I go shopping? 7.12 If you look at or see something through a particular person's eyes, you understand it in the same way that they do. EG Try looking at the world through a child's eyes. 7.13 If you make eyes at someone, you look at them in a way that indicates that you are attracted to them; an informal expression. EG He was making eyes at the waitress. 7.14 If you say that there is more to a situation than meets the eye, you mean that it is more complicated than you originally thought. 7.15 If you only have eyes for a particular person, you are especially interested in them, for example because you are in love with them. EG He only had eyes for me. 7.16 If you do or go into something with your eyes open, you are aware of the problems and difficulties that you are likely to face. EG He went into the job with his eyes open. 7.17 If something opens your eyes, it makes you aware for the first time that something is different from the way that you thought it was. 7.18 If you see eye to eye with someone, you agree with them and share the same opinions and views. EG She doesn't see eye to eye with her parents. 7.19 If you shut or close your eyes to something, you ignore it. EG It is foolish to shut our eyes to the effects of unemployment. 7.20 If you cannot take your eyes off someone, you are unable to stop looking at them, for example because you find them very attractive. EG He could not take his eyes off her throughout the meal.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ signal

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ observe

PHR : USED AS AN A

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ expect

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ watch

PHR : VB INFLECTS = look after

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS = ogle

PHR : USED AS C

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : USED AS AN A

PHR OR PHR + A (with) : RECIP, VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR

8 If you are up to your eyes in something, you are extremely busy because of it; an informal expression. EG Sal is still up to her eyes in kids and housework.

9 If you are doped or drugged up to your eyes, you have taken so many drugs that you cannot think clearly or move properly; an informal expression. EG She's doped up to the eyes with valium.

10 If you cry your eyes out, you are crying very much because you are very upset; an informal expression. EG A little girl was crying her eyes out.

11 If you say that's one in the eye for someone, you mean that something unpleasant has just happened to them which you feel they deserve; an informal expression.

12 You use an eye for an eye or an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth when you are talking about the idea that it is right that someone should be treated in the same harsh way that they have treated someone else, and that there should be no mercy for them.

13 If you say that someone's eyes are too big for their stomach, you mean that they are greedy because they have taken more food than they can actually eat; a humorous expression.

14 If you say that someone has an eye to the main chance or has an eye for the main chance, you mean that they are ambitious and always aware of good opportunities when they happen; often used showing disapproval.

PHR : USED AS AN A

PHR : USED AS C

PHR : VB INFLECTS = sob

PHR + for + N PROPER/NG

PHR : USED AS C/O ⇑ revenge

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS

15 You say my eye in order to express scorn or disagreement; an old-fashioned informal expression. EG A rose, my eye! That's a geranium!

PHR ⇑ nonsense

16 See also black eye, cross-eyed, private eye, shut-eye.

17 The word eye is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to turn a blind eye: see blind. ● to feast your eyes: see feast. ● to look someone in the eye: see look. ● to meet someone's eyes: see meet. ● in the twinkling of an eye: see twinkling.

eye up. If someone eyes you up, they look at you in a way that indicates that they think that you are attractive; an informal expression. EG He's been eyeing me up all evening.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ ogle

eyeball /aɪbɔːl/, eyeballs. A person's or animal's eyeball is the round part of their eye that is in the shape of a sphere. In humans, eyeballs are usually white with a coloured centre.

N COUNT

eyebrow /aɪbraʊ/, eyebrows. 1 Your eyebrows are the lines of hair which grow in an arch above each of your eyes.

N COUNT

2 If something causes you to raise an eyebrow or to raise your eyebrows, it causes you to feel surprised, shocked, or disapproving. EG Eyebrows were raised at their behaviour... This comment raised hardly an eyebrow in the medical profession.

PHR : VB AND N INFLECT ⇑ disapprove eye-catching. Something that is eye-catching is so noticeable that people look at it. EG ...an eye-catching poster.

ADJ QUALIT

-eyed combines with words such as 'blue', 'dark', or 'wild' to indicate that the person or animal described has eyes of a particular colour, expression, or quality. EG ...dark-eyed children... She was feverish and wild-eyed.

COMB : FORMS ADJS

eyeful /aɪful/, eyefuls. 1 An eyeful of dust, liquid, etc is an amount of it which has got into someone's eye. EG ...an eyeful of sand.

N PART

2 If you get an eyeful of someone or something, you have a good look at them; a very informal expression. EG So what you got was an eyeful of my wife.

N SING : an + N, USU + of

3 If men refer to a woman as an eyeful, they mean that they find her very attractive; a very informal word.

N SING : an + N

eyelash /aɪlæʃ/, eyelashes. Your eyelashes are the hairs which grow on the edge of your upper and lower eyelids.

N COUNT

eyelet /aɪlɪt/, eyelets. An eyelet is a small hole with a metal or leather ring round it, which is made in cloth. You can put cord, rope, or string through it, for example in the sails of a boat or in the flaps of tents.

N COUNT

eyelid /aɪlɪd/, eyelids. 1 Your eyelids are the two flaps of skin which cover your eyes when they are closed. EG ...his lower eyelid.

N COUNT ⇑ flap

2 If you don't bat an eyelid when something happens, or if you do something without batting an eyelid, you remain completely calm and are not at all shocked or surprised; an informal expression. EG She didn't bat an eyelid when she was given the bill.

PHR : VB INFLECTS, OR PHR USED AS AN A ⇑ react

eye-opener, eye-openers. If you say that something is an eye-opener, you mean that you find it very surprising and that you learn something from it which you did not know before. EG The book is quite an eye-opener.

N SING : USU an + N, USED AS C ⇑ surprise = revelation eye patch, eye patches; also spelled with a hyphen. An eye patch is a piece of material which you wear over your eye when you have damaged or injured it.

N COUNT ⇑ covering

eyepiece /aɪpiːs/, eyepieces; also spelled with a hyphen. The eyepiece of a microscope or telescope is the piece of glass at one end, where you put your eye in order to look through the instrument.

N COUNT ⇑ lens

eye-shadow; also spelled without a hyphen. Eyeshadow is a substance which you can paint on your eyelids in order to make them a different colour.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ cosmetic eyesight /aɪsaɪt/. Your eyesight is your ability to see. EG His eyesight was excellent... ...poor eyesight.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ vision

eye socket, eye sockets; also spelled with a hyphen. Your eye sockets are the two bony parts on either side of your face, which hold your eyeballs.

N COUNT

eyesore /aɪsɔː/, eyesores. If you say that something is an eyesore, you mean that it is extremely ugly. EG It's an architectural eyesore.

N COUNT : USU USED AS C

eye strain; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. Eye strain is pain that you feel around your eyes or at the back of your eyes when you are very tired or should be wearing glasses. N UNCOUNT ⇑ pain eye tooth, eye teeth; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. 1 Your eye teeth are the two pointed teeth towards the front of your upper jaw. N COUNT ⇑ canine

2 If you say that you would give your eye teeth for something, you mean that you want it very much and you would do anything to get it; an informal expression. EG I'd give my eye teeth for such a lot of money. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + for/to-INF

eyewash /aɪwɒʃ/, eyewashes; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 Eyewash is a liquid which you use for bathing your eyes when they are sore. N UNCOUNT ⇑ lotion

2 If you say that something is eyewash, you mean that it isn't true or that you don't believe it; an informal, slightly old-fashioned use. EG That report is a load of old eyewash. N UNCOUNT, USU USED AS C ⇑ nonsense = rubbish eyewitness /aɪwɪtnɪs/, eyewitnesses; also spelled with a hyphen and as two words. An eyewitness is a person who has seen an event and can therefore describe it, for example in a law court. EG The lawyer had an eyewitness to give evidence... ...an excellent eye-witness description of the collision. N COUNT ⇑ witness eyrie /ɪəri, ɛəri, aɪəri/, eyries. An eyrie is 1 the nest of an eagle, falcon, or other similar bird, that is usually built high up in rough, mountainous country. N COUNT

2 a place, such as a house or a castle, that is built high up and is difficult to reach. N COUNT = refuge

Ff

F, f /ɛf/, Fs, f's, ff. The form ff. is used for the plural of the abbreviation in paragraph 4. 1 F is the sixth letter of the English alphabet. N COUNT

2 F, in music, is the fourth note in the scale of C major. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

3 F is an abbreviation for 'Fahrenheit', written after a number when a temperature is expressed as a particular number of degrees Fahrenheit. EG ...when the outside temperature is 30°F.

4 f. is an abbreviation for 'following'. It is written after a page or line number in a cross-reference in order to indicate that you are referring to both the page or line mentioned and the next one. You use ff. when you are referring to the page or line mentioned and two or more following pages or lines. EG For further discussion of this point, see pages 56f.

5 F or f is also an abbreviation for other words beginning with F or f, such as 'female', 'feminine', 'franc', and 'false'.

fab /fæb/. If you say that something is fab, you are expressing your approval of it; an informal word. ADJ QUALIT = great fable /feɪbəl/, fables. A fable is 1 a story that is intended to teach a moral lesson. Fables often have animals as the main characters. EG It was so clearly a moral fable. 2 a story that people tell, especially one that is based on traditional ideas, beliefs, or memories rather than scientific or historical facts. EG There is, however, some truth in this fable... ...a dream that developed like a fable or a myth. 3 a statement or explanation that is untrue. EG ...the fable that the Nationalist Government had firm popular support. N COUNT = legend / N COUNT ⇑ lie = fiction fabled /feɪbəld/. If something is fabled, it is well known because a lot of stories are told about it. EG The greatest of all its cities was the fabled Timbuktu. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ famous = legendary fabric /fæbrɪk/, fabrics. 1 Fabric is cloth or other material produced by weaving cotton, nylon, wool, silk, or other threads together. There are many different kinds of fabrics. They are used for making things such as clothes, curtains, and sheets. EG If you aren't certain what fabric you are trying to dye, don't guess... These fabrics are specially imported from Italy and France. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 The fabric of a society or way of life is its basic structure and the customs and beliefs that are associated with it, which makes it stable and secure. EG ...the priests who upheld the fabric of Roman society. N SING : the + N, USU + of = foundations

3 The fabric of a building, especially a church or large house, is all its walls and roof and the materials with which it is built. EG This amount was enough to maintain the fabric of the house. N SING : the + N + SUPP ⇑ structure fabricate /fæbrɪkeɪt/, fabricates, fabricating, fabricated. 1 If you fabricate something such as a story or piece of evidence, you deliberately invent it even though it is untrue, in order to deceive people. EG They fabricated evidence and threatened witnesses. V + O = fake

2 If you fabricate an object, 2.1 you make it from whatever materials are available. EG Some of the parts broke and new ones had to be fabricated out of scrap iron. 2.2 you manufacture it for the first time; a formal use. V + O ⇑ make fabrication /fæbrɪkeɪʃən/, fabrications; a formal word. 1 A fabrication is a false story or piece of evidence that someone has deliberately invented in order to deceive people. EG The story was a fabrication, she insisted. N COUNT ⇑ lie

2 Fabrication is the deliberate invention of a false story or piece of evidence. EG ...the problem of what truth means and how it differs from falsehood and fabrication. N UNCOUNT

3 The fabrication of an object is the process of manufacturing or producing it. EG ...shipped to a sister company for fabrication into fuel rods. N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = manufacture fabulous /fæbjələs/. 1 If you say that something is fabulous, 1.1 you are expressing your admiration or approval of it; an informal use. EG She's got a fabulous figure. 1.2 you are expressing a general sense of pleasure and wellbeing; an informal use. EG I feel absolutely fabulous. 1.3 you are saying that it is very large or wonderful. EG ...the tale of a woman saint of fabulous beauty... Many of their cities were centres of fabulous wealth. ◊ fabulously. EG She is fabulously wealthy. ADJ QUALIT = fantastic / ADJ QUALIT = fantastic / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = extraordinary ◊ ADV + ADJ/ ADV

2 Fabulous creatures, places, or things occur in stories and legends, but are not true or real. EG ...the door was carved with fabulous beasts... ...the towers and turrets of some fabulous city. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ fictitious = mythical façade /fəsɑːd/, façades. 1 The façade of a building, especially a large one, is its front wall or the wall that faces the street. EG ...the ornate façade of the Palace. N COUNT

2 A façade is an outward appearance which is deliberately false and gives you a wrong impression about someone or something. EG These are the grim facts which lie behind the façade of gaiety... The unity of the Party was a façade. N SING WITH DET = pretence, show face /feɪs/, faces, facing, faced. 1 Your face is the front part of your head from your chin to the top of your forehead, where your mouth, eyes, nose, and other features are. EG She had a smooth, un-lined face... Tears were pouring down her face... They were both red in the face from running. N COUNT = countenance

2 If your face is happy, sad, serious, etc, you have a happy, sad, or serious expression. EG The girl's face was unhappy... ...looking at her with a puzzled face. N COUNT : USU ADJ + N = countenance

3 The word face is used in the following expressions.

3.1 If you put on a brave face or a good face, you try not to show how unhappy, afraid, or upset you really are. 3.2 If you have a long face, you look very unhappy or serious. EG I saw her going about with a long face. 3.3 If you make or pull a face, you show your dislike, disgust, or defiance by means of your expression. EG The children made faces at the teacher... He saw her make a sudden face of disgust. 3.4 If you cannot keep a straight face, you cannot stop yourself from smiling or laughing. EG I found it hard to keep a straight face. PHR : VB INFLECTS / PHR : USED AS O / PHR : VB INFLECTS = grimace / PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 The face of a cliff or a mountain, or of an object such as a gemstone, is a surface or side of it, N COUNT : USU + of especially a vertical surface. EG ...the black cliff of the north face of the Eiger.

5 The face in a mine is the part of the rock from which miners dig coal, metal, etc. N COUNT : USU the + N

6 The face of a clock or watch is the surface with the numbers or hands on it, which shows the time. N COUNT = dial

7 The face of a playing card is the side which has symbols, pictures, or numbers printed on it. N COUNT ⇑ front

8 If someone or something is face down, their face or front points downwards. If they are face up, their face or front points upwards. EG Philip lay face down on the floor... Lay three cards face up on the table. PHR : USED AS C/A

9 The face of a place is its physical appearance; a rather literary use. EG The face of a city can change completely in a year. N SING : the + N + of

10 Expressions such as the face of the earth or the face of the world are ways of referring to the whole of the world or the whole of the place mentioned. EG The appearance of the flowers transformed the face of the world... ...the densest cluster of human beings on the face of the globe. ● If you say that someone or something disappeared or vanished off the face of the earth, you mean that they disappeared without any reason, and that you have no idea where they are now. PHR : USU USED AS O ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

11 If you refer to the face of something such as an activity, belief, or system, you are referring to one particular aspect of it, in contrast to other aspects. EG As far as photographers are concerned, the close-up lens has changed the face of their profession... I think the general face of industrial relations is changing... ...the ugly face of Liberalism. N SING : the + N + of

12 The word face is also used in the following expressions. 12.1 If you lose face or suffer a loss of face, you do something or experience something which damages your reputation and makes you lose people's respect. EG She wanted to end the affair without too much loss of face. 12.2 If you do something in order to save face, you do it in order to avoid damaging your reputation and losing people's respect. EG He had to resign, to save face. PHR : VB INFLECTS, OR PHR : USED AS O PHR : VB INFLECTS

13 If someone or something faces a particular thing, person, or direction, they are positioned opposite the other thing or person or are looking in that direction. EG The two boys faced each other... ...the houses facing the river... Most seats on London buses face forward. V + O, OR V + A

14 If you face a group of people, you stand in front of them for a particular purpose. EG I'm nervous. I've never faced a class of children before. V + O = confront

15 If you face something difficult or unpleasant, or if you are faced with it, it is going to affect you and you have to deal with it. EG It is the biggest problem he has ever faced... You are faced with a choice of loyalties... She was now facing bankruptcy. V + O : USU PASS + with ⇑ experience

16 If you face the truth, a fact, or a problem, you accept that it is true or really exists and respond to it in a suitable way, although you would prefer to ignore it. EG We simply must face facts... He was willing to face the truth... It is something that has to be faced. ● You say 'Let's face it' when you are stating a fact or making a comment about something which is unpleasant or which you do not really want to admit. EG Let's face it, we all cheat in exams. V + O ⇑ acknowledge ● PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

17 If you can't face something, you do not want to do it or accept it, and do not like thinking about it because it is too difficult or serious. EG She could not really face speaking to them... I'm sorry, I just couldn't face the idea of going back there. V : MODAL + V + O/ -ING, USU WITH BROAD NEG = cope with

18 If you face a charge or punishment, you have been accused of a particular crime or are going to receive a particular punishment. EG She faced criminal charges for deceiving the State... If they are found guilty they will face a sentence of ten years in prison. V + O

19 If you are faced with something wrong that you have done, evidence for it is produced and you are accused of it. EG Even when faced with the broken vase or spilt milk, most children will continue to protest their innocence. V + O : USU PASS + with = be confronted

20 If you face part of a garment that you are making, for example the neckline or armhole of a dress, you make it look neat and strengthen it by stitching a piece of fabric along the edge and turning this to the inside. V + O ⇑ line

21 If you face the music, you put yourself in a position where you know you will be criticized or punished for something that you have done; an informal expression. EG I had to go back home and face the music. PHR : VB INFLECTS

22 If a situation blows up or explodes in your face, it goes wrong unexpectedly, with the result that you suffer considerably; an informal expression. EG Miller's plans blew up in his face. PHR : VB INFLECTS = misfire

23 If an action or belief flies in the face of accepted ideas, it seems to oppose or contradict them. EG The proposal to introduce identity cards flies in the face of so many British political traditions. PHR : VB INFLECTS = go against

24 If you do not have the face to do something, you feel too embarrassed or guilty to do it; an informal expression. EG I don't have the face to tell him to leave. PHR : to-INF : VB INFLECTS, USU WITH BROAD NEG = have the nerve

25 If you do something in the face of a particular problem or difficulty, you do it even though this problem or difficulty exists. EG They carry on smiling in the face of adversity. PREP

26 If you cannot look someone in the face, you are too ashamed or embarrassed to look at them directly. EG I could never look my son in the face again if I lied to him. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU WITH BROAD NEG

27 You say on the face of it when you are expressing an opinion in order to emphasize that the opinion may change when you know or think more about the subject. EG On the face of it, it sounds like a good idea. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN ⇑ apparently

28 If you set your face against something, you oppose it strongly. PHR : VB INFLECTS

29 If you show your face somewhere, you go there and see people that you know. EG She felt she could never show her face in the town again. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + A = be seen

30 If you say something to someone's face, you say it openly in their presence. EG They certainly didn't say what they were thinking to my face. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ directly

31 See also face to face, facing, full-face, volte-face.

32 The word face is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● blue in the face: see blue. ● to shut or slam the door in someone's face: see door. ● egg on your face: see egg. ● shut your face: see shut. ● a slap in the face: see slap. ● to cut off your nose to spite your face: see spite. ● face value: see value. ● to wipe the grin or smile off someone's face: see wipe.

face down. If you face someone down, you oppose them or beat them by being confident and looking at them boldly; used in American English. EG She didn't argue with him, she just faced him down. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV face out. If you face a person or situation out, you deal with them or it by behaving firmly or defiantly; used in British English. EG We'll face this crisis out. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ handle face up to. If you face up to a difficult situation, you accept it and deal with it. EG They had to face up to many setbacks. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = cope with face cloth, face cloths; also spelled with a hyphen. A face cloth is the same as a face flannel. N COUNT face cream, face creams; also spelled with a hyphen. Face cream is a thick substance that you rub into your face in order to clean or soften it. N MASS

-faced combines with adjectives in order to form other adjectives that describe someone's face or expression. EG He was a plump red-faced young man... They were stiff-faced with defiance. COMB : FORMS ADJS face flannel, face flannels; also spelled with a hyphen. A face flannel is a small cloth made of towelling which you use for washing yourself; used in British English. N COUNT = face cloth faceless /feɪslɪ²s/. If you describe someone or something as faceless, you mean that they are dull and boring and have no character or individuality; used showing disapproval. EG ...faceless bureaucrats in the Civil Service. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = anonymous face lift, face lifts. 1 A face lift is an operation in which a surgeon tightens the skin on someone's face in order to make them look younger. N COUNT

2 If you give a place or thing a face lift, you do something that will make it look better or more attractive. N COUNT : USU SING face pack, face packs. A face pack is a thick substance which you spread on your face, allow to dry for a short time, and then remove, in order to clean your skin thoroughly. N COUNT face powder, face powders. Face powder is a very fine, soft, flesh-coloured powder that you put on your face in order to make it look smoother. N MASS ⇑ cosmetic face-saver, face-savers. A face-saver is an action or excuse which prevents damage to your reputation or the loss of people's respect for you. N COUNT face-saving. A face-saving action is one which prevents damage to your reputation or the loss of people's respect for you. EG ...a face-saving compromise. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ redeeming facet /fæsɪ²t/, facets. 1 A facet of something is a single part or aspect of it. EG Tact was just one facet of his talents as a captain. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of = feature

2 The facets of a diamond or other precious stone are the flat surfaces that have been cut on its outside. N COUNT

facetious /fəsiːʃəs/. If someone is facetious, they make amusing remarks, often in a clever or critical way or at inappropriate times. EG He was being facetious and Grandmother got crosser and crosser. ▸ used of what someone says or writes. EG ...a facetious remark. ◊ facetiously. EG We hid our nervousness in jokes–Frank suggesting facetiously that the office might be better called a dormitory. ADJ QUALIT = flippant, frivolous ≠ serious ◊ ADV WITH VB face to face. 1 If you are face to face with someone, you are in their presence or you meet them and can talk to them or look at them directly. EG I suddenly came face to face with Karen... ...face to face encounters. PHR : USED AS AN A, IF + PREP THEN with

2 If you are brought face to face with a difficulty, you cannot avoid it and have to deal with it. EG Being alone can bring people face to face with their problems. PHR : USED AS AN A, IF + PREP THEN with facial /feɪʃə⁰l/, facials. 1 Facial means appearing on or being part of your face. EG ...their lack of facial hair... ...facial expressions. ◊ facially. EG He reminded him facially of a man he once knew. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 A facial is a beauty treatment in which your face is massaged, and creams and other substances are rubbed into it. N COUNT

facie. See prima facie.

facile /fæsaɪl/. A facile remark, argument, or feeling is one which is simple and obvious, and which indicates lack of careful, intelligent thinking; used showing disapproval. EG ...facile replies... It is facile to point out that no such relationship exists. ADJ QUALIT = simplistic, easy facilitate /fəsɪlɪteɪt/, facilitates, facilitating, facilitated. To facilitate an action or process means to make it easier for it to happen or be done; a fairly formal word. EG ...legislation to facilitate the sale of businesses... This trend has been facilitated by recent changes in the economic structure. V + O ⇑ help facility /fəsɪlɪti¹/, facilities. 1 Facilities are the equipment, buildings, services, etc that are provided for a particular activity or purpose. EG She had no cooking facilities in her room... ...the lack of play facilities for young children... The central facility is the library... Only six countries had the facilities and know-how to produce advanced weapon systems of this kind. N COUNT : USU PL + SUPP

2 A facility is something useful but not essential such as an additional service provided by an organization or an extra feature on a machine, which you can use if you want or need to. EG They ask for a 6 million pounds loan facility as working capital... A tape recorder like this has a tape slide facility, and you can attach this to a projector. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ advantage

3 If you have a facility for something such as learning languages, you find it easy or do it well. EG Meehan began to learn German, and having a facility for languages, was soon fluent in it... Not everyone easily acquires facility in foreign languages. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : USU SING + for/in ⇑ skill = quickness

4 If you do something with facility, you do it easily and well. EG They had all learned to read and write with great facility. N UNCOUNT = proficiency facing /feɪsɪŋ/, facings. 1 Facing is fabric which is stitched inside the cuffs, collars, or seams of a piece of clothing in order to make them look neat and strengthen them. N UNCOUNT ⇑ reinforcement

2 The facings of a uniform, jacket, coat, etc are its collar and cuffs when they are made of a different fabric from the main part. N PLURAL ⇑ edgings

3 A facing on a wall is a layer of stone, concrete, or other material that is spread over its surface in order to make it look attractive. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ coating facsimile /fæksɪmɪli¹/, facsimiles. A facsimile of a book or document is an exact reproduction of it. N COUNT ⇑ copy fact /fækt/, facts. 1 Something that actually happened or happens can be described or referred to as fact or a fact. EG How much of the novel is fiction and how much is fact?... I don't know whether the rumour was based on fact or not... This service has now gone, victim of the economic facts of life. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ reality

2 A fact is 2.1 an item of knowledge that is true and that can be proved. EG Scientific hypotheses are not facts. 2.2 a piece of information or a detail about something or someone. EG Meadows was handed every fact-names, ages, and charges lodged... The report is several pages long and full of facts and figures... It may help you to know the full facts of the case. ● If you tell a child the facts of life, you tell him or her about sexual intercourse and explain how babies are born. N COUNT ● PHR : USU USED AS O

3 If you say the fact that, a fact which, this fact, etc, you are referring to a situation or state of affairs that you have just mentioned or are about to mention, and suggesting that it is true. EG There wasn't a great deal of warmth owing to the fact that Smithy had left the door open... They had waited in vain, a fact which was repeatedly explained to them... He is really not amused but wishes to hide the fact. PHR

4 The word fact is also used in the following expressions. 4.1 In fact, in point of fact, or in actual fact means in reality or in truth; often used as emphasis, or when you are asking whether something really is true or really has happened. EG Is this in fact going to affect relationships between Britain and Europe?... We were asked to have a look at this seed and we did in fact do that... In point of fact, they arrived an hour early... This is, in fact, what happened. 4.2 You say in fact, in actual fact, as a matter of fact, or in point of fact to emphasize or to introduce a contradiction or an opinion which is different from something that has just been said. EG 'I couldn't communicate with you.'–'As a matter of fact,' Landy said, 'I believe you could'... In actual fact, this book wasn't the book I was looking for... I thought he could speak the language fluently, whereas in actual fact that wasn't the case at all... In fact, I'm not at all sure that Freud was correct. 4.3 You say in fact, in actual fact, or in point of fact to introduce or to indicate more detailed information which is related to what you have just been saying. EG We were allowed, in fact expected, to write our papers in English... It was terribly cold weather–a blizzard in fact... I don't think Mrs Rosentelle mentioned it. In fact I don't think she knew... This isn't very interesting–in fact I think it's remarkably dull. 4.4 You say as a matter of fact to introduce or to indicate information which is related to something that has just been said but which may surprise the listener. EG 'How's Richard?'–'That's all over as a matter of fact'... As a matter of fact I just got given that this afternoon... These are the first ones I've seen as a matter of fact. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = actually / PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = actually / PHR : USED AS ADV SEN / PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = actually

5 the fact is. 5.1 You can say the fact is to introduce a statement, especially when you would rather not admit it but you are forcing yourself to be honest. EG The fact is, I don't really want to go... Fact is, we are rivals. 5.2 You can say the fact is or the fact of the matter is to introduce a statement which summarizes what you have just said and emphasizes the truth and reality of what you are saying. EG The fact is that child rearing is a long, hard job... The fact of the matter is Cynthia said she'd meet me there and she didn't turn up. PHR : VB INFLECTS = actually / PHR : VB INFLECTS

6 You say the fact remains that something is the case when you want to emphasize that this must be realized and accepted. EG People may have forgotten their true meaning but the fact remains that they exist. PHR : VB INFLECTS + REPORT-CL = nevertheless

7 You say that's a fact or and that's a fact to emphasize a statement that you have just made; an informal expression. EG The whole world is going to want to meet him, that's a fact. PHR

8 When you say is that a fact?, you are asking if something you have just heard is true because you found it surprising or interesting; an informal expression. EG 'She got married last year.'–'Is that a fact?' CONVENTION

9 When you say that you know something for a fact, you mean that you are absolutely sure that it is true. EG I know for a fact that there's a place in town where you can get them. PHR : USED AS AN A = for sure fact-finding; also spelled without a hyphen. A fact-finding trip or mission is one whose purpose is to find out information about a particular situation, especially for an official group. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ exploratory faction /fækʃəⁿn/, factions. 1 A faction is an organized group of people within a larger group or organization, who actively oppose some of the ideas of the larger group and fight for their own ideas. EG Two months later a faction calling itself the 'New Opposition' issued a circular to all members... ...warring religious factions. N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL = camp

2 Faction is 2.1 argument and strong disagreement within a group. EG ...petty political faction. 2.2 writing that deals with true events, but that describes them using the techniques of fiction. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT

factitious /fæktɪʃəⁿs/. Something that is factitious is artificial, as opposed to being natural or genuine; a formal word. ADJ CLASSIF factor /fæktə/, factors. 1 A factor is a single part that combines with others to form the cause of something. EG Youth unemployment is a major contributing factor to this problem... The scale of industry was the crucial factor determining the rate of growth... In today's world, social and economic factors are inextricably linked. N COUNT

2 If an amount increases or decreases by a factor of a stated number, it becomes that number of times bigger or smaller. EG The amount of energy used has gone up by a factor of eight... ...higher by a factor of 50%. N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN of

3 A factor of a whole number is a smaller whole number which can be multiplied with another whole number to produce the first whole number. EG 2 and 5 are factors of 10. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

4 You can use factor to refer to a particular level on a scale of measurement. EG This type of quilt has a high warmth factor... The factor 2 suntan oil is for skin that tans easily... ...a higher wind chill factor. N SING WITH DET + SUPP ⇑ degree factory /fæktəⁿriˡ/, factories. 1 A factory is a large building or group of buildings where goods are made in large quantities, usually with the use of machines. EG The workers left the land to work in the factories and mills... ...the average skilled factory worker... ...a carpet factory. ▸ used to refer to the people who work in a factory. EG A local factory phoned us one day with a problem. N COUNT

2 The factory floor refers to the area where the ordinary workers in a factory work, rather than the people who run it, and to the workers themselves. EG ...negotiations involving workers on the factory floor. PHR : USU PREP + N ⇑ place

3 You refer to a place as a factory when something is being produced or dealt with there in large quantities; often used humorously. EG Our entire house has turned into a jam factory. N COUNT : USU MOD + N = production line factory farming /fæktəⁿriˡ fɑːmɪŋ/ is a system of animal farming which involves keeping animals indoors with very little space for each one, and giving them special foods so that they grow more quickly or produce more eggs or milk. N UNCOUNT factory ship, factory ships. A factory ship is a large fishing boat which has equipment for processing the fish that are caught, for example by cleaning or freezing them, before it returns to port. N COUNT factotum /fæktəʊtəⁿm/, factotums. A factotum is a servant who is employed to do a wide variety of jobs for someone; a formal word. N COUNT fact sheet, fact sheets. A fact sheet is a piece of paper with information about a particular subject, especially a summary of information that has been given on a radio or television programme. EG Write to this address for our fact sheet on National Savings certificates. N COUNT ⇑ leaflet factual /fækʧuᵊəl/. Something that is factual is concerned with facts or contains facts, rather than giving theories or personal interpretations. EG The other speakers made factual, sober speeches... He could store in his mind an enormous amount of factual information... It is best to be as short, clear, and factual as possible. ADJ CLASSIF = exact faculty /fækəᵊltiˡ/, faculties. 1 A faculty is 1.1 the ability to do something that a normal, healthy person can, especially to see, hear, remember, or reason. EG She was in full command of all her faculties... I kept my mental and critical faculties alive... ...the faculty of sensation. 1.2 an ability which a particular person has. EG ...people who develop the faculty for looking at things in different ways. N COUNT : USU PL = power / N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN for/of = knack

2 In some universities or colleges, a faculty is a group of related departments. EG ...the head of the Law Faculty... He continued to haunt the corridors of the Faculty of Arts for some months... ...faculty parties. ▸ The faculty is also used to refer to the staff who belong to it. EG ...the long row of chairs where the faculty sit. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES ⇑ section / ▸ N SING : the + N : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL fad /fæd/, fads. A fad is something which a person or a group of people is very enthusiastic about, but with which they become bored very quickly. EG The interest in things Japanese is not just a passing fad... ...the skateboard fad. N COUNT ⇑ interest = craze faddy /fædiˡ/, faddier, faddiest. Someone who is faddy has very strong likes and dislikes which you think are unreasonable; used showing disapproval. EG He's rather faddy about his food. ADJ QUALIT = fussy fade /feɪd/, fades, fading, faded. 1 When a coloured object fades or when light fades it over a period of time, it gradually becomes paler in colour. EG The wallpaper may have faded... How can I stop the sun from fading the carpet?... ...fading photographs. ◊ faded. EG ...an old man in a clean, faded, blue shirt... ...addresses written in faded ink. V ERG = discolour / ◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 When something that you are looking at fades, it slowly becomes less bright or clear until it disappears. EG The ghostly figure fades... As the picture fades, a choir starts singing... Already the mountains are fading in the evening light. V ⇑ disappear = melt away

3 A fade in a television programme or film is the slow disappearance of a particular picture on the screen, for example when the programme or film ends. EG ...a close-up fade against a stormy sky. N COUNT

4 When the light fades, it slowly becomes darker, usually because the sun is going down. EG We reached the cottage as the light was fading... I was trying to get a good look at him in the fading light. V ⇑ decrease

5 When a sound or radio signal fades, it slowly becomes less loud or strong until you cannot hear or receive it. EG The applause gradually faded. V ⇑ disappear = die away

6 When something such as a feeling or a memory fades, it slowly becomes less great, intense, strong, or important, and might end completely. EG My anger faded... Soon interest in the story will fade... This allows time for the memory of the last disaster to fade... The incident had faded from her mind... Britons refused to acknowledge their fading influence. ◊ faded. EG ...Europe's faded aristocracy. V ⇑ disappear = recede, dwindle / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

7 When someone's looks fade over a period of time, they gradually look older and more tired, although previously they had looked fresh and young. EG Her looks had faded. V ⇑ worsen = wither

8 When someone's smile fades, they slowly stop smiling. V ⇑ disappear

9 If someone fades somewhere, they quietly go there with the result that you can no longer see them. EG He sensed Pavel fade back into the crowd again. V + A ⇑ disappear = slip

10 If someone is fading, they are slowly dying; a rather literary use. EG The king was fading fast. V : USU CONT ⇑ die fade away. 1 If someone fades away over a period of time, they become weaker and die. EG He was fading quietly away day by day... She'd fade away and die, that's what she'd do. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = waste away

2 When something fades away, it slowly becomes less great, intense, strong, or important until it ends completely. EG Your new-found enthusiasm for running will soon fade away... If the traditional English policeman faded away, I'd be very sorry... After ten or fifteen minutes the attack faded away. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = die out fade in. When someone fades in a particular picture on television or in a film, or when they fade in a sound that is being broadcast or recorded, that picture or sound slowly becomes brighter or louder until it is able to be seen or heard. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV fade out. 1 When something fades out, it slowly becomes less great, intense, strong, or important until it ends completely. EG This sort of protest tends to fade out through its own foolishness. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = fizzle out

2 When a sound or radio signal fades out, it slowly becomes less loud or strong until you cannot hear it or receive it. EG The sound of the chopper had faded out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = die away

3 When someone fades out a particular picture on television or in a film, or fades out a sound that is being broadcast or recorded, that picture or sound slowly becomes less bright or loud until it is unable to be seen or heard. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

faeces /fiːsiːz/; also spelled feces in American English. Faeces is the solid waste substance that people and animals get rid of from their body, for example when a person goes to the toilet; a formal or technical word. N UNCOUNT = excrement faff about /fæf əbaʊt/, faffs about, faffing about, faffed about. If you say that someone is faffing about or faffing around, you mean that they are doing something in a very disorganized way or doing lots of unnecessary things and not really achieving very much; used in informal British English. EG He's been faffing about all morning. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = mess about fag /fæg/, fags, fagging, fagged. 1 A fag is 1.1 in informal British English, a cigarette. EG I just slipped out for a packet of fags. N COUNT

1.2 in very informal American English, a homosexual; an offensive use. N COUNT
2 If you say that a particular task is a fag, you mean that it is boring or tiring and you do not really want to do it; an informal use. EG You may find it a bit of a fag to dig up every weed. N SING : a + N, USED AS C ⇑ nuisance = pain
3 At some British public schools, a fag is a younger boy who has to do jobs for an older boy. EG He was my fag at Eton. N COUNT ⇑ servant
4 A younger boy who fags for an older boy at a British public school has to do jobs for him. V : IF + PREP THEN for 5 See also fagged.

fag end, fag ends; an informal expression, also spelled with a hyphen. 1 A fag end is the last bit of a cigarette, which people throw away when they have smoked the rest. N COUNT = stub 2 The fag end of something is the last or worst part of it. EG ...the fag end of the day. N COUNT + of

fagged /fægd/. If someone is fagged or fagged out, they are very tired; used in very informal British English. EG 'You look fagged to death,' said Kate. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = knackered faggot /fægət/, faggots. 1 In very informal American English, a faggot is a homosexual man; an offensive use. N COUNT/VOC

2 In British English, faggots are balls of chopped meat, bread, and herbs which have been cooked. EG ...faggots and peas. N COUNT : USU PL
3 A faggot is also a bundle of sticks for burning as fuel on a fire; an old-fashioned use. N COUNT

Fahrenheit /færənhaɪt/. A temperature that is stated as a particular number of degrees Fahrenheit has been measured on a scale in which water freezes at 32 degrees and boils at 212 degrees. EG The temperature won't drop below sixty-five degrees Fahrenheit... 'It's nine degrees Centigrade.'–'What's that in Fahrenheit?' N UNCOUNT : USU NUM + degrees + N ⇑ system fail /feɪl/, fails, failing, failed. 1 If someone fails to achieve something that they were trying to achieve, or if their attempt fails, they do not succeed in doing it. EG The England team failed to win a place in the finals... She failed in her attempt to swim to France... The attempt to bribe the clerk had failed... This technique seldom fails. ◊ failed. EG ...a failed novelist. V, OR V + to-INF ≠ succeed ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 If someone fails a test or examination, they do not reach the standard that is required. EG I failed my driving test twice... He failed the written paper... 'Did you pass?'–'No, I failed.' V OR V + O = flunk ≠ pass
3 If an examiner fails you in a test or examination, he or she decides that you have not reached the standard that is required. EG One of the examiners wanted to fail him. V + O ≠ pass
4 A fail is a piece of work that is below the required standard in a test or examination. N COUNT ≠ pass
5 If someone or something fails to do a particular thing that they should have done, they do not do it. EG He had been fined five pounds for failing to complete a national census form... She had changed so much that he failed to recognize her... This never failed to annoy her. ● You say 'I fail to see' in order to introduce a statement which indicates that you do not agree with the point of what someone has just said. EG I fail to see what that's got to do with it. V + to-INF ⇑ omit ● PHR + REPORT CL
6 without fail. 6.1 You say that something happens without fail when you want to emphasize that it always happens. EG In the afternoon he would without fail take a nap lasting from two to four hours. 6.2 You say that something will happen without fail when you want to emphasize that it will definitely happen. EG I shall kill you, without fail, if you ever mention my visits here. PHR : USED AS AN A = religiously PHR : USED AS AN A = for certain
7 If something fails, 7.1 it stops working properly or does not do what it is supposed to do. EG Her lighter failed... The brakes failed and his car crashed into a tree... Their crops have failed again this year. 7.2 it becomes unable to continue in operation or in existence. EG Four local companies have failed this year. ◊ failed. EG ...his involvement in the failed New Orleans firm... ...a failed democracy. V ⇑ weaken ◊ ADJ CLASSIF
8 When a supply of something fails, it runs out and there is no more of it that can be used. EG You may find that the milk supply is failing rapidly and the baby is quite hungry... Ralph's breath failed and the horn fell silent. V = run out
9 If someone fails you, they do not do what you had expected or trusted them to do or what they have a duty to do for you. EG Our leaders have failed us... You can trust me, sir. I've never failed you yet... She feels that she must have failed him somehow. V + O = let down
10 If someone fails in their duty, their responsibilities, etc, they do not do everything that they have a duty or a responsibility to do. EG I would be failing in my duty to my family if I did not try to ensure their safety. V + A (in) = want
11 If a quality or ability that you have fails you or if it fails, it is not great or good enough in a particular situation to enable you to do what you need or want to do. EG At the last minute his courage failed him... His usually inventive imagination had failed for once. V OR V + O = desert
12 If you say that words fail you, you mean that you are so surprised, shocked, or angry that you cannot think of anything to say. EG Looking at them, words failed him. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + PRON failing /feɪlɪŋ/, failings. 1 A failing is a fault or unsatisfactory feature. EG The present system has many failings... Being rude was one of Cindy's failings. N COUNT = shortcoming

2 Something that is failing is becoming weaker or less effective, and is likely to end completely or become useless. EG ...failing marriages... He had given up acting because of failing health. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
3 You say 'failing that' to introduce an alternative to what you have just said, in case what you said is not true or impossible. EG Wear evening dress or, failing that, a suit. PREP ⇑ lacking fail-safe. Something that is fail-safe is designed or made in such a way that nothing dangerous can happen if a part of it goes wrong. EG ...a fail-safe system. ADJ CLASSIF failure /feɪljə/, failures. 1 Failure is a lack of success in doing or achieving something, or in a particular area of activity. EG The attempt ended in failure... The break-up of his marriage left him with a vague feeling of failure... They seemed doomed to failure... These factors are crucial in determining the success or failure of this great experiment. N UNCOUNT ≠ success

2 A failure is an unsuccessful person, action, or thing. EG The meeting was a failure... I felt such a failure. N COUNT = flop
3 Someone's failure to do a particular thing is the fact that they do not do it although you expected them to do it or think that they should have done it. EG His friends remarked on his failure to appear at the party... ...his apparent failure to grasp this fact. N UNCOUNT/COUNT + to-INF ⇑ omission
4 When there is a failure, 4.1 something stops working or does not do what it is supposed to do. EG ...engine failure... My mother had heart failure... The storm caused a power failure... Crop failures are common. 4.2 something is no longer able to continue in operation or in existence. EG ...the failure of the bank where he kept his money. N UNCOUNT/COUNT + SUPP ⇑ deficiency N UNCOUNT/COUNT + SUPP = collapse
5 When there is a failure of a quality or ability that you have, you cannot do what you need or want to because the quality or ability is not great or good enough. EG ...a sudden failure of nerve. N UNCOUNT/COUNT = loss fain /feɪn/. If someone says that they would fain do something, they mean that they would like to do it; a very old-fashioned word. EG The Prime Minister himself would fain wait upon him at breakfast. ADV : MODAL + ADV + INF ⇑ gladly faint /feɪnt/, fainter, faintest; faints, fainting, fainted. 1 A sound, colour, feeling, idea, etc that is faint has very little strength or intensity. EG Her voice had a faint American accent... ...a faint glow of pearl coloured light... There was a faint smell of gas... There was a faint feeling of unrest at the table... Her ears were alert for the faintest sound... Her cries grew fainter. ◊ faintness. EG The problem is exacerbated by the image's faintness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ weak = slight ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 A faint attempt at something is one that is done, made or performed without proper effort and with ADJ QUALIT = half-hearted little enthusiasm. EG There were, at first, a few faint protests... It was the only faint attempt at a joke.

3 If you faint, you lose consciousness for a short time, especially because of hunger, pain, heat, or shock. EG He nearly fainted from the pain. V ⇑ collapse = pass out

4 Someone who is faint is weak and unsteady as if they are about to lose consciousness. EG He began to feel faint. ◊ faintness. EG ...headaches, fits, faintness, and other related symptoms. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 A faint is a temporary loss of consciousness. EG She fell to the ground in a dead faint. N COUNT ⇑ collapse faintest /feɪntɪst/. You use faintest in negative statements such as 'I haven't the faintest idea', or 'you haven't got the faintest chance of winning', to emphasize that, for example, you have absolutely no idea what to do, or that someone has no chance at all of winning. EG He simply didn't have the faintest idea what to do... She had not the faintest notion of what he was talking about... I never felt the faintest desire to cry. ADJ QUALIT : SUPERL, ONLY ATTRIB = slightest, remotest faint-hearted. If someone or their behaviour is faint-hearted, they are not very confident and do not try very hard because they are afraid of failing. EG The picket was well-intentioned, but faint-hearted... It was a pretty faint-hearted attempt, if you ask me. ADJ QUALIT = irresolute, feeble ≠ bold

▸ The faint-hearted is used to refer to people who are faint-hearted. EG It is not recommended for the faint-hearted. ▸ N PLURAL : the +N = squeamish faintly /feɪntli[1]/. 1 You use faintly to reduce the effect of an adjective or a statement, by saying that it applies only to a very slight degree. EG It was faintly possible... They were faintly amused... In the public mind, the clubs are faintly absurd. ADV + ADJ ⇑ slightly = mildly

2 If someone does something or if something happens faintly, it happens with very little strength or intensity. EG She turned and smiled faintly... The stars still glowed faintly in the sky. ADV WITH VB = weakly fair /feə/, fairer, fairest; fairs. 1 Something that is fair is reasonable according to a generally accepted standard or idea about what is right and just. EG It wouldn't be fair to disturb the children's education at this stage... Ten pounds. I think that would be a fairer price... Be fair, darling. It's not their fault... This isn't fair on anyone, but it does happen... Does he do his fair share of the household chores?... That is a very fair point I think... In a very crude sense, it is fair to say that people who are geographically mobile probably achieve greater success in life. ADJ QUALIT

2 Someone or something that is fair gives the same or equal treatment to everyone concerned, especially without allowing personal feelings to influence judgements. EG They are very fair, looking at problems from both sides before reaching any conclusions... Dr Kirk, you're not being either frank or fair: you know you don't like me... The trials accorded to them were fair... No judge, however fair-minded, was going to split up a pair of twins. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ impartial = equitable, just

3 You use fair enough 3.1 when you want to say that a statement, decision, or action seems reasonable to a certain extent, but that perhaps there is more to be said or done. EG All this is fair enough, but it touches only the surface of the problem. 3.2 when you want to acknowledge what someone has just said and to indicate that you understand it. EG 'Oh yes, just go ahead.'–'Fair enough. Right, thank you...' 'I've decided to scrap this plan.'–'Oh, fair enough.' PHR : USED AS C OR ADV SEN = true / CONVENTION = okay

4 You say fair's fair when you want to suggest that it is reasonable and right that a particular action should happen. EG Come on, fair's fair. He's always giving you lifts. Why don't you offer to take your car for once? CONVENTION = be reasonable

5 When someone plays fair, they behave or act in a reasonable and honest way. EG I think we can trust this company to play fair; not like the last one... Each country undertook to maintain the treaty and play fair by it. ● See also fair play. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ be honourable

6 You use the word fair in expressions such as to be fair, I must be fair, etc when you want to add a favourable comment about someone or something that you have just mentioned and to correct an unfair, unreasonable, or false impression that you might have given. EG Last month there were over a thousand bankruptcies in the private sector. To be fair, by no means all of these were due to government policies. PHR USED AS ADV SEN

7 fair and square. 7.1 If you tell someone something fair and square, you say it in a clear, honest, and direct way. EG He told me fair and square what the position was. 7.2 If you hit something fair and square, you hit it directly, firmly, and in the middle. PHR : USED AS AN A

8 A fair amount, degree, size, or distance is quite a large amount, degree, size, or distance. EG He must have made a fair amount of money... It is necessary to have a fair degree of competence... We've got a fair number of postgraduate students... We have a fair size garden and we might as well make use of it... He was able to see a fair way. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ great = considerable ≠ meagre

9 A fair guess, assessment, idea, etc is one that is likely to be correct. EG I had a pretty fair idea of the answer to this question. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ good = shrewd

10 If you describe someone or something as fair, you mean that they are about average in standard or quality, neither very good nor very bad. EG She was only a fair cook... It received fair to good reviews. ADJ CLASSIF = indifferent

11 Someone who is fair, or who has fair hair, has light coloured hair. EG My daughter has three children actually, and they're all fair... She had long fair hair... He was a slim, fair-haired boy. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ blonde

12 Fair skin is very pale and usually burns easily in the sun. EG The sun's rays can be very harmful, beating on unprotected fair skin. ADJ QUALIT

13 A person or place that is fair is attractive and rather beautiful; an old-fashioned use. EG The fair lady of some brave knight of old... ...this fair city of ours. ADJ QUALIT = lovely

14 When it is fair, the weather is pleasant, dry, and fine; used especially on barometer readings, shipping forecasts, etc. EG It will be fair and warm... ...a fair mid-June evening. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ good

15 A fair is 15.1 in British English, a form of public entertainment held in a large open area. At fairs you can ride on various machines for amusement or try and win prizes in games of skill or luck. Fairs often travel from one town to another. 15.2 a country market where animals and farm produce are displayed and sold. EG My pig won first prize at Skipton Fair. 15.3 the same as a fete. EG ...our local school fair... ...a village fair. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N = funfair / N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N / N COUNT

16 A book fair, trade fair, etc is an exhibition of goods produced by a particular industry. A fair of this kind is usually held in a large building for a period of two or three days, and is intended mainly for the people involved with that industry and not for the general public. EG The Leipzig Trade Fair. N COUNT : MOD : N, ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N fair copy, fair copies. A fair copy of a piece of writing is a neat copy of it that has no mistakes or alterations. N COUNT fair game. If you say that someone is fair game, you mean that they have behaved so badly that you are justified in criticising them. N UNCOUNT : USED AS C ⇑ target fairground /feəgraʊnd/, fairgrounds. A fairground is a large open area where a fair is being held, where you can ride on various machines for amusement or try and win prizes at games of skill or luck. N COUNT ⇑ site fairly /feəli[1]/. 1 Fairly means 1.1 to quite a large or reasonable degree. EG The information was fairly accurate... I wrote the first part fairly quickly... It's fairly complicated... ...it's fairly heavy. 1.2 to a very great degree or extent; a literary use. EG The young children fairly flew up and down the rows of fruit, filling the baskets really quickly... One window fairly blazed in the late afternoon light. ADV + ADJ/ADV = pretty / ADV WITH VB ⇑ really = positively

2 You use fairly to say that something you say or do is reasonable according to generally accepted ideas about what is right or acceptable. EG Ten years ago the typical diesel car could fairly have been described as sluggish and noisy. ADV WITH VB ⇑ reasonably = justifiably

3 If you treat people fairly or if you do something fairly, you treat everyone equally and do not allow personal feelings to influence your judgement; used showing approval. EG We want it to be fairly distributed. ADV WITH VB = equally fairness /feənɔs/. 1 Fairness is 1.1 the quality of being reasonable according to generally accepted ideas about what is right. EG They question my fairness and competence in every possible way. 1.2 the quality of treating all people equally without allowing personal feelings to influence judgements. EG There is not fairness for women in this country. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT = justice

2 You use fairness in expressions such as in fairness to, out of all fairness, etc when you want to add a favourable comment about someone or something that you have just mentioned and to correct an PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

unfair, unreasonable, or false impression that you might have given. EG In fairness to the students it must be pointed out that they did work very hard on the project.... I think out of all fairness I should say that the majority behaved very well... It must be said in fairness that Frank played an important role in all this.

fair play. Actions or decisions that are reasonable according to a generally accepted feeling or belief about what is right are referred to as fair play. EG They appealed to his sense of fair play and common justice. N UNCOUNT ⇑ justice fair sex. If you talk about the fair sex, you are referring to women in general; an old-fashioned or humorous expression. N SING : the + N fairway /fɛəweɪ/, fairways. The fairway on a golf course is the long strip of short grass between every tee and green; a technical term. N COUNT : USU the + N fair-weather. You use fair-weather to refer to someone who takes part in a particular activity or offers help to someone only when it is easy or pleasant for them to do so; used showing disapproval. EG A fair-weather friend... A fair-weather sailor. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ staunch, reliable fairy /fɛəri[1]/, fairies. 1 A fairy is an imaginary creature in children's stories and folk tales. Fairies are imagined as tiny, delicate women or girls, often with wings, who have magical powers. N COUNT = sprite

2 In very informal English, a fairy is a male homosexual; an offensive term. N COUNT/VOC

fairyland /fɛəri[1]lænd/, fairylands. 1 Fairyland is the imaginary place where fairies live. N UNCOUNT

2 If you describe a place as a fairyland, you mean that it has a delicate beauty. EG By night, the scene is a brilliant fairyland of blazing neon lights. N COUNT : USU SING = wonderland fairy lights are small, coloured electric lights that are hung up as decorations, for example on a Christmas tree. N PLURAL fairy tale, fairy tales; also spelled with a hyphen. A fairy tale or fairy story is 1 a story, usually for children, in which magical things happen because some of the characters are fairies or other imaginary people. 2 a story or explanation which is not true and which is told in order to deceive someone. EG Better to tell the truth, rather than tell a fairy story and have to change it later. N COUNT ⇑ untruth = tall story fait accompli /feɪt ə[3]kɒmpliː/, faits accomplis. Something that is a fait accompli has already been done and cannot be changed, however much you want to change it; a formal expression. EG The development could be kept secret until it was a fait accompli, after which it would not matter... I was presented with a fait accompli. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ fact faith /feɪθ/, faiths. 1 If you have faith in someone or something, you have a strong feeling of confidence, trust, and optimism about that person or thing. EG I had faith in Al-I knew he could take care of me... You're destroying all my faith in the medical profession... The experience gave me faith that people can change... I've got faith in human nature. N UNCOUNT + in/REPORT-CL

2 A faith is a particular religion such as Christianity, Buddhism, Islam, etc. EG ...prejudice against a minority with a different faith... His children were raised in the Catholic faith... ...clergymen of many faiths. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ belief

3 Faith is also a strong religious belief in a particular God. EG She had deep religious faith... Christians who have lost their faith may still observe certain rules of Christian morality. N UNCOUNT

4 If someone breaks faith with a belief, ideal, or organization that they support, they stop acting in a way that supports that belief, ideal, or organization. If they keep faith with it, they continue to support it even when it is difficult for them to do so. EG They chose to break faith with millions of decent, proud, hard working citizens... You must keep faith and show no shame. N UNCOUNT = loyalty

5 If you do something in good faith, your reasons for doing it are honest and sincere and you do not intend to harm anyone. EG The two doctors were acting in good faith, the law insisted... Accusations were made as to the good faith of many involved. N UNCOUNT : USU in + N ⇑ honesty faithful /feɪθful/, faithfuls. 1 Someone who is faithful to a person, organization, or idea remains firm in their support for that person, organization, or idea. EG He was awarded a medal as a mark of merit for long and faithful service... We do not doubt that England has a faithful patriot in the Lord Chancellor. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ supportive = loyal, steadfast ≠ disloyal

◊ faithfully. EG The party rallied round him faithfully. ◊ ADV WITH VB = loyally

2 The faithful or faithfuls are people who remain firm in their support for a political party, an organization, an idea, etc. EG Rumours that were already causing stirrings among the faithful... He sat with thousands of party faithfuls on wooden stands facing the White House... The small cluster of fans were mostly old hockey faithfuls. N COUNT : USU the/MOD + N, SING = PL ⇑ supporter = stalwart

3 The faithful are also the group of people who believe in a particular religion. EG The bishop was condemned because he had led the faithful astray. N PLURAL : the + N ⇑ believers

4 Someone who is faithful to their lover or to the person they are married to remains loyal to them by not having a sexual relationship with anyone else. EG He would never be faithful to you if you married him... Like the faithful wife she was, she did not stay but went straight home. ◊ faithfulness. EG Rumour had it that she was no model of faithfulness. ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN to ≠ unfaithful ◊ N UNCOUNT = fidelity

5 An account or a work of art which is faithful to reality or to the original work is one which accurately represents the facts or the original version of the work. EG Do you think the film adaptation was faithful to the book?... He gave a faithful rendering of the poem. ◊ faithfully. EG Their slightest move was faithfully described in newspapers and magazines. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ accurate = true ◊ ADV WITH VB

6 A faithful animal, friend, car, etc is one that you have known or had for a long time and that you can rely on. EG I drove back to town in that old faithful car of mine... Sometimes Larry and his mates romped with their faithful dogs. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ reliable = trusty

7 You can also use faithful to describe someone who does something regularly with dedication or determination. EG She was a faithful listener to the programme. ◊ faithfully. EG She practised her part faithfully... This is the tight money policy faithfully pursued by the Federal Reserve Board. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ dedicated = steadfast ◊ ADV WITH VB = steadfastly faithfully /feɪθfə[4]li[1]/. 1 You write Yours faithfully before your signature at the end of a formal or business letter when you have started the letter 'Dear Sir' or 'Dear Madam' and have not used the person's name. EG Yours faithfully, Pamela Brown. CONVENTION + N PROPER faith healing; also spelled with a hyphen. Faith healing is the treatment of a sick person by someone who believes they are able to heal people through prayer and the power of religious faith. N UNCOUNT ⇑ treatment faithless /feɪθli[2]s/. Someone who is faithless is disloyal or dishonest. EG The friend had turned out to be faithless. ADJ CLASSIF = false fake /feɪk/, fakes, faking, faked. 1 A fake is something that is not genuine, but that has been made in order to trick people into thinking that it is genuine, or that it is rarer or more valuable than it really is. EG They swore that the pictures were fakes. ▸ used as an adjective. EG His house is full of fake antiques... ...a fake passport. N COUNT ⇑ reproduction = forgery ▸ ADJ CLASSIF = phoney

2 Other meanings of faithfully can be found in the entry for faithful.

2 If someone fakes something, they try to make it in such a way that it appears to be valuable, rare, or genuine, although in fact it is not. EG They did nothing else but apply themselves to faking the fine furniture of the century before... ...two classified documents that contained the faked reports. V + O ⇑ reproduce

3 Someone who is a fake is not what they claim to be, for example by not having the qualifications that they claim to have. EG Better to give up and admit I'm a fake. N COUNT ⇑ pretender = impostor

4 If you fake a feeling, emotion, or reaction, you pretend that you are experiencing it when you are not. EG Thomas faked a yawn and stretched... ...real or faked suffering. V + O = feign falcon /fɔːl[0]kən/, falcons. A falcon is a bird of prey that can be trained to hunt other birds and animals. There are several kinds of falcon. N COUNT falconer /fɔːl[0]kənə/, falconers. A falconer is someone who trains and uses falcons for hunting. N COUNT ⇑ trainer falconry /fɔːl[0]kənri[1]/ is the skill of training falcons to hunt, and the sport of using them to hunt. N UNCOUNT fall /fɔːl/, falls, falling, fell, fallen. 1 If someone or something falls, they suddenly move downwards onto or towards the ground, especially by accident. EG If he tried to move, he would fall off the stool... ...table napkins that had fallen to the floor... The china fell from her hand and shattered on the floor... Large masses of rock are constantly falling into the sea... ...the occasional crash of falling mason- V : USU + A ry... Tears fell from Mother's eyes... He raised his arms in a helpless gesture and let them fall again to his sides. ▸ used as a noun. EG He was rushed to hospital after a 40-foot fall... ...paying no heed to the steady fall of his tears.

▸ N COUNT
⇑ drop

2 If someone or something falls after they have been in an upright or standing position, they become unbalanced, with the result that they drop to the ground and end up lying lengthways or in a heap. EG She lost her balance and would have fallen if she hadn't supported herself... It was shattered by a falling tree. ▸ used as a noun. EG He asked her if she had had a fall.. He had a nasty fall on the way out of the supermarket. ◊ fallen. EG Ralph sat on a fallen trunk... The hyenas leapt on the fallen zebra.

V
= topple

▸ N COUNT : USU SING

◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 If a building, bridge, or other structure falls, it collapses onto the ground because it has been damaged. EG They were waiting for the bridge to fall. ◊ fallen. EG No attempt could be made to rescue people trapped inside the fallen buildings.

V
= collapse

◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 When rain, snow, etc falls, it comes down from the sky. EG A light drizzle began to fall... Five inches of snow had fallen... Big drops of rain fell.

V
⇑ descend

5 A fall of snow, soot, or another substance is a large amount of it that has fallen to the ground. EG A heavy fall of snow last night has blocked many minor roads... There has been a fall of soot, indicating that the chimney needs sweeping.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP

6 If a blow or a weapon falls somewhere, it lands on or hits that place. EG Tom moved in and let the blow fall on his left shoulder.

V : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ hit
= land

7 If you say that something long such as clothes or hair is falling to the ground, or to someone's shoulders, etc, you mean that it is hanging downwards towards the point mentioned. EG His wavy, reddish hair falls to his shoulders.

V : USU + A ⇑ hang = cascade

8 The fall of something long such as a piece of clothing or a curtain is the way that it hangs.

N SING WITH DET : USU + of

9 If something falls open, it opens accidentally. EG Her housecoat kept falling open... The book fell open at the chapter on farming.

V + A

10 If you fall into or out of somewhere, you move there hurriedly and in a disorganized or rough way. EG ...the crush of humanity that falls out of the opening doors... She eventually got home and fell into bed.

V + A = tumble

11 When someone in a position of authority or power falls, they are suddenly removed from their position. EG The regime had fallen. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a debate which led to the Government's fall... ...the rise and fall of the Roman Empire.

V
= topple

▸ N SING WITH DET : WITH POSS
⇑ collapse

12 If a place, group, or organization falls, it is captured or taken over by someone else, and passes into their control. EG Greater London will fall to Labour with a swing of only 2.8%... The city fell after a siege lasting three months. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the fall of the Bastille.

V
⇑ be taken

▸ N SING WITH DET : WITH POSS

13 If someone falls in battle or as a result of disease, they are killed; a literary use. EG ...the brave young men who have fallen in the struggle... After a few days, yet more began to fall of hunger and exhaustion.

V : USU + A ⇑ die
= perish

14 If an idea, claim, or attempt falls, it is proved to be useless or ineffective. EG But the air effort stood or fell on the retention of secure bases... All religion stands or falls on the claim that divine reality cannot be experienced by man.

V : USU + A
⇑ fail
≠ stand

15 If barriers or feelings of awkwardness between people fall, people allow themselves to become more open or honest about their feelings. EG The barriers fell and we could see the fear in his eyes.

V
= drop

16 If someone's guard falls, the care with which they have been defending or protecting themselves fails for a short period of time and they become weaker against attack. EG My guard fell for a second, and he smacked me in the jaw.

V
= drop

17 If something falls in amount, quantity, value, or strength, it diminishes and becomes less or weaker. EG The value of the dollar has fallen... Oil consumption in the region fell by 24%... Living standards were falling... ...aircrew strength had fallen very low... The wind rises and then falls as the storm passes by. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a 3 per cent fall in industrial output... ...a fall in moral standards. ◊ falling. EG Nations were uneasy about their falling birth rates.

V ⇓ decrease = drop

▸ N COUNT : USU SING + in

◊ ADJ CLASSIF
= dwindling

18 When a sound falls, it becomes quieter or lower in pitch. EG Their voices could be heard rising and falling even before they appeared.

V

19 If words or sounds fall from someone's lips or mouth, they are spoken by this person; a literary use. EG What words had fallen from the lips of Mr Smythe?

V + A (from)
= issue

20 If silence, sadness, fear, etc falls on a group of people, they become silent, sad, afraid, etc. EG A hush would fall among the villagers as they sat around the fire... All of these ills have fallen upon us.

V : USU + A
= descend

21 When light or shadow falls on an object, place, or area, it covers it. EG A ray of light from the corridor fell across the floor... A shadow fell over her book and she looked up.

V + A ⇑ cover

22 When night or darkness falls, night begins and it becomes dark. EG We settled down to wait until darkness fell.

V
⇑ occur

23 The fall of night is the time when night begins; a rather literary use.

N SING : the + N of 24 When someone falls asleep, ill, in love, or into some other state, they pass into the particular state or condition mentioned. EG After a while I fell asleep... They'd met at university and fallen in love... Their ideas had simply fallen into disuse and been forgotten... Doctor Percival had fallen silent... He has fallen a victim to hysterical exhaustion.

V + C/A
⇑ become

25 If something falls into a particular classification, grouping, or area of consideration, it is classified, grouped, or considered in this way. EG My work really falls into three parts... The present case falls outside our jurisdiction... Most decision making falls in the grey area between these two extremes.

V + A
= come

26 If a celebration or other special event falls on a particular day or date, it occurs on that day or date. EG This year Easter Day falls on March 30th.

V + A
= be

27 The fall of events is the way that things happen, especially when they seem to happen by chance. EG ...events caused by thoughts and emotions, not by the chance fall of symbols... ...the fall of the dice.

N SING

28 According to the Bible, the fall was the occasion when Adam and Eve sinned and God made them leave the Garden of Eden. EG ...the fall of man... ...Adam before the fall.

N PROPER : the + N, IF + PREP THEN of 29 You can refer to a waterfall as the falls. EG They went fishing below the falls and caught half a dozen trout... ...Niagara Falls.

N PLURAL, ALSO IN NAMES

30 In American English, the fall is the autumn. EG ...two years later, in the fall of 1941.

N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING

31 A fall in judo is the act of throwing your opponent to the floor.

N COUNT

32 A fall in wrestling is the act of forcing your opponent's back to the floor and holding it there. EG He had won by a single fall.

N COUNT

33 When a wicket falls in cricket, the fielding team get a batsman out.

V
= go

34 The word fall is also used in the following expressions. 34.1 If something falls to bits or falls to pieces, it is so old or damaged that it gradually breaks into different parts. EG The boots issued to them had all fallen to bits by the end of the year.

PHR : VB INFLECTS
= disintegrate

34.2 If someone's face falls, they suddenly look upset or disappointed. EG His face fell at the news... ...a ring of fallen faces. 34.3 If you fall at someone's feet, you kneel in front of them, perhaps in order to express great respect for them or to ask them for forgiveness. EG He falls at her feet to beg her for her forgiveness. 34.4 If someone or something falls into the hands or clutches of someone else, they are captured or become controlled or owned by that person. EG The party was falling into the hands of extremists... Cottage after cottage falls into the hands of retired Londoners. 34.5 If someone falls to their knees, they suddenly kneel down, especially to express great respect or repentance or because they are afraid. EG The crowd outside fell to their knees.

PHR : N AND VB INFLECT

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS

PHR : VB INFLECTS

35 The word fall is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to fall flat: see flat. ● to fall on your feet: see foot. ● to fall foul of someone: see foul. ● to fall into place: see place. ● to fall short: see short. ● to fall into step: see step. ● to fall by the wayside: see wayside.

wayside.

36 See also fallen.

fall about. If you say that people are falling about, you mean that they are very amused by something; an informal expression. EG When he complained that it was unfair, they fell about laughing.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

fall apart. 1 If something falls apart, it breaks into pieces, usually because it is weak, old, or badly made. EG Clothing which lasts a little while and then falls apart... Fragile materials that simply fall apart after a short time. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = disintegrate

2 If an organization or system falls apart, it becomes disorganized and unable to work effectively. EG The conference fell apart when the President refused to participate... The nation is falling apart. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = collapse

3 If you say that someone is falling apart, you mean that they are becoming emotionally disturbed and are unable to think normally and calmly because they are in such a difficult or unpleasant situation; an informal expression. EG It was something to do, it kept you from falling apart. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = go to pieces fall away. 1 If something falls away from a surface which it has been attached to, it breaks off and becomes unattached. EG Patches of plaster had fallen away between the windows. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + PREP = fall off

2 Where land falls away it slopes gently downwards. EG I got to the ridge expecting to see a gentle slope falling away in front of me. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ slope

3 If a quality or type of behaviour falls away from someone, they no longer have that quality or behave in that way. EG His film star affectations had fallen away... Paradise, where all their earthly infirmities would fall away. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ disappear

4 If the degree, amount, or rate of something falls away, it diminishes and becomes less or smaller. EG During the general strike, the party's membership fell away. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = fall off fall back. 1 If an army falls back during a battle or war, it retreats. EG They fell back in confusion, surprised by the direction of attack. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ withdraw = retreat

2 If you fall back, you move quickly away from someone because they have upset or frightened you. EG I watched him fall back in horror. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + in + N UNCOUNT fall back on. If you fall back on a particular solution or way of doing something, you choose it because it is easy, obvious, or safe, although it is not necessarily the best. EG He invariably falls back on sentimental clichés about peace and 'nature'... Often you give up and fall back on easier solutions. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = resort to fall behind. 1 If you fall behind when you are moving with a group of other people, you start to move more slowly than they do, so that everyone else gets further and further ahead of you. EG He began to limp and fell so far behind that the Captain decided to let him rest. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = lag, trail

2 If someone or something falls behind, they do not achieve the standard of success or effectiveness that was expected of them or that is achieved by other people or similar things. EG ...children who fall behind with their reading. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ fail

3 If a process falls behind or if you fall behind, the process is not completed, or you do not produce something when it is due. EG The programme had fallen so far behind that there was little chance of meeting the deadline... Unfortunately, we have fallen behind with the payments. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

fall down. 1 If someone or something falls down when they have been in an upright or standing position, they become unbalanced and drop to the ground. EG He tripped and fell down. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ fall = fall over

2 If something such as a building or bridge falls down, it collapses to the ground and breaks into pieces because it is old, weak, or damaged. EG That shelter might fall down if the rain comes back. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = collapse

3 If you say that a building is falling down, you mean that it is in a very bad condition and is in danger of collapsing. EG The house was cheap because it was falling down. PHRASAL VB : V (-ING) + ADV

4 An idea, argument, etc falls down when there is a weakness in it which becomes evident in a particular situation. EG In one area only did the comparison fall down... In that particular instance the argument falls down. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ fail ≠ work fall for; used in informal English. 1 If you fall for someone, you are strongly attracted to them and start loving them. EG He fell for her the moment he set eyes on her... ...masculine types that women traditionally fall for. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ⇑ desire

2 If you fall for something that is not true, you are tricked into believing it. EG The working class were not going to fall for this one. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = swallow fall in. 1 If something such as a roof or ceiling falls in, it collapses and falls to the ground. EG The roof of the house was about to fall in. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = cave in

2 If soldiers, scouts, or other people in a procession fall in, they get into a line one behind the other. EG Pick up your gear and fall in... As he began to march around the lawn, people fell in behind him. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ follow = line up fall into. 1 If you fall into discussion, conversation, or an argument etc with someone, you start talking or arguing etc with them. EG We fell into conversation as the train pulled out of the station. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = get into

2 If you fall into a particular mood or way of behaving, you get into that mood or start behaving in that way. EG He fell into that strange mood of speculation. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = lapse into fall in with. If you fall in with an idea, plan, system, etc, you accept it and do not try to change it. EG I didn't know quite how to deal with that remark except to fall in with it. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = go along with fall off. 1 If something falls off the surface to which it was attached, it becomes loose and separates from that surface. EG At this stage their scales fall off. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP ⇑ drop

2 If the degree, amount, or rate of something falls off, it diminishes and becomes less or smaller. EG The flow of western capital is falling off just when it is most needed... We knew that the numbers of overseas students would fall off drastically. ● See also falling-off. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ decrease = fall away fall on or fall upon. 1 If something falls on someone or something, it comes down accidentally from a higher position onto them, often causing injury or damage. EG I just opened the cupboard and they fell on my head. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

2 If something unpleasant falls on someone, it happens to them; a literary use. EG All of these ills have fallen upon us. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

3 If a responsibility or duty falls on someone, it becomes their responsibility or duty. EG It would fall on her to make the final decision. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = fall to

4 If someone falls on you, they hug you and embrace you eagerly and joyfully because they are very happy or excited. EG People were falling on each other in delight and tears. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = seize

5 If someone who is attacking you falls on you, he or she attacks you suddenly and violently. EG Terrorist groups were falling indiscriminately upon men and women in the street. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ⇑ attack = set upon

6 If your eyes fall on someone or something, you see or notice them. EG His gaze fell on a small white bundle... His eyes fell on Laing, who was hunched in a corner. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = light on fall out. 1 If something such as hair or a tooth falls out, it becomes loose and separates from your body. EG After about two weeks, the victim's hair starts to fall out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ loosen

2 If something falls out of a container, it drops from there onto the ground, usually by accident. EG It must have fallen out when I opened my bag at the bus stop. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

3 If you fall out with someone, you have an argument and stop being friendly with them. EG I've fallen out with certain members of the band... Everybody stands to lose if the partners fall out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + A (with) : RECIP ⇑ disagree

4 When soldiers or people in a parade or formation fall out, they leave their positions and the formation is broken up. EG The men fell out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ disperse

5 See also fallout.

fall over. 1 If someone or something falls over from an upright or standing position, they become unbalanced and fall to the ground, lying lengthways or in a heap. EG He pushed back his chair so hard that it fell over. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = topple over

2 If you are falling over yourself to do something, you are very keen to do it; an informal expression. EG Producers were falling over themselves to hire girls who had acting experience... Governments are falling over each other to win valuable export contracts. PHR + O (REFL/NG) + to-INF ⇑ rush fall through. If an arrangement, plan, deal, etc falls through, it fails or is unsuccessful before it can be completed. EG We arranged to book a villa and it fell through... Any number of things could lead to a sale falling through. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ fail ≠ come off fall to. 1 If a responsibility or duty falls to someone, it becomes their responsibility or duty. EG That task fell to Mrs Isabel Travers... It fell to Philip Crow to act the part of host. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = fall on

2 If someone falls to doing something, they start doing it, although it is not a very sensible thing for them to be doing. EG The party fell instead to blaming the voters. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, USU ING = begin fall upon. See fall on.

fallacious /fəleɪʃəs/. If an idea, argument, or reason is fallacious, it is wrong because it is based on a fallacy; a formal word. EG This point of view is exposed as fallacious in her new book. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ erroneous fallacy /fælәsi[1]/, fallacies; a formal word. A fallacy is 1 an idea which many people believe to be true but which is in fact false because it is based on incorrect information or faulty reasoning. EG ...a complex mass of facts, fallacies and emotive opinions... It is a total fallacy that painters inspire other painters. 2 a weakness and lack of logic or good sense in an argument or piece of reasoning. EG There are logical fallacies in the information they are all absorbing... Mrs Lennon unwittingly touched upon the fallacy in the argument. N COUNT ⇑ error = misconception; N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = flaw fallen /fɔ:lәn/. 1 Fallen is the past participle of fall.

2 The fallen are soldiers who have died in battle; a fairly literary expression. N PLURAL : the + N

3 Some people use fallen to describe people or angels after the time when they sinned and were punished by God; an old-fashioned, literary, or religious use. EG ...Satan and his fallen angels... ...fallen man. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ holy, saintly

4 A fallen woman is considered to have lost her respectability and virtue because she has had sex with someone who she is not married to; an old-fashioned term. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ immoral ≠ virtuous fallen arches. If you have fallen arches, the hollow part at the bottom of each of your feet has become flat and does not support the rest of your foot properly when you walk. N PLURAL fall guy, fall guys. A fall guy is someone who has been tricked by another person and used by them so that the other person could get something deceitfully; an informal expression. N COUNT = sucker fallible /fælɪbə[ʊ]l/; a formal word. 1 If you say that someone is fallible, you mean that their judgement or knowledge is not perfect and they may make mistakes. EG He was only human, fallible, might have misjudged her. ◊ fallibility /fælɪbɪlɪti[1]/. EG ...human fallibility. ADJ QUALIT ≠ infallible; ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 Other meanings of fallen can be found in the entry for fall.

2 If you say that something is fallible, you mean that it is not perfect and it may be wrong. EG ...human memory being as fallible as it is... It is a very fallible method. ◊ fallibility. ADJ QUALIT ≠ infallible; ◊ N UNCOUNT falling-off. If there is a falling-off of an activity, there is a decrease in the amount or intensity of it. EG There was a definite falling-off of active interest... A falling-off in business was expected. N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN of/in = decline falling star, falling stars. A falling star is the same as a meteor. N COUNT

fallopian tube /fәlәʊpɪən tju:b/, fallopian tubes. A woman's fallopian tubes are the pair of tubes in her body along which eggs pass from her ovaries to her uterus. N COUNT fallout /fɔ:laʊt/ is the radiation that affects a particular place or area after a nuclear explosion has taken place. EG Exposure to radioactive fallout would be much worse than previously anticipated. N UNCOUNT fallow /fælәʊ/. 1 Fallow land, or land that has been left fallow, has been dug or ploughed but nothing has been sown or planted in it, so that its quality or strength has a chance to improve. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ unused

2 A fallow period is a time when not very much is being achieved. EG They have their creative and their fallow times. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ inactive fallow deer; the form fallow deer is used for both the singular and the plural. A fallow deer is a small deer that has a reddish coat which develops white spots in summer. N COUNT false /fɒls, fɔ:ls/, falser, falsest. 1 If a statement is false, it is not true. For example, the statement '2+2=5' is false. EG The statement may be true or false... What you're saying is false... The accusation is false and unjust. ◊ falsely. EG Other Ministers are being accused quite falsely of licentious behaviour. ADJ CLASSIF = wrong ≠ true; ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 If something such as an idea, impression, or action is false, it is mistaken or based on a wrong belief or understanding. EG Perhaps this assumption is false... I picked up a false impression of him right away... ...wrongful arrest and false imprisonment. ADJ CLASSIF = wrong ≠ right, true

3 If something is false, 3.1 it is not real or genuine, but it is intended to seem real. EG ...false teeth... When the architect started to reconstruct the building, a false wall was discovered in the wine cellar... She travelled under a false name. 3.2 it is not sincere and is intended to deceive; used showing disapproval. EG ...their false promises. ● under false pretences: see pretence. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = deceitful ≠ true

4 If someone is false, 4.1 their character or general behaviour is insincere and deceitful. EG She wants to convince herself that I'm false and fake. 4.2 they pretend to have particular feelings and attitudes, usually in such an obvious way that people notice the pretence; used showing disapproval. EG He's very false. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG Her voice sounded prissy and false. ◊ falsely. EG Her voice was falsely bright. ◊ falseness. EG He could have detected any falseness on her part. 4.3 they are unfaithful or disloyal, especially to a lover or friend; used showing disapproval. EG What a false friend she turned out to be. 4.4 If you are false to someone or something, you betray them; used showing disapproval. EG They have not been true to themselves, and therefore they are false to everyone else. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dishonest; ADJ QUALIT = affected, insincere ≠ genuine, sincere; ◊ ADV; ◊ N UNCOUNT; ADJ CLASSIF ≠ true; PHR : VB INFLECTS ≠ be true to false alarm, false alarms. A false alarm is a situation where you think something dangerous is about to happen, but then discover that you were mistaken, for example when a fire alarm goes off by accident. EG We've had more trouble with false alarms than actual arson... They think it was all some kind of false alarm. N COUNT falsehood /fɒlshʊd, fɔ:l-/, falsehoods. 1 Falsehood is the quality or fact of being untrue or of being a lie. EG She needs to learn what truth means and how it differs from falsehood and fabrication... The Inquiry was set up to establish the truth or falsehood of the various rumours and reports. N UNCOUNT ⇑ untruth ≠ truth

2 A falsehood is a lie; a formal use. EG There is more to dishonesty than uttering falsehoods. N COUNT = untruth false move, false moves. A false move is an action or movement which turns out to be a mistake and which can put you in a position of great risk or danger. EG Barbara soon realized that this was a false move... One false move, and I might have slipped two hundred feet. N COUNT : USU SING false start, false starts. A false start is 1 an attempt to start something, such as a speech, project, or plan, which fails because you were not properly prepared or ready to begin. EG After a few false starts, we managed to get the company off the ground... ...natural speech with all its hesitations, false starts, and coughs. 2 a beginning of a race when one competitor moves before the starter has given the signal. EG They finally got under way after three false starts. N COUNT; N COUNT falsetto /fɒlsetәʊ/, falsettos. A falsetto is a high-pitched singing or speaking voice that is higher than a person's normal voice. EG I heard him singing in a clear, high falsetto... ...a high falsetto whine. N COUNT

falsify /fɒlsɪfaɪ, fɔ:l-/, falsifies, falsifying, falsified. If you falsify something, you change it, add details to it that are not true, or misrepresent it in order to deceive people. EG He had taken part in falsifying some official documents... The same name will be on the document, but with the personal details falsified. ◊ falsification /fɒlsɪfɪkeɪʃə[ʊ]n, fɔ:l-/, falsifications. EG The falsification of the records has now been exposed. V + O; ◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT falsity /fɒlsɪti[1], fɔ:l-/, falsities. 1 Falsity is 1.1 the quality or fact of being untrue. EG I'm not interested in the truth or falsity of what you're saying. 1.2 the quality or fact of being deceitful or pretending to have particular feelings or attitudes; used showing disapproval. EG Charlotte did not notice the falsity of all the everyday conventions and rules of etiquette. N UNCOUNT = untruth; N UNCOUNT ⇑ falseness

2 A falsity is a false or deceitful action or situation. EG This is an age of polite falsities. N COUNT = lie falter /fɒltə, fɔ:ltə/, falters, faltering, faltered. 1 If something falters, it loses power or strength in an uneven way, or no longer makes much progress. EG ...when the demand for commodities began to falter in 1974... ...should the engines falter and the plane lose height... It seemed to awaken an interest which never faltered... Their progress does not falter. V = waver, hesitate

2 If you falter, you become unsure about what to do. EG From that moment onwards he never faltered in his resolve... She gave me a look of so much anguish, I almost faltered. V : IF + PREP THEN in = waver, hesitate

3 If you falter when you are speaking, you speak in a weak and hesitant way. EG The harsh voice never faltered... 'What happened?'–'It's...' Bixby faltered. V OR V + QUOTE = hesitate

4 If you falter when you are moving, you stop moving easily and steadily, and move uncertainly and hesitantly instead. EG Looking to his left, he saw Percy Hopkins faltering... His steps faltered; his body sagged as if he'd been knifed. V = hesitate, pause faltering /fɒltə^{0}rɪŋ, fɔːl-/. A faltering attempt or effort is hesitant and uncertain because you are nervous or do not really know what to do. EG She made faltering attempts to write letters in German... ...Britain's faltering steps towards a fourth television channel. ADJ QUALIT = tentative fame /feɪm/ is the state or fact of being very well-known. EG The fame of the Omega workshops spread very quickly... She was jealous of Ellen's enormous fame... He rose rapidly to fame... It was sure to bring fame and fortune to its originator. N UNCOUNT = renown famed /feɪmd/. If people, places, or things are famed, they are very well-known. EG ...another great church, famed for its flower festivals... In the thirteenth century, it was one of the famed cities of Europe. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN for = renowned, famous familial /fəmɪlɪəl/. Familial means relating to families in general, or typical of a family; a formal word. EG ...the need for independence on a personal and familial level. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB familiar /fəmɪljə/, familiars. 1 If someone or something is familiar to you, you are able to recognize them or know them well because you have seen, heard, or experienced them before. EG My name was now familiar to millions of people... Gradually I began to recognize familiar faces... The man was a stranger, yet there was something familiar about him. ◊ familiarity /fəmɪljæ^{r}ɪtɪ^{1}/. EG ...the familiarity of the surroundings. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to = well-known ≠ strange, unfamiliar ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you are familiar with something, you know or understand it well. EG I am of course familiar with your work... ...to become familiar with affairs of state. ◊ familiarity. EG ...her familiarity with these things. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + with ≠ unfamiliar ◊ N UNCOUNT + with

3 If you behave in a familiar way towards someone, you treat them in an informal way that is appropriate only between close friends, and so may be considered offensive by anyone who is not a close friend. EG I can't stand that familiar tone he uses when he talks to young women. ◊ familiarly. EG He spoke of them casually and familiarly by their first names. ◊ familiarity. EG ...in terms of familiarity and affection... ...insolent familiarity. ● If you are on familiar terms with someone, you know them well and do not need to behave formally towards them. EG You're on familiar terms already, I see... They are almost certainly not on familiar terms with any of the teachers. ADJ QUALIT = intimate ≠ distant ◊ ADV ◊ N UNCOUNT ● PHR OR PHR + A (with) : RECIP, VB INFLECTS

4 Your familiars are your close friends; an old-fashioned use. EG Rhoda and Kathy were equals, not to say familiars. N PLURAL = intimates

5 A familiar is a cat, bird, or other animal which, according to folk tales, is supposed to live with a witch or devil and share their magic powers. N COUNT familiarity /fəmɪljæ^{r}ɪtɪ^{1}/. 1 Familiarity breeds contempt is a saying which refers to the fact that if you know someone very well, or if you are often in a particular situation, you can easily lose respect for that person or become careless in that situation. PHR

2 Other meanings of familiarity can be found in the entry for familiar.

familiarize /fəmɪljəraɪz/, familiarizes, familiarizing, familiarized; also spelled familiarise. If you familiarize yourself with something, or if someone familiarizes you with it, you learn about it and start to understand it. EG She had familiarized herself with a great deal of native lore... ...to familiarize their colleagues with the principles. V + O (REFL/NG) + A (with) : USU O (REFL) ⇑ teach family /fæmɪ^{0}lɪ^{1}/, families. 1 A family is 1.1 a group of people that consists of parents and their children. EG ...an English family on holiday in Germany... Each apartment could house a family of six... ...the Adams Family. ● See also nuclear family. 1.2 a group of related species of animals or plants. EG The weaver bird is a member of the sparrow family. N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL N COUNT : USU + SUPP

2 Your family is 2.1 your husband or wife and children, or your brothers, sisters, and parents; sometimes used to refer to your other relations too, including aunts, uncles, cousins, and grandparents. EG What about your family? Do they live in Leicester?... ...workers and their families. ▸ used as an uncount noun. EG They had known our parents for years before we were born, so they got to be almost family. 2.2 your children, especially when they are young. EG It's often very difficult for mothers to get back to work after raising a family... ...mothers with large families. 2.3 all the people of previous generations who were related to you. EG Her mother's family had lived for generations in Norfolk... There was a history of mental illness in the family. N COUNT : USU POSS + N : IF SING VB CAN BE SING OR PL ⇑ group ▸ N UNCOUNT : USED AS C N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL

3 You can use family to describe 3.1 things that belong to or are shared by a particular family. EG Buddy Westerman's father loaned him the family car... Ben lived in Bermondsey and worked in the family business. 3.2 things that are suitable to be used or enjoyed by parents and children together. EG The Mini Metro isn't really designed to be a family car... With a programme like this you're appealing to a family audience. N BEFORE N ⇑ communal N BEFORE N

4 If a woman is in the family way, she is pregnant; an old-fashioned and informal expression. PHR : USED AS A A family doctor, family doctors. A family doctor is the same as a GP; used in British English. EG Family doctors have no time these days to make regular calls. N COUNT family man, family men. A family man is 1 a man who is very fond of his wife and children and likes to spend a lot of time with them. 2 a man who has a wife and children. EG Wages are so low in relation to the cost of living that a family man cannot survive on them. N COUNT N COUNT ≠ bachelor family name, family names. Your family name is your surname. EG ...a tomb with our family name inscribed on it. N COUNT family planning is the practice of using contraception to control the number of children you have. EG ...family planning clinics. N UNCOUNT = birth control family tree, family trees. A family tree is a chart that shows all the people in your family over many generations and their relationships with one another. N COUNT famine /fæmɪn/, famines. Famine is a serious shortage of food in a country which may cause many deaths. EG Wars, earthquakes, famine, and disease... During the famine of 1929 he was afraid his family wouldn't survive. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ disaster famished /fæmɪʃt/. If you are famished, you are extremely hungry; an informal word. EG He must be absolutely famished. ADJ CLASSIF = ravenous, starving famous /feɪməs/. Someone or something that is famous is very well known. EG ...a famous writer... The city has been most famous for its cloth... The collapse of Britain's most famous company shocked the entire country. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN for = well-known famously /feɪməslɪ^{1}/. 1 You use famously to refer to the fact that someone or something is well-known. EG ...a good place for poets, most famously Larkin and Douglas Dunn. ADV OR ADV SEN

2 If you get on famously with someone, you are both very friendly with each other and enjoy meeting and being together. EG She and Smithy should meet up, they'd get on famously. PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN with fan /fæn/, fans, fanning, fanned. 1 If you are a fan of a particular sport or of someone famous such as a singer, you like them very much and are very interested in them. EG I was a Beatles fan... ...football fans... The fans were already screaming with delight. N COUNT : USU + SUPP = supporter

2 Fan mail or fan letters are letters that are received by famous people such as singers or film stars from people who admire them. N BEFORE N ⇑ admiring

3 A fan is 3.1 a flat object that you wave in order to move the air and make yourself feel cooler, especially one that is made of a folded piece of paper or cloth, and that opens out into a flat semicircular shape. EG ...Japanese fans... Its tail was spread out like a fan. 3.2 an electric or mechanical device that has several blades which turn round in order to create a current of air. Fans can be used to keep a room cool or to get rid of unpleasant smells. EG I lay there watching the rotations of the ceiling fan... ...electric fans. ● If someone says that the shit hit the fan, they mean that there was suddenly a lot of N COUNT N COUNT ● PHR : VB INFLECTS trouble or angry arguments; a rude or very informal expression. EG I said, 'I'm gay.' Then the shit really hit the fan.

4 You can also use fan to describe anything that has the shape of a wide 'V' with a semicircle above it, rather like an open fan. EG ...a lovely fan of foam on the edge of a tide. N COUNT : USU + of

5 If you fan yourself or your face when you are hot, you wave a fan or something that has the same effect as a fan in order to make yourself feel cooler. EG She took up some sheets of typewritten paper and fanned herself with them. V + O (REFL/NG) ⇑ cool

6 If you fan a fire, you wave something flat next to it in order to make it burn more strongly. V + O ⇑ stimulate

7 If a wind or draught fans a fire, it makes it burn more strongly. EG The rush of air fed and fanned the fires. V + O ⇑ stimulate

8 If someone fans a feeling such as fear, hatred, or passion, they deliberately act in a way that will increase the fear, hatred, or passion that people already feel. EG They succeeded in fanning public resentment against him... Public hysteria fanned fears of an invasion. ● to fan the flames: see flame. V + O ⇑ provoke = increase, stir up fan out. 1 If a group of people or things fan out, they move forwards away from a particular point in different directions. EG The five of us fanned out at intervals of not more than fifteen feet... The others fanned out in line of search. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = spread out

2 If something fans out or if you fan it out, it spreads out or opens out into a flat shape. EG The dead birds lay with their wings fanned out... Animals make themselves look fierce by fanning out furry crests. PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV = unfurl fanatic /fənætɪk/, fanatics. A fanatic is 1 a person whose behaviour is considered to be very extreme, especially in the way they support particular religious or political ideas; used showing disapproval. EG They would do anything at all to prevent dangerous fanatics from obtaining their weapons. 2 a person who is very enthusiastic about a particular activity, sport, or way of life; used in informal English. EG The owner of the hotel is a sports fanatic. N COUNT = extremist / N COUNT : USU + MOD + N = devotee fanatical /fənætɪkə^{0}l/. Someone who is fanatical or fanatic feels very strongly about something and behaves in a way that is considered to be extreme and unreasonable. EG ...fanatical rebels... He was a fanatic hunter. ▸ used of actions, behaviour, or beliefs. EG His campaign became increasingly fanatical... Bill inspired fanatical devotion in his pupils. ◊ fanatically. EG He was fanatically against intervention in the war. ADJ QUALIT = zealous / ◊ ADV fanaticism /fənætɪsɪzə^{0}m/ is fanatical behaviour or the quality of being fanatical. EG Clem's eyes gleamed with fanaticism. N UNCOUNT = zeal fan belt, fan belts; also spelled with a hyphen. A fan belt is a belt in a car engine that drives the fan which keeps the engine cool. N COUNT fancier /fænsɪə/, fanciers. 1 An animal or plant fancier is a person who breeds animals or plants of a particular type or who is very interested in them. EG ...a pigeon fancier. N COUNT : MOD + N ⇑ lover fanciful /fænsɪful/. 1 An idea that is fanciful is not based on reality. EG She had a fanciful notion that germs were waiting to pounce on her... Their interpretations are often fanciful. ▸ used of people. EG 'I am being fanciful,' Fanny thought wearily. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ imaginary = curious, whimsical

2 Fancier is also the comparative form of fancy.

2 Something that is fanciful is unusual and elaborate rather than plain and simple; used showing disapproval. EG ...fanciful architecture... He considered this name far too fanciful. ADJ QUALIT = extravagant fan club, fan clubs. A fan club is an organized group of people who all admire the same pop singer, film star, etc, and who arrange trips to concerts, publish newsletters for club members, etc. N COUNT, ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N PROPER fancy /fænsi^{1}/, fancies, fancying, fancied; fancier, fanciest; used in informal English except for the meanings in paragraphs 9, 10, and 11. 1 If you fancy something, you want to have it or to do it. EG She fancied a flat of her own... Do you fancy a cup of tea?... I don't fancy going back to that dreary house alone. V + O/ING ⇑ desire

2 If you fancy someone, you feel attracted to them, especially in a sexual way. EG I'll bet anything she fancied you. V + O ⇑ desire

3 If you fancy yourself, you think that you are very attractive, clever, or good at something; used showing disapproval. EG Fancies himself, doesn't he?... I've heard that this man Bond fancies himself with a pistol. V + O (REFL) / V + O (REFL) + A (as)

4 If you fancy yourself as a particular kind of person, you like the idea of being that kind of person. EG When I was a student I rather fancied myself as a Socialist... She fancies herself as a linguist.

5 A fancy is a liking or desire for someone or something, especially one that does not last long. EG Where did he get this fancy for pineapples?... ...whims and fancies. N COUNT = craving

6 If you take a fancy to someone or something, you start liking them, usually for no understandable reason. EG Fortunately she took a fancy to me. PHR : VB INFLECTS

7 If something takes your fancy or tickles your fancy, you like it quite a lot when you see it or think of it. EG He bought a vase that had taken his fancy... The idea of being a waitress rather tickled her fancy. PHR : VB INFLECTS = appeal, attract

8 You say 'fancy' when you want to express surprise or disapproval. EG Fancy seeing you here!... Fancy him remembering... Fancy old Harrington a tax cheat!... 'Fancy!' she said. 'Three miles just for a bucket of water!' 'You're in hospital.'–'Well, fancy that.' EXCLAM, OR EXCLAM + ING = imagine

9 If you fancy that something is the case, you think or suppose that it is so. EG I fancied I could hear a baby screaming... They fancied themselves to be Europeans... I don't know how long we can hold out. Not long, I fancy. V + REPORT-CL, OR V + O (REFL) + to-INF = imagine

10 A fancy is also an idea that is unlikely or untrue; a formal use. EG I'd had a childhood fancy that I would one day be famous... It is difficult to separate fact from fancy. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = fantasy

11 Fancy is also uncontrolled imagination. EG ...indulging in a flight of fancy... He paints whatever his fancy suggests. N UNCOUNT

12 Something that is fancy is 12.1 special, unusual, and elaborate, for example with a lot of decoration. EG ...fancy hats... He prefers good plain food: nothing fancy... You should hear the fancy excuses some of them make! 12.2 very expensive or of very high quality. EG He took her out to dinner at a fancy place in London. ADJ QUALIT = extravagant ≠ plain, simple / ADJ QUALIT = high-class, posh

13 A fancy price is higher than what is usual, fair, or reasonable. EG They charge fancy prices there. ADJ QUALIT = inflated

14 Fancies are small sweet cakes which have a lot of decoration. N PLURAL

fancy dress is clothing that you wear for a party at which everyone dresses up to look like a character from a story or like a particular kind of person such as a policeman or a waitress. EG Everyone will be in fancy dress... ...a fancy dress ball. N UNCOUNT ⇑ costume fancy-free. Someone who is fancy-free is free to do what they like, especially because they have no responsibilities or are not married. EG There I was, footloose and fancy-free. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ uncommitted = carefree fancy man, fancy men. A woman's fancy man is her lover or boyfriend; used in rather old-fashioned and informal English showing disapproval. N COUNT : USU POSS + N

fancy woman, fancy women. A man's fancy woman is his lover or girlfriend; used in rather old-fashioned and informal English showing disapproval. N COUNT : USU POSS + N fandango /fændæŋgəʊ/, fandangos. A fandango is a Spanish dance in which two people dance very close together. N COUNT fanfare /fænfɛə/, fanfares. A fanfare is a short, loud tune, usually played on a trumpet or trumpets to announce a special event, for example the arrival of an important person. EG The bride's arrival was greeted with a fanfare by the State Trumpeters. N COUNT ⇑ signal fang /fæŋ/, fangs. If an animal has fangs, it has long sharp teeth. EG Most snakes withdraw their fangs after striking... The wolf sank its fangs into his leg. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ tooth fanlight /fænlaɪt/, fanlights. A fanlight is a small window over a door. EG ...the stained glass fanlight above the front door. N COUNT

fanny /fæni^{1}/, fannies. 1 Someone's fanny is their bottom; a rude word used in informal American English. N COUNT : USU POSS + N

2 A woman's fanny is her genitals; a rude word used in informal British English. N COUNT : USU POSS + N fantasize /fæntəsaɪz/, fantasizes, fantasizing, fantasized; also spelled fantasise. If you fantasize, you think about a pleasant event or situation which you would like to happen but which is unlikely to happen. EG She had fantasized that she and Wendy V, V + REPORT-CL, OR V + A (about) ⇑ dream = daydream would live in this house... More than once he fantasized about buying a Renoir.

fantastic /fæntæstɪk/. 1 If you say that something is fantastic, you mean that you think it is very good and you like it very much or are very pleased about it; an informal use. EG He took a bite of meat, chewed it, savoured it, and said, 'Fantastic!'... I think it's a fantastic film!... You're pregnant? That's fantastic! EXCLAM, OR ADJ QUALIT = fabulous, terrific, wonderful

2 A fantastic amount or quantity is an extremely large one; an informal use. EG Dr O'Shea seemed to spend a fantastic amount of time on the road... Patterson's make a fantastic profit on this. ◊ fantastically. EG The divorce rate is fantastically high here. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ great = terrific, vast ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV

3 Something that is fantastic or fantastical is strange and wonderful. EG ...the bright fantastic birds... ...fantastic images of gods. ◊ fantastically. EG Fantastically coloured and exotic birds. ADJ QUALIT = exotic ◊ ADV + ADJ/ADV

4 A statement or story that is fantastic is very strange and very difficult to believe. EG The truth is scarcely less fantastic than the fable... He happened to be very much in love with her-fantastic though that may seem. ADJ QUALIT = unbelievable, incredible, extraordinary

5 An idea, plan, etc that is fantastic is very unlikely to happen or be possible. ADJ QUALIT fantasy /fæntəsi[1]/, fantasies. 1 A fantasy is 1.1 a pleasant situation or event that you think about and hope will happen, although it is unlikely to happen. EG That's supposed to be every schoolgirl's fantasy... ...Joy's fantasies about a voyage up the Nile. 1.2 something that people believe to be true, but which in fact is not true. EG There is a fantasy that enormous amounts of money are wasted by the council. N COUNT ⇑ idea = dream, fancy N COUNT = misconception

2 You can refer to a story or situation that someone creates from their imagination and that is not based on reality as fantasy. EG To a small child, fantasy and reality are very close to each other... The play is a nice mixture of fantasy and hard headed realism. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ fiction = unreality

3 Fantasy is also the activity of imagining things. EG Everyone should indulge in fantasy on occasions. ...the place where fantasy is given free rein. N UNCOUNT far /fɑː/, farther, farthest; further, further, furthest. Far has two comparatives, farther and further, and two superlatives, farthest and furthest. Farther and farthest are used mainly in relation to paragraph 1, and are dealt with here. Further and furthest are dealt with in separate entries. 1 Far means a long distance from somewhere, something, or someone. EG He sat as far away from the others as possible... They had rented a villa not far from Hotel Miranda... ...bits of white cloud drifting far above... He never hit the ball very far... ...a little farther south. ▸ used as an adjective; an old-fashioned or literary use except in the comparative or superlative form. EG ...at the farthest possible point from the aisle... ...tickets to far places. ● Far and wide or far and near means in a very large number of places or over a very large area or distance. EG The bang was heard far and wide... People would come from far and wide. ADV ≠ close, near ▸ ADJ QUALIT = remote ● PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ everywhere

2 You use far after 'how' to ask questions about distance, and in the expression 'as far as' when you are mentioning a distance by stating the place reached. EG How far is Amity from here?... He asks us how far we have come... Vita and Rosamund went with Harold as far as Bologna. ADV : How + ADV, OR as/so + ADV + as

3 The far north, south, east, west of a country, continent, or other area is the part of it that is the greatest distance from the centre in the direction stated. EG ...in the far north of the country... ...living in China's far west. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = extreme

4 When there are two things of the same kind in a place, the far one is the one that is the greater distance from you. EG ...at the far end of the room... ...on the far side of the river. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = other ≠ near

5 A time or event that is far off in the future or past is a long time from the present or from a particular point in time. EG The Fourth of July isn't far off... ...as far back as the twelfth and thirteenth centuries... ...if we look far into the future... Control over the mind is not as far off as we think. ADV + ADV/PREP

6 Far also means much, or to a great extent or degree; often used when referring to change or progress, or in negative statements. EG Interest rates will not come down very quickly or very far because of the level of government borrowing... Few of their closest friends would trust them very far... An adverse decision could push the minister farther along the path of union reform. ADV WITH VB ⇑ greatly

7 You can also use far after 'how' to ask questions about extent or degree, and in the expressions 'as far as' and 'so far as' when referring to the extent to which something is possible. EG How far are you going to tax people who don't own cars?... I think we need a couple of years to see how far the present government's policies are successful... ...fitting in with her methods as far as possible... It might be reflected in the environment so far as the circumstances of the time permitted. ADV : How + ADV, OR as/so + ADV + as ⇑ much

8 You ask or say how far someone or something gets, goes, or is taken, as a way of referring to the level of achievement that they have reached in a situation or to the degree to which they take action in it. EG How far have you got with the work?... Only those ideas which pass this test get as far as a practical trial... This opposition cannot take us very far. ADV WITH VB

9 Someone who goes a bit far, takes something too far, pushes someone too far, etc behaves in an unacceptable or extreme way. EG Sometimes the press went too far and suffered accordingly... The chastening of the trade unions, if not taken too far, will have been a salutary experience... In 1963 he unwisely pushed the Americans too far... That is probably going a bit far. PHR : USED AS AN A = over the top

10 If you say that someone goes as far as to do a particular thing or goes so far as to do it, you mean that what they do seems surprising or extreme. EG The directors went so far as to stage actual killings... Our pest officers will even go as far as tackling foxes... She wouldn't actually go so far as to say she is glad it happened. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + to-INF/ING

11 When you say how far you would go, you are referring to the degree to which you are willing to agree or to commit yourself in a conversation. EG I think that's really as far as I would want to go... I wouldn't go as far as Kingsley. ADV : as/so + ADV + as

12 Far also means very much. It is used to give emphasis in front of comparative adjectives and adverbs, in front of 'too', and also in front of verbs, adjuncts, or adjectives that refer to or describe progress, comparison, or difference. EG ...a far greater problem... I enjoyed it far more than I expected to... I have been talking far too much... ...a suicide rate far in excess of the national average... ...electronic techniques, in which the firm had so very far outstripped its rivals over the last few years... My ideas on foreign policy were far removed from those of the Government... The reality fell far short of the promise. ADV : ADV + COMPAR, ADV + too + ADJ/ADV, OR ADV + VB/A/ADJ ⇑ greatly = very much, decidedly

13 You use far in expressions such as by far, far and away, etc to emphasize that someone or something is much better, worse, greater, etc than anything else or than another thing that has been mentioned. EG She was by far the camp's best swimmer... ...by far the greater part of the prosecution's evidence... This is far and away the most important point... Mr Gerran is by far and away the biggest share holder. PHR + SUPERL/COMPAR, OR COMPAR + PHR + than

14 Someone or something that is not far wrong, not far out, not far off, or not far short is almost correct. EG ...an answer that's not far wrong... He hadn't been so far out at that, for Antonio had died. PHR : USED AS C/A ⇑ right

15 When you say that someone will not go far wrong with a particular thing or course of action, you mean that it is likely to be generally successful or satisfactory. EG For a white wine you will not go far wrong with Soave... They are convinced that they cannot go far wrong so long as they obey the law. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ succeed

16 far gone. Someone or something that is far gone is in an advanced state or at an advanced stage of a particular condition. EG It's a psychological thing, maybe too far gone for any of us to help... ...a young woman, far gone in the family way. PHR : USED AS C

17 far from. 17.1 You use far from to emphasize that something is not a particular thing or does not do a particular thing, often when you are making a contrast with what people expect or think. EG His hands were far from clean... Nell was very far from poor... The first day was a nightmare-but it was far from a total disaster... Far from speeding up, the tank slithered to a halt... You weren't my choice, not that I'm against you, far from it, but my first choice was Holliday... It is not that Irish Americans are ungenerous. Far from it. 17.2 Something that is far PHR + ADJ/ADV/NG/-ING, OR PHR + it ⇑ not PREP from a particular thing is completely different or separate from it. EG Though with hindsight she realises this was far from the truth... I think literature isn't so far from the sciences as it is often represented as being.

18 You say far be it from me to disagree, or far be it from me to interfere, criticize etc in order to make your disagreement, interference, or criticism seem less hostile or personal. EG Far be it from me to disagree... Far be it from me to criticize her; I just think she's behaved extremely badly. PHR + to-INF

19 as far as or so far as. 19.1 When you say that something is the case as far as a particular thing is concerned or as far as it goes, you mean that your statement or opinion applies only to that thing. EG He has a reasonable similarity to yourself, at least as far as the head and face is concerned... I'm not really perceptive as far as literature goes, I much prefer history. 19.2 You say as far as I am concerned when giving an opinion to emphasize that it is your opinion and that other people may disagree with you. EG This is all nonsense as far as I am concerned. 19.3 You say as far as I know, so far as I remember etc, when you are introducing or making a statement to say that you think it is true, but that there might be other factors that you have forgotten or do not know about. EG We only had one paper as far as I remember, one three-hour essay... 'Is he alone?'–'As far as she knows'... As far as they could see, the room was empty. 19.4 When you say that something is satisfactory so far as it goes or as far as it goes, you mean that it is satisfactory only to a limited extent. EG The essay's all right as far as it goes. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN / PHR : USED AS ADV SEN / CONJ SUBORD / PHR : USED AS ADV SEN

20 You say in so far as or insofar as to introduce a clause in which you mention something that is relevant to what you have just said or what you are about to say, for example something that gives its extent or gives a reason for it. EG I think it is better that we trust each other in so far as we can while our business association lasts... She had felt complete sympathy with the movement insofar as she perceived it... That is to be feared in so far as it threatens to dissipate man's energies. CONJ SUBORD

21 So far means 21.1 only a limited distance. EG They only went so far into the forest that day before turning back. 21.2 up until the present point in a situation, story, or account. EG What do you think of the story so far?... It's gone well so far... So far only two bodies have been discovered. ● You say so far so good to express satisfaction with the way that a situation or activity is progressing, developing, or happening. EG I tied him quickly to a tree. So far so good. Then I hurtled back to the settlement. PHR : USED AS AN A / PHR : USED AS AN A = to date / ● CONVENTION

22 Thus far means up until the present point in a situation, story, or account; used in formal English. EG Thus far, Wall Street, at least, has been notably unimpressed. PHR : USED AS AN A

23 You can describe people with extreme left-wing or right-wing political views as the far left or the far right. EG The far left has solidly backed the Republican cause... ...groups on the far right. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

24 ● a far cry from: see cry. ● few and far between: see few. ● to go far: see go.

faraway /fɑːəweɪ/; also spelled with a hyphen or as two words. 1 Something that is far away, or a faraway place, sound, etc, is a long distance from you or from a particular place or person. EG I no longer felt the need to travel to faraway places... They heard the faraway sound of a waterfall... A train hoots far away. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADJ QUALIT : PRED = far-off, distant ≠ nearby

2 If your thoughts are far away or if you have faraway thoughts, you are thinking or dreaming about something that is very different from the situation around you. EG Going down in the elevator, my thoughts were far away... She had a faraway look in her eyes. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADJ QUALIT : PRED = distant farce /fɑːs/, farces. 1 A farce is a humorous play in which the characters become involved in ridiculous and unlikely situations. N COUNT

2 Farce is the style of acting and writing that is used in this kind of play. N UNCOUNT ↑ drama

3 If you describe an event as a farce, you mean that it is extremely disorganized and ridiculous; used showing disapproval. EG My history classes were a farce. N COUNT = shambles farcical /fɑːsɪkəl/. If you describe a situation or event as farcical, you mean that it is completely ridiculous. EG The inquest had been largely farcical anyway... There was the farcical episode with Mr Brooks and the Daily Recorder. ADJ QUALIT = ludicrous fare /fɛə/, fares, faring, fared. 1 A fare is the money that you pay for a journey that you make, for example, in a bus, train or taxi. EG How much is your bus fare home?... He spends fifty pounds a month on fares to work. N COUNT : IF SING, USU the / POSS + N ↑ payment

2 Taxi drivers sometimes refer to their passengers as fares. EG My last fare wanted to go to the airport. N COUNT : USU POSS + N

3 The fare served at a restaurant, cafe, etc is the food that is served there; a rather old-fashioned use. EG The village pub serves up more interesting fare than some of the hotels in town. N UNCOUNT

4 If you say that someone fares well or badly, 4.1 you are referring to the degree of success they achieve in a particular situation or activity; a rather old-fashioned use. EG All fourteen branch candidates fared ill in the council election... How would an 8-stone boxer fare against a 14-stone boxer? 4.2 you are referring to how well or badly they are treated; an old-fashioned use. EG Even the dog under the table fares better than we do. V + A : USU WITH BROAD NEG = get on / V + A : USU WITH BROAD NEG ↑ do

Far East. The Far East is used to refer to all the countries of Eastern Asia, including China, Japan, North and South Korea and Indochina. N PROPER : the + N = Orient farewell /fɛəwɛl/, farewells. Farewell means goodbye; a rather old-fashioned or literary word. EG Farewell, my dear child... It would grieve them not to bid you farewell. ▸ used as a noun. EG Next day we said fond farewells to Jim and Pam Moffatt. CONVENTION ≠ hello / ▸ N COUNT far-fetched. An idea, suggestion, etc that is far-fetched is unlikely to be true or practical. EG This vision of high growth and low inflation is not as far-fetched as it sounds. ADJ QUALIT = unrealistic, improbable ≠ realistic far-flung. Something that is far-flung 1 spreads over a very large area. EG Mali's enormous wealth came from its far-flung trade routes in salt and gold and copper. 2 is a very long distance away. EG ...in a far-flung corner of the Empire. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB farm /fɑːm/, farms, farming, farmed. 1 A farm is a large area of land, together with the buildings on it, that is used for growing crops or raising animals, usually in order to sell them. EG The eggs were delivered from the farm along with the milk... He works on a farm... ...a farm labourer... ...farm buildings. N COUNT ↑ business

2 If you farm, you use and cultivate land to grow crops or raise animals, usually in order to sell them and make a living. EG My stepson farms in the beautiful Alexander Valley. V OR V + O ↑ work

3 A mink farm, fish farm, etc is a place where someone raises a particular kind of animal or fish in large quantities in order to sell them commercially. EG ...an oyster farm... ...a mink farm... ...a fish farm. N COUNT : USU AFTER N ↑ business farm out. If you farm out work to people, you send it to them to do. EG She has more knitting orders than she can cope with, so she farms them out to little old ladies with lots of spare time. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ↑ give = delegate farmer /fɑːmə/, farmers. A farmer is a person who owns or manages a farm. N COUNT farm-hand, farm-hands. A farm-hand is a person who is employed by a farmer to work on a farm. N COUNT ↑ labourer farmhouse /fɑːmhaʊs/, farmhouses. A farmhouse is the main house on a farm, usually where the farmer lives. N COUNT ↑ house farming /fɑːmɪŋ/ is the practice or business of growing crops or raising animals on a farm. EG Their economy is still largely based on manufacturing, farming, and tourism... ...sheep farming... ...modern farming methods. N UNCOUNT ↑ agriculture farmland /fɑːmlænd/, farmlands. Farmland is land which is farmed, or which is suitable for farming. EG ...a country house set in 1,500 acres of forest and farmland... ...gently rolling farmlands. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT farmyard /fɑːmjɑːd/, farmyards. A farmyard is the small enclosed area of land around or between the buildings on a farm. N COUNT ↑ yard far-off. 1 A time that is far off or a far-off time is a long time from the present. EG ...in those far-off days when people still bought fish for their cats... The day is not far off when manufacturers will be producing the same line of products for sale everywhere. ADJ QUALIT = distant, remote

2 Something that is far off, or a far-off place, is a long distance from you or from a particular person or place. EG ...a far-off country... ...far off along the beach. ADJ QUALIT, OR ADV WITH VB = faraway ≠ nearby far-out; also spelled as two words. If you describe something as far-out, 1 you mean that it is unusual or strange, and very different from other things of the same kind. EG That may sound far out, but it had happened a couple of times before... The possibility of creating new, far-out forms of man for space exploration. 2 you mean that you think it is excellent; an informal use. EG You got four tickets for the concert?–Far-out!

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADJ QUALIT : PRED = bizarre, way-out

ADJ CLASSIF, OR EXCLAM = fantastic

far-reaching. Actions events or changes that are far-reaching have a very wide influence and affect a great number of things. EG It could have far-reaching implications for the country's economy... ...many far-reaching changes in the social structure.

ADJ QUALIT = extensive, sweeping farrier /færiə/, farriers. A farrier is a person who fits horseshoes onto horses.

N COUNT

farrow /færoʊ/, farrows, farrowing, farrowed. When a female pig farrows, she gives birth to piglets; a technical term.

V

far-sighted. 1 If you say that someone is far-sighted, you mean that they understand what is likely to happen in the future, and consequently makes wise decisions and plans; used showing approval. EG ...far-sighted and sensitive political leaders. ▸ used of plans and actions that are based on this understanding. EG ...the far-sighted plans which were laid at that time.

ADJ QUALIT ≠ short-sighted

2 In American English, far-sighted means the same as long-sighted.

ADJ QUALIT

fart /fɑːt/, farts, farting, farted; a rude word. 1 If someone farts, they allow air to be forced out of their body through their anus. ▸ used as a noun.

V ▸ N COUNT

2 If you call someone an old fart, you are indicating that you think that they are boring and that you do not respect them; an offensive expression.

N COUNT : USU MOD + N

fart about or fart around. If you say that someone is farting about or is farting around, you mean that they are wasting time doing silly things instead of doing what needs to be done; used in very informal English.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = mess around farther /fɑːðə/ is the comparative of far.

farthest /fɑːðɪst/ is the superlative of far.

farthing /fɑːðɪŋ/, farthings. 1 A farthing is a coin that is no longer used which was worth a quarter of a penny in old British currency.

N COUNT

2 If you say 'it doesn't matter a brass farthing' or 'I don't care a brass farthing', you are emphasizing that something does not matter and that you do not care about it at all; an old-fashioned and informal expression. EG It does not matter a brass farthing if they get messy or not.

PHR

fascia /feɪʃə/, fascias. 1 The fascia in a car is the part surrounding the instruments and dials; a fairly formal word.

N COUNT = dashboard

2 The fascia on a shop front is the flat surface above the shop window, on which the name of the shop is written.

N COUNT

fascinate /fæsɪneɪt/, fascinates, fascinating, fascinated. If something fascinates you, it interests and delights you so much that your thoughts tend to concentrate on it. EG I love history, it fascinates me... Herschel was fascinated by astronomy... Both girls and boys become fascinated with marriage and having babies. ◊ fascinated. EG She stared, fascinated, as the blood flowed out of her. ◊ fascinating. EG It's a fascinating book... ...a truly fascinating country. ◊ fascinatingly. EG It's a fascinatingly interesting theory.

V OR V + O : USU V + O = intrigue ≠ bore

◊ ADJ QUALIT

◊ ADJ QUALIT

◊ ADV OR ADV SEN

fascination /fæsɪneɪʃəⁿn/, fascinations. 1 Fascination is the state of being greatly interested in and delighted by something. EG He watched in fascination as her rickety loom wove the beautiful patterns... He just stared with a kind of numb fascination at the writhing man.

N UNCOUNT = absorption

2 A fascination is something that fascinates people. EG Here is one of the fascinations that this ancient land holds for us.

N COUNT ⇑ attraction

fascism /fæʃɪzəⁿm/ is a right-wing political philosophy that believes in the importance of having a powerful dictator and state control. Nationalistic feelings are encouraged and political opposition is not allowed.

N UNCOUNT

fascist /fæʃɪst/, fascists. 1 A fascist is someone who believes in fascism. EG ...the alliance with the British Fascists.

N COUNT ⇑ person

2 A fascist group or organization believes in or follows the principles of fascism. EG ...fascist countries.

ADJ CLASSIF

3 People sometimes refer to a person who holds extreme right-wing views as a fascist.

N COUNT/VOC

fashion /fæʃəⁿn/, fashions, fashioning, fashioned. 1 The fashion in which someone does something or in which something happens is the way in which it happens or is done. EG We talked in an animated fashion... He joined his hands together in Indian fashion and gave a little bow... He greeted us warmly in his usual friendly fashion. ● See also parrot fashion.

N COUNT : SUF OR in + MOD + = manner

2 Something that is done after the fashion of a particular person is done in a way that is typical of this person. EG Leibnitz was another child prodigy who, after the fashion of his kind, was writing Greek and Latin from an early age.

PREP

3 If you say that something was done after a fashion, you mean that it was done, but not very well. EG He changed the baby's nappies after a fashion... The water was running into his eyes, but he could still see after a fashion.

PHR : USED AS A = just about

4 Fashion is the styles of clothing, hairstyles, make-up, etc, that change quickly as people's ideas and tastes change. EG There were 100 models promoting Italian fashion... The fashion industry responded to the new mood of feminism.

N UNCOUNT

5 A fashion is a particular style of clothing, hairstyle, etc that is popular at a particular time. EG I gather mini skirts are the fashion again now... French boutiques sell the latest Parisian fashions.

N COUNT

6 A fashion is also an activity, attitude, way of behaving, etc that is popular with a lot of people at a particular time. EG It may be the fashion at the moment to be in favour of decentralization.... These four young Beatles set the fashion for a generation.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ interest = trend

7 If a style, colour, way of behaving, etc is in fashion, it is popular and considered to be currently fashionable. If it is out of fashion, it is considered to be unfashionable. EG Exotic fruits are coming into fashion... Capability and efficiency seem to be coming back into fashion... Platform shoes are back in fashion again... She never ever wears a hat. They're out of fashion... Open-plan offices are going out of fashion.

PHR : USED AS A = in vogue ≠ out of date

8 If you fashion something, you make it in a particular shape using your hands; a rather formal or old-fashioned use. EG The artist fashioned out of clay a grinning skeleton..

V + O = model

9 If someone or something fashions you, your attitudes, or your future, they have an influence on you which affects your development; a formal use. EG We fashion our children into believers in the status quo.

V + O = mould

fashionable /fæʃəⁿnəbəⁿl/. 1 Styles of clothing, ideas, etc that are fashionable are generally popular and copied or used by a lot of people at a particular time. EG He put on one of his habitual striped shirts that were fashionable in 1963... It is fashionable at the moment to say how inadequate the government is... He knows all about these fashionable people like Chomsky and Saussure. ◊ fashionably. EG ...a tall, lean young man of thirty-four, his hair fashionably long.

ADJ QUALIT = in ≠ unfashionable

◊ ADV

2 If a restaurant, club, area, etc is fashionable, it is currently popular among the richer people in society. EG It lies in one of the less fashionable parts of the city... ...Au Grand Choix, the newest New York fashionable restaurant.

ADJ QUALIT = smart

fast /fɑːst/, faster, fastest; fasts, fasting, fasted. 1 Something or someone that is fast moves, does something, or happens with great speed. EG ...a fast car... ...fast communications... Relationships today tend to change at a faster pace than ever before. ▸ used as an adverb. EG I ran as fast as I could... The music went faster and faster... News travels pretty fast... ...fast-flowing upland streams.

ADJ QUALIT = quick, swift, rapid ≠ slow

▸ ADV WITH VB

2 You can use fast to ask about the speed of something, even if it is moving quite slowly. EG ...looking out of the windows to see how fast we were going.

ADV WITH VB : AFTER how = quickly

3 If you say that someone or something is fast becoming something, or that something is fast developing, disappearing, etc, you mean that the process mentioned is happening with great speed. EG We are fast becoming a nation fed on canned food... The time was fast approaching when I would have to leave... Such cultures are fast disappearing from the face of the earth.

ADV WITH VB (ING) = quickly, rapidly ≠ gradually, slowly

4 A fast road or a fast lane on a motorway is designed for vehicles to travel along quickly. EG This guy passed me in the fast lane doing at least 100 mph... It's a fast road; there's no speed limit. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ slow

5 A fast surface for sports such as tennis is one which enables a ball to move especially quickly after it has bounced. EG He found the grass courts at Wimbledon much faster than he'd expected. ADJ QUALIT ≠ slow

6 If things happen or are repeated fast, they happen or come quickly one after the other. EG The footsteps were too fast and heavy to be his mother's. ▸ used as an adverb. EG Vivi's tears and memories, spilling so fast, half the words not understood. ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED ▸ ADV WITH VB = rapidly ≠ slowly

7 If you do something fast, or if something happens fast, you do it, or it happens, very soon and without any delay. EG She needed medical help fast... Treat stains as fast as possible. ▸ used as an adjective. EG I only got a fast return on my investment once. ADV AFTER VB ▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB

8 If you say to someone 'not so fast', you are telling them not to act so soon or to be so sure of success because what they assume will happen may not actually take place. EG 'Jones, Marsh and Barrett,' I told her. 'Not so fast-I'm not a partner yet.' CONVENTION ⇑ wait = hold on

9 An activity or action that is fast takes only a short time to do or happen. EG Give your guests a fast tour of the house... We had a fast game of tennis before breakfast. ADJ QUALIT = quick ≠ leisurely

10 If a watch or clock is fast, it is working too quickly and shows a time that is later than the real time. ADJ QUALIT : PRED ⇑ wrong ≠ slow

11 Fast photographic film is very sensitive and can be used for taking pictures when there is not very much light. EG You have to use fast film for this. ADJ QUALIT

12 Something that is fixed or held fast is firmly fixed, held, or fastened. EG I struggled to free myself but my leg was stuck fast. ● If you make something fast, you tie it firmly to something else. EG He made it fast to a bracket on the side. ADV AFTER VB = tightly ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

13 If you hold fast, 13.1 you grip something very tightly because you do not want to let go of it. EG He was holding fast with his left hand to a strap. 13.2 you continue doing or thinking the same thing as before, especially when someone is trying to make you give it up. EG He was determined to hold fast to both kinds of art... ...the feminists held fast in the face of considerable opposition. PHR : VB INFLECTS = hang on ≠ give up

14 Someone who is fast asleep is completely and thoroughly asleep. EG The girl was lying fast asleep on the sofa. PHR : USED AS C ≠ wide awake

15 If colours or dyes are fast, they will not come out of a piece of cloth when it gets wet. EG Are the colours fast? ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ⇑ fixed = permanent

16 A fast way of life is one which involves a lot of enjoyable and expensive or dangerous activities; used especially of young people or the way they live. EG ...the desire for a fast life... She wanted to move in the fast set. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ active

17 A fast woman is one who shows boldness and lack of modesty in sexual relationships; used showing disapproval. EG It would stigmatize her for life as a fast woman. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ immoral = forward, loose

18 If you play fast and loose with someone, you behave in an unreliable, irresponsible, or insincere way towards them. EG He had played fast and loose with her affections. PHR : VB INFLECTS = trifle with

19 If you pull a fast one, you cheat or deceive someone, especially in a deal involving money; an informal expression. EG He tried to pull a fast one on me. PHR : VB INFLECTS

20 If you fast, you eat no food for a period of time, especially for a religious reason. EG He fasts for a whole day every week. ▸ used as a noun. EG During my fast I had lost fifteen pounds. v ⇑ abstain ▸ N COUNT

21 ● to make a fast buck: see buck. ● hard and fast: see hard. ● thick and fast: see thick.

fast breeder reactor, fast breeder reactors. A fast breeder reactor or a fast breeder is a kind of nuclear reactor that produces more plutonium than it needs to use for the purposes of generating electricity. N COUNT fasten /fɑːsᵊn/, fastens, fastening, fastened. 1 When you fasten something, or when it fastens, you do it up or close it with a device such as a button, hook, strap, or clasp. EG He fastened his seat-belt... I shut the door and fastened the bolt... This dress fastens at the back. V ERG ≠ undo, unfasten

2 If you fasten one thing to another, you attach it to the other thing, for example with a piece of string or tape. EG Bowman caught hold of the short lever which was fastened to the valve... He had an electrode fastened to his wrist. V • O • A

3 If someone or something fastens their teeth, hands, etc around or onto something, they take hold of it tightly with their teeth or hands. EG He wished that he could fasten his hands around the throat of the dog. V ERG • A fasten on. 1 If you fasten your attention on something, you think about that thing rather than about anything else. EG Your attention is fastened on that one event... Once she had fastened on to a scheme she did not let go. PHRASAL VB V • PREP, OR V • O • PREP

2 If someone fastens on to you, they keep following, talking to, or staying with you, when you want them to go away. EG The doctor had fastened on to an official of the Yugoslav embassy. PHRASAL VB • V • PREP = latch onto ≠ ignore

fasten up. If you fasten something up, you do it up or close it completely, for example by using buttons or straps. EG Fasten your coat up. PHRASAL VB V • O • ADV ≠ unfasten, undo fasten upon. To fasten your attention upon something means the same as to fasten your attention on it. EG His mind fastened upon it now: escape. PHRASAL VB V • PREP, HAS PASS fastener /fɑːsᵊnə/, fasteners. A fastener is a device such as a button, zip, or safety pin that fastens something, especially clothing. N COUNT ⇑ fastening fastening /fɑːsᵊnɪŋ/, fastenings. A fastening is something such as a clasp, cord, or latch that fastens something. EG No fastenings are visible or exposed to the weather. N COUNT fast-food is hot food that is prepared and served quickly after you order it. EG ...a chain of fast-food restaurants. N UNCOUNT ⇑ convenience food fastidious /fæstɪdɪəs/; a formal word. Someone who is fastidious 1 pays great attention to detail because they like everything to be very neat, accurate, and orderly. EG He was very fastidious about his personal correspondence... She has a fastidious and incisive intellect... ◊ fastidiously. EG The process was fastidiously checked and re-checked. ◊ fastidiousness. EG ...a growing feeling for privacy and a growing fastidiousness. 2 is concerned about cleanliness to an extent that is considered to be too fussy; used showing disapproval. EG He flushed the toilet with his pointed boot, too fastidious to touch the lever with his hand. ◊ fastidiously. EG He fastidiously examined the glass. ◊ fastidiousness. ADJ QUALIT = fussy ≠ careless ◊ ADV ◊ N UNCOUNT ADJ QUALIT ⇑ careful ◊ ADV ◊ N UNCOUNT fastness /fɑːstnɪˢs/, fastnesses. A fastness is a safe place, usually one that is difficult to get to; a literary word. EG ...this island fastness. N COUNT • SUPP = stronghold fat /fæt/, fatter, fattest; fats. 1 A person or animal that is fat has a lot of flesh on their body that they do not need. EG My father is fat-he weighs over fifteen stone... She was fatter than when he last saw her. ◊ fatness. EG Resistance to disease has nothing to do with fatness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ large = overweight ≠ thin, slim ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Fat is 2.1 the extra flesh that animals and humans have under their skin, which is used to store energy and to help keep them warm. EG Asiatic sheep turn their food into fat and store it... Fat dripped from the roasting joint of beef. 2.2 a solid or liquid substance obtained from animals or vegetables, which is used in cooking. EG Rub the fat into the flour. 2.3 a substance contained in foods such as cheese and butter, which forms an energy store in your body. EG Your doctor may recommend limiting the fat and starch in your diet. N UNCOUNT N MASS N MASS ⇑ nutrient

3 Something that is fat is very thick or wide. EG They published their conclusions in one fat volume of a report. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ≠ thin, slim

4 A fat profit, fee, wallet, etc is one which involves or contains a large amount of money; an informal use. EG This made a fat profit for the manufacturer. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = hefty ≠ slim

5 A fat period of time is one during which you earn or receive a lot of money. EG Even in the fat years a farmer has to bear the lean years in mind. ADJ QUALIT = prosperous ≠ lean

6 Someone who has grown fat on something has become very rich as a result of it. EG Merchants in Boston had grown fat on the trade from the campus. PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF • PREP THEN on

7 You use the fat of the land to refer to the best and richest part of things, or a rich, comfortable lifestyle. EG They're living off the fat of the land. PHR

8 If you say that the fat's in the fire, you mean that PHR something has happened which will start a lot of trouble; an informal expression.

9 If you say that something which someone has said or done is a fat lot of good, you mean that it is not at all good or useful; an informal expression. EG A fat lot of good thieving did you... 'Then we should know what the time was.'–'A fat lot of good that would be!'... 'A fat lot you tried,' said Jack contemptuously.

PHR : USED AS O

10 If you say that there is a fat chance of something happening, you mean that you do not believe that it will happen; an informal expression. EG 'Just give us our money back and we'll leave.'–'Fat chance,' the usher said.

CONVENTION, OR N SING : a + N = some hope

11 If you say that someone can't get something into their fat head, you are saying in a rude way that you think that they are stupid. EG Can't you get it into your fat head, I'm not going to do it!

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = thick

fatal /feɪtəˈl/. 1 Something that is fatal is very important or significant, and likely to have an unwanted effect on future events. EG I made the fatal mistake of letting her talk me into it... Analyse your fatal weakness and stamp it out. ◊ fatally. EG He had to deliver up what turned out to be the fatally incriminating tape.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ serious

◊ ADV

2 A fatal accident, illness, etc causes someone's death. EG He had a fatal accident with a gun... Patients will face possible fatal delays if the unit is closed. ◊ fatally. EG In December four Manhattan men were fatally stabbed.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ deadly

◊ ADV = mortally

fatalism /feɪtəlɪzəˈm/ is belief in a power which controls everything that happens in a way that human beings cannot prevent or change. EG Fatalism is the real controlling force... ...the fatalism with which people are encouraged to accept these received truths. ◊ fatalist, fatalists. EG She was a committed fatalist.

N UNCOUNT

◊ N COUNT

fatalistic /feɪtəlɪstɪk/. Someone who is fatalistic believes that human beings cannot influence or control events. EG I suddenly became fatalistic, resigning myself to the inevitable. ▸ used of attitudes, remarks, etc that express this belief. EG ...the almost fatalistic foreboding of the Prison Service itself... They speak in a deadpan and fatalistic way about the loss of friends and family.

ADJ QUALIT = resigned, deterministic fatality /fətælɪtiˈ/, fatalities. 1 A fatality is a death caused by an accident or by violence. EG The last duty-related fatality to a local policeman occurred in 1957.

N COUNT

2 Fatality is the feeling or belief that human beings cannot influence or control events. EG The modern world is dominated by a sense of fatality.

N UNCOUNT

fate /feɪt/, fates. 1 Fate is a power that is believed to control and decide everything that happens, in a way that people cannot prevent or change. EG Fate was against me... I eagerly accepted the job fate offered me.

N UNCOUNT = destiny

2 The Fates are the three goddesses who, according to the belief of the ancient Greeks, have the power to control and decide everything that happens. EG It was here that the Fates laid him low.

N PLURAL : the + N

3 Someone's fate is what happens to them. EG Their factory closed down, and several other companies suffered a similar fate... Rick decided to stay until we knew what Dookie's fate would be.

N COUNT : USU POSS + N = lot

fated /feɪtɪˈd/. If you say that someone is fated to do something, or that an event is fated, you mean that this event or action has been planned or decided by fate and there is nothing that can be done to avoid or change it. EG We were fated to dislike one another... Once it had happened, it seemed fated.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED, USU to-INF = destined fateful /feɪtfʊl/. If an action or a time when a particular event occurred is described as fateful, it is considered to have an important, and often disastrous, effect on future events. EG And so to the fateful day of the election... ...a fateful decision... The Prime Minister made his fateful announcement.

ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB = momentous

fathead /fætʰɛdˈ/, fatheads. If you refer to someone as a fathead, you mean that they are stupid; an offensive word. EG Should my income suffer because some fathead swears in front of a prospective parent?

N COUNT = idiot, fool

father /fɑːðəˈ/, fathers, fathering, fathered. 1 Your father is the man who is one of your parents. EG My father was born in London... He becomes worried if his mother or father are annoyed with him... The participants are actually father and daughter... ...families where fathers are away a lot of the time... Father called him Buster Billy. ▸ Father is also used to address your father. EG Don't you want to know my news, Father?

N COUNT

▸ N PROPER/VOC

2 When a man fathers a child, he makes a woman pregnant. EG He fathered two children.

V + O = beget

3 Our ancestors are sometimes referred to as our fathers.

N PLURAL = forefather

4 The father of something is the man who invented or started it. EG Chaucer is often said to be the father of English poetry... ...the founding fathers of the University.

N COUNT : the + N + of 5 The city fathers are people who hold important and respected positions in a community. EG The city fathers rejected the plans for a new theatre.

N COUNT : MOD + N, USU PL

6 Father is used in a literary way as part of the name of something that is thought of as an old man. EG ...Father Thames... ...Old Father Time.

N IN NAMES BEFORE N

7 Father is also used to address or refer to a priest in some Christian churches, particularly the Catholic and Orthodox Churches. EG 'Good afternoon, father.'–'My son,' the priest answered solemnly... ...the kind of religion which Father Drew preaches. ● See also Holy Father.

N IN TITLES : ALSO VOC

8 Father is also another name for God. EG Heavenly Father, hear our prayers.

N PROPER = Lord

Father Christmas. Father Christmas is an imaginary old man who has a long, white beard and wears a red coat. He is believed by children to visit them at Christmas to bring all their presents.

N PROPER = Santa Claus

father figure, father figures; also spelled with a hyphen. Someone who is a father figure is thought of as taking the place of a father and being the person you can turn to for advice, support, guidance, and help. EG In terms of sculpture, Moore was a father figure.

N COUNT

fatherhood /fɑːðəhʊdˈ/ is the state of being a father. EG ...attitudes to fatherhood.

N UNCOUNT = paternity

father-in-law, fathers-in-law. Someone's father-in-law is the father of their husband or wife.

N COUNT

fatherland /fɑːðəlændˈ/, fatherlands. Someone's fatherland is the country in which they or their ancestors were born. EG ...thinking of the fatherland... They were fighting for their fatherland.

N COUNT ⇑ mother country

fatherless /fɑːðəlɪˈsˈ/. If someone is fatherless, their father has died, or they are brought up by their mother without a man in the family and without seeing their father regularly.

ADJ CLASSIF

fatherly /fɑːðəliˈ/. A fatherly action or attitude is one that shows feelings that are thought to be typical of a warm, kind, and protective father but which perhaps could be considered patronizing. EG Let me give you some fatherly advice.

ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB = paternal ≠ motherly

Father's Day is the third Sunday in June, celebrated in honour of fathers.

N UNCOUNT

fathom /fæðəˈmˈ/, fathoms, fathoming, fathomed. 1 A fathom is a measurement of 1.8 metres or 6 feet, used when describing the depth of water.

N COUNT

2 If you fathom something or fathom it out, you understand it as a result of thinking carefully about it. EG I couldn't fathom the meaning of her remarks... ...X-ray photography, used to fathom such mysteries as honeybee navigation.

V + O/REPORTCL : ALSO + A (out) = work out

fathomless /fæðəˈmlɪˈsˈ/. Something that is fathomless cannot be measured or understood because it gives the impression of being very deep, obscure, or complicated. EG Its use is inexhaustible. Fathomless!... She looked at him with calm, fathomless eyes... ...a fathomless truth.

ADJ CLASSIF = unfathomable

fatigue /fətiːgˈ/, fatigues, fatiguing, fatigued. 1 Fatigue is a feeling of extreme physical or mental tiredness. EG Finally, her mind gave in to fatigue and she fell asleep... I was covered with freezing mud and shaking with fatigue.

N UNCOUNT = exhaustion ≠ liveliness

2 If something fatigues you, it makes you feel extremely tired; a formal use. EG By the end of term my wife and I are thoroughly fatigued. ◊ fatigued. EG 'How boring it all is,' she said, in a voice fatigued to the point of desperation.

V + O : USU PASS = exhaust

◊ ADJ QUALIT = exhausted ≠ lively

3 Fatigues are clothes that soldiers wear when they are doing routine jobs or when they are on the battlefield. EG I use old army fatigues. They're cheap, tough and don't show the dirt... They all had their fatigue shirts off.

N PLURAL

4 Fatigue in metal, wood, etc is a weakness in it that is caused by repeated stress. Fatigue can sometimes cause the metal, wood, etc to break. EG ...thermal changes and forces of internal fatigue common to all metals.

N UNCOUNT

fatless /fætlɪ²s/. Food that is fatless does not contain any fat. EG ...a fatless fruit cake. — ADJ CLASSIF ≠ fatty fatted /fætɪ²d/. If you kill the fatted calf, you have a great celebration to welcome a person you have not seen for a long time; an old-fashioned expression. — PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ celebrate fatten /fætə⁰n/, fattens, fattening, fattened. 1 If you fatten an animal or person, or if they fatten, they become fatter as a result of eating more. EG Soya is excellent for fattening pigs... Most hill farmers cannot fatten their lambs off in their first summer. ● See also fattening. — V ERG

2 To fatten also means to become richer. EG ...while Western and Eastern bloc nations fatten on gigantic arms sales to the poorer countries. — V OR V + O fatten up. If you fatten up an animal, you feed it more food so that it reaches the weight that you want it to be. EG They take twice as long to fatten up as European cattle... Go on, have some more-you look as if you need fattening up. — PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = feed up fattening /fætə⁰nɪŋ/. Food that is fattening is considered to make people fat easily. — ADJ QUALIT ≠ slimming fatty /fæ̱tɪ²/, fatties; fattier, fattiest. 1 A fat person is sometimes called a fatty; an offensive term. EG I wrote about being a fatty... Shut up, Fatty. — N COUNT : ALSO VOC

2 Food that is fatty contains a lot of fat or too much fat. EG The goose was a little fatty to his taste. — ADJ QUALIT = greasy

3 Fatty tissues, fatty acids, etc, contain or consist of fat; a technical term. EG ...the ability of the body to store residues in fatty tissues... Coconut oil is very high in saturated fatty acids... ...a fatty deposit which builds up on the walls of the arteries. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB fatuous /fætjʊəs/. A remark, action, plan, etc that is fatuous is considered to be very silly indeed, showing no sign of intelligence or thought, even though perhaps the person responsible for it does not realize this. EG ...'Not for the ears of ladies', or some such fatuous remark... Television commercials seem more smug and fatuous than ever... ...the government's fatuous games plan for 'limited' war. ◊ fatuously. — ADJ QUALIT = foolish, stupid, inane ◊ ADV

faucet /fɔ̱ːsɪt/, faucets. In American English, a faucet is a tap. — N COUNT ⇑ device

fault /fɔːlt/, faults, faulting, faulted. 1 If a bad or undesirable situation is a particular person's fault, he or she is considered to be the cause of it or to have responsibility for it. EG This was all Jack's fault... It was entirely my own fault... It's their fault... It's all the fault of a girl called Sarah... — N SING WITH DET : USU POSS

2 A fault is a mistake in what someone is doing or in what they have done. EG He flushed, conscious of a fault... However, she muffed that too through no fault of her own. — N COUNT = error

3 If you are at fault, you are mistaken in a particular action, sometimes with the result that you are to blame for an event or situation. EG We failed to explain that to the public and we are at fault in that... It was 1976, I believe, if my memory is not at fault. — PHR : USED AS AN A = wrong ≠ right

4 A fault in something, for example a person's character or a system, is a weakness or imperfection in it. EG I knew my past much better than she did-and my faults... Two of the great achievements of our country are the NHS, with all its faults, and the Open University... Perhaps that's a fault in Anthony. Yet the fault lies not in him but in the system. ● For all someone's or something's faults is an expression used to say that although someone or something has obvious faults, they also have good or positive qualities. EG For all her faults, Tallulah's countless friends tolerated and even adored her. — N COUNT = flaw, failing ● PHR

5 A fault on a machine or in a structure is a broken part or a mistake in the way it was made. EG Send it back to the manufacturer if the machine develops the same fault... Technicians laboriously tried to find and remedy faults. — N COUNT = defect

6 If you fault someone, you criticize them because you believe that there is something wrong in what they are doing or in what is happening. EG You can't fault their psychology... I couldn't fault him on that one. — V + O, IF + PREP THEN with/on = find fault with

7 If you find fault with something or someone, you look for mistakes and complain about them. EG Those who find fault with it do so chiefly on political grounds. — PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ criticize = knock

8 A fault is also a large crack in the surface of the earth; a technical term. EG ...a huge geological fault running through the entire State. — N COUNT

9 To a fault means much more than is usual or necessary; used of people's good qualities. EG So, obedient to a fault, as I always am, I got it... Generous to a fault, he was noted for his hospitality. — PHR AFTER ADJ ⇑ excessively

10 A fault in tennis is a service that is wrong according to the rules. If the ball lands or bounces outside the proper area, the line judge shouts 'Fault!' EG McEnroe served six double faults in the third set. — N COUNT

faultless /fɔːltlɪ²s/. Something that is faultless is perfect and has no mistakes at all. EG He was accosted by two men who spoke to him in faultless German... He went over his homework and found it faultless. ◊ faultlessly. EG Victoria never learnt to speak English faultlessly. — ADJ CLASSIF = immaculate ≠ flawed ◊ ADV ⇑ perfectly faulty /fɔːltɪ¹/. A machine, piece of equipment, etc that is faulty is imperfect and not working properly. EG We traced the trouble to a faulty transformer. — ADJ CLASSIF = defective faun /fɔːn/, fauns. A faun is an imaginary creature which is like a man with goat's legs and horns. — N COUNT fauna /fɔːnə/. Animals, especially the animals in a particular area, are referred to in technical or formal language as fauna. EG ...the flora and fauna of Africa. — N PLURAL ⇑ wildlife faux pas /fəʊ pɑː/. Faux pas is both the singular and the plural form A faux pas is a socially embarrassing action or mistake; a formal word. EG They behaved as if they were fearful of committing a faux pas. — N COUNT = gaffe favour /fe̱ɪvə/, favours, favouring, favoured; also spelled favor in American English. 1 If you regard something or someone with favour, you like, support, or agree with them. EG I think the company will look with favour on your plan... ...a newer strategy which found increasing favour in the seventies... Is this just an attempt to win his favour? — N UNCOUNT ⇑ liking = approval, sympathy

2 If you show favour to a particular person or group, you are unfair by treating them more kindly than you treat other people. EG The women were shown no favour and had to do the same tasks as the men. — N UNCOUNT = favouritism

3 in favour. 3.1 If you are in favour of something, you support it and think that it is a good thing or that it should happen. EG They are in favour of reforming the tax laws... I'm all in favour of nuclear reactors... Will those in favour please raise their hands. 3.2 If you make a judgement in someone's favour or if you speak in their favour, you say that they are right or good. EG The umpire ruled in her favour... There is a lot that can be said in their favour. 3.3 Something that is in someone's favour helps them or gives them an advantage. EG The odds were in their favour... The system is biased in favour of young people... The current is in our favour. 3.4 If something is rejected in favour of something else, the second thing is done, taken, or dealt with instead of the first one. EG The plans for a new airport have been scrapped in favour of an extension to the old one. — PHR : USED AS AN A, IF + PREP THEN of ≠ against PHR : USED AS AN A ≠ against PHR : USED AS AN A PREP = for

4 If something such as an idea is out of favour with a particular person, that person does not like, support, or agree with it, although they used to. If something is in favour with a person, that person likes, supports, or agrees with it. EG Their views are very much out of favour now. — PHR : USED AS AN A

5 A favour is something that you do for someone even though you do not have to do it, often because they ask you to do it and you want to help them. EG Do me a favour, Grace. Don't say anything about this... I've come to ask a favour. ● You reply 'Do me a favour!' to someone who has asked a question as an emphatic way of saying no and suggesting that it was a silly question to ask; a very informal expression. EG 'Did you tell her it wasn't yours?'-'Do me a favour!' — N COUNT = kindness ● CONVENTION = you're joking!

6 If you favour something, you like that thing more than the other choices available. EG Most observers favour the second view... The men seemed to favour the flat cap or the beret. ◊ favoured. EG The most favoured explanation was that the car's brakes had failed. — V + O = opt for, prefer ◊ ADJ QUALIT = popular

7 Something, for example a particular set of circumstances, that favours a person or event makes it easier for that person to do something or for that event to happen. EG The weather favoured the attacking army. — V + O = benefit, aid

8 If you favour someone, you treat them better or more kindly than you treat other people, often — V + O ⇑ like unfairly, when you should treat them all equally. EG Parents sometimes favour the youngest child in the family... The referee mustn't give the impression of favouring one side or the other. ◊ favoured. ◊ ADJ QUALIT

9 If you favour someone with your attention, your presence, etc, you give them that thing; a formal use. EG The minister favoured us with an interview... I cannot say why he thinks this is so, for he does not favour us with his reasoning. V + O + A (with) = honour

10 When a woman gives her favours to a man she allows him to have sex with her; a formal use. EG She sometimes took money in return for her favours. N PLURAL

11 to curry favour: see curry.

favourable /feɪvə^{0}rəbə^{0}l/. 1 If your opinion about something or your reaction to something is favourable, you like or agree with that thing. EG Her request met with a favourable response... ...favourable reviews. ▸ used of people. EG We found that most people were favourable to the idea. ◊ favourably. EG Many reacted favourably to the plan. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to = good, positive ≠ negative ▸ ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Something that is favourable 2.1 causes a particular person or thing to be liked or approved of or makes them more likely to be. EG ...the favourable impression created by his brother... We must try to present our profession in a more favourable light. ◊ favourably. EG Her application had impressed him very favourably. 2.2 helps a particular person or thing or makes success more likely. EG This creates an atmosphere favourable to expansion... She waited for a favourable moment to broach the subject. ◊ favourably. EG Other European countries, more favourably placed, were able to expand. ADJ QUALIT = agreeable ≠ unfavourable ◊ ADV WITH VB ADJ QUALIT ⇑ helpful = beneficial ◊ ADV WITH VB

3 If you make a favourable comparison between one thing and another, you say that the first is better than or as good as the second. ◊ favourably. EG He was always being compared favourably to his sister... We want to know how favourably it compares with services in other countries. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB ≠ unfavourably favourite /feɪvə^{0}rɪt/, favourites. 1 Your favourite thing of a particular type is the one you like most. EG What is your favourite television programme?... She's one of my favourite writers... This was a favourite expression of his. ▸ used as a noun. EG Liquorice was his favourite. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ best = pet ▸ N COUNT : USU POSS + N

2 A person who is the favourite of someone in authority is treated with special kindness or given special privileges. N COUNT : USU POSS + N = pet

3 The favourite in a race or contest is the person, animal, or thing that is expected to win. EG The favourite came second... Which team are favourites to win the cup? N COUNT : IF SING USU the + N ≠ outsider favouritism /feɪvə^{0}rɪtɪzm/ is the practice of unfairly helping or favouring one person or group much more than another. EG There must be no favouritism in the allocation of contracts. N UNCOUNT = partiality fawn /fɔːn/, fawns, fawning, fawned. 1 Something that is fawn is a pale yellowish brown colour. EG ...a fawn overcoat. ADJ COLOUR

2 A fawn is a very young deer. EG They looked up like startled fawns. N COUNT

3 When you fawn on someone, especially someone more powerful than yourself, you insincerely treat them as if you think they are wonderful in order to make them like you and perhaps give you something. EG ...courtiers who had once flattered and fawned on him. V : IF + PREP THEN on = dance attendance

4 When a dog fawns on someone, it behaves in a very friendly and affectionate way towards them. V : IF + PREP THEN on faze /feɪz/, fazes, fazing, fazed. Something that fazes someone upsets or disturbs them. EG Nothing seemed to faze them. V + O = throw

FBI /ɛf biː aɪ/. The FBI is an agency of the American Department of Justice that investigates crimes in which a national law is broken or in which the country's security is threatened; an abbreviation for 'Federal Bureau of Investigation'. N PROPER : the + N fealty /fiːlti^{1}/, fealties. When someone swore fealty in former times to their ruler or lord, they promised to be loyal to him or her. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = allegiance fear /fɪə/, fears, fearing, feared. 1 Fear or a fear is the unpleasant feeling you have when you think that you are in danger. EG They huddled together, quaking with fear... He lay there, flooded with pain, fear, and hatred... She was brought up with no fear of animals. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ emotion = dread

2 If you fear someone or something, you are frightened because you think that they will harm you. EG ...a woman whom he disliked and feared... He fears nothing. V + O = be scared of

3 If you fear something unpleasant or undesirable, you think that it is likely to happen or to have happened and feel worried about this. EG An epidemic of plague was feared... The new countries fear that their new-found independence might be lost... 'What about the doors?' Harris asked, fearing the worst. V + O/REPORT-CL ⇑ anticipate

4 A fear is a thought that something unpleasant might happen or might have happened. EG Her one fear was that one day he would give it up... Talk about your hopes and fears to your friends... My worst fears were quickly realized. N COUNT = anxiety

5 If you are in fear of doing or experiencing something unpleasant or undesirable, you think that you might be going to do it or experience it and are very worried. EG Sometimes I am in fear of losing my sanity. PHR + -ING = afraid of

6 If you take a particular course of action for fear of something, you take it because you do not wish that thing to happen. EG They did not mention it for fear of offending him... Few of us are prepared to admit to being happy for fear that we will be thought stupid. PHR + of + -ING/ NG, OR PHR + REPORT-CL = in case, lest

7 If you fear for something, you think that it might be in danger and are very worried. EG Morris began to fear for the life of Mrs Reilly... She feared for her daughters. ▸ used as a noun. EG They had fears for their health. V + A (for) ▸ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT + for

8 Never fear and fear not are old-fashioned or formal ways of telling someone not to be worried or frightened. EG But never fear. Virtue was rewarded. CONVENTION

9 If there is a fear of something unpleasant or undesirable happening, there is a possibility that it will happen. EG There is less fear of them refusing if they are asked publicly. N UNCOUNT + of = risk, chance

10 You reply no fear when someone asks whether you will do something as an emphatic way of saying no; a very informal expression. EG 'Are you going out?'–'On a night like this? No fear!' CONVENTION = not likely

11 If you fear to do something, you do not wish to do it. EG Some pilgrims ventured no further than this, fearing to disturb the priest. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...this fear of wasting money on a new idea. V + to-INF ▸ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

12 If you say that you fear that something is the case you mean that you are sorry or distressed that it is the case; a formal use used when you want to be very polite. EG I fear I do not know the answer to that... It is usually, I fear, the parents who are responsible... 'So you cannot tell me anything more?'–'I fear not.' V + REPORT-CL, V, OR V + not/so = regret to say

13 If you put the fear of God into someone, you threaten them with severe punishment if they do not do what you tell them to do; an informal expression. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ intimidate fearful /fɪəfʊl/. 1 Someone who is fearful is afraid of something or afraid of doing something. EG A fearful person is a weak person... ...parents who are fearful of letting their feelings take over. ◊ fearfully. EG The boys looked at each other fearfully. ADJ QUALIT = frightened, scared ≠ confident ◊ ADV WITH VB = nervously

2 Something that is fearful is very unpleasant or bad. EG This led to all sorts of fearful consequences. ◊ fearfully. ADJ QUALIT = dire ◊ ADV WITH VB

3 Fearful is also used to emphasize that something is very bad; an informal use. EG I've just had a fearful row with my parents... They were making a fearful racket. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = frightful, terrible fearfully /fɪəfə^{0}li^{1}/ means extremely; an informal, rather old-fashioned word. EG It was fearfully hot. ADV + ADJ/ADV = dreadfully fearless /fɪəlɪ^{2}s/. Someone who is fearless is not afraid at all. EG ...fearless reporters. ◊ fearlessly. EG If provoked, it defended itself fearlessly. ADJ CLASSIF ◊ ADV fearsome /fɪəsəm/. Something that is fearsome is terrible or frightening; a formal word. EG The dog had a fearsome set of teeth. ADJ QUALIT = formidable feasible /fiːzəbə^{0}l/. Something that is feasible can be done, made, or achieved. EG The electric car is technically feasible... Godley's proposals are not feasible. ◊ feasibility /fiːzəbɪlɪti^{1}/. EG He was talking about the feasibility of setting up a military government... ...feasibility studies. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ possible = practicable ◊ N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of feast /fiːst/, feasts, feasting, feasted. 1 A feast is a large and special meal to which several people are invited. EG ...a wedding feast... 'Delightful,' he said as he surveyed the feast before him. N COUNT = banquet

2 If you feast, you take part in a feast. EG The poor V starve while the rich feast. ◊ feasting. EG The dancing and the feasting went on for hours. ◊ N UNCOUNT

3 If someone is feasted, a feast is given in their honour. EG Sir Gawain was feasted in the great hall. V+O : OFT PASS

4 To feast on or off a particular type of food means to eat a large amount of it with great enjoyment. EG Flies feast on rotting flesh... He sprawled there, feasting off cold roast duck. V : IF + PREP THEN on/off = gorge

5 If you feast your eyes on or upon something, you look at it for a long time with great attention because you like it very much or are very pleased to see it. EG I feasted my eyes upon her lovely face. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ stare

6 A feast of something is a large number of a particular type of thing, or something that is very good and enjoyable. EG These elements combine to make a feast of entertainment. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ abundance

7 A feast or a feast day is a day on which a special religious celebration takes place; a technical term. EG ...feasts like Christmas and Easter. N COUNT = festival feat /fiːt/, feats. A feat is an impressive and difficult act or achievement. EG He received a medal for his heroic feat... The construction of this bridge was a brilliant feat of engineering. N COUNT feather /fɛ̄ðə/, feathers, feathering, feathered. 1 A feather is one of the very light things that form the covering on a bird's body. A feather consists of lots of soft or smooth hairs on each side of a thin stiff centre. EG ...a pink dress trimmed with ostrich feathers... ...a great feather bed. ● as light as a feather: see light. N COUNT

2 If you feather something, you cover it with feathers or stick feathers onto it. ● to tar and feather someone: see tar. V+O

3 You describe two or more people as birds of a feather when you think that they have similar characters, beliefs, interests, etc. PHR : USED AS C = kindred spirits

4 If something you have done is a feather in your cap, it is an achievement that other people admire you for. EG If he clinches this deal, that'll really be a feather in his cap! PHR : USED AS C ⇑ success

5 Someone who feathers their nest makes or obtains a lot of money over a period of time, especially in a dishonest way, so that they are able to live a very comfortable life. PHR : VB INFLECTS = line one's pocket

6 When you feather your oars as you are rowing a boat, you turn them so that the flat parts are parallel with the surface of the water. V OR V+O

7 See also feathered.

feather-bedding is the practice of allowing work to be done slowly or inefficiently so that the jobs of all the employees of a firm are protected; an informal expression used showing disapproval. EG ...the feather-bedding of agriculture. N UNCOUNT feather boa, feather boas. A feather boa is a kind of long, thin scarf made of soft feathers. N COUNT feather-brained. Someone who is feather-brained is rather silly and forgetful. ADJ QUALIT feather duster, feather dusters. A feather duster is an object that is used for dusting. It consists of a bunch of feathers attached to a stick. N COUNT feathered /fɛ̄ðəd/. Something that is feathered has feathers on it. EG ...girls in feathered head-dresses... ...our feathered friends. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = plumed featherweight /fɛ̄ðəweɪt/, featherweights. A featherweight is 1 a professional boxer who weighs between 53.5 and 57 kilograms, which is one of the lowest weight ranges. 2 someone or something that does not weigh very much. 3 someone or something that is of very little importance. N COUNT N COUNT N COUNT

feathery /fɛ̄ðəʳriˡ/. Something that is feathery 1 has an edge divided into lots of thin parts so that it looks soft. EG ...the tops of feathery palm trees. 2 is soft and light. EG ...feathery flakes of ashes. ADJ QUALIT = fringed ADJ QUALIT = fluffy feature /fiːtʃə/, features, featuring, featured. 1 A feature of something is a particular part of it or characteristic that it has, which you notice because it seems important or interesting. EG But the most important feature of our work must be parental involvement... Career guidance discussions were a feature of our final year... They both hit upon the same idea for the chief feature of their designs... Every car will come with built-in safety features. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of/in ⇑ part

2 Someone's features are their eyes, nose, mouth, and other parts of their face; used especially when you are describing what sort of emotions they are showing or what they look like. EG A flicker of distaste crossed his features... He was slightly taller than me, with very regular features. N PLURAL = countenance

3 When a person, film, exhibition, etc features something or when it features in a particular thing, it is included as an important part of that thing and is very noticeable. EG This film features two of my favourite actors... This is not the first time he has featured in allegations of violence... ...a sign outside a cafe featuring a one-legged pirate. V+O, OR V+A (in) ⇑ show

4 If you feature a particular thing that you are selling, you display it or advertise it more than the other things you are selling. V+O = promote

5 A geographical feature is something noticeable in a particular area of country, for example a hill, river, or valley. EG Many birds certainly follow major geographical features... ...the natural features of the landscape. N COUNT + SUPP; USU PL ⇑ characteristic

6 A feature is also 6.1 a special article in a newspaper or magazine, usually one that does not deal with an actual news event. EG Only the other week the local newspaper ran a feature on drug abuse... Out of this interview I got a feature article. 6.2 a special programme on radio or television that is not part of a series, and which is usually about a serious subject. 6.3 a full-length film that is shown in a cinema. EG I believe it's the first long feature film that he has made... He was in some feature with Ava Gardner. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN on N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN on N COUNT featureless /fiːtʃəlɪ²s/. Something that is featureless has no interesting features or characteristics. EG ...a featureless expanse of sand... ...featureless rooms. ADJ CLASSIF = nondescript

Feb. is an abbreviation for February.

febrile /fiːbraɪl/. Febrile behaviour is intensely and nervously active; a literary word. EG ...her febrile state of creativity. ADJ QUALIT = feverish

February /fɛ̄bruəriˡ/ is the second month of the year in the Western calendar. EG The case was heard in the High Court in February 1910. N UNCOUNT feces /fiːsiːz/. See faeces. N UNCOUNT

feckless /fɛklɪ²s/. Someone who is feckless lacks determination or strength, and is unable to do anything properly; a formal word. EG ...children with drunken or feckless parents. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ weak = incompetent fecund /fiːkənd, fɛ̄k-/. A living thing or place that is fecund is fertile; a literary word. EG ...fecund soil. ◊ fecundity /fɛkʌ̄ndɪtiˡ/. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT fed /fɛ̄d/ is the past tense and past participle of feed.

federal /fɛ̄dəʰrəl/. 1 A federal country or system of government is one which consists of a group of states controlled by a central government. The central government deals with things concerning the whole country, such as foreign policy, but each state has its own local powers and laws. EG ...a huge, federal country like the U.S.A... ...the Federal Republic of Germany. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 Federal also means belonging or relating to the central government of a federal country rather than to one of the states within it. EG The company might find the federal government on its side... Mr Stans will be brought to a federal court. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB federalism /fɛ̄dəʰrəlɪzəʰm/ is belief in or support for a federal system of government, or this system itself. EG ...a party dedicated to federalism. ◊ federalist, federalists. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT federate /fɛ̄dəreɪt/, federates, federating, federated. When a group of states or societies federates, it becomes a federation. V-ERG ⇑ unite federation /fɛ̄dəreɪʃəʰn/, federations. A federation is 1 a federal country. EG ...the proposal to form a federation out of Northern and Southern Rhodesia. 2 a group of societies or other organizations which have joined together, usually because they share a common interest. EG It is a federation of 20 regional unions... ...the National Federation of Women's Institutes. N COUNT N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES = association, league fed up. Someone who is fed up is unhappy, bored, or tired of something, especially something that they have been experiencing for quite a long time; an informal expression. EG I should think they're getting pretty fed up with him by now... You sound a bit fed up. ADJ QUALIT : PRED, IF + PREP THEN with/about ⇑ miserable = cheesed off fee /fiː/, fees. A fee is 1 a sum of money that you pay to be allowed to do something. EG ...an entrance fee... ...a registration fee. 2 the amount of money that a person or organization is paid for a particular job or service that they provide. EG ...a fee of one N COUNT ⇑ payment N COUNT ⇑ payment thousand pounds... Agencies charge a fee to find an au pair.

feeble /fi:bə^{l}/, feebler, feeblest. 1 Someone who is feeble 1.1 has very little strength or energy. EG The creature is physically feeble, with poor vision and dull senses. ◊ feebly. EG He waved his hands feebly... He smiled feebly. 1.2 is afraid to do things and is easily controlled or influenced by other people. EG The management was feeble and cowardly.

ADJ QUALIT = weak, puny
◊ ADV WITH VB
ADJ QUALIT ⇑ weak = ineffectual

2 Something that is feeble 2.1 does not have much power, force, or strength. EG ...the feeble light of the bulb in the hallway... 'Hello,' he said in a feeble voice. ◊ feebly. EG The heater glowed feebly in the far corner. 2.2 is not effective, good, or convincing. EG Their attempts at conversation grew even feebler... ...feeble excuses... ...a feeble joke. ◊ feebly. EG 'They seemed all right to me,' I explained feebly.

ADJ QUALIT = weak, puny
◊ ADV WITH VB
ADJ QUALIT ⇑ weak
◊ ADV WITH VB

feeble-minded. Someone who is feeble-minded is unable to think or understand things very quickly.

ADJ QUALIT = slow-witted

feed /fi:d/, feeds, feeding, fed. 1 If you feed a baby, a person who is helpless, or an animal, you give them food, in some cases actually putting the food into their mouth. EG She fed the baby some milk... He had just come back from feeding the ponies with sugar... Garbage was carefully saved and fed to the pig. ◊ feeding, feedings. EG His feeding time was still an hour away.

V + O (NG/REFL) : IF + PREP THEN with/on, V + O + A (to), OR V + O + O
◊ N UNCOUNT / COUNT

2 When an animal or baby feeds, it eats something. EG Not all bats feed on insects... The baby feeds when it is hungry.

V : IF + PREP THEN on/off

3 When a baby or animal has a feed, it is given food. EG What time is the next feed?

N COUNT ⇑ meal

4 Feed is the food that is given to an animal or baby. EG They're growing crops for use as animal feed.

N MASS

5 If you feed a person or a group of people such as your family or a community, you supply or prepare food for them. EG The farmers grew too little to feed even their own families... Are you feeding yourself properly? ● To bite the hand that feeds you: see hand. ● a mouth to feed: see mouth.

V + O (NG/REFL) ⇑ provide for

6 A feed also means a meal; an informal use. EG She gave us a slap-up feed.

N COUNT

7 If you feed a plant, you give it substances that will make it grow well.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/on

8 If you feed something, or feed something else to it, you supply it with what it needs in order to operate, grow, or exist. EG We use their natural resources to feed the factories of Europe... The fires were being fed by escaping gas... Nothing feeds fear so much as ignorance.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/on, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) = fuel

9 If something such as a feeling, system, or process feeds on a particular thing or on itself, it continues or becomes greater or stronger because of the existence of that thing. EG Once the process has been started it feeds on itself... Anger feeds on disappointment.

V + A (on) = thrive

10 If something is fed into or through something else, it is put into it. EG Extra gas was to be fed into the pipeline... This new data is fed into the computer... I kept feeding coins into the meter... ...when you feed a current through the coil.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN into/in/through ⇑ supply

11 The feed in a machine is the part of it by which or through which it is supplied with something such as fuel. EG ...the petrol feed.

N COUNT ⇑ mechanism

feedback /fi:dbæk/. 1 Feedback consists of comments and information about something that someone has done. It tells them whether or not it was successful or liked. EG The more feedback we get from viewers, the better.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ response

2 Feedback occurs in a machine or system when part of the power, sound, or information that is produced goes back into the machine or system; a technical term. EG They reduced the amount of feedback by moving the microphone.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ return

feeder /fi:də/, feeders. 1 A baby or animal that is a slow feeder, a fussy feeder, etc feeds in the way described. EG ...a baby who is a listless, sleepy feeder.

N COUNT : ADJ + N ⇑ eater

2 A feeder is a minor road, railway line, or air route that leads to a major one.

N COUNT ⇑ link

feeding-bottle, feeding-bottles. A feeding-bottle is a small bottle with a special rubber top through which a baby can suck milk or another liquid.

N COUNT

feeding ground, feeding grounds. The feeding ground of a group of birds or animals is the place where they find food and eat.

N COUNT : SING = PL

feel /fi:l/, feels, feeling, felt. 1 If you feel a particular emotion, sensation, physical state, or attitude, you experience it. EG I felt angry... I was feeling hungry and sleepy... Are you feeling all right now, John?... People feel safer in well-lit streets... Mrs Oliver felt a sudden desire to burst out crying... He felt a sudden pain in his left leg... She felt a fool... I felt like a murderer... He felt as if he hadn't slept at all. ● feel free: see free.

V + C, V + O, OR V + A (like, as if, as though)

2 If you feel a physical object, you touch it deliberately with your hand, so that you learn what it is like, for example what shape it is or whether it is rough or smooth. EG I reach down and feel the aluminium side cover of the engine... Eric felt his face. 'I'm all rough. Am I bleeding?' ▸ used as a noun. EG Have a feel of this.

V + O
▸ N SING : a + N

3 If an object feels heavy, light, rough, soft, smooth, hot, cold, etc when you touch it, you notice that it has the physical quality mentioned. EG How does it feel, warm or cold?... His fork felt heavy... It looks and feels like a normal fabric. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the cool feel of armchair leather... This gives their surface a curious prickly feel.

V + C, OR V + A (like) : NO CONT ⇑ seem
▸ N SING WITH DET + SUPP = texture

4 If an experience, event, or situation feels good, strange, different, etc, it seems to you to have the quality mentioned. EG It felt good to be back... At first it felt strange working with such a great man... It felt as if it would never end... It felt like tea time.

V + C, OR V + A (like/as if) : USU it + V

5 You say that it feels warm or cold, or like winter, summer, etc, when you are describing the weather, usually when you have been outside and experienced it yourself. EG It feels lovely and warm in the garden... It feels like autumn. ● If you say that it feels like rain or snow, you mean that you think it is going to rain or snow.

V : it + V + C OR it + V + A (like/as if) = be
● PHR : VB INFLECTS

6 If you feel something on your skin, you are aware that it is present or happening. EG They felt the wind on their damp faces... He felt a sting on his elbow... Every one of them felt an itching in their feet... She felt his hand pat hers... He could feel the warm blood pouring down his face. ● Someone who feels the cold feels cold easily, and feels very unhappy when they are cold.

V + O : NO CONT
● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ suffer

7 If you feel yourself doing something or being in a particular state, you are aware that something is happening to you which you are unable to control. EG Rudolph could feel himself blushing... Langtry felt himself thrown into the air... He felt himself sliding into obsession... I felt myself being drawn into an argument I would rather have avoided... Ralph felt his lips twitch.

V + O (REFL/NG) + ING, PAST PART, OR INF

8 If you do not feel yourself, you feel slightly ill. EG I don't really feel myself today.

PHR : VB INFLECTS + REFL

9 If you feel something such as the presence of someone or something, you become aware of it, even though you cannot see or hear it. EG He had felt Binta's presence in the hut... I felt his eyes upon my back as I left the room... I could feel the tension in the room.

V + O : USU + A, NO CONT ⇑ perceive = sense

10 If you feel that something is the case, you have a strong idea in your mind that it is the case, although this idea is based on intuition rather than on evidence. EG He felt I was making a terrible mistake... I feel I'm neglecting my duty... They did not feel that they were doing anything wrong... He felt sure that his technique would work... He felt himself to be a failure. ● to feel something in your bones: see bone.

V + REPORT-CL, V + C + REPORT-CL, OR V + O + to-INF : NO CONT ⇑ believe = sense

11 If you feel that you should or must do something, you think that you should or must do it. EG I felt I should do something to help them... I felt obliged to invite him in... We felt it our duty to make it public... He felt it necessary to explain why he had come.

V + REPORT-CL, V + C + to-INF, OR V + it + C + to-INF : NO CONT

12 If you feel a particular way about something, you have that opinion about it or that attitude or reaction to it. EG She knew how I felt about totalitarianism... He felt strongly about what he regarded as unfairness.

V + A : IF + PREP THEN about, NO CONT

13 You say that you feel that you want to do something to say and emphasize that you want and intend to do it. EG I feel I'd like to say something about what happened last week... I felt that I wanted to see him at least once more.

V + REPORT-CL : NO CONT

14 If you feel like having something or doing something, you want to have it or do it because you are in the right mood for it and think you would enjoy it. EG Whenever I felt like talking they were ready to listen... I feel like a stroll... I feel like a drink... I feel like saying, 'Why don't you shut up?'

PHR : VB INFLECTS = fancy

15 If you feel the effect or result of something, you experience it. EG The consequences of the computer revolution will be felt in the short-term future... We shan't feel the effect of the change for some years... The strength of the mass movement will be felt in Parliament.

V + O = notice

16 The feel of something, for example a place, is the general impression that it gives you. EG The Brazilian Amazon has the feel of a tropical wild west... This had a very different feel about it. ● If you get the feel of something, for example a place or a new activity, you become familiar with it. EG I spent the first week talking to people and generally getting the feel of the place.

N SING WITH DET + SUPP = atmosphere

● PHR : VB INFLECTS = get used to 17 Someone who is feeling their way is learning about a new situation and so is behaving more cautiously than they normally would. EG I'd like to stick to the plan because I'm still feeling my way.

PHR ⇑ uncertain

18 See also feeling, felt.

feel around. If you feel around somewhere or in something, you use your hands rather than your eyes to find things there. EG He unbuttoned the coat and felt around in his jacket.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = grope, fumble feel for. 1 If you feel for an object you try to find it by using your hands rather than your eyes. EG She felt in her bag for her key... A finger felt for the nerve spot below the ear.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ⇑ search for

2 If you feel for someone, you have sympathy for them. EG Boy, I feel for you guys.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

feeler /fiːlə/, feelers. 1 An insect's feelers are the two thin stalks on its head with which it touches and senses things around it. EG It has two feelers at the front of the head.

N COUNT : USU PL = antenna

2 If you put or have feelers out, you suggest something in an informal and tentative way in order to discover what people's reaction will be, or in order to find out something. EG Already feelers were out about another script.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

feeler gauge, feeler gauges; also spelled with a hyphen. A feeler gauge is a thin metal strip of a particular thickness that is used to measure a narrow gap.

N COUNT ⇑ tool

feeling /fiːlɪŋ/, feelings. 1 A feeling is an emotion, such as anger or happiness. EG ...strong feelings of jealousy... A feeling of panic was rising in him... She had the most horrible guilty feeling... I didn't like him and I was sure the feeling was mutual.

N COUNT : USU + SUPP

2 Your feelings are the things that you think and feel about something but do not necessarily express to other people, for example your emotions or your attitudes towards other people. EG She dare not express her feelings... He was unsure of his real feelings... They cannot put their feelings into words... She tried to hide her feelings as much as possible.

N PLURAL : USU POSS + N ⇑ thoughts

3 Feeling is a way of thinking and reacting to things which is emotional and spontaneous rather than logical and rational. EG ...the difference between reason and feeling... She cried out in a voice rich in real feeling, 'It means so much to me!'

N UNCOUNT = emotion

4 Feeling for someone is sympathy and caring for them. EG He may be moved by feeling for his fellow-citizens... ...a community of feeling.

N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN for ⇑ concern

5 A feeling of, for example hunger or tiredness is a physical sensation that you experience. EG Soon many of them noticed an itchy feeling on parts of the body exposed... He had the most appalling depression, accompanied by feelings of nausea, and a bitter, dry mouth.

N COUNT + SUPP

6 Feeling in part of your body is the ability to experience the sense of touch in this part of the body. EG I've lost the feeling in my left arm... He lost all feeling in his legs.

N UNCOUNT

7 A feeling is also a sensation that you experience both physically and emotionally. EG There was no feeling in the world as good as being airborne.

N COUNT + SUPP

8 If you have a feeling about something, 8.1 you have an opinion, thought, or idea about it that is based on your intuition rather than on things you know. EG My feeling is that it would work very well... I had a feeling that no one thought I was sufficiently good... I'm not sure, but I have a nasty feeling that it's here at home... I got the feeling that it was intended to kill them stone dead... My own feelings would be very much that schools have to make these decisions for themselves. 8.2 you have an idea that something is going to happen or that something is true, although you have no proof or no logical reason for believing it. EG It might be bad. He just had a feeling about it... There's nothing in it of course. Just a feeling.

N COUNT : USU + REPORT-CL, SING = PL = impression

N SING : a + N

9 Your feeling about something is also your general attitude towards it or the view that you have about it. EG Americans had, and have, a quite different feeling about the press... As Party Treasurer, he echoed the gut feeling of the trade unions... You can keep her in touch with grass roots feelings in the company... Socialist feeling was very strong in the village.

N COUNT / UNCOUNT : USU SING + SUPP

10 A feeling is also the way in which you see and think about yourself or the situation you are in. EG You would no longer have this feeling of being surrounded by hostility.

N SING WITH DET + SUPP = consciousness

11 If you have a feeling for something, you have an understanding of it. EG He went to get a feeling for the situation at first hand... I have always had a tremendous feeling for Russian literature.

N SING : a + N + for 12 The feeling that a place has or that a book, play, etc creates is the atmosphere that it has or creates. EG The place did have a real medieval feeling... A lot of people remark on the happy kind of feeling at the factory... There was a tremendous feeling of urgency and excitement.

N SING WITH DET + SUPP = feel

13 If you hurt someone's feelings, you upset them by something that you say or do. EG He spoke gently; he didn't want to hurt her feelings... I don't go around deliberately hurting people's feelings.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

14 If you have mixed feelings about something or someone, you feel uncertain about them because you can see both good and bad points about them. EG She had mixed feelings about pregnancy... Most executives have mixed feelings about whether trade unions are a 'good thing'.

PHR : VB INFLECTS : IF + PREP THEN about ⇑ be uncertain

15 Bad feeling is resentment, bitterness, or anger which exists between people, for example after they have had an argument. EG This only gives rise to more resentment, bad feeling and aggravation... There was bad feeling between them.

PHR : USED AS O ⇑ hostility ≠ goodwill

16 Hard feelings are feelings of anger or bitterness towards someone who you have had an argument with or who has upset you. EG She got up at once and, without any apparent hard feelings, walked out.

PHR : USU USED AS O = resentment

17 You say 'I know the feeling' to say that you understand and sympathize with the problem or difficult experience that someone is telling you about. EG 'I don't hold my liquor very well.' Ellen nodded. 'I know the feeling.'

CONVENTION

feet /fiːt/ is the plural of foot.

feign /feɪn/, feigns, feigning, feigned. If you feign an emotion or feeling, you behave as if you are experiencing this emotion or feeling in order to deceive people; a literary word. EG She knew that her efforts to feign cheerfulness weren't convincing... 'I thought you must know,' Dixon said with feigned surprise.

V + O ⇑ pretend = affect feint /feɪnt/, feints, feinting, feinted. 1 A feint is a misleading action or movement, especially in boxing, intended to confuse or deceive your opponent. EG The contest becomes mainly one of feint and counter-feint. ▸ used as a verb. EG The two bulls, after a great deal of skilful feinting, withdrew to opposite ends of the field.

N UNCOUNT / COUNT ⇑ distraction = play

▸ V OR V + O = manoeuvring

2 Feint is used to refer to paper that has pale lines across it for writing on. EG ...a pad of narrow feint.

N UNCOUNT

felicitous /fɪˈlɪsɪtəs/. Something such as a word, expression, or image that is felicitous is particularly suitable, appropriate, and well-chosen. EG Nationalization is a word which is neither very felicitous nor free from ambiguity... ...an example of the felicitous conjunction of poetry and image.

ADJ QUALIT = happy, fitting felicity /fɪˈlɪsɪtiˈ/, felicities; a formal or literary word. 1 Felicity is 1.1 great happiness and pleasure. EG It has little or nothing to do with the felicity of marriage. 1.2 the quality of being good, pleasant, or desirable. EG ...small moments of architectural madness and felicity amidst acres of monotony.

N UNCOUNT = bliss

N UNCOUNT = grace

2 Felicities are particularly suitable or well-chosen remarks.

N COUNT : USU PL

feline /fiːlaɪn/, felines. 1 Feline means belonging or relating to the cat family.

ADJ CLASSIF

2 A feline is an animal that belongs to the cat family. EG ...information on the care of felines.

N COUNT ⇑ mammal

3 Someone who is described as feline resembles a cat in appearance or in the graceful, quiet way that they move or behave. EG On the screen she had a feline feminine charm that made her irresistible.

ADJ QUALIT = slinky

fell /fel/, fells, felling, felled. 1 A fell is a mountain, hill, or moor, especially in the North of England. EG ...recent floods in the fell country... ...the sheep on the fell tops. N COUNT, OR N BEFORE N

2 If you fell a tree, you cut it down. V+O

3 If you fell someone, you knock them down, for example in a fight. EG This blow would have felled most men. V+O = floor

4 with one fell swoop: see swoop.

5 Fell is also the past tense of fall.

fellow /felǝʊ/, fellows; also spelled fella or feller in informal English for paragraphs 1 and 2. Fella and feller are both pronounced /felǝ/. 1 A fellow is a man; an informal term often used affectionately, especially in rather old-fashioned English. EG Doug is an exceedingly amiable fellow... My dear fellow, I really am sorry... What do you other fellers have to say?... Okay fellas, we're doing fine. N COUNT : ALSO VOC = chap

2 A woman's fellow is her boyfriend or lover; an informal use. EG You didn't expect me to say it in front of her fellow, did you? N COUNT : POSS + N ⇑ man = bloke

3 Fellow is used to describe a person or people who have something in common with you, for example because they are doing the same job, work for the same company, have the same nationality, or simply because they too are human beings. EG I've always trusted my fellow men... You will soon feel at ease with your fellow students or workers... During the flight I had a conversation with a fellow passenger. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 Your fellows are the people who share work or an activity with you or who are like you in some way. EG He sought the approval of his fellows... People have given their lives to save their fellows. N PLURAL : POSS + N ⇑ associates = comrades

5 A fellow of a society or academic institution is a member of it. EG ...Sir George Porter, Fellow of the Royal Society. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLE fellow feeling is sympathy and friendship that exists between people who have shared similar experiences or difficulties. N UNCOUNT fellowship /felǝʰʃɪp/, fellowships. 1 Fellowship is a feeling of friendship that people have when they are talking or doing something together and sharing their experiences. EG We meet regularly for fellowship... There is a great amount of good fellowship and love in people. N UNCOUNT ⇑ companionship

2 A fellowship is a group of people that join together for a common purpose or interest. EG Healy set up a new body, the Socialist Fellowship. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ society

3 A fellowship at a university is a post which involves research work. N COUNT felon /felǝn/, felons. A felon is a person who is guilty of a felony; a legal term. N COUNT ⇑ criminal felony /felǝni[1]/, felonies. Felony or a felony is a very serious crime such as murder or armed robbery; a legal term. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT felt /felt/. 1 Felt is the past tense and past participle of feel.

2 Felt is also a material made from wool or other fibres packed tight together to form a thick cloth. EG ...an old brown felt hat. N UNCOUNT felt-tip, felt-tips. A felt-tip or a felt-tip pen is a pen which has a thin piece of fibre for a nib. EG Jane is wondering if you know where her felt tips are. N COUNT

fem. is an abbreviation for 'female' or 'feminine'.

female /fi:meɪl/, females. 1 A female is 1.1 an animal that belongs to the sex that can have babies. EG The male fertilizes the female's eggs. ▸ used as an adjective. EG A female toad may lay 20,000 eggs each season. 1.2 a woman or girl; a formal or technical use which some people find offensive. EG ...a lone female staying at a hotel... ...the new liberated female... ...a perfect job for ambitious females. ▸ used as an adjective. EG There are only nineteen female members of the government... I could see a small female figure coming towards us. N COUNT ≠ male ▸ ADJ CLASSIF ≠ male N COUNT ⇑ human ▸ ADJ CLASSIF ≠ male

2 Something that is female concerns, relates to, or affects women rather than men. EG ...female inventions... ...the cause of female equality... ...the decline in traditionally female areas of work. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = women's ≠ male

3 Female is a group or category that represents females. EG The old stereotypes of male and female are increasingly being questioned. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...the female sex. N UNCOUNT ≠ male ▸ ADJ CLASSIF ≠ male

4 A female plant or part of a plant contains or consists of the part that will become the fruit when it is fertilized; a technical term. ADJ CLASSIF

5 The female part of a device or piece of equipment is one of two parts which fit together. The male part is pressed into a hole in the female part; a technical term. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ male feminine /femɪnɪn/. 1 Something that is feminine relates to or is considered typical of women, in contrast to men. EG Society hasn't regarded science or engineering as feminine occupations... He had feminine handwriting. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ female ≠ masculine

2 Someone or something that is feminine has qualities that are considered to be characteristic of women, especially in terms of being delicate, pretty, or gentle. EG She became very coquettish and feminine... I dress my daughter in feminine clothes and she wears ribbons in her hair. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ female ≠ masculine

3 A feminine noun, pronoun, etc, in some languages, belongs to a particular class of nouns, pronouns, etc. Words that are feminine have sets of inflections which are different from those of masculine and neuter words. ADJ CLASSIF

femininity /femɪnɪnɪti[1]/. Femininity is 1 the fact of being a woman. EG Masculinity has certain characteristics and femininity has others. 2 qualities that are considered to be feminine, especially those qualities which are considered to be attractive to men. EG The fashion industry responded to the new mood of femininity by creating a new look. N UNCOUNT ≠ masculinity N UNCOUNT ≠ masculinity feminism /femɪnɪzǝᵐm/. Feminism is 1 the political belief that women should have the same rights, power, and opportunity that men have, and that the present situation should be changed to give them equality with men. 2 the social movement based on this belief. N UNCOUNT ⇑ doctrine N UNCOUNT = women's lib feminist /femɪnɪst/, feminists. A feminist is a person who believes in and supports feminism, especially one who actively campaigns to achieve change. EG Claudia thought of herself as a feminist... Lucy was a feminist member of a radical group. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...the feminist response to the new law. N COUNT ▸ ADJ CLASSIF femme fatale /fæm fǝtæl, -tɑ:l/, femmes fatales. A woman who is referred to as a femme fatale is a mysterious, attractive and seductive woman who leads men into dangerous or difficult situations by her charm. N COUNT = charmer femur /fi:mǝ/, femurs, femora. The plural can be either femurs or femora. Your femur is the large bone in the upper part of your leg. N COUNT fen /fen/, fens. An area of low, flat, very wet land is referred to as fen or the fens. EG ...areas of marsh and fen... The landscape of the fens is utterly flat and strangely wild. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT fence /fens/, fences, fencing, fenced. 1 A fence is a barrier between two areas of land, made of wood or wire supported by posts. EG A football had come over the fence from the playing fields... ...a row of fence posts. N COUNT

2 If you fence an area of land, you surround it with a fence. EG I helped him fence a part of the garden. ◊ fenced. EG ...a fenced rectangle of ten acres. V OR V + O : USU V + O ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

3 If you sit on the fence, you avoid supporting a particular side in a discussion or argument. PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 A fence in show jumping or horse racing is a frame or artificial hedge that horses have to jump over. N COUNT ⇑ obstacle = hurdle

5 When two sportsmen fence, they use special thin swords to fight as a sport: see fencing. V

6 If you say that two people are fencing when they are talking to each other, you mean that they are answering each other's remarks cleverly but evasively, often because each of them is trying to get an advantage over the other one; a formal use. EG We fenced like this for a while, weighing each other up. V OR V + A (with) : RECIP = spar

7 A fence is also a person who receives and then sells stolen property; an informal word. N COUNT fence in. 1 If you fence something in, you surround it completely with a fence. EG It stands on a sloping road which is fenced in by iron railings. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

2 If someone or something fences you in, they are so close to you that you are or feel you are unable to move or leave. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ restrict = hem in fence off. If you fence off an area of land, you build a fence round it. EG The railway line was fenced off. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ separate fencing /fensɪŋ/. Fencing is 1 a sport in which two competitors fight each other using very thin swords. N UNCOUNT

The ends of the swords are covered, and the competitors wear protective clothes, so that they do not hurt each other. 2 materials, for example wood or wire, that are used to make fences. EG ...cedar wood fencing. — N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP fend /fɛnd/, fends, fending, fended. If you have to fend for yourself, you have to look after yourself without relying on help from anyone else. EG Grown up children should leave home and fend for themselves. — PHR : VB INFLECTS = support yourself fend off. 1 If you fend off someone who is attacking you, you use your arms or something such as a stick to defend yourself from their blows. EG He raised his arms to fend off the blows. — PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ repel = ward off

2 If you fend off unwanted questions, enquiries, problems, people, etc, you deal with them in a defensive way to prevent yourself being affected or harmed by them. EG It was the first time Daniel had spoken, except to fend off questions... He was continually fending off unwanted meals. — PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O = fight off fender /fɛndə/, fenders. A fender is 1 a low metal wall around a fireplace, which stops any coals that fall out of the fire from rolling onto the carpet. 2 a fireguard. 3 a solid but soft object, such as an old tyre or a coil of rope, which hangs over the side of a boat to protect it when it comes alongside other boats or a harbour wall. 4 a wing of a car; used in American English. — N COUNT ⇑ guard / N COUNT ⇑ buffer / N COUNT fennel /fɛnə^{əl}l/ is a plant with a crisp rounded base and feathery leaves. It can be eaten as a vegetable or used as a herb. — N UNCOUNT feral /fɛrəl, fɪə-/ means wild or uncultivated; used especially to describe animals that used to be kept by people but have now become wild again; a formal word. EG Very young feral kittens may settle well into domestic life. ...the feral instinct. — ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ferment, ferments, fermenting, fermented. The noun in paragraph 1 is pronounced /fɜːmɛnt/, and the verb in paragraph 2 is pronounced /fə^{s}mɛnt/. 1 Ferment is excitement and unrest caused by change or uncertainty. EG Portugal was in ferment... ...the reason for the present ferment in education... All the political ferment has produced a new leadership. — N UNCOUNT = commotion, upheaval

2 When wine, beer, fruit, dough, etc ferments, a chemical change takes place in it. EG Cover it up and leave it to ferment... Don't try bottling it as it may still be fermenting. ◊ fermented. EG ...the whiff of fermented apples... ...jars full of half-fermented rhubarb wine. ◊ fermentation/fɜːmɛnteɪʃə^{n}/, fermentations. EG Fermentation ceases when a certain amount of sugar has been converted to alcohol... ...yeast from a previous fermentation. — V : ERG ⇑ react / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ◊ N UNCOUNT / COUNT fern /fɜːn/, ferns. Fern can also be used as the plural form. A fern is a plant that has long stems with feathery leaves. There are many different types of fern, none of which produce flowers. — N COUNT ferocious /fərəʊʃəs/. 1 An animal or person that is ferocious behaves in a very violent and cruel way. EG ...the shrieks of someone caught by some ferocious animal... ▸ used of actions and behaviour. EG The stillness was broken by the ferocious barking of a dog... ...a ferocious assault... ...a ferocious expression. ◊ ferociously. — ADJ QUALIT = fierce, savage / ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 A ferocious war, argument, or other form of conflict involves a great deal of aggression, bitterness, and determination. EG ...two years of bitter and ferocious fighting... ...Nicholson's ferocious criticisms of the civil service... This had produced a ferocious atmosphere of competition. ◊ ferociously. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ determined = fierce, savage / ◊ ADV WITH VB

3 A ferocious knife, dagger, etc is one that looks especially sharp and able to do a lot of damage. EG They were armed with ferocious daggers... ...a gateway with ferocious spikes. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dangerous = vicious

4 Something that is described as ferocious is so strong or extreme that it is unpleasant or unacceptable. EG By midday, the heat is just ferocious... No doubt the ferocious climate had an influence on the customs. ◊ ferociously. EG The play has been ferociously cut. — ADJ QUALIT = fierce / ◊ ADV = savagely ferocity /fərɒsɪti^{1}/ is the quality of being violent, or aggressive and intense. EG The attack was resumed with a new ferocity at first light... He had never heard such ferocity in a man's voice. — N UNCOUNT ⇑ strength = intensity

ferret /fɛrɪt/, ferrets, ferreting, ferreted. 1 A ferret is a small, white, fierce animal related to the weasel, which is kept by people for hunting rabbits and rats. — N COUNT

2 If you go ferreting, you hunt rats or rabbits with ferrets. — V

3 If you ferret about in something, you search busily in it by pushing and pulling things about; an informal expression. EG Do stop ferreting about and come and sit down! — V + A = rummage ferret out. If you ferret out information about something, you discover it by searching very thoroughly and with determination; an informal expression. — PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ find = unearth ferrous /fɛrəs/ means containing or relating to iron. EG ...ferrous metals... ...ferrous sulphate. — ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ferrule /fɛruːl, -əl/, ferrules. A ferrule is a metal or rubber cap or band that is fixed onto the end of a stick or post to prevent it splitting or wearing down. — N COUNT ⇑ tip ferry /fɛri^{1}/, ferries, ferrying, ferried. 1 A ferry is a boat that transports passengers and sometimes also vehicles, usually across rivers or short stretches of sea. EG The ferry wasn't terribly busy... We got back to London by train and ferry... ...car ferries and steamers... ...Channel ferry crossings. — N COUNT, OR by + N = ferryboat

2 To ferry people or goods somewhere means to transport them; usually used when the journeys are done regularly. EG They were ferried from one state building to another... The newspaper reported on Friday that the plane had been ferrying military supplies. — V + O : USU + A ⇑ take ferryboat /fɛri^{1}bəʊt/, ferryboats. A ferryboat is a boat used as a ferry. EG I had hoped we might find an unofficial ferryboat crossing or footbridge. — N COUNT = ferry fertile /fɜːtaɪl/. 1 Land or soil that is fertile is able to support the growth of a lot of strong healthy plants. EG ...valleys so fertile that three crops a year can grow... ...the light, fertile soil of this sparsely populated land. ◊ fertility /fɜːtɪlɪti^{1}/. EG They use cow dung as fuel instead of using it to maintain soil fertility. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ productive = rich ≠ barren / ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ productivity

2 A fertile mind or imagination is able to produce a lot of good or original ideas. EG Clearly, we are in the realm of fertile imagination rather than historical record... His fertile brain worked away on the idea of a universal cure. ◊ fertility. EG It's a very experimental novel. It has incredible fertility of invention. — ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ productive = lively, creative / ◊ N UNCOUNT + SUPP

3 A situation or environment that is fertile in relation to a particular activity is especially suitable for and helpful to the success of this activity. EG Britain is not fertile ground for news magazines. — ADJ QUALIT = productive

4 A person or animal that is fertile is able to reproduce and have babies or young. EG ...fertile women with several children. ◊ fertility. EG Women could not advance without full control of their fertility... Fertility rates have continued to decline. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ productive / ◊ N UNCOUNT fertilize /fɜːtɪlaɪz/, fertilizes, fertilizing, fertilized; also spelled fertilise. 1 When an egg, a plant, or a female is fertilized, the sperm joins with the egg, or pollen from one plant comes into contact with the reproductive part of another, causing the process of reproduction to begin. EG ...a tree which somehow manages to feed and fertilize itself... The males fertilise the eggs as they are laid... The eggs are immediately fertilized by the male's sperm. ◊ fertilized. EG The fertilised egg remains where it is for one more week. ◊ fertilization /fɜːtɪlaɪzeɪʃə^{n}/. EG ...the small amount of pollen necessary for fertilization. — V + O : USU PASS = inseminate / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF / ◊ N UNCOUNT = insemination

2 To fertilize land means to spread manure or a chemical mixture on it in order to make plants grow well. EG ...foods grown on land that is fertilised by manure. — V + O ⇑ nourish fertilizer /fɜːtɪlaɪzə/, fertilizers; also spelled fertiliser. Fertilizer is a substance such as manure or a chemical mixture that you spread on the ground in order to make plants grow more successfully. EG This requires greater use of fertilizer... Soon the cost of the fertilizer will be greater than the profit from the crop. ...producing vegetables without the use of fertilizers and pesticides. — N MASS ⇑ supplement fervent /fɜːvənt/. Someone who is fervent about something has or shows strong feelings about it, and is very sincere and enthusiastic about it. EG ...a fervent belief in God... He had been one of Lily's most fervent admirers... ...a fervent supporter of Britain's membership of the EEC. ◊ fervently. EG 'Oh, I am glad!' Scylla said fervently... Both of them fervently believed in the document. — ADJ QUALIT = passionate, ardent / ◊ ADV WITH VB = devoutly fervid /fɜːvɪd/ means the same as fervent; a formal use. EG ...full of fervid and misplaced loyalties. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB fervour /fɜːvə/; also spelled fervor in American English. Fervour for something is a very strong feeling for or belief in it; a formal word. EG ...a tide of patriotic fervour... 'She's marvellous,' said Mrs Moffatt with fervour. N UNCOUNT ⇑ emotion = enthusiasm festal /fɛstəl/ means relating to a festival or celebration; a formal word. EG ...as though some primitive festal act was taking place. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = festive fester /fɛstə/, festers, festering, festered. 1 If a wound festers, it becomes infected. EG ...a painful, festering sore. V ⇑ decay = suppurate

2 If a difficult or unpleasant situation, feeling, or thought festers, it grows worse and is characterized by increasing bitterness, anger, and hatred. EG ...allowing inner cities to fester and become breeding grounds for hatred and violence... His memories festered into hate... ...an anger that must find outlet or fester inwardly. V ⇑ deteriorate festival /fɛstɪvə^{0}l/, festivals. A festival is 1 an organized event or series of events such as musical concerts or drama productions. EG ...an amateur performance at the Edinburgh Festival... This year the San Sebastian Film Festival has been paying homage to Zeffirelli. 2 a date or time of the year when people have a holiday from work and celebrate some special event, especially a religious event. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N festive /fɛstɪv/. Something that is festive is full of colour and happiness and so is appropriate to a holiday or celebration. EG The atmosphere is really festive and friendly... ...at Christmas time or on other festive occasions. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ happy = joyous festivity /fɛstɪvɪtɪ^{1}/, festivities. 1 Festivity is the celebration of something and the atmosphere of happiness and enjoyment that is a result of this. EG ...a spirit of joy and festivity... He entered the village almost unobserved amid the general festivity. N UNCOUNT

2 Festivities are the things that are arranged and done to celebrate something. EG The week is crammed with festivities... Ash enjoyed the wedding festivities as much as anyone. N PLURAL ⇑ event = celebrations festoon /fɛstuːn/, festoons, festooning, festooned. If you festoon something with decorations, lights, or other things, you spread or hang these things over it in large numbers in order to decorate it. EG The counters were festooned with rainbow coloured scarves... The garden was festooned with coloured lights. V + O : USU PASS + with = garland, bedeck fetal /fiːtə^{0}l/. See foetal.

fetch /fɛtʃ/, fetches, fetching, fetched. 1 If you fetch something or someone, you bring them from somewhere by going there in order to get them. EG My mum goes to work in the morning and fetches me on her way home... He fetched a bucket of water from the pond... I went and fetched another glass... I don't want you to fetch anything for me... His brother had to be sent to fetch him back. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (for)

2 To fetch and carry means to perform simple and often boring tasks for someone, such as collecting and carrying things for them. PHR : VBS INFLECT

3 If something that is being sold fetches a particular sum of money, it is sold for this amount of money. EG His pictures fetch very high prices... He had decided to sell the machinery for what it would fetch. V + O = get, bring

4 If you fetch someone a blow, you hit them; an informal usage. V + O + O

5 see also fetching, far-fetched.

fetch up. If you fetch up somewhere, you arrive there; used especially when you have not planned where you are going; an informal expression used mainly in American English. PHRASAL VB : V.ERG + ADV = land up fetching /fɛtʃɪŋ/. A woman or a piece of clothing that looks fetching, looks attractive. EG Melanie looked remarkably fetching this evening in a white dress. ◊ fetchingly. EG She was in her early twenties and fetchingly pretty. ADJ QUALIT = captivating ◊ ADV WITH VB fete /feɪt/, fetes, feting, feted. 1 A fete is an event that is usually held outdoors and includes competitions, entertainments, and the selling of second-hand or homemade goods. EG The money was raised through a summer fete... ...the church fete. N COUNT = bazaar

2 If someone is feted, a public welcome is provided for them in honour or admiration of what they have achieved. EG In New York, Karen Blixen was being feted by everyone who knew her work. V + O : USU PASS = fuss over fetid /fɛtɪd, fiː-/. Something, especially water, that is fetid has a strong, very unpleasant smell; a formal word. ADJ CLASSIF = rank fetish /fɛtɪʃ, fiːtɪʃ/, fetishes. A fetish is 1 a strong liking or need for a particular object or activity which gives a person sexual pleasure and excitement. EG Stealing knickers is a well recognized minor fetish. 2 an activity that you have an extremely strong liking for or that you do a great deal; used to suggest that your interest in something is excessive. EG Cleanliness is almost a fetish with her. N COUNT ⇑ obsession = fixation fetishism /fɛtɪʃɪzə^{0}m, fiː-/ is the condition of having a fetish. N COUNT = mania fetlock /fɛtlɒk/, fetlocks. A horse's fetlock is the back part of its leg, just above the hoof, which sticks out and has longer hairs on it. N UNCOUNT fetter /fɛtə/, fetters, fettering, fettered. 1 If something fetters you, it prevents you from behaving in a free and natural way. EG ...the forces that fetter our souls... This does not mean that we wish to fetter the trade union movement. ▸ used as a noun. EG They will run wild freed from the fetters of control. V + O ⇑ restrict = inhibit ▸ N COUNT : USU PL = shackles

2 A fetter is also one of a pair of chains for a prisoner's feet, used especially in former times. N COUNT : USU PL = shackle fettle /fɛtə^{0}l/. If someone or something is in fine fettle, they are in very good condition or health; an informal expression. PHR : USED AS AN A = on form fetus /fiːtəs/, fetuses. See foetus.

feud /fjuːd/, feuds, feuding, feuded. A feud is a long-lasting and bitter quarrel or dispute between two people or groups. EG There was a long-standing feud between Kurt and Fullarton... His feud with the Premier proceeded remorselessly. ▸ used as a verb. EG The two families had been feuding for years. N COUNT = vendetta ▸ V OR V + A (with) : RECIP feudal /fjuːdə^{0}l/ means relating to the system or the time of feudalism. EG ...feudal lords... ...a feudal society. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB feudalism /fjuːdə^{0}lɪzə^{0}m/ is a system in which people are given land and protection by lords and work and fight for the lords in return. N UNCOUNT fever /fiːvə/, fevers. 1 If you have a fever when you are ill, you have a body temperature that is higher than usual and a quick heartbeat. EG Nancy got a fever which eventually shot up to 106 degrees. ● See also hay fever, rheumatic fever, scarlet fever. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 A fever is also used to refer to extreme excitement or agitation about something. EG Everyone was in a fever of excitement... He stayed calm through the fever of the campaign... His father had succumbed to the Chinese fever for gambling. N COUNT : USU + SUPP = frenzy

fevered /fiːvəd/ means the same as feverish. EG The intervening hours were spent in a fevered guessing game as to what the message would be... The men lay sick on the deck, rubbing fevered chests and foreheads. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB feverish /fiːvə^{0}rɪʃ/. 1 Feverish emotion is characterized by extreme agitation or excitement. EG There was a kind of feverish excitement in his voice. ◊ feverishly. EG I stood at the living-room window, feverishly awaiting my darling's return. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ agitated = frenzied ≠ calm ◊ ADV WITH VB = impatiently

2 Feverish activity is done extremely quickly, often in a state of agitation because you want to finish it as soon as possible. EG The next few hours were a feverish race against time. ◊ feverishly. EG They worked so feverishly that there was no time for talk. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ energetic = frantic ◊ ADV WITH VB = frenetically

3 If you are feverish, you are suffering from a fever. EG He felt flushed, almost feverish... She looked feverish. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ hot fever pitch; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. If something is at fever pitch, it is characterized by a state of extreme excitement. EG Our excitement reached fever pitch on the day of the wedding. N UNCOUNT ⇑ peak = delirium few /fjuː/, fewer, fewest. 1 Few is used 1.1 to refer to a small number of units of time when you are considering an approximate period of time. EG During the first few weeks, I didn't understand a word... I'll get this play typed out in the next few days... Every few weeks he and his wife would ask Brody. 1.2 to refer to a small number of things in a series of things. EG The first few poems are very good. 1.3 to refer to a small number of things or people when the number is smaller than you would expect. EG Very few people survived... There are fewer trains late at night... Changes in policy were few. ▸ used as a pronoun. EG Many of us tried but ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB QUANTIF + N IN PL ≠ many ▸ PRON very few succeeded... Few of them ever reach their potential... Few small businesses apply for them and even fewer obtain them.

2 A few things or people means a small number of them, but not very many. EG I'll be going to London for a few days... He will try it a few more times... These creatures are only a few centimetres long... ...a few hundred pounds. ▸ used as a pronoun. EG A few were smoking... 'I know lots of ways,' and I told him a few... We had started to develop some friendships with a few of them.

QUANTIF + N IN PL ⇑ some

▸ PRON

3 As few as is used when stating a number to suggest that it is surprisingly small. EG Some centipedes have more than two hundred legs and some have as few as eight.

PHR + NUM ⇑ only

4 No fewer than is used when stating a number to suggest that it is surprisingly large. EG No fewer than five cameramen lost their lives.

PHR + NUM = as many as

5 Quite a few, a good few, and not a few are expressions used to say that you are referring to quite a lot of things or people, but not an unusually large number. EG We had quite a few friendly arguments... I spent a good few years of my life there.

QUANTIF + N IN PL ⇑ many = several

6 Things that are few and far between occur very infrequently, or are very uncommon. EG The really top fashion houses are few and far between unless you go abroad.

PHR : USED AS C ⇑ rare = scarce

7 If you have had a few too many or have had a few, you have drunk too many alcoholic drinks; an informal expression.

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ drink

8 The few means a small set of people when they are thought of as separate from the majority, especially because they share a particular opportunity or quality which the others do not have. EG We are seeing a concentration of wealth and power in the hands of the few... He finally appeared to delight the few of us who remained.

N PLURAL : the + N ⇑ minority fey /feɪ/. Someone who is fey behaves in a vague, strange, and rather silly way. EG They may well have been irritatingly fey at times. ▸ used of people's ideas and behaviour. EG ...her fey imaginings.

ADJ QUALIT = whimsical fez /fez/, fezzes. A fez is a round, red hat which has a flat top with a tassel hanging from it and no brim.

N COUNT ⇑ cap

ff. 1 When ff. is written after a particular page, line, etc has been mentioned, it means 'and the following pages, lines, etc'. EG See p. 28 ff.
2 ff is a written abbreviation for 'fortissimo'.

fiancé /fiˈɒnseɪ/, fiancés. A woman's fiancé is the man to whom she is engaged to be married.

N COUNT : USU POSS + N

fiancée /fiˈɒnseɪ/, fiancées. A man's fiancée is the woman to whom he is engaged to be married.

N COUNT : USU POSS + N

fiasco /fiˈæskəʊ/, fiascos. American English uses the spelling fiascoes for the plural form. An action or attempt that fails completely can be described or referred to as a fiasco. EG The meeting was a fiasco... ...as a result of the recent Janet Cooke fiasco.

N COUNT ⇑ disaster, blunder

fiat /faɪəˈt/, fiats. A fiat is an official order given by someone in authority; a formal word.

N COUNT

fib /fɪb/, fibs, fibbing, fibbed; an informal word.
1 A fib is a small lie which is not very important. EG Clearly either Waddell or Carmichael was telling fibs.

N COUNT

2 If you are fibbing, you are telling lies. EG It isn't true! You're fibbing!

V ⇑ lie

fibber /fɪbə/, fibbers. A fibber is someone who tells fibs; an informal word.

N COUNT ⇑ liar

fibre /faɪbə/, fibres; also spelled fiber in American English. 1 A fibre is a thin thread of a natural or artificial substance, especially one that is used to make cloth or rope. EG Wigs were woven of long fibres.

N COUNT

2 A particular fibre is a type of cloth or other material that is made from or consists of threads. EG ...the development of artificial fibres... There was a big demand for cotton fibre.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

3 Fibre is parts of plants or seeds which you eat that your body cannot digest. Fibre is useful because it makes food move quickly through your body. EG Scientists are recommending people to eat more fibre.

N UNCOUNT = roughage

4 A fibre is also a thin piece of flesh like a thread which connects nerve cells in your body or which muscles are made of. EG ...a simple network of nerve fibres.

N COUNT : USU MOD + N ⇑ tissue

5 Moral fibre is the quality of being brave and determined to do what is right. EG We must cure the widespread lack of faith and moral fibre.

N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ strength

6 If you say that you feel something with every fibre of your being, you mean that you feel it very deeply; a literary use. EG I love my country with every fibre of my being.

N COUNT + SUPP

fibreglass /faɪbəglɑːs/; also spelled fiberglass in American English. Fibreglass is 1 plastic strengthened with short, thin threads of glass. EG ...the fibreglass deck of the boat. 2 a material made from short, thin threads of glass which can be used to keep heat in.

N UNCOUNT

N UNCOUNT

fibre optic /faɪbərᵊ ɒptɪk/, fibre optics. Fibre optic is an adjective and fibre optics is an uncount noun. 1 Fibre optics is the use of long thin threads of glass to carry information in the form of light.

N UNCOUNT

2 Fibre optic means relating to or involved in fibre optics. EG ...a fibre optic cable.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

fibrous /faɪbrəs/. Something that is fibrous contains a lot of fibres or fibre, or looks like fibres. EG They eat a great deal of fibrous twigs and woody material.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ stringy

fibula /fɪbjəˈlə/, fibulae, fibulas. The plural can be either fibulae or fibulas. The fibula is the outer bone of the two bones in your leg between the knee and the ankle; a technical term in medicine.

N COUNT

fickle /fɪkəᵊl/. 1 Someone who is fickle keeps changing their mind about what they like or want; used showing disapproval. EG She was extremely fickle. ◊ fickleness. EG ...the fickleness of public taste.

ADJ QUALIT = capricious ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If a wind or the weather is fickle, it changes often and suddenly.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unstable

fiction /fɪkʃəᵊn/, fictions. 1 Fiction refers to books or stories about people and events invented by the author, rather than books about real events or things. EG Her interests include painting and reading fiction... He was a fiction writer mainly... Happy marriages may be more common in fiction than in real life. See also science fiction.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ literature

2 A statement or account that is fiction is not true. EG You can't tell the difference between truth and fiction.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ invention

3 A fiction is something that you say or pretend is true but in fact is not. EG ...the replacement of facts by comforting fictions... We had to keep up the fiction of being a normal couple.

N COUNT ⇑ deceit = lie fictional /fɪkʃəᵊnəl, -ʃənəᵊl/. 1 A fictional character, thing, or event is one that occurs in a story, play, or film but never actually existed or happened. EG ...a musical about a fictional composer called Moony Shapiro.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ invented = literary

2 Fictional means relating to fiction or involving the telling of an invented story. EG ...a clever fictional device... ...the fictional treatment of adultery.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

3 Something that is fictional does not exist or is not the case, although it is said or thought to exist or be the case. EG Its internal unity was in large measure fictional.

ADJ CLASSIF = fictitious fictionalization /fɪkʃəᵊnəlaɪzeɪʃəᵊn/, fictionalizations. A fictionalization is a fictionalized account of a real event.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ adaptation

fictionalize /fɪkʃəᵊnəlaɪz/, fictionalizes, fictionalizing, fictionalized; also spelled fictionalise. If you fictionalize an account of something that actually happened, you tell it as a story, with some details changed or added. ◊ fictionalized. EG ...a fictionalized autobiography.

V + O ⇑ adapt ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

fictitious /fɪktɪʃəs/. 1 Something that is fictitious is false or does not exist, although it is said or thought to be real or true or to exist. EG They bought the materials under fictitious names.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ invented = non-existent

2 A fictitious character, thing, or event is one that occurs in a story, play, or film but never actually existed or happened.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ invented

fiddle /fɪdəᵊl/, fiddles, fiddling, fiddled. 1 If you fiddle with something, you keep moving it or touching it with your fingers with small movements, for example because you are nervous or bored. EG He sat nervously fiddling with his spectacles.

V : USU + A (with) = fidget

2 If you fiddle with a machine or other object, you move or adjust parts of it in order to make it work properly or until it is how you want it to be. EG He cursed as he fiddled with the volume control.

V : USU + A (with) = twiddle

3 If you fiddle with something that does not belong to you, you move it or interfere with it. EG Have you been fiddling with my things?

V + A (with) = meddle, tamper

4 If someone fiddles something, they alter it dishonestly or illegally or arrange it so that they get money or some other benefit for themselves; an informal

V + O = fix, cook

use. EG I think the bill is being fiddled... Pity we can't fiddle the books... He had fiddled the figures in the transaction. ◊ fiddling. EG A lot of fiddling goes on in many companies. ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 A fiddle is a dishonest action or scheme in which a person gets money for himself or herself; an informal use. EG Laing had worked some fiddle and hadn't minded being caught. N COUNT = fraud, swindle

6 Someone who is on the fiddle is getting money by doing dishonest or illegal things. PHR : USED AS A/C

7 A fiddle is a violin, especially one used to play folk music; an informal use. N COUNT

8 Someone who plays second fiddle to someone else has a less important or less powerful position than them. EG In the young child's eyes father plays second fiddle. PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ be subordinate

9 If you say that someone is fiddling while Rome burns, you mean that they are not dealing with a serious or dangerous situation that exists but instead are doing useless things or pretending that nothing is wrong. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU CONT

10 See also fiddling.

fiddle about, fiddle around. 1 If you fiddle about or fiddle around, you waste time by doing things without any particular plan or purpose, so that you do not achieve anything. EG I spent about two hours just fiddling about. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN with

2 If you fiddle about or around with a group of things, you change their position many times in an attempt to find an arrangement that satisfies you. EG He had been fiddling about with drawings for the news sheet. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A (with) ⇑ move

3 If you fiddle about or around with something, you keep moving it or touching it with your fingers with small movements, for example because you are nervous or bored. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A (with) = fidget fiddler /fɪdlə/, fiddlers. A fiddler is 1 a person who plays the violin, especially one who plays folk music. 2 a person who dishonestly alters something or tells lies in order to get money; an informal use. N COUNT ⇑ violinist / N COUNT = cheat fiddlesticks /fɪdə^{0}lstɪks/. You say fiddlesticks when you are annoyed because something has gone wrong, or to say that you totally disagree with someone; an old-fashioned word. EXCLAM fiddling /fɪdlɪŋ/. Something that is fiddling is small or unimportant and difficult to do. ADJ QUALIT = petty fiddly /fɪdli^{1}/, fiddlier, fiddliest. A task or object that is fiddly is annoyingly difficult to do, use, or handle, for example because it involves small or complicated objects. EG It is a very fiddly job... Beech nuts are tasty but fiddly to eat. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ awkward fidelity /fɪdɛlɪti^{1}/ is 1 the quality of remaining firm in your beliefs or ideas or in your friendships with people; a formal use showing approval. EG ...fidelity to basic principles... There's nothing like a dog's fidelity. 2 the state of having only one sexual partner, especially your husband or wife; used showing approval. EG ...buying each other wedding rings, demanding fidelity. 3 the degree of accuracy of a report, translation, or adaptation; a formal use. 4 See also high fidelity. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ adherence = faithfulness / N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ morality = faithfulness / N UNCOUNT fidget /fɪdʒɪt/, fidgets, fidgeting, fidgeted. 1 If you fidget, you keep moving your hands or feet slightly or changing your position slightly, for example because you are nervous or bored. EG The children are starting to fidget. V ⇑ be restless = shuffle

2 A fidget is a person, especially a child, who keeps fidgeting. N COUNT

3 Someone who has the fidgets keeps fidgeting. N PLURAL

4 Someone who is fidgeting to do something behaves in a restless way that shows they are eager and impatient to do it. EG Mr Annett was fidgeting to begin. V + to-INF : ONLY CONT

5 If you fidget with something, you keep moving it or touching it with your fingers with small movements, for example because you are nervous or bored. EG She fidgeted with her gloves. V + A (with) = fiddle fidget about. If you fidget about, you keep changing your position slightly, for example because you are nervous or bored. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ be restless fidgety /fɪdʒɪti^{1}/. Someone who is fidgety keeps fidgeting, for example because they are nervous or bored. ADJ QUALIT = restless, jittery fie /faɪ/ is an old-fashioned exclamation used to express disapproval. EG Fie on you! EXCLAM : IF + PREP THEN on fief /fi:f/, fiefs. A fief was in former times a piece of land given to someone by their lord, to whom they had a duty to provide particular services in return. N COUNT = serf field /fi:ld/, fields, fielding, fielded. 1 A field is an area of land on which a crop is grown or an area of rough grass, especially one where animals such as cows, sheep, or horses are kept. EG ...a corn field... ...fields of wheat... We pitched our tent in a field... We saw people working together in the fields. N COUNT

2 A sports field is an area of grass which is used for playing a sport such as football, rugby, or hockey. EG The garden was as big as a football field... Come on, lads, get on the field! N COUNT = pitch

3 An oil field, gas field, etc is an area of land or sea bed under which oil, gas, etc is found. EG ...oil and gas fields... They have been given a 950 million dollar loan to develop the Forties field... ...the diamond fields of Kimberley. N COUNT + SUPP / USU MOD + N

4 A snow field, lava field, etc is a large area of land always covered by the substance mentioned. N COUNT + SUPP

5 Fighting or other military action in a war takes place in the field or on the field of battle. EG They needed a more effective way of using military forces in the field... ...the field artillery. N SING : the + N

6 A particular field is a particular subject or area of activity or interest. EG He doesn't seem to have done much in the political field... She is an expert in this field... Insects were my father's particular field of study. N COUNT + SUPP = sphere

7 The field is used in expressions such as hold the field and lead the field when referring to success or importance in a particular area of activity in which there is competition. EG The explanation of migration that holds the field today is known as the Todaro model... At one point his ideas led the field. N SING : the + N

8 A field trip, field scientist, field study, etc involves or is involved in research or testing that is done in a real, natural environment rather than in a theoretical way or in controlled conditions. EG We could say we were on an extended field trip... ...field studies of individuals following immigration. ● Something that is studied or tested in the field is studied or tested in a real, natural environment. EG ...projects and programmes that have been tried and proved in the field... We will study their natural history in the field. N BEFORE N ⇑ practical / ● PHR : USED AS AN A

9 When you field a ball that has been hit, especially in cricket or baseball, you catch it or stop it. V OR V + O

10 The team that is fielding in a game of cricket, baseball, or rounders is the team that is having a turn at trying to catch or stop the ball, rather than batting. EG This didn't make me popular with the fielding side. V : USU CONT

11 If you field a question or remark, you deal with it, usually skilfully. EG Most of them were not interested in fielding questions about it. V + O

12 If a sports club fields a particular number or type of players, the players play for the club and represent it in matches. EG We're fielding a good team this season. V + O

13 If someone fields a particular number or type of people or things, they make use of them in order to achieve something. EG They can field 1,000 helicopters and 3,000 armoured vehicles. V + O

14 A magnetic field, gravitational field, force field, etc is the area in which that particular force is strong enough to have an effect. EG A gibbon is better adapted than a man for life in a low gravitational field. N COUNT + SUPP / USU MOD + N

15 Your field of vision, field of view, or visual field is the whole area that you can see without turning your head or that you can see from a particular position. EG A brown figure dressed in red crept into her field of vision... Its eyes are mounted so as to give it an extremely wide field of view. N COUNT + SUPP

16 Your field of fire is the area within which you can hit something you fire at from a particular position. EG ...tanks with considerable depth to their fields of fire. N COUNT + SUPP / USU + of

17 The field is a way of referring to all the horses or people taking part in a particular race. EG On the third round, Sy was leading the field with Hiawatha. N SING : the + N, VB CAN BE SING OR PL ⇑ group

18 On a flag, shield, or coin, the field is the background. EG On a field of blue was a cross. N COUNT + SUPP / USU SING

19 If you have a field day you have a very pleasant time doing something that you have been given an opportunity to do in a very active way. EG The local papers had a field day. PHR : VB INFLECTS

20 If you play the field, you have a number of different romantic or sexual relationships, often before deciding who to marry; an informal expression. PHR : VB INFLECTS fielder /fiːldə/, fielders. A fielder is a player in cricket, baseball, or rounders who is fielding or one who has a particular skill at fielding. EG The ball soared over the fielders' heads... He's an excellent fielder. N COUNT field event, field events. A field event is an athletics contest such as the high jump or throwing the discus or javelin, rather than a race. N COUNT ≠ track event field-glasses; also spelled without a hyphen. Field-glasses are binoculars. EG Their field glasses were pointed towards the opposite windows and roofs. N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N field hockey is the same as hockey; used in American English. N UNCOUNT ⇑ sport field marshal, field marshals; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. A field marshal is an officer in the army who has the highest rank. EG ...Field Marshal Montgomery... He had been personally interrogated by the Field Marshal. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES fieldmouse /fiːldmaʊs/, fieldmice; also spelled with a hyphen. A fieldmouse is a mouse with a long tail that lives in fields and woods. N COUNT field sports. Hunting, shooting birds, and fishing with a rod are referred to as field sports when they are done mainly for pleasure. N PLURAL = blood sports field-test, field-tests, field-testing, field-tested. If you field-test a new piece of equipment, you test it in a real, natural environment. EG It hasn't been field-tested yet. ▸ used as a noun. EG It has undergone several field-tests. V + O ▸ N COUNT fieldwork /fiːldwɜːk/ is the gathering of information about something directly. EG The course included a lot of fieldwork. N UNCOUNT ⇑ research fiend /fiːnd/, fiends. 1 A fiend is a person who is extremely wicked or cruel; an old-fashioned or literary use. EG I have no idea who this murderous fiend may be. N COUNT = devil, monster

2 A health fiend, car fiend, etc is a person who is very keen on or interested in the thing mentioned. EG He's a fresh air fiend. N COUNT : AFTER N = fanatic fiendish /fiːndɪʃ/. 1 Someone who is fiendish is cruel and enjoys being cruel. EG He was filled with a fiendish glee at seeing his pupils struggle with the sums he set them... ...a fiendish despot. ADJ QUALIT

2 A fiendish plan, action, or device is very clever or imaginative; an informal use. EG It was just a fiendish plan to keep their minds off asking for more money. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB = cunning

3 A fiendish problem or task is very difficult and challenging; an informal use. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB fiendishly /fiːndɪʃlɪ/. 1 Fiendishly is used to emphasize how difficult something is; an informal use. EG This effect is fiendishly hard to achieve. ADV + ADJ/ADV

2 Fiendishly also means cruelly. EG Fiendishly laughing, they had insisted on coming too. ADV WITH VB

fierce /fɪəs/, fiercer, fiercest. 1 An animal or person that is fierce is very aggressive or angry. EG ...fierce dogs... ...a fierce warrior. ◊ fiercely. EG 'Don't assume anything!' said Martha fiercely. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Something that is fierce 2.1 involves very strong feelings or great and energetic activity. EG After a fierce battle the enemy had been forced back... ...the fierce loyalty of these people... There will be fierce resistance if this is attempted. ◊ fiercely. EG This plan was fiercely resisted by the ranchers... ...a fiercely dedicated group of people. 2.2 is very intense, great, or strong. EG ...fierce heat... ...a fierce storm. ◊ fiercely. EG The fire was blazing fiercely. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ intense ◊ ADV ⇑ intensely ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV fiery /faɪərɪ/, fierier, fieriest. 1 Something that is fiery 1.1 is burning strongly or contains or involves fire. EG ...clouds of fiery gas... ...the fiery pits of hell. 1.2 is bright red in colour. EG The tonsils become fiery red and swollen. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ADJ QUALIT = flaming

2 A drink or food that is fiery makes your mouth or throat feel as if it is burning. EG Johnny gulped down the fiery liquid. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB

3 A fiery person behaves or speaks with great energy, feeling, and passion, often angrily. EG ...this fiery young man... ...a fiery and uncompromising speech... Her fiery temper got the better of her. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ passionate fiesta /fiːestə/, fiestas. A fiesta is a time of public entertainment and parties on a special religious day, especially in Spain or Latin America. N COUNT ⇑ celebration fife /faɪf/, fifes. A fife is a small pipe-shaped musical instrument. N COUNT

fifteen /fɪftiːn/, fifteens. 1 Fifteen is the number 15: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG We were married for fifteen years. NUM

2 A fifteen is a rugby football team. EG Alan's got into the first fifteen. N COUNT : USU ORD + N, VB CAN BE SING OR PL

fifteenth /fɪftiːnθ/. The fifteenth item in a series is the one that you count as number fifteen: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG The palace is supposed to have been built in the late fifteenth century. ORDINAL fifth /fɪfθ/, fifths. 1 The fifth item in a series is the one that you count as number five: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG We were sent to another office on the fifth floor. ORDINAL

2 A fifth is one of five equal parts of something. EG Only one fifth of the surface area of Africa is farmland. N COUNT : USU + of ⇑ fraction

3 In music, a fifth is the interval between two notes on a musical scale when there are three notes separating them. N COUNT : USU SING

fifth columnist, fifth columnists. A fifth columnist is someone who secretly supports and helps the enemies of the country or organization they are in. N COUNT ⇑ traitor fiftieth /fɪftɪɪəθ/. The fiftieth item in a series is the one that you count as number fifty: see □ at NUMBER and AGE. EG ...the fiftieth anniversary of the Russian Revolution. ORDINAL fifty /fɪftɪ/, fifties. Fifty is the number 50: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG He pointed to some low buildings about fifty yards away. NUM fifty-fifty. 1 When something, for example money or property, is divided fifty-fifty between two people, each person gets half of it. EG Profits were to be split fifty-fifty between the two men. ▸ used as an adjective. EG It was a fifty-fifty deal. ADV WITH VB ⇑ equally ▸ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If the chances of something happening are fifty-fifty, it is as likely that it will not happen as that it will happen. EG He realistically admitted his chances of victory to be 'fifty-fifty'... This bird may have little better than a fifty-fifty chance of survival. ADJ CLASSIF = even

fig /fɪg/, figs. 1 A fig is a soft sweet fruit which is full of tiny seeds, is often eaten dried, and grows in hot countries; used also of the tree that it grows on. N COUNT

2 You say that someone doesn't care a fig or doesn't give a fig about something to say and emphasize that they do not care about it at all. EG You don't really care a fig about status. PHR : VB INFLECTS

fig., figs. 1 Fig. is an abbreviation for 'figure'; used to refer to a particular diagram or as part of a heading of a diagram. EG The piston is then brought into a horizontal position (see fig. 3). N COUNT : USU + NUM

2 Fig. is also an abbreviation for 'figurative'.

fight /faɪt/, fights, fighting, fought. 1 If you fight something, you try in a determined way to prevent it or stop it happening. EG We intend to fight racism... You can't fight against progress... ...the great crusade to fight and conquer cancer. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the fight against illegal drugs... ...the fight against inflation. V + O, OR V : IF + PREP THEN against ⇑ resist ▸ N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN against = battle

2 If you fight for something, you try in a determined way to get it or achieve it. EG They will fight for their rights... Workers will have to fight to participate in the country's economic growth. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the fight for equality. V : USU + *for/to-*INF ⇑ strive = battle ▸ N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN for

3 If you fight, 3.1 you take part in a battle or a war. EG He had fought in the First World War... People used to fight each other over religion... The men were going off to fight a battle. ▸ used as a noun, especially to refer to a battle to get control of a particular place. EG ...the critical fight for Venlo. ◊ fighting. EG We were only metres away from the fighting. 3.2 you try to hurt someone, for example by hitting them with your fists, while they try to hurt you in a similar way. EG The children continued to fight... Sam and Eric were fighting each other... I learned how to fight other boys... He was always fighting with his brother. ▸ used as a noun. EG There would be fights sometimes between the workers. 3.3 you take part in a boxing match. EG Cooney had signed to fight Mike Weaver... Tomorrow he fights against the reigning champion. ▸ used as a noun. EG It was his fourth fight since the summer. 3.4 you quarrel with another person. EG They fought about money... It's nice not having to fight you about housework. ▸ used as a noun. EG 'That's my trouble at parties,' says Miss Callendar, 'I get into fights.' V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/against ▸ N COUNT ◊ N UNCOUNT V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN with/against = wrestle ▸ N COUNT V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN against = take on ▸ N COUNT V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN about/over ⇑ disagree ▸ N COUNT = row

4 If you fight someone for something, for example V OR V + O : IF + an important job, you compete with them for it. EG He was nominated by the Republicans to fight Hearst for the post of governor. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...that memorable fight for the presidency.

PREP THEN against = challenge
▸ N COUNT + for = contest

5 If you fight an election in a particular place, you are a candidate in the election and try to win it. EG It takes a great deal of money to fight a general election... He successfully fought Smethwick for Labour.

V + O

6 If you put up a fight, you fight strongly against someone who is stronger than you are.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

7 Fight is the desire or ability to keep fighting. EG They still have a lot of fight left in them.

N UNCOUNT = resistance

8 If you fight your way somewhere, you get there with great difficulty, for example because there are a lot of people or difficulties in your way. EG She had reached me only after fighting her way through a huge crowd.

PHR : VB INFLECTS = battle

9 When you fight an emotion or desire, you try very hard not to feel it, show it, or act on it. EG He fought the urge to cry.

V + O = resist

10 Someone who is fighting for their life is making a great effort to stay alive, either when they are being physically attacked or when they are very ill. EG He is fighting for his life.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

11 When you fight for breath, you try to breathe but find it very difficult.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

12 Someone who is fighting fit is very fit or healthy.

PHR : USED AS C

13 If you have a fighting chance of doing or achieving something, it is possible that you will do or achieve it, but not very likely. EG We've still got a fighting chance of winning the contract.

PHR : USED AS O = hope

14 ● to fight a losing battle: see battle. ● to fight fire with fire: see fire. ● to fight shy of something: see shy. ● See also dog-fight.

fight back. 1 If you fight back against someone who has attacked you or made difficulties for you, you try to protect yourself and stop them or beat them. EG Our forces were fighting back desperately... The importing countries could fight back with laws of their own.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ respond = resist

2 When you fight back an emotion or a desire, you try very hard not to feel it, show it, or act on it. EG She fought back the tears... I waited, fighting back my fear.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O = hold back fight down. When you fight down an emotion or a desire, you try very hard not to feel it, show it, or act on it. EG He had to fight down the impulse to sneak out.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O

fight off. 1 If you fight off something, for example an illness or an unpleasant feeling, you succeed in getting rid of it and in not letting it overcome you. EG We can fight off most minor ailments... For most of the time she was fighting off despair.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ repel = ward off

2 If you fight off someone who has attacked you, you succeed in driving them away by fighting them.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

fight out. When two people or groups fight something out, they fight or argue until one of them wins and so the matter they were fighting or arguing about is settled. EG The European nations were fighting it out on the battlefields... These decisions were fought out between contending groups.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ decide = thrash out fighter /faɪtə/, fighters. 1 A fighter or a fighter plane is a fast military aircraft that is used for destroying other aircraft.

N COUNT

2 A fighter is also 2.1 a person who keeps trying to achieve things and who is not put off by difficulties or opposition. 2.2 a person who physically fights another person.

N COUNT ≠ pushover
N COUNT ⇑ combatant

3 See also fire fighter, freedom fighter, prize fighter.

fig leaf, fig leaves; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. A fig leaf is a large leaf which comes from the fig tree. A fig leaf is sometimes used in painting and sculpture to cover the genitals of a nude body.

N COUNT

figment /fɪgmə²nt/, figments. If something is a figment of someone's imagination, it does not really exist and they are just imagining it. EG I thought this man Broum was another figment of your imagination.

N COUNT : USU USED AS C, USU + of = product figurative /fɪgə⁰rətɪv/. 1 If you use a word or expression in a figurative sense, you use it with a more abstract or imaginative meaning than its ordinary one. EG He imprisoned her, in a figurative sense.

ADJ CLASSIF = metaphorical

2 Figurative art is a style of art in which people and things are shown as they actually look.

ADJ CLASSIF

figuratively /fɪgə⁰rətɪvlɪ¹/. 1 Figuratively is used in a sentence to indicate that a word or expression is being used in a figurative sense rather than in its most physical and ordinary one. EG A majority of men figuratively still live in the twelfth century.

ADV WITH VB, OR ADV SEN ≠ literally

2 Someone who is speaking figuratively is using a particular word or expression in a figurative sense. EG 'She said I killed him.'–'She was speaking figuratively.'

ADV WITH VB, OR ADV SEN = metaphorically

figure /fɪgə/, figures, figuring, figured. 1 A figure is 1.1 a particular amount expressed as a number, especially one that is given as a statistic in a piece of information. EG Recent government figures show that there are 135,000 families with four or more children... ...unemployment figures... The figure for 1983 was as low as 23 per cent... We decided on a figure of ten thousand. ● When you put a figure on an amount, you say exactly how much it is. EG They said defence spending should be raised but put no figure on the increase they wanted. 1.2 any of the ten written symbols from 0 to 9 that are used to represent a number. EG He wrote the date in figures at the top of the paper... ...a three-figure number. ● An amount or number that is in double figures is between ten and ninety-nine. EG The rate of inflation remains in double figures. ● An amount or number that is in single figures is between nought and nine. EG We want inflation brought down to single figures.

N COUNT

● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ state

N COUNT ⇑ symbol = digit

● PHR : USED AS O, USU PREP + O

● PHR : USED AS O, USU PREP + O

2 Arithmetic can be referred to in informal English as figures. EG He has a better head for figures than I ever had.

N PLURAL = numbers

3 You refer to someone that you can see as a figure when you cannot see them clearly, for example because they are a long way away or because it is dark, or when you are describing them. EG Far away down the road I could see a small female figure advancing towards us... ...a lean figure dressed in a grey top hat... The sturdy figure of Joe Shaw appears.

N COUNT ⇑ person = form

4 When you describe someone as a fine figure of a man or woman, you mean that they are quite tall and strong-looking in an attractive way.

PHR : USED AS C ⇑ good-looking

5 In art, a figure is a person who is in a drawing or a painting or a statue of a person.

N COUNT

6 Someone who is referred to as a figure of a particular kind is a person who is well-known and important in some way. EG He was a key figure in the independence struggle... ...one of the great theatrical figures of our time... He's a controversial figure... The incident made her a national figure.

N COUNT + SUPP = personality

7 Someone who is regarded as, for example, a mother figure or a hero figure by someone else is regarded as the type of person stated or suggested. EG She was a mother figure for him... ...authority figures.

N COUNT : MOD + N ⇑ symbol

8 Someone who is a figure of fun is often laughed at in an unkind way.

PHR : USED AS C

9 Your figure is the shape of your body. EG She's got a fabulous figure... He was always worrying about his figure. ● If you keep your figure, you stay slim. If you lose your figure, you become rather fat.

N COUNT : USU POSS + N
● PHR : VB INFLECTS

10 A figure is also a drawing or diagram that is used to explain or illustrate information that is being given; often used with a number to refer to a drawing or diagram. EG This led to the development of a new type of machine (see Figure 8).

N COUNT : USU + NUM ⇑ illustration

11 In geometry, a figure is a shape, especially a regular shape. EG A hexagon is a six-sided figure.

N COUNT

12 A figure in, for example, dancing or ice skating is a movement that follows a particular shape or pattern.

N COUNT ⇑ movement

13 If you figure that something is the case, you think or guess that it is the case, especially after considering the matter quite carefully; an informal use used especially in American English. EG They figured it was better to stay where they were... She brought a torch, as she figured he might need it.

V + REPORT-CL = reckon

14 If you say 'that figures' or if you say that it figures that something is the case, you mean that the fact referred to is not surprising and is what you would expect to happen; an informal expression. EG 'The subject never came up.'–'That figures.'

that + V OR V + REPORT-CL = make sense

15 In American English, when you figure, you work out the answers to sums; an old-fashioned expression. EG ...the ability to read, write and do simple figuring.

V OR V + O

16 To figure in something means to appear or be included in it. EG Loneliness figures quite a lot in his conversation... The photograph had figured as part of the evidence in the trial.

V : USU + in = feature

7 to cut a figure: see cut.

figure on. If you figure on something, you plan that it will happen or assume that it will happen when making your plans; an informal expression used mainly in American English. EG How soon are you figuring on getting married?... We'd figured on you helping us. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

figure out. 1 If you figure out a solution to a problem, the answer to a question, or the reason for or nature of something, you work it out so that you understand it; an informal expression used especially in American English. EG She had not yet figured out what she was going to do... We tried to figure out a way to see them... I just can't figure him out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + O/REPORT CL = suss out

2 If you figure out the answer to a sum, you work it out; an informal expression used in American English. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = work out

figure eight, figure eights. A figure eight is the same as a figure of eight; used in American English. N COUNT

figurehead /fɪgəhɛd/, figureheads. 1 Someone who is the figurehead of a movement or organization is its leader, often one who has little real power. EG The party's president had become merely a figurehead. N COUNT

2 A figurehead is also a large wooden model of a person that was put just under the pointed front of a sailing ship in former times. N COUNT ⇑ effigy

figure of eight, figures of eight. A figure of eight is something, for example a knot or a movement done by a skater, that has the shape of the number 8. N COUNT

figure of speech, figures of speech. A figure of speech is an expression or word that is used with a figurative rather than a literal meaning. EG When he wrote of the 'two nations' he was not employing a figure of speech but identifying a fact of life. N COUNT = turn of phrase

figure skating is skating in an attractive pattern, usually with spins and jumps included. N UNCOUNT

figurine /fɪgəriːn/, figurines. A figurine is a small ornamental model of a person. N COUNT = statuette filament /fɪləmənt/, filaments. A filament is a very thin piece or thread of something; used especially to refer to the piece of wire inside a light bulb. EG ...traditional filament bulbs... ...filaments of algae. N COUNT filch /fɪlʧ/, filches, filching, filched. When you filch something, you steal it; an informal word. EG The letters had been filched from the private files of John D. Archbold. V + O : USU + from = pilfer file /faɪl/, files, filing, filed. 1 A file is 1.1 a box, large envelope, or folded piece of card in which someone keeps letters or other documents that belong together, for example because they are about one subject. EG ...eight standard cardboard files... Put it in a 'do later' file. ● See also box file. N COUNT ⇑ container

1.2 the written information in a file. EG ...a very dull file about crime statistics... Casson finished reading the file and grimaced. N COUNT = dossier

1.3 a collection of information about a particular person or thing. EG Get me the personal file on Viktor Kowalski... Perhaps they've lost my file... Without access to the files of a good Secret Service, this is difficult. N COUNT = dossier

2 Something that is on file or on the files or on someone's files is recorded or kept in a file or in a collection of information. EG These notes were on file... I don't know who his dentist is. It's not on the files. The police had both men on their files. PHR : USED AS AN A

3 If you file a document, you put it in the correct file. EG Bills are not filed under B but under U for unpleasant. V + O : IF + PREP THEN under ⇑ store

4 In computing, a file is a set of related data that has its own name and that can be handled as one item by referring to it by this name. N COUNT ⇑ store

5 When you file a formal or legal accusation, complaint, or request, you make it officially. EG They have made this accusation in a lawsuit they have filed... The wife is then forced into filing for divorce... Adoption papers were duly filed by Mr and Mrs White in May 1974. V + O, OR V + A (for) ⇑ register

6 When someone files a report or a news story, they send or give it to their employer. EG I had filed two stories for my paper. V + O = submit

7 When a group of people files somewhere, they walk one behind the other in a line. EG They filed out in silence. V + A ⇑ go

8 A file of people is a line of people who are walking or standing one behind the other. EG ...the file of passengers coming down the steps... They walked in a file down the hill. ● A group of people who are walking or standing in single file or single file are in a line, one behind the other. EG We were crossing the bridge now, in single file. N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL ● PHR : USED AS A

9 A file is also a hand tool consisting of a long piece of steel with rough surfaces, sometimes with a handle, which is used for rubbing hard objects to make them smooth, shape them, or cut through them. ● See also nail file. N COUNT

10 If you file an object, you smooth it, shape it, or cut it with a file. EG Kitty sat at the kitchen table filing her fingernails... He had filed through the bars and escaped. V + O, OR V + A 11 See also rank and file.

file away. 1 If you file a document away, you put it in the correct file. PHRASAL VB V + O + ADV

2 When you file away a fact or idea, you pay careful attention to it, intending to remember or think about it again later. EG Dan carefully filed away this added reason for hating Joe Parker. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = note filial /fɪljəl/ means relating to the status, duties, etc of a son or daughter. EG ...a sense of duty or filial obligation. ...lacking in filial affection. ADJ CLASSIF filibuster /fɪlɪbʌstə/, filibusters, filibustering, filibustered. A filibuster is a long slow speech or a series of long slow speeches. Filibusters are used, especially in the U.S.A., as a method of preventing laws from being passed by the legislature, because the debating time runs out before the debate is over, so that a vote cannot be taken. EG I could not prolong a filibuster indefinitely. ▸ used as a verb. EG We had agreed that we would not filibuster... Filibustering is not technically allowed at Westminster. N COUNT ⇑ strategy = delay ▸ V = delay filigree /fɪlɪgriː/ is delicate ornamental designs made with gold or silver wire. EG You might look at some of the embroidery and filigree silver. N UNCOUNT filing cabinet, filing cabinets; also spelled with a hyphen. A filing cabinet is a piece of office furniture, usually made of metal, and having deep drawers in which files are kept. N COUNT ⇑ cupboard filing clerk, filing clerks; also spelled with a hyphen. A filing clerk is a person whose job is to file documents in an office. N COUNT ⇑ employee

Filipino /fɪlɪpiːnəʊ/, Filipinos. 1 A Filipino is a person who comes from the Philippines. N COUNT

2 Filipino means belonging to or coming from the Philippines. EG ...the Filipino people. ADJ CLASSIF = Philippine fill /fɪl/, fills, filling, filled. 1 If you fill something, you put a large amount of a substance or a lot of things into it, with the result that it is full. EG Fill the teapot with boiling water... Can you fill me a bucket of water, please? V + O : IF + PREP THEN USU with/for, OR V + O + O ≠ empty

2 If something fills a space or area, it is so big, or is present in such large numbers or amounts that it seems as if the whole space is occupied. EG Enthusiastic crowds filled the streets. ◊ filled. EG They entered a large hall filled with rows of desks. V + O ⇑ occupy = crowd ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + with

3 If something or a place or area fills, it becomes full of things, people, or a substance. EG Madeleine's eyes filled with tears... The place of assembly filled quickly. V : IF + PREP THEN with ≠ empty

4 If you fill a crack or hole, you put a substance into it in order to make the surface smooth again. EG Small wall cracks can be filled with plaster. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with = seal

5 If a sound, smell, or light fills a space, the air, etc it is very strong or noticeable. EG The familiar smell of dust filled the air... The tropical sun fills the room with light... A chatter of German and French filled his ears. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with = flood

6 If something fills you with an emotion, or if an emotion fills you, you experience this emotion strongly and suddenly. EG His son's lies filled him with anger and contempt... A wave of panic filled her. ◊ filled. EG He was filled with resentment. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with = engulf ◊ ADJ QUALIT

7 To fill something with a particular quality or thing means to cause it to have a lot of that quality or thing. EG He wanted someone or something that would fill his life with meaning again... ...tutors who go around filling our heads with all these ideas. V + O + A (with) = charge

8 If you fill a period of time with a particular activity, you spend the time in this way. EG People must fill their time 'healthily' and 'meaningfully'. V + O + A = occupy

9 If something fills a need or a gap, it puts an end to this need or gap by existing or being active. EG The V + O ⇑ stop

SDP Liberal Alliance filled the political vacuum... This book fills a major gap.

10 Something that fills a role or position performs a particular function or has a particular place within a system. EG It has filled this role in a most satisfactory way for many years. V+O = fulfil

11 If someone fills a job vacancy, 11.1 they accept a job that they have been offered. EG The remaining 37,000 posts were filled by Africans. 11.2 they choose someone to do the job. EG The election to fill his vacated post took place the following week. V+O = take up / V+O = assign

12 If you have your fill of something, you eat, drink, laugh, watch, etc as much or for as long as you want or need. EG They could eat their fill of honey... When she had laughed her fill, she told him he was too late. N SING : DET/POSS + N, IF + PREP THEN of

13 If you have had your fill of something, you do not want to experience or do it any more. EG I'd had my fill of storms... I have had my fill of Hamlet now. PHR + NG/-ING : VB INFLECTS = be sick of

14 If you fill yourself with food, you eat so much that you do not feel hungry. EG You can't expect to lose weight if you keep filling yourself with chocolate. V+O (REFL/NG) = stuff

15 A play, film, or performer that fills a theatre, concert hall, or cinema attracts a very large audience. EG ...those great actors whose names alone could fill a theatre. V+O = pack

16 When the wind fills a sail, or when the sail fills, the sail becomes rounded rather than hanging loosely. V:ERG = swell

17 When a dentist fills someone's tooth, he or she puts a filling in it. V+O ⇑ plug

18 If you fill an order or a prescription, you provide the things that are asked for; used mainly in American English. EG The bartender went back to fill the order. V+O ⇑ supply

19 ● to fill the bill: see bill. ● See also filling.

fill in. 1 If you fill in a crack or a hole, you put a substance into it so that the surface becomes level. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

2 If you are filling in time, you are using time that is available by doing something that is not very important. EG Derrick thought he would fill in the waiting time by seeing the world. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O = use

3 If you fill in a form, you write information in the spaces on it. EG We filled in all the customs forms... Fill in your name and address. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

4 If you fill in a shape, you paint or draw all over the space inside the lines so that it becomes covered with colour. EG She drew a circle and filled it in. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = shade in

5 If you fill someone in, 5.1 you give them more details about something that you know about. EG I'll fill you in on the details now... Come on back to the house and I'll fill you in. 5.2 you beat them up; a very informal use. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ inform / PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

6 If you fill in for someone, you do the work or task that they normally do because they are unable to do it. EG One of the other girls is sick and I said I'd fill in. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN for = stand in fill out. 1 If you fill out a form, you write information in the spaces on it. EG I've filled out the death certificate. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ write

2 If a fairly thin person fills out, they become fatter. EG He'd filled out a lot since I'd last seen him. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

fill up. 1 If you fill up a container, you put a large amount of a substance or a lot of things into it, with the result that it is full. EG Fill it up, please. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

2 If something fills up a space or area, it is so big, or is present in such large numbers or amounts that it seems as if the whole space is occupied. EG The computer was massive, filling up a whole room. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ occupy = take up

3 If a place or area fills up, it becomes full of things, people, or a substance. EG His office began to fill up with people. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN with ⇑ fill

4 If you fill up a period of time with a particular activity, you spend the time in this way. EG The idea was to fill up the day with meaningless activities. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = take up

5 If you fill yourself up with food, you eat so much that you do not feel hungry. EG No filling up with sandwiches, beer, and chips! PHRASAL VB : V + O (REFL/NG), OR V + ADV

6 A type of food that fills you up makes you feel that you have eaten a lot, even though you have only eaten a small amount. EG Wholemeal bread fills you up better than white. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

7 If you fill up a form, you complete it, giving all the information that is requested. EG Sorry to interrupt, but I've some forms to fill up. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ write = fill out

-filled combines with nouns in order to form adjectives which indicate that something contains or is full of the thing mentioned. EG She stared at me with tear-filled eyes... ...gas-filled tanks... ...his twisted hate-filled face. COMB : FORMS ADJS filler /fɪlə/, fillers. Filler is a substance used for filling cracks or holes, especially in walls, car bodies, or wood. N UNCOUNT filler cap, filler caps; also spelled with a hyphen. A filler cap is the lid that covers the hole through which you put petrol or oil into a vehicle. N COUNT

fillet /fɪlɪt/, fillets, filleting, filleted. 1 Fillet is a strip of tender meat, especially beef, that has no bones in it. EG ...fillet of beef... ...two fillet steaks. N UNCOUNT/COUNT

2 A fillet of fish is the side of a fish with the bones removed. EG ...a fillet of plaice. N COUNT/UNCOUNT

3 When you fillet fish or meat, you prepare it by cutting it to take the bones out. V+O filling /fɪlɪŋ/, fillings. 1 A filling is a small amount of metal or sometimes plastic that a dentist puts in a hole in a tooth to prevent further decay. EG She has lots of fillings. N COUNT ⇑ plug

2 A filling for a cake, pie, chocolate, or sandwich is an edible substance or mixture that is put inside it. EG ...delicious chocolates with cream fillings. N MASS ⇑ contents

3 The filling of a quilt, cushion, or sleeping bag is the soft substance that is put inside it to make it warm or comfortable. N MASS ⇑ contents

4 Food that is filling makes you feel full when you have eaten it. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ substantial filling station, filling stations; also spelled with a hyphen. A filling station is a place where you can buy petrol and oil for your car. EG I stopped at a filling station. N COUNT = petrol station fillip /fɪlɪp/, fillips. A fillip is a sudden improvement or increase in excitement or energy. EG The choice of films is wide and gives an added fillip to the classroom lessons. N COUNT : USU SING

filly /fɪlɪ[1]/, fillies. A filly is a young female horse. N COUNT film /fɪlm/, films, filming, filmed. 1 A film is moving pictures shown on a screen, especially at a cinema, that tell a story, or sometimes show a real situation or series of events. EG Shall we go and see a film?... The film was shot largely on location... She made a film about Egypt. N COUNT

2 When you film or when you film someone or something, you use a camera to take moving pictures which can be shown on a screen or on television. EG The TV crews couldn't film at night... Joan ran ahead to film us as we crossed the bridge... He is intending to film Tagore's novel 'The Home and the World'... I was filming a scene outside. V OR V + O

3 Film of something is moving pictures of a real event that are shown on television or on a screen. EG The broadcast began with close-up film of babies crying. N UNCOUNT = footage

4 Film or a film is also a long narrow flat piece of plastic that is used in a camera to take photographs. EG I used half a roll of film taking pictures... I need a new film for my camera... ...a moment preserved for ever on film. N UNCOUNT/COUNT

5 The making of cinema films, considered as a form of art or a business, can be referred to as film or films. EG The age of film was probably over by 1950... I enjoyed working in films. N UNCOUNT/COUNT

6 A film of powder, liquid, or grease is a very thin layer of it on the surface of something. EG They were like letters seen through a film of tears. N COUNT : USU SING + SUPP = veil

7 Plastic film is a very thin sheet of plastic, used especially to wrap and cover things. EG ...transparent wrapping film. N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ covering

8 See also filming.

film over. If your eyes film over, they become covered with a very thin layer of tears. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV filming /fɪlmɪŋ/ is the activity of making a film including, for example the acting, directing, and operating of the cameras. EG I found filming terribly exhausting. N UNCOUNT film star, film stars. A film star is a famous actor or actress who appears in films. N COUNT ⇑ celebrity film-strip, film-strips. A film-strip is a series of still pictures on a piece of film that are shown one after the other on a screen. EG ...an educational film-strip company. N COUNT = slides filmy /fɪlmɪ[1]/, filmier, filmiest. A fabric or substance that is filmy is very thin and almost transparent. EG ...a filmy black nightie. ADJ QUALIT = gauzy filter /fɪltə/, filters, filtering, filtered. 1 To filter a substance means to pass it through a device which is designed to remove certain particles con- V:ERG ⇑ purify tained in it. EG Water and soil would have to be filtered many times to remove any radioactive matter.

2 A filter is 2.1 a device through which a substance is passed when it is being filtered. 2.2 a device through which sound or light is passed and which blocks or reduces particular sound or light frequencies.

N COUNT
N COUNT

3 If light or sound filters into a place it comes in faintly or slowly, either through a small or partly covered opening, or from a long distance away. EG Light filtered into the room... Sounds of cheering filtered in through the closed window.

V + A ⇑ get = seep

4 When news or information filters through to people, it gradually reaches them. EG Disturbing rumours filtered back from the East... The word filtered through about the death camps.

V + A ⇑ get = trickle

5 A traffic filter is a traffic signal or lane which controls the movement of traffic wanting to turn left or right. ▸ used as a verb. EG ...traffic waiting to filter to the right.

N COUNT
▸ V : USU + A

6 A filter cigarette is the same as a filter-tipped cigarette. EG He was chain-smoking his habitual filter cigarettes.

N BEFORE N

filter out. To filter out something from a substance means to remove it from the substance by passing the substance through a filter. EG The first part of the problem would involve filtering out some of the tar particles.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

filter tip, filter tips; also spelled with a hyphen. A filter tip is a small device at the end of a cigarette that reduces the amount of nicotine that passes into the smoker's body.

N COUNT

filter-tipped. A filter-tipped cigarette has a filter tip.

ADJ CLASSIF

filth /fɪlθ/. Filth is 1 a disgusting amount of dirt. EG ...the filth and decay of the villages. 2 language or behaviour that is felt to be very disgusting and rude. EG Our children should not be exposed to filth like that. 3 written material or pictures that represent naked people or sex in what is thought to be a crude and offensive way. EG That filth should never be shown on television.

N UNCOUNT
N UNCOUNT
= smut
N UNCOUNT
= smut

filthy /fɪlθiˡ/, filthier, filthiest. 1 Something that is filthy is 1.1 very dirty indeed. EG ...a really filthy oven... I noticed his filthy and torn sweater. 1.2 morally very unpleasant and disgusting, sometimes concerning sexual matters. EG I caught her reading a filthy book... That's a filthy thing to say... ...the dishonesty that prevails in this filthy world we have to live in. ◊ filthiness.

ADJ QUALIT
ADJ QUALIT
⇑ immoral
◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If the weather is filthy, it is raining or snowing, and perhaps very cold and windy; an informal use.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ bad

3 Someone who is filthy rich is very rich indeed; an informal expression.

PHR : USED AS C
= loaded

fin /fɪn/, fins. A fish's fin is a flat object like a small wing sticking out of its body. It helps the fish to swim and to keep its balance.

N COUNT
⇑ limb

final /faɪnəˡ/, finals. 1 In a series of events, things, or people, the final one is the last one. EG ...on the final morning of the festival... We made our second and final attempt to beat the record... The final letter was very vague. Possibly an R.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 Final also means 2.1 happening at the end of an event or series of events. EG The final applause was explosive... ...a final summing up. 2.2 the greatest or most severe that is possible; used of abstract things. EG He paid the final penalty for his crime... The final irony is that he died two days before it was completed.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
= ultimate

3 If a decision, authority, or situation is final, it cannot be changed or questioned. EG The judges' decision is final... You'd be insane to let him have the final say.

ADJ CLASSIF
⇑ definitive

4 The final of a competition or tournament is the last game or contest which takes place and which decides the winner of the whole competition or tournament. EG England beat West Germany in the World Cup Final... We've done well to get to the Final. ▸ You can also refer to the last few games or contests as the finals. EG There is a long way to go before the World Cup Finals in Spain... We hope to qualify for the finals.

N COUNT + SUPP
▸ N PLURAL : the + N

5 When a student takes his or her finals, he or she takes the last and most important examination in a university or college course.

N PLURAL : the/POSS + N ⇑ examinations

6 The final edition of a daily newspaper is the last edition to be printed on a particular day. ▸ used as a noun. EG The story appeared in the late final.

ADJ CLASSIF
▸ N COUNT

finale /fɪnɑːliˡ/, finales. The finale of a show or piece of music is the last section of it, especially when this is exciting or impressive. EG The finale was a spectacular dance involving all the members of the cast.

N COUNT
⇑ end = climax

finalise /faɪnəlaɪz/. See finalize.

finalist /faɪnəlɪst/, finalists. A finalist is someone who takes part in the final of a competition or tournament. EG ...an Olympic finalist.

N COUNT
⇑ competitor finality /faɪnælɪtiˡ/ is the quality of ending or deciding something in a definite and unchangeable way. EG Margaret said quietly but with finality: 'Well, we'll just have to disagree over this'... ...the finality of death.

N UNCOUNT

finalize /faɪnəlaɪz/, finalizes, finalizing, finalized; also spelled finalise. If you finalize something that you are arranging or organizing, you complete and agree on all the arrangements. EG I'm now hoping to finalize things with the builders early next week... They would like the deal to be finalized before I release any keys.

V + O
= settle

finally /faɪnəliˡ/. 1 If someone finally does something, or if something finally happens, it is done or happens after quite a long period of time, sometimes a longer time than it should have done. EG One of them stared at me for a long time and finally asked whether I was Angela Davis... It was Mr Heath's incomes policy which finally led to his downfall... When John finally arrived, he said that he had lost his way... They finally realized that the whole thing was a joke.

ADV
= eventually

2 You use finally 2.1 to say that something is last in a series of actions or events. EG Trotsky lived in turn in Turkey, France, Norway and finally Mexico. 2.2 in speech or writing when you want to introduce a final point, ask a final question, or mention a final item. EG Finally, Carol, are you encouraged by the direction education is taking?... Let's come finally to the question of pensions.

ADV + VB/NG
= lastly
ADV SEN
= lastly

finance /fɪnæns, faɪnæns/, finances, financing, financed. 1 If you finance a particular project or purchase, you provide the money, loans, or grants that are necessary to pay for it. EG A private company will finance and build the pipeline... ...a special job-creation programme to be financed by increased taxes.

V + O
= fund

2 Finance for a project or purchase is the money, loans, credits, or grants that are used to pay for it. EG Obtaining finance from him may be vital to the whole enterprise... ...replacing private finance by government money... We couldn't get the finance for it.

N UNCOUNT

3 Finance is also the management of money, loans, credit, and investment, especially on a national level. EG ....the dangerous political arena of public-sector finance... ....a successful job in high finance.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ business

4 You can refer to the amount of money that you have and how well it is organized as your finances. EG Whether it can be done depends, of course, on your finances.

N PLURAL : POSS + N = resources

financial /fɪˈnænʃəˡl/ means relating to or involving money. EG The company was in deep financial difficulties... Let's talk in purely financial terms... ...the country's financial condition. ◊ financially. EG The venture was not financially successful... We are able to be financially independent.

ADJ CLASSIF
⇑ economic ◊ ADV + ADJ

financial year, financial years. The financial year is a period of twelve months, used by government, business, and other organizations according to which they plan and assess their budgets, profits, etc. In Britain, the financial year used by government for tax collection starts on 5th April.

N COUNT

financier /fɪˈnænsɪə/, financiers. A financier is a person, company, or government that provides finance for projects or enterprises. EG ...an American financier and art collector... America and Russia were both possible financiers of the Aswan High Dam.

N COUNT
⇑ backer

finch /fɪntʃ/, finches. A finch is a small bird with a short strong beak that usually eats seeds. There are many kinds of finch.

N COUNT

find /faɪnd/, finds, finding, found. 1 If you find someone or something, 1.1 you discover or get what you have been looking for as a result of searching for it. EG Put things in a place where you can find them quickly and easily... I think I'm lost, I can't find the bridge... He went back to his room to find his watch... His body has not been found. 1.2 you discover something or someone unexpectedly or accidentally. EG What an amazing restaurant to find in such a place... When she got home she found a six-page letter from David... He walked to the riverbank one day and found a crocodile trapped in a net... She looked up to find Tony standing there. 1.3 you succeed in achieving something or in getting something that you need. EG He cannot find work... She said she would find an electrician for us.

V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (for)
= locate

V+O

V+O, V+O+O, OR V+O+A (for)
⇑ get

2 If you find the answer to a problem, you work out the answer by thinking logically. EG There is a genuine effort to find a solution... We can now find the area of this triangle.

V+O
⇑ learn = arrive at

3 If you find that something is the case, you become aware of it or discover that it is the case. EG When I woke up, I found that I could not move my legs... Sue arrived at eleven-thirty, only to find that everyone had gone... He found it hard to make friends... I found him to be much younger than I expected... He was so frightened he found it almost impossible to speak.

V+REPORT-CL OR V+O+C/to-INF

4 If you say that something is found in a particular place, you mean that this place is where it is or where it lives or exists. EG Four different species of lungfish are found in Africa... There are no reptiles to be found here... You can find the National Portrait Gallery just off Trafalgar Square... You'll find details of these programmes in The Radio Times.

V+O : USU PASS+A

5 If you find your way somewhere, you successfully get to or away from a place by choosing the right way to go. EG Just tell me how to get there and I'll find my own way... She had turned on the lamp so that he could find his way out without bumping into anything.

PHR+A : VB INFLECTS

6 If something finds its way somewhere, it eventually comes to a place which is regarded as suitable or for which it was intended. EG Most of my ideas find their way into the wastepaper basket... I doubt whether much of the money found its way to Bernadette.

PHR+A : VB INFLECTS
⇑ end up

7 If you say that you find that something has a particular quality, you are expressing your opinion about it. EG I found him a disappointment... I don't find that funny at all... I thought I would find it very difficult to give people advice... A character that's mad, I find, is a very difficult character to write about... I find myself in almost total agreement with Tony... Do you find that there are a lot more fires in the summer?

V+O (NG: REFL) +C/A, OR V+REPORT-CL ⇑ think

8 If you find yourself doing something, you are doing it without deciding or intending to do it. EG He found himself giggling quite uncontrollably.

V+O (REFL)+-ING/A
= discover

9 If you find pleasure, enjoyment, comfort, etc in a particular thing or activity, you experience the feeling mentioned as a result of this thing or activity. EG I found comfort in his words... Much pleasure is to be found in mathematics.

V+O+A (in)

10 If you find the time or money to do something, you succeed in making or obtaining enough time or money to do it. EG Some families cannot even find enough money for basic needs... How do you find time to write these books?

V+O : IF+PREP/VB THEN for/to-INF
⇑ get

11 If something finds its target, it arrives at the target for which it was intended. EG Nine of the fifteen missiles had found their targets.

V+O
= reach

12 If a particular time of the day finds someone doing something, that person is doing the thing mentioned at that time; a rather literary use. EG Sunday afternoon found Andrew sleeping happily in an armchair... Every morning found her squatted comfortably before her hut.

V+O+C/A
= see

13 If a person who has been on trial is found guilty or found not guilty, the court, or the jury, decides that the person is guilty or innocent. EG He was found guilty of murder.

V+O+C : USU PASS
⇑ decide = judge

14 If a particular thing finds expression in something else, its ideas or attitudes are represented or put into words or action by this other thing. EG 'Love your neighbour as yourself' finds practical expression in Anne's daily life.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

15 You also use find in a letter to make a polite enquiry about the health or circumstances of the person you have sent the letter to. EG I hope this letter finds you in good health.

V+O : NO PASS, NO CONT, NO IMPER

16 Something that is a find is 16.1 something valuable, interesting, or useful which has been discovered after a search or an investigation. EG An active volcano on one of Jupiter's moons could be the greatest find of the planetary exploration programme. 16.2 a person or place that is very suitable for a particular purpose and that you have discovered by accident. EG They've got this new singer, and she's a real find.

N COUNT : USU SING

USED AS C
= discovery

N SING WITH DET : USU USED AS C
= discovery

17 If you say to someone 'Take me as you find me' or 'You'll have to take us as you find us', you mean that they have to accept you as you are and that you cannot make any special changes to please them. This expression is often used to refer also to the state of tidiness of the place in which you live.

PHR

18 The word find is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to find fault: see fault. ● to find favour: see favour. ● to find your tongue: see tongue. ● to find your feet: see foot.

find for. When a judge finds for one of the people contesting a court case, he or she comes to a judgement in favour of this person. EG The judge had found for the husband.

PHRASAL VB : V+PREP, HAS PASS

find out. 1 If you find out something, you learn something that you did not already know, especially by making a deliberate effort to do so. EG I found out the train times... I'm only interested in finding out what the facts are... We found out that she was wrong.

PHRASAL VB : V+ADV+O/REPORT-CL
= discover

2 If you find someone out, you discover that they have been telling lies, doing something dishonest, or doing something that they should not be doing. EG The manager had found him out and was going to sack him... I'm the sort of man who's always found out.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V+O+ADV, USU PASS = rumble

finder /faɪndə/, finders. 1 The finder of something is the person who finds it.

N COUNT

2 You say 'finders keepers' to suggest that because you have found something you have the right to keep it rather than give it back to the person who lost it.

CONVENTION

finding /faɪndɪŋ/, findings. 1 Someone's findings are the information they get or the conclusions they come to as the result of an investigation or some research. EG Tell me about your findings... ...the findings of the committee... One very alarming finding was that the children had been suffering from lead poisoning.

N COUNT : USU PL
⇑ discovery

2 The findings of a court are the decision that it reaches after a trial or an inquiry into some matter. EG He mentioned the findings of the European Court on a similar appeal.

N COUNT : USU PL
⇑ judgement = verdict

fine /faɪn/, finer, finest; fines, fining, fined. 1 Something that is fine is very good indeed or of very good quality. EG From the top there is a fine view... Paul Scofield gave a fine performance... It is, I believe, the finest English painting of its time... They use only the finest ingredients. ◊ finely. EG ...finely written novels.

ADJ QUALIT
= excellent ≠ mediocre, poor

◊ ADV WITH VB
= exquisitely

2 If you say that you are fine, you mean that you are in good health and reasonably happy; usually said in answer to a question. EG 'How are you?'–'Fine thanks'... 'Is Sam all right?'–'He's fine'.

CONVENTION
⇑ well
= okay

3 If you say that something is fine, you mean that it is very satisfactory or suitable. EG 'Do you want it stronger than that?'–'No, that's fine'... The temperature is fine. ▸ used as an adverb. EG We get on fine... I was doing fine.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED
⇑ acceptable = okay
▸ ADV WITH VB
= okay

4 Someone, especially someone who is in control of a discussion, says 'fine' to show that a particular subject has been dealt with satisfactorily and does not need to be discussed further. EG Any questions on this? No? Fine.

CONVENTION
⇑ right
= good

5 You say 'fine' or 'that's fine' to show that you do not object to an arrangement, action, or situation that has been suggested or mentioned. EG 'How about the two of us taking a little stroll down the garden?'–'Fine'... 'I'll be back by supper time.'–'Fine'... Everything is under control, but if you want to come out that's fine by me... The house needed a lot of work doing to it. That was fine with him.

CONVENTION
= okay, all right

6 Something that is fine is also very narrow or thin or consists of very narrow threads or pieces. EG These pins are very fine and won't split the wood... My hair is too fine... ...a fine-nibbed pen... The lemon peel must be cut very fine. ◊ fineness. EG ...stretching the dough to a gauze-like fineness.

ADJ QUALIT
≠ coarse, thick

◊ N UNCOUNT
= thinness

7 A fine powder, mist, etc consists of very small bits or particles. EG ...handfuls of fine sand... The rain was falling as a fine mist. ◊ finely. EG ...finely chopped meat. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ◊ ADV ≠ coarsely

8 A fine sieve, net, etc is one that has very small holes. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB

9 A fine adjustment, detail, distinction, etc is very delicate, subtle, small, or exact. EG ...this fine adjustment to an individual's pace of learning... Their eyes are trained to see the fine detail... The hunter's senses must be fine. ◊ finely. EG ...the hazards of meddling with these finely balanced systems. ◊ fineness. EG His hand emphasizes the fineness of the points he is stressing. ADJ QUALIT = refined ◊ ADV = subtly ◊ N UNCOUNT = subtlety

10 A fine object is beautiful and delicate in appearance and structure, and of very high quality. EG ...fine pieces of china... The women have high cheekbones and fine features... ...fine white linen. ◊ finely. EG ...finely sewn linen shirts. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ good = dainty ◊ ADV = exquisitely

11 A fine person or thing is considered to be very grand and important. EG Will I shame you in front of your fine friends? ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB

12 Fine is also used to show, in a rather humorous or sarcastic way, that you are rather angry or upset about a situation or about the way that someone has behaved. EG You're a fine one to talk!... They sacked me. A fine reward for trying to preserve academic standards. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ upsetting = nice

13 You describe the weather as fine when it is not raining, especially when it is also sunny. EG They sat on the verge if it was fine and on the benches inside the shop if it was wet... ...a fine summer's day. ADJ CLASSIF = pleasant

14 A fine is a punishment, especially one given by a court of law, in which the guilty person is ordered to pay a specific sum of money; also used to refer to the sum of money itself. EG He paid a £10,000 fine for income tax evasion... ...a parking fine. N COUNT

15 If you fine someone, you punish them by ordering them to pay a fine. EG The three demonstrators were fined £5 each for breach of the peace... He was heavily fined. V + O

16 If you cut it a bit fine, you allow only just enough time for something, with the result that there may not be enough time if difficulties occur. EG 'I've said we'll deliver next Friday.'–'That's cutting it a bit fine, isn't it?' PHR : VB INFLECTS fine down. If you fine down something such as a theory or criticism, you gradually make it more precise or exact. EG He needs to fine down his theory a bit. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ refine = hone fine art, fine arts. 1 Painting and sculpture, in which objects are produced that are beautiful rather than useful, can be referred to as the fine arts or as fine art. EG Few people here are interested in the Fine Arts... He decided to enrol on a fine art course. N PLURAL, the + N, OR N UNCOUNT ⇑ art

17 not to put too fine a point on it: see point.

2 Objects which are made by artists to be looked at and admired rather than used are referred to as fine art. EG This philosophy is reflected in the Fine Art of that era. N UNCOUNT ⇑ objects fine print. The fine print of a contract or agreement is the part of it written in very small print, especially when this is considered as referring to unfavourable conditions which the person signing the contract might overlook. N UNCOUNT = small print finery /faɪnəˈriˈ/ is clothing and jewellery that is beautiful and impressive and is usually worn only on special occasions. EG The ladies were dressed up in all their finery... She has a love of finery. N UNCOUNT finesse /fɪnɛs/. If you do something with finesse, you do it with great skill and elegance or subtlety. EG The matter had been handled by Eddie with tact and finesse. N UNCOUNT = polish fine-tooth comb. If you go over or through something with a fine-tooth comb or fine-toothed comb, you look at it very carefully and consider every detail of it. EG They went over the company's records with a fine-tooth comb but could find nothing wrong. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ examine finger /fɪŋgə/, fingers, fingering, fingered. 1 Your fingers are the four long jointed parts at the end of your hand; sometimes used to include the thumbs too. The word finger is not used in the singular to refer to a thumb. EG She ran her fingers through the cool grass... ...the wedding ring on her finger... He held the handkerchief between his finger and thumb. N COUNT ⇑ digit

3 ● to get something down to a fine art: see art.

2 The fingers of a glove are the parts that a person's fingers fit into. N COUNT ⇑ part

3 A finger of something such as smoke or land is an amount of it that is shaped like a finger. EG ...a finger of black smoke rose up from the chimney. ● See also fish finger. N COUNT + of

4 If you finger something, you touch or feel it with your finger or fingers. EG Eric fingered his split lip. V + O

5 A finger of a strong alcoholic drink is an amount of it which, when it is in a glass, is the same size as the width of a person's finger. EG He poured out three fingers of whisky. N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N UNCOUNT ⇑ measure = tot

6 The word finger is also used in the following expressions. 6.1 If you get your fingers burnt or burn your fingers, you suffer because something you did or were involved in was a failure or a mistake. EG He got his fingers burnt over the sale of the business. 6.2 If you say that someone did not or must not lay a finger on a particular person or thing, you mean they did not or must not touch or harm that person or thing at all. EG He didn't lay a finger on you... If you so much as lay a finger on that car, I'll kill you! 6.3 If you do not lift a finger or raise a finger to do something, especially to help someone, you make no attempt to do it. EG He's never raised a finger to help you with the baby. 6.4 If someone has a finger in every pie or in the pie, they are involved in many activities or in a particular activity. EG But many other countries have fingers in the pie. 6.5 If you point the finger or point a finger at someone, you blame them or accuse them of something. EG The party has pointed an accusing finger at the antics of its left wing... Who am I to start pointing the finger? 6.6 If you point the finger of scorn, the finger of suspicion, etc at someone, you talk about them in a way that shows the feeling mentioned. 6.7 You tell someone to pull their finger out or to get their finger out as an informal and fairly angry way of telling them to start doing some work or making an effort. EG Come on! Pull your finger out, for goodness sake! 6.8 If you put your finger on something, for example a reason or problem, you see and identify exactly what it is. EG He immediately put his finger on what was wrong. 6.9 If you put the finger on a particular person, you tell someone, usually the police, that that person has done something illegal or wrong; an informal expression. 6.10 If something slips through your fingers, you fail to catch it or get it, especially when you have been very near to it. EG Happiness seemed to slip through his fingers. 6.11 If you say that you are all fingers and thumbs, you mean that you are being very clumsy at doing something with your hands, for example tying a knot. 6.12 If you can twist someone round your little finger, you can persuade them to do anything that you ask them to. EG Sue can twist her father round her little finger. 6.13 ● to work your fingers to the bone: see bone. ● to cross your fingers: see cross. ● to have green fingers: see green.
PHR : VB INFLECTS / PHR : VB + finger INFLECTS / PHR : USED AS C

finger bowl, finger bowls. A finger bowl is a small bowl with water in it which you can wash your fingers in during a formal meal. N COUNT fingering /fɪŋgəˈrɪŋ/ is the method of using the most suitable finger to play each note when you are playing a musical instrument, especially the piano. EG I haven't learnt the fingering for this piece yet. N SING : the + N fingermark /fɪŋgəmɑːk/, fingermarks. A fingermark is a mark which is made when someone puts a dirty or greasy finger onto a clean surface. EG You've put fingermarks all over my mirror. N COUNT ⇑ mark fingernail /fɪŋgəneɪl/, fingernails; also spelled with a hyphen. Your fingernails are the thin hard areas that cover the end of each of your fingers. N COUNT = nail finger painting; also spelled with a hyphen. Finger painting is painting, done mainly by small children, in which the paint is put onto the paper with the fingers rather than with a brush. N UNCOUNT / COUNT fingerprint /fɪŋgəprɪnt/, fingerprints, fingerprinting, fingerprinted. 1 A fingerprint is a mark made by a person's finger which shows the lines on the skin. Every person's fingerprints are different from every other person's and so they can be used to identify criminals. EG He was careful, leaving no fingerprints. ● When the police take a person's fingerprints, they make that person press their fingers onto an inky pad and then onto paper, so that they know what that person's fingerprints look like. EG He was photographed and had his fingerprints taken.

N COUNT = print / ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

2 If the police fingerprint a person, they take that person's fingerprints. V+O

3 If the police fingerprint an object, they put a layer of special dust on it so that any greasy fingerprints that are on it can be seen. V+O fingertip /fɪŋgətɪp/, fingertips; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 Your fingertips are the ends of your fingers. EG I probed through his hair with my fingertips and found a lump... The chairman nodded and put his fingertips together. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ end

2 Someone who is, for example, professional or an artist to their fingertips or to the fingertips is the thing mentioned in every way possible. EG She was professional to her fingertips, disciplined, and punctual... He was a gentleman to his fingertips. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ completely

3 If you have something at your fingertips, you can reach or make use of it quickly and easily. EG ...with computers at your fingertips... Have your cash at your fingertips! PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ available = to hand

4 If you have particular information at your fingertips, you know it very well and can easily remember it and give it. EG Mrs Hoyland Leach had the facts at her fingertips. PHR : USED AS AN A = ready finicky /fɪnɪkiˈ/. Someone who is finicky is fussy and does not like many things; used showing disapproval. EG He was a very finicky eater. ADJ QUALIT finis /fɪnɪs/ means 'the end'; usually written at the end of a book or film.

finish /fɪnɪʃ/, finishes, finishing, finished. 1 If you finish, or finish something that you are doing or dealing with, you reach the end of it, so that there is no more for you to do or deal with. EG I've just finished reading that book... Aren't you ever going to finish the ironing?... When he had finished, he closed the file. V OR V+O/-ING

2 When you finish something that you are making or producing, you reach the end of making or producing it, so that it is complete. EG The building was finished in 1962... I have to finish a report tonight... They were eager to see the finished product. ● When you put the finishing touches or a finishing touch to something, you add or do the last things or thing that must be added or done to it in order to make it complete. EG He was sitting at the kitchen table putting the finishing touches to his own DIY computer. V+O ● PHR : USED AS O

3 When something such as a course, film, sale, etc finishes, especially at a planned time, it ends. EG He's looking forward to going home when his course finishes... It starts in October and finishes in June... 'Heat and Dust' finishes at the Odeon on Friday. V : USU + A

4 When you finish by doing or saying a particular thing, you do or say it as the last part of an event or series of actions. EG Can I just finish with a final question... We finished dinner with hot pumpkin pie... He finished the argument by walking out of the room. V OR V+O, IF + PREP THEN with/by = conclude, end

5 The finish of something is the end of it or the last part of it. EG I missed the finish of the match... I have worked for the firm all these years and I intend to be there at the finish... It is a piece of communication from start to finish. N SING : USU the + N, IF + PREP THEN of = conclusion

6 Someone who finishes work or school at a particular time, stops working or studying at that time. EG I finish work at 3. V+O ; USU + A ⇑ stop

7 When you finish something that you have been eating, drinking, or smoking, you eat, drink, or smoke the last part of it. EG Brody finished his sandwich... She finished her cigarette. V OR V+O, USU V+O

8 If you finish, you reach the end of saying something. EG Don't interrupt, William. Let me finish... In a voice broken with emotion, he finished: 'God bless America.' V OR V+O/QUOTE = conclude

9 If you finish first, second, etc in a race or competition, you end it in the position stated. EG It was Montclair who finished first... He first came into prominence when he finished fifth in the 1967 US Open. V+A (USU ORDINAL), OR V+O+A (USU ORDINAL) = come

10 The finish of a race is the end of it. EG It looks like being a close finish. N COUNT

11 If the surface of something that has been made has a particular kind of finish, it has the appearance or texture mentioned. EG The paintwork was shocking-a really gritty finish... Metallic finish is standard. N COUNT/UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ surfacing

12 A fight to the finish is one in which one of the people or groups fighting is killed or completely defeated. EG It will be a fight to the finish. ▸ used as a verb. EG ...young men settled arguments by fighting to the finish with battle-axes. PHR : USED AS O OR C ▸ PHR : VB INFLECTS

13 See also finished.

finish off. 1 When you finish off someone or something that is already badly injured or damaged, you kill or destroy them. EG The captain finished him off with his revolver. PHRASAL VB : V+O+ADV = dispatch

2 When you finish off something that you are doing, you reach the end of it by doing the last part of it. EG I've had problems finishing off the job... He had finished off his thesis. PHRASAL VB : V+O+ADV = complete

3 When you finish off by doing or saying a particular thing, you do or say it as the last part of an event or series of actions. EG He always finished off with his favourite song. PHRASAL VB : V+ADV, OR V+O+ADV = conclude

4 When you finish off something that you have been eating or drinking you eat or drink the last part of it with the result that there is none left. EG He finished off the wine with a couple of swallows. PHRASAL VB : V+ADV, OR V+O+ADV = polish off finish up. 1 If you finish up in a particular place, or in a particular state or condition, you are in that place, state, or condition at the end of something you do or experience. EG She'll be going on tour, starting in Southampton and finishing up in London... They all finished up stranded on the beaches. PHRASAL VB : V+ADV = wind up, end up

2 If you finish up doing a particular thing or as a particular thing, the thing stated is what you are doing or what you are at the end of your career. EG They finished up serving in a shop... Maybe you too will finish up as Prime Minister. PHRASAL VB : V+ADV, USU + ING/= wind up

3 When you finish up something that you have been eating or drinking you eat or drink the last part of it so that there is none left. PHRASAL VB : V+O+ADV

finish with. If you finish with someone or something, you stop dealing with them, being involved with them, or being interested in them. EG I haven't finished with you yet... I thought I had finished with the play for ever. PHRASAL VB : V+PREP, HAS PASS finished /fɪnɪʃt/. 1 Someone who is finished with something is no longer doing it or dealing with it or is no longer interested in it. EG He won't be finished for at least half an hour... Marion was not finished with Paul yet... He was finished with marriage. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN with

2 Something that is finished no longer exists or is no longer happening. EG All that is finished now... The shooting was almost finished. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED = over

3 Someone or something that is finished is no longer important, powerful, or effective. EG If that happens, Richard is finished... He declared that the printed word was finished. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

4 An object that is finished in a particular way has been given a particular appearance or decoration. EG ...a well finished and durable product... It was finished in knotty pine... ...specially finished fabrics. ADJ CLASSIF finishing school, finishing schools. A finishing school is a private school where rich or upper-class young women are taught behaviour and skills that are considered to be suitable for them. EG I met him while at finishing school last year in Switzerland. N COUNT/UNCOUNT finite /faɪnaɪt/. 1 Something that is finite has a particular size or has a limit beyond which it cannot increase or develop; a formal use. EG We have a finite number of places... ...a finite but unbounded universe. ADJ CLASSIF

2 A finite verb is one that inflects according to person, tense, mood, etc, rather than being, for example, an infinitive or a participle; a technical term in grammar. ADJ CLASSIF fink /fɪŋk/, finks. A fink is someone who tells the authorities that a person they know has done something illegal or wrong; an informal American word, used showing disapproval. N COUNT = grass

Finn /fɪn/, Finns. A Finn is a person who comes from Finland. N COUNT

Finnish /fɪnɪʃ/. 1 A person or thing that is Finnish belongs to or relates to Finland, or to its people or language. ADJ CLASSIF

2 Finnish is the language that is spoken by people who live in Finland. N UNCOUNT fiord /fiːɔːd/. See fjord.

fir /fɜː/, firs. A fir or a fir tree is a tall, pointed tree, usually an evergreen, that has thin needle-like leaves N COUNT and produces cones. Firs grow mainly in cool countries. EG ...fir cones.

fire /faɪə/, fires, firing, fired. 1 Fire is the hot, bright flames produced by things that are burning. Fire can destroy or damage many things. EG Picture books show our ancestors discovering fire. — N UNCOUNT

2 Fire or a fire is an occurrence of uncontrolled burning which destroys buildings, forests, crops, etc. EG A fire had severely damaged part of the school... ...a forest fire... His neighbour's house is not insured against fire... A paraffin heater can be a dangerous fire risk. — N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

3 A fire is 3.1 a burning pile of wood, coal or other fuel that you have made and set light to, for example in order to keep yourself warm or to cook food over. EG There were two armchairs drawn up to the fire... He gathered firewood, lit a fire and cooked a meal. — N COUNT

3.2 a device that uses electricity or gas to give out heat and warm a room. EG She switched on the electric fire. — N COUNT

4 The word fire is also used with the general sense of something that is burning in the following expressions. 4.1 If something catches fire, it starts burning. EG Will the house catch fire? — PHR

4.2 To fight a fire means to try to put it out. EG He has spent a lifetime fighting fires. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

4.3 If you say that you can only fight fire with fire, you mean that you can only deal with someone who is attacking you or causing you problems by using similar methods to the ones they are using. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

4.4 Something that is on fire is burning and being damaged or destroyed by an uncontrolled fire. EG The house is on fire! — PHR : USED AS AN A

4.5 If you say that part of your body, for example your mouth or chest, is on fire, you mean that it feels very painful or sore. EG Her throat was on fire. — PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ hurt = burn

4.6 Someone who is playing with fire is doing something or is involved in something that is dangerous and may result in great harm for them. EG He doesn't realize he's playing with fire. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

4.7 If you set fire to something or if you set it on fire, you start it burning in order to damage or destroy it. EG He set fire to the church... A small hut was set on fire. — PHR : VB INFLECTS = ignite

4.8 ● the fat's in the fire: see fat. ● out of the frying pan into the fire: see frying pan. ● to get on like a house on fire: see house. ● there's no smoke without fire: see smoke.

5 If someone fires a gun or a bullet, or if they fire, a bullet is sent from a gun that they are using. EG I fired three or four times in quick succession... I haven't fired a gun in years... Few had ever fired a shot in anger... ...an artillery gun that could fire a nuclear shell. ◊ firing. EG Then, abruptly, the firing stopped. — V OR V-ERG ⇑ shoot ◊ N SING WITH DET : the+N

6 Shots fired from a gun or guns can be referred to as fire. EG Then there was a burst of automatic rifle fire... The men on the beach were under fire. — N UNCOUNT

7 The word fire is used with the following expressions. 7.1 If you draw the fire of someone who is shooting or about to shoot, you fire at them or attract their attention in order to make them shoot at you, usually so that they will not shoot at someone else. EG They were waiting by the bridge, drawing the fire of the enemy artillery. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.2 If you hold your fire, you stop shooting or wait before you start shooting. EG Johnson ordered his men to hold their fire. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

7.3 If you are in someone's line of fire, you are between them and the thing that they are aiming their gun at. EG Two people strayed into his line of fire and got killed. — PHR : PREP + POSS + PHR ⇑ position

7.4 If you open fire on someone, you start shooting at them. EG This was the signal for the marksmen to open fire on the President's car. — PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN on

7.5 If you return fire or you return someone's fire, you shoot back at someone who has shot at you. EG Keep in cover and return fire with mortars and machine-guns. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

8 If something hangs fire, it does not progress or develop for a period of time. EG At that point the matter had hung fire for more than half a year. — PHR : VB INFLECTS

9 If you fire an arrow, you send it from a bow. EG Robin had fired all his arrows. — V + O = shoot

10 If you fire questions or suggestions at someone, you say a lot of them quickly, one after another. EG ...a host of questions which are being fired at him. — V + O : IF + PREP THEN at ⇑ shoot

11 Someone's fire can also mean strong criticisms made by them. EG Oliver, of course, would be concentrating his fire on me, as usual. ● If you come under fire from someone, they criticize you strongly. EG He could come under fire from Liberal councillors if he goes ahead with his plan. — N UNCOUNT : POSS + N ● PHR : USED AS AN A

● If you are in the firing line, you are being criticized or blamed for something. EG The Government found itself in the firing line over its proposals. — ● PHR : USED AS AN A

12 If you fire someone with enthusiasm or fire their imagination, you make them feel full of enthusiasm about something. EG He lacked imagination and could not fire the imagination of others... ...inspiring ideals that could fire the followers of his party with enthusiasm. — V + O ⇑ excite = inspire

13 Fire is also energy and enthusiasm. EG Everything he said was delivered with the fire and idealism of a man of twenty, not forty... The chairman of the African group brought new fire to the debate. — N UNCOUNT ⇑ excitement = inspiration

14 Someone who is on fire with enthusiasm or passion is very enthusiastic or excited about something. — PHR : USED AS AN A, IF + PREP THEN with

15 If an employer fires someone, he or she dismisses them from their job. EG Graffman fired him for incompetence... She was fired on the spot. — V + O = sack

16 When the engine of a motor vehicle fires, an electrical spark is produced which causes the fuel to burn and the engine to work. EG The engine isn't firing. — V

17 If you fire a clay object, as part of the process of making it, you heat it at a high temperature in a special oven. EG When a pot has been formed it must be fired. ◊ firing, firings. EG With most glazed ware there are two firings. — V + O ⇑ bake ◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT fire away. You say fire away to someone, when you know that they want to say something, as a way of showing that you are ready for them to say it. EG 'I was hoping to bring up a point.'–'Well fire away.' — CONVENTION = go ahead, shoot fire off. If you fire off a shot, you send a bullet or other missile from a gun. EG The sniper popped up and fired off a single round. — PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV fire alarm, fire alarms; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire alarm is a device that makes a noise, for example with a bell, to warn people when there is a fire. — N COUNT firearm /faɪərɑːm/, firearms. A firearm is a gun, especially a pistol. EG He got a fourteen-year sentence for illegal possession of firearms. — N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ weapon fireball /faɪəbɔːl/, fireballs. A fireball is a ball of fire, for example one at the centre of a nuclear explosion. — N COUNT firebomb /faɪəbɒm/, firebombs; also spelled with a hyphen. A firebomb is a bomb that is made in a particular way so that it burns after it has exploded. EG Sixteen youths were charged with throwing fire-bombs. — N COUNT = incendiary device firebrand /faɪəbrænd/, firebrands. A firebrand is a person who is very active, especially in politics, and who tries to make other people take action, often in a way that causes trouble. EG He is represented by the media as a dangerous firebrand. — N COUNT = activist firebreak /faɪəbreɪk/, firebreaks. A firebreak is an area of open land in a wood or forest, which is intended to stop a fire from spreading. — N COUNT firebrick /faɪəbrɪk/, firebricks. A firebrick is a type of brick which cannot be damaged by heat and which is used to line furnaces. — N COUNT/ UNCOUNT fire brigade, fire brigades; also spelled with a hyphen. The fire brigade is an organization which has the job of putting out fires. EG Call the fire brigade. — N SING : the+N, OR N COUNT firecracker /faɪəkrækə/, firecrackers; also spelled with a hyphen. A firecracker is a firework that makes several loud bangs when it is lit. EG People set off strings of firecrackers. — N COUNT ⇑ device

-fired combines with nouns referring to a fuel to indicate that something uses the type of fuel stated. EG ...oil-fired central heating... ...coal-fired power stations. — COMB : FORMS ADJ CLASSIFS fire drill, fire drills. When a fire drill takes place in a particular building, the people who work or live there practise what to do if there is a fire. — N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ practice fire-eater, fire-eaters; also spelled as two words.

1 A fire-eater is a performer who puts flaming rods into his or her mouth to entertain people. — N COUNT

2 If you call someone a fire-eater, you mean that they are very quarrelsome. — N COUNT fire engine, fire engines; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire engine is a large vehicle that carries firemen and equipment for putting out fires. — N COUNT fire escape, fire escapes; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire escape is a metal staircase or ladder — N COUNT ⇑ exit on the outside of a building, to be used for escaping from a building when there is a fire.

fire extinguisher, fire extinguishers; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire extinguisher is a metal cylinder which contains water or chemicals at high pressure for putting out fires. N COUNT ⇑ device fire fighter, fire fighters; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire fighter is a fireman or a person who helps to put out a large fire. N COUNT fire-fighting; also spelled as two words. Fire-fighting is the work of putting out fires. EG ...individual attempts at fire-fighting... ...fire-fighting equipment. N UNCOUNT firefly /faɪəflaɪ/, fireflies. A firefly is an insect that glows in the dark. N COUNT ⇑ beetle fireguard /faɪəgɑːd/, fireguards; also spelled with a hyphen. A fireguard is a screen made of strong wire mesh that you put round a fire so that young children cannot accidentally burn themselves and to prevent burning wood or coal falling out. N COUNT fire hydrant /faɪə haɪdrənt/, fire hydrants; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire hydrant is a pipe in the street from which firemen can obtain water for putting out a fire, or a post that shows where this pipe is. N COUNT = fireplug fire-irons; also spelled without a hyphen. Fire-irons are tools that you use for putting coal or wood on a fire, or for cleaning the fireplace. N PLURAL firelight /faɪəlaɪt/ is the light that comes from a fire that you have lit. EG His face looked ruddy in the firelight. N UNCOUNT : USU the + N fire lighter, fire lighters. A fire lighter is a small block of a material which burns easily, used to start a fire burning. N COUNT fireman /faɪəmən/, firemen. A fireman is a person whose job is to put out fires. Firemen also rescue people or animals who are trapped in cars, railings, trees, etc. EG Firemen turned their hoses on the flames. N COUNT fireplace /faɪəpleɪs/, fireplaces. A fireplace is a place at the bottom of a wall in a room, usually with an opening into a chimney, where a fire can be lit or has been put. Fireplaces usually have a shelf above them and bricks, tiles, or stone round them. EG A fire was going in the fireplace... There was a portrait of his wife over the marble fireplace. N COUNT = grate, hearth fireplug /faɪəplʌg/, fireplugs. A fireplug is the same as a fire hydrant; used in American English. N COUNT = standpipe firepower /faɪəpaʊə/; also spelled with a hyphen. The firepower of an army, ship, tank, or aircraft is the amount of ammunition it can fire. EG They have greatly increased the offensive firepower of their fleet. N UNCOUNT ⇑ capability fireproof /faɪəpruːf/, fireproofs, fireproofing, fireproofed; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 Something that is fireproof cannot be damaged by fire. EG ...fireproof clothing. ADJ CLASSIF

2 If you fireproof something, you make it fireproof. EG The stables were all fireproofed. V + O fire-raising is the act of deliberately starting a fire in order to damage or destroy something, usually a building. N UNCOUNT = arson fire sale, fire sales; also spelled with a hyphen. A fire sale is a sale in which goods are sold cheaply because the shop or warehouse they were in has been damaged by fire. EG We got them at fire-sale prices. N COUNT fire service, fire services. The fire service is an organization which has the job of putting out fires. EG There was a quick response from the police, the ambulances, and the fire service. N SING : the + N, OR N COUNT = fire brigade fireside /faɪəsaɪd/. If you sit by the fireside in a room, you sit near the fire. EG ...sitting comfortably by his fireside... He ran to join his father at the fireside... ...a fireside chat. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ place = hearth fire station, fire stations. A fire station is a building where fire engines are kept, and where firemen wait until they are called to put out a fire. N COUNT fire-storm, fire-storms. When a fire-storm occurs in a place that is burning after being bombed, strong winds rush into it to take the place of the hot air that is rising, causing the blaze to burn uncontrollably. N COUNT fire trap, fire traps. If you describe a building as a fire trap, you mean that it is a building that could easily catch fire or one from which it would be difficult to escape if there was a fire. N COUNT fire-watching is the job of looking out for fires that have started, especially as the result of bombing during wartime. N UNCOUNT firewater /faɪəwɔːtə/ is very strong alcoholic drink such as whisky; an informal word, usually used humorously. N UNCOUNT firewood /faɪəwʊd/ is wood that has been cut into pieces so that it can be burned on a fire. EG ...a bundle of firewood. N UNCOUNT

firework /faɪəwɜːk/, fireworks. 1 A firework is a small object with chemicals inside it that burns with coloured flames, sparks, or smoke when you light it, and often makes loud noises too. Large numbers of fireworks are lit to entertain people on special occasions. EG ...a firework display in Hyde Park... A few loud fireworks went off. N COUNT

2 Fireworks are a firework display. EG I had gone to watch the fireworks, one Fourth of July. N PLURAL : PL FORM WHEN MOD

3 An exciting and impressive performance, speech, or piece of writing can be referred to as fireworks. EG ...James Joyce's verbal fireworks. N PLURAL : USU + SUPP

4 Fireworks are also angry arguments or words. EG There'll be fireworks when the boss finds out. N PLURAL firing squad, firing squads. A firing squad is a group of soldiers who are ordered to shoot and kill a person who has been found guilty of committing a crime. EG I would line them up in front of a firing squad... He faces death by firing squad. N COUNT, OR by + N firm /fɜːm/, firmer, firmest; firms, firming, firmed. 1 A firm is an organization which sells or produces something or which provides a service which people pay for. EG The firm has not been doing well recently... He was a partner in a firm of solicitors in Holborn... ...insurance firms. N COUNT = company

2 Something that is firm 2.1 does not change much in shape when it is pressed but is not completely hard. EG Bake the cake for about an hour until it is firm and brown... I like a firm mattress. ◊ firmly. EG ...a small, firmly stuffed settee. ◊ firmness. EG ...the firmness of his body. 2.2 does not shake or move when weight or pressure is put on it because it is resting flat on a surface or because it is strongly made. EG Make sure that you have a strong firm ladder. ◊ firmly. EG Each block rested firmly and squarely on the block below it. 2.3 is fixed or held so that it cannot move easily. EG She wound a bandage around the splint till it was firm... He put sticky tape round it to hold it firm. ◊ firmly. EG The moustache was stuck firmly in place. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ solid = stiff ◊ ADV ◊ N UNCOUNT ADJ QUALIT ⇑ steady ◊ ADV ADJ QUALIT : PRED = secure ◊ ADV = securely

3 A firm grasp or push is done with quite a lot of force or pressure, and in a controlled way. EG His handshake was firm and solid... I took a firm hold on the rope. ◊ firmly. EG He held her arm, not hard, but firmly... She closed the door firmly. ◊ firmness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ strong ◊ ADV ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 A firm band or tie round something holds it with quite a lot of pressure. EG ...a firm bandage. ADJ QUALIT = secure

5 A firm decision or opinion is definite and unlikely to change or be changed. EG They want a firm decision by next Monday... ...a person with firm views on a variety of matters... Have they set a firm date for the wedding? ▸ used of a person. EG I am a firm believer in this philosophy. ◊ firmly. EG His sister was firmly of the belief that he was crazy. ◊ firmness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ positive ▸ ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV = strongly ◊ N UNCOUNT

6 Firm evidence or information is based on facts and is definitely true. EG No firm evidence had come to light... By the weekend came firm news. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ certain

7 Someone who is firm behaves in a way that shows that they are not going to be persuaded to change their mind, or that they are in control. EG Our present state of affairs demands firm leadership... 'No,' said Mother in a firm voice... He was very firm about it. ◊ firmly. EG Actors must be dealt with firmly... I shall tell her quite firmly that it is not any business of hers. ◊ firmness. EG 'This is what I want,' said Mrs Oliver, with firmness and determination. ● Someone who stands firm refuses to change their mind or to give in. EG The Americans refused to stand down. The British also stood firm... The Government should stand firm against such threats. ADJ QUALIT = decisive ◊ ADV = definitely ◊ N UNCOUNT ● PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN against

8 If something, for example a basis for a particular thing or someone's control over a particular thing, is firm, it is strong and unlikely to be ended or removed. EG The guerrillas soon established a firm foothold in the area... We have not given these kids any firm foundations on which to build... He had taken a firm grip on the management side of the ADJ QUALIT ⇑ secure = solid

paper. ◇ firmly. EG The trend is already firmly established. ◇ ADV ⇑ securely

9 If something relating to finance and trade is firm, it is not decreasing in value or amount. EG Investment remained firm despite the average 1.8% growth rate... The pound held firm against the dollar. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ steady

10 If you firm soil, you press it so that it is fairly solid rather than loose. V + O firm up. If you firm up a part of your body, you make it firmer and less fat, for example by exercising. EG This exercise will help to firm up those flabby thighs. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV firmament /fɜːməmənt/. The firmament is the sky or the heavens; an old-fashioned or literary word. N SING : the + N first /fɜːst/, firsts. 1 The first thing, person, event, or period of time is the one that happens or comes before all the others of a similar type: see □ at number, age, and date. EG ...the first man in space... ...the first two years of life... ...January the first... I was the first to recover. ORDINAL ≠ last, final

2 If someone does something first, they do it before anyone or anything else. EG Ralph spoke first... When people get their newspaper, which page do they read first? ADV WITH VB ≠ last

3 First is also used 3.1 when you say what happened before all the other things in a situation or series of events. EG First I went to see the editor of the Dispatch... He turned his head first to one side, then to the other. 3.2 when indicating that a particular thing should be done before something else. EG 'Sit down and eat.'–'Give me some matches first'... But first I had to get a visa. ADV WITH VB ≠ finally

4 If something is described as the first, or the first for a particular person, it has never happened before or has never been done or experienced before by anyone or by that person. EG If it's her first baby, she can't help feeling anxious... For the first time in our lives something really exciting has happened... ...first-time visitors to the Soviet Union... The proposals–the first for 22 years–are extremely radical. ▸ used as a noun. EG It's a first for me, too. ORDINAL ▸ N COUNT

5 When something first happens, it has not happened before and this is the first time that it has happened; often used to emphasize the introduction or creation of something. EG Vita and Harold first met in the summer of 1910... 'The Sheltering Sky' was first published in 1949... ...when they first introduced 'O' levels. ADV WITH VB

6 The first someone heard of or saw of a particular thing was the first time they heard of or became aware of it, or the first example of it that they saw. EG The first Mr Walker knew about it was when he saw it in the local paper. PRON : the + PRON + REPORT CL ≠ last

7 The time when someone first did something is the early part of a situation or activity. EG When he first came he would hardly speak to anyone. ADV WITH VB ⇑ initially

8 First is used to describe the early signs or parts of something that suggest that it will develop into something bigger, more serious, etc. EG ...the first thin flakes of snow... ...the first rumblings of discontent. ORDINAL + N IN PL

9 Your first reaction to something is the way you feel or react immediately after experiencing it, which is often different from the way you feel about it later. EG My first instinct was to resign.... My first reaction to this device was one of alarm. ORDINAL + N = initial

10 You use at first when you are talking about what happens in the early stages of an event or experience, or just after something else has happened, in contrast to what happens later. EG At first I was reluctant... He couldn't at first work out why the room seemed different. PHR : USED AS AN A = initially

11 From the first means ever since something started. EG From the first, its size and grandeur caught the public imagination. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ always

12 From first to last means from the beginning of something until the end. EG He was in control of the project from first to last. PHR : USED AS AN A = throughout

13 You use first in speech or writing 13.1 when you want to give a reason, make a point, or mention an item that will be followed by others connected with it. EG There were several reasons for this. First, four submarines had been sighted. ● You can also say first off to give a reason or make a point in this way; used in informal English. EG First off, there's the matter of the swimming-pool. 13.2 when you are giving a list and want to refer to the thing or person that you are mentioning or describing first. EG There are two main critical areas. The first is food. 13.3 when you have mentioned two things, to refer to the one you mentioned first. EG The first man said: 'Security Police–Special Branch'... She wore a blouse and skirt, but the first was too tight and the second too ample. ADV SEN = firstly ● PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ firstly ORDINAL : the + ORDINAL ≠ last ORDINAL : USU the + ORDINAL ≠ last

14 If you do something first thing, or first thing at night, in the afternoon, etc, you do it at the beginning of the day or at the beginning of the part of the day mentioned, before you do anything else. EG ...a nauseating sight, especially first thing in the morning... I would look it up and tell her first thing tomorrow. PHR : USED AS AN A, USU + A

15 The first thing, person, or place in a row or line is the one nearest to you or to something else. EG They took their seats in the first three rows... They stopped beside the first of the trees. ORDINAL ≠ last

16 First is also 16.1 used of the person or thing that comes above all the others in a series, order, or list, especially because it is better, more basic, etc than the others. EG My pig won first prize at Skipton Fair... There are now 22 teams in the first division... Let's get down to first principles. 16.2 used when referring to the thing that is considered to be the main and most important one. EG The first duty of the state is to ensure that law and order prevail... I am a draughtsman first and a painter second. 16.3 used in the title of someone's job or position to indicate that they are higher in rank than someone else. EG ...the First Lord of the Treasury... ...the first mate. ORDINAL ≠ last ORDINAL = chief ORDINAL : BEFORE N ⇑ chief

17 If you put someone or something first, you treat or consider them as more important than anything or anyone else. EG Put your career first... The new Bill puts the rights of children first. PHR : VB INFLECTS = give priority

18 Someone or something that comes first is treated or considered as more important than anything else. EG Your family and children must always come first. PHR : VB INFLECTS = have priority

19 A first is an honours degree of the highest standard. EG He got a first in French. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN in

20 First is the first gear in a series of gears in a car or other vehicle. EG I had to change down into first. N UNCOUNT

21 In order to emphasize your determination not to do a particular thing, you can say that rather than do it, you would do something else first. EG He's never getting me to do his dirty work again. I'd die first. ADV AFTER VB

22 The word first is also used in the following expressions. 22.1 If you experience or learn something at first hand, you experience it yourself or learn it directly rather than being told about it by other people. EG He had learned about electronic warfare at first hand. 22.2 First come, first served is used to say that a group of people or things will be dealt with or given something in the order in which they arrive. EG Applications will be dealt with on a first come, first served basis. 22.3 You say 'first things first' to introduce something that should be done or dealt with before anything else because it is the most important. EG Rodin held up his hand. 'First things first, gentlemen. Are we willing to accept the proposals?' 22.4 First and last is used when referring to the thing, person, or characteristic that is definitely the most important one. EG The first and last thing about my Aunt Gladys is that she is an eccentric. ● first and foremost: see foremost. 22.5 If you say that you do not know the first thing about something, you mean that you know absolutely nothing about it. EG You are talking about a subject you don't know the first thing about. 22.6 If you do not have the first idea about something, you have no understanding of it at all. EG She didn't have the first idea how to start the car. PHR : USED AS AN A PHR PHR : BEFORE N, OR USED AS AN A ⇑ main PHR : VB INFLECTS PHR : VB INFLECTS

-first combines with nouns like 'head' and 'feet' to say that someone moves with the part that is mentioned pointing in the direction in which they are moving. EG Then we shove him in head first. COMB : FORMS ADVS first aid is simple medical treatment given as soon as possible to a person who is injured or who suddenly becomes ill. EG The wounded were given first aid... ...my first-aid kit. N UNCOUNT first-born. Someone's first-born is their first child; a rather literary word. EG David was the first-born... ...his first-born son. N SING WITH DET, OR ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB first-class; also spelled without a hyphen. 1 If you describe something or someone as first-class, you mean that they are excellent and of the highest quality. EG ...a first-class administrator. ADJ QUALIT = first-rate

2 First-class is used to describe something that is in the group considered to be of the highest standard. EG ...a first class honours degree in applied chemistry... Am I the worst cricketer ever to play first class cricket? ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 A first-class ticket allows you to travel in the best type of accommodation on a train, aircraft, or ship. EG ...a first-class rail ticket... ...the privilege of flying everywhere first class. ADJ CLASSIF, OR ADV AFTER VB

4 First-class postage is the quicker and more expensive type of postage. EG Two first-class stamps, please... I sent it first class on Friday. ADJ CLASSIF, OR ADV AFTER VB first cousin, first cousins. Someone's first cousin is their cousin, in contrast to their second cousin. N COUNT first-day cover, first-day covers. A first-day cover is an envelope on which a set of special stamps has been stuck and which is post-marked on the first day that the stamps were issued. N COUNT first-degree. A first-degree burn or murder is one of the least bad or severe kind. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB first-ever. Something that is the first-ever one of its kind has never happened before. EG ...the first-ever Piccadilly Festival. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = very first first floor, first floors. The first floor of a building is 1 the floor of a building immediately above the one at ground level; used in British English. EG ...on the first floor of the Museum... ...a first-floor suite. N COUNT : USU the+N

2 the ground floor; used in American English. N COUNT : USU the+N

first fruits. The first fruits of a project or activity are the earliest results or profits. EG The first fruits are likely to be trivial. N PLURAL first-hand. First-hand information or experience is gained or learned directly, rather than from other people or from books. EG They have first-hand experience of charitable organizations. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADV

First Lady, First Ladies. 1 The First Lady in a country or state is the wife of the president or state governor, or a woman who performs the official duties normally performed by the wife. EG The Ivory Coast's First Lady was beautifully dressed. N COUNT : USU the+N IN SING

2 A woman who is referred to as the first lady of something is considered to be better than any other at the thing mentioned. EG ...the acknowledged first lady of rock and roll. N COUNT : of : USU SING first language, first languages. Someone's first language is the language that they learnt first and speak best; used especially when they speak more than one language. N COUNT = native language firstly /fɜːstli[1]/. You use firstly 1 in speech or writing when you want to give a reason, make a point, or mention an item that will be followed by others connected with it. EG There are two reasons. Firstly I have no evidence whatever that the original document has been destroyed. ADV SEN = first

2 when you refer to the earliest in a series of events; some people consider this use to be incorrect English. EG Jim Smith was elected firstly to the District Council and then to the Regional Council. ADV WITH VB = initially, first first name, first names. Your first name is the first of the names that were given to you when you were born. You can also refer to all of your names except your surname as your first names. EG Nobody called Daintry by his first name because nobody knew it... I was on first-name terms with them. N COUNT = Christian name, given name first night, first nights. The first night of a show, play, or performance is the first public performance of it. EG ...the first night of 'Pacific Overtures'... We all had first-night nerves. N COUNT first offender, first offenders. A first offender is a person who has been found guilty of a crime for the first time. N COUNT ⇑ criminal first person. The first person refers to yourself when you are speaking or writing, and is expressed as 'I' or 'we' with the form of a verb which is used with 'I' or 'we'. EG Charles is the first person storyteller of the book... ...a narrative in the first person. N SING : the+N first-rate. Something that is first-rate is excellent and of the highest quality. EG ...a first-rate golfer... ...first-rate performances. ADJ CLASSIF = first class first school, first schools. A first school is a school for children aged between five and eight or nine. N COUNT

First World War. The First World War or the First War is the major war that was fought between 1914 and 1918 in Europe. EG He had fought in the First World War. N PROPER : the+N = Great War fiscal /fɪskə[ə]l/. 1 Fiscal is used to describe something that relates to government or public money, especially taxes. EG ...fiscal policies... ...fiscal controls. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ financial fiscal year, fiscal years. The fiscal year is the same as the financial year; used in American English. N COUNT fish /fɪʃ/, fishes, fishing, fished. Fish is most commonly used as the plural form, but fishes is also sometimes used. 1 A fish is a creature that lives in water and has a tail and fins. There are many different kinds of fish. EG We stayed there all day but we didn't catch any fish... ...a shoal of fish... ...collections of minerals, insects, fishes, and birds. N COUNT

2 See also procurator fiscal.

2 Fish is the flesh of a fish eaten as food. EG ...different ways of cooking fish... ...fish and chips. N UNCOUNT

3 If you fish, you try to catch fish, either for food or as a form of sport or recreation. EG They went fishing and caught half a dozen trout... The beach is a good place to fish from... ...a trawler fishing off the coast of Iceland. V : IF + PREP THEN for

4 If you fish a particular area of water, you try to catch fish in it. EG It was the first trawler ever to fish those waters. V + O

5 If you fish for information or praise, you try and get it from another person in an indirect way. EG I think he was just fishing for compliments. V + A (for) ⇑ seek

6 If you fish something out of something or from somewhere, you take or pull it out, often after searching for it for some time; an informal use. EG According to the police, more bodies have been fished out of the canal... I fished out my passport from the bottom of the bag. V + O + A ⇑ extract = haul

7 If you feel like a fish out of water, you do not feel comfortable or relaxed because you are in an unusual or unfamiliar situation. PHR : USED AS AN A = awkward

8 Someone who drinks like a fish drinks a lot of alcohol; an informal expression. PHR : VB INFLECTS

9 If you say that there are other fish in the sea, you mean that even though a relationship or deal with someone has failed, there are other people with whom you may be successful. PHR fish and chip shop, fish and chip shops. A fish and chip shop is a place where you can buy fried fish, fishcakes, sausages, chips, etc to take away and eat. N COUNT fishcake /fɪʃkeɪk/, fishcakes. A fishcake is a mixture of fish and mashed potato that is made into a flat round shape, covered in breadcrumbs and fried. N COUNT ⇑ food fisherman /fɪʃəmə[ə]n/, fishermen. A fisherman is a person who catches fish, usually as a job, but sometimes for sport. N COUNT fishery /fɪʃə[ə]ri[1]/, fisheries. A fishery is an area of the sea where fish are caught in large quantities for commercial purposes. EG ...the offshore fisheries of Iceland. N COUNT : USU PL fish finger, fish fingers; also spelled with a hyphen. Fish fingers are small oblong pieces of fish, covered in breadcrumbs and usually sold in frozen form. N COUNT ⇑ food fishing /fɪʃɪŋ/ is the sport, hobby, or business of catching fish. EG Fishing has been a profitable industry for the town in recent years... We did a bit of fishing at the weekend... ...a small fishing boat. N UNCOUNT, OR N BEFORE N fishing rod, fishing rods; also spelled with a hyphen. A fishing rod is a long thin pole that has a line and hook attached to it and is used for catching fish. N COUNT fishing tackle; also spelled with a hyphen. Fishing tackle consists of all the equipment that is used in the sport of fishing, such as fishing rods, lines, hooks, and bait. N UNCOUNT fish knife, fish knives; also spelled with a hyphen. A fish knife is a knife that has a broad blade without a sharp edge and is used when you eat fish. N COUNT fishmonger /fɪʃmʌŋgə/, fishmongers. A fishmonger is a shopkeeper who sells fish; used in British English. ▸ The fishmonger or the fishmonger's is used to refer to a shop where fish is sold. EG I've got to go to the fishmonger's. N COUNT ▸ N SING : the+N fish slice, fish slices; also spelled with a hyphen. A fish slice is a kitchen tool which consists of a flat part with slits in it attached to a handle. It is used for turning or serving fish or other food that is cooked in a frying pan. N COUNT ⇑ utensil fishwife /fɪʃwaɪf/, fishwives. If you refer to a woman as a fishwife, you mean that she is a coarse or bad-tempered woman with a loud voice; an offensive use. N COUNT = shrew fishy /fɪʃi/, fishier, fishiest. 1 A fishy taste or smell reminds you of fish. EG ... smells very fishy in here. ADJ QUALIT

2 If something seems fishy to you, you feel that someone is not telling the truth or behaving completely honestly; an informal use. EG There was something a bit fishy about his explanation... It all sounds rather fishy to me. ADJ QUALIT = suspicious, dubious fission /fɪʃ^{ə}n/. Nuclear fission is the splitting of the nucleus of an atom to produce a large amount of energy or cause a large explosion. N UNCOUNT fissure /fɪʃə/, fissures. A fissure is a deep crack in something, especially in rock or in the ground. N COUNT = crevice fist /fɪst/, fists. Your hand is referred to as your fist when you have bent your fingers in towards the palm in order to hit someone, to make an angry gesture, or to hold something. EG She screamed and hit me with her fist... Ralph clenched his fist... I shook my fist... The Marine held it tightly in his fist. ● hand over fist: see hand. N COUNT fistful /fɪstfʊl/, fistfuls. A fistful of things is the number of them that you can hold in your fist. EG He handed me a fistful of letters. N PART ⇑ amount fisticuffs /fɪstɪkʌfs/ is fighting in which people try to hit each other with their fists; an old-fashioned word. EG I do not choose to engage in fisticuffs with you. N UNCOUNT = brawling fit /fɪt/, fits, fitting, fitted; fitter, fittest. In American English the form fit is used in the present tense and sometimes also as the past tense and past participle of the verb. 1 If something fits a particular person or thing, or fits, it is the right size and shape to go on that person or to go on, in, or next to that thing, and is neither too big nor too small. EG The box has got a nice lid which fits... The sheets are made in several sizes to fit different sizes of bed... He was wearing pyjamas which did not fit him. ● if the cap fits: see cap. V OR V + O

2 If something fits well, closely, etc, it is the size indicated in relation to the thing it is on, in, or next to. EG The boots fitted Rudolph perfectly... Make sure that the jacket on the hot water cylinder fits snugly. V + A, OR V + O + A

● If something, especially a piece of clothing, fits like a glove or fits someone like a glove, it fits perfectly. ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 If something is a good fit, it fits. If it is a bad fit, it does not fit. EG She tried the dress on. It was a perfect fit. N SING WITH DET : USU a + ADJ + N

4 If you are fitted for a particular piece of clothing, you try it on so that the person who is making it can see where it needs to be altered. EG She's at her dressmaker's being fitted for a suit. V + O : USU PASS, IF + PREP THEN for

5 If something or a group of things fits into or onto something else, it is small enough to be able to go in it or on it. EG All my clothes fit into one suitcase... The chapel was so small that only twenty-six people could fit in. V + A

6 If something fits somewhere, it can be put there or is designed to be put there, and is just the right size and shape. EG The metal cover fits over the tap... ...the hole into which the pole fitted... ...a set of bowls designed to fit one inside the other. V : USU + A = go

7 If you fit something into, onto, or next to something else, you put it into the right hole or space, where it belongs. EG Philip fitted his key into the lock... The upper strut was fitted into place... He unwrapped the parts of the rifle, fitting it together piece by piece. V + O + A ⇑ place = slot

8 If you fit something such as a piece of equipment or an extra part to a particular thing, or fit that thing with it, you fix it to or in that thing. EG Castors can be fitted to a bed to make it easier to pull or push... There may be no one around who can fit the new lock... The kitchen has been fitted with a stainless steel sink. V + O : USU + A (to/with) ⇑ provide

9 If something such as an idea or subject fits something or fits in, it is able to be part of that thing or is consistent with it or compatible with it. EG This would fit the theory that he was in fact a spy... Perhaps he killed her himself. But that didn't fit... It's difficult to know where books of this kind fit in... ...a nurse who is willing to fit in with your way of doing things... That didn't fit their lifestyle. ● to fit the bill: see bill. V : USU + A OR V + O

10 If you fit something into a category, system of ideas, etc, you work out where its right place is in it. EG There are always some opinions which do not fit into any of the categories available... ...trying to fit it into his scheme of things. V + O (NG: REFL) + A (in/into) = slot

11 If something fits a particular person or thing, it is appropriate or suitable for them or it. EG ...the Governor's attempt to make the punishment fit the unspeakable crime... The description fits women far better than it fits men... Does this plan fit our present and future needs? V + O ⇑ correspond to 12 Someone or something that is fit for a particular person or thing is good enough or suitable for that person or thing. EG We are here to see that the houses are fit for human habitation... ...a world fit for heroes to live in... She regarded herself as fit only to be a governess... She's not fit to live... It is a fit object for love. ◊ fitness. EG Their fitness for responsibility was not in doubt. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED : for/to-INF = worthy ◊ N UNCOUNT : for/to-INF

13 If you fit someone or something for a particular task or role, you make them good enough or suitable for it; a formal use. EG The humble man will ask: What fits me to make so momentous a decision?... She must fit herself for the honour of being a wife. V + O (NG: REFL) + for/to/to-INF ⇑ prepare

14 Someone who sees fit or thinks fit to do a particular thing decides that it is the right thing to do; often used to suggest that you do not agree with that decision. EG In its report the committee saw fit to make no reference whatever to this... The Trust has been given a considerable sum to dispense as it sees fit. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU to-INF = choose

15 If you say that someone is fit to do something, you mean that they seem likely to do it; an informal use, often used as an exaggeration to emphasize the intensity with which something is done. EG Casson looked fit to explode. ▸ used as an adverb. EG I laughed fit to burst... The boy was yelling fit to wake the dead. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to-INF = about, ready ▸ ADV AFTER VB + to-INF ⇑ enough

16 Someone who is fit is healthy and able to do physical activities without getting tired. EG He felt relaxed and fit after his holiday... They're both fit and well... She works hard at keeping herself fit. ◊ fitness. EG They were trained to a peak of physical fitness. ● Someone who is as fit as a fiddle is very fit; an informal expression. ● fighting fit: see fight. ● not in a fit state: see state. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT ● PHR : USED AS C ⇑ healthy

17 If someone has a fit, they suddenly lose consciousness and their body makes sudden uncontrollable movements. EG He seemed to be having some kind of fit... ...an epileptic fit. ● If you say that someone will have a fit when they hear about something, you mean that they will be very angry or shocked. EG My father would have a fit if he found out. N COUNT = seizure ● PHR : VB INFLECTS = go mad

18 If you have a fit of coughing, laughter, etc, you suddenly start doing the thing mentioned in an uncontrollable way and find it very difficult to stop doing it. EG She'd had a coughing fit and we had to hit her on the back quite hard... She threw a fit of hysterics. ● Someone who is in fits is laughing uncontrollably. EG He had us all in fits with tales of his schooldays. N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ episode = bout ● PHR : USED AS AN A = in stitches

19 If you have a fit of rage, panic, unhappiness, etc, you feel the emotion mentioned very strongly for a short time. EG In a fit of rage, he had flung Paul's violin out of the window... He was plagued with fits of depression. N COUNT + of ⇑ episode = outbreak

20 Something that happens or progresses in fits and starts or by fits and starts keeps happening or progressing and then stopping again. EG There is no easy way of coping with orders that come in fits and starts throughout the year. PHR : USED AS AN A = erratically fit in. 1 If you fit something or someone in, you manage to find time to do it or to deal with it or them. EG You seem to fit in an enormous amount every day... I can fit you in on the 9th. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = squeeze in

21 See also fitted, fitting, fitter.

2 If you fit in or fit into a particular group, you seem to belong there because you are similar to the other people in it. EG You can't bring outsiders into a place like this; they wouldn't fit in... These children are unable to fit into ordinary society when they leave school. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP fit out. If you fit someone or something out or you fit them up, you provide them with equipment and other things that they need. EG He started to fit out a ship in secret... They would fit them out in combat uniforms. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, IF + PREP THEN in/with = kit out fitful /fɪtful/. Something that is fitful happens for irregular periods of time or occurs at irregular times, rather than being continuous. EG He dozed off into a fitful sleep. ◊ fitfully. EG A pallid moon shone fitfully between the ragged clouds.

ADJ CLASSIF = broken
◊ ADV WITH VB

fitment /fɪtmə²nt/, fitments. A fitment is a piece of furniture, for example a cupboard, which is fixed to the wall of a room but which can be removed. EG ...kitchen fitments.

N COUNT ⇑ furnishing fitted /fɪtɪ²d/. 1 Someone who is fitted to do something or for something has the right qualities for it. EG She began to wonder if she was fitted for the role of motherhood... Those best fitted to the work will be chosen.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED + to-INF/ for/to = suited

2 A fitted piece of clothing is designed so that it is the same size and shape as your body rather than being loose. EG Dolly wore a nice grey dress with fitted bodice and flared skirt.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = tailored

3 A fitted sheet has the corners sewn so that they fit over the corners of the mattress and do not have to be folded.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 A fitted carpet covers the floor completely and is fixed into place.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

5 A fitted piece of furniture, for example a cupboard, is designed to fill a particular space and is fixed in place. EG ...fitted shelves.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = built-in

6 A fitted kitchen or bedroom is one in which the furniture is fixed in place and all the pieces match each other.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ furnished

fitter /fɪtə/, fitters. A fitter is someone whose job is to put together, adjust, or install machinery or equipment. EG He got a job as mate to an electrical fitter in the Dockyard.

N COUNT
⇑ worker

fitting /fɪtɪŋ/, fittings. 1 Something that is fitting is right or suitable. EG She said that I was the eldest and that it was fitting that I should go first... We should offer fitting thanks to God. ◊ fittingly. EG The speech was fittingly solemn.

ADJ QUALIT = proper
◊ ADV

2 A fitting is one of the smaller parts on the outside of a piece of equipment or furniture, for example a handle or a tap. EG ...a bath with brass fittings... They make fittings for car dashboards... ...polished steel light fittings.

N COUNT
⇑ component

3 Fittings are things, for example cookers or electric fires, that are fixed inside a building, but that can be removed if you move house. EG Make sure you know what fixtures and fittings will be left at your new home.

N PLURAL
⇑ installations

4 If someone has a fitting, they try on a piece of clothing that is being made for them to see if it fits. EG I've got a fitting next week for my wedding dress.

N COUNT

5 A shoe in a wide or narrow fitting is made for a wide or narrow foot; used in British English. EG This shoe is a bit tight: have you got it in a wider fitting?

N COUNT : ADJ + N ⇑ size

-fitting combines with adjectives or adverbs such as 'close', 'loose', or 'tightly' to show that something is the size indicated in relation to the thing it is on, in, or next to. EG ...a close-fitting lid... ...tightly-fitting suits.

COMB : FORMS ADJS

five /faɪv/, fives. 1 Five is the number 5: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG Five inches of snow had fallen.

NUM

2 Fives is a ball game in which you hit the ball with your hands or a bat against three walls of a court.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ sport

five o'clock shadow, five o'clock shadows. If a man has a five o'clock shadow, his chin and the sides of his face look dark because his beard has grown a little during the day after he has shaved in the morning.

N COUNT : USU SING

fiver /faɪvə/, fivers. A fiver is five pounds or five dollars, or a note of this value; an informal word. EG You owe me a fiver, old chap... She took a fiver from her purse.

N COUNT

fix /fɪks/, fixes, fixing, fixed. 1 If you fix something to a particular thing, or in a particular position, you attach it firmly to that thing, or you place it firmly in that position, so that it cannot move or be moved. EG He had the sign fixed to the gate... She fixed a jewelled brooch on her dress... The spades and forks of the men still stood fixed in the ground... The screws had been fixed into place with a blob of glue.

V + O + A
⇑ secure

2 If something is fixed in your mind or brain, you remember it very well, because it is very important, interesting, or unusual. EG The scene was firmly fixed in all our minds... I fixed the name firmly in my brain.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 If you fix your eyes or attention on something, or fix something with your eyes, you look at it or think about it with complete attention. EG She fixed her brown eyes upon him... The thoughts of every American mind are fixed upon the President... The cop fixed him with a solemn stare. ◊ fixed. EG The intruder met with fixed glares from the citizens. ◊ fixedly /fɪksə¹dlɪ¹/. EG She stared fixedly at the drops of rain sliding down the glass.

V + O + A (on/ upon/with) ⇑ concentrate
◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
◊ ADV AFTER VB = intently

4 If you fix the date or amount of something, you decide what it will definitely be. EG All that remained was to fix the date of the wedding... These weekly amounts are fixed at the start of every tax year... The meeting is fixed for the 11th. ◊ fixed. EG You pay your landlord a fixed charge for heating.

V + O = set
◊ ADJ CLASSIF = set

5 If you fix the exact time or position of something, you find out or prove exactly what it is. EG It is impossible to fix the exact moment in time when it happened.

V + O = establish

6 If you get a fix on your position, for example when you are on a ship, you find out exactly where you are, using instruments such as a compass or radar. EG I'm trying to get a fix on where we are... If he could only take a fix in one direction.

N COUNT

7 If you fix a dye, photograph, or drawing, you treat it with a chemical so that the colours or lines do not run or become blurred.

V + O

8 If you fix something such as a machine which is damaged or which will not work properly, you repair it. EG I fixed a small leak in the roof... I learned how to fix radios in the Army... He spent the afternoon getting his car fixed.

V + O = mend

9 If you fix something, especially your hair or make-up, you make small changes to it in order to make it look neater or more suitable or attractive. EG She went to the cloakroom to fix her hair... The girls were just finishing fixing the Dining Room for a dance.

V + O ⇑ improve = tidy

10 If you say that you will fix something, you mean that you will make all the arrangements necessary to make it possible or easy, especially for someone else. EG Leave it to me. I'll fix it. Someone will look after the kids... I could fix it with Rosemary.

V + O ⇑ arrange = organize

11 If you fix something such as a race or a competition, you make unfair or illegal arrangements relating to it, so that a particular competitor will win or lose; an informal use. EG We tossed for it, but I fixed it so that Rick won... I had seen many horse races that had been fixed over the years. ▸ used as a noun. EG It's a fix! ◊ fixed. EG It's a fixed trial.

V + O = rig
▸ N SING : a + N
◊ ADJ CLASSIF

12 If you fix someone or their activities, you stop their activities permanently, for example by using violence on them; a very informal use. EG We really fixed Mr Nickerson.

V + O = put paid to 13 If you fix a drink or food for someone, you make it or prepare it for them. EG Would you like me to fix you a drink?... She fixed herself a plate of food.

V + O, V + O (NG/ REFL) + O, OR V + O + A (for)

14 If you are in a fix, you are in a difficult situation, especially one that you have caused for yourself; a fairly informal use. EG Could you lend me a fiver? I'm in a bit of a fix.

N COUNT : USU a + N IN SING = jam, tight spot

15 A fix is also an injection of an addictive drug such as heroin; an informal use. EG He looked like he needed a fix.

N COUNT = shot

16 See also fixed.

fix on. If you fix on or fix upon a particular thing, you decide that it is the one you want and will have. EG Have you fixed on a date for the party yet?

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ choose = set fix up. 1 If you fix someone up with something they need, you provide it for them. EG They told me that they could fix me up with tickets... Can I stay at your place till I get fixed up?

PHRASAL VB : V + O (NG/REFL) + ADV, IF + PREP THEN with

2 If you fix someone or something up, you make the arrangements that they need or that are necessary. EG The holiday is all fixed up, you'll be pleased to hear... I fixed the kids up to go down to the zoo.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, USU + A

3 If you fix something up, 3.1 you build it very quickly or roughly, for example because you need it at once or need it for only a short time. EG We tried to fix up a shelter from the wind... I've fixed up this sort of wire barricade. 3.2 do work that is necessary in order to make it more suitable or attractive. EG He was fixing up his new flat, ready to move in.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ erect = rig up
PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ improve = do up

fixated /fɪkseɪtɪ²d/. Someone who is fixated on a particular thing thinks about it to an extreme and excessive degree. EG He remains fixated on objects which remind him of his mother.

ADJ CLASSIF

fixation /fɪkseɪʃə^{n}/, fixations. A fixation is an extreme and excessive interest in something or love of someone or something. EG The child may develop a mother fixation... ...fixations on brothers or sisters... ...the sport fixation of the British. N COUNT : USU + SUPP = obsession fixative /fɪksətɪv/, fixatives. Fixative or a fixative is 1 a liquid used to preserve the surface of a drawing, photograph, etc. EG You should spray it with fixative. 2 a liquid used to hold things in place, for example dentures. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT fixed /fɪkst/. 1 A fixed amount, position, pattern, method, etc always stays the same. EG The signal goes on sounding at fixed intervals... ...a fixed pattern of behaviour. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ invariable = set

2 A fixed idea or desire is one which you will not change your mind about, although perhaps you should. EG Children can be raised without fixed ideas and prejudices... It was his fixed ambition to see his brother ruined. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ inflexible = set

3 A fixed smile or other facial expression does not change and looks artificial. EG She kept a fixed smile on her face. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ rigid

4 Someone who has no fixed abode or no fixed address does not have a permanent place to live; a formal use. EG Mr Sims, 21, of no fixed abode, was remanded in custody for a further week. PHR : USED AS O

5 See also fix.

fixings /fɪksɪŋz/ are extra items that are used to decorate or complete something, especially a meal; used in American English. EG The rich food and its fixings lie heavy on the stomach. N PLURAL = trimmings fixity /fɪksɪti/. The fixity of a person's gaze, concentration, or attitude is the quality it has of not changing or weakening. EG ...the fixity of his stare... He showed a remarkable fixity of purpose. N UNCOUNT : USU + of fixture /fɪkstʃə/, fixtures. 1 A fixture is 1.1 a piece of furniture or equipment, for example a bath or sink, which is fixed inside a house or other building and which is usually left in place when you move. EG Make sure you know what fixtures and fittings will be left at your new home... ...the light fixture on the ceiling. 1.2 a sports event, for example a football match, which has been arranged to take place on a particular date; used in British English. EG We had to cancel a lot of fixtures... Most athletic clubs produce their own fixture lists. N COUNT ≠ moveable / N COUNT

2 Someone or something that is a fixture in a particular place or group is always there and seems likely to be there always in the future. EG It was Old Mary, a fixture at Richmond Hill... Pool seems likely to become a fixture in working-class pubs. N COUNT : USU USED AS C ⇑ feature fizz /fɪz/, fizzes, fizzing, fizzed. 1 If a liquid, especially a drink, fizzes, it produces lots of little bubbles of gas and makes a hissing sound. V ⇑ bubble

2 If something fizzes, it makes a hissing sound. EG The firework fizzed for a while and went out. V = sizzle

3 Fizz is 3.1 the quality of being fizzy. EG This lemonade has lost its fizz. 3.2 fizzy white wine, especially champagne. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT fizzle /fɪzə^{l}/, fizzles, fizzling, fizzled. To fizzle means to make a weak hissing or bubbling sound. EG The fire fizzled and spat. V = sputter fizzle out. If something starts off strongly and then fizzles out, it ends in a weak or disappointing way. EG The strike fizzled out after three days... It wasn't long before interest in it fizzled out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ end = peter out fizzy /fɪzi^{1}/, fizzier, fizziest. A fizzy drink or other liquid is full of little bubbles of gas and makes a hissing sound. EG ...fizzy lemonade. ADJ QUALIT fjord /fjɔːd/, fjords; also spelled fiord. A fjord is a strip of sea that comes into the land between high cliffs, especially in Norway. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N flab /flæb/ is loose flesh on the body of someone who is fat. EG She was ashamed of her flab... ...formerly athletic bodies that have gone to flab. N UNCOUNT flabbergasted /flæbɡɑːstɪ^{d}/. Someone who is flabbergasted is extremely surprised. EG 'Well!' I exclaimed, flabbergasted at Doctor Martin's deceit. ADJ CLASSIF = dumbfounded flabby /flæbi^{1}/. 1 Something that is flabby is not as firm as it should be, but loose or soft instead. EG ...his long, flabby face... ...wilting spinach and flabby turnips. ADJ QUALIT

2 Someone who is flabby 2.1 has loose flesh and muscles rather than firm ones because they have not taken enough exercise. EG He was a flabby, pale-faced bachelor. 2.2 is weak and lazy in character. EG ...the flabby, hesitant, misguided leaders of the party. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ overweight = flaccid

◊ flabbiness. EG ...a speech of exceptional flabbiness. ◊ N UNCOUNT

flaccid /flæsɪd/. Something that is flaccid is soft and loose or limp, rather than firm. ADJ QUALIT flag /flæg/, flags, flagging, flagged. 1 A flag is 1.1 a piece of cloth which can be attached to a pole and which is used as a sign, signal, or symbol of something, especially of a particular country. Flags are a particular colour or have a particular pattern or design on them. EG The flag flying over our building was the Union Jack... Their coffins were draped with American flags... He hoisted the flag of surrender... The guard blew his whistle and waved his flag. 1.2 a small piece of paper or cloth attached to a stick or pin which is sold on a flag day or used as a marker, for example on a map on which you are planning military action. EG You can tell where our divisions are posted by the position of the flags on the map. N COUNT / N COUNT ⇑ tag

2 You refer to the flag of a particular country as a way of referring to the country itself and its values or power. EG This invasion is a hideous insult to our flag... He loved athletics, the flag, and capitalism... ...the people that lived under the flag of the British Empire. N COUNT : SUPP : USU SING ⇑ symbol

3 You refer to the flag of a particular cause or belief as a way of referring to that cause or belief. EG The flag of peace hung in tatters. N SING : SUPP = banner

4 If you do something with flags flying, you do it in a triumphant or confident way. EG She not only survived the ordeal but came out with flags flying. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ triumphantly

5 If you fly the flag or keep the flag flying, you show that you are proud of your country, especially when you are in a foreign country or when few other people do. EG I try to fly the flag, and buy British, and all that. PHR : VB INFLECTS

6 If you flag or your spirits flag, you begin to lose enthusiasm or energy. EG I started to flag a bit after a while... We must not flag in our efforts to fight crime... Your spirits may flag when faced with this new task. ◊ flagging. EG She tried to revive their flagging energies. V ⇑ tire = falter, weaken / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = failing

7 A flag is also the same as a flagstone. N COUNT

flag down. If you flag down a vehicle, especially a taxi, you wave at it as a signal for the driver to stop. EG We flagged down the tractor and clambered aboard. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = hail flag day, flag days; also spelled with a hyphen. A flag day is a day on which people collect money for a charity from people in the street and give them a small badge or paper flag to show that they have given money. N COUNT flagellate /flædʒə^{l}leɪt/, flagellates, flagellating, flagellated; a formal word. If someone flagellates themselves or someone else, 1 they beat themselves or the other person, for example as an act of religious penance. EG ...a painting of a saint flagellating himself. ◊ flagellation /flædʒɛ^{l}leɪʃə^{n}/. 2 you criticize yourself or them very severely. EG I did not like the way he flagellated me in his speech. V + O (NG/REFL) / ◊ N UNCOUNT / V + O (NG/REFL) = castigate flagged /flægd/. A flagged path or area of ground is paved with flagstones. ADJ CLASSIF

flagon /flægə^{n}/, flagons. A flagon is 1 a wide bottle in which cider or wine is sold. 2 a jug with a narrow neck in which wine or another drink is served. N COUNT / N COUNT flagpole /flægpəʊl/, flagpoles. A flagpole is a tall pole on the ground, or on the top or side of a building, with ropes attached to it, on which a flag can be displayed. EG A flagpole flew the French flag. N COUNT ⇑ pole = flagstaff flagrant /fleɪgrənt/ is used to describe a bad or shocking action, situation, or attitude that is very obvious and not concealed in any way. EG ...a flagrant violation of human rights... ...flagrant injustices. ◊ flagrantly. EG ...a series of news stories that flagrantly broke the British censorship... The present distribution of wealth in the world is flagrantly unjust. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = blatant, glaring / ◊ ADV = blatantly flagship /flægʃɪp/, flagships. 1 A flagship is the most important ship in a fleet of ships, especially the one on which the commander of the fleet is sailing. EG ...a replica of Christopher Columbus's flagship. N COUNT ⇑ ship

2 The flagship of a group of things that are owned or produced by a particular organization is the most important one. EG Bentley's flagship is his restaurant N COUNT : USU WITH POSS ⇑ asset in Bishopgate... ...the BBC's flagship news programme.

flagstaff /flægstɑːf/, flagstaffs. A flagstaff is the same as a flagpole. N COUNT flagstone /flægstəʊn/, flagstones. Flagstones are big, flat, square pieces of stone which are used for paving. EG At last she was walking on the flagstones of Venice. N COUNT : USU PL = flag flag-waving is the expression of patriotic feelings in an excessively loud or exaggerated way. EG All this flag-waving disgusts me. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...flag-waving patriots. N UNCOUNT = jingoism ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB flail /fleɪl/, flails, flailing, flailed. 1 If you flail your arms or legs about or if they flail, they wave about in an energetic but uncontrolled way. EG The baby flailed her little arms around... One flailing arm caught him across the cheek... His hands flailed the air about his head. V.ERG = thresh, thrash

2 If you flail someone, you beat them, for example with a stick. V + O

3 A flail is a tool which consists of a piece of wood or metal that can swing freely from a handle. Flails are used to thresh grain. N COUNT flair /fleə/. If you have flair or a flair for doing a particular thing, you have a natural ability to do it well. EG It was apparent to everyone that he had a flair for this branch of law... Wilson was impressed by his political flair. N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN for, OR N UNCOUNT = talent

2 Flair is the ability to do things in an original, interesting, and stylish way. EG He has flair, which his party desperately needs. N UNCOUNT = panache flak /flæk/ is 1 a large number of explosive shells that are being fired at an aircraft or a group of aircraft. EG I saw one of the Dakota transports hit by flak. 2 severe criticism; an informal use. EG He can expect to receive a lot of flak for this decision. N UNCOUNT ⇑ gunfire N UNCOUNT flake /fleɪk/, flakes, flaking, flaked. 1 A flake of something is a small thin piece of it, especially one that has broken off a larger piece. EG ...large fluffy flakes of snow... ...oat flakes... Flakes of plaster had fallen from the ceiling. N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N UNCOUNT

2 If something, for example paint, flakes, small thin pieces of it come off. EG The paint was flaking off the walls... ...the dry, flaking skin of her hands. V = peel

3 If you flake fish or other food, you break it into small thin pieces. EG Remove all skin and bones, and flake the fish... Simmer very gently until the fish flakes easily. ◊ flaked. EG ...flaked almonds. V-ERG ◊ ADJ CLASSIF flake out. If you flake out, you collapse, go to sleep, or lose consciousness, usually because you are very tired; an informal expression. EG When I got to the top I just flaked out. ◊ flaked out. EG I was lying flaked out on my bed. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

flak jacket, flak jackets; also spelled with a hyphen. A flak jacket is a thick sleeveless jacket that soldiers and policemen sometimes wear to protect themselves against bullets. N COUNT

flaky /fleɪki[1]/. Something that is flaky breaks easily into flakes or tends to come off in flakes. EG The car was flaky with rust... This gives the pastry a flaky texture. ADJ QUALIT

flaky pastry is a rich pastry consisting of very thin layers. N UNCOUNT flambé /flɑmbeɪ/, flambés, flambéing, flambéed. If you flambé food, you serve or cook it in flaming brandy. EG ...flambéed steaks. V + O flamboyance /flæmbɔɪəns/ is 1 behaviour that is very noticeable, confident, and exaggerated. EG James was a gentle man, despite his flamboyance. 2 the quality of being brightly coloured or of a very noticeable shape or design. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT ⇑ distinctiveness flamboyant /flæmbɔɪənt/. 1 Someone who is flamboyant behaves in a very noticeable, confident, and exaggerated way. EG He has been accused of being too flamboyant on stage... My father was capable of flamboyant generosity. ADJ QUALIT = extravagant

2 Something that is flamboyant is very brightly coloured or of a very noticeable shape or design. EG ...a flamboyant quilted bathrobe. ADJ QUALIT = dazzling flame /fleɪm/, flames, flaming, flamed. 1 A flame is a hot bright quantity of burning gas that comes in a pointed stream from something that is burning or on fire. EG The flames and smoke rose hundreds of feet into the air... He turned to put his cigarette to the flame of his lighter... The aircraft disappeared in a ball of brilliant yellow flame. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 Something that is in flames is on fire. EG My parents' home was in flames. PHR : USED AS AN A

3 If something goes up in flames, it starts to burn fiercely and is destroyed. EG In seconds the factory had gone up in flames. PHR

4 If something bursts into flames, it suddenly starts burning fiercely. EG The satellite burst into flames and disintegrated. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ burn

5 To flame means 5.1 to suddenly start burning brightly, or more brightly than before. EG The gas-fire began to flame blue and gold. 5.2 to be, or to suddenly become, bright red. EG The trees flamed scarlet against the grass... Sally's cheeks flamed and her eyes glittered. V OR V + C = flare V OR V + C = blaze

6 You refer to a flame of passion, desire, anger etc as a way of referring to a strong feeling that someone has; a literary use. EG ...the flame of passion that has been lit in their souls. N COUNT + of = fire

7 If you fan the flames or you add fuel to the flames, you make a situation more intense or extreme in some way. EG Both films will be big hits and fan the flames of his success... Without doubt these rumours added further fuel to the flames. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ encourage

8 See also old flame.

flamenco /flə[3]mɛŋkəʊ/, flamencos. A flamenco is a Spanish dance that is danced to a special type of guitar music. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT flameproof /fleɪmpruːf/. Something that is flameproof is made of a substance that is not easily damaged by fire or heat. ADJ CLASSIF = fireproof flame-thrower, flame-throwers; also spelled as two words. A flame-thrower is a gun that can send out a stream of burning liquid and is used as a weapon or for clearing plants from an area of ground. N COUNT flaming /fleɪmɪŋ/. 1 Flaming is used to describe something that is burning and producing a lot of flames. EG ...bursting shells and planes diving down with flaming wings. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 Something that is flaming, or flaming red or orange, is bright red or orange in colour. EG ...the gorgeous flaming sunsets... Her hair was flaming red, her skin white. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = fiery

3 A flaming argument or temper is very angry and passionate. EG We had a flaming row. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 Flaming is a mild swear word used to emphasize what you are saying, especially when you feel strongly about something or are annoyed. EG 'Any chance of a cup of tea?'–'Flaming heck! Give me a chance!'... The flaming car's locked. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = blooming flamingo /flə[3]mɪŋgəʊ/, flamingos, flamingoes. The plural can be either flamingos or flamingoes. A flamingo is a bird with pink feathers, long thin legs, a long neck, and a curved beak. Flamingos live near water in warm countries. N COUNT flammable /flæməbə[0]l/. Chemicals, gases, cloth, or other things that are flammable catch fire and burn easily. EG Hydrogen is highly flammable. ADJ QUALIT = inflammable flan /flæn/, flans. A flan is an open tart made of pastry or cake and filled with fruit or something savoury. N COUNT flange /flændʒ/, flanges. A flange is a projecting edge on an object used for strengthening it or for attaching it to another object. N COUNT flank /flæŋk/, flanks, flanking, flanked. 1 An animal's flank is its side, between the ribs and the hip. N COUNT

2 A flank of an army or fleet is one side of it when it is organized ready for battle. EG ...reinforcements for the northern flank. N COUNT

3 The side of anything large can be referred to as its flank. EG ...the south flank of St. James's Park. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

4 If something is flanked by something, it has the thing mentioned at one side or at both sides of it. EG Billy was seated at one end of the table, flanked by the two women... ...an old-fashioned bed, flanked on both sides by marble-topped tables. V + O : USU PASS + by/with flannel /flænə[0]l/, flannels, flannelling, flannelled; also spelled flanneling, flanneled in American English. 1 Flannel is a lightweight cloth woven from wool or from a synthetic material and used especially for making clothes. EG ...a grey flannel suit. N UNCOUNT, OR N BEFORE N

2 Flannels are men's trousers made of flannel. EG He wore flannels and a faded blue tweed jacket. N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N

3 A flannel is a small piece of towelling cloth that you use for washing yourself; used in British English. N COUNT = face cloth

4 If you refer to something that someone has said as N UNCOUNT flannel, you mean that they talked a lot but deliberately avoided telling you what you wanted to know; an informal use. EG He gave us no flannel; on the contrary, he was very helpful. ▸ used as a verb. EG Why do politicians have to flannel all the time? ▸ V flannelette /flænəˈlet/ is a soft cloth made from cotton and used especially for making sheets and nightclothes. N UNCOUNT, OR N BEFORE N flap /flæp/, flaps, flapping, flapped. 1 If a piece of cloth or paper flaps or if you flap it, it moves quickly up and down or from side to side, often making a snapping sound. EG ...a young man, dressed in long robes which flapped in the breeze... She leant out of the window and furiously flapped the blanket. V ERG ⇑ wave

2 If a bird flaps its wings or if its wings flap, the wings move quickly up and down. EG ...huge brown birds flapping their wings... The pheasant flapped around for a few seconds. V ERG OR V + A

3 If you flap your arms, you move them quickly up and down as if they were the wings of a bird. V + O ⇑ wave

4 A flap of skin, cloth, paper, etc is a flat piece of it that can move freely up and down or from side to side because it is held or attached by only one edge. EG ...looking out through a tent flap at the night sky... ...black shiny caps, with broad flaps at the back to protect their necks. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

5 A flap on the wing of an aircraft is the area along the edge of the wing that can be raised or lowered to control the movement of the aircraft. N COUNT

6 A flap is a sudden noisy movement made by a bird's wing or by a piece of paper or cloth. EG With a couple of flaps, the swan took off from the lake. N COUNT

7 Someone who is in a flap is in a state of great excitement, worry, or panic. EG My parents were understandably in a flap about it all. PHR : USED AS AN A = agitated flapjack /flæpdʒæk/, flapjacks. 1 Flapjack is a thick chewy biscuit made from oats, butter, and syrup or treacle; used in British English. N UNCOUNT

2 A flapjack is the same as a pancake; used in American English. N COUNT flare /fleə/, flares, flaring, flared. 1 A flare is a small device that produces a bright flame and is usually used as a signal. Flares can be shot into the air or used to mark a particular spot. EG He stood ready to fire a warning flare. N COUNT

2 If fire or a flame flares or flares up, it suddenly burns with much larger flames. EG The candle flared to a bright light... He stood watching it flare up until the last shred was consumed. V OR PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ blaze

3 If something such as violence, conflict, or anger flares or flares up, it suddenly starts or becomes more violent. EG From time to time violence flared... Panic flared up in her... ...when an international crisis flared up... The conflict flared up into civil war. V OR PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = blow up, erupt

4 Something that flares or flares out spreads outwards at one end to form a wide shape. EG She pirouetted, making the skirt flare out... The long feathered tail flared out behind it. V OR PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ broaden flared /fleəd/. Flared skirts or flared trousers are shaped so that they become very wide towards the bottom of the leg or towards the hem. EG ...a grey dress with fitted bodice and flared skirt. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB flash /flæʃ/, flashes, flashing, flashed. 1 A flash of light is a very bright light which comes suddenly and disappears immediately, like lightning in a storm. EG Suddenly there was a flash and a zigzag of forked lightning... ...the flash of a long knife slicing through the air. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of = gleam, glint

5 Flares are trousers which are very wide towards the lower part of the leg. N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N

2 If a light flashes or if you flash a light, it shines with a sudden bright light, especially as quick, regular flashes of light. EG I'll flash my headlight to make sure he sees us... Sheet lightning flashed on and off like a faulty neon sign... Photographers with flashing lights jumped out of the shadows. V ERG = beam, glare

3 Flash is the use of flashbulbs to give more light when taking a photograph. EG I think this needs flash. N UNCOUNT

4 A flash is also the same as a torch; used in American English. N COUNT = flashlight

5 If something flashes past or through somewhere, it moves very fast, almost too fast for you to see it properly; used especially of things that are brightly coloured or shiny. EG Bright birds flash through the air... Something white flashed past the van. V + A (by/past/through) = dart, flick

6 If something happens or is done in a flash, it happens immediately and suddenly, and lasts only a very short time. EG In a flash the elder sister recognized the truth... I was out of the room in a flash... The incident was over in a flash. PHR : USED AS C/A = smartly

7 If someone reacts to something by doing something quick as a flash they react very quickly indeed. EG 'How dare you tell me what to do!' he snapped back, quick as a flash... Quick as a flash, Claud pulled the paper bag out of his pocket.

8 If something flashes through or into your mind, or if a picture flashes onto a screen, it appears suddenly and then immediately disappears. EG The pictures flashed onto the screen... A vision of Hooper's smiling face flashed across her mind... It flashed through his mind that he might never get back. V + A ⇑ pass

9 A flash of a particular emotion or experience is something that you experience suddenly and unexpectedly. EG She had a flash of anger at being taken for granted... Sarah guessed it with a flash of intuition... ...all those awkward little flashes of guilt. N COUNT + SUPP : USU + of + N UNCOUNT = moment, spark

10 If someone's eyes flash, they express a sudden strong emotion, especially anger. EG Her eyes flashed as she demanded to know what I was laughing at... 'How dare you!' he answered with flashing eyes. ▸ used as a noun. EG There was a reproachful flash in her eyes. V OR V + O : USU V = blaze ▸ N SING WITH DET + SUPP

11 If you flash a look or a smile at someone, you look at them suddenly in the way mentioned. EG He flashed a conspiratorial grin at the other two... Several people flashed glances of recognition at me. V + O + A (at), OR V + O + O = dart

12 If you flash something, you show it to people quickly and then put it away again. EG She flashed her identification at the guards. V + O : USU + A

13 If you flash information or news to a particular place, you send it quickly by computer, satellite, telex, etc. EG The computer immediately flashes the information to a control centre... The news had been flashed to all the neighbouring countries. V + O + A

14 Something that has a flash of a particular colour on it has a small patch of bright colour on it. EG Her jumper is green with a flash of pink on the back. N COUNT + of = spot

15 Something that looks flash looks expensive, fashionable, and new; an informal use. EG Her new car looks really flash. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ smart = swish

16 A man who is flashing deliberately exposes his penis to people in public, usually because he has a form of mental illness; an informal term. V : ONLY CONT

17 If you describe an achievement or success as a flash in the pan, you mean that it is not likely to be repeated and is not an indication of future achievements or successes. EG The team's good results at the beginning of the season seem to have been a flash in the pan. PHR : USED AS C

18 See also news flash.

flash back. If your thoughts flash back to something, you have a sudden vivid memory of something that has happened in the past. EG My mind flashed back to what the sisters had said about their mother, all those years ago. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ return = go back flashback /flæʃbæk/, flashbacks. A flashback is 1 a scene in a film or a passage in a novel, play, etc that suddenly returns to events in the past. 2 a sudden memory of a past experience which comes to you very vividly. N COUNT N COUNT flashbulb /flæʃbʌlb/, flashbulbs. A flashbulb is a small lightbulb that can be fixed to a camera and that makes a large flash of light so that you can take photographs indoors. N COUNT flash burn, flash burns. A flash burn is a burn that you get if you are near an extremely bright, hot flash, for example a flash caused by an exploding bomb. N COUNT flashcard /flæʃkɑːd/, flashcards. A flashcard is a card with a word or words written on it that is used to teach children how to read. N COUNT flashcube /flæʃkjuːb/, flashcubes. A flashcube is a small cube containing four flashbulbs, which turns on the top of a camera so that you can take four photographs without changing the bulb. N COUNT flasher /flæʃə/, flashers; an informal word. 1 A flasher on a vehicle is a signal light which flashes to show that the vehicle is going to turn left or right. EG People use their nearside flashers when they're going to stop. N COUNT = indicator

2 A flasher is a man who deliberately exposes his penis to people in public, usually because he has a form of mental illness. N COUNT ⇑ exhibitionist flash flood, flash floods; also spelled with a hyphen. A flash flood is a sudden rush of water over dry land, usually caused by a great deal of rain. N COUNT flashgun /flæʃgʌn/, flashguns; also spelled with a hyphen. A flashgun is a device that you can attach to, or that is part of, a camera and that causes a flashbulb to work automatically when the shutter opens. N COUNT flashing /flæʃɪŋ/ is waterproof material used to cover joins in a roof that might otherwise leak. EG Someone got up on our roof and stripped away all the lead flashing. N UNCOUNT flashlight /flæʃlaɪt/, flashlights. A flashlight is 1 a torch, especially a large one. EG I could see the beam of his flashlight waving around in the dark... ...a pocket flashlight. 2 a device containing a flashbulb that you use with a camera to take photographs indoors; an old-fashioned use. EG The cameras click and the flashlights flash. 3 any flashing light that is used as a signal. N COUNT ⇑ light / N COUNT ⇑ light / N COUNT flashpoint /flæʃpɔɪnt/, flashpoints; also spelled as two words, especially in paragraph 2. 1 A flashpoint is 1.1 the moment at which emotional or political conflict reaches a climax and becomes violent. EG The crisis in that troubled country neared a flashpoint last week. 1.2 a place which people think is dangerous because political trouble may start there and then spread to other towns or countries. EG This country is another very possible flashpoint, precisely because it is so weak. N COUNT / N COUNT ⇑ site = trouble spot

2 The flash point of a substance is the lowest temperature at which it will produce sufficient vapour to ignite when a small flame is put close to it. N COUNT : USU SING flashy /flæʃi[1]/, flashier, flashiest. Something that is flashy is so smart, bright, and expensive that you find it unpleasant and perhaps vulgar; an informal word. EG ...a flashy sports car. ◊ flashily. EG He was dressed rather more flashily than usual. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ ostentatious / ◊ ADV WITH VB = loudly flask /flɑːsk/, flasks. A flask is 1 a small flat bottle made of glass or metal and used for holding alcoholic drink such as brandy or whisky that you want to carry with you. EG Chevington took out a flask of brandy and poured a measure. ● See also hip flask. 2 a glass bottle with a narrow neck and a bowl-shaped bottom, used especially in chemistry for boiling liquids or preparing gases. 3 the same as a Thermos flask; an informal use. N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N UNCOUNT ⇑ container / N COUNT / N COUNT flat /flæt/, flats; flatter, flattest. 1 A flat is a set of rooms for living in, usually on one floor and part of a larger building. A flat usually includes a kitchen and bathroom. EG ...they rented a furnished flat in Rummidge... ...a ground floor flat... ...a block of flats. 2 Something that is flat 2.1 is level and horizontal rather than sloping, curved, or round. EG He believes that the earth is flat... The ceiling of the Sistine Chapel is not flat... Use a saucepan with a flat base. 2.2 has no raised or hollow parts, such as lumps, bumps, or wrinkles. EG He took the handkerchief and smoothed it flat... ...the flatter part of the island. 2.3 is not as round or pointed as things of that kind usually are. EG ...a huge man with a broad flat nose... She is rather flat-chested. N COUNT ⇑ dwelling = apartment / ADJ QUALIT / ADJ QUALIT ⇑ smooth / ADJ QUALIT

3 If something is in a position flat against or on a surface, it is not curved or bent, but all of it is touching that surface. EG He was lying flat on his back... The rest of us pressed flat against the walls... She let the blade of her oar rest flat upon the water. ADV AFTER VB : USU + PREP ⇑ level

4 Something that is on the flat is on level ground. EG Was the car parked on the flat? PHR : USED AS AN A

5 The flat of an object is the flat surface of it. EG He struck the water with the flat of one of his oars. N COUNT : IF SING the + N, USU + of

6 An object that is flat is not very tall or deep in relation to its length and width. EG ...a flat, round basket. ADJ QUALIT = shallow, low

7 Something that folds flat can be folded into a flat shape so that it takes up less space. EG The bed folds flat to store away. ADJ QUALIT : PRED

8 Flat shoes have no heels or very low heels. EG ...old flat red leather shoes. ADJ QUALIT

9 A flat tyre, ball, or balloon has not enough air or no air at all inside. ADJ CLASSIF

10 A flat is also a tyre that does not have enough air in it. N COUNT

11 If you are flat broke or flat out of money, you have absolutely no money; an informal expression. ADV

12 If you do something flat out, you do it as fast or as hard as you can; an informal expression. EG Our staff are working flat out. PHR : USED AS AN A

13 A flat refusal, denial, or rejection is definite and firm, and not likely to be changed. EG He has issued a flat denial of these allegations. ◊ flatly. EG She has flatly refused to go. ● You say 'and that's flat' to emphasize a refusal, denial, or rejection. EG You can't have it, and that's flat! ADJ CLASSIF / ◊ ADV WITH VB / ● PHR

14 Something that is done in a particular amount of time flat is done in exactly or not more than the stated length of time; used to emphasize the speed at which something happens. EG They will be able to hit the targets in four minutes flat. ADV AFTER N/NUM

15 If someone says something in a flat voice, or if they make a flat statement, they do not express any emotion. EG Arnold went on, his voice flat, neither menacing nor inviting... ...not an accusation, just a flat statement. ◊ flatly. EG 'I see,' Boylan said flatly. ADJ QUALIT = unemotional / ◊ ADV WITH VB

16 A performance, piece of writing, etc that is flat is not exciting or interesting. EG If the actors are word-perfect, I think it makes everything flat and dull... The writing is mostly flat. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dull = unexciting

17 If an event or attempt to do something falls flat, it is unsuccessful and does not produce the desired effect or reaction. EG His little joke fell flat... It's pointless spending time on work which might fall quite flat. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ fail = flop

18 A flat sound or colour is dull and lacks variety or richness. ADJ QUALIT

19 Flat paint is dull or matt rather than shiny and glossy. EG You'll need two coats of white paint, the first flat and the second glossy. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ dull = matt

20 A flat in music is a note or key that is a semitone lower than the note or key which is described by the same letter. It can be represented by the symbol 'b' after the letter. EG This piece has a lot of flats in it... ...the Scherzo in B flat minor... I played E flat by mistake. N COUNT, OR ADJ AFTER N

21 A flat note or a musical instrument that is flat is very slightly lower in pitch than it should be. EG The tenor was a bit flat... Just don't play flat on 'Stardust'. ADJ QUALIT, OR ADV WITH VB

22 A flat rate or price is one that is fixed at a single rate or price which is the same for everyone whatever the circumstances are. EG All the passengers pay a flat fare of 50p... We charge a flat rate of £2.00... ...flat-rate contributions. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = standard

23 A drink that is flat has lost the bubbles of gas it previously contained. EG This beer's flat. ADJ QUALIT

24 A flat battery has lost some or all of its electrical charge. EG The batteries have gone flat. ADJ CLASSIF = dead

25 Someone who has flat feet has feet with arches that are too low. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

26 A low flat area of uncultivated land, especially a marsh, can be referred to as flats or a flat. EG ...townships built on treeless salt flats. N COUNT : USU PL. / USU MOD + N

27 If trade or business is flat, it is slow and not at all busy. ADJ QUALIT

28 Something that is as flat as a pancake is very flat or unusually flat. EG Norfolk is as flat as a pancake. PHR : USED AS C

29 in a flat spin: see spin.

flat cap, flat caps. A flat cap is the same as a cloth cap. N COUNT flatfish /flætfɪʃ/, flatfishes. The plural can be either flatfish or flatfishes. A flatfish is a sea fish that has a wide, flat body, for example a plaice or sole. N COUNT flat-footed. Someone who is flat-footed 1 has feet with arches that are too low. 2 is unable to move quickly, easily, or gracefully. EG I'm a rather flat-footed dancer, I'm afraid. 3 is rather clumsy, stupid, or insensitive in what they say or do. EG That's typical of his flat-footed approach to things! ADJ CLASSIF / ADJ QUALIT ⇑ awkward / ADJ QUALIT ≠ sensitive, tactful flatiron /flætaɪɔn/, flatirons. A flatiron is an old type of iron that was heated on a fire or stove rather than by electricity. N COUNT

flatlet /flætlɪ[2]t/, flatlets. A flatlet is a small flat. EG There's a flatlet for rent in Bridge Road. N COUNT flatmate /flætmeɪt/, flatmates; also spelled with a hyphen. Your flatmate is a person who shares a flat with you. N COUNT flat racing is horse racing which does not involve jumping over fences. N UNCOUNT flatten /flætə[n]/, flattens, flattening, flattened. 1 If you flatten something, or if it flattens or flattens out, it becomes flat or flatter. EG The steel rod had been slightly flattened... ...flattened paper cups... ...a bulldozer flattening out the ruts in the V-ERG, OR PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV road... ...where the foothills flattened out to meet the Bay shore.

2 If you flatten something, especially a building or a crop, you destroy it by knocking or pushing it down. EG The slums have been flattened. V + O ⇑ crush

3 If you flatten yourself against something, you press yourself flat against it, for example in order not to be seen. EG She flattened herself against the door. V + O (REFL) + A

4 If you flatten someone, 4.1 you make them fall over by hitting them very violently or suddenly. EG I watched Carpentier flatten Wells in 73 seconds. 4.2 you defeat them completely in a contest or argument. EG Her questions completely flattened me. V + O ⇑ knock over; = crush flattened /flætə^{0}nd/ is used to describe something which has a flatter shape than normal. EG ...a grotesque creature with a flattened body... ...the flattened 'X' symbol. ADJ CLASSIF flatter /flætə/, flatters, flattering, flattered. 1 If you flatter someone, you tell them or imply that they are more attractive, important, or clever than they really are in order to please them or persuade them to do something. EG Jamie was as good at flattering others as he was at praising himself... You flatter me. I'm not that important. V OR V + O : USU V + O ⇑ compliment

2 If you are flattered that someone has done something, you are pleased and made to feel rather important by the way that they have behaved towards you, especially when this is unexpected. EG I was flattered that he remembered my name... I'm all the more flattered to be invited to your home. ◊ flattered. EG I couldn't decide whether I felt flattered or threatened. ◊ flattering. EG They listened to him with a flattering interest. V + O, OR V + O + REPORT-CL, USU PASS; ◊ ADJ QUALIT; ◊ ADJ QUALIT

3 If you flatter yourself that something is the case, you believe, perhaps wrongly, something good about yourself or your abilities. EG I rather flatter myself I've been reserved for a better fate... I flatter myself on being a good judge of character. V + O (REFL) + REPORT-CL, OR V + O (REFL) : IF + PREP THEN on

4 Something that flatters you makes you appear more attractive. EG That dress doesn't flatter her, does it? ◊ flattering. EG That's a very flattering dress!... 'We saw a lot of pictures of Wellington.'–'Were they flattering?' V + O = suit; ◊ ADJ QUALIT flatterer /flætərə/, flatterers. A flatterer is someone who flatters people. EG 'You look really nice in that dress.'–'Flatterer!' N COUNT/VOC ⇑ person flattery /flætə^{0}ri^{1}/ consists of flattering words or behaviour. EG He was immune to the flattery of political leaders. N UNCOUNT ⇑ compliment flatties /flæti^{1}z/ are shoes with no heels or with very low heels; an informal word. N PLURAL flatulence /flætjə^{1}ləns/ is too much gas in a person's stomach or bowels, which causes an uncomfortable feeling. N UNCOUNT = wind flaunt /flɔːnt/, flaunts, flaunting, flaunted. If you flaunt your valuable possessions, abilities, or qualities, you display them in a very obvious way in order to try to obtain other people's admiration or to shock them. EG They flaunt their engagement rings... He claimed his wife had flaunted her infidelity... ...his public arrogance and the flaunting of his criminal wealth. V + O ⇑ show off flautist /flɔːtɪst/, flautists. A flautist is someone who plays the flute, especially as their job. N COUNT ⇑ musician flavour /fleɪvə/, flavours, flavouring, flavoured; also spelled flavor in American English. 1 The flavour of a particular food or drink is the taste that it has. EG ...the flavour of the honey... Do you think that improves the flavour? N COUNT/UNCOUNT

2 The flavour that something has is a quality of it which seems either to be special to it or to remind you strongly of something else. EG Pimlico has its own peculiar flavour and atmosphere... ...drama with an African flavour. N UNCOUNT/COUNT : USU + SUPP = feel

3 If you flavour food or drink with something, you add this thing to the food or drink to give it a particular taste. EG ...stock flavoured with herbs or onions... Hops have been used for flavouring beer since the ninth century. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with flavouring /fleɪvə^{0}rɪŋ/, flavourings. Flavouring is a substance that is added to food or drink to give it a particular taste. EG It contains monosodium glutamate and other artificial flavourings. N UNCOUNT/COUNT flavourless /fleɪvələ^{1}s/. Food that is flavourless has a boring and uninteresting taste. EG ...gigantic insipid tomatoes, huge flavourless lettuces. ADJ QUALIT flaw /flɔː/, flaws. 1 A flaw in something such as cloth, glass, or a design or pattern is a fault or mark in it that should not be there. EG There's a flaw in this cloth, but it's a tiny one. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN in

2 A flaw in something such as a plan, theory, or argument is a mistake in it, which causes it to be less effective or valid. EG The Bill contained a flaw which made it, initially, unworkable... Did you spot the flaw in his argument? N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN in; = fault

3 A flaw in someone's character is an undesirable quality that they possess which spoils the rest of their good qualities. EG Some flaw in my nature has made me indifferent to slander. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN in; = failing flawed /flɔːd/. Something that is flawed has a fault, mistake, or mark in it. EG We are all flawed in some way... ...trying to find ways of improving their flawed arguments. ADJ CLASSIF = defective flawless /flɔːli^{2}s/. Something that is flawless is perfect and has no flaws. EG It had been a flawless day. ...a flawless performance... ...a flawless complexion. ADJ CLASSIF = immaculate flax /flæks/ is a plant with blue flowers. Its stem is used for making thread, rope, and cloth, and its seeds are used for making linseed oil. N UNCOUNT flaxen /flæksə^{0}n/. Flaxen hair is pale yellow in colour. ADJ COLOUR flay /fleɪ/, flays, flaying, flayed. 1 If you flay a dead animal, you cut the skin off it. V + O

2 If you flay someone, you beat them very hard with a stick or a whip, so that some of their skin comes off. EG When I catch him I'll flay him alive! V + O ⇑ flog

3 If you flay someone, you criticize them severely and attack their beliefs, policies, or actions. EG Marx expended much energy in flaying these various brands of socialism. V + O flea /fliː/, fleas. 1 A flea is a very small jumping insect that has no wings and feeds on the blood of humans and animals. EG The cat's got fleas. N COUNT

2 If you send someone away with a flea in their ear, you speak to them angrily and reject their suggestion or attempt to do something. EG Don't blame me if you come back with a flea in your ear! PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ criticize = rebuke flea market, flea markets. A flea market is an outdoor market selling cheap second-hand goods and sometimes also antiques. N COUNT fleapit /fliːpɪt/, fleapits. A fleapit is an old, shabby cinema or theatre; an informal word used in British English. N COUNT fleck /flek/, flecks, flecking, flecked. 1 A fleck is 1.1 a small mark, or a small amount of something that appears as a small mark, that is a different colour from its background. EG Its egg is green with irregular flecks of white... Little flecks of white powder floated on top. 1.2 a pattern of small marks of a particular colour. EG His coat is blue with a grey fleck. N COUNT : USU N + of + N UNCOUNT = speck; N COUNT, OR N SING : a + N

2 Something that is flecked with something is marked or covered with small flecks of it. EG ...the eyes, dull grey, and flecked with dots of milky white. V + O : USU PASS + A (with) = spatter, speckle fled /fled/ is the past tense and past participle of flee. V fledgling /fledʒlɪŋ/, fledglings. 1 A fledgling is a young bird that has its feathers and is learning to fly. N COUNT

2 You use fledgling to describe a person or organization that is new or inexperienced. EG ...fledgling industries. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB flee /fliː/, flees, fleeing, fled. To flee from something or someone, or to flee a person or place means to run quickly away from the person, place, or thing mentioned, especially because of danger or fear. EG Local tribesmen fled in fear... He had to flee to Tanzania... Along with thousands of others, he fled the country... The city's population prepared to flee the heat for the relative cool of the rivers. V OR V + O : NO PASS ⇑ escape fleece /fliːs/, fleeces, fleecing, fleeced. 1 A sheep's fleece is the coat of wool that covers it. N COUNT

2 A fleece is the wool, in a single piece, that is cut off one sheep during shearing. N COUNT ⇑ coat

3 If you fleece someone, you get a lot of money from them by tricking or overcharging them; an informal use. EG The pensioners feel they are being fleeced. V + O IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ cheat fleecy /fliːsi^{1}/. Something that is fleecy is 1 made of a soft, slightly fluffy material. EG ...a nylon tracksuit with a fleecy lining. 2 light, soft and fluffy in appearance. EG ...fleecy clouds. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB; ADJ QUALIT fleet /fliːt/, fleets. 1 A fleet is a group of ships organized to do something together, for example to N COUNT : USU MOD + N fight battles or to catch fish. EG Britain had to increase her battle fleet... ...a trawling fleet.

2 A fleet of vehicles is a group of them, especially when they all belong to a particular organization or business, or when they are all going somewhere together. EG We bought our own fleet of vans... Fleets of buses take them the rest of the way. — N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N IN PL fleeting /fliːtɪŋ/ is used to describe something which lasts only for a very short time. EG I got only fleeting glimpses of them... ...the fleeting, passing contacts of city life. ◊ fleetingly. EG ...a way to assert personality and power, however fleetingly. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ brief = passing ◊ ADV WITH VB

Fleet Street is a street in London where some British newspapers have their offices; often used to refer to these newspapers and to the journalists who work for them. EG Things in Fleet Street are very bad just now... ...a possible Fleet Street job. — N PROPER

Flemish /flemɪʃ/. 1 Flemish is used to describe something which belonged or related to the region of Flanders in northern Europe, especially in medieval times. EG ...Flemish masterpieces. — ADJ CLASSIF

2 Flemish is a language that is spoken by some of the people who live in Belgium. — N UNCOUNT flesh /fleʃ/, fleshes, fleshing, fleshed. 1 Flesh is 1.1 the soft part of a person's or animal's body between the bones and the skin. EG ...pig's flesh... These thorns stick in bare flesh like tacks. 1.2 human skin and the human body, especially when being considered in a sexual way. EG ...the whiteness of her flesh. — N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT

2 The flesh of a fruit or vegetable is the soft inner part of it. EG Cut the avocado in half and remove the flesh. — N UNCOUNT = pulp

3 Flesh is also used, especially in the expression 'flesh and blood', to refer to people and the condition of being human and alive. EG I'm only flesh and blood!... Dreams of universal justice are obstructed by flesh and blood... This is more than flesh and blood can bear! — N UNCOUNT

4 Someone who is your own flesh and blood is someone who is a member of your family or a close relative. EG You are my flesh and blood. I would never do anything to hurt you. — PHR : VB CAN BE SING OR PL = kin

5 The flesh is used to refer to sensual or sexual feelings and desires. EG ...sins of the flesh... ...the comforts and pleasures of the flesh. — N SING : the + N

6 If you say 'the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak' you mean that although you are willing to do something, you are too tired or weak to be able to do it. — PHR

7 If you meet or see someone in the flesh you actually meet or see them, rather than, for example, seeing them in a film or on television. EG I went up to the Cotton Club to see the great man in the flesh. — PHR : USED AS AN A = in person

8 If you put flesh on something, you add details and more information to it. EG This book puts flesh on the knowledge most of us have about the inequalities of society. — PHR : VB INFLECTS = fill out flesh out. If you flesh something out, you add details and more information to it. EG Those are the main points I'll be talking about. Now I'll flesh them out for you. — PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ develop flesh-coloured. Something that is flesh-coloured is yellowish pink in colour. — ADJ COLOUR

9 ● a pound of flesh: see pound.

fleshly /fleʃli[1]/ means relating to sensual and sexual feelings and desires. EG ...a particularly luscious and fleshly poem. — ADJ QUALIT = bodily, carnal fleshpot /fleʃpɒt/, fleshpots. A fleshpot is a place such as a strip club, massage parlour, or brothel, where people go for sexual pleasure. EG ...the fleshpots of Soho. — N COUNT : USU PL flesh wound, flesh wounds. A flesh wound is a wound that breaks the skin but does not damage the bones or any of the body's important internal organs. — N COUNT fleshy /fleʃi[1]/, fleshier, fleshiest. 1 Someone who is fleshy has a lot of flesh on their body or on a particular part of their body. EG ...a broad-shouldered, rather fleshy individual... ...broad, fleshy jowls. — ADJ QUALIT ⇑ fat

2 Something that is fleshy consists of flesh or looks or feels like flesh. EG Each of these fins has a fleshy base supported internally by bones. — ADJ CLASSIF

3 Fleshy leaves or fruits are thick and have a soft, pulpy inner part. — ADJ QUALIT flew /fluː/ is the past tense of fly.

flex /fleks/, flexes, flexing, flexed. 1 A flex is two or three wires covered in a tube of plastic that carry electricity from a plug to an electrical appliance. EG The flex isn't long enough. — N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

2 If you flex your muscles or parts of your body, you bend, move, or stretch them for a short time in order to exercise them. EG He eased his boots off and flexed his toes in front of the stove. — V + O flexible /fleksɪbə[0]l/. 1 A flexible object or material can be bent easily without breaking. EG The tube is flexible but tough. ◊ flexibility /fleksəbɪlɪti[1]/. EG Clearly the paper had sufficient flexibility to be easily moulded around an object. — ADJ QUALIT = supple ◊ N UNCOUNT = suppleness

2 Something or someone that is flexible is able to change easily and adapt to different conditions and circumstances as they occur. EG We need a more flexible decision-making system... This is a flexible arrangement... ...flexible working hours... People today must be far more flexible. ◊ flexibly. EG This makes it easier for a large school to schedule more flexibly. ◊ flexibility. EG This called for some flexibility of approach... ...the flexibility of a modern computer... ...an economic system that does provide some scope for flexibility. — ADJ QUALIT / ◊ ADV WITH VB / ◊ N UNCOUNT

flexitime /fleksi[1]taɪm/ is a system that allows employees to vary the time that they start or finish work, provided that an agreed total number of hours are spent at work each week, month, or some other period. — N UNCOUNT flibbertigibbet /flɪbətɪdʒɪbɪt/, flibbertigibbets. Someone, especially a woman, who is referred to as a flibbertigibbet is foolish and talkative and cannot be trusted to be sensible or serious about anything. — N COUNT ⇑ idiot flick /flɪk/, flicks, flicking, flicked. 1 If something flicks in a particular direction, it moves with a short, sudden movement, often repeatedly. EG When it feeds, its huge tongue flicks in and out of its tiny mouth... ...watching the windscreen wipers flick forwards and back... He flicked out his wrist and frowned at his watch... The keeper's head flicked round. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a quick upward flick of the arm. — V ERG + A = jerk / ▸ N COUNT = jerk

2 If you flick something away or off something else, you make it move quickly away by hitting or pushing it sharply with a little movement of your finger, hand, or something else. EG He got up and flicked the dust from his suit... Her hand flicked away the tear... She sat there, flicking ash into the ashtray... He shook his head as if he was flicking off beads of sweat. — V + O + A ⇑ brush

3 If you flick something such as a whip or a towel, or flick something with it, you throw it out quickly to its full length and suddenly pull it back, especially in order to make it hit something. EG He flicked their bare arms with a tea towel. ▸ used as a noun. EG He gave a flick of the whip. — V + O : IF + PREP THEN with / ▸ N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

4 If you flick pages over or back, or you flick through pages, you turn them quickly, especially with your thumb. EG Flora opened her diary and flicked through the pages... He flicked over the last page. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a quick flick through the pages. — V + O, V + A (through), OR V + O + A (back/over) = flip / ▸ N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING

5 If you flick something, you hit it sharply with one of your fingernails by pressing your thumb against the finger and suddenly releasing it. EG It should give a high 'ping' when flicked with a fingernail... I flicked the hollow door with my finger. ▸ used as a noun. EG Give it a flick. — V + O / ▸ N COUNT

6 If you flick a switch or catch, or flick on an electrical appliance, you press the switch or catch sharply so that it moves into a different position and works the equipment. EG Bradshaw walked to his desk and flicked on the lamp... Karen flicked the safety catch off her rifle... Put your fingers in and flick open the catch of the door... He flicked a couple of light switches. — V + O : USU + A (on/off) = click

7 The flicks is the cinema; an old-fashioned informal use. EG Sometimes she just went to the flicks... What's on at the flicks? — N PLURAL : the + N

flick through. If you flick through a magazine, book, pile of letters, etc, you look at it quickly, turning over pages or individual items to get a brief idea of what it contains. EG He flicked through the passport, not understanding a word. — PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = leaf through flicker /flɪkə/, flickers, flickering, flickered. 1 If a light or flame flickers, it shines unsteadily, with sudden changes in strength and brightness. EG The candle flickered by the bed... She was reading by — V ⇑ flutter the flickering light of the T.V. ▸ used as a noun. EG A faint flicker of lightning lit the room. ▸ N COUNT

2 A flicker of emotion or feeling is one that is experienced or visible only faintly and for a very short time. EG There was a flicker of fear in the man's eyes. ...the quick flicker of pain... A flicker of annoyance crossed the face. ▸ used as a verb. EG Disapproval flickers across her face... The thought had flickered through my brain. N COUNT : USU SING + of + N UNCOUNT ▸ V + A

3 If something flickers, it makes a single light, quick movement or a series of such movements. EG His eyes kept flickering towards the huge silk purse... Not once did he flicker so much as an eyelid... Swarms of blue dragonflies flicker and hover in the glades. ▸ used as a noun. EG 'Maybe,' she said, with a flicker of a smile... Even as he watched it, it gave the faintest flicker to its tail. V OR V + O : IF V USU + A ▸ N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ trace flick-knife, flick-knives; also spelled as two words. A flick-knife is a knife with a blade that is hidden in the handle and that springs out when a button is pressed. N COUNT flier /flaɪə/. See flyer.

flight /flaɪt/, flights. 1 A flight is 1.1 a journey made by flying, especially in an aeroplane. EG It had been his first flight... ...the flight of a bird across a city window... The new flight path was fed into the plane's computer. 1.2 an aeroplane that is taking passengers on a particular journey. EG I had an hour to wait for my flight to London... Can you tell me what time Flight No. 172 arrives in Jeddah?... He bought a ticket for New York on the next flight out. N COUNT

2 Flight is the action of flying, or the ability to fly. EG They have lost the power of flight... This reduces drag when the bird is in flight... Supersonic flight is very expensive. N COUNT, OR N + NUM ⇑ motion

3 A flight of birds is a group of them flying together. EG A flight of duck in formation creaks swiftly over. N UNCOUNT

4 Flight is also the act of running away from a particular place or avoiding a particular situation which you feel is dangerous or unpleasant. EG He was born at sea during his parents' flight from the revolution. ● If you put someone to flight, you make them run away from you; a rather old-fashioned expression. ● To take to flight or to take flight means to run away from something. EG When the police arrived the thieves took flight. N UNCOUNT : USU + of + N IN PL ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ● PHR : VB INFLECTS = flee

5 A flight of steps or stairs is a set of steps or stairs that lead from one level to another without changing direction. EG She led the way down a short flight of steps... She sounded as though she had just run up two flights of stairs. N COUNT : USU N + of + N IN PL

6 An idea or statement that is very imaginative but complicated, silly, or impractical can be referred to as a flight of fancy, imagination, rhetoric, etc. EG Despite his occasional flights of emotion and fancy, he is an astute politician. N COUNT + of flight deck, flight decks; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 The flight deck of an aircraft carrier is the flat open surface on the deck where aircraft take off and land. N COUNT

2 The flight deck of a large aeroplane is the area at the front where the pilot works and where all the controls are. N COUNT ⇑ cabin = cockpit flightless /flaɪtlɪ²s/. A flightless bird or insect is unable to fly because it does not have the necessary type of wings. EG On the islands of the Indian Ocean, huge flightless pigeons evolved. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB flight lieutenant, flight lieutenants. A flight lieutenant is an officer in the British air force of the rank below squadron leader. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES flight recorder, flight recorders; also spelled with a hyphen. The flight recorder on an aeroplane the same as the black box. N COUNT flighty /flaɪtɪ¹/, flightier, flightiest. Someone, especially a woman, who is flighty is not very serious or reliable and keeps changing from one activity, idea, or partner to another. EG ...the disrespectful way in which these flighty females carry out their duties. ADJ QUALIT = capricious, fickle flimsy /flɪmzi¹/, flimsier, flimsiest; flimsies. 1 Something that is flimsy is weak because it is made of a weak material, or badly made. EG Poor people can afford only flimsy houses of wood, mud, and straw... All the women had to wear were flimsy shoes. ADJ QUALIT

2 Flimsy cloth or clothing is thin and does not give much protection. EG They stood shivering in flimsy white muslin gowns. ADJ QUALIT

3 A flimsy excuse or flimsy evidence is not very good or convincing. EG Helen invented a flimsy excuse to take her out of the house... The evidence against him was flimsy. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ weak = feeble

4 Flimsy or a flimsy is thin paper on which a copy of a piece of typing is produced when carbon paper is used. EG He took the folded sheet of flimsy... I found the flimsy of the report we were talking about. N UNCOUNT / COUNT

flinch /flɪnt°ʃ/, flinches, flinching, flinched. 1 If you flinch when you are startled or hurt, or when you suddenly see or hear something frightening or upsetting, you make a small sudden movement without meaning to. EG The children flinched as the cold rain splashed them... He flinched every time she spoke to him... He let the match burn down to his thumb and forefinger without flinching. V = wince

2 If you flinch from something unpleasant, you are unwilling to do it or think about it, or you avoid doing it. EG ...men who would not flinch from assassinating a president... They flinched from the prospect of starting again in a new place. V : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ shun fling /flɪŋ/, flings, flinging, flung. 1 If you fling something somewhere, you throw it there using a lot of force. EG He flung a football at me... She took off her hat, flinging it on the grass. V + O + A = hurl

2 If you fling yourself somewhere, you move or jump there suddenly and with a lot of force. EG He flung himself down at Jack's feet... Charlotte flung herself forward into the water with a great splash. V + O (REFL) + A = throw oneself

3 If you fling a part of your body, especially your arms or head, in a particular direction, you move it suddenly, often in an uncontrolled and violent way. EG He screamed with pain, flinging his free hand up to cover his eyes... The woman flung her arms around him and kissed him... She flung back her head. V + O + A = throw

4 If you fling someone to the ground or into a particular place or position, you push them very roughly so that they fall over or are forced into that place or position. EG He flung her to the ground... He let her go with an abruptness that almost flung her on the grass. V + O + A = throw, hurl

5 If you fling something into a particular place or position, you put it there in a quick and careless or aggressive way. EG When he had finished reading, he flung the paper back on to his lectern... She was busy picking up some last-minute necessities and flinging them into her handbag... The door was flung open by the manager. V + O + A = toss, chuck, sling

6 If someone flings you into prison, they put you in prison quickly and perhaps roughly or without doing it in the proper legal way. EG Why are they looking at us as if they'd like to fling us all in jail? V + O + A = clap, throw

7 If you fling a remark at someone, you say it in an aggressive way. EG 'I will sell the house anyway,' he flung at her one night... She flung a sarcastic comment in his direction. V + O + A, OR V + A + QUOTE = hurl

8 If you fling yourself into a particular activity, you begin it with a lot of effort and energy. EG She flung herself into her work. V + O (REFL) + A (into) = throw

9 A fling is 9.1 a short period of energetic activity or enjoyment, especially one that is the last one that you will have an opportunity to do or have. EG It was as if nature was having one last fling before the summer... The boys must have their fling. 9.2 a brief romantic relationship, often a sexual one, which neither of the people involved feels seriously about; a fairly informal use. EG She had a brief fling while her husband was away. N COUNT = affair

10 Fling can be used instead of 'throw' in many expressions that usually contain 'throw'. Most of these expressions are explained in this dictionary at the noun in the expression.

fling off. If you fling off your clothes, you take them off very quickly and carelessly. EG She ran into the bedroom, where she flung off her dress and took out a clean one. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = throw off fling on. If you fling on your clothes, you put them on very quickly and carelessly. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV fling out. 1 If you fling out something that you do not want, you get rid of it from your home, for example by putting it in a dustbin. EG When we moved house we flung out loads of books. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ discard = turf out

2 If you fling out a remark, you say it in a rather PHRASAL VB : V + aggressive way. EG They lurk about, ready to fling out their routine insults. V + ADV, OR V + ADV + QUOTE = hurl flint /flɪnt/, flints. 1 Flint or a flint is a very hard, greyish-black stone that is used, for example, for building. EG Embedded in the limestone are nodules of flint... ...a wall made of flints... ...the grey flint parish church. N UNCOUNT/COUNT

2 A flint is a small piece of flint which can be struck with a piece of steel to produce sparks and used to light a fire or cause a gun to fire. N COUNT ⇑ stone flintlock /flɪntlɒk/, flintlocks. A flintlock is a type of gun that was used in former times, in which sparks struck from a flint in it would light gunpowder and cause the gun to fire. N COUNT flinty /flɪnti[1]/. 1 A flinty person is uncaring and impossible to persuade to be kind. EG The colonel was a short, balding man with flinty eyes. ADJ QUALIT = hard-hearted

2 A flinty building or piece of land is made of flints or contains flints. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB flip /flɪp/, flips, flipping, flipped. 1 If you flip through a book or file, you turn the pages or documents very quickly, in order to find a particular one or to get an idea of the contents. EG Renshaw flipped through the book... She flipped through a card-index. V + A (through) = flick

2 If you flip a switch, or if you flip a device or machine on or off, you turn it on or off by pressing or turning the switch quickly. EG I reach forward and flip the headlight switch... Flip on the engine... He flipped off the outside light. V + O, OR V + O + A (off/on) = flick

3 If you flip something over or into a different position, you turn it or move it into that position with a quick push. EG Flip the fish on its back... He looked through the notebook, quickly flipping over the pages... He flipped open his notebook... She took the box and flipped the metal clasps off the sides. V + O + A = flick

4 If you flip something somewhere, you hit it sharply, often from underneath with your thumb, so that it moves there through the air, often turning over and over as it moves. EG He tore off the metal tab and flipped it into the garbage can... Tom flipped a toffee in the air... He flipped the boy a coin. V + O + A, OR V + O = flick ⇑ loss

5 If you flip something, you hit it sharply with your finger. EG He flipped his finger against a glass on the table. ▸ used as a noun. EG He gave the letter a little contemptuous flip with his fingers. V + O = flick ▸ N COUNT ⇑ blow

6 If you flip, you suddenly become extremely upset or angry because of something that has happened; an informal use. EG Her employers said they might prosecute. She flipped. V = freak

7 If someone is being flip or says something flip, what they say shows that they are not taking something as seriously as they should. EG I don't mean to sound flip, but it could be worse, you know... ...Jennifer's usual flip repartee. ADJ QUALIT = flippant

8 Flip is an exclamation used in informal British English to express annoyance. EXCLAM = bother, blow

9 See also flipping.

flip-flop, flip-flops. Flip-flops are sandals, usually made of rubber, which are held on your foot by a V-shaped strap that goes between your big toe and the toe next to it. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ shoe flippancy /flɪpənsi[1]/ is saying flippant things. EG 'This is no time for flippancy,' he said angrily. N UNCOUNT = frivolity flippant /flɪpənt/. If someone is flippant or says something flippant, what they say shows that they are not taking something as seriously as they should. EG Colin's tone was flippant but his dark eyes were serious... John was offended by the doctor's flippant attitude... ...flippant answers. ADJ QUALIT = frivolous flipper /flɪpə/, flippers. 1 The flippers of an animal that lives in water, such as a seal or a penguin, are the two or four flat limbs it has which it uses for swimming. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ limb

2 Flippers are flat pieces of rubber that you can wear on your feet to help you swim more quickly, especially underwater. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ aid flipping /flɪpɪŋ/. You use flipping to emphasize what you are saying, especially when you are annoyed; an informal word used in British English. EG It's flipping impossible! ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, OR ADV + ADJ/ADV = flaming flip side; also spelled with a hyphen. The flip side of a gramophone record is the side that does not have the main song on it. N SING : the + N ⇑ back = b side flirt /flɜːt/, flirts, flirting, flirted. 1 If you flirt with someone, you behave as if you are sexually attracted to them, in a not very serious way. EG She flirted with the barman. ◊ flirtation /flɜːteɪʃən/, flirtations. EG He had a mild flirtation with two Danish blondes... She had a gift for flirtation. V : IF + PREP THEN with, RECIP = dally ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN with = dalliance

2 Someone who is a flirt flirts a lot. EG She had declared Miss Harlowe to be a shocking flirt. N COUNT : USU SING

3 If you flirt with the idea of doing or having something, you consider doing or having it, without making any definite plans. EG You need to flirt with alternatives... Burlington has flirted for years with the idea of a wood-burning electrical generator. ◊ flirtation. EG ...his brief flirtation with the idea of public service. V + A (with) = toy ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT flirtatious /flɜːteɪʃəs/. Someone who is flirtatious behaves towards someone else as if they are sexually attracted to them, in a not very serious way. EG ...a pretty and flirtatious twenty-five-year-old... She kept giving him flirtatious looks. ADJ QUALIT = provocative flit /flɪt/, flits, flitting, flitted. 1 If you flit about or flit to a particular place, you fly or move quickly from one place to another, with small light movements. EG Bats flitted about in the darkening sky... Mr Annett was already there, flitting about the hall from one side to the other... The birds flitted into a pomegranate tree. V + A = buzz, whizz

2 If an expression flits across your face or an idea flits through your mind, it is there for a short time and then goes again. EG An expression of pain flitted across her face... A picture of three boys walking along the bright beach flitted through his mind. V + A = flash

3 If someone or something flits from one thing or situation to another, they do not deal with one thing or stay in one situation for long, but quickly go on to another one. EG ...the butterfly mind which flits from idea to idea... ...this mysterious person who flits in and out of my life. V + A = dart

4 If you do a flit, you secretly leave the place where you have been living; an informal use. N COUNT : USU SING float /fləʊt/, floats, floating, floated. 1 Something that floats lies on or just below the surface of a liquid when it is put in it, rather than sinking. EG Empty things float. V

2 If something is floating in a liquid, or if you float it, it is in the liquid, on or just below the surface, and is being supported by it or moving slowly along in it. EG Simon was floating in the water with his eyes closed... There was seaweed floating on the surface of the water... They floated logs down the river... ...a floating restaurant. V ERG : USU + A ⇑ lie

3 A float is 3.1 a light object that is used to help someone or something float. EG The children still learning to swim are holding on to floats. 3.2 a small object attached to a fishing line which floats on the water and moves when a fish takes the bait. N COUNT N COUNT

4 Something that floats in or through the air hangs in it or moves slowly and gently through it or around in it. EG Thistledown floats across the field... He turned his wallet upside down and six dollar bills floated down on to the table... ...floating banners. V : USU + A = waft, drift

5 If a sound floats somewhere quite far away, it can be heard as a rather soft or faint sound by people there, a literary use. EG The sound went floating out on the air... His voice floated into the room from downstairs. V + A ⇑ travel = carry

6 If you float somewhere, 6.1 you walk there very lightly and gracefully. EG She floated up to me to ask if I was Mr Braddock. 6.2 you are in a particular place or situation, or you do something, without any particular purpose or in a vague way. EG Her mind was floating somewhere apart from her body... Dreams of future glory floated through her head... He spent his days floating from activity to activity. V + A = glide, waft V + A = drift

7 If you float a project, plan, or idea, you suggest it or start it off. EG One suggestion floated at Rome was that western and African states should collaborate... She could either sink or float a project with one word. V + O = initiate, launch

8 If a company director floats his or her company, he or she starts to sell shares in it to the public. V + O

9 If a government floats its country's currency, or if the currency floats, its value in relation to other currencies is allowed to change freely; a technical term in economics. EG Sterling should be allowed to float. V ERG ≠ fix

10 A float is also 10.1 a lorry on which displays and people in special costumes are carried in a festival procession. EG Nuns and priests had organized a float whose theme was the Holy Family. 10.2 a small N COUNT ⇑ vehicle N COUNT : USU amount of coins and notes of low value that someone gets before they start selling things so that they are able to give customers change if necessary. EG Have you got the float ready for the jumble sale tomorrow?

SING ⇑ money

11 See also milk float.

float around. A rumour or idea that is floating around is often heard or talked about. EG There are a lot of weird ideas floating around at the moment.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ spread = go around floating /fləʊtɪŋ/. 1 A floating voter or vote is a person who is not a firm supporter of any political party. EG She was all too familiar with the dilemma of attracting the floating voter.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ loyal

2 If a city or area has a floating population, people are constantly moving away and new people arriving.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = transitory flock /flɒk/, flocks, flocking, flocked. 1 A flock of birds, sheep, or goats is a group of them. EG We were followed by a whole flock of sea gulls... Shepherds moved with their flocks to lowland pastures... They owned two goats and a flock of sheep.

N PART + N IN PLURAL

2 A flock of people or things of the same type is a group or number of them. EG A flock of barges sailed past... A flock of memories fought for my attention.

N PART + N IN PLURAL ⇑ set

3 A clergyman's flock is the group of Christians who come to his church or live in the area that he has responsibility for; a rather old-fashioned use. EG The duty of the pastor is to look after his flock.

N COUNT : POSS + N, IF SING VB CAN BE SING OR PL = congregation, parish

4 If people flock to a particular place or event, a very large number of them go there, usually because it is interesting or attractive in some way. EG The startled lunch guests flocked to the windows... Crowds flocked to see the treasures... Miss Clare's old pupils would soon be flocking round her again.

V + A ⇑ gather = crowd, flood, pour ≠ file

5 Flock wallpaper has a soft furry pattern on it.

ADJ CLASSIF

6 A flock mattress or pillow is stuffed with small pieces of cloth.

N BEFORE N

floe /fləʊ/. See ice floe.

flog /flɒg/, flogs, flogging, flogged. 1 If you flog something, you sell it; an informal word used in British English. EG We thought we might be able to flog it to someone.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN to, OR V + O + O ≠ buy

2 If you flog someone, you hit them very hard with a whip or stick as a punishment for something which they have done. EG Frequently slaves were flogged. ◊ flogging, floggings. EG He was sentenced to receive a public flogging.

V + O = lash

◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT

3 If you say that someone is flogging a dead horse, you mean that they are trying to achieve something impossible; an informal expression.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 Something, for example a joke or idea, that has been flogged to death has been mentioned or used so often that it is no longer interesting or useful; an informal expression.

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ exhausted

5 If you flog yourself or your car to death or into the ground, you work very hard or drive your car very hard and roughly, so that you are exhausted or your car is worn out; used in informal English. EG He buys a new car, flogs it into the ground, and then buys another one.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

flood /flʌd/, floods, flooding, flooded. 1 If there is a flood, a large amount of water covers an area of land or a place which is usually dry, for example when a river overflows or a pipe bursts. EG In September 1975, floods in north-eastern India made 233,000 people homeless... ...an annual cycle of drought alternating with flood... We had a flood upstairs.

N COUNT/UNCOUNT : ALSO SING = PL = deluge

2 A flood is also a large amount of water that flows very fast. EG Moments later, the flood subsided to a trickle. ● See also flash flood.

N COUNT = spate, torrent

3 If something floods a place that is usually dry, or if the place floods, it becomes covered with water. EG The dam collapsed, flooding an area of five thousand square miles... The rice fields were flooded... When we took the plug out the kitchen flooded.

V:ERG = deluge

4 If a river floods or if it floods an area beside it, it overflows, usually after very heavy rain. ● A river that is in flood is overflowing because it has more water in it than normal.

V OR V + O ● PHR : USED AS AN A = flooding

5 If a liquid floods a particular thing, especially a person's body or part of it, a large quantity of it is in that thing or flows through it. EG They painfully swallowed the saliva that flooded their mouths... The engine is flooded with petrol and cannot operate properly.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN with

6 A flood of things, or of something, is a large number of them, or a large amount of it, that comes or occurs. EG She received a flood of grateful telegrams and letters... ...the flood of refugees... There followed a great flood of indignation in the newspapers.

N COUNT : USU SING + of = torrent

7 If people or things flood into a particular place, they come there in large numbers. EG This brought more and more migrants flooding into the cities... Calls for assistance flooded into the emergency services.

V + A = pour

8 If you flood a place with a particular type of thing, you fill it with so many of them that it cannot hold or deal with any more. EG Manufacturers have been flooding India with imports from Britain. ● If a manufacturer or a particular type of goods floods the market, a large number of goods are put on sale at the same time, often at a cheap price. EG Cheap plastic bowls and buckets flood the market.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN with ⇑ saturate

● PHR : VB INFLECTS

9 If an emotion, feeling, or thought floods you, or floods back, you suddenly feel it or remember it very strongly; a fairly literary use. EG The jealousy which flooded her took away all the strength she had... He lay there, flooded with pain, fear, and hatred... Relief flooded over him... The memories flooded back as we passed the old school.

V + O : USU PASS + with, OR V + A = pour, surge

10 If light floods a place or floods into it, it suddenly fills it. EG Daylight flooded the room.

V + O, OR V + A (into)

11 If your face floods with red or if redness floods it, it suddenly becomes red in colour because you are embarrassed or angry. EG Her skin flooding with maroon, she lowered her eyelids... A flush spread over her, flooding her neck and face.

V:ERG : IF V USU + A (with) ⇑ blush = flush

12 Someone who is in floods of tears is crying a lot. EG ...after a night spent in floods of tears.

PHR : USED AS AN A

flood out. If people are flooded out, they have to leave their homes because of a flood.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, USU PASS

floodgates /flʌdgeɪts/. If someone or something opens the floodgates, they make it possible for a large number of people to do a particular thing for the first time, or for someone to express their feelings. EG This opened the floodgates of revolution.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

flooding /flʌdɪŋ/. If flooding occurs, an area of land that is usually dry is covered with water when a river or lake overflows or after very heavy rain. EG There has been heavy rain in many areas, resulting in widespread flooding.

N UNCOUNT

floodlight /flʌdlaɪt/, floodlights, floodlighting, floodlit. 1 Floodlights are very powerful lamps that are used outside to light public buildings, sports grounds, etc in the dark. EG He walked to the Temple to see it once again, this time under the floodlights.

N COUNT : USU PL

2 If a building or place is floodlit, it is lit by floodlights. EG The cathedral is floodlit at night.

V + O : USU PASS

floor /flɔː/, floors, flooring, floored. 1 The floor of a room is the flat part of it that you walk on. EG A brown suitcase lay on the floor... ...the bathroom floor... The book fell to the floor.

N COUNT : USU SING, USU the + N ⇑ ground ≠ ceiling

2 The floor of a valley, forest, sea, etc is the ground at the bottom of it. EG The fish has markings that enable it to blend in with the ocean floor.

N COUNT + SUPP : USU the + MOD + N IN SING ⇑ surface

3 The floor of a vehicle is the bottom surface of it inside. EG I shot off with the accelerator pedal flat on the floor.

N COUNT

4 A floor of a building is all the rooms that are on a particular level. EG My office is on the second floor... ...on the top floor... ...a ground floor flat.

N COUNT = storey

5 The floor in a place such as a club or disco is the area where people dance. EG As the last dancers drifted off the floor, Boylan was still at the bar.

N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING ⇑ place

6 The floor of a stock exchange is the large open area where trading is done.

N COUNT + of

7 The floor is also used to refer to the place where official debates and discussions are held, especially between members of parliament or councillors. EG He stated his position openly on the floor of the House.

N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING

8 If someone has the floor in a debate or discussion, they have the right to speak. EG You now have the floor for the next five minutes.

N SING : the + N

9 If a remark or question floors you, you are completely unable to answer it or are surprised and confused by it. EG Bing appeared to be floored by this casual remark.

V + O = stump

10 If you floor someone, you hit them so hard that they fall over. EG I could cheerfully have floored her with my weighty inkstand.

V + O = swipe, wallop

11 If you hold the floor, you talk to a group of people for a period of time. EG Captain Imrie had been holding the floor for over an hour. PHR : VB INFLECTS

12 If you take the floor, 12.1 you start dancing at a dance or disco. EG Everyone was amazed when he took the floor with Jenny. 12.2 you start speaking in a debate or discussion. PHR : VB INFLECTS / PHR : VB INFLECTS

13 If you wipe the floor with someone, you defeat them completely in a competition, fight, or discussion; an informal expression. EG He wiped the floor with both the Americans and the Canadians. PHR : VB INFLECTS

14 See also floored, flooring, dance floor. ● Factory floor: see factory. ● Shop floor: see shop.

floorboard /flɔːbɔːd/, floorboards. A floorboard is one of the long pieces of wood that a floor is made of. EG The floorboards creaked. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ plank floored /flɔːd/. A room that is floored with a particular material has a floor made of that material. EG The attic is floored with pine planks. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + with/in flooring /flɔːrɪŋ/ is the material that is used to make the floor of a room. EG ...stone flooring. N UNCOUNT floor show, floor shows; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. A floor show is a series of performances by dancers, singers, or comedians at a night club. N COUNT ⇑ entertainment floozy /fluːzi¹/, floozies. A floozy is a woman or girl who is rather immoral and whose appearance is rather vulgar and untidy; an informal word. N COUNT flop /flɒp/, flops, flopping, flopped. 1 If you flop into a chair, onto the ground, etc, you sit or lie down loosely and heavily because you are tired. EG He flopped down on the bed and read for a while... She flopped into an armchair with a drink. V + A = collapse

2 If something flops onto or against something else, it falls there, moves about, or bounces loosely and rather heavily. EG His blond hair flopped over his brow... She tipped the pan over and a dozen fish flopped out. V : USU + A floppy /flɒpi¹/, floppier, floppiest. Something that is floppy is loose rather than stiff, and tends to hang downwards. EG ...ladies in floppy hats... She wears a big floppy bow on her blouse. ADJ QUALIT = droopy, limp floppy disk, floppy disks. A floppy disk is a small flexible magnetic disk used for storing data and programs. Floppy disks are used with microcomputers. N COUNT flora /flɔːrə/. Plants, especially the plants growing in a particular area, are referred to as flora in technical or formal English. EG ...the unnecessary destruction of the flora and fauna of our countryside. N PLURAL OR N UNCOUNT floral /flɔːrə⁰l/. 1 A floral piece of clothing, carpet, birthday card, etc has a pattern or picture of flowers on it. EG ...floral dresses... ...floral wallpaper. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

3 Something that is a flop is completely unsuccessful. EG His first play was a disastrous flop. ▸ used as a verb. EG One of their space projects flopped this week. N COUNT / ▸ V

4 See also belly flop.

2 You also use floral to describe something that contains flowers or is made of flowers. EG ...floral decorations. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

florid /flɒrɪd/. 1 Something that is florid is complicated and extravagant rather than plain and simple; often used showing disapproval. EG ...florid verse... ...a spectacularly florid cast-iron hatstand. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ ornate = ornamented

2 Someone who is florid always has a red face. EG He was a large, cheerful man, with a florid complexion. ADJ QUALIT = ruddy florin /flɒrɪn/, florins. A florin was a British coin that was worth two shillings. N COUNT ⇑ money florist /flɒrɪst/, florists. A florist is a person who has a shop that sells indoor plants and bunches of flowers. EG A florist's van came with flowers. ▸ The florist or the florist's is also used to refer to the shop where flowers are sold. EG He used to send her daffodils or gladioli—whatever was cheap at the florist. N COUNT / ▸ N SING : the + N ⇑ retailer floss /flɒs/ is soft threads of some kind, for example hair. EG Spiders exude a silky floss... Use dental floss to clean between your teeth. ● See also candy floss. N UNCOUNT flotation /fləʊteɪʃə⁰n/, flotations. 1 The flotation of a company is the selling of shares in it to the public. N UNCOUNT / COUNT

2 A flotation tank or compartment helps something to float because it is filled with air or gas. N BEFORE N flotilla /fləʊtɪlə/, flotillas. A flotilla is a group of small ships, usually military ships. EG His immediate concern was the flotilla of minesweepers several miles ahead. N COUNT

flotsam /flɒtsəm/. 1 Flotsam or flotsam and jetsam is rubbish or wreckage, for example bits of wood, that is floating on the sea or has been left by the sea on the shore. EG They searched for several weeks for identifiable flotsam from the lost planes. N UNCOUNT ⇑ debris

2 People who do not have homes or jobs and perhaps have had to leave their own country or area may be referred to as flotsam or flotsam and jetsam. EG They counted themselves as wanderers, misfits, flotsam and jetsam. N UNCOUNT = vagrants, waifs flounce /flaʊns/, flounces, flouncing, flounced. 1 If someone, usually a woman, flounces somewhere, they walk quickly, with big, exaggerated movements, in a way which suggests that they are angry or upset. EG She had flounced from the classroom vowing never to return. V + A

2 A flounce is a quick, vigorous movement that you make, especially when you are leaving, for example to show that you do not care about something. EG Mrs Baggot bustled off with a flounce of her striped poplin skirts. N COUNT : USU SING

3 A flounce is also a big frill round the bottom of a skirt, dress, tablecloth, etc or round the neck or sleeves of a dress or blouse. EG She wore a wide, whirling skirt with a flounce at the hem. N COUNT ⇑ decoration

flounder /flaʊndə/, flounders, floundering, floundered. Flounder can also be used as the plural form of the noun. 1 If you flounder in a place, you move in an energetic, uncontrolled way in an attempt to go somewhere or to stay upright, for example when in water or mud. EG Ahead, men were floundering in the dark swamps... He floundered towards the shore. V : USU + A ⇑ struggle

2 If you flounder, 2.1 you are unable to think what to say or to decide what to do. EG Suddenly she asked me: 'What do you think of Jeremy?' I floundered for a moment. 2.2 you are in difficulties. EG The economy continues to flounder. V = dither / V = waver

3 A flounder is a flat edible fish. N COUNT

flour /flaʊə/, flours, flouring, floured. 1 Flour is a white or brown powder that is made by grinding grain, usually wheat, and that is used to make bread, cakes, pastry, etc. EG Add the remaining flour to make a soft dough. N UNCOUNT

2 If you flour something, you cover it with a thin layer of flour. ◊ floured. EG Place the dough on a floured board. V + O / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ powdered flourish /flʌrɪʃ/, flourishes, flourishing, flourished. 1 If something flourishes, it continues to exist or function and is successful, active, or widespread, or develops quickly and strongly. EG Parliamentary democracy cannot possibly flourish in such circumstances... While some international bodies have flourished, others have virtually collapsed... The arts flourished. ◊ flourishing. EG Flourishing industries had been destroyed... He is alive and flourishing. V = bloom, thrive / ◊ ADJ QUALIT = booming, thriving

2 If a plant or a type of animal flourishes, it grows well or is healthy because the conditions it is in are right for it. EG In these waters, bacteria flourish... There were two or three palm trees flourishing in the promenade gardens. V

3 If you flourish an object, you wave it about in a way that makes people notice it. EG She rushed in flourishing a document. V + O = brandish

4 A flourish is 4.1 a bold waving or sweeping movement, especially one that is intended to make people notice you. EG Jack drew his knife again with a flourish. 4.2 a curly line or piece of decoration. EG ...a signature embellished with flourishes. 4.3 a fancy or extravagant action or part of something. EG He decorated his discourse with quaint flourishes of style and Latin quotations... The old man hated unnecessary flourishes in business matters. N COUNT : USU SING = gesture / N COUNT / N COUNT ⇑ touch floury /flaʊə⁰ri¹/. 1 Something that is floury is covered with flour or tastes of flour. EG She wiped her floury hands on her apron. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ dusty

2 Floury potatoes go fluffy and break up when they are cooked. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ soft ≠ waxy

flout /flaʊt/, flouts, flouting, flouted. If you flout something such as a law, an order, or an accepted way of behaving, you deliberately disobey it or do not follow it. EG Be prepared to flout convention... Our rulers know now that we're prepared to flout their laws if forced. V + O = disregard flow /fləʊ/, flows, flowing, flowed. 1 If a liquid, or something that moves smoothly like a liquid, flows in a particular direction, it moves steadily and continuously in a stream. EG The river flows southwest to the Atlantic Ocean... The tears flowed down his cheeks... They have blood flowing in their veins... ...a current flowing in a circuit... Its antennae vibrate as the air flows over them. ▸ used as a noun. EG New channels are deliberately cut to alter the flow of the water... The blood flow is cut off... Heavy rains in October 1978 brought mud flows down the mountain. V : USU + A = stem ▸ N COUNT : USU SING + SUPP = stem

2 If a number of people, pieces of information, ideas, etc flow from one place to another, they move steadily and freely. EG European scientists, engineers, and technicians are flowing into the United States. ▸ used as a noun. EG We are seeing a growing flow of farmers and peasants into the cities... There's a good flow of information. V : USU + A ▸ N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING

3 When traffic flows through the streets of a town or city, it moves steadily and without difficulty. EG ...traffic flowing down the streets of Helsinki. ▸ used as a noun. EG There was a noisy flow of traffic. V : USU + A ▸ N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING

4 When the tide or the sea flows, the waves gradually reach higher and higher up the beach until high tide. EG ...an ebbing and flowing sea tide. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the stormy ebb and flow of the sea. V = rise, surge ▸ N SING : the + N ≠ ebb

5 If a quality or an expression of feeling flows from someone or something, it comes from them strongly and continuously or in a natural way. EG The humblest apologies flowed from him... In ancient China all authority flowed from the Emperor... From confession flows repentance and from repentance forgiveness. ▸ used as a noun. EG Who would condemn her for a constant flow of pity towards both males? V + A (from) ▸ N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING + of

6 If someone's words flow, they are spoken smoothly and continuously without hesitation. EG Her words flowed on, in perfect sentences. ▸ used as a noun to refer to these words or their quality of smoothness. EG She can keep up a non-stop flow of baby talk... 'Flow' and naturalness is necessary for good reading. V ⇑ progress ▸ N UNCOUNT, OR N SING WITH DET : USU + of ⇑ continuity

7 Someone who is in full flow is talking fluently and easily and seems likely to go on talking for some time. EG He stopped me when I was in full flow. PHR : USED AS AN A

8 If events, situations, or periods of time flow one after the other, they happen or are experienced one after the other smoothly, without a break. EG The days flowed imperceptibly into one another... Things and places flow through our lives at an increasingly fast rate. V + A ⇑ progress

9 If someone's hair or clothing flows about them, it hangs freely and loosely. EG She let her hair down so that it flowed darkly over her shoulders. ◊ flowing. EG ...women in long flowing robes. V + A ◊ ADJ QUALIT

10 If something flows or if a place is flowing with it, there is a lot of it available. EG When Kwong was two years old, the money ceased to flow... ...a traditional view of Jamaica, an island flowing with liquor and luxury. V : IF + PREP THEN with flow chart, flow charts. A flow chart or a flow diagram is a diagram which represents a sequence of actions in a particular process or activity and shows the way they follow on from each other. N COUNT flower /flaʊə/, flowers, flowering, flowered. 1 A flower is 1.1 the part of a plant which is often brightly coloured, grows on a stem, and only survives for a short time. EG The hawthorn has white flowers in June followed by orange-red berries. 1.2 a stem of a plant with one or more flowers on it when it has been picked, usually with others, for example to give as a present or to put in a vase. EG ...a bunch of flowers... My sister always picked the flowers and arranged them herself. N COUNT = bloom, blossom N COUNT : USU PL

2 Flowers are small plants that are grown for their flowers as opposed to trees, vegetables, shrubs, etc. EG He cleared up the mess and planted flowers on the station banks. ...a flower garden. N COUNT : USU PL

3 When a plant is in flower or when it has come into flower, its flowers have appeared and opened. EG The daffodils are in flower... The roses are just coming into flower. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ flowering = in bloom, out

4 When a plant or tree flowers, its flowers appear and open. EG ...all will grow in shade, although they flower and fruit most freely in sun. V : NO IMPER = bloom, blossom

5 When an idea, artistic style, or political movement flowers, it develops fully and becomes popular or successful. EG Liberties need to grow and flower in times of peace. V : NO IMPER, USU + A

6 Someone or something that is described as the flower of something is the best part or example of it; a literary use. EG ...the flower of the nobility and the first lady of the land... ...a woman in the flower of her youth. N SING : the + N + of

7 See also flowered, flowering.

flowerbed /flaʊəbɛd/, flowerbeds; also spelled with a hyphen and as two words. A flowerbed is an area of ground in a garden or park which has been specially prepared so that flowers can be grown in it. N COUNT flowered /flaʊəd/. Flowered paper or cloth has a pattern of flowers on it. EG It was nicely done up in flowered paper. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ patterned = floral, flowery flowering /flaʊəˈrɪŋ/, flowerings. 1 The flowering of something such as an idea or artistic style is the development of its popularity and success. EG ...the eventual flowering of certain moral values. N COUNT : SUPP USU + of = blossoming

2 Flowering shrubs, trees, or plants are those which are planted mainly for the decorative quality of the flowers that they produce. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB flower people; also spelled with a hyphen. The flower people were people who belonged to a cult of the late 1960s advocating peace and love, using the flower as a symbol of these beliefs. N PLURAL = hippies flowerpot /flaʊəpɒt/, flowerpots. A flowerpot is a small container that is usually made of plastic or clay and round or square in shape. Flowerpots are used for growing plants in. N COUNT = pot flowery /flaʊəˈri/. 1 A flowery perfume, wine, or smell has a strong sweet smell. EG She was liberally dosed with a flowery perfume. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ fragrant

2 A flowery pattern or fabric has a lot of flowers drawn or painted on it. EG Her mother was a big woman in a flowery apron. ADJ CLASSIF = flowered

3 Flowery speech or writing contains long and complicated words and literary expressions. EG ...his fondness for dramatic courtroom gestures and flowery speech. ADJ QUALIT = elaborate, fancy flown /fləʊn/ is the past participle of fly.

fl. oz is a written abbreviation for 'fluid ounce'. EG Add 3 fl oz methylated spirit. N COUNT : USU NUM + N flu /fluː/ is an illness which is similar to a bad cold but more serious. It often makes you feel very weak and your muscles ache. EG We had to cancel it because Mummy had flu... I was too weak from the flu to work. N UNCOUNT = influenza fluctuate /flʌktjʊeɪt/, fluctuates, fluctuating, fluctuated. 1 If the rate, speed, or cost of something fluctuates, it is irregular and changes a lot. EG ...adjusting the supply to suit the fluctuating demand for heat... Although prices fluctuated between 1929 and 1972, overall the trend was downward. ◊ fluctuation /flʌktjʊeɪʃəˈn/, fluctuations. EG ...fluctuations in temperature... ...avoiding the fluctuations of the money market. V . NO IMPER ⇑ vary ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN in/of

2 If behaviour, an attitude, or the condition or state of something fluctuates, its nature changes often and quite noticeably. EG Friendships blossomed, fluctuated, and died... ...fluctuating opinions... ...local cooperatives, capable of quick response to rapidly fluctuating local needs. ◊ fluctuation. EG Climatic fluctuations are already playing an important role... ...sharp fluctuations in policy. V : NO IMPER = oscillate ◊ N COUNT/UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN in/of flue /fluː/, flues. A flue is a pipe or shaft that acts as a chimney taking fumes and smoke away from a boiler or stove. N COUNT fluency /fluːənsi/ is the quality or the state of being fluent. EG She could speak German with great fluency... ...the clarity and fluency of his diction... ...subjects that require fluency in the written word. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN in/of fluent /fluːənt/. 1 Someone who is fluent in a particular language, or who speaks fluent Spanish, French, Russian, etc can speak or write the language easily and correctly, with no hesitation or inaccuracy. EG She was fluent in Spanish... It was hard to find people who spoke fluent Portuguese. ◊ fluently. EG The boy still spoke both languages as fluently as ever. ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN in ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Someone whose speech, reading, or writing is fluent speaks, reads, or writes easily, smoothly and clearly with no hesitation or mistakes. EG Fluent readers rarely stop at an unknown word... Rage was making him fluent; the words came easily, in a rush. ◊ fluently. EG He wrote fluently and without erasures. ADJ QUALIT = eloquent, articulate ◊ ADV WITH VB

fluff /flʌf/, fluffs, fluffing, fluffed. 1 Fluff is small pieces of soft, light, woolly thread bunched together. Fluff is usually found in a place where you do not want it to be, for example on smart clothes or in dusty corners of a room. EG He brushed some fluff from his jacket. N UNCOUNT ⇑ material

2 If you fluff things such as cushions or feathers, or if you fluff them up or fluff them out, you get lots of air into them, for example by shaking or brushing them, in order to make them seem larger and the texture softer and lighter. EG The little birds faced each other, fluffing their feathers... She fluffed her hair out in big waves... Fluff up the egg-white with a fork. V + O, OR V + O + A (out/up) ⇑ puff out

3 Fluff is also very soft, newly grown hair or fur such as the hair found on a young animal. EG ...a tiny creature covered with black fluff. N UNCOUNT ⇑ down

4 If you fluff something that you are trying to do, you are unsuccessful or you do it badly; an informal use. EG They used to get very cross if I fluffed my lines... She fluffed her exams. V + O ⇑ fail = bungle fluffy /flʌfi[1]/, fluffier, fluffiest. 1 Something that is fluffy is 1.1 very soft and woolly. EG ...a lovely fluffy little kitten... ...a fluffy jumper. ◊ fluffiness. EG Just feel the fluffiness, I adore it. 1.2 covered with fluff. EG You can't go out like that–your suit's all fluffy! ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT ADJ QUALIT

2 A cake or other food that is fluffy is very light because it has a lot of air trapped inside the particles. ADJ QUALIT fluid /flu:ɪd/, fluids. 1 A fluid is a liquid; used especially in technical or medical English. EG If fluid seeps out at the top, it may corrode the case... Death may result from loss of fluids... ...petrol and cleaning fluids. ▸ used as an adjective. EG After a month and a half it was still completely fluid at the centre. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ substance ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

2 Fluid movement is relaxed, smooth, and graceful, without any sudden movements. ◊ fluidity /flu:ɪdɪti[1]/. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT = fluency

3 A situation, arrangement, idea, etc that is fluid does not have any fixed pattern or structure and is likely to change often. EG ...the inability of regimental commands to handle a fluid situation... Opinion in the trade unions is very fluid as regards this question. ◊ fluidity. EG ...the fluidity of the learning situation. ADJ QUALIT = variable ◊ N UNCOUNT fluid ounce, fluid ounces. A fluid ounce is a measurement of liquid. There are twenty fluid ounces in a British pint, and sixteen in an American pint. N COUNT fluke /flu:k/, flukes. Something that is a fluke is something good that has happened accidentally rather than by being planned or arranged; an informal word. EG Getting that job was a fluke... The police have stumbled on this man by a fluke. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ luck flummox /flʌməks/, flummoxes, flummoxing, flummoxed. If someone is flummoxed, they are confused and do not know what to do or say. EG Mrs Partridge looked a little flummoxed... He completely flummoxed me. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ overwhelm flung /flʌŋ/ is the past tense of fling.

flunk /flʌŋk/, flunks, flunking, flunked; an informal word. 1 If you flunk an exam or a course, you fail to reach the required standard. EG He flunked all his science courses. V OR V + O

2 If an examiner flunks someone, he or she gives them a low mark or assessment for an exam or course, so that they fail it. EG Who is he? Some PhD student I flunked? V + O

flunk out. If you flunk out, you are dismissed from a school or college because your work is not good enough; used in American English. EG You're gonna flunk out if you just sit there watching me study! PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

flunkey /flʌŋki[1]/, flunkeys; also spelled flunky; an informal word. A flunkey is 1 a man who acts as a servant in a large house and who wears ceremonial dress. 2 a person who follows or stays close to someone who is powerful or important and who does small, unimportant jobs for them in the hope of being rewarded; used showing disapproval. N COUNT N COUNT = sycophant, toady fluorescence /flʊərɛsə[ʊ]ns/ is the very bright appearance that fluorescent things have, as if light is shining from them. N UNCOUNT fluorescent /flʊərɛsə[ʊ]nt/. 1 Something that is fluorescent has a very bright appearance when light is directed onto it, as if it is actually shining itself. EG ...a fluorescent orange circle fixed to a belt... ...fluorescent paint. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ glowing

2 A fluorescent light is usually in the form of a long strip and shines with a very hard, bright light. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

fluoridation /flʊərɪdeɪʃə[ʊ]n/ is the action or process of adding fluoride to a water supply; a formal word. EG ...literature that claims that fluoridation is harmful. N UNCOUNT fluoride /flʊəraɪd/ is a mixture of chemicals that is sometimes added to a water supply because it is thought to be good for people's teeth. N UNCOUNT flurried /flʌrɪd/. Someone or something that is flurried is confused and disorganized because they are being rushed. EG The child wandered about, deserted, flurried and bewildered... This flurried christening proved unnecessary. ADJ QUALIT = flustered flurry /flʌri[1]/, flurries. 1 A flurry is a short rush of vigorous activity or action. EG There was the usual flurry of activity in the hall... The decision raised a flurry of objections... There was a flurry of wings and a bird flew out... This threw the officials into a flurry. N COUNT : USU of ⇑ bustle

2 A flurry of something such as snow or wind is a small amount of it that suddenly appears for a short time and moves in a rushed, swirling way. EG Snow flurries had been predicted... The wind came at them in a flurry... Their front runners collided, sending up a flurry of sparks. N COUNT : IF PREP THEN of = whirl

flush /flʌʃ/, flushes, flushing, flushed. 1 If you flush or if something flushes you, your face goes red because you are embarrassed or because you feel hot or unwell. EG The captain looked at him, and flushed... The wine had flushed her face and throat. ◊ flushed. EG Her face was suddenly hot and flushed. ▸ used as a noun. EG He looked at her with shining eyes and there was a flush in his cheeks. V OR V + O ⇑ blush ◊ ADJ QUALIT ▸ N SING WITH DET

2 When you flush a toilet or when it flushes, the handle is pressed or pulled and the toilet bowl fills with water. EG She heard the toilet flush... He presses the handle, and flushes the lavatory. V ERG ⇑ operate

3 If you flush something down the toilet, you put it into the toilet bowl and operate the handle so that it is washed away. V + O + A ⇑ dispose

4 If you flush something such as a pipe, you clear it or clean it by forcing water or another fluid through it. V + O

5 Something that is flush with a surface is completely flat against or along the surface. EG The trigger had been sawn off flush with the surface of the breech. ADJ CLASSIF : IF PREP THEN with = level

6 If you flush people or things out of a place, you force them to come out. EG They went into the area to flush out guerrillas who were sheltering there... ...secrets which Cobb will painstakingly flush out. V + O + A (from/ out/out of) ⇑ draw out

7 Someone who is flush has plenty of money or something else that is pleasant, useful, or attractive. EG I could do with borrowing a fiver, if you're feeling flush... Flush with funds, they could afford to buy all the raw materials they wanted. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, IF + PREP THEN with = replete ≠ lacking, starved

8 A flush of something is a sudden or intense feeling of excitement or pleasure about something. EG A nation in the full flush of economic prosperity. N COUNT : USU SING + of ⇑ surge

9 A flush of something is also a large amount of it that appears suddenly or quickly. EG The frogs feast on the great flush of insects that have come with the rain. N SING WITH DET + of ⇑ burst = flood

10 In a game of cards, a flush is a hand of cards which are all of the same suit. ● See also royal flush. N COUNT flushed /flʌʃt/. Someone who is flushed with success, excitement, etc is very excited or pleased as a result of achieving the thing mentioned. EG He hurried flushed with victory into the office... ...the tribal chieftain, victorious in battle, flushed with success. ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN with ⇑ filled fluster /flʌstə/, flusters, flustering, flustered. If you fluster someone, you make them feel nervous and confused by rushing them and preventing them from concentrating on what they are doing. EG Go away, you're flustering me. ◊ flustered. EG The teacher grew flustered and curiously cross... He was so flustered he forgot it. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...doing several things at once and not getting in a fluster... ...kids who say what they think without fluster or hate. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ bother ◊ ADJ QUALIT ▸ N UNCOUNT, OR N SING : a + N flute /flu:t/, flutes. A flute is a musical instrument made of metal or wood in the shape of a long tube with holes in it. You play it by blowing over a hole at one end while holding the instrument sideways to your mouth. N COUNT ⇑ wind instrument fluted /flu:tɪ[d]/. Something that is fluted has a decoration consisting of long inward curving co!- ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ decorated umns or grooves cut or shaped into it. EG ...fluted columns... ...tall fluted glasses.

flutist /flu:tɪst/, flutists. A flutist is the same as a flautist; used in American English. N COUNT ⇑ musician flutter /flʌtə/, flutters, fluttering, fluttered. 1 If something flutters or if you flutter it, it waves up and down or from side to side in small quick movements. EG His long robe fluttered a little in the wind... Courting male birds flutter their wings like chicks. ◊ fluttering. EG She sighed with relief, pressing a fluttering hand to her chest. ▸ used as a noun. EG He let her pass after one flutter of her long dark eyelashes. V ERG ⇑ quiver ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ▸ N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ quiver

2 If something light such as a small bird or insect or a piece of paper flutters, it moves through the air making small fast movements. EG Dragonflies with dark wings flutter over the flowers... The letter fluttered from his hands and down to the steps. ◊ fluttering. EG Their flight is very different from the fluttering of bats. ▸ used as a noun. EG The noise would send a flutter of pigeons skywards. V : USU + A ⇑ fly = float ◊ N UNCOUNT ▸ N SING WITH DET

3 If you flutter from one place to another or if you flutter about, you walk or move quickly and nervously. EG Unable to sit down, she would flutter and fidget about from room to room. V, OR V + A (about) : IF + PREP THEN from = flit

4 If you are in a flutter, you are in a very nervous, confused, or excited state. EG 'Good gracious me!' she cried, all of a flutter... He suddenly felt surprise and a flutter of panic. N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN of = dither

5 If something causes a flutter, it makes people interested and excited. EG ...revelations which caused a mild flutter among the readers of certain papers. N SING WITH DET = flap

6 If your heart or stomach flutters, you experience a strong feeling of excitement or anxiety. EG Her heart fluttered. 'Oh Tusker, it's so expensive.'... His heart fluttered with fear. V : USU + A ⇑ tremble

7 If you have a flutter, you have a small bet on something such as a horse race; an informal use. N COUNT ⇑ gamble flux /flʌks/. 1 Something that is in a state of flux is characterized by constant changes. EG ...the opportunities presented by this period of flux... ...years of political flux and turmoil. N UNCOUNT

2 Something that is referred to as a flux is being considered as a flowing mass. EG ...a flux of people and traffic... ...the need to give some shape to the flux of experience. N SING WITH DET : IF + PREP THEN of = stream fly /flaɪ/, flies, flying, flew, flown. 1 A fly is a small insect with two wings. There are many kinds of flies, and the most common are black in colour. EG They headed home, swatting at the biting flies that buzzed around their bodies. N COUNT

2 When a bird, insect, or aircraft flies, it moves through the air. EG No other creature can fly as far, or for as long as birds... The aircraft was flying above thick fog... The day my canary flew away I cried. V : USU + A

3 If you fly somewhere, you travel there in an aircraft. EG You can fly from Cardiff to Ostend... His relations came flying in from every corner of the earth. ◊ flying. EG Flying is the only way to travel. V : USU + A ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 When someone flies an aircraft, they control its movement in the air. EG Once I was flying my plane and ran into a storm over San Francisco. ◊ flying. EG Why don't you take up flying? V OR V + O = pilot ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 If you fly someone or something somewhere, you send them there by plane. EG Exotic fruits were specially flown in for the occasion. V + O + A

6 If you fly an ocean or an area of land, you travel over it in an aircraft or hot air balloon. EG Next year he's hoping to fly the Atlantic in a hot air balloon. V + O ⇑ cross

7 If something flies about, it moves about freely and loosely, for example in the way that long hair moves about in the wind. EG He jumped onto the platform with his cloak flying. V : USU + A

8 If you fly a kite or if a kite flies, it is made to rise into the air and move about in the wind on the end of a piece of rope or string. V ERG

9 When a flag is flying, it is displayed at the top of a pole. EG All the flags were flying and the sun was shining. ● to fly the flag: see flag. V ERG ⇑ display

10 If you fly in a particular direction, you move there with a lot of speed or force. EG She came flying into the room... His glasses flew off and smashed on the rocks... She went flying down Princes Street... The door to Brody's office flew open. V + A ⇑ hurtle

11 If you send someone or something flying, or if they go flying, they fall over with a lot of force. EG He almost sent Eddie flying one day... I tripped over his foot and went flying. PHR : VB INFLECTS

12 If you say that you have to fly, you mean that you have to leave a person or a place in a great hurry. EG I'm sorry, I must fly... By the time they returned, their prisoner had flown. V = dash

13 If you say that time is flying, you mean that the time is passing very quickly. PHR : VB INFLECTS

14 If rumours or stories are flying, they are being discussed a great deal and by a lot of people within a short period of time. EG Rumours were flying in official circles. V

15 The front opening on a pair of trousers is referred to as the fly or the flies. It is usually a zip or row of buttons behind a band of cloth. EG She started to button up the flies of her shorts... ...a man with his fly open. N COUNT = SING = PL

16 A fly used in fishing is a model of a small winged insect that is usually made of silk or nylon and is used as a bait. N COUNT

17 If you fly at someone or let fly at them, you attack them, either physically by hitting them, or with words by insulting them. EG She looked at him as though she were about to fly at his face... One day the man flew at me in a temper... He really let fly on the subject of racism. V + A (at), OR PHR : VB INFLECTS = let rip

18 If you say that someone wouldn't harm a fly or wouldn't hurt a fly, you mean that they are very kind and gentle. PHR

19 If you say that there are no flies on someone, you mean that they are not stupid and that they cannot be tricked easily. PHR

20 If people are dropping like flies or dropping off like flies, large numbers of people are dying within a short period of time. EG People were dropping like flies from diabetes, malnutrition, and heart disease. PHR : VB INFLECTS

21 The word fly is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● a fly in the ointment: see ointment. ● as the crow flies: see crow. ● sparks fly: see spark. ● the bird has flown: see bird. ● to fly in the face of something: see face. ● to fly off the handle: see handle. ● See also flying.

fly into. If you fly into a rage, a panic, or other physical expression of strong emotion, you suddenly feel and show this emotion very strongly. EG She flies into a temper if I make a mistake... She flew into a rage and screamed out with all her might... He flew into a panic. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

flyaway /flaɪəweɪ/. Flyaway hair is very soft and fine. EG This shampoo is recommended for flyaway hair. ADJ QUALIT flyblown /flaɪbləʊn/. Something that is flyblown is covered with dirty spots or marks, or generally dirty or in bad condition. EG She took two cakes out of the flyblown display case. ADJ CLASSIF = pock-marked flyby /flaɪbaɪ/, flybys. A flyby is the same as a flypast; used in American English. N COUNT fly-by-night. A fly-by-night business or person in business is unreliable because they are interested only in making money very quickly, and not necessarily legally or honourably; an informal word. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = shady flyer /flaɪə/, flyers; also spelled flier. 1 A flyer is a pilot of an aircraft or helicopter. EG She was taking tea with some dashing young flyers. N COUNT = airman

2 A bird or insect that is a flyer of a particular quality or kind flies in the way mentioned. EG Hawkmoths are among the swiftest insect flyers. N COUNT : USU SUPP

3 See also high-flyer.

fly-fishing; also spelled without a hyphen. Fly-fishing is is a kind of fishing in which a silk or nylon model of a small winged insect is used as bait. N UNCOUNT = angling flying /flaɪɪŋ/. 1 If you take a flying leap or jump, you jump forward, for example over something, after running forward. EG She rushed forward and took a flying leap at the fence. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = soaring

2 A flying animal has wings and is able to fly. EG ...flies and other flying insects. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 If a person or thing gets off to a flying start, the person starts something very well, for example a race or a new job, or the thing starts very well. EG He got off to a flying start but slowed down towards the end of the race. ● with flying colours: see colour. PHR : VB INFLECTS flying buttress, flying buttresses. A flying buttress is an arch and vertical column that supports the outside of a wall, especially the wall of a large church. N COUNT ⇑ support flying doctor, flying doctors. A flying doctor is a doctor, especially in Australia, who travels by aircraft to visit patients who live in distant or isolated areas. N COUNT flying fish, flying fishes. Flying fish can also be used as the plural form. A flying fish is a type of fish that lives in warm seas. It has large fins that enable it to move forward in the air when it jumps out of the water. N COUNT flying picket, flying pickets. A flying picket is a trade union member or group of trade union members that travels to different factories, offices, etc during a strike in order to persuade people there to go on strike. N COUNT flying saucer, flying saucers. A flying saucer is a round flat spacecraft from another planet, which some people believe they have seen. N COUNT = UFO flying squad, flying squads. The flying squad is a group of police officers who are always ready to travel quickly to the scene of a serious crime. N COUNT : USU the + N, IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL flying visit, flying visits. A flying visit is a visit that only lasts a very short time. EG I'm afraid this will only be a flying visit, as I have to be back in London tonight. N COUNT flyleaf /flaɪliːf/, flyleaves. The flyleaf of a book is a page at the front that has nothing printed on it, or just the title and the author's name. EG 'To Aunt Agnes' was written in a bold hand on the flyleaf. N COUNT flyover /flaɪəʊvə/, flyovers. A flyover is a structure which carries one road over the top of another road. N COUNT = overpass flypaper /flaɪpeɪpə/ is a long piece of sticky paper that you hang up in a room in order to catch flies. N UNCOUNT flypast /flaɪpɑːst/, flypasts. When a flypast takes place on a ceremonial occasion or as a display, a group of aircraft fly through the sky in a special formation. N COUNT flysheet /flaɪʃiːt/, flysheets. The flysheet of a tent is the waterproof outer part that covers the inner part and protects it from rain. N COUNT ⇑ cover flywheel /flaɪwiːl/, flywheels. A flywheel is a heavy wheel that is part of a machine and makes it work at a steady speed. N COUNT ⇑ wheel foal /fəʊl/, foals, foaling, foaled. 1 A foal is a very young horse. N COUNT

2 A female horse that is in foal is pregnant. PHR

3 When a female horse foals, it gives birth. V

foam /fəʊm/, foams, foaming, foamed. 1 Foam is 1.1 lots of small bubbles of air together in a mass, formed when air is mixed in with a liquid. EG She could see the line of white foam where the waves broke on the beach... ...the pale yellow foam on their coffee. N UNCOUNT = froth

1.2 a substance that consists of a mass of very small bubbles formed in a chemical so that it is suitable to be used for a particular purpose. EG Willy squeezed shaving foam from an aerosol and patted it on his chin... ...a foam carpet cleaner. N UNCOUNT

2 Foam or foam rubber is soft rubber full of small holes which is used, for example, to make mattresses and cushions. EG ...foam mattresses. N UNCOUNT

3 If a liquid foams, it is full of small bubbles and is often moving. EG He poured foaming champagne into her glass... The icy cold water foamed over the side of the boat. V : USU + A ⇑ bubble

4 If a person or animal foams at the mouth or if their mouth foams, a mass of small bubbles comes from their mouth, for example because they are ill or very angry. EG He looked like a madman, foaming at the mouth... Its ears were back; its mouth foamed. PHR : VB INFLECTS = froth foamy /fəʊmi/, foamier, foamiest. 1 A liquid that is foamy has a mass of small bubbles on its surface or consists of a mass of bubbles. EG The sea was all glossy and pale and foamy like ginger beer. ADJ QUALIT = frothy

2 Something such as blossom or lace that is foamy is pale in colour and made up of light delicate parts or strands; a literary use. EG ...foamy clusters of cream-coloured flowers. ADJ QUALIT = frothy fob /fɒb/, fobs, fobbing, fobbed. A fob is a chain which is used for attaching a watch to a man's waistcoat, or an ornament attached to such a chain. EG ...a watch fob. N COUNT fob off. If you fob off someone who needs something or is asking for something, you give them something that is not very good or is not really what they wanted, although you pretend it is. EG He may try to fob you off with a prescription for pills... She felt she was being fobbed off. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, USU + with ⇑ deceive = put off fob off on. If you fob off something unwanted or inferior on someone, you persuade them to buy it or accept it, usually in a dishonest way. EG She managed to fob her old car off on an unsuspecting buyer. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV + PREP = unload on focal /fəʊkəl/ is used 1 to describe something relating to the point where a number of rays or lines meet. EG ...the focal crossroads, grandly named the 'Place des Nations'. 2 to describe something that is very important. EG In most developing countries, the state is a focal institution. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ central = central focal point, focal points. 1 Something that is a focal point is the thing that someone concentrates on or pays most attention to. EG Their family is the focal point of their lives... These problems provide the focal point for two new plays by Michael Abbenset. N COUNT ⇑ centre = core

2 The focal point of a lens or mirror is the point where the rays of light from it meet; a technical term in optics. N COUNT

focus /fəʊkəs/, foci, focuses, focusing, focused. The spellings focusses, focussing, and focussed are also used. The plural of the noun can be either foci or focuses. 1 If you focus your eyes or an instrument such as a camera or telescope, or if it focuses, you adjust your eyes or the instrument so that you can clearly see the thing you want to look at. EG His eyes, bandaged for twenty-four hours, would not focus... He tried to focus his eyes on a painting above Ellen's head... Each man was focusing a large telescope. V-ERG : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ adjust

2 If a photograph or an instrument such as a telescope through which you are looking is in focus, the edges of what you see are clear and sharp. If it is out of focus, they are fuzzy and blurred. EG The only part of the picture which was in clear focus was a small child... The camera was a bit out of focus when I took that one... I'm just trying to get the focus right. N UNCOUNT : USU PREP + N, OR N COUNT

3 If you focus rays of light, or if they focus on something, they pass through a lens or are reflected from a mirror and meet at a particular point. EG He took the glass and focused the sun on some dried wood. V-ERG : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ direct

4 The focus of a number of rays is the point at which they meet after passing through a lens or being reflected. N COUNT

5 If you focus your attention on something, you look at it or think about it carefully and concentrate on it. EG As we cannot study all resources, I propose to focus attention on one... Attention focussed on Jack. V-ERG : USU + on = centre

6 Someone or something that is the focus of attention or interest is the person or thing to which special attention is being paid or on which everyone is concentrating. EG Changes in the urban environment are once again the focus of public interest and discussion... This story is used as a focus for discussion... He expected to be the evening's chief focus of attention. N SING WITH DET : USU + of ⇑ object

7 Someone's focus on a particular thing is special attention that they pay to it. EG The focus on money and position tends to foster rivalry... A shift in focus had occurred away from issues of civil liberty. N UNCOUNT = emphasis fodder /fɒdə/. 1 Fodder is food that is given to animals such as cows or horses. N UNCOUNT ⇑ food

2 People or things that are fodder for a particular thing are considered to be useful for only the purpose indicated. EG Its people are cannon fodder in wars with bordering states... The documents were useless–waste-basket fodder. N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ material foe /fəʊ/, foes. Someone's foe is their enemy; an old-fashioned or formal word. EG He was succeeded by his political foe, Taylor... The guard challenged him. 'Who goes there? Friend or foe?' N COUNT foetal /fiːtəl/; also spelled fetal. Foetal is used to describe something relating to or like a foetus. EG The drug may cause foetal abnormalities... I was curled up in a foetal position. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB foetus /fiːtəs/, foetuses; also spelled fetus. A foetus is an unborn animal or human being in its later stages of development. EG ...the fluid that surrounds the growing foetus in the womb. N COUNT fog /fɒg/, fogs, fogging, fogged. 1 When there is fog, there are tiny drops of water in the air which form a thick cloud and make it difficult to see things. EG I hate driving in fog... Then the fog came down... Winter brought the fogs. N UNCOUNT, OR N COUNT : the + N, USU SING ⇑ mist

2 A fog is also an unpleasant cloud of something such as smoke inside a building or room. EG They all N SING WITH DET : USU + SUPP smoked cigarettes, and there was a constant nicotine fog.

3 If something made of glass, for example a window, fogs or fogs up, it becomes covered with steam so that it is difficult to see through. EG Through the fogged window he saw Denton stop... My glasses are all fogged up. V, OR PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ cloud

4 Someone who is in a fog is confused and unable to understand something or think clearly. EG ...bewildered scholars who stumble about in a fog... Gradually the fogs of ignorance and clumsiness cleared. N COUNT ⇑ confusion fog bank, fog banks; also spelled with a hyphen. A fog bank is an area of thick fog, especially at sea. N COUNT fogbound /fɒgbaʊnd/; also spelled with a hyphen. Something such as an airport that is fogbound cannot operate as usual, because of fog. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ immobilized fogey /fəʊgi[1]/, fogeys; also spelled fogy. A fogey is a boring, old-fashioned person; an informal word. EG Don't be such an old fogey! N COUNT : USU old + N, ALSO VOC foggy /fɒgi[1]/, foggier, foggiest. 1 When it is foggy, there is fog. EG Tomorrow it will be cold, cloudy, and foggy... ...a damp and foggy climate... ...a foggy day. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ misty

2 If you say that you haven't the foggiest or you haven't the foggiest idea, you emphasize that you do not know something; an informal expression. EG I haven't the foggiest idea what it is. PHR : VB INFLECTS

foghorn /fɒghɔːn/, foghorns. A foghorn is a loud horn that is used to warn ships about the position of land and other ships in fog. N COUNT ⇑ horn fog lamp, fog lamps. A fog lamp or a fog light is a special, powerful light on a car or other vehicle which you use when you are driving in fog. N COUNT

fogy /fəʊgi[1]/. See fogey.

foible /fɔɪbə[l]/, foibles. A foible is a habit or characteristic that someone has which is considered rather strange, foolish, or bad but which is also considered unimportant and allowable. EG Their foibles were treated with indulgence. N COUNT = idiosyncrasy foil /fɔɪl/, foils, foiling, foiled. 1 Foil is metal in the form of a sheet as thin as paper. It is used especially to wrap food in and keep it fresh. EG Wrap cakes in foil before storing them... ...aluminium foil... ...the foil wrapper of a bar of chocolate. N UNCOUNT

2 If you foil someone's plan or attempt at something, you prevent them from being successful. EG Their attempt to recapture Calais was foiled by a traitor... He had planned to leave at four, but he was foiled by Mrs Harlowe, who rang for tea. V + O = thwart

3 Something that is a foil for something else makes its good qualities more noticeable when the two things are experienced together, because of the great difference between them. EG She had bronzed skin, for which her yellow swimsuit was a perfect foil... Cranberries are fairly sharp, but a good foil to fat meat. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN for/to = contrast, complement

4 A foil is also a thin light sword used in fencing, which has a button on its tip to prevent injury. N COUNT

foist /fɔɪst/, foists, foisting, foisted. foist on. If you foist something on someone, you force them to have it or experience it. EG They were not out to foist their ideas and views on the people... Goodness knows what type of manager they might foist on us. PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP = impose fold /fəʊld/, folds, folding, folded. 1 If you fold something such as a piece of paper or cloth, you bend one part of it so that it covers another part, often pressing the edge so that it stays in place. EG Fold the sheet and blankets back at the top... There was a piece of paper folded in two. V + O : USU + A

2 If you fold something or if you fold it up, you make it into a smaller, neat shape by folding it several times. EG Bedding should be folded and left for removal men to pack... They folded the tent neatly... The husband folded his newspaper into a neat rectangle... She folded up some shirts. ◊ folded. EG She took the folded blanket and spread it out. V + O, V + O + A (up) ≠ open out ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 A fold in a piece of paper or cloth is 3.1 a bend that you make in it when you put one part of it over another part, usually pressing the edge so that it stays in place. EG You need to make three folds in the paper along lines A, B, and C. 3.2 the curved shape made by a piece of cloth when it is not lying flat. EG The soft light fell on the folds of her dress... The curtains hung in bulging folds. N COUNT N COUNT

4 If you fold or fold up something such as an umbrella or specially designed piece of furniture or equipment, you make it smaller or change its shape by causing parts of it to close up or bend. EG The bed can be easily erected or folded away... He folded back the partition... The pram had its hood folded down... This is a well designed easel which folds up quickly and neatly. V, ERG : USU + A ≠ put up

5 If you fold something such as your hand or a piece of material around an object, you wrap it around the object. EG A sheet of paper had been folded around the whole bundle... She folded the napkin sides up around the bowl... He produced a small pebble and folded my hand over it... I found a tiny tooth folded in a little piece of paper. V + O + A

6 If you fold your arms or hands, you bring them together and cross or link them, for example over your chest or in your lap. EG Fold your arms and sit up straight!... She sat erectly, her hands folded on her black skirt. V + O ⇑ intertwine

7 If you fold part of your body, you bend it or put it close to the main part of your body, especially in a resting position. EG The bird folded its wings... She sank back again, one leg folded under her. V + O

8 If the petals of a flower fold or fold up, they close and come together in the centre of the flower. EG The buds folded up against the light. ◊ folded. EG ...inside the folded petals of a flower. V OR V + A (up) = furl ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

9 If a business or organization folds or folds up, it closes or ceases to exist as a result of failure. EG She had known too many businesses fold up through bad management... The project folded. V, ERG OR V, ERG + A (up) ⇑ stop = collapse

10 The fold is used to refer to the home, or to an organization or group to which you feel a sense of belonging. EG Renounce the devil and return to the fold... Many did enter the fold of the Labour Party. N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING

11 A fold is also a small area of a field which is enclosed by a wall or fence and in which sheep can be put, for example to protect them at night. N COUNT

12 A fold in a line of rock beneath the earth's surface is a bend in the line which has been caused by movement of the earth's crust. N COUNT

13 See also folding.

fold in. 1 In cooking, when you fold a substance into another substance, or when you fold it in, you put the first substance into the second substance very gently and mix the two together. EG Fold the flour into the batter using a metal spoon... Beat the egg whites until stiff and fold in 2oz sugar. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV/PREP ⇑ add

-fold combines with a number 1 to indicate that something has the stated number of kinds or parts. EG The problems were two-fold: it was difficult to get finance, and there weren't enough trained people available. 2 to indicate that something is multiplied by the stated number of times. EG Even if we multiplied it ten-fold that would be thirty per cent. COMB : FORMS ADJ CLASSIFS ; COMB : FORMS ADVS fold-away. A fold-away piece of furniture or equipment is one that is specially designed so that it can be folded into a smaller shape for convenience or storage. EG ...a fold-away table. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = collapsible folder /fəʊldə/, folders. A folder is a thin piece of cardboard folded into the shape of a container or cover, in which you can keep loose papers. EG The solicitor took a sealed envelope from the folder on his desk. N COUNT folding /fəʊldɪŋ/. A folding table, bicycle, umbrella, etc is designed so that you can fold it into a smaller shape to make it easier to carry or store. EG Amy was sitting on her folding stool which she always carried with her... ...folding steps. ...folding doors. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = collapsible folding money is the same as paper money; used in American English. N UNCOUNT = notes fold-up. A fold-up piece of furniture or equipment is one that is specially designed so that it can be folded into a smaller shape for convenience or storage. EG ...fold-up desks... ...fold-up bicycles. ADJ CLASSIF, ATTRIB = collapsible foliage /fəʊli[1]ɪdʒ/. 1 The green leaves of a plant are referred to as its foliage. EG Pollution has stripped the trees of their foliage. N UNCOUNT

2 Leaves together with the small stems, twigs, and branches which they are attached to are also referred to as foliage. EG We carried armfuls of foliage to the bonfire. N UNCOUNT folio /fəʊli[1]əʊ/, folios. A folio is a book made with paper of a large size, used especially in the earlier centuries of European printing. EG ...a copy of Shakespeare's first folio of 1623... ...a folio volume of Italian paintings. N COUNT folk /fəʊk/, folks. 1 Folk are people; sometimes used showing affection. EG She was like all the old N PLURAL : USU MOD + N folk, she did everything in strict rotation... ...country folk are a suspicious lot... Nearly all English Department folk here, I guess.... Mrs Hogan and I are having some folks round for drinks on Sunday.

2 Your folks are your close family, especially your mother and father; used especially in American English. EG I don't even have time to write letters to my folks.

N PLURAL ; USU POSS + N
⇑ parents
= kin

3 You use folks as a term of address in informal English when you are addressing several people. EG That's all for tonight, folks.

N VOC
= everyone

4 Folk music, art, custom, etc is considered to be traditional or typical of a particular community or nation, representing the culture and feelings of the ordinary people there. EG ...this gem of Russian folk wisdom... It was reputedly used as folk medicine to cure snake bites... ...one of the folk songs he had learnt in childhood.

ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

folklore /fəʊklɔː/ is the traditional stories, customs, habits, etc of a particular community or nation. EG Island folklore still recounts the story of the raft... ...exhibitions of archaeology, history and folklore.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ knowledge

folksy /fəʊksi^{I}/. Something that is folksy is simple and has a style that is characteristic of folk craft and tradition. EG ...her full and folksy long skirt.

ADJ QUALIT

follicle /fɒlɪkə^{l}/, follicles. A follicle is one of the small hollows in the skin which hairs grow from.

N COUNT

follow /fɒləʊ/, follows, following, followed. 1 If you follow someone or something that is moving or travelling, 1.1 you move along behind them. EG He followed Sally into the yard.... Come on! Follow me!... Lynn got up and made for the stairs. Marsha followed... They followed after me. 1.2 you go after them without them knowing in order to catch them or find out where they are going. EG He must have known he was followed... Follow that car. 1.3 you go to the place that they have recently gone to, and where they are now staying. EG He followed them to Venice.

V OR V + O
⇑ accompany ≠ precede

V + O
= tail

V OR V + O

2 If an event, activity, or period of time follows a particular thing, it happens or comes after this thing; used especially when the events or things are related in some way. EG In the days that followed, Keith and his mates could talk of nothing else... We now have two introductory sessions, followed by a personal interview... ...the day following the assassination.

V OR V + O
≠ precede

3 If a particular thing happens followed by something else, this thing happens first and then the other thing happens. EG We voted first, and were followed by the French and the Russians... Use carbon tetrachloride, followed by soap and warm water.

V + O : USU PASS + BY

4 If you follow something with something else, or follow it up with something else, you do or say something after you have just done or said something else. EG By 1880 Walker had to open an office in London and follow it with a bottling hall... He followed up this criticism of the Government's record with a personal attack on the Prime Minister... He murmured the word quietly and with great venom, following up with a string of oaths.

V + O + A (by/with), OR V + O + A (up) + A (by/with) = chase

5 You use followed by to say what comes after something else in a list or ordered set of things. EG The main product is the vacuum cleaner, followed by washing machines and tumble dryers.

V + O : ONLY PASS + by

6 If you say that something follows, you mean that 6.1 it happens as a result of something else. EG Many advantages would follow if the tree could grow tall... Hunger and poverty followed upon the ruthless operation of this system. 6.2 it is true or is the case as a logical result of something else being true or being the case. EG Just because they are old, it doesn't follow that they have to be patronized... ...it doesn't necessarily follow... A disturbing conclusion followed from that. 6.3 it comes next in a piece of writing or speech, or after another part of it. EG I learned most of what follows from a parlourmaid called Louise... Several paragraphs followed to the effect that things were getting worse...

V : IF + PREP THEN from/on/upon
= ensue

V OR V + REPORT CL : USU it + V, IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ lead from

V OR V + O
= ensue

7 You use as follows to introduce 7.1 a list of people or things or a section of writing or speech. EG The contents are as follows: one black desk, one grey wastepaper bin, two red and black chairs... It can be summed up as follows: 'Man is a creation of God, and has been given the earth.' 7.2 a description or explanation of the way that something is done. EG File your correspondence roughly as follows... The amount of benefit you are entitled to will be worked out as follows.

PHR : USED AS AN A = like this, thus

PHR : USED AS AN A
= thus

8 If you follow a path, river, line, or set of signs, you go along beside it or from one sign to another, using it or them to show you which direction to go in. EG We followed a path up along the creek... We followed arrows pointing through subterranean passages.

V + O : USU + A ⇑ track

9 If you follow a particular route or course, you go somewhere by this route or course. EG Follow the route marked on the map to the church.

V + O
⇑ use

10 If the edge or surface of something follows something else that is next to it, this edge or surface has the same shape as the thing next to it. EG The boundary follows the Rio Grande river.

V + O

11 If something follows a particular shape or pattern, it has this shape or is in a particular position; used of something long and thin or of a number of things considered to be in a line. EG The streets follow irregular patterns.

V + O

12 If you follow something with your eyes, you watch it as it moves or you look along a line that it indicates. EG Its eyes followed her everywhere she moved... Eric and the others could follow the man's finger as it moved across the map... Ralph shaded his eyes and followed the jagged outline of the crags up towards the summit.

V + O : USU + A
⇑ observe

13 Something that follows a particular course of development happens or develops in this way; used especially when you are comparing two things. EG Frogs have followed a very different line of development... Their debut album follows the pattern set by their singles.

V + O

14 If you follow or follow out advice, instructions, a diagram, etc, you do something in the way indicated or advised. EG She promised to follow his advice... She knew she could trust him to follow out her instructions... This forced them to follow a tight money policy... The diagrams were simple and easy to follow.

V + O, OR V + O + A (out)
= carry out

15 If you follow what someone else has done, you do it too because you think it is a good thing or because you want to copy them. EG Other banks tended to follow the trend set by the major ones... Where America leads, the UK tends to follow.

V OR V + O : USU V + O

16 If you follow someone in what you do, you do the same thing or job as they did previously. EG Is it very difficult to follow Edith Evans in the part?... Michael Manley followed his father into politics.

V + O

17 If you follow something such as an explanation or a plot of a story, 17.1 you understand it and the way its parts relate to each other. EG He could not really quite follow what Dr Hochstadt was attempting to say... They were having some difficulty in following the plot... He didn't quite follow... You follow me? 17.2 you listen to it or watch it with great attention. EG I could see he was following the play attentively.

V OR V + O : USU WITH BROAD NEG

V + O

18 If you follow something, 18.1 you take an interest in it and keep informed about what happens. EG One man who follows its fortunes closely is Christopher Poll... ...the thousands of American couples who followed the case with great interest. 18.2 you see how each one of a succession of connected events, people, or things came one after the other. EG ...we can follow the history of life through the strata.

V + O
= trace

19 A story, film, or TV programme that follows someone or something is about their experiences over a particular period of time. EG Her story follows an English family on a Rhine holiday... The story follows the events of one Christmas term.

V + O
⇑ concern

20 If you follow a score or written copy of a play, you read it while you listen to it being performed. EG He liked to follow the score of the music.

V + O

21 If you follow a particular religion, political belief, or leader, you have the religion or belief or you support the leader mentioned. EG They followed Cromwell during the fighting... Most of them follow the Buddhist faith.

V + O ⇑ adhere to

22 If you follow a particular job, hobby, or way of life, you have this job, hobby, or way of life. EG He was unable to follow his trade without a union card... Others have been prepared to follow a life of austerity.

V + O
= carry on, practise

23 If you follow a particular idea or if you follow it through, you study or think about it and all its implications to discover whether it is correct or appropriate. EG He was asked to follow a particular

V + O, OR V + O + A (through)

line of research... Tempting though it may be to follow this point through, it is not really relevant.

24 In a meal or on a menu, the course that is to follow is the next course of the meal. EG I'll have the steak, and ice cream to follow. PHR : USED AS AN A 25 The word follow is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to follow suit: see suit. ● to follow in someone's footsteps: see footstep. ● to follow the crowd: see crowd. ● to follow your nose: see nose. ● to follow hard on the heels of something: see heel. ● See also following.

follow through. 1 If you follow through an action or planned series of actions, you complete it. EG ...offensive action, swiftly followed through to the early attainment of an advantage. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, OR V + ADV

2 If you follow through in a sport such as golf, tennis, or football, you complete the movement of hitting a ball by continuing to move your arm or leg in the same curve after you have hit the ball. EG You're not following through after playing the stroke. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

3 See also follow-through.

follow up. If you follow up something that has been said, suggested, or discovered, you try to find out more about it or to take action about it. EG It's an idea which has been followed up by a group of researchers at Birmingham... I followed up an advertisement for a second-hand Volkswagen. ● See also follow-up. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = investigate follower /fɒləʊə/, followers. A follower of a particular person, group, or belief is someone who supports or admires this person, group, or belief. EG ...Freud and his followers... ...the followers of Chinese communism. ● See also camp follower. N COUNT : USU WITH POSS = adherent following /fɒləʊɪŋ/, followings. 1 The following day, week, etc refers to the next period of time or event that comes after the one of the same kind that has just been mentioned. EG He died the following day... She intended to come to see the play on the following Friday. ORDINAL : the + ORDINAL + N ≠ previous

2 Following is also used 2.1 to indicate that something happens after an event and perhaps as a result of it. EG ...the election of Harold Wilson to the leadership following Gaitskell's death in February 1963... Following that outburst, the general was banished. 2.2 to refer to something that is about to be said or written. EG This could be achieved in the following way... Where are the following: Madrid, Thursday Island, Lima, the Azores... The following appeared in the German magazine Stern. PREP / ORDINAL : the + ORDINAL

3 A person or organization that has a following has a group of people who support or admire their beliefs, actions, or aims. EG She has a keen following among rock fans... This religion is too stark to attract a large following. N COUNT : USU SING

4 If a boat or vehicle has a following wind, the wind is moving in the same direction as the boat or vehicle. EG Fortunately we had a following wind that day. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ favourable follow-my-leader is a children's game in which one child is followed by all the others in a line, and his or her actions are copied. N UNCOUNT follow-on, follow-ons. A follow-on is the act of following someone or something that has gone on ahead. EG He proposed an early start for the first group with a follow-on of two more groups the next day. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ movement follow-through, follow-throughs. A follow-through is 1 the completion of an action or planned series of actions. EG This wouldn't halt the attack but it would at least blunt the follow-through. 2 the completion of a movement such as hitting a ball. EG He held his follow-through pose for 10 seconds. N COUNT : USU SING / N COUNT : USU SING follow-up, follow-ups. A follow-up visit, programme, etc is done as a continuation or second part of something done previously. EG There will be a follow-up programme next month to report on the progress made... He needed follow-up treatment from a specialist doctor. ▸ used as a noun. EG This conference is a follow-up to an earlier one in Gabon. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ▸ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

folly /fɒli[1]/, follies. 1 If you say that a particular action or way of behaving is folly or a folly, you mean that it is foolish. EG It would be folly to continue... There is no limit to the folly of mankind... The government persisted in its folly. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = foolishness

2 A folly is an imitation castle, temple, or other unusual building that is built as a decoration in a large garden or park. N COUNT

foment /fəment/, foments, fomenting, fomented. If someone or something foments trouble, especially trouble of a political nature, they cause it to develop; a formal word. EG ...the art of fomenting distrust between your two opponents. V + O = stir up fond /fɒnd/, fonder, fondest. 1 Fond is used to describe someone or something that shows or expresses a strong feeling of affection for a person or thing. EG His fond parents looked on with a triumphant smile... ...looking at me with fond eyes... Absence makes the heart grow fonder. ◊ fondly. EG He used to gaze at the old car fondly... She was fondly known as 'Little Madge'. ◊ fondness. EG I recall with fondness a young woman I met in Corsica. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ loving = adoring / ◊ ADV WITH VB / ◊ N UNCOUNT = affection

2 If you are fond of someone, you like them very much and have an emotional feeling for that person which is not quite as strong as love. EG 'I've always been terribly fond of you,' she said. ◊ fondness. EG I had noticed his growing fondness for her. ADJ QUAL'T : PRED + of / ◊ N UNCOUNT

3 If you say that you are fond of something, you mean that you like it or you like doing it very much. EG Etta was fond of shopping... His mouth was full of sponge cake of which he was particularly fond... I'm not enormously fond of Shaw's plays... ◊ fondness. EG ...my fondness for red wine. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + of / ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 If you say that someone is fond of doing something, you mean that they do it often and that you are rather critical of them for doing it. EG He was fond of pointing out that children in the past were to be seen and not heard. ◊ fondness. EG His fondness for name-dropping was irritating to say the least. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + of = partial to / ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 Fond is also used to refer to something that is foolishly hoped for because it is unlikely to happen. EG Shaking my head over my fond fancies, I tottered back to bed... ...fond hopes. ◊ fondly. EG I fondly believed that we could succeed. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = absurd, silly / ◊ ADV WITH VB = naively fondant /fɒndənt/, fondants. A fondant is a sugar sweet that seems to melt in your mouth. N COUNT

fondle /fɒndə^{0}l/, fondles, fondling, fondled. If you fondle someone or something, you touch them gently with a stroking movement, usually to show your love or affection for them. EG Mothers and fathers must have a chance to fondle their new babies. V + O = pet, caress fondue /fɒndju:/, fondues. A fondue is a hot sauce, often made with cheese, which you dip small pieces of bread, meat, or vegetable into and eat. There are several kinds of fondue. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT font /fɒnt/, fonts. A font in a church is a bowl which holds the water used for baptisms. N COUNT food /fu:d/, foods. 1 Food is what people and animals eat and what living things cannot grow without. EG There was little money left for food or clothing... Take all the food out... ...food supplies... She eats the plainest of foods... ...health foods... ...baby foods... ...breakfast food. N MASS ⇑ nourishment

2 If you are off your food, you have very little or no appetite, usually because you are ill. PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 If something is food for thought or food for reflection, it causes your mind to be active, especially by making you think about the way it will affect future events. EG This supplies food for reflection about the future of the nation... The accident gave drivers food for thought. PHR : USED AS O ⇑ material food chain, food chains. A food chain is a series of living things which are considered as being linked because each thing feeds on the thing below it in the series. N COUNT food mixer, food mixers; also spelled with a hyphen. A food mixer is a piece of electrical equipment which is used in the kitchen for mixing food such as cake mixture. N COUNT ⇑ device food poisoning; also spelled with a hyphen. Food poisoning is an illness giving you sickness and diarrhoea, caused by eating food that has gone bad. N UNCOUNT = gastro-enteritis foodstuff /fu:dstʌf/, foodstuffs. Foodstuff or a foodstuff is a substance which is used as food or used to make a particular food. EG ...foodstuffs such as cookies, candies, and sugar. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : USU PL fool /fu:l/, fools, fooling, fooled. 1 If you refer to someone as a fool, you mean that they have behaved in a very silly or unintelligent way. EG Just look what you've done! You stupid fool!... I was a fool. I should have gone when you gave me the chance... She was N COUNT, ALSO VOC = idiot sharp-witted and no fool... He was not fool enough to think that the job would be easy.

2 If you make a fool of someone, you make them seem silly by telling people about something stupid that they have done, or by tricking them in some way. EG They threatened to publish his letters to her and make a fool of him before the world.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
⇑ ridicule

3 If you make a fool of yourself, you behave in a way that makes other people think that you are silly or lacking in judgement. EG He had never learned to dance and was not prepared to make a fool of himself.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
= show yourself up

4 If you say 'more fool you' when you have heard what someone has done or plans to do, you mean that you think they have done something unwise which will be of disadvantage to them or to someone else. EG 'I decided to accept it.'–'More fool you, I wouldn't go, no matter how much they offered me.'

CONVENTION

5 If you play the fool or act the fool, you behave in a playful, childish, and foolish way, usually in order to make other people laugh. EG I must seriously ask you not to play the fool.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
= muck about

6 A fool is also a person whose job is to do silly things to make people laugh; used especially of a person in former times who was employed in the court of a king or queen.

N COUNT
⇑ entertainer
= jester

7 Fool is used to describe an action that is stupid or silly; an informal or offensive use, used especially in American English. EG ...somebody making a damn fool speech... This is the kind of fool thing a reader might suppose I did.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

8 If you fool someone, you deceive or trick them. EG The tribesmen weren't fooled by the government's fine-sounding edicts... The pilot releases a flare which fools the missile's guidance system... I was fooled into thinking that she loved me... She certainly had me fooled.

V + O (NG/REFL)
= con, hoodwink

9 Fool is a dessert made of fruit, eggs, sugar, and cream that are whipped together to make a light, frothy substance. EG ...a raspberry fool.

N MASS : USU MOD + N = whip

fool around. 1 If you fool around or fool about, you behave in a playful, childish, and silly way, often in order to make people laugh. EG He was always fooling about.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN with
= lark about

2 If you fool around, you behave in a silly, dangerous, or irresponsible way without having thought seriously and carefully about what you are doing. EG ...that fellow you told me about, the one who's fooling around with your wife... I don't want to have to fool around trying to dock two boats in the dark.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN with = mess around

foolery /fu:l^{9}ri^{1}/ is foolish behaviour. EG ...if Nell will stop this foolery of sleeping on the sitting-room sofa.

N UNCOUNT/COUNT
= silliness

foolhardy /fu:lhɑ:di^{1}/. Foolhardy behaviour is foolish because it involves doing something that is too risky. EG It was considered rather foolhardy for him to quit his job... It would be foolhardy to try. ◊ foolhardiness.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ stupid = rash
◊ N UNCOUNT

foolish /fu:lɪʃ/. 1 If your behaviour or action is foolish, it is not sensible and shows a lack of good judgement. EG It would be foolish to suppose that it is an easy thing to change one's faith. ▸ used of people. EG How foolish I was not to have gone earlier to my doctor. ◊ foolishly. EG Foolishly, I allowed myself to be influenced by their arguments... They have acted a little foolishly. ◊ foolishness. EG Have I killed him by my foolishness?

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ stupid
= silly, unwise
▸ = silly
◊ ADV, OR ADV SEN
◊ N UNCOUNT
= folly

2 Someone or something that is foolish is so silly, ridiculous, and thoughtless that people are likely to laugh at them. EG They looked foolish... It is a wildly romantic and foolish book. ◊ foolishly. EG ...laughing somewhat foolishly... After 92 years would the piece appear foolishly melodramatic? ◊ foolishness.

ADJ QUALIT
= stupid
◊ ADV = ridiculously
◊ N UNCOUNT

foolproof /fu:lpru:f/. Something such as a plan or a machine that is foolproof is so well designed, easy to understand, or easy to use that it cannot go wrong or be used wrongly. EG ...a foolproof identification system... The machine was foolproof as drivers would be unable to alter the readings.

ADJ QUALIT

foolscap /fu:lskæp/ is paper which is about 34 centimetres by 43 centimetres in size. EG ...three sheets of foolscap... ...foolscap paper.

N UNCOUNT

fool's errand, fool's errands. A fool's errand is something that a person does and that they eventually realize is useless. EG It was a fool's errand; he'll never change his mind.

N COUNT

fool's gold is a substance that is found in rock and that looks rather like gold.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ mineral fool's paradise. If you say that someone is living in a fool's paradise, you mean that they are in a state of great happiness which is threatened by change, but they are not aware of this threat.

N SING : a + N
⇑ fantasy

foot /fʊt/, feet; foots, footing, footed. The plural of the noun is feet. The form foot can also be used as a plural in paragraph 8 if you are stating measurements or if the noun is in modifier position.

Foots is the third person singular of the verb. 1 Your foot is the part of your body that is at the end of your leg and that you stand on. EG She's got very small feet... He kept on running in spite of the pain in his foot... ...hopping from one foot to another on the hot sand... It fell to the floor at her feet.

N COUNT
⇑ extremity

2 If you go somewhere on foot, you walk, rather than using any form of transport. EG The city should be explored on foot... You have to get off the train at the frontier and cross on foot.

PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ walking

3 If you get to your feet, jump to your feet, etc, you stand up. EG He rose hurriedly to his feet and ran from the room... She scrambled to her feet... I helped my sister to her feet.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS

4 When you are on your feet, you are standing up. EG Posy was on her feet and demanding that everyone listen to her... I need a rest–I've been on my feet all day!

PHR : VB
INFLECTS

5 A foot brake, pump, etc is operated by your foot rather than by your hand.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

6 A foot patrol or a foot soldier moves or operates on foot, rather than in a vehicle or on horseback.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

7 The foot of something is 7.1 the part at the bottom or base of it. EG I stood at the foot of the stairs and shouted up to her... We camped at the foot of some hills... The body was found close to the foot of the cliffs... ...at the foot of the page. 7.2 the lower end of something such as a bed, where you put your feet. EG He sat at the foot of his son's bed... ...at the foot of the grave.

N SING : the + N, IF + PREP THEN of
N SING : the + N, IF + PREP THEN of

8 A foot is also a unit for measuring length, equal to 12 inches or 30.48 centimetres. EG We were only a few feet away from the edge of the cliff... The planes flew at 65,000 feet... ...a 40-foot fall... ...a small hill about 400 feet high... She's five foot eight inches tall.

N COUNT
⇑ measurement

9 If you set foot in a place, you go there. EG He lived in Paris for years without ever setting foot in the Louvre... It starts raining whenever we set foot out of doors.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
⇑ visit

10 When someone or something is on their feet again after an illness or a difficult period of time, they have recovered and returned to a normal condition. EG We just want to see you on your feet again... ...an economic programme to put the country back on its feet.

PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ healthy

11 If you say that someone is dragging their feet, you mean that they are being deliberately slow in taking any action or making any decisions; used showing disapproval. EG The government have been dragging their feet on this matter.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
⇑ delay

12 If you fall on your feet, you have good luck and are successful even when conditions are unfavourable.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS

13 If you say that someone is finding their feet, you mean that they are starting to feel confident in a new situation. EG It'll probably be a week or two before he finds his feet.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
= settle in

14 Someone who has their feet on the ground has a sensible and practical attitude towards life, and does not have unrealistic ideas. EG These advocates of freedom have not got their feet on the ground.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS

15 If you start off on the wrong foot when you are involved in a new situation, meeting new people, etc, you make a bad or unsuccessful start. EG He got off on the wrong foot by turning up late for his first day at the office.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS

16 Someone who never puts a foot wrong never makes any mistakes.

PHR WITH BROAD NEG : VB
INFLECTS

17 If you put your feet up, you relax by sitting or lying with your feet supported by something. EG She likes to put her feet up after a day's work.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
⇑ rest

18 If someone puts their foot down, they assert their authority to prevent something from happening. EG She'll have to put her foot down... When they started asking me to work at weekends, I decided to put my foot down.

PHR : VB
INFLECTS
= be firm

19 If you put your foot in it, you cause embarrassment by doing or saying something tactless; an informal expression. EG He really put his foot in it. INFLECTS = boob

PHR : VB

20 If someone has to stand on their own two feet, they have to be independent and manage their lives without help from other people. EG The camp gives the children an opportunity to stand on their own feet... Stand on your own two feet man! PHR : VB INFLECTS

21 If someone is under your feet, they are in your way and being a nuisance to you. EG The children are always under my feet... She told us to get out from under her feet. PHR : USED AS AN A

22 If you foot it, you walk or run rather than travelling in a vehicle; an informal expression. EG We decided to foot it, rather than wait for the next bus. PHR : VB INFLECTS

23 If you foot the bill for something, you pay for it. EG Who's going to foot the bill for the damage? PHR : VB INFLECTS

24 A foot in poetry is one of the basic units of rhythm into which a line of poetry is divided. N COUNT

25 The word foot is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● from head to foot: see head. ● hand and foot: see hand. ● to have or get cold feet: see cold. ● to sweep someone off their feet: see sweep.

footage /fʊtɪdʒ/ of a particular event is a film of it or the part of a film which shows this event. EG ...some spine-chilling footage on the effects of nuclear war. N UNCOUNT foot-and-mouth disease is a serious disease that affects cattle, sheep, pigs, and goats, in which blisters are formed in the animal's mouth and around its hooves. N UNCOUNT football /fʊtbɔːl/, footballs. 1 Football is 1.1 a game played between two teams of eleven players who kick a ball around a field in an attempt to score goals. EG I go and watch football most weekends... The children are playing football in the garden... ...a football match. N UNCOUNT = soccer

1.2 any of various similar games played with a round or oval ball which is kicked, thrown, or carried in an attempt to score goals or reach the opposing team's goal line. Rugby, American football, and Australian Rules football are all types of football. N UNCOUNT

2 A football is a large ball filled with air, which is used in games of football. N COUNT

footballer /fʊtbɔːlə/, footballers. A footballer is a person who plays football, especially as a profession. N COUNT ⇑ player football pools are the same as the pools: see pool. N PLURAL footbridge /fʊtbrɪdʒ/, footbridges. A footbridge is a narrow bridge for people travelling on foot. N COUNT

-footed combines with an adjective, noun, or number to indicate that a person or animal has feet of a particular kind, or that they have a particular number of feet. EG ...bare-footed children... Ducks are web-footed... ...a four-footed animal. COMB : FORMS ADJS

-footer, -footers. -footer combines with a number to indicate that a person or thing is a particular number of feet in length or height. EG The boat we used was a fourteen-footer with an outboard motor. COMB : FORMS N COUNTS

footfall /fʊtfɔːl/, footfalls. A footfall is the sound that is made by someone walking each time they take a step; a literary word. EG Suddenly he heard heavy footfalls behind him. N COUNT ⇑ noise foothill /fʊthɪl/, foothills. A foothill is a hill or a fairly low mountain at the base of a higher mountain or range of mountains. EG ...exploring the foothills of the Himalayas. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ area foothold /fʊthəʊld/, footholds. A foothold is 1 a place such as a ledge, crevice, or hollow where you can safely put your foot when climbing. EG ...scrabbling with my feet to find a foothold. N COUNT

2 a strong or favourable position from which further advances or progress may be made. EG It was necessary to find a way to gain a foothold in the organization... The guerillas established a firm foothold by offering protection against the government. N COUNT footing /fʊtɪŋ/. 1 You refer to someone's footing when you are referring to their position and whether they have their feet firmly and safely placed on a surface. EG He lost his footing, and stumbled to the floor... When you reach the rocks, be sure of your footing before you let go... She could not gain her footing, the water was too deep and too fast. N UNCOUNT : USU POSS + N = balance

2 If something is on a particular kind of footing, it is established, happens, or functions on a basis of the kind mentioned. EG We've had to get this on a more official footing... The transition to a war footing had really gone very smoothly... The funds should be made available on a wider footing. N SING WITH DET + SUPP = level

3 If you are on a particular kind of footing with someone, you have that kind of relationship or friendship with them. EG The school's constitution puts parents on an equal footing with staff... She knew all the neighbours but had never got onto a really intimate footing with any of them. N SING : a + ADJ + N : with footlights /fʊtlaɪts/. The footlights in a theatre are the lights that are in a row along the front of the stage. N PLURAL ⇑ illumination footling /fuːtlɪŋ/. Something that is footling is very unimportant and not worth taking seriously; a rather old-fashioned word, used showing disapproval. EG Don't let's have a lot of footling excuses for not going. ADJ QUALIT = paltry footloose /fʊtluːs/. Someone who is footloose has no responsibilities or commitments and so is free to do what they want and go where they want. EG ...numerous footloose young men from other villages... She's still footloose and fancy-free. ADJ CLASSIF = fancy-free ≠ tied down footman /fʊtmən/, footmen. A footman is a male servant who does various jobs such as opening doors or serving food at table, and who often wears a special uniform. N COUNT ⇑ employee footmark /fʊtmɑːk/, footmarks. A footmark is a mark that someone's foot or shoe has made on a surface. EG ...the marks of wheels, hoof-prints and footmarks. N COUNT = footprint footnote /fʊtnəʊt/, footnotes. A footnote is 1 a note at the bottom of a page in a book which provides more detailed information about something that is mentioned on that page. EG ...a lengthy footnote to the last three sections of this chapter. N COUNT ⇑ comment

2 a comment that you add to give extra information about what you have just been saying. EG There is a footnote to the invention of the lightning conductor... As a footnote, I should say that he did not actually visit the place himself. N COUNT

3 an extra later event or development that is fairly unimportant. EG In terms of the history of art it's just a footnote... All post-1945 economics consists of footnotes to Keynes. N COUNT ⇑ detail footpath /fʊtpɑːθ/, footpaths. A footpath is a path for people to walk on, especially in the countryside. EG ...the footpath by the river. N COUNT ⇑ way footplate /fʊtpleɪt/, footplates. A footplate is the platform on a steam locomotive where the driver and fireman stand. N COUNT footprint /fʊtprɪnt/, footprints. A footprint is a mark in the shape of a foot that a person or animal makes in or on a surface. EG There were no footprints or any signs of how the burglars got in... ...fresh footprints in the snow. N COUNT : USU PL = footmark footsie /fʊtsi¹/. If someone plays footsie with you, they touch your feet with their own feet, for example under a table, often as a playful way of expressing their romantic or sexual feelings towards you; an informal expression. PHR + with : VB INFLECTS ⇑ flirt footslogging /fʊtslɒgɪŋ/. If you are footslogging round somewhere, you walk long distances and become very tired. EG ...footslogging around the shops all afternoon. ▸ used as a noun. EG The job involves a lot of footslogging. V : USU CONT + PREP = trudging ▸ N UNCOUNT footsore /fʊtsɔː/. If you are footsore, you have sore or tired feet after walking a long way. EG She was tired and footsore and desperately weary of travelling. ADJ QUALIT : USU PRED ⇑ aching footstep /fʊtstɛp/, footsteps. A footstep is the sound or mark that is made by someone walking each time their foot touches the ground. EG They heard footsteps and turned... A door was closed softly, footsteps passed along the corridor above. ● If you follow in someone's footsteps, you do the same things as they did earlier. EG She is following in her sister's footsteps... Japan's success with this technology has encouraged other countries to follow in its footsteps. N COUNT : USU PL ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ emulate footstool /fʊtstuːl/, footstools. A footstool is a low stool that you can rest your feet on when you are sitting in a chair. N COUNT footway /fʊtweɪ/, footways. A footway is a path for people to walk on, for example alongside a bridge or river. N COUNT ⇑ towpath footwear /fʊtweə/ refers to things that people wear on their feet such as shoes, boots, or sandals. EG ...the footwear industry. N UNCOUNT footwork /fʊtwɜːk/ is 1 the way in which you move your feet, especially in sports such as boxing, football, or tennis, or in dancing. EG ...attention to footwork, angle of the racket, smoothness of strokes. 2 the way in which you behave in a situation and deal with it. EG ...an economic system that will require some fancy footwork indeed. N UNCOUNT ⇑ skill / N UNCOUNT = handling foppish /fɒpɪʃ/. A man who is foppish is vain and dresses in fancy, elegant clothes; an old-fashioned word. ADJ QUALIT for /fɔː/. For is used as a preposition after some verbs, nouns, and adjectives in order to introduce extra information. It is also used with some verbs that have two objects in order to introduce the second object. The following paragraphs show the commonest structures in which for is used. 1 If something is for someone, it is intended to be given to them or to be used by them. EG She held out the flowers and said, 'They're for you.'... The villagers had bought it for me... He left a note for her on the table... The lounge bar catered for tourists. PREP

2 If something is done for someone, it is done in order to help or benefit them. EG I am doing everything I can, for all of you... What can I do for you?... It was for her own good... He often cooked for himself. PREP

3 If you act for a particular group or organization, you represent them. EG Mr Weinberger was speaking for the administration... ...the Labour MP for Oldham West. PREP

4 If you work or do a job for someone, you are employed by them. EG She's a nurse working for the health service... I was already writing for magazines... It's fun working for him. PREP

5 You use for when you state or explain the purpose of an object, action, activity, etc. EG I had two knives with me, one for leather work and one for skinning animals... The mug had been used for mixing flour and water... I walked two miles there and back for a couple of pails of water... The boys were digging for bait... I am going to apply for a job... We met for lunch... I'm having treatment for my hay fever. PREP

6 You use for after words such as 'reason' or 'cause', or when you say why something happens in a particular way. EG Money is the primary reason for a young man's leaving the village... There are no real grounds for optimism... I teased him for using such language... He is serving life sentences for the murder of 13 women... They apologized for being silly... This area is famous for its spring flowers. PREP

7 You can use for to introduce a clause which gives the reason why you made the statement in the main clause; a fairly formal use. EG They were surprised, for it was almost ten o'clock... This was where he spent a great deal of his free time for he had nowhere else to go... They filed out of the hotel sadly, for there was still so much left to say. CONJ SUBORD = as, because, since

8 You can use for to introduce the cause of the fact that you have just mentioned; a fairly formal use. EG I could not sleep for the pain in my leg... His department was shut down for lack of funds. PREP = because of

9 For is the preposition that has to be used after some nouns, adjectives, or verbs in order to introduce more information. EG Trade Unions are reintroducing proposals for a 35 hour week... ...their reputation for being fierce and warlike... ...his designs for the engine... She'll be responsible for all the illustrations... You had to be ready for any emergency... They were aiming for a double share by 1985... The Social Security office will arrange for it to be paid to you. PREP, OR CONJ SUBORD

10 You use for when you make a statement about something in order to say how it affects or relates to someone or what their attitude to it is. EG I knew it was difficult for him to talk like this... It was a frightening experience for a boy... The only thing that matters for me is other people... For him the survival of his people has always been the most important thing. PREP, OR CONJ SUBORD

11 You can use for to mention a fact or particular aspect of something that you are considering. EG For social justice, this system could hardly be improved on. PREP

12 You use for when you say that an aspect of something or someone is surprising in relation to other aspects of them. EG She wore rather too much make-up for her age... He's very young for a doctor. PREP

13 If you feel a particular emotion for someone, you feel it in relation to them. EG He even felt a belated pity for Anthony... I felt sorry for my wife... ...Kurt's contempt for people. 13.2 you feel it on their behalf. EG I'm delighted for you... He felt very sad for her. PREP

14 You use for after words such as 'time', 'space', 'money', or 'energy' when you say how much there is or whether there is enough of it in order to be able to do or use a particular thing. EG There was room for a small table... There's a place on the shelf for it... We've only got two hours for the exam... He didn't have the concentration required for doing the puzzle. PREP

15 If you say that something lasts or continues for a particular length of time, you are saying how long it lasts or continues. EG I have known you for a long time... Redundancy money does not last for ever... This is the first competition for 22 years... They were able to stay for a while. PREP ⇑ during

16 If you say that something continues or stretches for a particular distance, you are saying how far it continues or stretches. EG We drove on for another few miles... Black cliffs rose sheer out of the water for a hundred feet or more. PREP

17 If you give someone something for Christmas, for their birthday, or for some other occasion, or if you receive or do something for this occasion, you give it, receive it, or do it on that occasion. EG For Christmas, my mother and father gave me a bicycle... We went to the pictures for my birthday. PREP

18 If something happens or is planned for a particular date, day, or time, it happens or is planned to happen then. EG The meeting has been scheduled for August 30... I've made an appointment for next Tuesday... It was time for tea. PREP

19 You use expressions such as for the first time and for the last time when you are talking about how often something has happened. EG For the first time in our relationship I felt completely happy... I met them for the second time last week. PHR : USED AS AN A

20 If you leave for a particular place or if you take a bus, train, plane, or boat for a place, you are going there. EG 200,000 labourers fled their villages for Australia and Canada... We headed for the tunnel to the M4... It happened early one morning before he left for the fields. PREP

21 If something is bought, sold, or done for a particular price or amount, that price or amount is the cost of buying, selling, or doing it. EG They were forced to sell their house for less than its original price... You can buy the paperback for about two pounds... India spent about £300 million in cash for 1.5 million metric tons of wheat. PREP

22 If you say that you are for a particular activity, you mean that this is what you want or intend to do. EG Who's for a drink?... I'm for bed. PREP

23 If you say that something is not for you, you mean that you do not think that it is appropriate or suitable for you; a fairly formal expression. EG Peace and prayer were not for him in his present mood. PHR + NG : USED AS C

24 If you are for something, you are in favour of it. EG There was a majority of 294 for war, with only 6 voting against... Are you for or against? ● If you are all for something, you are very much in favour of it. EG 'Shall we go then?'–'Yes, I'm all for it.' PREP, OR ADV AFTER N/NUM/BE ● PHR + NG : USED AS C

25 You use for after words such as 'argue', 'case', 'evidence', or 'vote' in order to introduce the thing that is being supported or proved. EG Very conflicting evidence for and against nuclear energy power is being given at the enquiry... This looked like a rather good case for the existence of telepathy... I had to vote for him on principle... ...the fight for equality. PREP ≠ against

26 If something is for sale, hire, use, etc, it is available to be sold, hired, or used. EG It was for sale... There were boats for hire... These books are for use in the library only. PREP

27 You use for when you state the second part of a ratio. EG About nine women have lost jobs for every five men. PREP

28 If one word or expression has the same meaning as a second word or expression, you can say that the first one is another word or expression for the second one. EG Rubella is the technical term for German Measles. PREP

29 You use for in cross-references when you mention information which will be found somewhere else. EG For more details see pages 4 and 5... For further information write to the head office. PREP

30 If you are for it or if you are in for it, you are going to be in trouble because of something you have done; an informal expression. EG Nell was for it. ● as for: see as. ● but for: see but. ● for all: see all. PHR : VB INFLECTS forage /fɒrɪdʒ/, forages, foraging, foraged. 1 When animals forage, they search for food. V

2 If someone forages for something, they search busily for it. EG We went down to the kitchen to forage for snacks... She couldn't resist foraging around for paintings. V : IF + PREP THEN for = rummage

3 Forage crops are grown as food for cattle and horses. N UNCOUNT : USU BEFORE N

foray /fɒreɪ/, forays. 1 If a group of soldiers make a foray into an area, they make a quick attack, usually in order to steal supplies. N COUNT : USU + A = raid

2 If someone makes a foray to a particular place, they make a short journey to go there, especially to do something in particular. EG From time to time he made forays to the pavement booksellers... The days pass with gentle forays into the sea or pool. N COUNT + A = excursion

3 If you make a foray into a particular area of activity, you try it and become involved in it for a short while. EG There have been some forays into the trade by small companies... It was his first foray into politics. N COUNT + into = sortie forbade /fəbæd, -beɪd/ is the past tense of forbid.

forbear /fɔːbɛə/, forbears, forbearing, forbore, forborne. If you forbear from doing something, you do not do it although you have the opportunity or the right to do it; a formal word. EG He would continue to forbear from claiming his marital rights... He forbore to use them in that way, for they were his friends. V : IF + PREP/VB THEN from/to-INF/-ING ⇑ abstain = forswear forbearance /fɔːbɛərəns/ is self-control, kindness, and forgiveness which is shown to someone who has done something wrong. EG He cast aside his Christian forbearance and forgiveness... The policy was forbearance, to avoid armed intervention. N UNCOUNT ⇑ patience forbearing /fɔːbɛərɪŋ/. Someone who is forbearing shows forbearance. EG She remembers her mother as mild and forbearing. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ patient forbid /fəˢbɪd/, forbids, forbidding, forbade, forbidden. 1 If you forbid someone to do something, or if you forbid an activity, you order that it must not be done. EG I forbid you to tell her... They had obtained a court order forbidding the sale... The Charter expressly forbade the building of any chapel or retreat on the land. V + O, OR V + O + O/to-INF

2 If something forbids a particular course of action, event, etc, it makes it impossible for this to happen or be done. EG His fatherly concern forbids him to leave the house at such a time... Mexico City's altitude forbids such exertions. V + O, OR V + O + O/to-INF = prohibit, prevent

3 If you say 'God forbid!' or 'Heaven forbid!' that a particular thing should happen or be done, you mean that you think it would be a very bad thing and you hope that it will not happen. EG God forbid that anything should happen to my father... It should be done by someone but not, heaven forbid, by that Franklyn fellow! PHR : USED AS ADV SEN, OR EXCLAM forbidden /fəˢbɪdəᵊn/. 1 Something that is forbidden must not be done, especially because of a rule, law, or order. EG ...smoking is strictly forbidden... It is forbidden to bathe in the sea here. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED = prohibited

2 A forbidden place, or a place that is referred to as forbidden ground or territory, is one that you are not allowed to visit or enter. EG ...penetrating the forbidden North. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ prohibited

3 A forbidden subject, or a subject that is referred to as forbidden ground or territory, is one that you are not allowed to mention or talk about. EG ...a visitor brave enough to touch upon the forbidden subject. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ taboo forbidden fruit, forbidden fruits. Forbidden fruit is a source of pleasure which you are not allowed to enjoy. EG He will grow up and taste of the forbidden fruit. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : SING = PL forbidding /fəˢbɪdɪŋ/. Someone or something that is forbidding has a severe, unfriendly, or threatening appearance. EG He looked rather stern and forbidding in his official photographs... ...a bleak, forbidding stretch of grey water. ◊ forbiddingly. EG There was something forbiddingly prison-like about the cluster of buildings. ADJ QUAL : T = ominous, stern ◊ ADV = ominously force /fɔːs/, forces, forcing, forced. 1 If you force someone to do something, you make them do something they do not want to do, for example by threatening them or taking action that makes it impossible for them not to do it. EG Ought he to be forced out of the Presidency?... She forced herself to kiss her mother's cheek... ...the campaign to force the closure of the factory... They forced a confession out of him... Marsha forced her brain to work. V + O (NG/REFL), OR V + O (NG/REFL) + to-INF/A

2 If you force something on or upon someone, you make them accept, use, or deal with something when they would prefer not to. EG ...the missiles which the Americans are forcing, he believes, upon Britain... I forced some more of the salt and water on him. V + O + A (on/upon) ⇑ coerce

3 If a situation or event forces you to do something, it makes it necessary for you to do something that you would not otherwise have done. EG Weekend gales forced him to change his plans... He asked me if I was clever. I was forced to admit that I was not... Setbacks can be a good thing, forcing you out of your complacency. V + O + to-INF/A ⇑ cause = compel, oblige

4 If you force something into a particular position, you use a lot of strength to make it move there. EG I forced his head back... Topson forced open the tin of bacon... They forced David into a small room. V + O : USU + A = prize

5 If you force a lock, a door, or a safe, you break the lock violently in order to open it. EG They had to force the lock on the trunk. V + O

6 If you force your way through or into somewhere, you have to push or break things that are in your way in order to get there. EG He forced his way through the undergrowth... A number of them forced their way into the office of the Vice-Chancellor. PHR + A : VB INFLECTS

7 If you use force to do something or if it is done by force, strong and violent physical action is taken in order to achieve it. EG Hitler's aim was to impose his ideology by force... We have renounced the use of force to settle our disputes. N UNCOUNT = violence

8 The force with which someone hits or moves something is the amount of power that is used. EG I hit him with all the force I could muster... The force of an earthquake can be measured quite accurately. N SING WITH DET = strength

9 Someone or something that is referred to as a force has a considerable effect or influence on a situation or on people or things. EG Britain is re-establishing itself as a powerful force in world affairs... Nationalism was rapidly becoming a dangerous force... Managers need more freedom to respond to market forces... ...the forces of evil. N COUNT

10 The force of something is the powerful effect or quality that it has. EG She at once saw the force of this argument... This is what he had been arguing with great force for many years.... ...if the planet was exposed to the full force of ultraviolet rays. N UNCOUNT ⇑ strength

11 A force in physics is the pulling, attracting, or pushing effect that something has on something else. EG The force acting on the particle is constant... It was as if he were drawn by some force as strong as gravity.... ...magnetic forces. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

12 The word force is used before a number to indicate a wind of a particular speed or strength, especially a very strong wind. EG ...a force nine gale... The ship had engine failure in a Force Ten. N COUNT : N + NUM

13 If you force something such as a process or decision, you make it happen more quickly. EG I don't want to force things, but we will have to reach a decision soon... We will have to force the issue I think. V + O ⇑ press

14 If you force fruit or vegetables, you make them grow faster or earlier in the year than normal by giving them extra heat. EG ...forced rhubarb. V + O ⇑ accelerate

15 If you force a smile, you manage, with an effort, to smile. V + O

16 If something happens by force of a particular quality, action, set of circumstances, etc, it happens because of the nature or intensity of that quality, action, or set of circumstances. EG By sheer force of will, he fought the urge to go after them... They overwhelmed the guards by sheer force of numbers. PREP

17 If you do something from force of habit, you do it because you have always done it in the past, rather than because you have thought carefully about it. EG Many of them stayed from force of habit until the shooting began... 'You shouldn't have switched the light off.'–'Oh, sorry. Force of habit.' PHR

18 A law, rule, or system that is in force exists or is being used. EG We will look at any arrangements that are in force at that point in time. PHR : USED AS AN A = in effect, in operation

19 When people do something in force, they do it in PHR : USED AS AN large numbers. EG Animal rights campaigners turned up in force. A 20 A force of soldiers or armed people is an organized group of soldiers or military vehicles. EG They were able to hold off a superior attacking force... ...the French security forces. N COUNT : USU SING = PL

21 The forces means the army, the navy, or the air force, or all three. EG ...someone who died as a result of service in the forces. N PLURAL : the + N = armed forces

22 The force is sometimes used to mean the police force. EG He was always threatening to leave the force... It was certainly nothing like working for a metropolitan force. N SING : USU the + N ⇑ organization

23 If you join forces with someone, you work together in order to achieve a common aim or purpose. PHR : VB INFLECTS

24 ● See also air force, labour force, peace-keeping forces, task force, tour de force, workforce. ● to force someone's hand: see hand.

25 See also forced.

force back. If you force back an emotion or desire, you manage, with an effort, not to experience it. EG He forced back the strong urge to stroke her. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ fight = suppress forced /fɔːst/. 1 Forced describes 1.1 something that you do only because someone else makes you do it. EG They promised to abolish forced labour... ...a forced marriage. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB ≠ voluntary

1.2 something that is done only because it is made necessary by a situation or event, especially an unexpected one. EG ...a forced landing. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB

2 Something that is forced is done or shown with an effort rather than being genuine and spontaneous. EG His face crinkled into a forced smile... The forced joviality of a football team trying to show how confident they are... The conversations had been stiff, forced, and uncomfortable. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ false = contrived, strained

3 An explanation or comparison that is forced is unlikely and unnatural. EG ...a rather forced interpretation. ADJ QUALIT force-feed, force-feeds, force-feeding, force-fed. If you force-feed a person or animal you make them eat or drink by pushing food or drink down their throat. EG Prisoners who went on hunger strike were force-fed. V + O forceful /fɔːsfʊl/. 1 Someone who is forceful expresses their opinions and wishes in a strong, emphatic, and confident way; used showing approval. EG Rothermere was a forceful, able man. ▸ used of actions and behaviour. EG ...his forceful and successful advocacy of increased defence spending. ◊ forcefully. EG Her commitment could have been more forcefully expressed. ◊ forcefulness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ powerful ▸ ⇑ powerful ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Something that is forceful has a very powerful effect and causes you to think or feel something very strongly. EG It made a very forceful impression on me. ◊ forcefully. EG It forcefully struck the bishop that this was very unusual. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ great = strong ◊ ADV WITH VB = forcibly

3 A forceful point or argument in a discussion is one that is good, valid, and convincing. EG She tried to recall the other forceful points he had expounded to her. ADJ QUALIT = strong forcemeat /fɔːsmiːt/ is the same as stuffing. N UNCOUNT

forceps /fɔːsɪps/ are an instrument consisting of two long narrow arms in the form of pincers or tongs. Forceps are used by a doctor to hold something firmly and are sometimes used to help deliver a baby. N PLURAL forcible /fɔːsəbəl/. 1 Forcible action involves physical force or violence. EG ...the forcible imposition of military control... ...legislation to limit forcible treatment of patients. ◊ forcibly. EG Half-caste children were taken forcibly from their mothers. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH VB = by force

2 A forcible reminder, example, or lesson is one that is very powerful. EG Today we had a forcible reminder of the continuing strife there. ◊ forcibly. EG She reminded me forcibly of her mother at the same age... This fact was brought home to me forcibly by a personal experience. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH VB = strongly

3 A forcible expression of an opinion or wish is expressed in a strong and emphatic way. EG The survey made certain very forcible recommendations. ◊ forcibly. EG This point has been forcibly expressed also by Marxist-Leninists. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ strongly

4 A forcible argument is good, valid, and convincing. EG It's a forcible argument. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB

ford /fɔːd/, fords, fording, forded. 1 A ford is a shallow place in a river or stream where it is possible to cross safely on foot, in a vehicle, etc, and without using a boat. N COUNT ⇑ crossing

2 If you ford a river or stream, you cross it at a shallow point without using a boat. V + O fore /fɔː/. 1 If someone or something comes to the fore in a particular situation or group, they suddenly become important or popular. EG Andrew Young came to the fore during the Civil Rights marches of the 1960s... ...student revolts that pushed Marxist-Leninism to the fore in Europe. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ appear = surface

2 Fore is used to refer to parts at the front of an animal, ship, or aircraft. EG ...the fore and hind wings of the dragonfly... They set about clearing away the big fore derrick and testing the winch. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ front forearm /fɔːrɑːm/, forearms. Your forearm is the part of your arm between your elbow and your wrist. N COUNT ⇑ arm forebear /fɔːbeə/, forebears. Your forebears are your ancestors; a formal word. EG ...the lands from which their forebears had been driven. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ relative = ancestor foreboding /fɔːbəʊdɪŋ/, forebodings. Foreboding is a strong feeling that something terrible is going to happen. EG Their pitiless laughter filled me with foreboding... They would find something there that would justify all their forebodings and apprehensions. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ fear forecast /fɔːkɑːst/, forecasts, forecasting, forecasted. The forms forecast and forecasted are both used as the past tense and past participle of the verb. 1 A forecast is a prediction or statement of what is expected to happen in the future, especially in relation to a particular event or situation. EG The last Treasury forecast envisaged inflation falling to about 10 per cent... Their profit forecasts were over-optimistic... ...forecasts of military involvement in British politics. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

2 If you forecast future events, you say what you think is going to happen in the future. EG It is almost impossible to forecast the future development of a very young child... In 1974 the Worker's Press forecast large-scale unemployment and pay cuts. V + O = predict

3 A weather forecast is a specially prepared and presented statement telling people what the weather is expected to be like; used also to refer to the television or radio programmes in which this information is presented. EG What's the forecast for the next few days?... Forecasts of mild weather reduced the demand for holidays abroad. ▸ used as a verb. EG Some nice warm weather had been forecast... We now have vastly improved forecasting of storms, freezes, droughts, and smog. N COUNT ▸ V + O ⇑ predict foreclose /fɔːkləʊz/, forecloses, foreclosing, foreclosed. If the person or organization that lent someone money forecloses, they take possession of the property that was bought with the borrowed money, for example because regular repayments have not been made; a technical term. EG My bank foreclosed on me. V : IF + PREP THEN on, OR V + O ⇑ repossess forecourt /fɔːkɔːt/, forecourts. The forecourt of a large building or a petrol station is the open area at the front of it. EG They started across the hotel's cobbled forecourt. N COUNT foredoomed /fɔːduːmd/. If you say that something is foredoomed, you mean that it was intended by fate to be unsuccessful or unlucky. EG An intelligent film is not necessarily foredoomed to failure. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ condemn forefather /fɔːfɑːðə/, forefathers. Your forefathers are your ancestors, especially your male ancestors. EG ...the laws of our forefathers. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ ancestor = forebear forefinger /fɔːfɪŋgə/, forefingers. Your forefinger is the finger that is next to your thumb. EG ...the tips of your thumb and forefinger. N COUNT ⇑ finger = index finge forefoot /fɔːfʊt/, forefeet. A four-legged animal's forefeet are its two front feet. EG It swims by paddling with its webbed forefeet and steering with its hind feet. N COUNT ⇑ foot forefront /fɔːfrʌnt/. Something that is in or at the forefront of a situation is in the most important and exciting part of it where things are controlled and where new developments are taking place. EG This was to place the company in the forefront of computer manufacture... Since 1972, he has brought Jamaica to the forefront of world politics. N SING : the + N, USU + of ⇑ front = fore, vanguard forego /fɔːgəʊ/, foregoes, foregoing, forewent, foregone; also spelled forgo. If you forego something, especially something that seems desirable, you voluntarily do not have or take it; a fairly formal word. EG Lilian Braithwaite very kindly V + O ⇑ sacrifice = go without agreed to forego her holiday and continue in the play.

foregoing /fɔːgəʊɪŋ/. You can refer to what has just been stated or mentioned as the foregoing; a formal word. EG How can ideas such as the foregoing be taken seriously?... In the foregoing we have seen how people differ in their approach to problems. ▸ used as an adjective. EG I am indebted to the ideas of Bob Waller for much of the foregoing analysis.

N SING : the + N
⇑ this = the above

▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, WITH the

foregone /fɔːgɒn/. 1 Foregone is the past participle of forego.

2 If a particular result is a foregone conclusion, it is certain to happen. EG The outcome of both votes was assumed to be a foregone conclusion.

PHR : USED AS C

foreground /fɔːgraʊnd/. 1 The foreground of a picture or of a scene you are looking at is the part or area that is or seems nearest to you. EG ...the woman in the foreground who's dressed in a floral dress... The spire of St Patrick's dominates the foreground.

N SING : USU the + N
≠ background

2 Someone or something that is in the foreground is having a lot of attention paid to them. EG Today Glenn has receded from the foreground of public attention.

N SING : USU the + N
= focus forehand /fɔːhænd/, forehands. 1 A forehand is a shot or stroke in a game such as tennis in which the palm of your hand faces the direction in which you are hitting the ball. EG ...a forehand return.

N COUNT
≠ backhand

2 The forehand of a tennis player, squash player, etc is the same side as the hand in which they are holding the racket. EG Send the return deep to your opponent's forehand.

N COUNT : USU WITH POSS
≠ backhand

forehead /fɒrɪd, fɔːhed/, foreheads. Your forehead is the flat area at the front of your head above your eyebrows but below where your hair grows. EG He wiped his forehead with the back of his hand.

N COUNT
= brow

foreign /fɒrɪn/. 1 Something that is foreign belongs to or relates to a country that is not your own. EG ...a policy of restricting foreign imports... ...children from foreign countries... ...foreign holidays... ...foreign-owned mines.

ADJ CLASSIF
= overseas

2 Foreign also means dealing with or concerning countries which are not your own. EG ...a country whose foreign policy is based on economics... ...the Belgian Foreign Minister... He had come to India as a foreign correspondent.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
⇑ external

3 A foreign object or substance is something that has come into something else, usually by accident, and should not be in it; a formal use. EG ...offences relating to the sale of food containing foreign matter... Our eyes act instinctively against the entry of foreign objects.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
⇑ extraneous

4 Something that is foreign to a particular person or thing is 4.1 not characteristic of them; a formal use. EG He again fell into that strange gloomy mood that was usually so foreign to him... I heard cars in the distance. Such a foreign, incongruous sound in the desert. 4.2 unfamiliar to them, and seems strange; a formal use. EG This way of waging war was foreign to their thinking.

ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to ⇑ atypical = alien

ADJ QUALIT : IF + PREP THEN to
= alien

foreign body, foreign bodies. A foreign body is an object that has come into something else, usually by accident, and should not be in it; a formal expression. EG ...a complaint about a foreign body in some food.

N COUNT

foreigner /fɒrɪnə/, foreigners. A foreigner is 1 a person who belongs to a country that is not your own. EG More than a million foreigners visit the United States every year. 2 a person who has come into a community or other group of people from outside it and does not seem to belong there. EG I am still a foreigner in this village.

N COUNT
⇑ stranger

N COUNT : USU USED AS C
⇑ outsider
= stranger

foreign exchange is the system by which one country's currency is changed into another country's currency. EG The pound fell on foreign exchange markets. ▸ used also of foreign currency which is obtained by this system. EG Coffee is the region's major source of foreign exchange.

N UNCOUNT

Foreign Office. The Foreign Office is the government department, especially in Britain, which has responsibility for the government's dealings and relations with foreign governments.

N PROPER : the + N

foreknowledge /fɔːnɒlɪdʒ/ is knowledge of an event or situation before it actually happens.

N UNCOUNT
= anticipation

foreleg /fɔːleg/, forelegs. The forelegs of an animal are its two front legs. EG It has short silky fur, powerful forelegs, and a stumpy tail.

N COUNT
⇑ limb

forelock /fɔːlɒk/, forelocks. A forelock is a piece of someone's hair that falls over their forehead. People of low social class used to pull their forelocks to show respect for people of a higher class. EG People began to move aside, touching their forelocks.

N COUNT

foreman /fɔːmən/, foremen. 1 A foreman is a person, especially a man, in charge of a group of workers. EG The foreman swore at one of the workers.

N COUNT
⇑ leader = supervisor

2 The foreman of a jury is the person who is chosen as their leader.

N COUNT

foremost /fɔːməʊst/. 1 Foremost means most important or best. EG Some new organizations were emerging and foremost among these was CND... ...the company's foremost materials expert.

ADJ CLASSIF : IF PRED THEN + PREP
⇑ first
= uppermost

2 First and foremost means more than anything else; used when referring to the characteristic, person, or thing that is more important than any other. EG Rugby is first and foremost a team game... So, first and foremost, remember that fish are live creatures with feelings.

PHR : USED AS ADV SEN
= above all

3 The foremost thing or part of something is the one that is nearest the front. EG This is the foremost compartment of the ship. ▸ used as an adverb. EG He jabbed the brushes into the ground bristles foremost.

ADJ CLASSIF
⇑ first

▸ ADV WITH VB

forename /fɔːneɪm/, forenames. A forename is a first name.

N COUNT
≠ surname

forensic /fərensɪk/ means 1 relating to the discovery of information about a crime by scientifically examining objects involved in it. EG ...forensic medicine... He telephoned Detective Inspector Cook at the forensic department. 2 relating to the profession of being a lawyer; a formal use. EG He spoke at great length and with great forensic skill.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
⇑ scientific

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

foreordain /fɔːrɔːdeɪn/, foreordains, foreordaining, foreordained. If you say that something is foreordained, you mean that you believe that fate or God has planned that it will happen, and you are sure that it will; a formal word.

V + O : USU PASS
= fated, destined

forepart /fɔːpɑːt/, foreparts. The forepart of something, especially an animal, is the front part of it; a formal word. EG The forepart and head remain raised.

N COUNT : the + N, USU + of

foreplay /fɔːpleɪ/ is activity such as kissing and stroking when it takes place before sexual intercourse.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ sex = petting

forerunner /fɔːrʌnə/, forerunners. The forerunner of someone or something is 1 a thing or person that happened or existed before them and that is similar in some way. EG ...the forerunners of the International Socialists... The power of the smaller engine is equal to that of its 1.6 forerunner. 2 a thing or person that is a sign of what is going to happen in the future. EG They are obviously no freak of nature. They are the forerunner of things to come.

N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ ancestor = precursor

N COUNT : IF + PREP, THEN of = harbinger

foresee /fɔːsiː/, foresees, foreseeing, foresaw, foreseen. If you foresee something, you know or have the opinion that it is going to happen. EG The coming of the silicon chip could not have been foreseen by any of the computer pioneers... Do you foresee any problems with the new system?... He foresaw that public indignation might lead to the plan being scrapped.

V + O/REPORT-CL ⇑ see = predict foreseeable /fɔːsiːəbəl/. 1 the foreseeable future. 1.1 If you say that something will happen in the foreseeable future, you mean that you think it will happen fairly soon. EG There is little hope that this will occur in the foreseeable future. 1.2 If you say that something will happen for the foreseeable future, you mean that you think that it will continue to happen for a long time, and you cannot see any chance of it ending. EG This seems likely to remain the pattern for the foreseeable future.

PHR : USED AS AN A

PHR : USED AS AN A

2 If something is foreseeable, you can see that it is going to happen or that it is likely to happen. EG This will land the man concerned in a perfectly foreseeable catastrophe.

ADJ QUALIT
= predictable foreshadow /fɔːʃædəʊ/, foreshadows, foreshadowing, foreshadowed. Something that foreshadows something else shows or suggests that it is going to happen. EG These later movements had, as we have seen, been foreshadowed in much of the work of the late 1950s.

V + O
⇑ indicate = presage foreshore /fɔːʃɔː/, foreshores. The foreshore is the part of the shore that is between the points reached by the high tide and the low tide.

N COUNT

foreshorten /fɔːʃɔːtəⁿn/, foreshortens, foreshortening, foreshortened. Something that is foreshortened is drawn or seen from such an angle that its ends appear closer together than they really are. ◊ foreshortened. EG ...the foreshortened bulks of two old women, seen from above. V + O ⇑ compact ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ compacted foresight /fɔːsaɪt/ is the ability to see what is likely to happen in the future, and the practice of taking this into consideration when you do things. EG Throughout his career he showed remarkable foresight. N UNCOUNT = vision foreskin /fɔːskɪn/, foreskins. A man's foreskin is the skin that covers the end of his penis. N COUNT forest /fɒrɪ²st/, forests. 1 A forest is a large area where trees grow close together. EG They had their picnic in a clearing in the forest... ...animals that live in woodland or thick forest... ...Sherwood Forest. N COUNT : UNCOUNT ⇑ woodland

2 A forest of tall or narrow objects is a group of them standing or sticking upright. EG 'Who wants to clean the blackboard for me?' said Mrs Root. A forest of hands went up. N PART ⇑ mass forestall /fɔːstɔːl/, forestalls, forestalling, forestalled. If you forestall someone or forestall something that they were intending or likely to do, you realize what they were intending to do and prevent them from doing it by doing something else first. EG He was about to speak but she forestalled him... It was believed that this action would forestall any further discussion of economic intervention. V + O = anticipate, pre-empt forester /fɒrɪstə/, foresters. A forester is a person whose job is to look after the trees in a forest and to plant new ones. N COUNT forestry /fɒrɪstrɪ¹/ is the science or skill of growing and taking care of trees in forests, especially in order to obtain wood. N UNCOUNT

foretaste /fɔːteɪst/, foretastes. If you describe something as a foretaste of something else, you mean that it is smaller in degree or amount than the second thing, but is similar to it and shows you what it is going to be like. EG The episode was a foretaste of the bitter struggle that was to come... The haggling in Geneva this week gives a foretaste of the discussions that will follow. N COUNT : USU a + N + of = sample foretell /fɔːtɛl/, foretells, foretelling, foretold. If you foretell something, you say correctly that it will happen in the future; a rather literary word. EG ...the destiny foretold by the ancient prophets... If only the planners of 1960 had been able to foretell these remarkable changes. V + O/REPORT-CL = predict, prophesy forethought /fɔːθɔːt/ is the practice of thinking carefully about what will be needed, or about what the consequences of something will be. EG To pass the time, I played patience with cards which I had had the forethought to bring with me. N UNCOUNT ⇑ planning foretold /fɔːtəʊld/ is the past participle of foretell.

forever /fə⁸rɛvə/. The form for ever is also used, except in paragraphs 4 and 5. 1 Something that will happen or continue forever will always happen or continue, without ever ending. EG She would remember his name forever... They thought that their empire would last forever... ...the feeling that the prairie goes on forever... Are you ready to link up your life with mine for ever and ever? ADV WITH VB = evermore, eternally

2 Something that has changed or gone forever has changed or gone completely and permanently. EG In the latter half of the 19th century, Japan changed forever... They will vanish forever into the grey twilight... ...a world from which he was forever exiled. ADV WITH VB = for good

3 You say that something takes for ever or lasts for ever to emphasize that it takes or lasts a very long time, or seems to; an informal use. EG The next minutes lasted for ever... I had been walking for ever. ADV WITH VB = ages

4 If someone or something is forever doing a particular thing, they do it often; an informal use. EG Babbage was forever spotting trivial errors in their calculations... They are forever being knocked down by cars. ADV WITH VB (-ING) = consistently

5 Someone who is forever kind, cheerful, etc always has or shows the quality mentioned; an informal use. EG ...the forever cocky James Cagney. ADV + ADJ/ADV = eternally

6 You can say forever after the name of a group, person, place, etc to indicate that you support or admire them. EG The band were playing 'The stars and stripes forever'... 'Swallows and Amazons forever,' she cried. ADV AFTER N = long live forewarn /fɔːwɔːn/, forewarns, forewarning, forewarned. If you forewarn someone, you warn them in advance that something is going to happen. EG We were forewarned that the food would be unusual. V + O/REPORT-CL, OR V + O + REPORT-CL ⇑ caution forewent /fɔːwɛnt/ is the past tense of forego.

foreword /fɔːwɜ²d/, forewords. The foreword of a book is an introduction by the author or by someone else. EG Professor Zim, in his foreword to The Milton Papers, praises the book's boldness. N COUNT = preface forfeit /fɔːfɪt/, forfeits, forfeiting, forfeited. 1 If you forfeit something, 1.1 you lose it or are forced to give it up because you have broken a rule or done something wrong. EG Violation of this contract makes them liable to forfeit £50... He has forfeited the right to be the leader of this nation. 1.2 you give it up voluntarily, especially so that you can achieve something. EG They were persuaded to forfeit some of their income. V + O ⇑ surrender / V + O ⇑ surrender

2 A forfeit is something that you have to give up because you have done something wrong. EG ...his reluctance to exact from them a forfeit they could not pay. N COUNT = penalty, price

3 If something of yours is forfeit, you will have to lose it or give it up because you have done something illegal or wrong. EG Her own life might well be forfeit for having tried to save him. PHR : VB INFLECTS forfeiture /fɔːfɪtʃə/ is the action of forfeiting something. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of forgave /fəgeɪv/ is the past tense of forgive.

forge /fɔːdʒ/, forges, forging, forged. 1 A forge is a place where someone makes metal goods such as horseshoes or old-fashioned farm equipment by hand. EG Go and work for Mr Gladwell at the forge. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ workshop

2 If you forge metal, especially iron, or you forge an object out of metal, you heat the metal, and hammer and bend it into the shape you want. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from/into ⇑ work = fashion

3 If you forge something, especially an alliance or relationship, you create it with a lot of hard work, hoping that it will be strong or lasting. EG They forged links with the French Communist Party... We need to forge an alliance between them and the workers. V + O = form

4 If you forge money, documents, paintings, etc, you copy them or make them so that they look genuine in order to deceive people. EG I learnt how to forge someone else's signature... ...a forged passport. V + O = counterfeit

5 If you forge forward, you move forward in a steady powerful way. EG We forged steadily northward. V + A forge ahead. If you forge ahead, you make a lot of progress, or you make more progress than someone else. EG They forged ahead, leaving countries like Britain behind. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV forger /fɔːdʒə/, forgers. A forger is a person who forges money, documents, paintings, etc. EG I think we're dealing with the work of a forger. N COUNT ⇑ criminal forgery /fɔːdʒə⁰rɪ¹/, forgeries. 1 Forgery is the crime of forging money, documents, paintings, etc. EG She was prosecuted for passport forgery. N UNCOUNT ⇑ fraud

2 A forgery is a forged document, banknote, painting, etc. EG The documents were forgeries. N COUNT = counterfeit forget /fəgɛt/, forgets, forgetting, forgot, forgotten. 1 If you forget something or forget how to do something, you are unable to think of it or think how to do it, even though you have known it, experienced it, or been able to do it in the past. EG I never forget a face or a name... Sue was afraid that she had forgotten how to ride a bicycle... It was a marvellous occasion and I shall never forget it... Dan had written his fourth or fifth play, I forget which now. ◊ forgotten. EG ...a long forgotten event in her past. V + O/REPORT-CL / -ING : NO CONT ≠ remember / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If you forget something, you do not think about it, for example because you are thinking about other things or because it is unimportant. EG He often forgot what he was supposed to be doing... I forgot all about him for several years... Don't forget that I worked for her once... Oh yes, of course. I was forgetting... His aching muscles forgotten, Paul bolted home. ● You say not forgetting a particular person or thing when adding that person or thing at the end of a list. EG On the first floor, there's a library and a drawing room, not forgetting the music room. V + O/REPORT-CL, OR V + A ⇑ overlook / ● PHR ⇑ and example by showing respect. EG It's my house and my record player, and don't you forget it!

● You say 'and don't you forget it!' to someone after making a statement to emphasize that they must behave in the way implied by that statement, for ● PHR = okay?, alright?

3 If you forget something such as a birthday, an appointment, or a duty, you do not do what you should do because you do not think about it at the right time. EG I meant to see her about it on Friday morning, but I forgot all about it... Don't forget to send in your entries by Wednesday to this address... He forgot my birthday again this year. V + O/REPORT-CL, V + A (about), OR V + to-INF ⇑ omit = neglect

4 If you forget something that you had intended to bring or buy, you do not bring or buy it because you did not think about it at the right time. EG Sorry to disturb you–I forgot my key... 'Don't forget the bag,' she said. V + O/REPORT-CL, V + A (about), OR V + to-INF : NO CONT ⇑ omit

5 If you forget something or someone, you deliberately put them out of your mind and do not think any more about them. EG If you want my advice I think you ought to forget her... In terms of turnover, we can forget any idea of competing with the big companies. ● You say 'forget it' in reply to someone as a way of telling them not to worry or bother about something, or when you cannot be bothered to repeat something, or as an emphatic way of saying no to a suggestion. EG 'What do I owe you for lunch?'–'Forget it.'... 'Sorry, what did you say?'–'Forget it.'... 'I'll take the small truck.'–'And leave me to drive the other one? Forget it.' V + O/REPORT-CL, V + A (about), OR V + to-INF ⇑ reject ● CONVENTION ⇑ never mind

6 If you forget yourself, you behave in an uncontrolled or unacceptable way, which is not the way in which you usually behave; a fairly formal use. EG 'Oh darling!' cried Judy, forgetting herself. V + O (REFL) ⇑ misbehave forgetful /fəgɛ̱tfʊl/. 1 Someone who is forgetful often forgets things. EG Be sure to remind your uncle–you know how forgetful he is. ◊ forgetfulness. EG She often hesitated, from forgetfulness. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ amnesia

2 Someone who is forgetful of a particular thing does not think about it or notice it. EG Fiona, forgetful of the time, was still working away in the library. ADJ QUALIT + of forget-me-not, forget-me-nots. A forget-me-not is a small plant with tiny blue flowers. N COUNT ⇑ flower forgettable /fəgɛtəbə^{0}l/. Something that is forgettable is not unusual or special in any way. EG ...thousands of entirely forgettable men working at obscure jobs in the city. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ ordinary forgivable /fəgɪvəbə^{0}l/. If you say that something bad or unacceptable is forgivable, you mean that you can understand it and can forgive it in the circumstances. EG Her lack of sympathy was perhaps forgivable. Missing bricks would have been forgivable in an old building, but not in a brand new house! ◊ forgivably. EG She was furious, forgivably so in the circumstances. ADJ CLASSIF = pardonable ◊ ADV

forgive /fəgɪv/, forgives, forgiving, forgave, forgiven. 1 If you forgive someone who has done something wrong, or forgive a bad deed that someone has done, you stop being angry with them and no longer want to punish them. EG Julie would never have forgiven him... I forgive you... Sins cannot be undone, only forgiven... I forgave him everything... They had forgiven their host his delayed arrival... He has never forgiven the newspaper for printing this story. V + O : IF + PREP THEN for, OR V + O + O = pardon

2 Forgive is used in polite expressions like 'forgive me', 'forgive my ignorance', and 'forgive the language', to reduce the directness of what you are saying, and to apologize in a mild way for saying something that might seem rude, silly, or too complicated. EG Forgive my ignorance, but who is Jane Fonda?... It was clearly a lymphoma, if you'll forgive my medical jargon... We may not agree about this but forgive me, Geoffrey, I think we could at least discuss it. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = excuse, pardon

3 If you say that someone could be forgiven for doing something, you mean that this behaviour or reaction is likely and expected because of the circumstances involved. EG One could be forgiven for being hesitant about putting Norman in charge... The family could be forgiven for thinking that we were still in London. V : MODAL + V + O, USU PASS = excused

4 If you forgive someone a debt, you say that they do not have to pay you the money that they owe you. EG I forgave you the whole amount you owed me. V + O + O ⇑ excuse forgiveness /fəgɪvnɪ^{2}s/. If you ask someone for their forgiveness, you ask them to forgive you for something wrong that you have done. EG I have to ask your forgiveness... They are not always sure of forgiveness. N UNCOUNT = pardon forgiving /fəgɪvɪŋ/. Someone who is forgiving is willing to forgive. EG ...a forgiving father... This made it easy for her to be forgiving. ADJ QUALIT = merciful forgo /fɔːgəʊ/. See forego.

forgot /fəgɒt/ is the past tense of forget.

forgotten /fəgɒtə^{0}n/ is the past participle of forget.

fork /fɔːk/, forks, forking, forked. 1 A fork is 1.1 a tool with which you eat food. It consists of three or four prongs on the end of a handle. 1.2 a large tool that you use for digging in the soil when you are gardening. It consists of three or four long prongs attached to a long handle. ● See also pitchfork. N COUNT ⇑ cutlery N COUNT

2 If you fork food into your mouth or onto something, you use a fork to pick up food and eat it or put it somewhere. EG She glumly forked her way through endless risottos... ...forking the meat and slapping it into sandwiches. V + O

3 If you fork earth or plant material somewhere, you turn it over or put it somewhere using a fork. EG He could see Mr Willett forking dead vegetation onto the smoking bonfire. V + O + A

4 A fork in a road, path, river, or branch of a tree is the point at which it divides into two parts in the shape of a 'Y'. EG When you come to the fork, turn left... The pigeon remained where it was, wedged in the fork of a branch. ▸ used as a verb. EG Near the dead tree, the trail forks... When you reach the junction, fork left. N COUNT ⇑ junction ▸ V

5 One of the forks in a road, path, river or branch of a tree is one of the two parts of it after it has divided at a fork. EG The men took the fork that led on past the village... Take the left fork. N COUNT + SUPP

6 The forks on a bicycle or motorbike are the two pieces of metal below the handlebars, to which the front wheel is attached. N PLURAL ⇑ prong fork out. If you fork out for something, you pay money for it; an informal expression. EG His old man's forked out at last... ...the fortune I had already had to fork out on her education. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A forked /fɔːkɪ/. Something that is forked divides into two parts in the shape of a 'Y'. EG ...an adder's forked tongue. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ divided forked lightning is lightning that is seen as jagged lines of light dividing into two or more parts near the ground. EG Suddenly there was a flash and a zig-zag of forked lightning. N UNCOUNT fork-lift truck, fork-lift trucks. A fork-lift truck or a fork-lift is a small vehicle with two movable arms on the front that are used to lift heavy loads. N COUNT forlorn /fəlɔːn/. 1 Someone or something that is forlorn is lonely and unhappy. EG The child looked pathetically forlorn. ▸ used of behaviour. EG ...a forlorn cry... ...a forlorn voice. ◊ forlornly. EG He was still standing forlornly by the ticket office. ADJ QUALIT = desolate, wretched ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 A place that is forlorn looks deserted and not cared for. EG ...this grimy, forlorn industrial town... The house looked bare and forlorn. ◊ forlornly. EG ...a house standing forlornly on the hillside. ADJ QUALIT = forsaken ◊ ADV WITH VB

3 A forlorn attempt or hope is one that is desperate and without any expectation of success. EG ...forlorn attempts to patch up the victims of our industrial mistakes. ...in the forlorn hope of achieving full employment. ◊ forlornly. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH VB form /fɔːm/, forms, forming, formed. 1 A particular form of something is a type or kind of it. EG He begged for any form of transport that would take him to the ferry... The symptoms take various forms... I never touch alcohol in any form... Taxation in one form or another has been with us for a very long time. N COUNT

2 The form in which a particular thing occurs or is expressed is one of the ways in which it occurs or can be expressed. EG Coal is a form of carbon... She didn't like the form in which the questions were written... She is taking lots of exercise in the form of walks or swimming. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ way

3 Something that takes the form of a particular thing happens or is expressed in the particular manner or style indicated. EG The broadcast took the form of an interview... Their unease took the form of extreme hostility. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ appear

4 When something or someone forms a particular shape they move or are arranged in such a way that this shape is made. EG Her body and bare limbs formed a Z... ...they formed a ring to keep her warm... At 9 a.m. they opened their doors, outside V ERG, OR V + O (REFL) + A ⇑ make which long queues had formed... The men formed themselves into a line.

5 When you form a particular shape or letter, you create it in the shape indicated. EG It could so easily be a badly formed A. V + O ⇑ make

6 The form of something is its shape or pattern, rather than its size or texture. EG The middle finger was touching the end of the thumb in the form of a letter O. N COUNT

7 The word form can also be used to refer to the outside shape or appearance of a person or thing; a rather literary use. EG She gazed with deep affection at his slumbering form... We saw a slender ghostly form detaching itself from the shelter of a square. N COUNT ⇑ body = figure

8 When something takes form it begins to be visible and to have a clear shape or outline. EG I could see the streets of Cape Town take form as the ship sailed into Table Bay. PHR : VB INFLECTS = appear

9 In order to describe the shape, structure, or function of a particular thing, you can say that it forms something that has this shape, structure, or function. EG The black leather chair folds back to form a couch... There were some red rocks forming a kind of cave... The steep hills form a backdrop to the city. V + O ⇑ make

10 The things, people, features, etc that form a particular thing are the things or people that this thing consists of. EG The contents of the house will form the basis of a major exhibition... The five western nations that drew up the plan formed the bulk of the UN peace-keeping force. V + C ⇑ be = constitute

11 If you form an organization, committee, company, etc, you organize and start it. EG The League was formed in 1959... The leadership broke away to form a separate organization... ...a young radical section formed... There were a number of groups forming themselves into cooperatives... He sent for Ramsay MacDonald on 24 January 1924 to form a government. V ERG

12 When something natural forms, it begins to exist and develop. EG The islands are volcanic and were formed comparatively recently... A great scab had formed on his right knee... We ended up at a large pool that was formed by the flood-water crashing through the children's play area. V ERG

13 If you form something, for example an idea, a relationship with someone, or a habit, you begin to have and to develop it. EG This was at variance with the impression I'd formed of Otto... He becomes wary of forming another close relationship... He formed the habit of taking long solitary walks. V ERG

14 Something that forms a person's character and personality has a strong influence on them and causes them to develop in a particular way. EG They were formed within this tradition... I suppose the experience with Nell formed me. V + O

15 A form is a paper on which there are particular questions and spaces marked where you should write the answers. Forms usually ask you to give details about yourself, for example when you are applying for a job, or joining an organization. EG At the counter he had to fill in the form... Just sign the booking form there for me please. N COUNT

16 A form in a school is a class; used especially with a number to refer to a particular class or age group of children. EG ...the fifth form... She's in Form 5. N COUNT : USU WITH NUM/ORD

17 A form is also a long low seat without a back. EG Children sat on forms at the front of the hall. N COUNT = bench

18 A particular form of a word is the particular way in which it is represented in writing or speech which shows, for example, whether it is singular or plural, or past or present. EG He hasn't grasped the difference between the simple form and the continuous form. ▸ used as a verb. EG How do you form the past tense? N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ version ▸ V + O

19 Form in something such as a work of art or piece of writing is the structure and arrangement of it, in contrast to its subject or contents. N UNCOUNT

20 Form in sport is the ability and success of an animal or person over a period of time. EG He gambles regularly-pretends to be a judge of form and to win quite a lot... D'Oliveira had a slump in form and was considered out of the running. N UNCOUNT

21 Someone who is on form is performing their usual activity very well. Someone who is off form is not performing as well as they usually do. EG She was on form right through the tournament... I thought he was a bit off form today, didn't you?... You've got to be on good form before you can do that. PHR : USED AS AN A = out of form

22 If you say that it is bad form to behave in a particular way, you mean that it is rude and impolite. EG It is bad form to keep the clergyman waiting too long. N UNCOUNT : ADJ + N ⇑ behaviour = manners

23 Something that is done as a matter of form has been done because it was considered usual or expected. EG They continued sneaking a few spies over the river as a matter of form. PHR : USED AS AN A

24 If someone's behaviour is true to form it is what is expected and is typical of that person. EG They lobbied Watson who, true to form, made an instant decision... Otto's luck was running true to form. PHR : USED AS A/C form up. When a group of things form up, they move into position in lines. EG The yachts formed up in Hampton Roads. PHRASAL VB : V ERG + ADV = draw up, line up formal /fɔːməl/. 1 Formal speech or behaviour is very correct and serious rather than relaxed and friendly, and is used for example in official situations or when you are talking to someone important. In this dictionary, language of this kind is indicated by the use of the word 'formal' in definitions. EG 'How is your mother?' Daintry asked with formal politeness... ...the formal handshake... The letter was stiff and formal. ◊ formally. EG Everyone was formally lined up to meet the king. ◊ formality /fɔˈmælɪtɪ/. EG The elders conversed with strict formality when children were around... They reacted against the formality of their predecessors. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ correctness

2 A formal statement, decision, action, etc is one that is officially declared, done, or accepted so that it becomes publicly known or recognized. EG No formal declaration of war had been made... It will have to go to the Houses of Parliament for formal approval... A formal enquiry was made... I have the formal responsibility for planning... We have many formal procedures for celebrating these occasions. ◊ formally. EG He had already formally announced his candidacy... They're now formally engaged... The rules are formally set out in a book. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ public = official ◊ ADV WITH VB

3 Formal occasions are ones at which people wear smart clothes and behave correctly in accordance with particular conventions. EG Foreign leaders are expected to attend a formal dinner at Buckingham Palace... The dances held at the embassy were formal affairs... Their wedding had been formal and formidable. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ conventional

4 Formal clothes are very smart clothes that are suitable for formal occasions. ◊ formally. EG He dressed rather formally. ◊ formality. EG Her clothes have a formality which makes it impossible to judge her age. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ smartness

5 Something that is done, written, or studied in a formal way has a very ordered, organized style or method. EG ...a formal mathematical approach... My Marxism has never been a formal, organized study... The whole play is performed in a formal style. ADJ QUALIT

6 A formal garden or room is arranged in a very regular and controlled way, especially according to certain conventions of design. EG Holland House and its formal gardens... Here is, quite simply, grass and trees and paths; no formal flowerbeds... We came out among the high buildings into a formal square. ◊ formally. EG And so we move on to the formally composed semi-circle of the Victoria Memorial. ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ regularly

7 Formal education or training is given officially in a school, college, etc. EG Many great discoverers like Faraday had no formal education at all... No formal qualifications are necessary. ◊ formally. EG They are formally taught. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ official ◊ ADV WITH VB

8 Formal is also used to describe something that appears to be true or to exist rather than what is really true or what really exists. EG We cannot operate with as much freedom as our formal powers might appear to suggest. ◊ formally. EG The Sixties were dominated, even if only formally, by politics. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ apparent ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ apparently 9 See also formality.

formaldehyde /fɔˈmældɪhaɪd/ is a strong-smelling gas, used especially to preserve specimens in biology. N UNCOUNT formalise /fɔːməlaɪz/. See formalize.

formalism /fɔːməlɪzəˈm/ is a style, especially in art, in which great attention is paid to the outward form or appearance rather than to the inner reality or true significance of things. EG I think that as a doctrine formalism has done damage. ◊ formalist. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT

EG My quarrel with the formalists is about the nature of sculpture itself.

formality /fəˈmælɪtiˈ/, formalities. 1 A formality is a formal action or procedure that is conventionally carried out as part of an activity or event. EG The pre-funeral formalities had to be attended to. N COUNT ⇑ convention

2 A procedure or action that is referred to as a formality is done because it has to be done, even though its result will not affect the final result. EG He knew the interview was just a formality. N COUNT ⇑ rule

3 See also formal.

formalize /fɔːməlaɪz/, formalizes, formalizing, formalized; also spelled formalise. If you formalize a plan, idea, arrangement, etc, you make it clear and official. EG His major role is to formalize the distribution of money to individuals... Their marriage vows will be formalized. V + O ⇑ organize format /fɔːmæt/, formats. The format of something is the way and order in which it is arranged and presented. EG The author of the article had resented the changes I had made in its format and tone... They're already producing material in all kinds of different formats. N COUNT ⇑ arrangement = layout formation /fəˈmeɪʃəˈn/, formations. 1 The formation of an organization, company, system, etc is the act or process of organizing and starting it. EG He had played a major role in the formation of the United Nations... Since its formation, the company had made losses of £9.5m. N UNCOUNT + SUPP = establishment

2 If things are in a particular formation, they are arranged in a particular order or pattern. EG ...aircraft flying in formation. N COUNT/UNCOUNT ⇑ arrangement

3 The formation of an idea, habit, relationship, etc is the process of developing and firmly establishing it. EG This procedure effectively prevents the formation of new ideas. N UNCOUNT + SUPP ⇑ development

4 The formation of something natural is its origin and development. EG This shows how much the mother's feelings have to do with the formation of milk... It's all part of the physical process of rock formation. N UNCOUNT + SUPP

5 A rock or cloud formation is rock or cloud of a particular shape or structure. EG ...beautiful rock formations in underground caves. N COUNT ⇑ group formative /fɔːmətɪv/. A formative period of time or influence is one which has an important and lasting influence on a person's character and attitudes. EG ...a suburb of Cambridge is where I spent my formative years... This person may well become the most formative influence on the young child's developing personality. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ developing

-formed combines with adverbs to indicate that something has reached a particular stage of growth or development. EG ...a fully-formed frog. COMB : FORMS ADJS = developed former /fɔːmə/. 1 Former is used to describe 1.1 someone who used to have a particular job, position, or role, but no longer has it. EG The guide showed us the old home of former President Theodore Roosevelt... ...a former army officer. 1.2 something which someone used to have or which used to be a particular thing. EG They have lost much of their former authority... They have been relocated quite near to their former homes... The college was in fact a former mansion. 1.3 a situation or period of time which came before the present one. EG A selection of items published in former years was put out in book form. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ earlier ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ later

2 When two people, things, or groups have just been mentioned, you refer to the one that was mentioned first as the former. EG The former believe in a strong centralized government... There is a widespread conspiracy to conceal the former and exaggerate the latter. ▸ used as an adjective. EG Lack of space forbids the former alternative. N SING/PLURAL : the + N ≠ latter ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : the + ADJ + N

-former, -formers. -former combines with ordinal numbers to refer to a child who is in a particular year at school; used especially in British English. EG They have all the skills we expect of fifth-formers. COMB : FORMS N COUNTS

formerly /fɔːməliˈ/. You use formerly to say that something happened, existed, or was the case at a time before the present time, but it no longer happens, exists, or is the case. EG Some of my salesmen formerly worked for this rival concern... A sinister silence descends upon your formerly busy office... The ships would thus not be as dependent as formerly on return journeys to Black Sea ports... Lake Malawi, formerly Lake Nyasa, is 450 miles long. ADV = previously formidable /fɔːmɪdəbəˈl/. Something or someone that is formidable is 1 rather frightening because it is difficult to do, deal with, or overcome. EG No one is willing to take on the formidable task of changing the whole structure... He had earned the reputation of being a formidable opponent... ...her formidable grandmother. ◊ formidably. EG ...a formidably difficult task. 2 very impressive because it is so good or great. EG ...the formidable army of brains that are at the Prime Minister's disposal... Nelson's portrait is said to be a formidable likeness. ◊ formidably. EG The jeeps came with army drivers, each formidably armed. ADJ QUALIT = daunting, intimidating ◊ ADV ADJ CLASSIF = prodigious ◊ ADV = prodigiously formless /fɔːmlɪsˈ/. Something that is formless 1 does not have a clear or definite physical shape. EG ...a group of formless shapes. 2 does not have a clear structure, or is not detailed; used of ideas, feelings, etc. EG The apprehension had been shapeless, formless, completely lacking in detail. ADJ CLASSIF = amorphous ADJ CLASSIF = nebulous, vague formula /fɔːmjəˈlə/, formulae, formulas. The plural can be either formulae /fɔːmjəˈliː/ or formulas in paragraph 1. In paragraph 2 the plural is formulas. 1 A formula is 1.1 a short group of letters, numbers, or other symbols which represents a scientific or mathematical rule. EG He knew the formula for converting kilometres into miles... It all fits together with the precision of a mathematical formula. 1.2 a plan or set of rules that is thought up as a way of dealing with a particular problem, or of creating something. EG There is no magic formula which, once learned, can thereafter be applied to every situation... ...a peace formula... Each must find its own formula for the distribution of national income. 1.3 a list of substances which tells you what amounts to mix together in order to make another substance. EG The formula for the new glue is a closely guarded secret. N COUNT N COUNT : USU SING = proposal, solution N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ recipe

Formica /fɔːmaɪkə/; a trademark. Formica is a hard plastic that is used for covering kitchen worktops, tables, etc. N UNCOUNT

2 A formula is also an expression which is often used in a particular situation, especially one that has come to sound stupid and meaningless. EG They liked to begin a paper with some formula like, 'I want to raise some questions that need answers.' N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ phrase = cliché

3 Formula is used followed by a number to indicate a particular type of racing car or something relating to that type of car. EG ...Formula 1 racing. N UNCOUNT + NUM

4 Formula is a powder which you mix with water to make a milky drink for babies; used in American English. N UNCOUNT ⇑ baby food formulaic /fɔːmjəˈleɪɪk/. A formulaic way of saying something has been used many times before in similar situations. EG ...formulaic expressions in Homer. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ fixed = set formulate /fɔːmjəˈleɪt/, formulates, formulating, formulated. 1 If you formulate something such as a plan or proposal, you invent it, thinking about the details carefully. EG We had formulated our own strategy... ...the need to formulate a policy that will promote rather than hinder peace. ◊ formulation /fɔːmjəˈleɪʃəˈn/, formulations. EG ...the formulation of a common foreign policy. V + O ⇑ put together = work out ◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT

2 If you formulate a thought, opinion, etc, you express it or describe it using particular words. EG She made a promise to herself that she could not formulate in words... 'Public affluence and private squalor,' was how he formulated it. ◊ formulation, formulations. EG May I suggest the formulation 'Can we come to order, persons?' V + O = encapsulate ◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT

fornicate /fɔːnɪkeɪt/, fornicates, fornicating, fornicated. To fornicate means to have sex with someone who you are not married to; a formal or Biblical word used showing disapproval. ◊ fornication /fɔːnɪkeɪʃəˈn/. V OR V + A (with) : RECIP ◊ N UNCOUNT forsake /fəˈseɪk/, forsakes, forsaking, forsook, forsaken; a fairly literary word. 1 If you forsake a person or place, you leave them when you should have stayed, or stop helping them or looking after them. EG Don't forsake me in my hour of need!... ...not quite knowing why their leaders have forsaken them. ◊ forsaken. EG ...a dusty, forsaken prairie village. V + O = abandon, desert ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 If you forsake something, you stop doing it or using it. EG Not that I want the girls to forsake their V + O ⇑ reject boisterous ways... Forsaking sober suits, they wore shorts and T-shirts.

3 To forsake something means to leave it or go away from it. EG A porter forsook the shelter of the inn doorway and brought my bags in... Her mellow tranquillity forsook her then forever. V+O = abandon forswear /fɔːˢsweə/, forswears, forswearing, forswore, forsworn. If you forswear something, you stop doing it, having it, or using it, or you promise that you will. EG Harold had forsworn fighting. V+O ⇑ give up forsythia /fɔːsaɪθɪə/ is a bush that has yellow flowers on it in the spring before the leaves have grown. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ shrub fort /fɔːt/, forts. 1 A fort is a strong building or a place with a wall or fence around it where soldiers can stay and be safe from the enemy. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES

2 If you hold the fort for someone, you look after things for them while they are somewhere else. EG Will you hold the fort for an hour? PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF+PREP THEN for

forte /fɔːteɪ/, fortes. 1 If a particular activity is your forte, you are very good at it. EG Cooking is hardly my forte. N COUNT : POSS+N = strong point

2 A piece of music that is played forte is played loudly; a technical term in music. ADV WITH VB ≠ piano forth /fɔːθ/; a rather formal or old-fashioned word. 1 When someone or something goes or is sent forth, they leave a particular place and move in a forward or outward direction away from it. EG ...the story of a tiny island which had sent forth her sons to conquer the world... The goats came bounding forth from their pens. ADV AFTER VB ≠ back

2 When something is brought forth, it is brought out into a place where you can see it. EG He reaches into his shiny leather briefcase, and brings forth a blue cardboard file... I found her dragging a slide-projector forth from a classroom. ADV AFTER VB

3 When pieces of information, opinions, etc are put forth, they are made known to other people or written down. EG The Welsh bishops met, discussed the matter, and put forth their conclusions... ...a book that sets forth the efforts of the early explorers to reach the East. ADV AFTER VB

4 When words or signs of emotion are sent forth, they are spoken or shown in some way. EG He flung forth an obscure prayer across the flowing stream... His eyes sent forth such signals of anguish that her heart melted. ADV AFTER VB = out

5 If you say, when referring to a particular time, that from that time forth something has been or will be the case, you mean that it has been or will be the case ever afterwards, beginning from that time. EG From that day forth the bishop was a marked man. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ for ever

6 ● and so forth: see so. ● back and forth: see back. ● to hold forth: see hold.

forthcoming /fɔːθˢkʌmɪŋ/; a fairly formal word. 1 A forthcoming event is planned to happen soon. EG I wrote to the Minister asking his advice on the forthcoming presidential election. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ future

2 If something is forthcoming, it is given or made available by someone, especially when it is needed. EG No evidence of this was forthcoming... If Baker has his way the money will be forthcoming. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

3 Someone who is forthcoming willingly gives information about something when you ask them. EG He was disinclined to talk about that: nor was he forthcoming on the way in which he had risen to power. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = communicative forthright /fɔːθraɪt/. Someone who is forthright shows clearly and strongly what they think and feel. EG He had a reputation for being a bit forthright. ▸ used of speech, actions, and behaviour. EG Mr Wilson condemned the invasion in the most forthright terms... ...his forthright opposition to the Boer War. ADJ QUALIT = blunt, direct forthwith /fɔːθwɪθ, -wɪð/ means immediately; a formal word. EG He would take up his new duties forthwith. ADV WITH VB ⇑ now = at once fortieth /fɔːtɪɪᵗθ/. The fortieth item in a series is the one that you count as number forty: see □ at NUMBER and AGE. EG ...the fortieth president of the United States. ORDINAL fortification /fɔːtɪfɪkeɪʃəⁿn/, fortifications. 1 Fortifications are buildings, walls, ditches, etc that are built to protect a place against attack. EG ...a network of coastal fortifications. N COUNT : USU PL

2 See also fortify.

fortified wine, fortified wines. Fortified wine is an alcoholic drink such as sherry or port that is made by mixing wine with a small amount of brandy or strong alcohol. N MASS

fortify /fɔːtɪfaɪ/, fortifies, fortifying, fortified. 1 If you fortify a place, you make it more able to resist an attack, for example by building a wall or ditch round it. EG He spent his spare time fortifying the house against attacks... ...the tiny fortified town. ◊ fortification /fɔːtɪfɪkeɪʃəⁿn/. EG He drew plans for the fortification of Florence. V+O ⇑ strengthen ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 Something that fortifies you, especially a drink or food, makes you feel stronger and more full of energy, courage, or determination. EG Fortified with tea, he spoke slowly about his ordeal... To fortify himself, he began thinking about how pleased his wife would be... The effect of this was to fortify them in their resolve to try to save the party. ◊ fortification. V+O (NG/REFL) ⇑ strengthen ◊ N UNCOUNT

3 Something that fortifies something, for example an idea or intention, makes it stronger or firmer. EG Those Pioneer images had fortified the conventional idea that Jupiter's atmosphere was well ordered... The harrowing episode fortified her resolve to protest against such injustices. ◊ fortification. V+O = strengthen ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 Food that is fortified with a substance that people need has an amount of that substance added to it. EG ...a cereal fortified with iron and vitamins. ◊ fortification. V+O : USU PASS = enrich ◊ N UNCOUNT fortissimo /fɔːtɪsɪməʊ/. A piece of music that is played fortissimo is played very loudly; a technical term in music. EG The band continued playing fortissimo. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...a fortissimo passage of the score. ADV WITH VB ≠ pianissimo ▸ ADJ CLASSIF fortitude /fɔːtɪtjuːd/. If someone shows fortitude when they experience something unpleasant or painful, they do not complain and remain brave and calm. EG Cal bore his pain with commendable fortitude. N UNCOUNT ⇑ courage = stoicism fortnight /fɔːtnaɪt/, fortnights. A fortnight is a period of two weeks. EG He borrowed it a fortnight ago... I went to Rothesay for a fortnight... ...at the end of his fortnight's stay in London. N COUNT : USU SING fortnightly /fɔːtnaɪtliᵗ/. 1 Something that is fortnightly happens or appears once a fortnight or every fortnight. EG ...a fortnightly newspaper... ...fortnightly visits. ▸ used as an adverb. EG The therapy group meets fortnightly. ADJ CLASSIF ▸ ADV AFTER VB

2 Fortnightly means relating to or consisting of a period of a fortnight. EG ...for four or five days in each fortnightly cycle. ADJ CLASSIF fortress /fɔːtrɪˢs/, fortresses. A fortress is a castle or other large strong building, or a well-protected place, which is intended to be difficult for enemies to enter. EG ...the massive fortress built into the rock. N COUNT fortuitous /fɔˢtjuːɪtəs/. A fortuitous event or result happens completely by chance. EG It is more likely to be a fortuitous discovery than the result of a concerted effort to find it. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ accidental = coincidental fortunate /fɔːtʃəˢnɪᵗt/. 1 Someone who is fortunate has good luck or has something good. EG ...those who are fortunate enough to get jobs... I have been unusually fortunate in my parents and teachers... Other, less fortunate, children died much earlier. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lucky

2 A fortunate event happens by chance and is good for a particular person. EG ...a fortunate choice... It was fortunate indeed for Mr Fox that he decided to wait. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lucky fortunately /fɔːtʃəˢnətliᵗ/ is used to introduce or indicate a statement about an event or situation that is good. EG I was afraid Peggy would be disappointed, but fortunately she didn't seem to mind... Fortunately such occurrences are fairly rare... Fortunately for us, the damage was only slight. ADV SEN ⇑ luckily = happily fortune /fɔːtʃəˢn/, fortunes. 1 Fortune or good fortune is good luck, success, or good experiences. Bad fortune is bad luck or lack of success. EG It would be unfair to envy him his good fortune... ...people who did not have the fortune to live in Britain... ...protection against ill fortune and disaster. N UNCOUNT

2 You refer to the way that someone is treated by fortune or by the fortunes of war, history, etc as a way of referring to the good or bad luck that they have. EG Fortune had been kind to him... But the fortunes of war turned against them. N UNCOUNT, OR N PLURAL+of = fate

3 Someone or something's fortunes are the extent to N PLURAL : WITH which they are doing well or being successful. EG In the following years, Victor's fortunes improved considerably... Once again the fortunes of England are low. POSS

4 Someone who tells your fortune looks at something, for example the lines on your hand or playing cards, and tells you what they think these indicate will happen to you in the future. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ predict

5 If you have a fortune, you have a very large amount of money. EG His father left him an immense fortune... Her father had made a fortune in scrap metal. N COUNT = wealth

6 You refer to a sum of money as a fortune or a small or tidy fortune when you think it is a very large amount of money. EG She earns a fortune... That suit had cost me a small fortune. N SING : a + N = bomb, mint fortune-teller, fortune-tellers. A fortune-teller is a person who tells people's fortunes. N COUNT ⇑ clairvoyant forty /fɔːti[1]/, forties. Forty is the number 40: see ☐ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG We have a nursery school for forty children... ...women in their forties. ● forty winks: see wink. NUM forum /fɔːrəm/, forums. 1 A forum is a place, situation, or group in which people exchange ideas and discuss issues, especially important public issues. EG ...parliament's role as a forum for debate... The journal serves as a regular forum for the interchange of information and ideas... The next programme will be a listeners' forum in which you can air your views. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ meeting place

2 In ancient Roman towns, the forum was a square where people met to discuss business and political matters. N COUNT ⇑ meeting place forward /fɔːwəd/, forwards, forwarding, forwarded. 1 If someone or something moves, looks, or faces forward or forwards, they move, look, or face in a direction that is in front of them. EG Ralph took a sudden step forward... The seats face forward... I reach forward and flip the headlight switch... John peered forward through the twilight... Suddenly she leaned forward. ▸ Forward is also used as an adjective. EG ...the impetus of his forward movement. ● backwards and forwards: see backwards. ADV AFTER VB ≠ backwards ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ backward

2 If you bring something or move it forward or forwards, you bring it or move it towards a particular person or place. EG Salesmen rush forward to serve her... He pulled forward a chair, and the man sat down. ADV AFTER VB ≠ backwards

3 Forward also means in a position near the front of something such as a building or a vehicle. EG I like to have the seat quite far forward when I'm driving... He was sitting in a forward pew this morning. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ back

4 Something that is forward of a particular thing or place is in front of it or further ahead, especially on a ship or aircraft. EG ...a bulky item of cargo immediately forward of the one behind which we were sheltering. PREP

5 If you look or go forward in time, you look or go into the future. EG When I was your age I could only look forward. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...forward planning. ● to look forward to something: see look. ADV AFTER VB ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

6 If you put a clock or watch forward, you change the time shown on it so that it shows a later time, for example when the time changes to summer time. EG I set my watch forward once again. ADV AFTER VB ≠ back

7 If you say, when referring to a particular time, that from that time forward something was the case, you mean that it was the case ever afterwards, beginning from that time. EG From this point forward I tried to acquire the information I needed. PHR : USED AS AN A = forth

8 Forward or forwards is also used to indicate that something changes or develops so as to improve or become more modern. EG They had to be persuaded that there was a better way forward by closer cooperation... Obviously it's a great step forward for you... We're interested in moving society forward into a better world. ADJ AFTER N, OR ADV WITH VB ≠ backwards

9 You say how far forward a project is as a way of saying how far it has progressed. EG We're no further forward than we were two weeks ago. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED, ADV + ADJ ≠ behind

10 Something or someone that is brought forward or comes forward is suggested or offered as suitable for a particular purpose. EG Various theories have been put forward... I once brought forward a motion that swearing be abolished by law... More than 700 people have come forward so far. ADV AFTER VB

11 If a piece of film or music is played forwards or forward, or if a book is read forwards, it is played or read from the beginning towards the end rather than from the end towards the beginning. ADV AFTER VB = backwards

12 If you forward a letter or piece of information to someone, you send it on to them, especially when they have asked you to do this when they move to a different address. EG Would you mind forwarding my mail to this address?... Any information is to be forwarded to Sergeant Ayr. V + O

13 If you forward something, you cause it to progress or improve. EG He's hoping to forward his career by this move. V + O = further

14 Someone who is forward speaks boldly to people in a way that is thought to be disrespectful. EG 'I told her she ought to slim.'–'That was very forward of you.' ◊ forwardness. EG I am conscious of my forwardness in applying to you. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT

15 In football, rugby, or hockey, a forward is a player whose job is to try to score goals rather than to defend their own goal. EG He's built like a rugby forward. N COUNT ≠ back forwarding address, forwarding addresses. A forwarding address is an address that you give to someone when you go and live somewhere else so that they can send your mail on to you. EG She had gone to Spain, leaving no forwarding address. N COUNT forward-looking. Someone who is forward-looking thinks about the future or has modern ideas. EG As a publisher, Ernest Benn was forward-looking and imaginative. ADJ QUALIT ≠ backward-looking forwent /fɔːwɛnt/ is the past tense of forgo.

fossil /fɒsə[l]/, fossils. A fossil is the hardened remains of a prehistoric animal or plant that are found inside a rock. N COUNT fossil fuel, fossil fuels. A fossil fuel is a fuel such as coal, oil, or peat that is formed from the decayed remains of plants or animals. N MASS

fossilize /fɒsɪlaɪz/, fossilizes, fossilizing, fossilized; also spelled fossilise. 1 If the remains of an animal or plant fossilize or are fossilized, they become hard and form fossils, instead of decaying completely. EG ...fossilised human bones... Brains do not fossilize. ◊ fossilization /fɒsɪlaɪzeɪʃə[n]/. EG ...the physical and chemical conditions necessary for fossilisation. V ERG : USU PASS = ossify ◊ N UNCOUNT = ossification

2 If ideas, attitudes, or ways of behaving are fossilized, they are fixed and unlikely to change, in spite of changing situations or circumstances. EG ...its obsolete, fossilised ways and immovable conservatism. V ERG : USU PASS = set, inflexible

foster /fɒstə/, fosters, fostering, fostered. 1 Foster parents are people who take someone else's child into their family for a period of time, by arrangement with an official authority, without becoming the child's legal parent. A foster child is the child who they look after. EG Not enough time or trouble is taken in introducing foster children to their new families... ...her foster mother. ▸ used of the system of providing children with foster parents. EG Their children are in foster care. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ temporary

2 If you foster a child, you take someone else's child into your family for a period of time, without becoming the child's legal parent: compare adopt. EG When they are fostered, boys have more behaviour problems than girls... People who can't have children of their own sometimes foster... ...fostered children. ◊ fostering. EG ...fostering arrangements. V OR V + O ⇑ look after ◊ N UNCOUNT

3 If you foster something such as an activity or idea, you help its development or growth by encouraging people to do or think it. EG The local council has a policy of fostering music, drama, and crafts... The industrialism of the nineteenth century fostered a harsh, crude life-style... ...a popular image, fostered by the media. V + O = promote fought /fɔːt/ is the past tense of fight.

foul /faʊl/, fouler, foulest; fouls, fouling, fouled. 1 If something is foul, 1.1 it is unpleasant because it is dirty or decayed. EG The water in the pools became tepid and foul... We spent a grim night in a very foul cabin. 1.2 it is unpleasant and not at all enjoyable or successful. EG I've had a really foul day at work... It's such foul luck for you all. 1.3 it is evil and wicked. EG ...a foul crime. ADJ QUALIT = filthy ADJ QUALIT = rotten ADJ QUALIT = base, vile

2 If you say that you will do something by fair means or foul, you are prepared to use any means at all in PHR : USED AS AN A order to get what you want and you do not care if your behaviour is dishonest and unfair.

3 Foul weather is unpleasant, windy, and stormy with a lot of rain or snow. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ bad

4 Foul language is offensive and contains unacceptable words such as swear words and rude words related to sex or other bodily functions. EG I won't have you using such foul language in my house! ▸ used of people who use foul language, or of their way of thinking. EG What a foul mind you've got! ADJ QUALIT ⇑ bad = coarse, obscene ▸ = filthy

5 If someone has a foul temper, they become angry or violent very suddenly and easily. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB

6 If you fall foul of someone, or if you run foul of them, you do something which makes them angry or annoyed with you. EG He was found drowned in a river after falling foul of local poachers. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ anger

7 If you foul something, 7.1 you make it dirty. EG The deck would soon be fouled with the blood from their backs... ...a tern lying on a beach, fouled by oil. 7.2 you drop faeces onto it. EG ...an elector who was complaining about dogs fouling the pavement. V+O = soil / V+O = soil

8 If something fouls a mechanism, device, net, etc it accidentally becomes twisted or knotted around it and prevents it from working properly. EG The boat's engine stopped because some weed had fouled the propeller... They fouled their nets on these underwater obstructions... Suddenly the rope started coming too fast. It fouled on the winch. V ERG ⇑ block = snag

9 If a player fouls in a game or sport, or if they foul another player, they do something which is not allowed according to the rules. V OR V+O

10 A foul is an act in a game of sport that is not allowed according to the rules. EG The England team's record of fouls was among the worst. ▸ used as an adjective. EG If the white ball goes into a pocket in snooker, it is a foul shot. N COUNT ⇑ infringement ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ acceptable foul up. If you foul up something such as a plan, you spoil it by doing something wrong or stupid; used in informal English. EG So many good projects have been fouled up by elementary mistakes in planning. ● See also foul-up. PHRASAL VB : V+O+ADV ⇑ ruin = mess up foul-mouthed. If someone is foul-mouthed, their language is offensive and contains unacceptable words such as swear words and rude words related to sex or other bodily functions. EG ...eight noisy foul-mouthed women, all shouting at once. ADJ QUALIT = obscene, abusive foul play is 1 criminal violence or activity that results in a person's death. EG There was no evidence of foul play; many people die from accidental poisoning. 2 unfair or dishonest behaviour; used showing disapproval. EG He would be willing to use any ruse, any dirty trick, any amount of foul play to get what he wanted. N UNCOUNT ⇑ murder / N UNCOUNT = skulduggery foul-up, foul-ups. A foul-up is a state of disorder or trouble which is the result of mistakes or carelessness; used in informal English. EG The Centre hates that kind of foul-up. N COUNT = mess found /faʊnd/, founds, founding, founded. 1 Found is the past tense and past participle of find.

2 If someone founds an institution, company, organization, etc, they set it up, often by providing the necessary money. EG The Constituency Labour Party was founded in 1918 by Walter Ayles and others... The following year they founded a magazine called Socialist Review. ● See also founding. V+O ⇑ start = establish, form

3 If someone founds a town, important building, or other place, they begin to build it or cause it to be built. EG The theatre was founded in 1720, but rebuilt by Nash in 1820... Cortes founded Mexico City. V+O ⇑ start

4 If something is founded on a particular thing, such as a source of support or strength, it is based on it. EG A political system founded on force alone is an uneasy and fragile arrangement... The settlement was founded upon facts. ● See also wellfounded. V+O+A, USU PASS = be built

5 If you found metal or glass, you make it into a particular shape by melting it and pouring it into a mould. V+O foundation /faʊndeɪʃəⁿn/, foundations. 1 The foundation or foundations of something such as a belief or way of life is the basic idea, attitude, or experience on which that belief or way of life is built. EG Respect for the law is the very foundation of civilised living... The industrial revolution was firmly built on the foundations of an agricultural revolution... This early training gave her a very firm foundation. N COUNT+SUPP = basis

2 The foundations of a building or other structure are the layer of bricks, concrete, etc below the ground that it must be built on so that it is solidly supported. N PLURAL

3 The foundation of an institution, company, organization, etc, is the fact or act of setting it up. EG There have been continued financial problems since the foundation of the university. N SING : the+N+of = founding

4 A foundation is an organization, often set up by the legacy of a person who has died, which provides money for a special purpose such as research or a charity. EG ...the National Foundation for Educational Research... In America they have many different foundations and bequests. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES

5 If a story, idea, or argument has no foundation, there are no facts to support it and prove that it is true. EG This theory seems to have no foundation in physical observation and experiment... The suggestion that I am about to resign is absurd and without foundation. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH BROAD NEG ⇑ evidence = basis, justification

6 Foundation or foundation cream is a skin-coloured cream that a woman puts on her face before putting on the rest of her make-up. N MASS foundation course, foundation courses. In Britain, a foundation course is a course that you do at some colleges and universities in order to prepare you for a longer or more advanced course. N COUNT foundation stone, foundation stones; also spelled with a hyphen. A foundation stone is a large smooth block of stone built into a large public building near the bottom. The foundation stone is usually unveiled at a ceremony when the building is complete, and it usually has words cut into it which record the occasion. EG The foundation stone was laid by the Duke of Edinburgh. N COUNT founder /faʊndə/, founders, foundering, foundered. 1 The founder of an institution, organization, building, etc is the person who sets it up, or causes it to be built, perhaps by providing the necessary money. EG Thomas Kemp, the founder of Kemp Town. N COUNT : USU WITH POSS

2 If something founders, it fails because of a particular point, difficulty, or problem. EG His arguments foundered on the Norfolk case of 1302... Without their assistance the arrangement would have foundered pretty quickly. V = break down

3 If a ship founders, it fills with water and sinks. V : USU + A founder member, founder members. A founder member of a club, group, or organization is one of the original members, often one who was involved in setting it up. EG ...Geoff Carlsson, a founder member of the Socialist Review group. N COUNT : USU + of founding /faʊndɪŋ/. 1 Founding is used to refer to the time that an institution or organization is first set up. EG The organization held its founding conference in Birmingham... He made moving reference to the party's founding philosophy. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ initial

2 The founding of an institution, company, organization, etc, is the fact or activity of setting it up. EG He opposed the founding of the National Gallery. N SING : the+N+of = foundation founding father, founding fathers. The founding father of an institution, organization, idea, etc is the person who sets it up or who first it; a literary expression. EG ...the founding fathers of the university. If economics has a founding father, it is Smith. N COUNT : USU PL = founder

2 The Founding Fathers of the United States were the members of the American Constitutional Convention of 1787. N PLURAL

foundling /faʊndlɪŋ/, foundlings. A foundling is a baby which has been abandoned by its parents, often in a public place, and then been found by someone; an old-fashioned word. N COUNT ⇑ outcast foundry /faʊndrɪ[1]/, foundries. A foundry is a place where metal or glass is melted and formed into particular shapes. N COUNT ⇑ factory fount /faʊnt/. If you describe a person or thing as the fount of something, you are saying that they are an important source or supply of it; a literary word. EG ...the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the fount of all knowledge... ...the prime fount of business opportunity in almost all countries. N SING WITH DET + of fountain /faʊntɪn/, fountains. 1 A fountain is an ornamental feature in a pool or lake which consists of a spray or jet of water that is forced up into the air by a pump. It is often part of a specially built pool and is sometimes in the form of a statue. EG ...the fountain in the courtyard of the mosque... ...a sunken N COUNT ⇑ structure garden with a pond and a fountain playing. ● See also drinking fountain, soda fountain.

2 A fountain of something is a powerful jet or spray of it going up into the air. EG A fountain of blood shot up... ...sudden shattering fountains of red fireballs and flames. N COUNT : of ⇑ flow = shower

3 If you describe something as a fountain, you are saying that it seems light, bright, and flowing, like the spray of water in a fountain; a literary use. EG ...the full fountain of white blossom. N COUNT : USU + of = cascade

4 If you describe a person or thing as a fountain of something, you are saying that they are an important source or supply of it; a literary use. EG Regions such as Africa have proved to be the fountain of many new ideas about the causes of cancer. N SING WITH DET + of = fount fountain pen, fountain pens; also spelled with a hyphen or as one word. A fountain pen is a pen with a nib that is supplied with ink from a container inside the pen. N COUNT four /fɔː/, fours. 1 Four is the number 4: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG His mother died when he was four and he was brought up by an aunt... ...a four-mile walk. NUM

2 A four is 2.1 a narrow racing boat that is rowed by a team of four people. 2.2 a team of four people, or a group of four people or things. N COUNT N COUNT

3 If you are on all fours, you are crawling or leaning on your hands and knees. EG Claud slipped through the hedge on all fours and I followed. PHR : USED AS AN A four-letter word, four-letter words. A four-letter word is a short word that people consider to be rude or offensive, usually because it refers to sex or other bodily functions. N COUNT = swear-word four-ply wool, rope, wood, etc has four layers or strands. ADJ CLASSIF four-poster, four-posters; also spelled without a hyphen. A four-poster or a four-poster bed is a large old-fashioned bed that has a tall post at each corner and curtains that can be drawn around it. N COUNT foursome /fɔːsəm/, foursomes. A foursome is a group of four people or things. EG We functioned well as a foursome. N COUNT four-square. If something is four-square, 1 it looks solid and square in shape. EG ...a four-square house, with corner turrets and battlements. 2 it is straight and placed or balanced firmly on something. EG ...with his regulation chef's hat four-square on his greying clipped hair. 3 it is strong and steady, and unlikely to be affected by changing situations. EG ...the four-square rock-like quality of the old religion. ADJ CLASSIF, OR ADV = squarely ADJ CLASSIF = solid fourteen /fɔːtiːn/ is the number 14: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, DATE, MEASUREMENT, MONEY, and TIME. EG He was the eldest of a family of fourteen children. NUM fourteenth /fɔːtiːnθ/. The fourteenth item in a series is the one that you count as number fourteen: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG ...their son's fourteenth birthday. ORDINAL fourth /fɔːθ/, fourths. 1 The fourth item in a series is the one that you count as number four: see □ at NUMBER, AGE, and DATE. EG My mother died just before my fourth birthday. ORDINAL

2 A fourth is 2.1 one of four equal parts of something. EG They conceded him three-fourths or more of the spending cuts he sought. 2.2 the interval between two notes on a musical scale when there are two notes separating them. N COUNT : USU + of N COUNT : USU SING fourth dimension. The fourth dimension, in physics, is time. The other three dimensions are length, breadth, and height. N SING : the + N fourthly /fɔːθliˡ/. You use fourthly when you want to make a fourth point or to give a fourth reason that is connected with three points or reasons which you have already stated. EG Fourthly, there will need to be a guarantee of full employment. ADV SEN

Fourth of July. The Fourth of July is a holiday in the United States when people celebrate the Declaration of Independence in 1776. N SING : the + N = Independence Day fowl /faʊl/, fowls. Fowl can also be used as the plural form. A fowl is a bird, especially one that is hunted or that can be eaten as food, such as a duck or chicken. There are many kinds of fowl. EG ...guinea fowl. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT fox /fɒks/, foxes, foxing, foxed. 1 A fox is a wild animal which looks like a dog and has reddish-brown fur, a pointed face and ears, and a thick tail. EG ...the footprints of wildcats, badgers and foxes. N COUNT

2 If something is made of fox, it is made from the fur and skin of a fox. EG ...a shaggy red fox coat. N UNCOUNT

3 If you call someone a fox, you are saying that they do things in clever ways, such as by deceiving people or by being dishonest and secretive; used showing disapproval. EG It was probably the Colonel's doing, and the wily old fox was making damn sure he didn't leave any tracks. N COUNT = devil

4 If something foxes you, it causes you a lot of difficulty, so that you cannot understand or complete it; an informal use. EG When you get a piece of handwriting which really foxes you, you have a very careful look at it... The computers were foxed by the calculations. V + O = baffle, stump foxglove /fɒksglʌv/, foxgloves. A foxglove is a tall plant that has pink or white flowers shaped like bells growing up the stem. N COUNT foxhole /fɒkshəʊl/, foxholes. A foxhole is a small pit that soldiers dig as a shelter from the enemy and from which they can shoot. N COUNT foxhound /fɒkshaʊnd/, foxhounds. A foxhound is a type of dog that is trained to hunt foxes. N COUNT fox-hunting is a sport in which people, riding horses, chase foxes across the countryside. They use foxhounds to track down the foxes. N UNCOUNT foxy /fɒksiˡ/, foxier, foxiest. If someone is foxy, they are deceitful in a clever, secretive way. EG ...a certain foxy gentleman. ▸ used of someone's appearance or behaviour. EG He cast a foxy glance at her. ADJ QUALIT = artful ▸ = sly foyer /fɔɪeɪ, fɔɪə/, foyers. A foyer is the large area where people meet or wait just inside the main doors of a theatre, cinema, hotel, etc. N COUNT : USU the + N = lobby

Fr. is 1 a written abbreviation for 'French' and 'franc'. 2 a written abbreviation for 'Father'; used in titles before the name of a Catholic priest.

fracas /frækɑː/. A fracas is a rough, noisy quarrel or fight. EG They got involved in another fracas. N SING WITH DET fraction /frækʃəⁿn/, fractions. A fraction is 1 a tiny amount or proportion of something. EG The door opened a fraction... My new job pays just that fraction more... For a fraction of a second I hesitated. 2 an exact division of a figure that is used in arithmetic. For example, ½ and ⅓ are both fractions of 1. EG The output voltage is a certain fraction of the input voltage. N PART ⇑ bit N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of fractional /frækʃəⁿnəl, -ʃənəⁿl/. If something is fractional, it is very small in size or degree. EG ...a fractional hesitation. ◊ fractionally. EG They're only fractionally different. ADJ QUALIT = minute ◊ ADV = marginally fractious /frækʃəⁿs/. If someone, especially a child, is fractious, they become upset or angry very quickly about small unimportant things, often because they are tired. EG She was fractious with other children. ▸ used of a person's behaviour. EG ...in a fractious mood. ADJ QUALIT = irritable ▸ = cantankerous fracture /frækʧə/, fractures, fracturing, fractured. 1 A fracture is a slight crack or break in something, especially a bone. EG ...a fracture of the left shoulder blade... ...small fractures in the rock. N COUNT

2 If something such as a bone fractures or is fractured, it gets a slight crack in it. EG ...serious injuries such as broken ribs, smashed kidneys, and fractured skulls... The vibration of the bells is said to fracture the towers that they hang in. V ERG

3 To fracture something means to harm or damage it; a fairly formal use. EG His reputation for integrity was permanently fractured. V + O = impair fragile /frædʒaɪl/. 1 If something is fragile, 1.1 it is easily spoilt or harmed, and therefore needs to be treated carefully. EG ...extremely fragile economies... A fragile peace had been reached. ◊ fragility /frəˈdʒɪlɪtiˡ/. EG ...the fragility of their communications links. 1.2 it is thin or delicate, and therefore easily broken or damaged. EG ...constructions built of fragile materials that simply fall apart after a short period of time. ◊ fragility. 1.3 very delicate or fine in appearance. EG ...the castle with its fragile turrets. 2 If you feel fragile, you feel weak, for example because you are ill or because you have drunk too much alcohol; an informal expression. EG You're looking a bit fragile this morning. ADJ QUALIT = delicate, tenuous ◊ N UNCOUNT ADJ QUALIT = flimsy ≠ tough ADJ QUALIT = dainty ADJ QUALIT = delicate fragment, fragments, fragmenting, fragmented. The word fragment is pronounced /frægməˈnt/ when it is a noun, and /frægmɛnt/ when it is a verb. 1 A fragment of something is a small piece or part of it. EG ...a small fragment of black, fossilized bone... I tried to scoop up the broken N COUNT : USU + of/from = bit, scrap fragments... This was only a fragment out of a long conversation with John.

2 If something fragments or is fragmented, it breaks or separates into small pieces. EG There was a threat that the entire body might fragment... Farms are constantly being fragmented into smaller and smaller holdings. ◊ fragmentation /frægmənteɪʃə⁰n/. EG This led to its fragmentation into eight independent parties. V:ERG = split up ◊ N UNCOUNT = split fragmentary /frægmə²ntə⁰ri¹/. Something that is fragmentary is made up of small or unconnected pieces. EG ...the fragmentary evidence for this history. ADJ QUALIT = sketchy fragmented /frægmentɪd/. Something that is fragmented consists of a lot of different things or parts which seem unconnected with each other. EG It's a book that is very fragmented and very complicated in its structure... ...the disordered, fragmented world of the sixties. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ bitty = disjointed fragrance /freɪgrəns/, fragrances. A fragrance is a pleasant or sweet smell. EG ...the deep, musky fragrance of the mangroves. N COUNT : USU + SUPP = scent fragrant /freɪgrənt/. Something that is fragrant has a pleasant, sweet smell. EG ...fragrant flowers... ...her mass of fragrant hair. ADJ QUALIT frail /freɪl/, frailer, frailest. 1 Someone who is frail is not very strong or healthy. EG ...a frail old man. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ weak = delicate

2 Something that is frail is easily broken or damaged. EG ...a frail structure. ADJ QUALIT = fragile frailty /freɪlti¹/, frailties. 1 If you refer to the frailties or frailty of people, you are referring to their weaknesses. EG ...our many vanities and frailties... ...human frailty. N COUNT : USU PL, OR N UNCOUNT = imperfection

2 Frailty is the condition of being weak in health. EG ...the advanced age and frailty of some of the inhabitants. N UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN of frame /freɪm/, frames, framing, framed. 1 A frame is 1.1 a hollow structure inside which you can fit something such as a window, door, or picture, or across which you can stretch something such as embroidery or canvas. Frames are usually rectangular and made of wood or metal. EG ...gold-painted picture frames... The name plate was screwed into the door frame immediately below the bell... She lifted the cushions from the bamboo chair frame and put them aside. ● See also cold frame. N COUNT ⇑ edge 1.2 a piece of equipment made of bars, for example one used by old or ill people to support themselves while they walk, or an arrangement of bars for children to climb and play on. N COUNT ⇑ apparatus 1.3 the general context which forms the background to something which you are discussing or considering. EG These stories are all set safely in a nice domestic frame. N COUNT + SUPP

2 The frame of a pair of glasses is the wire or plastic part which holds the lenses in place. EG They wore sunglasses with black frames. N COUNT

3 A frame of a cinema film is one of the many separate photographs of which it is made up. EG They ran the film through at about fifty thousand frames per second. N COUNT

4 Your frame is your body, considered as a complete structure. EG His big frame was gaunt and weak... A sharp tingling sensation ran through her whole frame. N COUNT : USU POSS + N IN SING

5 A frame building is built with a frame of wooden posts which are joined together by boards or filled with bricks. EG ...a cluster of old wooden frame houses. N BEFORE N

6 If you frame something such as a picture or photograph, you put it in a frame. EG Are you having your picture professionally framed? ◊ framed. EG There were framed snaps of family and friends on her desk. V + O : USU PASS ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

7 If something is framed by a particular thing, it is surrounded by it in a way that emphasizes it and its shape. EG He had a fine powerful face, framed in a mass of long grey hair... She stood framed in the doorway of the dining-room. V + O : USU PASS

8 If you frame something such as a set of rules, a plan, or a system, you create and develop it; a fairly formal use. EG The military plan will be framed tomorrow... What previous documents have they drawn upon in framing their constitution? V + O = formulate

9 If you frame something such as a document or statement in a particular kind of language, you express it in that way. EG Laws are invariably framed in tortuous jargon. V + O + A = couch

10 If someone frames you, they pretend that you have committed a crime by deliberately lying or inventing evidence. EG For goodness sake-don't you see? We've been framed! V + O ⇑ implicate = set up frame of mind, frames of mind. Your frame of mind is the mood that you are in, which causes you to have a particular attitude to something. EG I'm not in the right frame of mind for riddles, Tana. N COUNT : USU SING = humour frame of reference, frames of reference. A frame of reference is a particular set of beliefs, ideas, or observations on which you base your judgement of things. EG Their frame of reference was totally American. N COUNT ⇑ outlook frame-up, frame-ups. A frame-up is a situation where someone pretends that an innocent person has committed a crime by deliberately lying or inventing evidence; an informal word. EG The girl snorted that it was a frame-up and went off in search of the true culprit. N COUNT = set-up framework /freɪmwɜːk/, frameworks. A framework is 1 a structure that forms a support or frame for something. EG There are nine large panels set in a richly carved framework. 2 a particular set of rules, ideas, or beliefs which you use in order to deal with problems or to decide what to do. EG You can't make decisions without an ethical framework... They were able to absorb these changes within the framework of traditional institutions and ideas. N COUNT N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ structure = frame of reference franc /fræŋk/, francs. The franc is one of the different units of money of France, Switzerland, Belgium, and of some other countries where French is spoken. EG The franc plunged to its lowest rate against the dollar for a year... It cost twenty thousand Belgian francs. N COUNT : USU NUM + N, OR N SING : the + N ⇑ currency franchise /frænʧaɪz/, franchises. 1 Franchise is the right to vote in an election, especially one in which people elect a parliament. EG ...a policy of universal franchise. N UNCOUNT, OR N SING WITH DET

2 A franchise is an authority that is given by a company to someone, allowing them to sell its goods or services. EG ...a farm equipment franchise. N COUNT

frank /fræŋk/, franker, frankest; franks, franking, franked. 1 If someone is frank, they state or express things in an open, honest, and straightforward way. EG John was perfectly frank with him. ▸ used of the things that they say or their behaviour. EG ...a really frank discussion... She looked at him with frank eyes. ◊ frankness. EG He certainly seemed to be speaking with complete frankness. ADJ QUALIT ▸ = candid ◊ N UNCOUNT = sincerity

2 To frank a letter or parcel means to put a mark on it that shows that the proper charge has been paid or that no stamp is needed. V + O frankfurter /fræŋkfɜːtə/, frankfurters. A frankfurter is a type of smoked sausage. N COUNT

frankincense /fræŋkɪnsens/ is a substance that is burned as incense and is obtained from a tree. N UNCOUNT

frankly /fræŋkli¹/. 1 You use frankly when you are stating an opinion to emphasize that you mean what you are saying, even though the person you are speaking to may not like it. EG Frankly, this has all come as a bit of a shock... It is frankly absurd... Quite frankly, I am too miserable to care. ADV SEN = honestly

2 If you say or do something frankly, you say or do it in an open, honest, and straightforward way. EG He asked me to tell him frankly what I wished to do. ADV WITH VB = candidly frantic /fræntɪk/. 1 If you are frantic, you are behaving in a wild and desperate way because you are frightened or worried. EG We were frantic with worry. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG ...a frantic yell. ◊ frantically. EG ...frantically searching for David. ADJ QUALIT = distraught ◊ ADV WITH VB = desperately

2 If an activity is frantic, things are done hurriedly and in an energetic but disorganized way. EG ...frantic activity... ...after a frantic week of high-level discussions. ◊ frantically. ADJ QUALIT = hectic ◊ ADV WITH VB

fraternal /frə³tɜːnə⁰l/ means having strong links of friendship and support with another group of people; a rather formal word. EG Fraternal greetings were received from the Communist Party of the Soviet Union... ...towards a more fraternal and co-operative society. ADJ CLASSIF = brotherly fraternity /frə³tɜːnɪti¹/, fraternities. 1 Fraternity is the quality or activity of showing friendship and support to other people, who you think of as your brothers. EG ...liberty, equality, and fraternity. N UNCOUNT = brotherhood

2 A fraternity is 2.1 a group of people who have the same profession or the same interests. EG It's well-known amongst the computing fraternity... ...the elite of the banking fraternity... ...the boating fraternity. 2.2 in American English, a society of male students formed for social purposes.

N COUNT : USU MOD + N = crowd

N COUNT

fraternize /frætənaɪz/, fraternizes, fraternizing, fraternized; also spelled fraternise. 1 If you fraternize with someone, you associate with them in a friendly way. EG Ash fraternized with their sons and grandsons.

V OR V + A (with) : RECIP = hobnob, mix

2 Fraternizing with the enemy is the offence of meeting and talking with enemies of your country, for which soldiers can be punished. EG ...punished for being off base and fraternizing with an enemy civilian.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

fratricidal /frætrɪsaɪdə^{l}/. A fratricidal activity is one in which people kill members of their own society or social group. EG They do not want a repetition of fratricidal collectivization and forced industrialization.

ADJ CLASSIF

fratricide /frætrɪsaɪd/ is the crime of killing your brother.

N UNCOUNT

fraud /frɔːd/, frauds. 1 Fraud is the crime of gaining money or other benefits by deceit or trickery. EG His closest adviser is under indictment for fraud.

N UNCOUNT

2 A fraud is 2.1 something that deceives people in a way that is illegal or immoral. EG The official investigation into the election frauds hadn't even begun. 2.2 someone who pretends to be someone else or to have skills, abilities, or a status which they do not really possess. EG He said he painted a little, the old fraud... I feel a bit of a fraud whenever people assume we're legally married.

N COUNT = swindle

N COUNT = fake, impostor

fraudulence /frɔːdjə^{l}ləns/ is the quality of being fraudulent. EG He was aware of the fraudulence of what he was proposing.

N UNCOUNT

fraudulent /frɔːdjə^{l}lənt/. Something that is fraudulent is deliberately deceitful, dishonest, or untrue. EG We were facing a fraudulent murder charge... The promise Mrs Haze had made was a fraudulent one... The election was fraudulent.

ADJ CLASSIF = phoney

fraught /frɔːt/. 1 If a situation or action is fraught with problems or possibilities, it is filled with them. EG Even this modest aim was fraught with problems... Any further moves would be fraught with danger... ...stares that were fraught with meaning.

ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + with ⇑ full = charged

2 If someone is fraught, they are very worried or anxious. EG Everyone's rather tense and fraught. ▸ used of situations or actions. EG It was a fraught evening altogether.

ADJ QUALIT = uptight

▸ = trying fray /freɪ/, frays, fraying, frayed. 1 If something such as cloth or rope is frayed, or if it frays, its threads or strands become worn, loose, or broken. EG His shirts were frayed... ...the fraying edge of the carpet. ◊ frayed. EG ...frayed jeans.

V.ERG

◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 If your nerves fray or your temper frays, you feel irritable and nervous because of mental strain and anxiety. EG Tempers were fraying... Nerves get frayed.

V.ERG

3 The fray is an exciting or challenging activity, situation, or argument that you are involved in. EG I returned to the fray with renewed vigour... She publicly joined the fray because of her interest in theatre.

N SING : the + N = battle

frazzle /frælzə^{l}l/; an informal word. 1 If you are worn to a frazzle, you are exhausted and irritable because of worry, problems, or overwork.

PHR : USED AS C = knackered

2 If something is burned to a frazzle, it is burned because it has been cooked for too long.

PHR : USED AS AN A

frazzled /frælzə^{l}ld/; an informal word. 1 If you are frazzled, you are exhausted and often confused or irritable because of worry, problems, or overwork. EG ...a frazzled mother of five.

ADJ QUALIT = harassed

2 If something is frazzled, it is burned or dried up because it has been cooked for too long or because it has been in the sun for too long. EG I was frazzled and burned black by the sun.

ADJ QUALIT

freak /friːk/, freaks, freaking, freaked. 1 A freak is 1.1 someone who is considered unusual because of their behaviour or attitudes; used showing disapproval. EG A woman is considered a freak if she puts her career first... Ordinary people can become mentally ill; they are not freaks and many recover. 1.2 a person or thing that is physically abnormal in some way. EG ...hair-raising freaks, including a two-headed Indian... ...freak potatoes. 1.3 someone who is very enthusiastic about a particular thing; an informal use. EG He was a real cleanliness freak.

N COUNT

N COUNT = monster

N COUNT

N COUNT : MOD + N = fan, nut

2 A freak event or action is one that is very unusual and very unlikely to happen. EG My mother died in a freak accident, struck by lightning at a picnic... Through some freak mechanical flaw all my coins came tumbling back... ...a freak rainstorm.

N BEFORE N = bizarre, chance

3 If someone freaks, freaks out, or is freaked out, they are extremely surprised, upset, or angry, or they feel confused, for example because of drugs; an informal use. EG His roommate freaked out on LSD and burned their place down... He'd freaked a little and become violent... Well, I'm freaked out by what we're seeing.

V.ERG, OR PHRASAL VB V.ERG + ADV

freakish /friːkɪʃ/. If something is freakish, it is unusual or unnatural, and therefore remarkable. EG ...an isolated, freakish event... ...freakish-looking people. ◊ freakishly. EG It was a sunny day, freakishly warm for the time of year.

ADJ QUALIT = fantastic, strange

◊ ADV = abnormally

freaky /friːki^{l}/, freakier, freakiest. If someone or something is freaky, they are very unusual in some way; an informal word. EG The whole thing was freaky.

ADJ QUALIT = weird, peculiar freckle /frekə^{l}l/, freckles. Freckles are small light brown spots on someone's skin, especially on their face. EG She had red hair and freckles.

N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ spot

freckled /frekə^{l}ld/. If a part of your body is freckled, it has freckles on it. EG ...her freckled face.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ spotted

free /friː/, frees, freeing, freed; freer, freest. 1 Someone or something that is free is not restricted, controlled, or limited, for example by rules, customs, or other people. EG Within the EEC there is of course free movement of labour... ...free trade... We are free to regard such a view as mistaken... It's their free choice, they got married... Older children roamed free... Part of the disc was cut out to allow free passage backwards of the bolt.

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ controlled, limited, restricted

2 A free society, press, election, etc is not controlled by the government, with people having the right to express any opinion. EG We can't do that if we haven't got a free press and access to information... ...free speech... ...the richest and freest country in the world.

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ restricted

3 If you free someone or something, you stop them from being restricted or controlled by rules. EG They wanted to see the colonies freed.

V + O = liberate

4 Someone who is free is no longer a prisoner or a slave. EG One prisoner in seven had been set free... ...the slave who escapes and becomes a free man.

ADJ CLASSIF OR ADV WITH VB ≠ captive

5 If you free a prisoner or a slave, you let them go, take them out of prison, or give up your ownership of them. EG They were freed yesterday by their kidnappers unharmed.

V + O = release

6 If you free a person or thing of something that is unpleasant or restricting, you remove it from them. EG ...the attempt to free France of the Dictator... The man who refuses to decide is not thereby freed from responsibility.

V + O (NG/REFL) : USU + A ⇑ liberate

7 A person or thing that is free of something unpleasant or unwanted does not have it or is not affected by it. EG The area will be reasonably free of pollution by the year 2000... I was free of my previous paranoia... I have not found them freer from prejudice than an ordinary judge would be.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED + of/from ⇑ without

8 If you free someone or something, you cause them to become available for a task or purpose when they were previously unavailable. EG We all stand on two feet rather than four, freeing our hands... Local authorities can remove parental rights, freeing many more children for adoption... The child could attend a day nursery part time, freeing two days for the stressed mother.

V + O ⇑ release

9 If you have a free period of time or are free at a particular time, you are not working or occupied then. EG They don't have much free time... Are you free for lunch?... 'There's one evening you've got to keep free,' says Howard. 'Next Monday. Come to a party.'

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ available ≠ busy, occupied

10 Something such as a place or seat that is free is not being used or occupied by someone, or is not reserved for someone to use. EG Is that seat free?

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ available = vacant

11 A sum of money or type of goods that is free of tax or duty is one that you do not have to pay tax on. EG Such payments are free of Capital Gains Tax.

ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + of/from = exempt

12 If something is free, you can have it or use it without paying for it. EG The coffee was free... ...a free gift... Children can get into the museum free.

ADJ CLASSIF

13 for free. 13.1 If you do something or get something for free, you do it without being paid or get it without having to pay for it. EG I said I'd work for free... I got it for free. 13.2 You say you will tell someone something for free to emphasize how strongly you feel about it. EG And I'll tell you this for free; I'm having nothing more to do with it!

PHR : USED AS AN A = for nothing

PHR : USED AS AN A = for nothing

14 Something that is moved free is moved so that it is no longer attached to or trapped by something. EG It was stapled to the others and she tugged to get it free... I shook my jacket free and hurried off.

ADV WITH VB, OR ADJ CLASSIF : PRED ⇑ away = loose

15 If you free something, you remove or loosen it from the place in which it has been fixed or trapped. EG He freed his arms... He freed himself from the phone booth.

V + O ⇑ release = extricate

16 The free end of something long is the end that is not attached to anything. EG He clicked the free end of the dog's chain round a thick pole.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ loose

17 When someone is using one hand or arm to hold or move something, their other hand or arm is referred to as their free one. EG ...buttoning his overcoat with his free hand.

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ occupied

18 Someone who is free with something gives or uses a lot of it; sometimes used showing disapproval. EG They do not need unions at all: employers have been free with benefits to keep them out... She is too free with her tongue.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED + with ⇑ generous

19 If you make free with something that belongs to someone else, you use it a lot in a way that is considered unacceptable. EG She accused him of making free with her money.

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ exploit

20 A free translation roughly expresses the meaning of the original piece of writing but is not an exact translation.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ approximate

21 You say feel free to someone who has asked you if they may do something as an informal way of giving your permission. EG 'Is it OK if I take this one?'–'Yeah, feel free.'

PHR : ONLY IMPER = go ahead

22 See also freely, fancy-free, scot-free. ● free of charge: see charge. ● to give someone a free hand: see hand.

-free combines with nouns to form adjectives that mean not having, not involving, or not affected by the thing mentioned. EG Each submarine reported a trouble-free launch... ...error-free computer programs.

COMB : FORMS ADJS ⇑ without

free agent, free agents. Someone who is a free agent can do whatever they want to do because they are not responsible to or for anyone.

N COUNT ⇑ person

free-and-easy. Someone or something that is free-and-easy is casual, informal, and tolerant. EG ...a free-and-easy, give-and-take relationship.

ADJ QUALIT = easy-going freebie /friːbi¹/, freebies. A freebie is something that you are given without having to pay for it; an informal word.

N COUNT ⇑ gift

freedom /friːdəm/, freedoms. 1 Freedom is 1.1 the right to express any political or religious opinion and live or act without the government or another country interfering. EG In the world of today political freedom is still rare... ...freedom of speech... The people of this country are ripe for freedom... ...legislation restricting the freedoms of the working class.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = liberty

1.2 the state of being able or allowed to do what you want to do without being restricted by anything or anyone. EG They had been given complete freedom to photograph what they chose... Will you allow them freedom of choice or will you interfere?... Children are getting more freedom with every generation. 1.3 the state of not being a prisoner or a slave. EG ...twisting his body wildly in another break for freedom... Many slaves buy their freedom with what they save from farming. 1.4 the condition of being able to move about. EG The bar still had some freedom of vertical movement.

N UNCOUNT = liberty ≠ captivity

N UNCOUNT

2 Freedom from something unpleasant is the state of being without it or not being affected by it. EG ...freedom from hunger and starvation... ...forty years freedom from income tax.

N UNCOUNT : from ⇑ release

3 Someone who is given the freedom of a particular place is given the right to use it as if it were their own, or is given special privileges in it. EG They were given the freedom of the city after their Olympic success... You have the freedom of my house and gardens.

N SING : the + N + of freedom fighter, freedom fighters. A freedom fighter is a person who belongs to a group that is trying to overthrow the government of their country using violent methods; used showing approval. EG One man's rebel is another man's freedom fighter.

N COUNT

free enterprise is an economic system in which businesses compete for profit without much government control. EG I am a believer in free enterprise.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ capitalism

free fall. In parachuting, free fall is the part of the jump before the parachute opens.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ fall

free-floating things or people are able to move freely and are not controlled or directed by anything. EG ...free-floating satellites.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ unrestricted

Freefone /friːfəʊn/ is a system in Britain which allows you to phone particular organizations without paying for the call. You ask the operator for Freefone and give a special number. EG For enquiries about your telephone bill ask for Freefone 8904.

N UNCOUNT

free-for-all, free-for-alls. A free-for-all is 1 a disorganized fight or argument in which everybody joins in. EG The fight turned into a free-for-all. 2 a situation in which several people or groups are trying to get something for themselves and there are no controls on how they do it. EG This would result in a free-for-all on wage bargaining.

N COUNT = riot

N COUNT

free form. A free form work of art or piece of music has not been created according to a standard style or convention. EG ...a modern free form bronze of Icarus.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

freehand /friːhænd/. A freehand drawing is drawn without using instruments such as a ruler or a pair of compasses. ▸ used as an adverb. EG She drew it freehand.

ADJ CLASSIF ≠ aided ▸ ADV WITH VB

freehold /friːhəʊld/, freeholds. 1 If you have the freehold of a building or piece of land, it is yours for life and there are no conditions regarding your ownership: compare leasehold. EG The person with the freehold has absolute title to the land.

N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

2 If a building or piece of land is freehold, you can own it for life. EG ...freehold property.

ADJ CLASSIF

free house, free houses. A pub that is a free house is not owned by a particular brewery and can sell whatever beers it chooses to sell.

N COUNT ⇑ public house

free kick, free kicks. When there is a free kick in a game of football, the ball is given to a member of one side to kick without opposition because a member of the other side has broken a rule.

N COUNT ⇑ penalty

freelance /friːlɑːns/, freelances, freelancing, freelanced. 1 A freelance journalist, photographer, etc, or someone who does freelance work is not employed by one organization, but is paid for each piece of work they do by the organization they do it for. EG Eddie used to be a freelance photographer... 'Which publication are you representing?'–'I'm freelance.'... ...freelance writing. ▸ used as an adverb. EG Much of the work is taken on part-time or freelance by married women. ▸ used as a noun. EG 'Are you employed by Collins?'–'No, I'm a freelance.'

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ independent = self-employed ▸ ADV WITH VB ▸ N COUNT ⇑ worker

2 If you freelance, you do freelance work. EG You could always freelance.

V

freeloader /friːləʊdə/, freeloaders. A freeloader is someone who takes advantage of the generosity of other people to provide them with food, accommodation, etc; used mainly in American English.

N COUNT = sponger

free love is the practice of having sexual relationships without marrying, often several relationships at the same time; an old-fashioned expression.

N UNCOUNT = permissiveness freely /friːli¹/. 1 Freely means in large quantities or often, especially without restraint. EG He's a bachelor. Lives alone. Spends fairly freely... ...perspiring freely... The argument was freely used that to do so would only diminish confidence.

ADV WITH VB = liberally

2 Someone or something that can move or act freely is not restricted, controlled, or limited by anything or anyone. EG We were allowed to mix freely with the villagers... He couldn't move his shoulders freely when he put it on... British goods were allowed to move freely from one Indian state to another.

ADV WITH VB

3 If you can talk freely, you can talk without needing to be careful about what you say. EG We are all comrades here and I may talk freely.

ADV WITH VB = frankly ≠ cautiously

4 Something that is freely available can easily be obtained, especially because there is a lot of it about. EG These drugs are freely available in most cities.

ADV + ADJ = readily

5 Something that is given or done freely is given or done willingly. EG One cent bled from the master was worth a million given freely by anyone else. ADV WITH VB ≠ grudgingly freeman /friːmᵊn/, freemen. Someone who is a freeman of a particular city has been given the freedom of that city as a special honour. N COUNT : IF ; PREP THEN of ⇑ person

Freemason /friːmeɪsᵊn/, Freemasons. A Freemason is a member of a large secret society whose members promise to help each other and use a system of secret signs to recognize other members. N COUNT = mason freemasonry /friːmeɪsᵊnriˡ/. 1 Freemasonry is the natural friendly feeling that exists between people who are of the same kind. EG A happy freemasonry exists between expense account fiddlers. 2 Freemasonry. Freemasonry is the organization of the Freemasons and their beliefs and practices. N UNCOUNT ⇑ understanding free pardon, free pardons. If someone who has been found guilty of a crime is given a free pardon, they are allowed to go free because new evidence shows that they did not commit that crime. N COUNT free pass, free passes. A free pass is an official document that allows a person to travel or to enter a particular building without having to pay. N COUNT ⇑ permit free port, free ports. A free port is a port or airport where goods can be brought in from foreign countries without payment of duty if they are going to be exported again. N COUNT

Freepost /friːpəʊst/ is a system in Britain by which an organization pays the postage when someone writes to them. 'Freepost' is written on the envelope as part of the address. EG Return it to: Lloyds Bank PLC, FREEPOST, Birmingham. N UNCOUNT freer /friːə/ is the comparative of free.

free-range means relating to a system of keeping hens in which they can move and feed freely on an area of open ground. EG ...free-range eggs. ADJ CLASSIF freesia /friːzɪə/, freesias. A freesia is a plant with fragrant yellow, pink, white, or purple tubular flowers. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ flower free spirit, free spirits. Someone who is a free spirit is independent and lives as he or she wants to live rather than in a conventional way; used showing approval. N COUNT : USU USED AS C ⇑ person = maverick freest /friːɪˡst/ is the superlative of free.

free-standing. A free-standing piece of furniture or other object is not fixed to anything or stands on its own away from other things. EG ...a free-standing bath. ADJ CLASSIF ≠ fixed freestyle /friːstaɪl/. 1 Freestyle is used to describe sports competitions, especially in swimming, wrestling, and skiing, in which competitors can use any style or method that they like when they take part. EG She won the 100 metres freestyle. N SING WITH DET, OR N BEFORE N

2 Freestyle is a way of swimming in which you lie on your stomach, kick your legs, and swing one arm forward over your head and then the other. EG He began doing laps in an easy freestyle. N UNCOUNT = crawl freethinker /friːθɪŋkə/, freethinkers. A freethinker is someone who works out their own ideas rather than accepting generally accepted views. N COUNT ⇑ independent freeway /friːweɪ/, freeways. In America, a freeway is a road which has several lanes and controlled places where vehicles join it, so that people can travel quickly. EG ...driving on a California freeway. N COUNT freewheel /friːwiːl/, freewheels, freewheeling, freewheeled. If you freewheel, you travel, usually downhill, on a bicycle without using the pedals, or in a vehicle without using the the engine. V ⇑ move = coast freewheeling /friːwiːlɪŋ/; also spelled with a hyphen. A freewheeling person behaves in a casual way without feeling restricted by rules or accepted ways of doing things. EG ...all the trappings one associates with free-wheeling urban youth... ...the versatility of his poetic, freewheeling style. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ unrestricted = free-and-easy free will. 1 If you believe in free will, you believe that people have a choice in what they do and that their actions have not been decided in advance by God or Fate. EG ...the notions of predestination and free will. N UNCOUNT

2 If you do something of your own free will, you do it by choice and not because you are forced to do it. EG He has come back of his own free will. PHR : USED AS AN A = voluntarily freeze /friːz/ freezes, freezing, froze, frozen. 1 If a liquid freezes or something freezes it, it becomes solid because of low temperatures. EG Antifreeze prevents the water in the radiator from freezing overnight and cracking the cylinder... The pond usually freezes in the winter. V.ERG ⇑ solidify

2 If you freeze something such as food, you preserve it by storing it at a temperature below freezing point. EG You can profit by buying and freezing local produce when plentiful... Bakery freezes extremely well. ● See also deep freeze. V.ERG : IF V THEN USU + A

3 If a substance such as earth freezes or something freezes it, it becomes hard because low temperatures have caused the moisture in it to freeze V.ERG ⇑ harden

4 If something such as a pipe or machine freezes or something freezes it, it becomes blocked or stiff with ice or frozen liquid. EG No home can be comfortable if pipes are frozen or burst. V.ERG = ice over

5 If you say that it will freeze, you are saying that the weather will become so cold that the temperature will fall below freezing point. EG I think it'll freeze tonight. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the forecasting of storms, freezes, droughts, smog. V : it + AUX + V = ice over ▸ N COUNT

6 If you freeze, you become unpleasantly cold. EG So he opens the window and she freezes. V

7 If you freeze when you are moving, you suddenly stop and become completely still and quiet. EG A soft tap at the front door broke the glass. She froze... Harsh flashlight froze Delaney. V.ERG = halt ≠ move

8 If you freeze a film, you stop it, for example because you want to look at an individual frame in it. V + O

9 To freeze something such as wages, prices, or numbers means to state officially that they will not be allowed to increase for a fixed period of time. EG Various attempts to control or freeze wages have failed... The powers could indicate their willingness to move towards disarmament by immediately freezing their atomic armaments at current levels. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a proposed 30 month pay freeze... ...a freeze in the nuclear arms race. V + O ⇑ control = fix ▸ N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ control

10 If you freeze something such as a bank account, fund, or property, you obtain a legal order which states that it cannot be used or sold for a particular period of time. EG These associations have been hit hard by the freezing of their funds and the imprisoning of several leaders. V + O ⇑ stop

11 If a process or way of life freezes or is frozen by something, it seems to stop developing and does not change. V.ERG : USU PASS = set, stick

12 ● See also freezing, frozen.

freeze out. If you freeze someone out of an activity or situation, you prevent them from being involved in it by creating difficulties or by being unfriendly. EG Producers try to freeze out parasitic middle men. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ exclude = force out freeze over. If something freezes over or if it is frozen over, it becomes covered with a layer of ice or other frozen substance. EG The lakes were frozen over last winter. PHRASAL VB : V.ERG + ADV, USU PASS ⇑ freeze = ice over freeze up. If something freezes up or if it is frozen up, it becomes completely covered or blocked with ice. EG It was so cold last winter that even the river froze up... The lock has frozen up. ● See also freeze-up. PHRASAL VB : V.ERG + ADV, USU PASS = ice up freeze-dried food has been preserved by a process of rapid freezing and drying. ADJ CLASSIF freeze-frame, freeze-frames. 1 A freeze-frame from a film is an individual picture from it, produced by stopping the film at that point. EG ...a freeze-frame of Finney reaching out to Keaton. N COUNT ⇑ photograph = still

2 The freeze-frame on a video is a device that allows you to stop the film, for example to look at an individual picture. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ facility freezer /friːzə/, freezers. A freezer is a large container like a fridge in which you can store food for long periods of time since the temperature inside is kept below freezing point. N COUNT ⇑ appliance = deep freeze freeze-up, freeze-ups. When a freeze-up occurs, ice completely covers or blocks something such as a pipe, machine, or river. EG We kept the water moving enough to prevent a complete freeze-up. N COUNT ⇑ blockade freezing /friːzɪŋ/. 1 If something is freezing, it is very cold indeed. EG It's freezing outside... ...a freezing wind... ...sleeping out of doors in the freezing cold... The water was black and freezing. ADJ CLASSIF = icy, arctic

2 If you say that you are freezing, you mean that you feel unpleasantly cold. EG Let's get out of here. I'm freezing. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED = frozen

3 Freezing also means freezing point. EG The air temperature was now well below freezing. N UNCOUNT freezing point, freezing points; also spelled with a hyphen. 1 Freezing point is 0° Celsius, the temperature at which water freezes; often used when talking about the weather. EG The temperature was well above freezing point. N UNCOUNT = freezing

2 The freezing point of a particular substance is the temperature at which it freezes. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of freight /freɪt/, freights, freighting, freighted. 1 Freight is goods that are transported by ships, aeroplanes, or trains. EG Eight thousand tons of freight were being landed each day... He worked as a freight handler on the railroads. N UNCOUNT = cargo

2 If something is sent freight, it is sent as part of a larger load, so that the cost of transporting it is less. EG I sent an expensive tape recorder on ahead, air freight. ADV AFTER VB

3 When goods are freighted, they are transported in large quantities over a long distance. EG Much of the fish sold in England is freighted overland from Scotland. V + O : USU PASS = send freight car, freight cars. A freight car is a wagon on a train in which goods are transported; used in American English. N COUNT freighter /freɪtə/, freighters. A freighter is a large ship or aeroplane that is designed for carrying freight. N COUNT freight train, freight trains. A freight train is a train on which goods are transported; used in American English. N COUNT

French /frentʃ/. 1 French means belonging or relating to France, its people, or their language. ADJ CLASSIF

2 French is the language that is spoken by people who live in France and in parts of some other countries, including Belgium, Canada, and Switzerland. N UNCOUNT

3 The French are the people who live in France. N PLURAL

French bean, French beans. French beans are long, rounded green beans which you cook and eat as a vegetable. N COUNT : USU PL = haricot bean

French bread is bread which is baked in long, thin, crusty loaves. N UNCOUNT

French Canadian, French Canadians. 1 A French Canadian is a Canadian whose native language is French. N COUNT

2 French-Canadian means belonging or relating to people who come from the part of Canada where French is spoken. ADJ CLASSIF

French door, French doors. French doors are the same as French windows. N COUNT : USU PL

French dressing is a thin sauce made of oil, vinegar, and spices which you put on salad. N UNCOUNT = vinaigrette

French fries are long, thin pieces of potato fried in oil or fat. EG 'Chicken?' I said encouragingly. 'Perhaps some French fries?' N PLURAL = chips

French horn, French horns. A French horn is a musical instrument which consists of a long metal tube wound round in a circle with a funnel at one end. You play it by blowing down the tube and moving valves in order to obtain different notes. N COUNT

French loaf, French loaves. A French loaf is a long, thin loaf of bread. N COUNT

Frenchman /frentʃmən/, Frenchmen. A Frenchman is a man who comes from France. N COUNT

French polish is a type of varnish which is painted onto wood so that the wood has a hard, shiny surface. N UNCOUNT

French window, French windows. French windows are a pair of glass doors which you go through into a garden or onto a balcony. N COUNT : USU PL, SING = PL = French door

Frenchwoman /frentʃwʊmən/, Frenchwomen. A Frenchwoman is a woman who comes from France. N COUNT

frenetic /frɪnetɪk/. You describe activities as frenetic when they are lively, energetic, and rather wild. EG It generated much excitement and frenetic activity. ◊ frenetically. EG They continued to dance frenetically. ADJ QUALIT = frantic, feverish ◊ ADV WITH VB frenzied /frenzɪd/. Frenzied activities or actions are wild, excited, and uncontrolled. EG Will this push him too far and lead to a frenzied attack?... She was climbing now with a sort of frenzied haste. ▸ used of people. EG ...a frenzied mob of over a thousand students. ◊ frenziedly. EG His heart was beating frenziedly. ADJ QUALIT = demented, desperate ▸ = hysterical ◊ ADV WITH VB = frantically frenzy /frenzi/, frenzies. Frenzy or a frenzy is 1 violent or wild behaviour that results from losing control of your feelings. EG They were whipping up nationalist frenzy among the excitable crowds... There was a a squeal of pain, and the child hopped round in a frenzy. 2 great excitement about something that is shown in the way that you behave. EG They were singing in a frenzy of joy... ...a frenzy of kissing and champagne cork popping. N COUNT : USU SING, OR N UNCOUNT frequency /friːkwənsi/, frequencies. 1 Frequency is 1.1 the rate at which something happens, for example the number of times it happens in a particular period of time. EG Serious disasters appear to be increasing in frequency... This idea crops up with increasing frequency in the writings of scientists... The most common British town birds, in order of frequency are: (1) the sparrow; (2) the pigeon. 1.2 the fact that something happens often. EG We are concerned at the high incidence of disease and the frequency of death in the district. N UNCOUNT

2 The frequency of a sound wave or a radio wave is the rate at which it vibrates. If a sound wave is at a high frequency, you hear it as a high-pitched noise. If it is at a low frequency, you hear it as a low-pitched noise; a technical term. EG Most of the sounds we hear have frequencies of around several hundred vibrations a second... The wave itself was of very low frequency. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT frequent, frequents, frequenting, frequented. The word frequent is pronounced /friːkwənt/ when it is an adjective, and /frɪkwent/ when it is a verb. 1 If something is frequent, it often happens or you often see it. EG George's absences were frequent... The purchase of a new car is a relatively frequent occurrence in the life of the average American... Etta was a frequent visitor there... ...some of the more frequent wild flowers of Britain. ADJ QUALIT = common

2 If you frequent a particular place, you often go there and spend time there; a fairly formal use. EG Jo liked to frequent the bars... She had a fashionable house which was frequented by all sorts of grand people. V + O = visit frequently /friːkwəntli/. If something happens or occurs frequently, it happens or occurs often. EG We went out frequently... The baby was fed as frequently as possible... The promises were made less and less frequently. ADV WITH VB

fresco /freskəʊ/, frescoes. A fresco is a picture that is painted on a plastered wall when the plaster is still wet. N COUNT

fresh /freʃ/, fresher, freshest. 1 Fresh is used to describe a further thing or a further amount of something, especially when it replaces or is added to the original one, or when it is being considered instead of the original one. EG He poured himself a fresh drink... It took only seconds to extract the spent cartridge and insert a fresh one... Rose had given him fresh instructions... You and I could make a fresh start... There is fresh fighting in the border region. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ new

2 Something that is fresh has been made, done, obtained, or experienced recently, and has not yet changed in any way or been disturbed. EG I had seen the sharp fresh footprints in the snow... Some of the scars were fresh... Memories of three Indian-Pakistani wars are fresh in both countries. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ recent

3 If food is fresh, 3.1 it has been picked, gathered, or made recently, and has not gone bad or stale. EG I love the smell of fresh bread. 3.2 it is raw and has not been preserved, for example by freezing or drying. EG Fruits and vegetables can be fresh, canned, frozen, or dried. ADJ QUALIT ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ untreated

4 If you describe something as fresh, you mean that 4.1 it is different from anything else in a new, exciting, or admirable way; used showing approval. EG She treats the subject in a very fresh and exciting way... He has a fresh approach. ◊ freshness. EG This gives the early part of the novel freshness and charm. 4.2 it has a pleasant, bright appearance and looks as if it has been recently made, cleaned, or cared for; used showing approval. EG ...fresh white paint. ◊ freshness. ADJ QUALIT = original, novel ≠ hackneyed ◊ N UNCOUNT = originality ADJ QUALIT = clean ◊ N UNCOUNT

5 If something smells, tastes, or feels fresh, it is clean, cool, or refreshing; used showing approval. EG The air is cool and fresh... A piece of grated lemon peel gives a fresh flavour to almost anything. ◊ freshness. ADJ QUALIT = tangy ◊ N UNCOUNT

6 Fresh water is water that is not salty, especially water that you find in streams, springs, reservoirs, etc. EG There's not much fresh water on the island. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ pure

7 If you say that the weather is fresh, you mean that ADJ QUALIT

it is fairly cold and windy. EG It's a bit fresh this morning, isn't it?... ...a fresh spring morning. ⇑ cool = nippy

8 If you say that the wind is fresh, you mean that it is fairly strong. ADJ QUALIT = brisk

9 Fresh colours are clear, bright, and fairly light; used showing approval. EG Her dress was a fresh pink. ADJ QUALIT ATTRIB

10 If someone has a fresh face or complexion, their skin is pink and healthy; used showing approval. ADJ QUALIT ATTRIB

11 If you feel fresh, you feel full of energy and enthusiasm, and so ready to deal with things. EG Try to be as fresh as possible when you tackle top-priority jobs. ◊ freshness. ADJ QUALIT = alert, rested ≠ tired ◊ N UNCOUNT

12 If someone is fresh with you, they behave or speak in a way that is too friendly and therefore disrespectful; an informal expression, used showing disapproval. ADJ QUALIT = forward

13 If you are fresh from a particular place or experience, you have just come from that place or you have just had that experience. EG He had the manner of one fresh from a dangerous safari... You know what these fabrics smell like when they come fresh off the mills. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + PREP = straight

14 If you are fresh out of something, you have just run out of it and you have none left; an informal expression. EG We're fresh out of chilis. PHR + NG : USED AS C

15 If someone or something looks or feels as fresh as a daisy, they look or feel very fresh, lively, or smart. EG She looked as fresh as a daisy in her crisp white frock. PHR : USED AS C

fresh- is added to past participles in order to form adjectives which describe something as having been recently made or done. EG ...a vase of fresh-cut flowers... ...fresh-frozen orange juice. PREFIX fresh air is the air outside; used especially when this is considered to be good for you. EG Get out in the fresh air... What you need is plenty of sun and fresh air. N UNCOUNT, OR N SING : the + N freshen /frɛʃᵊn/, freshens, freshening, freshened. 1 If you freshen something, you make it clean and pleasant in appearance or smell. EG The brief rainstorm about midnight had done little to freshen the air. V + O ⇑ improve = clear

2 If the wind freshens, it increases in strength and becomes fairly strong. V freshen up. 1 If you freshen up or freshen yourself up, you wash your hands and face and make yourself look neat and tidy. EG Sarah and Barry returned to their hotel to freshen up. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + O (REFL) + ADV

2 If you freshen something up, you make it clean and pleasant in appearance or smell. EG New wallpaper and curtains will freshen up the place. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = smarten up fresher /frɛʃə/, freshers. A fresher is a student at a university or college who has just started his or her first year there; an informal word in British English. EG ...three freshers of Edinburgh University. N COUNT = freshman freshly /frɛʃli¹/. If something is freshly made or done, it has been recently made or done. EG ...freshly squeezed orange juice... The body was lowered into the freshly dug hole. ADV WITH VB (PAST PART) = newly freshman /frɛʃmə³n/, freshmen. A freshman is a student who is in his or her first year at university or college; used in American English. EG I searched the crowds of freshmen for others who were black... He had finished his freshman year of science. N COUNT = fresher freshwater /frɛʃwɔːtə/. Freshwater means living in or containing water that is not salty, usually in contrast to sea water. EG ...freshwater prawns... ...freshwater pools. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ salt water fret /frɛt/, frets, fretting, fretted. 1 When someone frets or is fretting, they are worried or unhappy about something. EG He was constantly fretting about their financial situation... Don't fret, there's plenty more where that came from. V : IF + PREP THEN about/over ⇑ worry

2 The frets on a stringed instrument such as a guitar are the metal ridges across its neck that show you where to put your fingers on the strings to make different notes. N COUNT ⇑ mark

3 See also fretted.

fretful /frɛtful/. If someone is fretful, they complain a lot, because they are unhappy about something. EG ...a restless, fretful baby. ▸ used of behaviour. EG ...the baby's fretful crying... 'I want to go home,' said the old lady in a fretful tone. ◊ fretfully. ADJ QUALIT = peevish ◊ ADV WITH VB fretted /frɛtɪᵈd/. A fretted wooden or stone object has been decorated by cutting bits out of it. EG ...the fretted roof of the station arch. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

fretwork /frɛtwɜːk/ is wood or metal that has been decorated by cutting bits of it out to make a pattern. EG ...fretwork bookcases. N UNCOUNT, OR N BEFORE N ⇑ decoration

Freudian /frɔɪdɪən/ means relating to the ideas and methods of the psychiatrist Freud, especially to his ideas about people's subconscious sexual feelings. EG ...the Freudian concept of infant sexuality. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

Freudian slip, Freudian slips. If someone accidentally says something that indicates what their subconscious feelings are, especially their sexual feelings, this is referred to as a Freudian slip. N COUNT ⇑ mistake

Fri. is an abbreviation for 'Friday'.

friable /fraɪəbəᵊl/. Friable soil is easily broken up rather than being hard; a formal or technical word. ADJ CLASSIF = crumbly friar /fraɪə/, friars. A friar is a member of one of several Catholic religious orders. In the Middle Ages, friars used to beg for their food and travel from place to place preaching about Christianity. N COUNT fricassee /frɪkəsiˈ/, fricassees. A fricassee consists of pieces of meat, especially chicken or veal, cooked and served in a white sauce. EG ...chicken fricassee. N COUNT : UNCOUNT USU SUPP ⇑ meal friction /frɪkʃəᵊn/, frictions. 1 Friction is 1.1 the force that makes it difficult for an object to slide over something. EG The overall efficiency of the machine is higher because there is less friction. 1.2 the rubbing of an object against something. EG ...the friction of the toes against the front of the running shoe. N UNCOUNT ⇑ resistance N UNCOUNT = chafing

2 Friction is also disagreement and arguments between people. EG These decisions can cause friction... When Joan returned to work, the friction between them increased... Family frictions can interfere with a child's schoolwork. N UNCOUNT : COUNT = conflict

Friday /fraɪdɪ/, Fridays. Friday is one of the seven days of the week. It is the day after Thursday and before Saturday. EG I wasn't able to be present on Friday... You'll be away next Friday won't you, Alan? ● See also girl Friday, Good Friday. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT fridge /frɪdʒ/, fridges. A fridge is a large metal container which is kept cool, usually by electricity, so that food that is put in it stays fresh. EG He put the milk back in the fridge. N COUNT = refrigerator friend /frɛnd/, friends. 1 A friend is someone who you know well and like, but who is not related to you. EG He was my best friend at Oxford... A close friend told me about it... She later married Shaw's great friend Harley Granville-Barker... ...an engineer friend of mine... ...an old friend of the family... Isabel and I are just good friends. N COUNT ⇑ acquaintance

2 If you are friends with someone, you are their friend and they are yours. EG I used to be friends with the people who ran the local shop... We became great friends... Stay friends with Parry. ● If two people who have quarrelled want to be friends, they want to forgive each other and behave in a friendly way to each other. EG Let's forget our differences and be friends. N PLURAL : USED AS C, IF + PREP THEN with ● PHR OR PHR + A (with) : RECIP, VB INFLECTS = make up

3 If you make friends with someone or make a friend of them you begin a friendship with them. EG She made friends with Reg... He found it hard to make friends... If we're lucky, we make friends of them. PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN with/of

4 The friends of a country, a cause, or a famous politician are the people and organizations who help and support them. EG You have friends, you know, both in this country and in France... It is the cause all friends of Ireland should support. N PLURAL : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ supporter = ally

5 You also say that someone is a friend when they are on your side, for example in a war, and are therefore not dangerous to you. EG You can leave your arms out there, we're all friends here... I was among friends... Who goes there-friend or foe? N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of/to = ally ≠ enemy

6 The word friend is also used in the following expressions. 6.1 People sometimes address other people as friend or as my friend, especially when they are speaking in a humorous way. EG 'Fear not, my friend,' said Groucho, 'it's only money.'... This is the truth I'm telling you, my friends. 6.2 You can refer to someone who your listeners know about as our friend or our old friend when you are speaking humorously or sarcastically. EG Everest presented a challenge to our friend Hilary... I had a feeling that it might be our old friends the CIA. 6.3 The expression my honourable friend is used by British Members of Parliament to refer to each other in Parliament. 6.4 The expression my learned friend is used by British VOC = comrade PHR : USED AS S OR O PHR : USED AS S OR O PHR : USED AS S OR O lawyers to refer to each other in law courts. 6.5 You can also refer to something that is very useful or familiar to you as your friend. EG Lots of the pictures are old friends to me... Use your old friend the microscope. N COUNT

7 A Friend is a Quaker. This term is preferred by Quakers themselves. N COUNT

friendless /frɛ́ndlɪ²s/. Someone who is friendless has no friends. EG ...a friendless stranger. ADJ CLASSIF = lonely friendly /frɛ́ndlɪ¹/, friendlier, friendliest; friendlies. 1 Someone who is friendly behaves in a pleasant, kind, warm way as if they are or would like to be your friend. EG The women had been friendly to Lyn... Malawians seemed to be the friendliest people in the world. ▸ used of behaviour. EG She smiled at him in a friendly way... He gave me a friendly pat on the shoulder. ◊ friendliness. EG The friendliness was gone from his voice. ADJ QUALIT = amiable ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If you are friendly with someone or have a friendly relationship with them, you are friends or behave to each other like friends. EG You need to be on friendly terms with him... Relations between them had not always been close or friendly... A salesman got friendly with him. ADJ QUALIT = chummy, matey

3 You say that people are friendly to someone when they support or encourage them. EG ...a big corporation very friendly to the President. ◊ friendliness. EG One of New England's great strengths is its friendliness to entrepreneurs. ADJ QUALIT + to ◊ N UNCOUNT + to

4 You describe a country, government, etc as friendly when it is on your side rather than being an enemy. EG ...neutral and friendly governments. ▸ used of things that belong to such a country or government. EG ...a friendly port. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = allied ≠ enemy, hostile

5 You describe places or objects as friendly when they cause you to feel comfortable and safe. EG ...a small vault lit by friendly lamps... ...the still, friendly waters of the lagoon. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ reassuring = welcoming

6 A friendly argument, fight, or sports match is one in which the people involved are amusing themselves rather than seriously trying to win. EG We had quite a few friendly arguments. ADJ QUALIT = amicable ≠ serious

7 A friendly is a sports match in which the players play in order to practise and have fun, without caring who wins; used in British English. EG They were called 'friendlies' but they were really tough matches. N COUNT

8 To get friendly with someone also means to start behaving towards them in a sexual way; an informal use. EG I didn't want to spoil a promising relationship by getting too friendly too soon. ADJ QUALIT : PRED ⇑ intimate = familiar friendly society, friendly societies. In Britain, a friendly society is an organization to which people regularly pay small amounts of money and which then gives them money when they retire or when they are ill. N COUNT friendship /frɛ́ndʃɪp/, friendships. 1 A friendship is a relationship between two or more friends. EG Their friendship was as close as ever it had been... ...the ability to form friendships... My friendship with her had taught me a great deal. ● If you strike up a friendship with someone, you and they start being friends. EG Alice and I struck up a friendship immediately. N COUNT ● PHR OR PHR + A (with) : RECIP, VB INFLECTS = make friends

2 Friendship is the relationship of being friends, or the feelings that friends have for each other. EG Friendship is based on shared interests... He underestimated the power of friendship. N UNCOUNT = affection

3 If you have someone's friendship, they are your friend. EG He lost Britten's friendship... The friendship of your boss is vital. N SING : WITH POSS = support

4 Friendship or a friendship is also a relationship between two countries in which they help and support each other. EG I have always defended our alliance and friendship with America... He was strenuous in his efforts to promote Anglo-German friendship. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ≠ hostility frieze /friːz/, friezes. A frieze is a decoration high up on the walls of a room or just under the roof of a building. It consists of a long strip of paper with a picture or pattern on it or a long panel of carving. N COUNT frig /frɪg/, frigs, frigging, frigged; a swear word. If someone says that you are frigging about or are frigging around, they mean that you are wasting time when you should be doing a task or job. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = mess around frigate /frɪgɪt/, frigates. A frigate is a fairly small naval ship that can move fast, especially one that is used for protecting other ships. N COUNT frigging /frɪgɪŋ/; a swear word. People use the swear word frigging before a noun when they are expressing their anger or annoyance about something. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = bloody fright /fraɪt/, frights. 1 Fright is a sudden feeling of fear, for example the fear that you feel when something surprises you unpleasantly or when you are very anxious or nervous about something. EG I heard Amy cry out in fright... He was paralysed with fright. ● If you take fright at something, you are suddenly frightened by it, and want to run away or to stop doing whatever you are doing. EG The horse had taken fright and bolted. ● See also stage fright. N UNCOUNT = terror ● PHR : VB INFLECTS = panic

2 A fright is an experience which makes someone suddenly feel afraid. EG She had given him a fright too, to judge from the way his mouth hung open... Because she had got a fright she sounded angry at first. ● If you get the fright of your life, you are suddenly very frightened by something. N COUNT : USU SING ● PHR : USED AS O

3 If you say that someone looks a fright, you mean that they look very strange or unattractive, for example because of the clothes that they are wearing; an informal use. EG I want to be presentably clothed in winter, instead of looking a fright. N COUNT : USU SING = sight, mess frighten /fraɪtə⁰n/, frightens, frightening, frightened. If something frightens you, it causes you to suddenly feel afraid, anxious, or nervous. EG The situation was beginning to frighten me... The thunder so frightened the horse that it galloped down the road. ● If something frightens the life out of you, frightens the wits out of you, or frightens you out of your wits, it causes you to feel suddenly afraid or gives you a very unpleasant surprise. EG The car was fitted with a very loud horn to frighten the wits out of people. V + O = scare ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ startle frighten away. 1 If you frighten away a person or animal or frighten them off, you make them frightened so that they run away and do not come any closer. EG He waved his torch to frighten away some animal, probably a hyena... We were waving our arms to frighten the donkeys off the premises. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = scare off

2 To frighten away or frighten off a person also means to make them nervous so that they decide not to become involved with a particular person or activity. EG I suppose you've been frightened off attempting any more partnerships. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ repel frighten into. If you frighten someone into something, you make them so frightened that they do something which they might not otherwise have done. EG 'Don't you dare,' he said, frightening her into silence. PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ force frighten out of. If you frighten someone out of something, you make them so frightened that they do not do something that they had intended to do. EG She refused to be frightened out of going. PHRASAL VB : V + O + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ intimidate frightened /fraɪtə⁰nd/. If you are frightened, 1 you are afraid because of something that has just happened or that you think may happen. EG The men led their frightened families to safety... They stared at him with frightened eyes... When you were a child, were you frightened of the dark? 2 you are nervous or anxious about something. EG I was frightened of making a fool of myself... I am frightened to look... They were frightened there would be another earthquake. ADJ QUALIT = scared ADJ QUALIT : PRED, USU + of/to-INF/REPORT CL = afraid frightening /fraɪtə⁰nɪŋ/. If something is frightening, it makes you feel afraid, anxious, or nervous. EG ...the most frightening sight he had ever seen... It is frightening to think what damage it would do. ◊ frighteningly. EG It was happening frighteningly fast. ADJ QUALIT = scary ◊ ADV = alarmingly frightful /fraɪtful/. 1 If you describe something as frightful, you are saying that it is very bad, serious, or unpleasant; an informal use. EG There's been a frightful mistake... It's a frightful poem... The smell was frightful. ADJ QUALIT = dreadful

2 Frightful is also used in informal English to emphasize what you are saying. EG It seems a frightful nuisance... Not a frightful lot has happened. ◊ frightfully. EG I'm frightfully sorry... He's not frightfully popular. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ great = awful ◊ ADV = awfully frigid /frɪdʒɪd/. 1 If a woman is frigid, she finds it difficult to become sexually aroused. EG I was depressed, withdrawn and sexually frigid. ◊ frigidity ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unresponsive ◊ N UNCOUNT

/frɪdʒɪdɪti[1]/. EG The toughest problem to treat is frigidity.

2 A frigid place is very cold indeed. EG We moved out into the frigid wilderness... They extended their hands into the frigid pool. ADJ QUALIT = icy

3 You also say that the atmosphere in a place is frigid when it seems formal and unfriendly. EG There was a frigid silence round the table. ◊ frigidity. EG The frigidity of the department unnerved her. ADJ QUALIT = icy ◊ N UNCOUNT

frill /frɪl/, frills. 1 A frill is 1.1 a long narrow strip of fabric with many folds in it which is sewn along the edge of something as a decoration, for example along the edge of a cushion or round the neckline of a blouse. 1.2 a strip of paper that has lots of small slits cut along one edge and that is used to decorate something. N COUNT

2 The frills are the parts of something that are not essential, but that are added to make it more interesting, pleasant, comfortable, or decorative. EG The car is a basic model with no frills such as a cassette player or sunshine roof. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ addition frilled /frɪld/. If a piece of clothing, cushion, curtain, etc is frilled, it is decorated with a frill or frills. EG She wore a white frilled blouse and a velvet jacket. ADJ CLASSIF

frilly /frɪli[1]/. If a piece of clothing, cushion, curtain, etc is frilly, it has a lot of frills on it. EG ...a frilly nightdress. ADJ QUALIT fringe /frɪndʒ/, fringes. 1 A fringe is 1.1 a short border of hair which is cut so that it hangs over your forehead. 1.2 a decoration used on clothes, curtains, lampshades, etc, which consists of a strip of fabric with a lot of hanging threads that are sometimes knotted or twisted together. N COUNT

2 The fringe of a place is the outside edge of it, or the part that is farthest from its centre. EG Enemy helicopters were flying around the fringes of the zone... They stopped on the fringe of the crowd. N COUNT : SING = PL = perimeter

3 The fringes of an activity are its minor and less important parts, rather than its main and central part. EG We have been living too long on the bloodless fringes of the action... ...two agents on the fringes of espionage activities. N COUNT : USU PL + SUPP = periphery ≠ mainstream

4 A fringe is also 4.1 a group of people who belong to a political party but who do not share all the ideas of the party. EG He belongs to the radical fringe of the Labour Party. 4.2 actors who perform plays which are very unusual or unconventional. EG Julie's work in fringe theatre has led her into some peculiar situations. ● See also lunatic fringe. N SING WITH DET : USU + SUPP = avant-garde ≠ mainstream fringe benefit, fringe benefits. Fringe benefits are extra things that you get from a particular job, for example a car, a house, or free insurance which you are given in addition to your salary. N COUNT : USU PL = perk fringed /frɪnd[ə]dʒd/. 1 If clothes, curtains, or lampshades are fringed, they are decorated with a fringe. ADJ CLASSIF

2 If a place or object is fringed with something, that thing forms a border around it or is situated along its edges. EG Her eyes were fringed with unusually long lashes... The square was floodlit at night and fringed by guest houses. ADJ CLASSIF + with/by ⇑ edge frippery /frɪpəri[1]/, fripperies. Objects are referred to as frippery or fripperies when they are cheap, vulgar, and do not serve any useful purpose; used showing disapproval. EG ...the mass manufacture of fripperies and novelties of all kinds... ...a case full of frippery. N UNCOUNT/N PLURAL

Frisbee /frɪzbi[1]/, Frisbees. Frisbee is a trademark for a light plastic disc that one person throws to another as part of a game. N COUNT

frisk /frɪsk/, frisks, frisking, frisked. 1 If someone frisks you, they search you with their hands in order to see if you have a weapon, drugs, or something else hidden in your clothes; an informal use. EG The 200-strong audience was frisked on arrival. ▸ used as a noun. EG He gave Michael a thorough frisk for a weapon. V + O ⇑ inspect ▸ N COUNT ⇑ inspection

2 When animals or people frisk, they move or jump and run about in a happy, energetic way. EG The children ran about the lawn frisking like lambs. V = frolic frisky /frɪski[1]/, friskier, friskiest. A frisky animal or person is energetic and high-spirited, and wants to have fun. EG ...frisky young ponies... I felt frisky, as if I might break into a dance. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lively frisson /frɪsɒn/, frissons. A frisson is a short, sudden feeling of excitement or fear. EG ...a little frisson of excitement. N COUNT : USU + SUPP = thrill fritter /frɪtə/, fritters, frittering, frittered. A fritter is a slice of fruit, vegetable, or other food which is dipped in batter and then fried. EG ...corn fritters. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

fritter away. If you fritter away something such as time or money, you waste it by spending it in a foolish way, a little bit at a time. EG It is all too easy to fritter away the best hours of the day shopping. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = squander frivolity /frɪvɒlɪti[1]/, frivolities. 1 Frivolity is activities that are amusing and fairly silly, rather than serious and sensible. EG There were occasional outbreaks of frivolity... Todd shunned such frivolity. N UNCOUNT ⇑ fun = gaiety

2 Frivolities are things or activities which are amusing and fairly silly, rather than useful or serious. EG No one could spare the time for such frivolities. N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ foolishness frivolous /frɪvələs/. 1 If someone is frivolous or if their behaviour is frivolous, they behave in a silly or light-hearted way, rather than being serious and sensible; often used showing disapproval. EG He laughed and became frivolous and made light of it all... This is a frivolous way of attacking the problem. ADJ QUALIT = flippant ≠ sensible

2 Frivolous objects and activities are amusing and fairly silly, rather than useful or serious. EG I spend a lot of my salary on frivolous things. ADJ QUALIT ≠ serious, important frizz /frɪz/, frizzes, frizzing, frizzed. 1 If you frizz your hair, you brush or perm it so that it has a lot of stiff, wiry curls. ◊ frizzed. EG Her hair is frizzed and pretty. V + O ⇑ style ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 A frizz of hair is hair that has a lot of stiff, wiry curls. N COUNT ⇑ mass frizzle /frɪzə[0]l/, frizzles, frizzling, frizzled. If something frizzles or if it is frizzled, it becomes burned and crisp or hard, because of very strong heat. EG The gas dried up her hair and frizzled the ends. ◊ frizzled. EG ...frizzled bacon. V ERG = scorch ◊ ADJ CLASSIF frizzy /frɪzi[1]/, frizzier, frizziest. Frizzy hair is very thickly and stiffly curled. EG He was broad and muscled, with frizzy red hair. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ curly fro /frəʊ/. to and fro: see to.

frock /frɒk/, frocks. A frock is a woman's or girl's dress; an old-fashioned word. N COUNT frock coat, frock coats. A frock coat is a long coat that was worn by men in the 19th century. N COUNT frog /frɒg/, frogs. 1 A frog is a small creature with smooth skin, big eyes, and long back legs which it uses for jumping. Many frogs live near water. N COUNT ⇑ amphibian

2 A Frog is a French person; an informal and offensive word. N COUNT

3 If you have a frog in your throat, you cannot speak properly because your throat is partly blocked by phlegm; an informal expression. PHR frogging /frɒgɪŋ/, froggings. The frogging on the front of a coat or uniform is a series of decorative fastenings that are usually made out of braid. N UNCOUNT/COUNT ⇑ decoration frogman /frɒgmə[ʒ]n/, frogmen. A frogman is someone who works underwater, especially in order to mend or search for something. Frogmen wear special rubber suits and shoes, and carry equipment to help them to breathe underwater. N COUNT = diver frog-march, frog-marches, frog-marching, frog-marched. If you are frog-marched somewhere, you are taken there by force, with one person holding each of your arms so that you are almost carried there. EG I was frog-marched down to the police station. V + O : USU + A = drag frogspawn /frɒgspɔːn/ is a soft, jelly-like substance which contains the eggs of a frog. N UNCOUNT fro-ing. See to-ing and fro-ing.

frolic /frɒlɪk/, frolics, frolicking, frolicked. 1 When people frolic, they play about or behave in a lively, happy, and carefree way. EG They dashed and frolicked about... We frolicked in the sun. V : USU + A = romp

2 Frolic or a frolic is lively, happy, and carefree behaviour. EG It was nothing but a frolic. N COUNT from /frəm/. 1 You use from when you say where something was made or originates, or where someone first lived. EG This water came from a spring... ...wisps of smoke from a small fire... She came from Ilford. PREP ⇑ out of

2 You use from when you mention the place that someone leaves in order to go somewhere else. EG They drove down from Leeds in the van... He had to flee to Tanzania. From Tanzania, Mr Otunnu went on to Oxford... We scrambled from our trucks and ran after them. PREP

3 You use from when you mention the organization PREP

where someone works or to which they belong. EG This is Mr Castle from the office... ...representatives from the Ancient Monuments board.

4 If you are away from a place or if you have gone from it, you are not there or you have left it. EG They were away from home... He was absent from school for two weeks. PREP

5 If you return from a particular activity, you return after doing or experiencing it. EG I went to meet my children from school... The men had not as yet come back from fishing. PREP

6 If you take or move something from a particular place or thing, you take it out or remove it. EG She pours whisky from the bottle into two small tumblers... Carmody picks up the books from beside his chair... We went around clearing rubbish from the fields... His arm drops from Jenny's shoulders... This amount will be deducted from your pension... Four from seventeen leaves thirteen. PREP

7 If something is taken from you, it is removed or stolen, and you no longer have it. EG I was too big to have money taken from me like this... Everything had been stripped from us, even hope. PREP

8 If you get something from a particular place or person, you obtain or buy it there. EG He bought the car from Ford's of Dagenham... He says he'd have to borrow the money from his wife... You can get leaflet M.11 from a post office. PREP

9 If you get a letter, parcel, or telephone call from someone, they have sent it to you or they have telephoned you. EG She got a card from them yesterday. PREP

10 If you see, hear, or do something from a particular position, you are in that position when you see, hear, or do it. EG From the top of the bus you could look down on people below... From here you cannot see the water itself... From upstairs there was the sound of the radio... The door was opened from within. PREP

11 If something hangs or projects from a particular thing, it is attached to it or held by it, and sticks out from it or hangs down from it. EG From his left hand dangled Piggy's broken glasses... He carried water in two buckets hanging from a bamboo pole across his shoulders... The brackets stick out too far from the wall. PREP

12 You use from when you express distances or when you say how far something stretches. EG From our back door to their back door was just a few yards... There's a tunnel beneath the ocean from Hokkaido to Honshu... From Parkington I still had a hundred miles to go. PREP

13 You use from when you mention the substance that something is made out of. EG All the shafts were cut from heavy planks of wood... They would have been made from iron smelted with charcoal. PREP

14 You use from when you mention the book, play, film, etc that something is a part of. EG I was quoting from a newspaper article... She could hear him through the door, singing a song from his latest film. PREP

15 You use from when you mention where you got a particular piece of information. EG The farmers knew about our union activities from their grooms and gardeners... He said the rumour came from you. PREP ≠ through

16 If you get a particular kind of behaviour or reaction from someone, they behave or react in that way towards you. EG He was always sure of sympathy from his mother-in-law... 'And what started the quarrel?'–'An insult. From him.' PREP

17 If something happens from a particular time or point, it begins to happen then. EG From November 1980, the amount of money you receive may be less... She was deaf and dumb from birth... We had no rain from March right through to October... ...from nine in the morning till 5 p.m.... From the eighteenth century on, great private palaces sprang up all over the country. PREP

18 If something is from a particular occasion or time or if it is left over from then, it belongs to that occasion or time. EG She washes the dishes from last night... I've still got work to do from last month... I've just got the photographs from last year's holiday. PREP

19 If something changes or develops from a particular amount, thing, or state, it was previously that amount or thing or it was in that state before the change. EG They agreed to enlarge the national committee from 17 members to 30... It is impossible to translate satisfactorily from one language to another... All the trees are grown from seed... The farmers had turned from crops to cattle. PREP

20 You use from after words that mean 'prevent', 'forbid', or 'not do' in order to mention the thing that is prevented, forbidden, or not done. EG They made an attempt at both rallies to prevent me from being heard... He could be disqualified from election for three years... She was wearing a lilac gauze scarf to keep her hair from flying... You should phone up to see if you can be excused from paying. PREP

21 If something is hidden from you, you cannot see it or you are not told about it. EG He tries to hide it even from me... The truth had been kept from me. PREP

22 You use from when you refer to a difference between two things or people. EG It seemed to him to be no different from any other brain he had seen... Can you tell a poisonous mushroom from an edible one? PREP

23 You use from when you state the cause of a particular event, action or state. EG He died in prison. From pneumonia... She had been suffering from a severe headache... From sheer nervousness she said a few more stupid things... My eyes hurt from the wind. PREP ⇑ because of

24 You use from when you mention something which leads to or results in a particular event, action, or fact. EG The committee's inquiry arose from representations made by Basildon District Council... It's a spin-off from military and space research... No new jobs will result from it. PREP ⇑ out of

25 You use from when you state the reasons or basis for a particular judgement, opinion, or conclusion. EG I could see from her face that she felt disappointed... From what I can gather, this was a real freak accident... From the way she immediately shut up, I sensed that she did not approve... I was speaking from bitter personal experience... ...from a personal point of view. PREP

26 You use from in structures with 'to' when you describe ranges, for example when you are stating maximum and minimum amounts, or the possible varieties of something. EG The process takes anything from two to five weeks... From 50,000 to 500,000 people died... The flowers may be anything from light carmine to crimson... A vet is supposed to know about everything from a cow to a mouse. PREP + NG + to + NG frond /frɒnd/, fronds. A frond is a long leaf or piece of seaweed which has an edge divided into lots of thin parts. EG ...palm fronds... The curtains were moving slowly, like huge fronds of seaweed. N COUNT front /frʌnt/, fronts, fronting, fronted. 1 The front of something is the part of it that is closest to you or that faces you, or that is more important because it is the part that you normally see or use. EG They wore jackets with high lapels and six buttons down the front... I had red claw gashes down my neck and front... Their fangs are placed at the front of the upper jaw... She came crawling out of a trapdoor in the front of the stage. ▸ used as an adjective. EG One of his front teeth was gone. N COUNT + SUPP : USU SING ≠ back ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 A front room, window, garden, etc is on the side of a building that faces the street. EG I took him into the front room for a quick sherry... She walked out the front gate. ▸ used as a noun. EG Miss Vernon's post office was at the front of her cottage. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ back ▸ N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING

3 The front of a car or lorry is the part where the driver sits. EG The cop searched the front of the car. ▸ used as an adjective. EG The front seats are comfortable. N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 The front of a piece of paper is the side which contains the most important writing or pictures. EG Most of my key work seems to be on the front of old envelopes. N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING ≠ back

5 The front page or front cover of a newspaper or magazine is the outside part on which the first words or pictures are printed. EG The Sunday Express had a headline on the front page: 'Child's Body Found in Wood'... Every woman's magazine has a picture of a woman on the front cover. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ back

6 in front. 6.1 Someone or something that is in front is moving along or situated ahead of a particular person or thing, or is further forward than them with nothing in between. EG Jaykar walked in front and Sudhir and Bal behind him... ...an American lady in the row in front. 6.2 Someone or something that is in front or up front is in the place or position which is PHR : USED AS AN A ≠ behind PHR : USED AS AN A

nearest to the front of something, for example to the front of a vehicle. EG She got into the bus and sat up front near the driver. 6.3 Someone who is in front in a competition or contest is in a winning position. PHR : USED AS AN A

7 in front of. 7.1 A person or object that is in front of something is close to the front part of it or ahead of it, with nothing in between. EG A car drew up in front of the house... I'd spend whole evenings just sitting in front of the television set. 7.2 If something is in front of you, you are facing it and it is very near you. EG Grilled trout was put in front of them... You should have your notes in front of you... There was a man standing in front of me. 7.3 If you write something in front of a particular word, you write it to the left of that word. EG Put the little word 'de' in front of your name. 7.4 If you do or say something in front of someone else, you do or say it when they are present and can therefore see or hear what you are doing or saying. EG I couldn't tell you in front of Sam... He thought they had conspired to discredit him in front of Hogan... They will all have to sign in front of a magistrate. PREP ≠ behind / PREP = before / PREP = before

8 In a seaside town, the front is a road next to the sea. EG After tea we'd walk along the front a bit. N SING : the + N

9 In a war, the front is a line where two opposing armies are facing each other. EG He was given three days' leave before going to the Western front. N COUNT : USU the + N

10 When you say that something happens on a particular front, you mean that it happens with regard to a particular situation or field of activity. EG On the purely intellectual front, little advance has been made... Computers are advancing on a variety of fronts... Has anything happened on that front? N COUNT : USU + SUPP

11 On the home front or on the domestic front means with regard to your own country rather than foreign countries. EG On the home front, the big pitfall in his economics may be the problem of inflation. PHR : USED AS AN A

12 If someone puts on a particular kind of front, they try to appear to have that feeling or quality, although they do not have it. EG I knew, of course, that this carefree attitude was only a front. ...presenting a united front to the world... He put on a bold front. N SING : USU a + MOD + N = face

13 An organization or activity that is a front for an illegal or secret activity is used to hide it. EG The hotel is just a front for organized prostitution. N COUNT

14 In meteorology, a front is the line where a mass of cold air meets a mass of warm air. ● See also cold front, warm front. N COUNT

15 The word Front is often used in the titles of political organizations with a particular aim. EG ...the Mozambique Liberation Front. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N

16 A building that fronts a particular place or fronts onto it is next to it and faces it. EG This beach has two restaurants fronting it... ...houses that front directly onto little brick-paved courtyards. V + O, OR V + A (onto) = face

17 An organization that is fronted by a particular person is led by that person. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ head frontage /frʌntɪdʒ/, frontages. A frontage of a building is a wall which faces a street. EG ...the early Victorian frontage of the Treasury. N COUNT : USU MOD + N = front frontal /frʌntᵊl/. 1 A frontal attack is direct and obvious. EG I never believed in frontal attack either in war or politics... ...a frontal assault. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 Frontal also means 2.1 in or relating to a person's forehead; a formal or medical use. EG ...the frontal lobes of your brain. 2.2 involving the front of someone's body. EG There was frontal nudity on stage and screen. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB front bench, front benches. The front bench or the front benches are British members of Parliament who are ministers in the Government or who hold official positions in an opposition party. EG ...the debating strength of the front bench... He was appointed front-bench spokesman on transport. N COUNT : the + N, USU SING = PL frontbencher /frʌntbentʲʃə/, frontbenchers. A frontbencher is a front-bench member of Parliament. EG ...a Tory frontbencher. N COUNT

front door, front doors. The front door of a house or other building is the main door, which is usually in the wall that faces a street. N COUNT frontier /frʌntɪə/, frontiers. 1 A frontier is a border between two countries, or between a country and an area of wild, unclaimed land. EG ...the four thousand mile frontier between the United States and Canada... There have been large-scale military manoeuvres on the frontier... ...a frontier town. N COUNT

2 The frontiers of something, especially knowledge, are the limits of it or a boundary that exists between it and something else. EG They are doing work on the frontiers of discovery... Human acts have repercussions far beyond the frontiers of the human world... This is an easy way of crossing different social frontiers. N COUNT : SUPP USU PL ⇑ border frontiersman /frʌntɪəzmᵊn, frʌntɪəz-/, frontiersmen. A frontiersman was a man who lived in a part of North America where settlers had only just come to live, especially near the frontier of wild, unclaimed land. N COUNT

frontispiece /frʌntɪspiːs/, frontispieces. The frontispiece of a book is a picture at the beginning, opposite the page with the title on. N COUNT : USU SING

front line, front lines; often used before another noun and spelled with a hyphen. 1 The front line is the place where two opposing armies are facing each other and where fighting is going on. EG We came to within a mile and a half of the front line... ...front-line troops. N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING

2 Someone who is in the front line has to play a very important part in defending or achieving something. EG He found himself in the front line, having to defend the Government's record. PHR : USED AS AN A front man, front men. A front man is 1 someone, especially someone respectable, who represents a particular group and acts on their behalf. EG Mohamed was the comparatively respectable front man of the team. 2 someone who presents a television or radio programme. N COUNT / N COUNT ⇑ presenter front-page. A front-page article or picture appears on the front page of a newspaper because it is very important or interesting. EG He was exposed two days later by a front-page piece in the New York Times. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB front-runner, front-runners. In a competition or contest, the front-runner is the person who seems most likely to win it. EG ...George Smith, the current front-runner for the job. N COUNT = favourite frost /frɒst/, frosts, frosting, frosted. 1 If there is frost or a frost, the temperature outside falls below freezing point, tiny ice crystals form, and the ground becomes white. EG There was a touch of frost this morning... ...the severe frost damage to Brazil's coffee plantations... ...the first frosts of autumn. N UNCOUNT / COUNT ⇑ weather

2 Frost is also the thin whitish covering of ice crystals that forms on things when there has been a frost. EG The lawn was sparkling with frost. N UNCOUNT ⇑ deposit

3 When someone says that there are a particular number of degrees of frost, they mean that the temperature is that number of degrees below freezing point. EG You can expect six degrees of frost tonight. PHR : NUM + PHR frost over. When something made of glass frosts over or frosts up, it becomes covered with frost. EG It must have been cold last night, my windscreen's frosted over. ● See also frosted, frosting. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

frostbite /frɒstbaɪt/ is a condition in which your fingers, toes, etc become seriously damaged as a result of being very cold. EG The old woman died of exposure and frostbite. N UNCOUNT frostbitten /frɒstbɪtᵊn/. If someone or a part of their body is frostbitten, they are suffering from frostbite. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ injured frosted /frɒstɪd/. 1 Frosted glass has had its surface roughened so that you cannot see through it clearly. EG ...frosted glass partitions. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ opaque

2 Frosted also means 2.1 covered with frost; a literary use. EG ...frosted grass. 2.2 covered with something that looks like frost. EG ...a gown frosted with diamonds. 2.3 covered with icing; used in American English. ADJ CLASSIF / ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN with / ADJ CLASSIF = iced frosting /frɒstɪŋ/ is the icing on a cake; used in American English. N UNCOUNT frosty /frɒstɪ/, frostier, frostiest. 1 You say that the weather is frosty when the temperature is below freezing but it is not snowing. EG ...a still and frosty night... The air was frosty. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ cold

2 You describe the ground or an object as frosty when it is covered with frost. EG I could feel the crisp frosty grass underfoot. ADJ QUALIT

3 You describe someone's behaviour as frosty when they are unfriendly or disapproving. EG The banker's voice became frosty. ◊ frostily. EG He smiled frostily. ◊ frostiness. EG She was well known for her frostiness with men who paid her compliments. ADJ QUALIT = cold, icy / ◊ ADV WITH VB / ◊ N UNCOUNT froth /frɒθ/, froths, frothing, frothed. 1 Froth consists of lots of small bubbles together in a mass. It forms when air is mixed with a liquid. EG The big canoe was cutting through the water with froth curling at her bow. N UNCOUNT = foam

2 If a liquid froths, it is full of small bubbles. EG He looked down and saw the water frothing at his feet... ...buckets of frothing creamy milk. V : USU + A = foam

3 froth at the mouth. 3.1 If a person or animal froths at the mouth, a mass of small bubbles comes from their mouth, because they are ill. EG He was rolling on the floor, frothing at the mouth. PHR : VB INFLECTS

3.2 You also say that someone is frothing at the mouth when they are very angry; an informal use. PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 Froth is also something which seems attractive and fun but has no real worth. EG Some people think that the West End is all froth and glitter. N UNCOUNT frothy /frɒθi¹/, frothier, frothiest. A frothy liquid has lots of bubbles in it or on its surface. EG ...a frothy milk shake. ADJ QUALIT frown /fraʊn/, frowns, frowning, frowned. V

When someone frowns, their eyebrows become drawn together, because they are annoyed, worried, or puzzled, or because they are concentrating. EG He frowned as though deep in thought... He pushed his cuff back and frowned at his watch. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a middle-aged man with a perpetual worried frown... Sheila's behaviour was attracting disapproving frowns. ▸ N COUNT ⇑ expression

◊ frowning. EG ...a frowning glance. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

frown upon. If something is frowned upon or is frowned on, people disapprove of it. EG Any sign of priggishness is frowned upon by the community... Society frowns upon candour. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS froze /frəʊz/ is the past tense of freeze.

frozen /frəʊzən/ 1 Frozen is the past participle of freeze.

2 If a lake, river, etc is frozen or frozen over, its surface has turned into ice because the temperature has been below freezing point. EG ...the silence of the frozen lake... He was found in the frozen canal... Part of the Missouri was frozen over. ADJ CLASSIF

3 If the ground is frozen, it has become very hard because the temperature has been below freezing point. EG The land is still frozen. ADJ CLASSIF

4 Frozen food has been preserved by freezing it; usually used of food that you buy. EG ...a packet of frozen peas... ...a frozen chicken. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

5 If you are frozen, you are very cold. EG We were frozen–we only had our pyjamas on. ▸ used of a part of your body. EG She blew on her frozen fingers. ADJ QUALIT

6 If you are frozen with fear, terror, etc, you cannot move because you are so frightened. EG The chained men sat frozen with terror... He heard someone coming and lay frozen. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED = with ⇑ rigid frugal /fruːgəl/. 1 People who are frugal or who live frugal lives do not eat much or spend much money on themselves. EG Be as frugal as a monk... She lived a careful, frugal life. ◊ frugally. EG Happiness, he said, lay in working hard and living frugally. ◊ frugality /fruːgælɪti¹/. EG ...a people known for their self-reliance and frugality. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ careful = parsimonious ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ cheaply ◊ N UNCOUNT = parsimony

2 A frugal meal is small and inexpensive. EG He went into the kitchen to prepare his frugal breakfast. ADJ QUALIT fruit /fruːt/, fruits, fruiting, fruited. The plural of the noun can be either fruit or fruits, but it is usually fruit. 1 A fruit is something that you can eat that grows on a tree or bush. It has soft or firm flesh, and contains seeds or a stone. Oranges, bananas, and grapes are fruit. Fruit is eaten either raw or cooked, usually as a dessert. EG They always buy the very best and freshest fruit and vegetables... She bit into the fruit... Bananas and citrus fruits are the country's only cash crops... ...acres of fruit trees. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ food

2 A fruit is also something containing seeds or a stone that grows on a tree, bush, or flowering plant and that is not normally eaten by people; a technical term. EG The mountain ash has red fruits. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

3 When a tree or bush fruits, it produces fruit; a technical term. EG This is an excellent variety which always fruits well. V

4 A tree or bush that is in fruit has fruit growing on it. PHR : USED AS AN A

5 You can refer to everything that grows and that can be eaten or used by people as the fruits of the earth, the fruits of nature, etc; a literary use. EG The fruits of nature belong to all mankind. N PLURAL/ UNCOUNT : USU + of ⇑ produce

6 You can refer to the results of something as the fruits or the fruit of it, especially when these results are good or pleasant. EG They had reached a time of life when most people would be reaping the fruits of their labour. N PLURAL/ UNCOUNT : USU + of

7 If an action bears fruit, it produces good results. EG The government predicts that their measures will start to bear fruit soon and inflation rates will come down. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ succeed

8 See also dried fruit, first fruits, forbidden fruit.

fruitcake /fruːtkeɪk/, fruitcakes; also spelled as two words. Fruitcake or a fruitcake is a cake that contains dried fruit. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT fruit cocktail, fruit cocktails. A fruit cocktail is a mixture of pieces of different kinds of fruit which is usually eaten as the first course of a meal. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT ⇑ starter fruitful /fruːtfʊl/. Something that is fruitful 1 produces a lot of good and useful results. EG There's been a very fruitful collaboration between British Rail and ourselves... This is proving a very fruitful area of research at present. ◊ fruitfully. EG We want to help women to use their childbearing years more fruitfully. 2 produces a lot of fruit, crops, or young. EG They believe that their god makes the trees flourish and the earth fruitful. ADJ QUALIT = profitable ◊ ADV WITH VB ⇑ usefully ADJ QUALIT ⇑ fertile fruition /fruːɪʃən/. When a plan, hope, or action comes to fruition, the thing that was planned or hoped for happens or comes into existence; a formal word. EG At last his efforts were coming to fruition. N UNCOUNT ⇑ fulfilment fruitless /fruːtlɪs/. Something that is fruitless is useless and does not result in the achievement of anything. EG ...a prolonged and fruitless industrial dispute... His quest proved fruitless. ADJ QUALIT = vain fruit machine, fruit machines. A fruit machine is a slot machine used for gambling which pays out money if particular symbols, usually of fruit, appear together when it is operated; used in British English. N COUNT = one-armed bandit fruit salad, fruit salads. Fruit salad is a mixture of pieces of different kinds of fruit in juice which is eaten as a dessert. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT fruity /fruːti¹/, fruitier, fruitiest. 1 Something that is fruity smells or tastes of fruit. EG ...fruity fragrances... ...cheap, fruity wines. ADJ QUALIT

2 A fruity laugh or voice is rich and deep; used showing approval. ADJ QUALIT

3 A fruity remark or story refers in a humorous way to things relating to sex; an informal use. EG His remarks were far too fruity to be put down on paper. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ rude = lewd frump /frʌmp/, frumps. When people refer to a woman as a frump, they mean that she is old-fashioned, dull, and uninteresting. N COUNT frustrate /frʌstreɪt/, frustrates, frustrating, frustrated. 1 If something frustrates you, it makes you feel upset and angry because you are unable to deal with the difficulties and problems it gives you. EG The lack of money and facilities depressed and frustrated him... It always frustrates me when I can't afford the time to get involved and help out. ◊ frustrated. EG ...a job in which you feel frustrated and unhappy. ◊ frustrating. EG There must be nothing more frustrating than having a job you don't enjoy. ◊ frustration /frʌstreɪʃən/, frustrations. EG She lay on the floor, screaming with frustration... ...the frustration of feeling caught in a trap... The reactions were the product of pent-up frustrations. V + O ⇑ annoy = irk ≠ encourage ◊ ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADJ QUALIT = irritating ◊ N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ feeling

2 If something frustrates something such as a plan, an event, or the progress of something, it results in it not taking place or not succeeding. EG Improvements in the economy could be frustrated by industrial disruption... ...their unrivalled skill at delaying and frustrating changes of which they disapproved. ◊ frustrated. EG So many frustrated poets end as pipe-smoking teachers... ...popular belief, which associates suicide with frustrated love. ◊ frustration. EG There is nothing more damaging for society than the frustration of hopes. V + O ⇑ prevent = block, thwart ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = unfulfilled ◊ N UNCOUNT = disappointment fry /fraɪ/, fries, frying, fried. 1 When you fry food, you cook it in a pan that contains hot fat or oil. EG Ellen was frying an egg for her breakfast. ◊ fried. EG She was forbidden to eat fried food or anything with fat. V ERG ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ cooked

2 Fry are very small, young fish. EG The fry remain in the streams for a few weeks. ● See also small fry. N PLURAL fry up. If you fry up food, you fry it, especially in order to make a quick, casual meal; an informal expression. EG Make yourself useful and fry up some bacon. ● See also fry-up. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ cook frying pan, frying pans. 1 A frying pan is a flat metal pan with a long handle, in which you fry food. N COUNT

2 If you say that to do a particular thing would be to jump out of the frying pan into the fire, you mean that to do it would not improve the situation, and might make things worse. EG There they go, leaping merrily out of the frying pan into the fire. PHR : USED AS AN A fry-up, fry-ups. A fry-up is a meal consisting of food that has been fried; an informal expression in British English. N COUNT ft is a written abbreviation for foot or feet. EG ...280,000 sq. ft. of office space... An 80ft viaduct straddles the river Wye. N COUNT : NUM + N ⇑ measurement fuchsia /fjuːʃə/, fuchsias. A fuchsia is a plant or a small bush which has pink, purple, or white flowers. The flowers are often two-coloured, and hang downwards, with their outer petals curved backwards. N COUNT fuck /fʌk/, fucks, fucking, fucked; an extremely rude word, which most people find offensive. It is only used in very informal English, usually spoken English, and most speakers do not use it at all. 1 Fuck and fucking are used as swear words 1.1 in order to emphasize a word or phrase. 1.2 in order to emphasize something that makes you feel angry or annoyed.

2 Fuck all is used to mean 'nothing at all'. PHR : AS O OR C

3 To fuck someone means to have sex with them. V OR V + O : RECIP

▸ used as a noun. ▸ N COUNT

fuck about. To fuck about or fuck around means to behave in a way that is silly, stupid, or unnecessary and that annoys other people; a very rude expression. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + O + ADV

fuck off is an insulting and offensive way of telling someone to go away. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU IMPER fuck up. If you fuck something up, you make a mess of it; a very rude expression. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

fuddled /fʌdəld/. If you are fuddled, you are confused and unable to think clearly. EG I was fuddled with drink... You have some fuddled idea that each of us carries his own destiny. ADJ QUALIT = hazy fuddy-duddy /fʌdiˈdʌdiˈ/, fuddy-duddies. You describe people as fuddy-duddy when they are old-fashioned and dull in their appearance or attitudes; used showing disapproval. EG ...two old fuddy-duddies. ▸ used as an adjective. EG They consider boxer shorts old-fashioned and fuddy-duddy. N COUNT/VOC = stuffed shirt ▸ ADJ QUALIT = square fudge /fʌdʒ/, fudges, fudging, fudged. 1 Fudge is a soft brown sweet that is made from butter, milk, and sugar. N UNCOUNT

2 If you fudge something, you avoid making a clear and definite decision, distinction , or statement about it. EG We will always fudge issues while we can... There must be no fudging the figures. V + O fuel /fjʊəl/, fuels, fuelling, fuelled; also spelled fueling, fueled. 1 Fuel is something such as wood, coal, oil, or petrol that is burned in order to provide heat or power. EG The cost of fuel is a major worry for old people... ...alternative fuel for aircraft... There is neither fuel nor food in the house... ...the use of fuels such as coal and oil. ● See also fossil fuels. N MASS ⇑ material

2 When a machine or vehicle is fuelled by a particular fuel, the fuel is used in it in order to make it work. EG Heat can be supplied from boilers fuelled by domestic refuse. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ power

3 If something fuels a situation that is already difficult or unpleasant, it makes the situation worse. EG This budget fuels inflation and cuts our living standard... ...rumours of street fighting and violence, fuelled by the press. V + O ⇑ worsen = encourage

4 If something adds fuel to a difficult or unpleasant situation, or adds fuel to the flames, it makes the situation worse. EG It will only add fuel to the class war. PHR : VB INFLECTS = exacerbate fug /fʌg/. A fug is an airless, usually smoky and rather smelly atmosphere; an informal word, mainly used in British English. EG ...a thick fug of cigarette smoke. N SING WITH DET = fog fugitive /fjuːdʒɪtɪv/, fugitives. 1 A fugitive is someone who is running away or hiding, especially someone who is trying to avoid being caught by the police. EG ...the life of a fugitive in Paraguay... ...federal charges of harbouring a fugitive... ...a fugitive from injustice. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...two fugitive German ships... ...the manhunt for a fugitive American. N COUNT ⇑ runaway ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = escaping

2 Fugitive means lasting only for a very short time; a literary use. EG ...fugitive perceptions... ...a fugitive smile... Apart from some rare and fugitive visits, he did not live with us again. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ brief

fugue /fjuːg/, fugues. A fugue is a piece of music that begins with a short, simple tune, which is then repeated by other voices or instrumental parts with small variations according to a particular musical pattern; a technical term in music. N COUNT : UNCOUNT

-ful, -fuls. -ful is added to nouns that refer to containers or objects in order to form countable nouns. Nouns formed in this way refer to the quantity of a substance that the object contains or can hold. EG ...sack→sackful... ...hand→handful... ...cupboard→cupboardful... ...another mouthful of food... ...two teaspoonfuls of salt. SUFFIX : FORMS N PARTS

fulcrum /fʌlkrəm/, fulcrums, fulcra. The plural can be either fulcrums or fulcra. The fulcrum of something that is balancing or being used as a lever is the point at which it is balancing or pivoting. N COUNT ⇑ pivot fulfil /fʊlfɪl/, fulfils, fulfilling, fulfilled; also spelled fulfill, fulfills. 1 If you fulfil a promise, threat, duty, request, hope, etc, you do what was promised, asked, or expected. EG They failed to fulfil their promises to revive the economy... Those who have friends in an office may have their requests fulfilled... This limits the ability of many of the smaller organizations to fulfil their obligations... I had fulfilled many of my youthful ambitions. V + O = carry out, realize

2 If something fulfils you, or if you fulfil yourself, you feel happy and satisfied with what you are doing or with what you have achieved. EG This way of life no longer adequately fulfils the individuals concerned... Now that the children have left home I can go out and fulfil myself. ◊ fulfilling. EG Jobs should be made as creative and fulfilling as possible. ◊ fulfilled. EG The children gain if both parents are living fulfilled lives. V + O (NG/REFL) ⇑ satisfy ◊ ADJ QUALIT ⇑ satisfying ◊ ADJ QUALIT

3 If someone or something fulfils a particular role or function, they do whatever is required by that role or function. EG He could no longer fulfil his function as breadwinner for the family... Helicopters fulfilled a variety of roles. V + O ⇑ perform fulfilment /fʊlfɪlmᵊnt/; also spelled fulfillment. 1 Fulfilment is a feeling of satisfaction that you get from doing or achieving something, especially something useful. EG People there do appear to find fulfilment in working for a common goal... There are men who want more fulfilment within the home. N UNCOUNT

2 When there is fulfilment of a promise, threat, request, hope, duty, etc, the promised or expected thing happens. EG ...the partial fulfilment of a dream... ...the fulfilment of our needs. N UNCOUNT : USU + of full /fʊl/, fuller, fullest. 1 Something that is full contains as much of a substance or as many objects as it is possible for it to hold. EG The bucket's almost full... Judy picked up one of the full ashtrays... I had always been lectured about not talking with my mouth full. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ filled

2 You describe something as being full of things or people when it contains a very large number of them. EG ...a long garden full of pear and apple trees... His office was full of policemen... Her eyes were full of tears... The air was full of flying objects. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + of

3 You describe people or things as being full of a particular feeling or quality when they have a lot of it and when it seems to be the most important or noticeable thing about them. EG I was full of confidence... His dark eyes were full of fury and defiance... The papers were suddenly full of news about China... She's full of her own importance. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + of

4 You say that a place or vehicle is full when there is no space left in it for any more people or things. EG All the car parks are absolutely full... Have any table you like. We're not exactly full. ADJ QUALIT = packed

5 If your hands or arms are full, you are carrying or holding as much as you can carry. EG I'm sorry-my hands are full... He came back with his arms full. ● to have your hands full: see hand. ADJ QUALIT : PRED, IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ filled = loaded

6 If you feel full, you have eaten or drunk so much that you do not want anything else; a fairly informal use. ADJ QUALIT : PRED ⇑ satiated

7 Full also means as great in extent or amount as is possible. EG ...economic policies which would ensure a return to full employment... They'll never be able to make full use of their brains. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = complete, maximum

8 Something that provides you with a full explanation or full details explains or tells you everything that you need to know about a particular matter. EG I ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ complete = detailed was then given the full story of Andrea's marriage... We'll have full details in next week's programme... Their parents have demanded a full inquiry.

9 You say that something has been done or described in full when everything that was necessary has been done or described. EG The bill has been paid in full... Many of the devices have not been described in full. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ completely = fully

10 Something that is done or experienced to the full is done to as great an extent as is possible. EG She wanted to exploit that opportunity to the full... This prevented him from enjoying his role as father to the full. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ completely = fully

11 If someone has or leads a full life, they are very busy, and do a lot of pleasant or interesting things. EG Everybody has a right to a full life. ADJ QUALIT

12 You also use full 12.1 when you are referring to the whole of something, or to something that has all the parts that it could have or usually has. EG I haven't got his full name... ...a full English breakfast... ...my last full day in Warsaw... The passenger lounge ran the full width of the ship. 12.2 in order to emphasize the completeness of a particular quality or characteristic. EG Here you can see the full squalor of the buildings... I paused to allow the full impact of this to strike home. 12.3 in order to emphasize how great an amount is. EG For a full week we did not have one square meal... ...a control arm that swings a full 90 degrees. 12.4 in order to emphasize the directness and force with which someone or something hits, looks at, or falls on something else. EG My skis struck a woman full in the face... The light from the motorcycle headlight was full upon me. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ complete / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ whole / ADV : VB + ADV + PREP ⇑ right = squarely

13 When a piece of equipment or a machine is full on, working at full volume, etc it is working at the greatest extent possible. EG The gas fire was full on... The volume was turned up full. ADV AFTER VB

14 Someone who is a full member, full partner, etc has all the rights, status, and importance of a member, partner, etc rather than having only some of these. EG She wanted to be a full member of the club... He achieved the rank of full professor at the age of thirty. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

15 A full sound is rich, strong, loud, and resonant; used showing approval. ADJ QUALIT

16 A full flavour is strong and rich; used showing approval. EG ...a cheese with a good full flavour. ADJ QUALIT

17 Something that is in full light is in bright, direct light. Something that is in full shade or shadow is in very dark shadow. EG ...places that are exposed to full sunshine throughout the day... His face was in full shadow. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ strong = intense

18 Full is used to describe soft parts of the body that are rounded and rather large. EG Her full red lips parted in a faint smile... ...a dress specially designed to flatter the fuller figure. ADJ QUALIT = plump

19 A full skirt or sleeve is wide and has been made from a lot of fabric. EG She wore a full mid-calf skirt... The sleeves were cut full. ADJ QUALIT

20 If a piece of clothing is full at a particular point, it is rather loose and perhaps too large at that point. EG The other pair of trousers were a bit full round the seat... It's not full enough across the back. ADJ QUALIT : PRED + A ⇑ big ≠ tight

21 When the moon is full, it appears as a bright circle. EG Slowly a full moon came up from the horizon. ADJ CLASSIF

22 You describe people as full of themselves when they are pleased with themselves and think that they are very clever, special, or important; used showing disapproval. PHR + PRON REFL : USED AS C ⇑ conceited ≠ modest

23 If you say that someone's heart is full, you mean that they are very happy, grateful, generous, or sentimental; a rather literary use. EG My heart was full, thumping with happiness... She had been able, with a full and generous heart, to return the compliment. ADJ QUALIT = overflowing

24 If you say that you know full well that something is the case, you are emphasizing that you know a fact very well. EG We know full well that Congress will spend every penny. PHR : USED AS AN A

25 Full is also used in phrases such as 'at full pelt', 'in full cry', 'in full swing', and 'in full view', to emphasize the degree or extent of what is happening. Each of these phrases is explained at the entry for the noun. ● to be full of beans: see bean. ● to come full circle: see circle.

full-back, full-backs. A full-back is a defending player in football, hockey, or rugby who stands close to the goal or line that he or she is defending. N COUNT ⇑ defender full-blooded. 1 Full-blooded behaviour and actions are carried out with great commitment and enthusiasm. EG We have the full-blooded support of the Opposition parties... ...a full-blooded investigation. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = vigorous

2 A full-blooded person or animal has ancestors of only one race or breed. EG ...a full-blooded Cherokee Indian. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ pure full-blown means having all the characteristics of a particular type of thing or person. EG ...a full-blown military operation... ...full-blown heart attacks. ADJ CLASSIF ATTRIB full board. If you stay at a hotel that provides full board, you can obtain all your meals there. N UNCOUNT full dress. Someone who is in full dress is wearing all the clothes needed for a ceremony or formal occasion. EG A Zulu in full dress looked magnificent... Round the corner marched a full-dress regiment of soldiers. N UNCOUNT ⇑ costume full-face; also spelled as two words, especially when used as an adverb. A full-face photograph or portrait is one of someone who is facing you directly rather than having their head turned away or downwards. EG Send a full-face photograph of yourself... The face is seen both in profile and full face. ADJ CLASSIF, OR ADV AFTER VB

full-fledged means the same as fully-fledged. ADJ CLASSIF full-grown. An animal or plant that is full-grown has reached its natural size and stopped growing. EG A full-grown male giraffe can stand over nineteen feet tall... When full grown, the larva will spin a cocoon. ADJ CLASSIF = adult full house, full houses. If a theatre has a full house for a particular performance, it has as large an audience as it can hold. EG I can remember when we'd have a full house every night. N COUNT full-length. 1 A full-length book or film is the normal length for a book or film. EG Between 1906 and 1910, Vita wrote eight full-length novels. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 A full-length skirt, coat, sleeve, etc is of the greatest normal length for such a piece of clothing. EG She wears a white full-length raincoat... ...full-length sleeves. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ long

3 Full-length curtains or other furnishings reach to the floor. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 A full-length mirror or portrait shows the whole of a person. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

5 Someone who is lying full-length is lying down flat and stretched out. EG He stretched out full-length beside her. ADV AFTER VB ⇑ extended full marks. 1 If you get full marks in a test or exam, you get everything right and gain the maximum number of marks. N PLURAL

2 If you say that someone gets full marks for something, you are praising them for being very clever or for showing some other good quality. EG Mr Jenkins gets full marks for courage and enterprise... Full marks to you for spotting that. N PLURAL : IF + PREP THEN for fullness /fʊlnɪ²s/. 1 Fullness is the state that something is in when it is full. EG I've got this feeling of fullness in my stomach all the time. N UNCOUNT

2 If there is fullness in a part of a person's body, the part is large and rounded. EG A padded bra contributed a fraudulent fullness to her chest. N UNCOUNT

3 If a sound or flavour has fullness, it is rich and strong; used showing approval. EG ...the fullness of the string sound of the continental orchestras. N UNCOUNT

4 If you say that something will happen in the fullness of time, you mean that it will eventually happen after a long time or after a long series of events. EG He was modelling for the stone effigy which in the fullness of time would adorn his tomb. PHR : USED AS AN A = finally, one day full-page. A full-page advertisement, picture, or article in a newspaper or magazine takes up a whole page. EG There's a marvellous full-page picture of Fonteyn and Helpmann. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ large

full-scale. 1 Full-scale means having the characteristics of something to the fullest extent. EG We are prepared for any crisis, including full-scale warfare... The United States will soon resume full-scale negotiations on a new arms pact. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

2 A full-scale drawing or model is the same size as the thing that it represents. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB full-size. 1 Full-size or full-sized means the same as full-grown. EG A conifer will be full-sized by the time it fifty years old. ADJ CLASSIF

2 A full-size or full-sized model or picture is the ADJ CLASSIF :

same size as the thing or person that it represents. EG ...a full-size plastic doll. ATTRIB = life-size full stop, full stops; used in British English. 1 A full stop is the punctuation mark (.) which you use at the end of a sentence when it is not a question or exclamation. It is also sometimes put after an abbreviation or initial. EG Good writing isn't just the ability to put capital letters and full stops in the right places. N COUNT = period

2 You can say 'full stop' after you have stated a fact or opinion, to emphasize that you have very strong feelings about it and to say that you are not willing to discuss it any further. EG You have failed the exam, full stop. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = period

3 If you come to a full stop, you are not able to proceed any further with something that you are trying to achieve. EG We have come to a full stop in our efforts to achieve Utopia. PHR : VB INFLECTS full-throated. A full-throated shout, laugh, etc is very loud. EG She gave a full-throated laugh. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

full-time. 1 Full-time work or study involves working or studying for the whole of each normal working week rather than for part of it. EG Some of them already have a full-time job... We have eight hundred full-time students. ▸ used as an adverb. EG Bobbie and I worked full time. ADJ CLASSIF ▸ ADV AFTER VB

2 If you describe a regular activity or task as a full-time job, you mean that it takes up so much of your time that it is like doing a proper job; an informal expression, often used in an exaggerated way. EG It's a full-time job keeping the path clear of leaves. PHR : USED AS C

3 In a game of football, hockey, etc, full time is the end of the game. EG The whistle blew for full time. N UNCOUNT full up. 1 Something that is full up has no space left for any more people or things. EG The town's full up... The car parks are all full up. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

2 If you are full up, you have eaten or drunk so much that you do not want to eat or drink anything else; an informal use. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED fully /fʊ̲li[1]/. 1 Fully means to the greatest degree or extent possible. EG The secrets of its success are still not fully understood... ...fully automatic washing machines... She had fully intended to leave early. ADV = completely

2 You use fully to say that a process is completely finished. EG It was weeks before he fully recovered... The snake's young emerge fully formed from the mother... Barber isn't fully trained yet. ADV WITH VB

3 If you describe, answer, or deal with something fully, you do it in such a way that you leave out nothing that should be mentioned or dealt with. EG She answered his questions fully and candidly... This method is described more fully in the next chapter. ADV WITH VB = thoroughly

4 Fully is also used to emphasize how great an amount is. EG Fully one-quarter of the workers are Turks... It was fully 200 years since the last element had been discovered. ADV + NG fully-fledged /fʊ̲li[1]flɛʤd/ means having all the characteristics of someone or something, especially as the result of a process of development. EG By the age of seventeen I was a fully-fledged atheist... The SDP now sees itself as a fully-fledged rival party. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ real fulminate /fʊ̲lmɪneɪt, fʊ̲l-/, fulminates, fulminating, fulminated. If you fulminate against someone or something, you criticize them angrily. EG He paced up and down, fulminating against Thomas. ◊ fulmination /fʊ̲lmɪneɪʃə[0]n/, fulminations. EG ...the fulminations of preachers in the eighteenth century. V : IF + PREP THEN against/at = rage, rail ◊ N COUNT/ UNCOUNT fulsome /fʊ̲lsəm/. Fulsome praise, apology, or gratitude is so exaggerated and elaborate that it sounds insincere; used showing disapproval. EG They tried to please him with fulsome compliments and extravagant gifts. ◊ fulsomely. EG 'That'll do beautifully, sir,' Michie said fulsomely. ADJ QUALIT = extravagant ◊ ADV WITH VB = effusively fumble /fʌmbə[0]l/, fumbles, fumbling, fumbled. 1 If you fumble when you are trying to do something with your hands, you are clumsy and do not move quickly and efficiently or hold things safely and steadily. EG His awkwardness made him fumble with the key... He fumbled in his pocket for his whistle. V : USU + A

2 If you fumble when you are trying to say something, you say it in a clumsy and unclear way. EG What I'm fumbling to say is that I felt different about you. V OR V + O

fume /fjʊ̲:m/, fumes, fuming, fumed. 1 Fumes are the unpleasant and often unhealthy smoke, gas, or smells that are produced by fires or by things such as chemicals, fuel, or cooking. EG These fires produce really obnoxious fumes and smoke... He breathed whisky fumes all over my face... To rid clothes of cooking smells or tobacco fumes, hang them in the open air. N PLURAL

2 If something fumes, it produces gas or smoke. EG Don't bend over the mixture, because it fizzes and fumes. V

3 If you fume, you show or express impatience and anger; a rather informal use. EG I sat there fuming... 'This is your doing,' she fumed at Jim. V, OR V + QUOTE = rage fumigate /fjʊ̲:mɪgeɪt/, fumigates, fumigating, fumigated. If you fumigate something, you disinfect it, for example in order to get rid of germs or insects, by using special chemicals. EG Your things will probably need fumigating. ◊ fumigation /fjʊ̲:mɪgeɪʃə[0]n/. V + O ⇑ purify ◊ N UNCOUNT fun /fʌn/. 1 Fun is something such as an activity or situation that is pleasant and enjoyable and that causes you to feel happy. EG I think it'll be enormous fun... It's great fun playing with it... She got a lot of fun out of hiking... That would have spoiled the fun. N UNCOUNT ⇑ enjoyment = sport

2 If you say that someone is fun, you mean that they are friendly and humorous and often do interesting or amusing things, so that you enjoy being with them. EG She was very young, pretty, and great fun... He was fun to be with sometimes... They're both full of fun. ADJ QUALIT, OR N UNCOUNT

3 If you describe something as a fun thing, you mean that you enjoy doing it. If you describe someone as a fun person, you mean that you enjoy being with them; used informally, mainly in American English. EG Those were fun times... It is actually quite a fun read. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = amusing, lively

4 The word fun is also used in the following expressions. 4.1 A figure of fun is someone who is considered ridiculous, so that people laugh at them or make jokes about them. 4.2 If you do something for fun, for the fun of it, or for the fun of the thing, you do it in order to enjoy yourself rather than because it is important or necessary; an informal expression. EG ...things that you do for fun in your spare time... You don't come to work just for the fun of it. 4.3 Fun and games means playful behaviour, especially if it involves playing tricks and making jokes; an informal expression, often used showing disapproval. EG I was sick of their fun and games. 4.4 If you have fun, you do something that you enjoy and that causes you to feel happy. EG We had great fun sleeping rough on the beaches... Let me do it, Cyril! Why should you have all the fun? 4.5 If you do something in fun or out of fun, you do it as a joke or for amusement, without intending to cause any harm. EG For goodness sake, don't you see it was just in fun! 4.6 If you make fun of someone or something or poke fun at them, you laugh at them, tease them, or make jokes about them in a way that causes them to seem ridiculous. EG Don't make fun of me... I giggled and poked fun at it. 4.7 People say 'What fun!' when they are expressing excitement about something that they think will be enjoyable. PHR : USED AS C / PHR : USED AS AN A / PHR : USED AS O OR C = pranks / PHR : VB INFLECTS / PHR : USED AS AN A / PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ ridicule = scoff at / EXCLAM = great function /fʌŋkʃə[0]n/, functions, functioning, functioned. 1 The function of an object, activity, job, etc is the role that it has, or the purpose for which it is used. EG Each object has a single function... The function of reading aloud is to communicate the written word... ...the very difficult functions that languages have to perform. N COUNT

2 Function is used to refer to the way in which something works or operates, especially the way in which a part of the body or a part of a machine works. EG ...a device to test some aspects of heart function. N UNCOUNT ⇑ working

3 A function is also a large formal dinner, reception, or party, usually held for important people and officials. EG He was invited to attend some function at his uncle's house. N COUNT

4 If you say that something is a function of another thing, you mean that its precise nature depends on that other thing in some way; a formal use. EG Intelligence is partly a function of the speed with which the brain processes information. N COUNT + of / USU SING = product

5 A function in computing is a sequence of operations that a computer performs, for example when a single key is pressed; a technical use. EG ...the function keys on the keyboard. N COUNT

6 A function in mathematics is a mathematical N COUNT : IF + value which is not fixed but which depends on another mathematical value and changes whenever the other value changes; a technical use. PREP THEN of 7 The way in which something functions is the way in which it works or operates. EG John has a very good idea of how the civil service functions, because he has been part of it... Today we understand almost everything about the functioning of the heart. V : USU + A

8 When something such as a machine is functioning, it is working or operating in the way that it is supposed to. EG Quite often the phone didn't function at all... Only one hospital is functioning. V

9 If something or someone functions as a particular thing, they fulfil or perform the purpose or role of that thing. EG The brain functions as a computer... I was amazed to find myself suddenly functioning as an ambassador from the South. V + A (as) = act functional /fʌŋkᵊʃəᵊnəl, -ʃənəᵊl/. 1 Functional means relating to the way in which something works or operates, or relating to how useful it is. EG We define our relationships with most people in functional terms... It preserved the legal and functional independence of each of the concerns. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ operational ◊ functionally. EG His work, therefore, ceases to be functionally necessary. ◊ ADV

2 If something is functional, 2.1 it is intended to be useful or practical rather than beautiful or decorative. EG ...an admirably clear and functional design. ADJ QUALIT

2.2 it works or operates in the way that it is supposed to. EG How long has the machine really been functional? ADJ CLASSIF = operational

3 A functional illness affects the way in which a part of your body works but does not damage the part itself; a technical term in medicine. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB functionalism /fʌŋkᵊʃənəlɪzəᵊm/ is the idea that the most important aspect of something, especially a building or piece of furniture, is its use; a technical or formal word. ◊ functionalist, functionalists. EG This view has been challenged by the functionalists. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT OR ADJ CLASSIF functionary /fʌŋkᵊʃənəᵊrɪ¹/, functionaries. A functionary is a person whose job is to do administrative work, especially for a government or a political party. N COUNT ⇑ employee fund /fʌnd/, funds, funding, funded. 1 Funds are amounts of money that are available to be spent, especially money that is given to an organization or person for a particular purpose. EG Congress cut back the funds for the program... They have spent their scarce funds on expensive housing... ...a public appeal for funds. N PLURAL = resources, cash

2 A fund is an amount of money that is collected or saved, for example to help someone or to enable something to be done. EG A fund was set up to maintain the buildings... ...the disaster fund... They began to organize a fund for the women. N COUNT

3 If you have a fund of something, you have a lot of it. EG ...a large fund of scientific and technological knowledge... They have a fund of experience to draw on. N COUNT : USU + of = reserve

4 When a person or organization funds something, they provide money for it. EG The work is being funded both by governments and private industry. V + O = finance

◊ funding. EG Lack of proper funding is making our job more difficult. ◊ N UNCOUNT = financing fundamental /fʌndəmentəᵊl/, fundamentals. 1 You use fundamental 1.1 to indicate that something is an essential feature or part of something. EG ...the fundamental principles on which society is based... ...a grasp of fundamental mathematical concepts... Computers are fundamental to our industrial structure. ADJ CLASSIF : IF + PREP THEN to = essential, central

1.2 to indicate that something exists at every possible level or in every possible way, and is therefore likely to continue. EG There is a fundamental incompatibility between them... ...the hollowness and fundamental unsatisfactoriness of this way of life... The differences are in some respects fundamental. ADJ QUALIT = basic

2 A fundamental change affects the basic nature of something. EG This will bring about fundamental changes in society... ...the fundamental revolution in human values that has occurred. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 A fundamental mistake results from misunderstanding the real or basic nature of something and so has a very great and serious effect. EG The Administration is making a fundamental error in confusing spending with extravagance. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = elementary

4 The fundamentals of something, for example of a subject or activity, are its most important and basic parts. EG ...my inability to grasp the fundamentals of physics... Such treatment never gets down to root causes, to fundamentals. N PLURAL fundamentalism /fʌndəmentəlɪzəᵊm/ is the belief in an extreme or old form of a religion or theory. Christian fundamentalism is the belief that everything in the Bible is completely true. ◊ fundamentalist, fundamentalists. EG ...a fundamentalist preacher. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT OR ADJ CLASSIF fundamentally /fʌndəmentəli¹/. You use fundamentally 1 to indicate that you are saying what the real or basic nature of something is. EG It's fundamentally a political satire... Our criminal code is based fundamentally on fear... Yet, fundamentally, we are not a part of the community. ADV SEN, OR ADV = basically

2 to indicate that something affects or relates to the basic nature of something. EG They have fundamentally altered the rationale for military spending... I disagreed fundamentally with what the Party stood for. ADV WITH VB = radically fund-raising is the activity of collecting money to support a charity, political campaign, organization, etc. EG ...six weeks of active fund-raising... We held a fund-raising cocktail party. N UNCOUNT funeral /fjuːnəᵊrəl/, funerals. A funeral is the service or ceremony that is held when someone has recently died and their body is being buried or cremated. EG Today is Arthur's funeral... They're having a funeral service at eleven. ● If someone says to you 'It's your funeral', they mean that you have made a wrong decision and that you alone will be responsible for its consequences; an informal expression. N COUNT ⇑ burial ● PHR : VB INFLECTS funerary /fjuːnərərɪ¹/ means relating to funerals, burials, or cremations; a formal word. EG The funerary ceremonies occupied two days. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB funereal /fjuːnɪəriəl/. If you describe something as funereal, you mean that it reminds you of funerals or death in a depressing way; used showing disapproval. EG The atmosphere in the cabin was almost unbearably funereal. ADJ QUALIT = mournful, gloomy funfair /fʌnfɛə/, funfairs. In Britain, a funfair is a form of entertainment that consists of large machines on which you can have exciting rides and stalls where you can win things. Funfairs often travel from one place to another. EG I promised to take them to the funfair on Saturday... ...a funfair Ghost Train. N COUNT

fungal /fʌŋgəᵊl/ means caused by, consisting of, or relating to fungus; a formal word. EG ...fungal infections. ADJ CLASSIF fungi /fʌŋgaɪ/ is the plural of fungus.

fungicide /fʌŋgɪsaɪd/, fungicides. A fungicide is a chemical that can be used to kill fungus or to prevent it from growing. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT fungoid /fʌŋgɔɪd/ means consisting of or covered with fungus, or reminding you of fungus; a formal or literary word. ADJ CLASSIF fungus /fʌŋgəs/, fungi, funguses. The plural can be fungi, funguses, or fungus. A fungus is a plant that has no flowers, leaves, or green colouring. Mushrooms and toadstools are fungi. Other types of fungus such as mould and mildew are extremely small, spread quickly over surfaces, and look like a fine powder. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT funicular railway /fjuːnɪkjəˈləreɪlweɪ/, funicular railways. A funicular railway is a special railway up a very steep hill or mountain. A machine at the top of the slope pulls the carriage up the rails by a steel rope. N COUNT funk /fʌŋk/, funks, funking, funked. 1 Funk is fear or cowardice; an old-fashioned use. EG Out of sheer funk he had not gone to the party... He was really in a funk. N UNCOUNT, OR N SING WITH DET

2 If you funk something, you avoid doing it because you are afraid; an old-fashioned use. EG A man who will climb a cliff may funk grasping a snake... We had our chance then, and funked it. V + O

3 A funk is a coward; an old-fashioned use. EG Maurice spoke, hesitating, not wanting to seem a funk. N COUNT = drip, sissy

4 Funk is also a style of music based on jazz and blues, with a strong, repetitive tune in the bass part of the music. N UNCOUNT funky /fʌŋkɪ¹/, funkier, funkiest. 1 Funky pop music or jazz has a very strong, simple rhythm. ADJ QUALIT

2 Young people used to describe things as funky ADJ QUALIT

when they thought they were very good or enjoyable; an informal use.

funnel /fʌnᵊl/, funnels, funnelling, funnelled; also spelled funneling, funneled in American English. 1 A funnel is a cone-shaped object which is wide at the top and has a short tube at the bottom. Funnels are used to pour things into containers by placing the tube into the neck or opening of the container. EG ...medicines which he had transferred through a funnel from the bottles. N COUNT ⇑ utensil

2 A funnel is also 2.1 something narrow, or narrow at one end, through which a substance flows and is directed. EG The ravine was a funnel for winds... Try making a funnel of your hands. 2.2 a metal chimney on a ship or railway engine powered by steam. EG The smoke was pouring from the funnel. N COUNT : USU + SUPP / N COUNT

3 If something funnels or is funnelled somewhere, it is directed through a narrow space. EG ...the funnelling effect of bays, estuaries and straits... Icy blasts funnel down the streets. V ERG : USU + A

4 If you funnel something from one place to another, you cause it to be transferred continuously in a direct, controlled way. EG They were planning to funnel aid to the resistance movement. V + O + A = channel funnily /fʌnɪliⁱ/. 1 You use funnily enough to indicate that, although a particular thing is unlikely or unexpected, it does or did happen. EG I hated the green scarves, although, funnily enough, those were the ones that most people bought. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = oddly, strangely

2 If someone does something funnily, they do it in a strange way; a fairly informal use. EG She was walking a bit funnily. ADV AFTER VB = strangely funny /fʌniⁱ/, funnier, funniest; funnies. 1 Something that is funny is rather strange, surprising, or puzzling. EG Some of them have some very funny ideas about war... ...a funny black hat... Have you noticed anything funny about this plane?... Funny how people change... The funny thing is, when they went back it had gone... It's funny but I can always tell who's going to win. ADJ QUALIT = bizarre, odd

2 Funny people, incidents, stories, etc are amusing and makes you smile or laugh. EG She laughed. 'What's funny?' he asked... Honestly, it looked so funny... He told funny stories and made everyone laugh... ...a genuinely funny man... Don't try to be funny. ADJ QUALIT = comic, hilarious

3 The funnies are comic strips in newspapers; an informal term used mainly in American English. EG Carol reads the funnies. N PLURAL : the + N

4 You say that someone is funny when they are slightly mad; an informal use. EG She's a bit funny sometimes. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = odd, peculiar

5 If something goes funny, it stops working properly; an informal use. EG The computer went all funny. PHR : VB INFLECTS

6 If you feel funny, you feel slightly ill; an informal use. ADJ QUALIT : PRED

7 Funny business is dishonest or unacceptable behaviour; an informal expression.. EG Any funny business and the deal's off. PHR : = tricks funny bone, funny bones. Your funny bone is the part of your elbow that gives you a tingling feeling when it is hit; an informal expression. N COUNT : USU SING = humerus fur /fɜː/, furs, furring, furred. 1 Fur is 1.1 the thick and usually soft hair that grows on the bodies of many mammals. EG Moles have short silky fur. 1.2 the fur-covered skin of an animal that is used to make clothing or rugs. EG ...a little pink jacket edged with white fur... ...a fur coat... The dog was excited by the smell of the furs they had been packing. 1.3 a synthetic fabric that looks like fur and is used, for example to make clothing, soft toys, and seat covers. EG ...a Russian hat in black nylon fur. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT = fake fur

2 A fur is a coat made from real or synthetic fur, or a piece of fur worn like a shawl or scarf. EG She had been accused of stealing furs from a department store. N COUNT ⇑ clothing

3 If an event makes the fur fly or sets the fur flying, it causes a great argument. EG That'll really make the fur fly! PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 Fur is also 4.1 a layer of a soft greyish-white substance on a person's tongue caused, for example, by smoking a lot. 4.2 a layer of a hard greyish-white substance that sometimes forms on the inside of objects such as kettles or water pipes. N UNCOUNT / N UNCOUNT = scale

5 When a kettle or water pipe furs or furs up, the inside of it becomes covered with fur. EG An iron sometimes furs up like a kettle and needs cleaning. V, OR PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

furbish /fɜːbɪʃ/, furbishes, furbishing, furbished. If you furbish something, you make it look better, for example by painting or repairing it, a formal word. EG ...my freshly furbished dining room. V + O = renovate, restore furious /fjʊərɪəs/. 1 Someone who is furious is extremely angry. EG I was furious and told them to get out of my house... He was furious with himself for not realizing it sooner. ◊ furiously. EG 'Who is this man?' the Prince exclaimed furiously. ADJ QUALIT = livid / ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Furious is also used to describe something that is done with great energy, effort, speed, or violence. EG ...a furious battle... ...the furious efforts they were making to catch up... ...the furious speed of technological development. ◊ furiously. EG ...huge brown birds flapping their wings furiously to gain height. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ violent = vigorous / ◊ ADV WITH VB = vigorously furl /fɜːl/, furls, furling, furled. When you furl something such as an umbrella, sail, or flag, you roll or fold it up because it is not going to be used. ◊ furled. EG His black umbrella was furled tight. V + O / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF furlong /fɜːlɒŋ/, furlongs. A furlong is an imperial unit of length that is equal to 220 yards or 201.2 metres. EG We could predict which horse would win over five furlongs. N COUNT : USU NUM + N furnace /fɜːnɪs/, furnaces. A furnace is 1 a container or enclosed space in which a very hot fire is made, for example to melt metal, burn rubbish, or produce steam. EG His job was to stoke the furnace. 2 a very hot place; a fairly informal use. EG The room, which had been so icy in winter, was now a furnace. N COUNT / N SING furnish /fɜːnɪʃ/, furnishes, furnishing, furnished. 1 If you furnish a room or building, you put furniture and furnishings into it. EG He wanted to be moved to a nursing home where he could furnish his own room. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with

2 If you furnish something or furnish someone with it, you provide or supply it; a formal use. EG They were not willing to furnish the necessary troops... Luckily, they have furnished us with a translation. V + O, OR V + O + A (with) furnished /fɜːnɪʃt/. 1 A furnished room or house is available to be rented together with the furniture in it. EG We are looking for furnished accommodation in the centre of town. ADJ CLASSIF

2 When you say that a room or house is furnished in a particular way, you are describing the kind or amount of furniture that it has in it. EG The bedroom was scantily furnished... She lived in a poorly furnished flat. ADJ CLASSIF furnishings /fɜːnɪʃɪŋz/. The furnishings of a room or house are the furniture, and also fittings such as sinks, curtains, or carpets, and decorations such as pictures. EG The bed and the toilet were the only furnishings in the tiny cell... The furnishings are mostly modern. N PLURAL ⇑ contents furniture /fɜːnɪtʃə/. 1 Furniture consists of large movable objects such as tables, chairs, or beds that are used in a room for sitting on or for putting things on or in. EG She arranged the furniture... It's quite trendy to have pine furniture... The only other piece of furniture was an old-fashioned wardrobe. N UNCOUNT

2 If you describe someone or something as part of the furniture, you mean that they have been near you so long or fit in with your surroundings so well that you do not notice that they are there; an informal expression. PHR : USED AS C = fixture furore /fjʊəᵊrɔːriⁱ/; also spelled furor in American English. A furore is a very angry or excited reaction by people to something. EG The half-hour lecture caused an enormous furore... ...the present furore over drugs. N SING WITH DET furrier /fʌrɪə/, furriers. A furrier is a person who makes or sells clothes made from fur. N COUNT furrow /fʌrəʊ/, furrows, furrowing, furrowed. 1 A furrow is 1.1 a long line in the earth, a few inches deep, which a farmer makes so that seeds can be planted in it or so that water for the crops can be made to flow down it. EG ...a field with parallel furrows running down it. 1.2 a deep, fairly wide, line in the surface of something. EG Generations of bare feet had worn a furrow in the floor. 1.3 a deep fold or line in the skin of someone's face. EG I could tell from the deep furrows in her forehead that she was very disturbed by the news. N COUNT ⇑ trench / N COUNT / N COUNT = wrinkle

2 If someone furrows their brow or forehead or if it furrows, it has deep folds in it because they are frowning. EG The pain of the disease caused him habitually to furrow his brow... Sutherland's brow V ERG furrowed. ◊ furrowed. EG ...the scholar's furrowed brow. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = lined

3 To furrow something means to make a deep line along its surface; a literary use. EG A bullet furrowed the wall beside him. V + O furry /fɜːri[1]/, furrier, furriest. 1 An animal or part of an animal that is furry is covered with thick, soft hair. EG The lemur has yellow eyes and a long furry tail. ADJ QUALIT

2 Something that is furry has a soft rough texture like fur. EG Barbara looked smart in a furry coat. ADJ QUALIT

3 If a person's tongue is furry, it is covered with a layer of a soft greyish-white substance. ADJ QUALIT

further /fɜːðə/, furthers, furthering, furthered. Further is a comparative form of 'far', and also a verb. 1 Further means more than before or more than something else, or to a greater extent or degree. EG The Chancellor was forced to deflate the economy still further... The situation was further complicated by uncertainty about the future... He sank further into debt... He had never read further than Chapter LXXIX. ADV WITH VB

2 If someone or something goes further or if someone takes a particular thing further, the thing is done to a more advanced or more extensive degree. EG Now, however, the government are keen to take the matter further... The art of the 1970's went further, abandoning tradition... They never got any further. ADV WITH VB

3 If you say you will go further or take something further in a discussion, you mean you will make a more extreme statement or deal with a point more thoroughly. EG I shall go further and say that Lawrence was playing a double game... I wouldn't want to take it any further at this stage. ADV WITH VB

4 When you refer to a further thing or number of things, or to a further amount of something, you are referring to an additional thing, number of things, or amount. EG Turkey is eager for a further round of talks with Greece.... There were no further casualties... ...a further five hundred pounds... For further information, see leaflet NI.49... I have at this stage no further comment on them... I don't think I've anything further to say. ADJ CLASSIF, OR ADJ AFTER N ⇑ more = extra

5 You use further to introduce a statement that relates to the same general topic and that gives additional information or makes an additional point; a fairly formal use. EG Davis related that the three girls were pretty; further, that before the ship sailed they had all acquired admirers... He argued that the freedom to join a union does not also imply a freedom not to join. He further argued that the 1980 Act would protect workers more. ADV SEN

6 Further to is used in business letters in expressions such as 'further to your letter' or 'further to our telephone discussion'. It indicates what you are referring to in the letter; a formal use. EG Further to your letter of the 16th, I am happy to inform you that I have now received the contract duly signed. PREP ⇑ with respect to = with reference to

7 Further also means a greater distance than before or than something else. EG ...further along the beach... I walked further than I intended... He closed the book and pushed the candle further from him... Further to the north, the British infantry advanced into the enemy lines. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...at the further end of the table. ADV = farther ▸ ADJ CLASSIF

8 If you tell someone that what you have just said must not go any further, you mean that it must not be told to anyone else. EG 'This mustn't go any further.'–'No it won't, I promise.' PHR : MODAL + PHR ⇑ not spread

9 Further is used in expressions such as 'further back' and 'further on' to refer to a point in time that is earlier or later than the one you are talking about, or earlier or later than the present time. EG It has its origins much further back in time... Three years further on, Linda has no regrets... Looking further ahead, airfields were to be built. ADV + ADV

10 If you detain someone further, delay something further, etc, you do it for an additional length of time. EG I won't detain you further. ADV WITH VB

11 If you further something, you help it to progress, to be successful, or to be achieved. EG We are no longer able to further the cause of world revolution... ...a plot by Morris to further his career. V + O ⇑ assist = advance, promote furtherance /fɜːðəˀrəns/. The furtherance of something is the activity of helping it to be successful or be achieved; a formal word. EG ...massive subsidies to cover deficits incurred in the furtherance of anti-inflation policy. N UNCOUNT ⇑ development = fostering further education is the education of people who have left school and who are not at a university, polytechnic, or college of higher education; used in British English. EG The state is pouring money into further education... ...further education courses. N UNCOUNT

furthermore /fɜːðəmɔː/ is used to introduce a piece of information or opinion that adds to or supports the previous one; a rather formal word. EG Computer chess games are still a bit expensive, but they are getting cheaper all the time. Furthermore their chess-playing strength is rising. ADV SEN ⇑ and = moreover, in addition furthermost /fɜːðəməʊst/. The furthermost one of a number of similar things is the one that is the greatest distance away from a particular place. EG We made our way to the furthermost hut. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = farthest furthest /fɜːðɪ[2]st/. Furthest is a superlative form of 'far'. 1 Furthest means to a greater extent or degree than ever before or than anything or anyone else, or more than ever before or than anyone or anything else. EG ...countries where commercialized farming has advanced furthest. ADV WITH VB, OR ADJ QUALIT : SUPERL ⇑ most

2 The furthest one of a number of similar things is the one that is the greatest distance away from a particular place. EG She sat near the furthest window. ▸ used as an adverb. EG ...the fields which lay furthest from his farm... It was often those without charts who got the furthest. ADJ CLASSIF = farthest ▸ ADV

furtive /fɜːtɪv/. If you are furtive, you behave as if you want to keep something secret or hidden. EG They suddenly looked furtive. ▸ used of people's behaviour and actions. EG Fear showed in his eyes, in the furtive darting of his gaze. ◊ furtively. EG She watched Gertie furtively pencil a note and slip it between the pages. ADJ QUALIT = secretive ▸ = sly ◊ ADV WITH VB = stealthily fury /fjʊəri[1]/. 1 Fury is violent or very strong anger. EG He clenched his fists in fury... There was fury in Miss Lenaut's dark eyes. N UNCOUNT = rage

2 If you are in a fury, you are very angry. EG When the women heard this, they jumped on Willie in a fury... He flew into a fury and said that the whole thing was disgusting. PHR : USED AS AN A = in a rage

3 If you run, fight, etc like fury, you do so with great energy, strength, or power; a rather old-fashioned expression. EG Charlie Barret could hit like fury. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ violently fuse /fjuːz/, fuses, fusing, fused. 1 A fuse is 1.1 a safety device in an electric plug or circuit, etc. It is a piece of wire which melts in order to stop the flow of electricity and which prevents fire. Fuse is also used to refer to the container that the piece of wire is in. EG Switch off lamp and mend the fuse again... Has the fuse blown then? 1.2 a failure in a piece of electrical equipment or in the electricity supply to a building, usually because too much electricity is used; a fairly informal use in British English. EG There's been a fuse. N COUNT N COUNT

2 When a light or some other electric device fuses or when you fuse it, it stops working because of a fault, especially because too much electricity is being used; used in British English. EG As usual, several of the street lamps had fused... If the wires had met they would have fused all the lights. V ERG

3 A fuse is also a device on a bomb or firework which causes a delay before the bomb explodes or firework goes off, so that you can get a safe distance away. It can be a long piece of wire or something more complicated. N COUNT = touch paper

4 When things fuse or are fused, they join together physically, usually to become one thing. EG During fertilization the sperm and egg fuse... The two slightly different images on the two retinae are fused in the cortex. V ERG : USU PASS ⇑ unite = merge

5 When two pieces of metal fuse or when you fuse them, they melt because of heat and become joined together. EG ...some pieces of gold coin that had fused together in the blaze. V ERG ⇑ combine

6 If something fuses two different ideas, subjects, beliefs, etc, it causes them to join together, especially in order to form a pleasing or satisfactory combination. EG ...the attempt to fuse new and old... In this portrait of Henry VII, art and history fuse in inextricable magic. V ERG ⇑ combine = blend fuse box, fuse boxes. A fuse box is a box that is usually fixed to a wall in a house or other building and that contains the fuses for all the electric circuits in the building. N COUNT

fused /fju:zd/. A fused plug, kettle, etc, has a fuse in it. ADJ CLASSIF fuselage /fju:zɪlɑ:ʒ/, fuselages. The fuselage is the main part of an aeroplane, missile, or rocket. It is usually cylindrical in shape. EG The plane tore through the iops of the elms, the fuselage disintegrating. N COUNT = body fuse wire is metal wire used in fuses. N UNCOUNT fusillade /fju:zɪleɪd, -lɑ:d/. A fusillade of shots is a large number of them fired at the same time. EG They retreated under a fusillade of bullets. ▸ used of criticism, questions, etc. EG He faced a fusillade of questions. N SING WITH DET + of ▸ = barrage fusion /fju:ʒən/, fusions. 1 Fusion is the act or process of fusing, or the state of being fused: see fuse. EG The movement's emotional appeal lay in the fusion of radical and socialist ideals. N UNCOUNT ⇑ union = synthesis

2 A fusion is something new that is created by a mixture of different qualities, ideas, or things. EG ...Tagore's fusion of Indian tradition and Western liberalism... The painting is a rich fusion of several elements. N COUNT ⇑ combination = blend

3 Fusion is also the process in which atomic particles combine and produce a large amount of nuclear energy; a technical use. EG ...a fusion bomb. N UNCOUNT fuss /fʌs/, fusses, fussing, fussed. 1 A fuss is anxious or excited behaviour which serves no useful purpose and which is often unwelcome. EG What is all the fuss about?... The meeting ended without too much fuss. N SING/UNCOUNT : IF + PREP THEN about/over = commotion

2 If you make a fuss of someone, you pay a lot of attention to them; used in British English. EG They like to be flattered and to be made a fuss of... She made a lot of fuss of her baby granddaughter. PHR : VB INFLECTS

3 If you fuss, you behave in a nervous, anxious way about small, unimportant matters and rush around doing unnecessary things. EG Stop fussing, Mary, and come here... He was a nuisance, always fussing and worrying... She's always fussing about her appearance. ▸ used as a noun. EG She is in a fuss because her mother's coming... She gets into a fuss when things go wrong. V : IF + PREP, THEN about/over ⇑ worry = fret ▸ N SING : a + N = flap

4 If there is a fuss, people become anxious or angry about something and complain about it; used in informal English. EG There's certain to be a fuss when Mother knows you've broken her best vase. N SING : a + N = to-do

5 If you make a fuss or kick up a fuss about something, you become angry or excited about it and complain; an informal expression. EG Alan kicked up a great fuss and swore our friendship was at an end... There's no point making a fuss about it. PHR : VB INFLECTS : IF + PREP THEN about/over = get worked up

6 If you fuss someone, you make a nuisance of yourself to them when they are busy; an informal use; used mainly in American English. EG Tim, please, just stop fussing me. V + O = pester fuss over. If you fuss over someone or something, you pay too much attention to them or show too much concern or affection for them. EG Matty was inclined to fuss over her health... She is being fussed over too much. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS fusspot /fʌspɒt/, fusspots. A fusspot is a person who is always complaining and is difficult to please; an informal word. EG Sit down and stop being such a fusspot, Karen. N COUNT/VOC = worrier fussy /fʌsi[1]/, fussier, fussiest. 1 People who are fussy 1.1 are very concerned with unimportant details and are difficult to please. EG I hope you're not fussy about garlic. ◊ fussiness. EG She was upset by his fussiness about his food. 1.2 get nervous and excited about things that are not important. EG Feeling over-anxious and fussy I began to question her further. ◊ fussily. EG She fussily checked all the arrangements. ADJ QUALIT ◊ N UNCOUNT ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB

2 Clothes and furniture are described as fussy when they have too many elaborate details or too much decoration. EG ...fussy lace curtains. ◊ fussily. EG She was fussily dressed. ADJ QUALIT = fancy ◊ ADV WITH VB

3 If someone offers you a choice of two things and you say 'I'm not fussy', you mean that you would be equally pleased with either thing. EG 'Tea or coffee?'–'I'm not fussy.' CONVENTION = I don't mind

fusty /fʌsti[1]/, fustier, fustiest. Something that is fusty 1 is old-fashioned in attitudes or ideas; used showing disapproval. EG I was sent to a fusty old school in the country. 2 has a stale smell. EG The sleeping bag smelt fusty. ADJ QUALIT = archaic ADJ QUALIT = musty futile /fju:taɪl/. If you think something is futile, you think it has no chance of achieving what you want. EG ...a series of costly and futile wars... She knew from experience how futile it was to argue with her father. ADJ QUALIT = pointless

2 If you say something is futile, it sounds foolish and has no value. EG She kept making futile remarks while I was trying to concentrate on the lecture. ADJ QUALIT = inane futility /fju:tɪlɪti[1]/ is a total lack of purpose or usefulness. EG She sits there brooding on the futility of human effort... ...the futility of life. N UNCOUNT future /fju:tʃə/, futures. 1 The future is the period of time that will take place after the present. EG Industrial unrest will continue into the foreseeable future... We will have to see what the future holds... The offices of the future may well have no typewriters... They look to the future with a certain anxiety. N SING : the + N

2 You use in the future to refer to a period of time after now. This expression is often used with an adjective to indicate that you are thinking about a particular period of time. For example, 'in the distant future' means a long time from now. EG I can see nothing in the future but boredom and pain... She's not going to get rid of them in the foreseeable future. I don't know what'll happen in the near future... I'm leaving in the not too distant future. ...some mythical date in the distant future. ● For the future means in the future or in preparation for the future. EG What plans do you have for the future?... We've got to meet training requirements for the future. ● You use in future to indicate that you want things to change or to be done differently from now on. You are often criticizing someone and telling them to change their behaviour. EG Be more careful in future... We will be able to avoid it in future. PHR : USED AS AN A ● PHR : USED AS AN A ● ADV SEN

3 Future is used to describe something that relates to the future. EG Let's meet again at some future date... ...the need to conserve energy for future generations... She stored it all away for her own future reference. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

4 The future is what is going to happen, in contrast to what is now happening or what has already happened. EG We have the future to think of... The future was obscure and peace was not yet in sight... We need to face the future. N SING WITH DET ⇑ situation

5 Your future is what will happen to you, especially in your career. EG They have to find their own way to whatever political future they might choose... I decided that my future lay in medicine... I'm convinced that there is a sound future in farming. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

6 If something has a future, it is likely to succeed. EG Members of the public might wonder if this scheme has any future at all... He had faith in its future. N SING WITH DET = prospects

7 The future tense of a verb is the one used when you want to talk about things that will happen, in contrast to things that have happened or are happening. ADJ CLASSIF futuristic /fju:tʃərɪstɪk/. Something that is futuristic seems very strange and modern, as if belonging to a time in the future when science has made great advances. EG ...a futuristic reference to push-button voting... There was a futuristic weirdness about the place. ADJ QUALIT = avant-garde fuzz /fʌz/. 1 Fuzz is used to refer to 1.1 short, soft hairs sticking out from a person's skin, especially from their face, arms or legs. EG ...the light, blond fuzz on his cheeks. 1.2 curly hair that does not have a definite shape. N UNCOUNT = down N UNCOUNT

2 The fuzz are the police; an informal expression. EG 'I didn't steal it'–'You tell the fuzz that.' N SING : the + N fuzzy /fʌzi[1]/, fuzzier, fuzziest. 1 Hair that is fuzzy sticks up in a firm, soft mass. EG He's the one with fuzzy red hair. ADJ QUALIT = frizzy

2 If something is fuzzy, it has a covering that feels soft and like fur. EG When I woke up my tongue and teeth felt fuzzy. ADJ QUALIT = furry

3 A fuzzy photograph, television picture, etc has a blurred outline or shape. EG The picture is fuzzy. ADJ QUALIT

4 If your thoughts are fuzzy or what you are thinking about is fuzzy, you are confused and cannot see an idea clearly or make a decision. ◊ fuzzily. EG I suppose I'm thinking rather fuzzily. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unclear ◊ ADV WITH VB

5 You also describe something as fuzzy when it is not clearly defined and is indistinct or vague. EG The difference between the leader and the led has become fuzzy. ADJ QUALIT

Gg

G, g /ʤiː/, Gs, g's. G is used as both the singular and the plural form for paragraph 3. 1 G is the seventh letter of the English alphabet. N COUNT

2 G, in music, is the fifth note in the scale of C major.

3 A G is 3.1 a measurement of the rate of acceleration in something such as a space rocket. One G is equivalent to the earth's gravitational pull. EG At race speeds drivers are subject to forces of several G as they corner. N COUNT : USU NUM + N

3.2 a thousand pounds or dollars; a very informal use, mainly in American English. EG They stole 1000G of equipment. N COUNT : NUM + N = grand, K

4 G or g is also an abbreviation for words beginning with g, such as 'gram,' 'gallon,' or 'German'.

gab /gæb/, gabs, gabbing, gabbed; an informal word. 1 If someone gabs, they talk a lot without saying anything that is important or useful. EG What were you two men gabbing about? V : IF + PREP THEN about = natter

2 If you say that someone has the gift of the gab, you mean that they have the ability to speak easily, confidently, and in a persuasive way. PHR : USED AS O ⇑ eloquence gabardine /gæbədiːn/, gabardines; also spelled gaberdine. Gabardine is a fairly thick cloth which is used especially for making coats. EG ...a grey gabardine suit. ▸ A gabardine is a coat made from this cloth. N UNCOUNT ▸ N COUNT ⇑ coat gabble /gæbə^{0}l/, gabbles, gabbling, gabbled; an informal word. 1 If you gabble, you say things so quickly that it is difficult for people to understand you. EG The result was that we gabbled and the audience could barely hear us... 'Look here,' he gabbled, 'It's about the Harvest Festival.' V : IF + PREP THEN about, OR V + O/QUOTE ⇑ speak = babble

2 Gabble is very fast talking that is difficult to understand, especially because a lot of people are all talking at once. EG There was a gabble of conversation in the pub. N UNCOUNT ⇑ speech = babble gable /geɪbə^{0}l/, gables. A gable is the triangular part at the top of the end wall of a building, between the two sloping sides of the roof. N COUNT gabled /geɪbə^{0}ld/ is used to describe houses that have a gable or gables. EG ...small gabled houses. ADJ CLASSIF

gad /gæd/, gads, gadding, gadded. If you gad about or gad around, you go to a lot of different places looking for amusement and entertainment; an informal and old-fashioned word. EG This is hardly the time to be gadding around. V + A (about/around) = gallivant gadget /gædʒɪ^{2}t/, gadgets. A gadget is a small machine or device which does something useful. EG ...household gadgets... Never connect an electric gadget to a light socket. N COUNT = appliance gadgetry /gædʒɪ^{2}tri^{1}/ consists of small machines or devices that do something useful. EG New developments will make the present gadgetry look very old-fashioned. N UNCOUNT ⇑ machinery

Gaelic /geɪlɪk/. 1 Gaelic is a language spoken by people in parts of Scotland and Ireland. N UNCOUNT

2 Something that is Gaelic is written or spoken in Gaelic, or relates to people who speak Gaelic. EG ...an old Gaelic proverb. ADJ CLASSIF gaff /gæf/. If you blow the gaff you let someone know a secret that other people do not want them to know, especially by mistake or without meaning to; an informal expression. EG Was Mrs Welch there when he blew the gaff about the phone call? PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ reveal = blab gaffe /gæf/, gaffes. A gaffe is something that you say or do that is considered to be socially incorrect, and that offends or upsets people. EG I had no idea of the gaffe which I was committing. N COUNT ⇑ mistake = faux pas gaffer /gæfə/, gaffers; an informal word used in British English. 1 The gaffer in a business, a factory, or on a building site is the man in charge, for example the owner or a foreman. EG You'll have to ask the gaffer. N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING ⇑ supervisor = guvnor

2 Some people use gaffer to refer to any man, especially an old man. EG ...an old gaffer not famous for his tact. N COUNT = fellow gag /gæg/, gags, gagging, gagged. 1 A gag is something such as a piece of cloth that is tied round or put inside someone's mouth in order to stop them from speaking or shouting. EG A gag was taped over his mouth and he could hardly breathe. N COUNT

2 If someone gags you, they tie a piece of cloth round your mouth in order to stop you from speaking or shouting. EG She was tied up and gagged and left in a locked room. V + O ⇑ silence

3 If you gag, you choke and nearly vomit. EG Dr. Hutchinson suddenly gagged. 'Too much wine. Forgive me.' V : NO IMPER = retch

4 In informal English, a gag is a joke, especially one told by a professional comedian. EG Where do you get all these gags? N COUNT gaga /gɑːgɑː/. Someone who is gaga is senile; a very informal word. EG She's seventy-seven and rather gaga. ADJ QUALIT gaggle /gægə^{0}l/, gaggles. 1 A gaggle of geese is a group of geese. N PART + N IN PLURAL

2 You can use gaggle to refer to a group of people, usually when you want to express disapproval or contempt for them. EG ...a gaggle of critics... ...a gaggle of disorderly little girls. N PART + N IN PLURAL ⇑ group gaiety /geɪə^{2}ti^{1}/ is a feeling or attitude of liveliness and fun. EG ...the grim facts which lie behind the facade of gaiety... ...fresh youthful gaiety. N UNCOUNT gaily /geɪli^{1}/. 1 If you do something gaily, you do it in a lively, happy way. EG Off we set, with Pam chattering gaily all the way... She waved goodbye very gaily, her scarf fluttering in the wind. ADV WITH VB ⇑ happily = blithely, cheerily

2 Something that is gaily coloured or decorated is coloured or decorated in a bright, pretty way. EG ...gaily coloured wrappers for chocolates. ADV WITH VB ⇑ prettily = brightly gain /geɪn/, gains, gaining, gained. 1 If you gain something such as an ability or quality, you gradually get more of it. EG After a nervous start, the speaker began to gain confidence... She has gained a reputation for toughness... The opposition party is gaining in popularity... This gives you a chance to gain experience. V + O, OR V + A (in) = pick up

2 If you gain from something such as an event or situation, you get some advantage or benefit from it. EG We all hope to gain from the company's recent success... What has Britain gained by being a member of the EEC?... ...the pleasure to be gained from books. V OR V + O : USU + A = profit

3 A gain is 3.1 an advantage or improvement that has been obtained by effort or skill. EG Unemployment was high despite the gains of the civil rights movement... ...some notable gains in productivity. N COUNT = advance

3.2 an increase in an amount of something, for example weight or price. EG The price of gold fell again today following yesterday's gains. N COUNT

4 If you do something for gain, you do it in order to get some advantage or profit for yourself; a rather formal use. EG He did it as much out of kindness as for financial gain. N UNCOUNT

5 If something gains speed, height, weight, etc, it moves faster, or becomes higher, heavier, etc. EG The car gained speed as it rolled down the hill... The campaign seems to be gaining momentum... Gaining height, he saw Fairwater like a relief map on the ground below him... He had stopped smoking and had gained thirty pounds. V OR V + O ⇑ increase = gather

6 If you gain a place, you reach it, especially after a lot of hard work or effort; a literary use. EG I finally gained the shore. V + O

7 If a clock or watch gains, it moves too fast and shows a time that is later than the real time. EG My watch gains about 10 minutes every day. V OR V + O ⇑ speed

8 If an idea, political movement, etc, gains ground, it gradually becomes more widely known or accepted. EG Their ideas are gaining ground. PHR : VB INFLECTS = make headway

9 If you do something in order to gain time, you do it in order to give yourself enough time to think of an excuse or a way out of a difficult situation. EG 'It would look nice,' said Judy, to gain time... It was a ruse to gain time. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ delay gain on. If you gain on someone or something that is moving in front of you, you gradually catch them up. EG You'll have to drive faster-they're gaining on us... We were gaining on him towards the end of the race. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = catch up with gainful /geɪnfʊl/. Something that is gainful is useful or profitable; a formal word. EG ...gainful employment... ...all manner of professions and gainful pursuits. ◊ gainfully. EG Clearly there was nothing that could gainfully be said... ...gainfully employed.

ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB = worthwhile
◊ ADV WITH VB = usefully

gainsay /geɪnseɪ/, gainsays, gainsaying, gainsaid. If something cannot be gainsaid or there is no gainsaying it, it is true or correct and cannot be denied or contradicted; a formal word. EG Teachers have expertise that cannot be gainsaid... This was such an evident truth that there was no gainsaying it.
V + O : USU WITH BROAD NEG = dispute

gait /geɪt/, gaits. A gait is a particular way of walking; a formal word. EG ...her habitual gait.
N COUNT : SUPP : USU SING

gaiter /geɪtə/, gaiters. Gaiters are coverings made of cloth, leather, or other material for your legs below your knees. Gaiters were commonly worn in former times, but are now mainly worn by climbers and skiers or as part of an old-fashioned uniform. EG ...a fat man in breeches and gaiters.
N COUNT : USU PL

gal /gæl/, gals. Gal is used in written English to represent the word girl pronounced this way in a particular accent: compare gel. EG Since she's known you she's a different gal... ...a very nice, ladylike gal.
N COUNT : VOC ⇑ woman = girl

gal. or gals. also spelled gall. or galls. are written abbreviations for 'gallon' or 'gallons'. EG ...fuel tank capacity: 7 gals.

gala /gɑːlə, geɪlə/, galas. A gala is a special public celebration, entertainment, or performance, for example a carnival or festival. EG ...the special guest on a gala occasion... ...Charity Gala Night at the Royal Opera House... ...a swimming gala.
N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES

galactic /gəlæktɪk/ means concerned with or relating to the Galaxy or to galaxies in space.
ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

galaxy /gæləksi[1]/, galaxies. 1 A galaxy is a huge group of stars and planets that extends over many millions of miles. EG ...distant stars and galaxies.
N COUNT ⇑ system

2 The Galaxy is the huge group of stars and planets to which the Earth and the Solar System belong.
N PROPER : the + N

3 If you talk about a galaxy of people from a particular profession, you mean a group of them who are all famous or important. EG I'd never before seen such a galaxy of actors and actresses... ...a galaxy of legal talent.
N SING WITH DET + of = array gale /geɪl/, gales. 1 A gale is a very strong wind. EG There seemed to be a gale blowing all the time... ...a force nine gale.

N COUNT

2 A gale of laughter is the loud noise made by a lot of people when they all laugh at the same time; a rather literary use. EG It's wonderful to get great gales of laughter when you tell a joke.
N PART : USU PLURAL + N UNCOUNT ⇑ outburst = explosion

gall /gɔːl/, galls, galling, galled; a rather old-fashioned or literary word. 1 If you say that someone has the gall to do something dangerous, risky, or dishonest, you mean that they have the courage or boldness to do it; often used showing disapproval. EG They haven't the gall to steal, nor the stability to work.
N UNCOUNT, OR N UNCOUNT + *to*INF = nerve

2 If something galls you, it causes you to feel very angry or annoyed. EG It galled him to have to ask permission to go into town.
V + O ⇑ anger = irk gallant /gælənt/; also pronounced /gəlænt/ in rather old-fashioned English for paragraph 2. 1 Someone who is gallant is very brave and honourable when they are in danger or great difficulty. EG They are one of the most distinguished and most gallant peoples in Europe. ▸ Used of people's behaviour and actions. EG They have put up a gallant fight for pensioners over the years. ◊ gallantly. EG Gallantly they battled on.

ADJ QUALIT = courageous, heroic
◊ ADV WITH VB = valiantly

2 A man who is gallant is kind, polite, and considerate towards other people, especially women. EG 'Allow me,' said the gallant policeman. ▸ Used of people's actions and behaviour. EG ...a gallant bow. ◊ gallantly. EG He gallantly offered to carry her cases to the car.
ADJ QUALIT = gentlemanly, courteous
◊ ADV WITH VB = chivalrously

gallantry /gælənˈtri[1]/ is 1 bravery that is shown by someone who is in danger, especially when they are fighting in a war. EG He was awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry in combat. 2 polite and considerate behaviour towards people, especially women. EG ...old-fashioned gallantry.
N UNCOUNT
N UNCOUNT ⇑ politeness

gall bladder, gall bladders; also spelled with a hyphen. Your gall bladder is the organ in your body which contains bile and is next to your liver. EG ...inflammation of the gall bladder.
N COUNT

galleon /gælɪən/, galleons. A galleon is a sailing ship with three masts. Galleons were used mainly in the fifteenth to seventeenth centuries. EG ...Spanish galleons.
N COUNT

gallery /gæləˈri[1]/, galleries. 1 A gallery is 1.1 a place that has permanent exhibitions of works of art in it. EG I'd like a job restoring pictures in the National Gallery. 1.2 a large room in a museum or art gallery that contains a particular exhibition or display. EG The main galleries for exhibition lie up the grand stairway. 1.3 a place rather like a shop where works of art are displayed and sold, often a collection of works of art by the same artist. EG Two galleries in London kept him gainfully occupied. 1.4 a raised area at the back or at the sides of a large room or hall. People often stand or sit in the gallery to get a good view of what is happening. EG We used to sneak into the public gallery at Parliament to listen to the debates. 1.5 an underground passage in a mine or cave. EG Before you stretches a long gallery not much more than a metre high.
N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES
N COUNT ⇑ balcony
N COUNT

2 The gallery in a theatre or concert hall is a raised area like a large balcony that usually contains the cheapest seats. EG He used to see his plays from the gallery at His Majesty's Theatre. ▸ used to refer to the people who sit in the gallery. EG The gallery always applauded celebrities when they arrived. ● If you play to the gallery, you do something in public in a way which you hope will impress people. EG If anyone was playing to the gallery, it was the Prime Minister.
N COUNT : USU the + N IN SING = gods ▸ ⇑ people
● PHR : VB INFLECTS

galley /gæliˈ[1]/, galleys. A galley is 1 a ship used in former times. Galleys had sails and many oars and were often rowed by slaves or prisoners. EG ...galley slaves. 2 the kitchen of a ship or an aircraft. EG I went through to the tiny galley to wash up.
N COUNT
N COUNT

Gallic /gælɪk/. Something that is Gallic belongs to or is associated with France or the French people; a fairly formal word. EG ...the Gallic nation.
ADJ CLASSIF

gallivant /gælɪvænt/, gallivants, gallivanting, gallivanted. If you gallivant about or gallivant around, you go to a lot of different places looking for amusement and entertainment; a rather old-fashioned word. EG You're here to do a job, not go gallivanting around all those country clubs.
V + A = gad about gallon /gælən/, gallons. A gallon is 1 in Britain and many Commonwealth countries, a unit of volume that is equal to eight pints, or 4.55 litres. EG Three gallons of hot water... He got a gallon jar and filled it with water... The little red car would do fifty miles per gallon. 2 in America, a unit of volume that is equal to eight American pints, or 3.79 litres.

N COUNT : USU NUM + N
N COUNT : USU NUM + N

gallop /gæləp/, gallops, galloping, galloped. 1 When a horse gallops, it runs very fast so that all four legs are off the ground at the same time in each stride. EG The horse galloped down the road with his ears flat to his head.
V : USU + A ⇑ run

2 If you gallop, 2.1 you ride a horse that is galloping. EG I galloped bareback... We galloped the horses up to the moor. 2.2 you run somewhere very fast; an informal use. EG The doctor thanked him effusively and galloped down the stairs. 2.3 you do something much more quickly than usual; an informal use. EG There was no hurry, no need to gallop through the reading.
V OR V + O : USU + A
V + A = bolt
V + A (through) ⇑ rush = race

3 A gallop is 3.1 a ride on a horse that is galloping. EG ...a brisk morning's gallop. 3.2 a very fast rate at which you do something, or at which something develops or progresses; an informal use. EG We had a quick gallop through British history.
N COUNT
N SING WITH DET = trip

4 At a gallop means 4.1 riding a horse that is galloping. EG They came up the hill at a full gallop, sweat glistening on their coats. 4.2 running very fast. EG The dogs would follow at a gallop, yapping and yelping. 4.3 happening or developing at a very fast rate; an informal use. EG Man has mounted the evolutionary ladder at a gallop.
PHR : USED AS AN A
PHR : USED AS AN A
PHR : USED AS AN A

galloping /gæləpɪŋ/ is used to describe something that is increasing or developing at a very fast rate and is difficult or impossible to control. EG The oil crisis of the seventies brought galloping inflation on an international scale... ...dying of galloping consumption.
ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = rampant

gallows /gæləʊz/. Gallows is both the singular and the plural form. A gallows is a wooden frame used to execute criminals by hanging.
N COUNT = gibbet

gallstone /gɔ̄lstəʊn/, gallstones. A gallstone is a small and painful lump which can develop in your gall bladder. N COUNT

Gallup poll /gælʊp pəʊl/, Gallup polls. A Gallup poll is a survey in which a group of people, specially chosen to represent all the people in a country, are asked for their opinion on something. Gallup polls are especially used to ask people how they will vote in an election, in order to predict the result. N COUNT, OR by + N galore /gəlɔ̄ː/ means existing in very large numbers; an informal and slightly old-fashioned word. EG There are empty houses galore, many of them owned by the council... ...friendly bars, restaurants, and night clubs galore. ADJ AFTER N IN PLURAL = in profusion galoshes /gəlɒʃɪz/ are waterproof shoes, usually made of rubber, which you wear over your ordinary shoes to prevent them getting wet. EG He was wearing galoshes and an absurd hat. N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N galvanize /gælvənaɪz/, galvanizes, galvanizing, galvanized; also spelled galvanise. To galvanize someone means to cause them to do something suddenly, for example by making them feel excited, afraid, or angry. EG The lecture galvanized several others into action... She became galvanized. She started to run... ...galvanizing support for a wealth tax. V + O : USU + A (into) ⇑ provoke = rouse, excite galvanized /gælvənaɪzd/; also spelled galvanised. Galvanized is used to describe metal, especially iron and steel, which has been covered with zinc in order to protect it, especially from rust. EG ...a small galvanized iron shed... ...galvanized steel wire. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB gambit /gæmbɪt/, gambits. A gambit is 1 an action or set of actions in a situation or game, which you do in order to try to gain an advantage, but which often involves taking a risk. EG ...a good gambit for attracting attention... We discussed the various opening gambits used in chess... His basic gambit is to give them presents a couple of weeks beforehand. N COUNT : USU MOD + N = ploy, manoeuvre

2 something you say to someone in order to start a conversation with them, often when you are trying to gain some advantage from them. EG 'Been sick?' I asked. As a conversational gambit it lacked something... ...suitable opening gambits for dinner parties. N COUNT : USU MOD + N = line gamble /gæmbə^{l}/, gambles, gambling, gambled. 1 A gamble is a risky action or decision that you take in the hope of gaining money, success, or an advantage. EG We came to a decision, took a gamble, and lost... ...a gamble that paid off for us... ...a logical process rather than a wild gamble. N COUNT : USU SING = risk, chance

2 If you gamble, 2.1 you take a risky action or decision in the hope of gaining money, success, or an advantage. EG The company gambled all on the new factory... ...gambling on the assumption that the file had been lost. V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ risk

2.2 you bet money in a game such as cards or on the result of a race or competition, especially as a regular activity. EG Fred gambled his profits away... There was little to do except gamble and drink beer... He gambled heavily on the horses. V OR V + O : IF + PREP THEN on ⇑ risk gambler /gæmblə/, gamblers. A gambler is someone who gambles regularly, for example in card games or horseracing. EG I'm not a gambler, but I did have a few pounds on the Derby... He had the impassive face of a professional gambler. N COUNT ⇑ player = punter gambling /gæmblɪŋ/ is the act or habit of betting money, for example in card games, horseracing, etc. EG He used the firm's money to pay off gambling debts... He ran a gambling casino. N UNCOUNT gambol /gæmbə^{l}/, gambols, gambolling, gambolled; also spelled gamboling, gamboled in American English. If people or animals gambol, they run or jump about in a playful way. EG ...with his dogs gambolling round him. V : USU + A ⇑ play = romp game /geɪm/, games. 1 A game is 1.1 an activity or sport involving skill, knowledge, or chance, in which you follow fixed rules and try to win against an opponent or to solve a puzzle. EG You need two people to play this game... In a game like tennis, the score is kept by the umpire... ...word games... ...computer games. N COUNT

1.2 a particular occasion, usually arranged in advance, on which a game is played. EG On the hockey pitch Miss Cadogan was umpiring a game... He played in a game of cricket against a team from St Mary's... This was our last game, which we lost 6-3. N COUNT = match

1.3 a part of a match, for example in tennis or bridge, consisting of a fixed number of points. EG ...Game to Becker. Becker leads by four games to one... ...game, set and match. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT

1.4 the degree of skill or the style that someone uses when playing a particular game. EG The worse Dudley's game got, the more his stomach ached... Could computers ever play a decent game of chess?... There is a ruthlessness about his game. N SING : USU POSS ⇑ performance

1.5 the equipment that you need to play a particular indoor game, for example a specially marked board, dice, or special cards. EG A box of toys, games, books... He'd have games to play with in the nursery. N COUNT

1.6 an activity that children do, for example pretending to be someone or using toys. EG The twins were playing a game with toy oil tankers... Other games were looking in shop windows and making faces. N COUNT

1.7 a situation that you do not treat seriously. EG They think life is a game... He told himself it was only a game, a little revenge. N COUNT : USU a + N, USED AS C ⇑ joke = jest

1.8 a way of behaving in which a person uses a particular plan, especially in order to gain an advantage. EG ...these games that politicians play... It's a ridiculous game of bluff and counter-bluff... ...the power game. N COUNT : USU + SUPP

2 The word game is also used in the following expressions. 2.1 If you say It's all part of the game, you are telling someone not to be surprised or upset by something, because it is a normal part of the situation that they are in. CONVENTION

2.2 If you beat someone at their own game, you use the same methods that they have used, but more successfully, so that you gain an advantage over them. EG The Japanese were trouncing the West at its own game. PHR : USED AS AN A

2.3 If you say the game is up or someone's game is up, you mean that their secret plans or activities have been revealed and therefore must stop because they cannot succeed. EG He glanced at Marianne, 'Game's up, love'... The British realized that the game was up. CONVENTION, OR PHR : VB INFLECTS

2.4 If something or someone gives the game away, they reveal the secret of a plan, puzzle, trick, etc and prevent it being successful or enjoyable. EG I always give the game away–you've only got to look at my face... The key words have been omitted because they would give the game away. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ disclose

2.5 If you are new to a particular game, you have not done a particular activity or been in a particular situation before. EG I'm a bit new to this game myself. PHR : USED AS C ⇑ inexperienced

2.6 If you say that someone is playing games or playing silly games, you mean that they are not treating a situation seriously and that you are annoyed with them. EG Stop playing games, Jeremy!... All she ever does is play silly games. PHR : VB INFLECTS = mess about

2.7 If you say that someone is not playing the game, you mean that they are not behaving in a fair or reasonable way in a particular situation. PHR : VB INFLECTS = play fair

2.8 If someone asks you 'What's your game?', they are suspicious of your behaviour and want to know what your intentions are; an informal expression. CONVENTION

3 Game is 3.1 wild animals or birds that are hunted or killed for sport and sometimes cooked and eaten. EG The men had gone to hunt wild game... ...meat, game and poultry... ...game reserves. N UNCOUNT

3.2 a person who you think can be tricked, made to look foolish, or persuaded to do what you want them to. EG I look easy game... The daughter of a general was after bigger game. N UNCOUNT : USU MOD + N = prey

4 If you say that someone is game or game for something, you mean that they are willing to do something new, unusual or risky. EG He was certainly game. I put him on the horse and he didn't look at all scared... I'm game for anything! ● See also gamely. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED, IF + PREP THEN for

5 Games are 5.1 an organized event in which competitions in several sports take place. EG ...the ground on which the games were held... ...the Highland Games... ...a gold medal winner in the Olympic Games. N PLURAL : the + N, ALSO IN NAMES

5.2 in British English, organized sports activities that children do at school. EG You were always hopeless at games at school... ...a games mistress. N PLURAL

6 See also ball game, fair game, waiting game. ● the name of the game : see name. ● fun and games : see fun.

gamekeeper /geɪmkiːpə/, gamekeepers. A gamekeeper is a person who takes care of the wild animals or birds that are kept on someone's land for shooting or hunting. EG Sir Matthew's gamekeeper raised pheasants. N COUNT ⇑ keeper gamely /geɪmli^{l}/ means done bravely or with effort. EG The vicar rose gamely to the challenge... The book gamely tries to avoid moralizing. ADV WITH VB = resolutely gamesmanship /geɪmzmənʃɪp/ is the art or practice of winning a game by methods that are not against the rules but are very close to cheating. EG It is gamesmanship to make a loud noise while your opponent is playing. N UNCOUNT ⇑ psychology gaming /geɪmɪŋ/ is the same as gambling, especially at cards or roulette; an formal or old-fashioned word. EG ...gaming clubs... ...the Betting and Gaming Act of 1960. N UNCOUNT

gamma /gæmə/, gammas. Gamma is the third letter of the Greek alphabet, sometimes used as a mark or grade given for a student's work. N COUNT: UNCOUNT

gamma rays are a type of electromagnetic radiation that has a shorter wavelength and higher energy than X-rays. N PLURAL gammon /gæmən/; used mainly in British English. Gammon is meat from the back leg or the side of a pig. Gammon is usually fried or grilled like bacon, but can also be smoked or salted like ham. EG ...a piece of gammon... ...gammon rashers. N UNCOUNT ⇑ pork gamut /gæmə^{t}t/. The gamut of something is the wide variety of things that can be included in it. EG ...the entire gamut of London politics... ...a rich gamut of facial expressions. ● If you run the gamut of something, you experience or express the wide variety of things that can be included in it. EG She ran the gamut of all the illnesses that babies can have... Its snarls ran the gamut from pain to terror. N SING WITH DET: USU + of ⇑ range ● PHR: VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN of/from to gander /gændə/, ganders. A gander is a male goose. N COUNT gang /gæŋ/, gangs, ganging, ganged. When gang is used as a noun in the singular, it can be used with a singular or a plural verb. A gang is 1 a group of criminals who work together to commit crimes. EG Highly organized gangs of criminals had been operating there for years... ...a gang of terrorists... ...gang bosses. 2 a group of people, especially young people, who usually go around together and often deliberately cause trouble. EG They stood around in gangs, frightening people and breaking windows... ...fights with rival gangs... ...violent street gangs. 3 a group of people who are connected in some way; an informal use. EG ...his gang of dedicated young fellow pianists. 4 a group of friends who frequently meet socially; an informal use. EG The whole gang's there–Suzie, Jack, Karen. 5 a group of workers who work together. EG ...a gang of six labourers clearing weeds... Lorries picked the work gangs up at dusk. N COUNT = pack N COUNT = company N COUNT = crowd N COUNT = party gang up. If people gang up, they unite against someone else in a fight or argument or for a particular purpose; used in informal English. EG They are ganging up against you... National groups are ganging up to claim their rights. PHRASAL VB: V + ADV, USU + A/to-INF gangland /gæŋlə^{n}d/ is used to describe activities or people that are involved in organized crime. EG They were all gangland killers... ...a New York gangland boss. ADJ CLASSIF: ATTRIB = underworld gangling /gæŋglɪŋ/ is used to describe a young person, especially a man, who is tall, thin, and clumsy in their movements. EG A tall, slender, gangling young man with big feet... ...a gangling twenty-year-old by the name of Pyle. ADJ CLASSIF = lanky gangplank /gæŋplæŋk/, gangplanks. A gangplank is a short bridge or platform that can be placed between the side of a ship or boat and the shore, so that people can get on or off. EG The gangplank was again lowered and they were put ashore. N COUNT = ramp gangrene /gæŋgriːn/ is the decay that can occur in a part of a person's body if the blood stops flowing to it, for example as a result of illness or injury. EG It was badly infected, but she had ignored it, so gangrene had set in. N UNCOUNT gangrenous /gæŋgrɪnəs/ is used to describe a part of a person's body that has been affected by gangrene. EG They had to amputate the gangrenous leg. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ rotting gangster /gæŋstə/, gangsters. A gangster is a member of an organized group of violent criminals. EG ...muggers, thieves, and gangsters... ...a gangster film. N COUNT ⇑ criminal gangway /gæŋweɪ/, gangways. A gangway is 1 a passage left between rows of seats, for example in a theatre or aircraft, for people to walk along; used mainly in British English. EG In a fairly empty bus, he had chosen a gangway seat... ...sitting below the gangway in the House of Commons. 2 a gangplank leading onto a ship. EG ...walking down the gangway to the wharf. N COUNT = aisle N COUNT gantry /gæntri^{1}/, gantries. A gantry is a high metal structure that supports a crane, a set of road signs, railway signals, or other equipment. EG There was only one metal ladder up to the gantry... The gantry was crammed with photographic lights. N COUNT gaol /dʒeɪl/, gaols, gaoling, gaoled; used mainly in British English. 1 A gaol is the same as a jail. EG He spent two months in gaol... ...the roof of the gaol... She went to gaol for assault. N UNCOUNT: COUNT = prison

2 If you gaol someone, you jail them. EG The Judge gaoled her for three months. V + O

gaoler /dʒeɪlə/, gaolers. A gaoler is the same as a jailer; used mainly in British English. EG He escaped from his gaolers. N COUNT = warder gap /gæp/, gaps. A gap is 1 an empty space or hole in the middle of something solid or between two things or people. EG ...a narrow gap in the mountains... She had gaps in her teeth... ...the gap between the two coverings... Fill in the gaps on the diagram. 2 a period of time when you are not busy or when you stop doing something that you normally do. EG After a gap of two or three years, she went back to college... ...that five year gap when you didn't sing... This leaves an awkward gap in the afternoon. 3 the absence of something in a situation that prevents it from being satisfactory or complete. EG This book fills a major gap... In spite of these gaps, the story remains clear... You may not get a pension if there are gaps in your record. 4 a great difference between two things, two groups of people, or two sets of ideas. EG The gap between rich and poor regions widened... ...bridging the gap between pro-government and pro-union members... ...a trade gap of only £450 million. ● See also generation gap. N COUNT: USU + A N COUNT: USU + A ⇑ interval = hiatus N COUNT ⇑ deficiency N COUNT: USU + between = gulf gape /geɪp/, gapes, gaping, gaped. 1 If you gape, you look at someone or something in surprise, especially with an open mouth. EG Jackson gaped in astonishment at the result... McPherson gaped. 'You talked to the Chairman?' ◊ gaping. EG ...gaping tourists... They gathered round him with gaping eyes. 2 If something gapes, it opens wide or comes apart. EG The front door gaped open... Her lips gaped in laughter... The shirt gapes to reveal his chest. ◊ gaping. EG The dressing gown had a gaping hole in it... His stomach was a gaping wound... ...poured water down their gaping throats. V: IF + PREP THEN at ⇑ stare = goggle ◊ ADJ CLASSIF: USU ATTRIB V ◊ ADJ CLASSIF: USU ATTRIB = cavernous gappy /gæpi^{1}/ is used to describe something that contains a lot of gaps, especially people who have gaps in their teeth. EG She plunged her gappy teeth into it... His speech was gappy. ADJ CLASSIF gap-toothed. A gap-toothed person has wide spaces between their teeth. EG ...a genial gap-toothed man... ...a gap-toothed grin. ADJ CLASSIF: USU ATTRIB

garage /gæraːʒ, -rɪdʒ/, garages. A garage is 1 a building in which you keep a car, often built next to or as part of a house. EG It was lying in pieces at home in the garage... He jumped out of the car and opened the garage doors. 2 a place where you can get your car repaired, buy a car, or buy petrol. EG It was Sunday and the garage was closed... ...garage mechanics. N COUNT ⇑ building N COUNT: ALSO IN NAMES AFTER N ⇑ business garb /gɑːb/. A person's garb is the set of clothes that they are wearing, especially clothes that are in a particular style or are part of a uniform. EG ...a convict in striped prison garb... ...his habitual winter garb of cloak and gloves... ...the standard garb of peasants. N UNCOUNT: SUPP ⇑ clothing = attire, dress garbage /gɑːbɪdʒ/ is 1 in American English, rubbish, especially waste from a kitchen. EG In her home, garbage was fed to the pig... ...the garbage in the streets. 2 in informal English, ideas and opinions that are of no value or importance. EG He talked a lot of further garbage on the subject. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT = tripe garbage can, garbage cans. A garbage can is a container that you put rubbish into; an American term. EG He threw his beer bottle into the garbage can. N COUNT = dustbin garbled /gɑːbə^{l}ld/ is used to describe something someone says or writes in which the details are confused or wrong, for example because they are nervous or in a hurry. EG ...a garbled version of their love affairs... ...the garbled telephone message. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ distorted = jumbled up garden /gɑːdə^{n}n/, gardens, gardening. 1 A garden is a piece of land next to someone's house where they grow flowers, vegetables or other plants, and N COUNT which often includes a lawn. EG ...having tea one afternoon in the back garden... ...staring over the fence into the neighbour's garden... ...the vegetable garden. ● common or garden: see common. ● See also market garden.

2 If you are gardening, you are doing work in your garden such as weeding or planting. EG Vita is busy gardening. ◊ gardening. EG It is too hot to do any gardening... He was good at gardening... ...leisure pastimes like gardening, woodwork, music... ...gardening gloves.

V : USU CONT
⇑ cultivate
◊ N UNCOUNT

3 Gardens sometimes refers to a place like a park that has areas of plants, trees, and grass, and which people can visit and walk around. EG ...Kensington Gardens... ...the municipal gardens... ...the botanical gardens.

N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES, SING = PL

4 Gardens is also used as part of the name of a street. EG He was our next-door neighbour in Carlton Gardens... ...Sussex Gardens, just up the Edgware Road, near Paddington.

N IN NAMES

garden centre, garden centres. A garden centre is a place where you can buy things for your garden such as plants, gardening tools, and fertilizers.

N COUNT
⇑ shop

gardener /gɑːdə^{ə}nə/, gardeners. A gardener is 1 a person who is paid to work in someone else's garden. EG We had a cook and a gardener. 2 someone who enjoys working in their garden as a hobby and growing flowers or vegetables. EG He was not a keen gardener.

N COUNT
⇑ employee
N COUNT

gardenia /gɑːdiːnɪə/, gardenias. A gardenia is a large white or yellow flower that has a very pleasant smell; used also of the bush on which it grows.

N COUNT

garden party, garden parties. A garden party is a formal party that is held out of doors, especially in a large private garden, during the afternoon. EG ...wearing colourful hats, as though they were at a garden party... ...a garden party at the commandant's house.

N COUNT
⇑ function

gargantuan /gɑːgæntjuˈɔn/. Something that is gargantuan is very large; a formal or literary word. EG ...a gargantuan meal.

ADJ QUALIT
= mammoth

gargle /gɑːgə^{ə}l/, gargles, gargling, gargled. When you gargle, you wash your mouth by filling it with liquid, tilting your head back, and breathing out through your mouth, making a bubbling noise.

V OR V + O
⇑ rinse

gargoyle /gɑːgɔɪl/, gargoyles. A gargoyle is a decorative stone carving on old buildings. It is usually shaped like the head of a strange and ugly creature, and water drains through it from the roof of the building.

N COUNT
⇑ waterspout

garish /gɛərɪʃ/. Something that is garish is very bright and harsh, and not pleasant or restful to look at; used showing disapproval. EG ...the garish glow of neon signs... ...a garish yellow tie. ◊ garishly. ◊ garishness.

ADJ QUALIT
= glaring
◊ ADV
◊ N UNCOUNT

garland /gɑːlənd/, garlands, garlanding, garlanded. 1 A garland is a decoration in the shape of a circle made of flowers and leaves, which is worn round the neck or head. EG The women put a garland round her neck... ...a picture of the god Ganesh, decorated with a little garland of jasmine.

N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N
UNCOUNT/N IN PL

2 If you garland someone, you put a garland of flowers or leaves around their neck. EG After the show, young girls will garland the guest of honour and the artistes. ◊ garlanded. EG Jack, painted and garlanded with crimson flowers, sat there like an idol.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN with
⇑ decorate
◊ ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED + with ⇑ decorated garlic /gɑːlɪk/ is the small round white bulb of an onion-like plant which has a very strong smell and taste and is used in small quantities in cooking to add flavour. EG ...a crushed clove of garlic.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ herb garment /gɑːmə^{ə}nt/, garments. A garment is a piece of clothing, for example a shirt, dress, coat, skirt, or pair of trousers; a fairly formal word. EG She wore a long smock-like garment in scarlet linen.

N COUNT

garner /gɑːnə/, garners, garnering, garnered. If you garner something such as information, you collect it, often with some difficulty or by making an effort; a formal word. EG A certain amount can be garnered from the British press.

V + O
⇑ gather = glean

garnet /gɑːnɪ^{ə}t/, garnets. A garnet is a hard shiny stone that is used in making jewellery.

N COUNT
⇑ gem

garnish /gɑːnɪʃ/, garnishes, garnishing, garnished. 1 A garnish is a small amount of food that you use to decorate cooked or prepared food. EG ...a garnish of parsley and cream.

N COUNT/ UNCOUNT
⇑ decoration

2 If you garnish food, you decorate it with small amounts of different food. EG Garnish the fish with cucumber slices.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN with

garret /gærɪ^{ə}t/, garrets. If you refer to a room as a garret, you mean that it is a very small room at the top of a house, usually a room that a lodger lives in for very little rent. EG ...student garrets in London, or Paris... I found him in a garret in Brixton.

N COUNT
= attic

garrison /gærɪsə^{ə}n/, garrisons, garrisoning, garrisoned. 1 A garrison is a group of soldiers whose job is to guard the town or building which they live in. EG Maize was grown here to feed the garrison. ▸ used of the buildings which the soldiers live in.

N COUNT : IF SING, VB CAN BE SING OR PL = troops
▸ N COUNT
⇑ camp

2 To garrison a place means to put soldiers there in order to protect it. EG The Duke, leaving a small force to garrison the town, set out at first light.

V + O
⇑ guard = man

garrotte /gərɒt/, garrottes, garrotting, garrotted; also spelled garrote or garotte. 1 To garrotte someone means to kill them by strangling them or breaking their neck, using a device such as a piece of wire or a metal collar.

V + O

2 A garrotte is a piece of wire or a metal collar used to garrotte someone.

N COUNT

garrulous /gærʊ^{ə}ləs/. Someone who is garrulous talks a great deal, especially about things that are not important. EG ...his fat, garrulous wife... ...a crowd of garrulous well-wishers. ◊ garrulously.

ADJ QUALIT
⇑ talkative = voluble ≠ taciturn
◊ ADV WITH VB

garter /gɑːtə/, garters. A garter is a piece of elastic that was worn mainly in former times round the top of a stocking or sock in order to prevent it slipping down.

N COUNT
⇑ support

gas /gæs/, gases; gasses, gassing, gassed. The form gases is the plural of the noun; gasses is the 3rd person singular, present tense of the verb. 1 Gas is 1.1 a substance like air that is neither liquid nor solid and burns easily. It is used as a fuel for fires, cookers, and central heating in people's homes. EG Today we're going to have a look at gas, coal, and oil, the so-called fossil fuels... He remembered to turn the gas off before leaving home... ● See also coal gas, natural gas. 1.2 any substance that is neither liquid nor solid, for example oxygen or hydrogen. EG Of course helium is a gas at room temperature. 1.3 a poisonous gas that can be used as a weapon. EG There have been many reports of gas being used in war zones... ...deadly nerve gases. ● See also tear gas. 1.4 a gas used for medical purposes, for example to make patients relax, feel less pain, or go to sleep during an operation; an informal use. EG I used to hate having gas at the dentist. ● See also laughing gas.

N UNCOUNT
⇑ fuel
N COUNT/ UNCOUNT
N MASS
N UNCOUNT
= anaesthetic

2 Gas is also the same as petrol; used mainly in American English. EG Sorry I'm late. I had to stop for gas. ● If you step on the gas when you are driving a vehicle, you go faster; an informal expression. EG I wish this guy in front would step on the gas.

N UNCOUNT
= gasoline
● PHR : VB INFLECTS
⇑ accelerate = speed up

3 To gas a person or animal means to kill them by making them breathe poisonous gas. EG She took a flat in a cheap suburb of Paris and tried to gas herself... About 100,000 men, women and children were gassed.

V + O (NG/REFL)

4 If you gas, you talk a lot, especially about things that are not important; an old-fashioned, informal expression. EG Everybody doesn't have the time to sit around and gas all day the way you do.

V
= rabbit

5 A gas is a very lively, amusing, and enjoyable event or situation; used mainly in informal American English. EG You should have seen his first lesson, it was a real gas.

N SING : a + N, USED AS C ⇑ laugh = scream

gasbag /gæsbæg/, gasbags. If you call someone a gasbag, you mean that they talk a lot, especially about things that are not important; an informal and offensive word. EG I spent three hours with the old gasbag and I couldn't get a word in edgeways.

N COUNT
= windbag

gas chamber, gas chambers; also spelled with a hyphen. A gas chamber is a room that has been specially built so that it can be filled with poisonous gas in order to kill people or animals.

N COUNT

gaseous /gæsɪəs, -ʃəs, -ʃɪəs, geɪ-/ is used to describe substances like air which are neither solid nor liquid. EG ...gaseous oxygen.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB
≠ solid, liquid

gas fire, gas fires; also spelled with a hyphen and as one word. A gas fire is a fire that has a supply of gas to it, used to heat a room. EG The gas fire was full on.

N COUNT

gash /gæʃ/, gashes, gashing, gashed. 1 A gash is a long and deep cut in the surface of something, for example in someone's skin. EG Zeleika had a large gash in her head. N COUNT : USU + A = wound

2 If you gash something, you make a long and deep cut in its surface, for example in someone's skin. EG He gashed his arm on a window last night. V + O = lacerate gasholder /gæshəʊldə/, gasholders. A gasholder is a very large metal container that is the size of a building, which stores gas and then supplies it through pipes to buildings which have gas fires, cookers, etc. EG The view would be all right if it weren't for the gasholder. N COUNT = gasometer, gas tank gasket /gæskɪt/, gaskets. A gasket is a flat piece of soft material that you put between two joined surfaces in a pipe or engine in order to make sure that gas, oil, etc, cannot escape. N COUNT ⇑ seal gas light, gas lights; also spelled with a hyphen. A gas light is a lamp that produces light by burning gas. EG She turned up the gas light. N COUNT, OR by + N gasman /gæsmən/, gasmen. A gasman is a man whose job is to install and repair gas appliances, read gas meters, etc; an informal word. EG Don't turn the gas on again until the gasman tells you it's safe to do so. N COUNT ⇑ worker gas-mask, gas-masks; also spelled without a hyphen. A gas mask is a device you wear over your face in order to protect you from breathing poisonous gases. EG Everyone had to carry gas masks around all the time. N COUNT gasoline /gæsəliːn/ is the same as petrol; used mainly in American English. EG ...soaring gasoline prices. N UNCOUNT

gasometer /gəsɒmɪtə/, gasometers. A gasometer is the same as a gasholder. N COUNT gasp /gɑːsp/, gasps, gasping, gasped. 1 A gasp is a short quick breath of air that you take in through your mouth, especially when you are surprised, shocked, or in pain. EG He listened to himself breathing in short gasps... ...a gasp of horrified surprise... ...gasps of amazement. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of

2 When you gasp, you take a short quick breath through your mouth, especially when you are surprised, shocked, or in pain. EG He was gasping for air and seemed close to exhaustion... Fanny gasped and turned white... 'Call the doctor!' she gasped. V OR V + QUOTE/ REPORT-CL/O ⇑ breathe = gulp

3 If you are gasping for a drink, you are extremely thirsty; an informal expression. EG Would you like a cup of tea? You must be gasping. V + A (for) : ONLY CONT

gas ring, gas rings; also spelled with a hyphen. A gas ring is a circular gas pipe on a cooker, which has several holes in it and directs the flames under saucepans, kettles, etc. N COUNT = burner gas station, gas stations. A gas station is a place where gasoline is sold; an American English term. EG I spotted you standing by your car at the gas station. N COUNT = petrol station gassy /gæsi/, gassier, gassiest. Drinks that are gassy have a lot of bubbles. EG This beer's a bit too gassy for my taste. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ bubbly = fizzy gastric /gæstrɪk/ is used to describe processes, pain, or illnesses that occur in the stomach of a person or animal. EG ...gastric upsets... ...a hard-working man with a gastric ulcer. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB gastro-enteritis /gæstrəʊentəraɪtɪs/ is an illness in which your stomach and intestines become swollen and painful; a technical term in medicine. EG ...an attack of gastro-enteritis. N UNCOUNT ⇑ ailment gastronomic /gæstrəˈnɒmɪk/. Something that is gastronomic relates to or is concerned with good food that has been prepared by an expert; a formal word. EG ...the gastronomic reputation of France... ...delicious gastronomic experiences. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB gastronomy /gæstrɒnəmi/ is the activity and knowledge involved in preparing and appreciating good food; a formal word. EG But above all, France is noted for its gastronomy. N UNCOUNT gasworks /gæswɜːks/. The plural form is also gasworks. A gasworks is a factory where coal is made into gas that can be used in people's homes for heating and cooking. EG Then the city's gasworks blew up, and the fire began. N COUNT gate /geɪt/, gates. 1 A gate is 1.1 a door-like structure used outdoors at the entrance to a field, a garden, or the grounds of a building. Gates usually consist of strips of wood or metal on a frame that swings on hinges. EG The prison gates closed behind him... We reached a little gate in the hedge. ▸ used of an entrance where there is a gate. EG The taxi swung in through the gates of the vicarage. N COUNT

1.2 an official exit in a large airport which passengers go through on their way to the aeroplane. EG Passengers on flight BA205 should proceed to gate four. ▸ N COUNT : USU PREP + N / N COUNT : USU + NUM

2 Gate is used in the names of streets that stand on the site of an old gate into a city. EG ...Queen Anne's Gate. N IN NAMES

3 The gate at a sporting event such as a football match is the total number of people who attend it; an informal use. EG The highest gate of the day was at Anfield, where 48,000 saw Liverpool draw one all. N COUNT : USU the + N ⇑ attendance gateau /gætəʊ/, gateaux. A gateau is a very rich and elaborate cake that has cream or fresh fruit in it. EG ...a cream gateau... ...some chocolate gateau. N COUNT / UNCOUNT gatecrash /geɪtkræʃ/, gatecrashes, gatecrashing, gatecrashed. If someone gatecrashes a party or other social event, they go to it, even though they have not been invited; an informal word. EG I haven't gatecrashed a party since I was eighteen. V OR V + O ⇑ intrude gatecrasher /geɪtkræʃə/, gatecrashers. A gatecrasher is a person who goes to a party or other social event without having been invited; an informal word. EG The party was so boring, even the gatecrashers left early. N COUNT ⇑ intruder gatehouse /geɪthaʊs/, gatehouses. A gatehouse is a small house next to a gate into a park or estate, usually one in which the park-keeper lives. EG They used to deliver parcels of food to the man who lived in the gatehouse. N COUNT ⇑ house gatekeeper /geɪtkiːpə/, gatekeepers. A gatekeeper is a person who is in charge of a gate and who allows people through it; an old-fashioned word. N COUNT ⇑ employee gate money is the total amount of money that is paid by the spectators who attend a sporting event such as a football match; an informal term. EG Gate money accounts for only two thirds of the club's income. N UNCOUNT gatepost /geɪtpəʊst/, gateposts; also spelled with a hyphen. A gatepost is a post in the ground which a gate is attached to, or which it is fastened to when it is closed. EG We turned between two big gateposts into what looked like an extensive park. N COUNT ⇑ post

● You say between you, me, and the gatepost when you are telling someone something that you want them to keep secret; used in informal spoken English. EG Between you, me and the gatepost, I'm leaving at the end of October. ● PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = confidentially gateway /geɪtweɪ/, gateways. 1 A gateway is an entrance through a fence, wall, hedge, etc, where there is a gate. EG They passed through an arched gateway. N COUNT = gate

2 A gateway to somewhere is a place which you go through because it leads you to a much larger place. EG The new airport terminal at Sheremetyevo, the gateway to Moscow... It was a natural port, the most convenient gateway to the Continent. N COUNT + to ⇑ way

3 A gateway to something is an activity or qualification that gives you the opportunity to progress into a more important profession, career, or other activity. EG ...a world in which examinations are the gateways to some professions. N COUNT + to ⇑ entrance = passport gather /gæðə/, gathers, gathering, gathered. 1 If people or animals gather, they come together in a group. EG The children gathered around their teacher... To protect themselves, deer gather together in large herds. ◊ gathering. EG The gathering crowd of villagers started to murmur angrily. ◊ gathered. EG All the family were gathered to hear the solicitor read the will. V : ERG : USU + A = congregate, assemble / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : PRED

2 If you gather a number of things, for example after you have spread them out or distributed them, you bring them together again. EG I gathered my maps together and tucked them into the folder... He gathered his papers and slipped quietly away. V + O : USU + A ⇑ collect

3 If you gather something, you collect a number of things from different places that are far apart, especially so that you can use them. EG I gathered the eggs and fed the pigs... They gathered berries, nuts and fruit for food... When we were gathering wood, we saw a squirrel. V + O

4 If you gather information or evidence, you collect it, especially over a period of time and after hard work. EG This would give historians and archaeologists an opportunity to gather evidence of this... V + O = amass

...new information gathered by observation or experiment... The team worked for about a year and a half to gather data.

5 If you gather someone in your arms, you take hold of them and put your arms around them, usually because you have strong protective or sexual feelings for them; a fairly formal expression. PHR : VB INFLECTS = embrace

6 If you say that something is gathering dust, you mean that it is not being used regularly. EG My briefcase was already beginning to gather dust. PHR : VB INFLECTS

7 If something gathers speed, momentum, force, etc, it gradually becomes faster or more powerful. EG The train gathered speed as it left the town... This movement gathered momentum. V + O ⇑ increase = gain

8 When you gather your strength, courage, thoughts, etc, you make an effort to prepare yourself to do or deal with something. EG She gathered strength and walked on through the gate... Dan, I've been trying to gather courage all week to ring you. V + O = muster up

9 If you gather something, you obtain knowledge or ideas by noticing things about the situation you are in. EG She did not gather a very clear impression of him... His wife had been ill, I gather, for some time... I gathered that they were not expected to eat with us. V + O/REPORT-CL, OR PRON + V : USED AS ADV SEN ⇑ get

10 If you gather fabric or cloth, you make a row of very small pleats in it by sewing a thread through it and then pulling the thread tight. EG I've nearly finished gathering the sleeves on my dress. ◊ gathered. EG ...a long white dress gathered under the bosom. V + O ⇑ pleat ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

11 Gathers are very small pleats in a piece of clothing. N PLURAL

12 If you gather a loose piece of clothing to you or about you, you pull it close to your body. EG She gathered her shawl about her shoulders. V + O + A = draw gather in. If you gather something in, you bring a group of things or people safely together into one place. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ collect gather up. If you gather up a group of things, you bring them together into a group so that they can be moved or handled all together. EG She watched Willie gather up the papers and stuff them carelessly in his pocket. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ collect = assemble gathering /gæðɔ^{ə}rɪŋ/, gatherings. 1 A gathering is a meeting of people who have come together in the same place, usually for a particular purpose. EG ...a rather exclusive gathering of top businessmen and their wives... ...political and social gatherings. N COUNT ⇑ group = assembly

2 If you talk about the gathering dusk, darkness, or gloom, you mean that the light is gradually decreasing, usually because it is nearly night. EG We walked up the long Main Street in the gathering dusk. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ increasing = growing gauche /gəʊʃ/. Someone who is gauche is awkward and uncomfortable in the company of other people. EG ...trying to act like a lady, but failing utterly, being still skinny and gauche... Entering politics seemed an absurd goal for one so tongue-tied and gauche. ◊ gaucheness. ADJ QUALIT = graceless, maladroit ◊ N UNCOUNT gaudy /gɔːdi^{1}/, gaudier, gaudiest. Something that is gaudy has too many bright colours; used showing disapproval. EG ...young men in gaudy shirts and jeans. ◊ gaudily. EG ...gaudily painted statues. ADJ QUALIT = garish ◊ ADV gauge /geɪdʒ/, gauges, gauging, gauged. 1 If you gauge an amount or quantity, you measure or calculate it, especially accurately by means of some device. EG With a modern machine, you can gauge the number of stitches... Meg was able to gauge the distance to an inch... They waited, trying to gauge whether it was dark enough. V + O/REPORT-CL = determine

2 If you gauge people's feelings, actions, or intentions in a particular situation, you carefully consider and judge them. EG ...a method for the teacher to gauge what the child is doing... ...gauging what the people of America wanted... I couldn't gauge how it would affect me... The Times sent reporters out to gauge support for the new party. V + O/REPORT-CL = assess

3 A gauge is 3.1 a device that measures the amount or quantity of something and shows the amount measured. EG The fuel gauges dropped swiftly towards zero... Bond read the speed gauge... A gauge stuck, giving a wrong reading. 3.2 a particular fact or event that can be used to judge a situation or a person's feelings. EG The increase in attendance was used as a gauge of its success. 3.3 the distance between the two rails on a railway line. EG On the rail system within the Warsaw Pact, gauges had been standardized. 3.4 the thickness of something, especially metal or wire. EG ...heavy gauge metal. N COUNT : USU MOD + N ⇑ sign = measure N COUNT

gaunt /gɔːnt/. 1 Someone who is gaunt is so thin that you can see the bones under their skin, usually because they are ill, old, or very tired. EG She looked very weak, her black face gaunt and drawn... ...his gaunt, slightly stooping figure... ...a gaunt unsmiling nurse. ADJ QUALIT = emaciated, haggard

2 Something that is gaunt looks bare and unattractive. EG ...the gaunt outlines of the houses opposite... The windows were gaunt and narrow. ADJ QUALIT = stark gauntlet /gɔːntlɪ^{ə}t/, gauntlets. 1 Gauntlets are long, thick gloves that are worn for protection, for example by factory workers or as part of a uniform. EG ...a motorcyclist wearing steel-studded gauntlets... ...heavily-padded flying gauntlets... The policemen pulled on their white gauntlets. N COUNT : USU PL

2 The word gauntlet is also used in the following expressions. 2.1 If you throw down the gauntlet to someone, you say or do something that challenges them to argue, compete, or fight with you. EG He shouted angrily: 'You have thrown the gauntlet down.'... The assembly threw down the gauntlet to the Tsar. 2.2 If you pick up or take up the gauntlet, you accept the challenge that someone has made. EG Wendy now had to pick up the gauntlet thrown down by her mother... He enjoyed picking up the gauntlets thrown down by Trevino and Miller. 2.3 If you run the gauntlet, you go through an unpleasant experience in which a lot of people criticize or attack you. EG Shouts of 'fascist pigs' greeted those running the gauntlet... They now had to run the gauntlet of rifle fire from the cliffs. PHR : VB ⇑ challenge PHR : VB INFLECTS ≠ run away PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ endure gauze /gɔːz/ is a light, soft cloth with tiny holes in it, used especially as a bandage. EG I taped a gauze square over his cuts... There were curtains of gauze... ...Etta, wearing a lilac gauze scarf... ...gauze nappies. N UNCOUNT gauzy /gɔːzi^{1}/ means light, soft, and thin, so that you can see through it. EG ...a gauzy nightdress... ...a blur of gauzy wings. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = filmy gave /geɪv/ is the past tense of give.

gavel /gævə^{l}/, gavels. A gavel is a small wooden hammer that you bang on a table to get attention when you are officially in charge of a formal event such as a meeting. EG The chairman rapped sharply with his gavel... ...the banging of the judge's gavel. N COUNT = mallet

Gawd /gɔːd/ is used in written English to represent the word God pronounced this way in a particular accent or tone of voice, especially in phrases expressing boredom, irritation, or shock such as 'Oh Gawd, here we go again' or 'Oh my Gawd'. EXCLAM gawk /gɔːk/, gawks, gawking, gawked. If someone is gawking, they are staring at someone or something in a rude, stupid, or unthinking way; an informal word. EG Come along, girl! Don't just stand there gawking!... They would remain quaint villagers to be gawked at. V : IF + PREP THEN at ⇑ stare = gape gawky /gɔːki^{1}/, gawkier, gawkiest. Someone who is gawky stands and moves awkwardly and clumsily; used especially of tall people. EG Her tall, gawky colleague was at the desk... ...a gawky young woman with large grey eyes. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ awkward = ungainly gawp /gɔːp/, gawps, gawping, gawped. If you gawp, you gawk. EG Don't stand there gawping, come away... She heard the price and gawped in shock. V : IF + PREP THEN at gay /geɪ/, gays; gayer, gayest. 1 A person who is gay is homosexual; used especially by homosexuals themselves or by people who support them. EG I've told them I'm gay... ▸ used of organizations and magazines for homosexuals. EG They have an active Gay Group. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a holiday spot for gays... Many gays were worried about the new system. ◊ gayness. EG He wasn't ashamed of his gayness. ADJ CLASSIF : USU PRED ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ▸ N COUNT ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ homosexuality

2 In slightly more old-fashioned English, a person who is gay is 2.1 lively and enjoyable to be with. EG ...gay, innocent Annabel... Sonny was gayer, more cheerful... Well, he's not the gayest of companions. 2.2 free from all worries and fears. EG ...the image of the gay bachelor... ...a gay, carefree young woman. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ happy ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 A place that is gay has a lively atmosphere and is full of interesting things to do and people enjoying themselves. EG What gay and exciting place are you taking me to?... ...more open-air cafes, brighter and gayer streets at night. ▸ used of the activities or people involved. EG You had a gayer time with your ADJ QUALIT ▸ = merry parties and discussions... ...streaming out in gay family parties to the races.

4 Something that is gay is brightly coloured and pretty to look at. EG Her dress was gay and flowered... Most of the gay paint had crumbled off... ...gay record covers. ADJ QUALIT = bright, colourful

5 Music that is gay is lively and pleasant to listen or dance to. EG ... a very gay record, fast and with a lot of rhythm. ADJ QUALIT

6 ● See also gaiety and gaily.

gay lib or, in more formal English, gay liberation is a political movement organized by homosexuals that tries to make other people in society accept them and treat them more fairly. EG For homosexuals, gay liberation does not just mean reforms... ...women's liberation and gay lib groups. N UNCOUNT ⇑ organization gaze /geɪz/, gazes, gazing, gazed. 1 If you gaze, you look steadily at someone or something for a long time because you find them attractive or surprising, or because you are thinking about something else. EG She turned to gaze admiringly at her husband... He gazed down into the water... I spent most of my time gazing out of the window. V + A = stare

2 Someone's gaze is the long and steady way they are looking at someone or something. EG He sat without shifting his gaze from the television... The man met his gaze and smiled patiently... ...the indifferent gaze of the art students... His gaze turned to the field below. N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ look gazelle /gə³zel/, gazelles. A gazelle is a small antelope with large eyes that moves very quickly and gracefully and lives in Africa and Asia. N COUNT

gazump /gəzʌmp/, gazumps, gazumping, gazumped. If you are gazumped by someone, they agree to sell their house to you, but then sell it to someone else who offers to pay a higher price; used mainly in informal British English showing disapproval. V + O : USU PASS ⇑ mislead

GB is an abbreviation for 'Great Britain'.

GCE /dʒi: si: i:/, GCEs. 1 GCE is an abbreviation for 'General Certificate of Education'; a system of examinations in Britain which are usually taken at Ordinary level when leaving school and at Advanced level before going to University: see also A level and O level. EG ...good grades in GCE subjects... Wait until you get to GCE standard. N UNCOUNT

2 A GCE is a pass in an Ordinary level GCE examination for a particular subject; an informal use. EG He's got eight GCEs. N COUNT = O level

GCSE /dʒi: si: ɛs i:/ is an abbreviation for 'General Certificate of Secondary Education'; a system of examinations in Britain introduced to replace GCE Ordinary level and CSE examinations in 1988. N UNCOUNT gdn is a written abbreviation for 'garden'; used especially in advertisements when describing houses which are for sale.

Gdns is a written abbreviation for 'Gardens'; used in names of streets, especially in addresses and on maps or signs. EG ...56 Acacia Gdns, Hockingham, Surrey. N IN NAMES

GDP is an abbreviation for 'gross domestic product'; the total value of goods and services produced within a country in a year; a technical term in economics. N UNCOUNT

GDR is an abbreviation for 'German Democratic Republic'; another name for East Germany. N PROPER : the + N gear /gɪə/, gears, gearing, geared. 1 A gear in a machine or vehicle is 1.1 a device or system which controls the rate at which the energy being used is converted into motion, and often whether the motion is in a particular direction or in the reverse direction. Gears often consists of wheels with teeth around their edges that fit into the teeth of another wheel or into the holes of a chain. EG ...interlocking cogs and gears... John checked the gear on the cycle... ...the grinding of gears while overtaking lorries. N COUNT

1.2 the range of speed or power which it has when a particular gear is used. EG We slow down to first gear and ten miles an hour... A car with a really high top gear. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT : MOD + N

2 If a vehicle is in gear, a gear is connecting the engine to the wheels, and the vehicle will move if the engine is working and the brakes are not on. EG Leave the car in gear. PHR : USED AS AN A

3 If you say that a person, system, or process is in a particular gear, you are talking about the speed, energy, or efficiency with which they are working or functioning. EG It took time to shift back into normal gear for boring routine tasks... She knew how to change gear in order to achieve the right result... The American economy will be in high gear. N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ mode

4 The gear involved in a particular activity is the equipment, special clothes, etc that you use when you do it. EG ...camping gear... We took off our riding gear... I packed my gear and walked out. N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP = kit

5 If someone or something is geared to, towards, or for a particular purpose, they are organized or designed specially in order to achieve that purpose. EG They were not geared to armed combat... ...a policy geared towards rehabilitation... ...plantations geared for export. V + O + A (to/for/towards) : USU PASS ⇑ be orientated gear up. If someone is gearing up to a particular activity, or is geared up to it, they are preparing to do it. EG Many football teams are not geared up to attack... They are gearing up to a civil war... Martin and Liz were gearing themselves up to a full-time job. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV OR V + O (REFL. NG) + ADV : USU CONT PASS gearbox /gɪəbɒks/, gearboxes. A gearbox is the system of gears in an engine or vehicle. EG Gearbox whining, our jeep laboured up a hillside... Replace the oil in the gearbox. N COUNT ⇑ box gear lever, gear levers; also spelled with a hyphen. A gear lever is the lever that you use to change gear in a car or other vehicle; used mainly in British English. EG The traffic moves again. Howard pushes the gear lever in. N COUNT = gearshift gearshift /gɪəʃɪft/, gearshifts; also spelled as two words. A gearshift is the same as a gear lever; used mainly in American English. N COUNT gee /dʒi:/. Some people say gee or gee whizz in order to express a strong reaction to something; used mainly in informal American English. EG Gee, what fun!... Gee, Ed, that was bad luck. EXCLAM = gosh geese /gi:s/ is the plural of goose.

geezer /gi:zə/, geezers. Some people use geezer to refer to a man; a very informal and rather old-fashioned word. EG This other geezer comes along and takes his shoes. N COUNT = bloke

Geiger counter /gaɪgə kaʊntə/, Geiger counters. A Geiger counter is a device which detects and measures radioactivity. N COUNT geisha /geɪʃə/, geishas. A geisha is a Japanese woman who is specially trained in music, dancing, and the art of conversation, and whose job is to entertain men. N COUNT gel /dʒel/, gels, gelling, gelled; also spelled jell for paragraphs 1 to 3. The noun in paragraph 4 is pronounced /gel/. 1 If a liquid gels, it changes into a thicker, firmer substance rather like jelly. V

2 If a vague shape, thought, or idea gels, you can see or understand it more clearly and definitely. EG After talking to you things really began to gel... Gradually, they jelled into definite forms. V = focus

3 Gel is a thick oily substance, especially one used to keep your hair in a particular style. EG It's worth experimenting with different creams or gels. N MASS

4 Gel is used in written English to represent the word girl pronounced in a particular way. EG ...a handsome gel... Where's the poor ol' gel to live? N COUNT/VOC = girl gelatine /dʒelətiⁱn/, gelatines; also spelled gelatin. Gelatine is a clear, tasteless substance, usually in the form of a powder, that is used to make liquids become firm. Gelatine is often used in cooking, for example to make jelly. EG Pour the water into a saucepan and sprinkle in the gelatine... Vegetable gelatines are used for thickening soups. N MASS gelatinous /dʒɪˈlætɪⁱnəs/ is used to describe substances that are like a very thick liquid and often sticky. EG He put his fork into something gelatinous on his plate... ...eggs laid within gelatinous masses. ADJ CLASSIF = gooey, viscous gelding /geldɪŋ/, geldings. A gelding is a male horse which has been castrated in order to make it less aggressive or to make it jump better in races or competitions. N COUNT gelignite /dʒelɪgnaɪt/ is an explosive substance that is similar to dynamite. EG We need a bit of gelignite or a detonator... ...the weapons, the gelignite and so on. N UNCOUNT gem /dʒem/, gems. A gem is 1 a jewel or stone that is used in jewellery. EG ...a bracelet of solid gold, studded with gems... ...the value of the stolen money and gems. N COUNT

2 someone or something that you think is especially good or pleasing. EG ...this gem of wisdom... ...a gem like Barbara... This house is a gem. N COUNT = treasure gemstone /dʒɛmstəʊn/, gemstones. A gemstone is a jewel or stone used in jewellery. N COUNT

gen /dʒɛn/, gens, genning, genned; used mainly in informal British English. If you say someone has the gen on something, you mean that they have all the information about it. EG Let me have the gen on the deal by lunchtime. N UNCOUNT : USU the + N + on = details

gen up. If you gen up on something, you find out as much information as possible about it. EG He's genning up on the legal position before he signs it. ● See also genned up. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + on = mug up

Gen. is a written abbreviation for 'General'; used to indicate a person's rank in the armed forces. EG ...Gen. de Gaulle. N IN TITLES BEFORE NAME gendarme /ʒɒndɑːm/, gendarmes. A gendarme is a member of the French police force. EG The second car was driven by a gendarme. N COUNT ⇑ policeman gender /dʒɛndə/, genders. 1 In formal English, gender is the fact of being male or female; used of people and animals. EG ...differences of temperament, race or gender... ...someone of the male gender. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT = sex

2 In grammar, gender is used to refer to the classification of nouns in some languages as masculine and feminine, or as masculine, feminine and neuter. The gender of a noun affects the form of determiners, adjectives, and sometimes verbs used with it. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT ⇑ category gene /dʒiːn/, genes. A gene is a part of a cell in a living thing which controls its physical characteristics, growth, and development. Genes can change and reproduce themselves and are passed on from one generation to another, for example from human parents to their children. N COUNT genealogical /dʒiːnɪəlɒdʒɪkəl/ means concerning the history of families; a formal word. EG ...evidence of genealogical relationships... ...answers to genealogical queries. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ historical genealogy /dʒiːnɪˈælədʒɪ/, genealogies; a formal word. 1 Genealogy is the study of the history of families, especially studying historical documents to find out the relationships between particular people and families. N UNCOUNT

2 A genealogy is the history of a particular family over several generations, describing who each person married and who their children were. EG The family genealogy tells how Moses De Camp of Westfield married Anna Rackham, the daughter of a wool merchant. ◇ genealogist, genealogists. EG ...an amateur genealogist attempting to trace the family of his wife. N COUNT ◇ N COUNT genera /dʒɛnərə/ is the plural of genus.

general /dʒɛnəˈrəl/. 1 General is used to summarize 1.1 a situation or idea, without considering details or exceptions. EG Their cost rose despite a general decline in their quality... The general standard of education there is very high... I'm sure he'll get the general idea. ◇ generally. EG His account was generally accurate... Wool and cotton blankets are generally cheapest... The fault generally lies with the management. 1.2 the appearance or behaviour of someone or something, usually after considering particular details or events. EG ...a woman with a wrinkled face, humped shoulders and a general arthritic appearance... ...stairs covered with cobwebs and a general coating of dust... His general attitude suggested that he regarded me as a fool. ◇ generally. EG They smile, touch, and generally behave more intimately. 1.3 several items or activities, when there are too many of them or they are not important enough to mention separately. EG Put down telephone calls as part of your general business expenses. ◇ generally. EG She's wonderful for information on things generally. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = overall ◇ ADV OR ADV SEN = on the whole ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = overall ◇ ADV WITH VB ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = miscellaneous ◇ ADV SEN = in general

2 General is used to describe 2.1 something that involves or affects most people, or most people in a particular group. EG There was a general movement to leave the table at this point... We must move towards 'general and complete disarmament'... ...a topic of general interest. ◇ generally. EG ...a generally accepted definition... When will this material become generally available? 2.2 a statement that involves only the main features of something and not its details. EG Fortune tellers are so general in their statements... Principles have to be stated in very general terms... In a very general sense it is based on Roman law. ◇ generally. EG Perhaps he'd say a few words generally on grants. 2.3 a statement or opinion that is true or suitable in most situations. EG As a general rule, consult the doctor if the baby has a temperature... My general advice would be to leave him alone. ◇ generally. EG You mustn't write this down as if it was generally true... Generally speaking, there are union instructions about such situations. 2.4 an organization or business that offers a variety of services or goods, not just one particular kind. EG They spent two weeks at a general hospital and two at a psychiatric unit... ...a general grocery store. 2.5 a person's job, usually as part of their title, to indicate that they have complete responsibility for the administration of an organization or business. EG ...the general manager of the hotel... She was assistant to the General Secretary... ...the Consul General. 2.6 a person who does a variety of jobs which require no special skill or training. EG ...unskilled general labourers... They want a general drudge about the place. 2.7 a person who has an average amount of knowledge or interest in a particular subject. EG The commentaries were not for the general reader but for the specialist. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ usual ◇ ADV + ADJ = typically ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB, ALSO IN TITLES ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ unskilled ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ≠ specialist

3 You say in general, 3.1 to indicate that you are summarizing a situation. EG They want shorter shifts, and shorter working hours in general... The book looks at life in general and Otto in particular... It will make them in general less satisfied and more envious. 3.2 to indicate that you are referring to most people or things in a particular group. EG ...his contemptuous attitude to society in general... The prices are comparable with those for Third World products in general. 3.3 to indicate that a statement is true in most cases. EG The industrial processes, in general, are based on man-made processes. PHR : USED AS AN A = generally PHR : AFTER N = as a whole PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = ordinarily

4 A general is a person who holds a high officer's rank in the armed forces, usually in the army. EG No one under the rank of general can do that... ...General Ravenscroft... ...the Soviet air generals. ▸ used in other military titles. EG ...Major General... ...Lieutenant General. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES ▸ N IN TITLES

general delivery. If you send a letter general delivery, you send it to a particular post office, where the person who it is addressed to can collect it; an American term. N UNCOUNT = poste restante general election, general elections. A general election is an election at which all the citizens of a country vote for people to represent them in the national parliament. EG These issues dominated the 1964 General Election... ...a candidate in the general election of 1974... A general election was called. N COUNT generalise /dʒɛnəˈrəlaɪz/. See generalize.

generalissimo /dʒɛnəˈrəlɪsɪməʊ/, generalissimos. A generalissimo is a supreme commander of combined military, naval, and air forces, especially one who wields political as well as military power. N COUNT : ALSO IN TITLES generality /dʒɛnəræltɪ/, generalities; a rather formal word. 1 A generality is 1.1 a statement of a principle which is true in most situations and concerns the main features of something rather than the details. EG He focuses only on specifics, not large generalities... Try not to get lost in generalities. 1.2 a statement about something of common interest such as the weather, which is not important but is used to begin a conversation or discussion; a rather literary use. EG After a few nervous generalities about the balmy mornings she began her story. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT = generalization N COUNT : USU PL = pleasantry

2 You say in the generality, when you think you are giving a reasonable summary of a situation. EG Other people cannot, in the generality, be taken as models of how to live. PHR : USED AS ADV SEN = as a rule generalization /dʒɛnəˈrəlaɪzeɪʃəˈn/, generalizations; also spelled generalisation. A generalization is a statement which says that something is true in most situations or for most people, especially when it is based on very little evidence. EG It is easy to make sweeping generalizations about someone else's problems... We all know women who diverge from this generalisation. N COUNT/ UNCOUNT generalize /dʒɛnəˈrəlaɪz/, generalizes, generalizing, generalized; also spelled generalise. 1 If you generalize, you say that something is true in most situations or for most people, especially when you have very little evidence for it. EG I don't think you can generalize about that. V ⇑ theorize

2 If you generalize something, you use a particular example as the basis for saying that something is V + O

true in most situations or for most people. EG They want to be the vanguard of the working class, generalizing its experiences.

generalized /dʒɛnəˈrəlaɪzd/; also spelled generalised. Generalized means 1 involving a large number of people or things. EG The problem is one of generalized human needs... The sickness became generalized... There cannot be unlimited, generalised growth. 2 applying to a variety of situations or subjects. EG ...one of those generalised but savage remarks about the futility of love... His comments no longer apply to specific points but have become generalized. ADJ QUALIT = widespread

ADJ QUALIT = general ≠ specific

general knowledge is information about many subjects or events which you get in a casual way, from reading, television, or talking to people, and not by studying one subject in detail. EG Her general knowledge is amazing... He's better at reading and general knowledge, but average in arithmetic. N UNCOUNT ⇑ knowledge general practice is the work of a doctor who usually treats sick people at a surgery or in their homes, not in a hospital, and who does not specialize in particular illnesses or methods of treatment; used mainly in British English. EG If he's going into general practice, he must have further training. ▸ used of the place where such a doctor works. EG Some hospital doctors are also attached to general practices. N UNCOUNT

▸ N COUNT ⇑ place

general practitioner, general practitioners. See GP.

general public. The general public is all the people in a society; used especially by someone in an organization or a specialist in a particular subject, to refer to everyone who is not. EG The lecture will interest both musicians and members of the general public... A lot of fires could be prevented if the general public were better informed. N SING : the + N, VB CAN BE SING OR PL = populace general strike, general strikes. A general strike is the refusal to work by all or most people in a country or state. EG ...demands for a general strike to force the government to concede. N COUNT generate /dʒɛnəreɪt/, generates, generating, generated. 1 To generate a situation or feeling means to cause it to begin, especially when it then continues to exist or develop by itself; a formal use. EG Technology by itself does not generate new ideas... This book will continue to generate excitement for a long time... Tourism will generate new jobs. V + O ⇑ produce = give rise to

2 To generate a product or a financial gain means to cause it to be produced by a particular process or over a period of time; a formal use. EG The government alone generates 100,000 reports each year... ...computers that generate bank statements... Investment generates higher incomes V + O ⇑ produce

3 To generate a form of energy or power means to produce it from fuel or another source of power such as water. EG ...improved methods of generating electricity from fossil fuels... The heat energy that's generated in the reactor is extracted and used elsewhere. V + O generation /dʒɛnəreɪʃəⁿn/, generations. 1 A generation is 1.1 all the people in a group or country who are of a similar age, especially when they are considered as having the same experiences or attitudes. EG ...an older generation of intellectuals... ...few actresses of her generation could play the part well... ...the only writer to win the hearts of the new generation... ...a generation that has had no experience of war. 1.2 the group of people in your family who share the same position in its history and structure, for example your parents, aunts, and uncles belong to one generation and you, your brothers and sisters, and your cousins belong to another. EG Her brother Fred, the youngest of that generation, was also a teacher... Property is handed on from generation to generation. 1.3 the period of time, usually considered to be about thirty years, that it takes for children to grow up and become adults and have children of their own. EG We have had a generation of peace in Europe... They have been advocating this for generations. 1.4 a stage of development in the design and manufacture of machines or equipment. EG ...the so-called fifth generation of computers... ...the new generation of missiles. N COUNT + SUPP

N COUNT

N COUNT

N COUNT + SUPP ⇑ set = crop

2 Generation is used to indicate how long members of your family have had a particular nationality. For example, if you are a second generation Australian, your parents were also Australian, but not your grandparents. N SING : ORDINAL + N

3 Generation is also the production of a form of energy or power from fuel or another source of power such as water. EG Electric power generation had ceased. N UNCOUNT generation gap. A generation gap is a difference in attitude and behaviour between older people and younger people, which often causes them to argue or be unfriendly to one another. EG There is no generation gap in this family... In this way they are bridging the generation gap. N SING WITH DET ⇑ division generative /dʒɛnəˈrətɪv/ means capable of producing something; a formal word. EG ...generative powers... ...generative forces... ...generative rules. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ productive generator /dʒɛnəreɪtə/, generators. A generator is a machine which produces electricity. EG The electricity generator had broken down... ...diesel generators. N COUNT generic /dʒɪˈnɛrɪk/ means referring to, shared by, or typical of a whole group of similar things; a formal word. EG Software is a generic term for the sets of programs which control a computer... ...generic faults in power plants. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ common generosity /dʒɛnəˈrɒsɪtiˈ/ is the quality of being generous in your character or behaviour, especially in doing or giving more than is usual or expected. EG You shouldn't take advantage of his generosity... The house was acquired through the generosity of Dr Hilliard... ...the generosity with which she had shared her ideas. N UNCOUNT ⇑ kindness generous /dʒɛnəˈrəs/. 1 Someone who is generous 1.1 gives or offers to give more of something, especially money, than is usual or expected. EG You can give more if you are feeling generous... That's very generous of you... I was a bit too generous with the whisky... You've been most generous with your time. ◊ generously. EG She was paid generously to look after the children... Supporters have generously given us three thousand pounds. 1.2 is friendly, helpful, and willing to see the good qualities in someone or something. EG She was a kind and generous soul... He was unexpectedly generous in his comments on the article... The most generous interpretation is that he didn't know. ◊ generously. EG Mrs Hutchins has generously agreed to be with us today. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lavish = liberal ≠ stingy

◊ ADV WITH VB = handsomely

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ benevolent = charitable

◊ ADV WITH VB = kindly

2 Something that is generous is much larger in quantity or amount than is usual or necessary. EG Steve made a generous donation to our campaign fund... ...a generous measure of cognac. ◊ generously. EG He was providing for them generously in his will... ...a generously illustrated book. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ lavish = handsome genesis /dʒɛnɪsɪs/. The genesis of something is its beginning, birth, or creation; a formal word. EG I explained the genesis of my idea as well as I could. N SING : USU WITH POSS = origin genetic /dʒɪˈnɛtɪk/, genetics. 1 Genetics is the study of heredity and how qualities and characteristics are passed on from one generation to another by means of genes. EG ...amazing developments in biochemistry and genetics. N UNCOUNT ⇑ science

◊ ADV WITH VB = handsomely

2 Something that is genetic is concerned with genetics or with genes. EG ...genetic defects... ...the genetic make-up of the individual. ◊ genetically. EG ...genetically programmed behaviour. ADJ CLASSIF genetic engineering is the science of changing the genetic structure of a living organism in order to make it stronger or more suitable for a particular purpose. EG Aren't there dangers associated with genetic engineering? N UNCOUNT geneticist /dʒɪˈnɛtɪsɪst/, geneticists. A geneticist is a person who studies or specializes in genetics. EG ...a plant geneticist. N COUNT ⇑ scientist genial /dʒiːnɪəl/. Someone who is genial is kind and friendly in appearance or attitude. EG ...a genial but ineffectual man... Since the evening was at an end, he felt quite genial. ▸ used of someone's behaviour. EG ...a genial comment... ...a genial smile. ◊ genially. EG He waved genially to several people as they passed. ◊ geniality /dʒiːnɪælɪtiˈ/. EG He smiled at them with geniality. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ pleasant = affable ≠ surly ▸ = cordial

◊ ADV

◊ ADV WITH VB = amiably

◊ N UNCOUNT = warmth

genie /dʒiːniˈ/, genies. A genie is a magical being, in stories from Arabia and Persia, that obeys the orders of the person who controls it. EG He had disappeared overnight, in a puff of dust, like a genie. N COUNT ⇑ spirit = djinn genital /dʒɛnɪə[ə]l/, genitals. 1 someone's genitals are their sexual organs, for example the penis of a man or the vagina of a woman. N PLURAL = genitalia

2 Genital means concerned with a person's external sexual organs. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

genitalia /dʒɛnɪteɪlɪə/. Someone's genitalia are their genitals; a formal word. N PLURAL = genitals genitive /dʒɛnɪtɪv/. In the grammar of some languages, the genitive case is a case used for nouns, pronouns, and other words that indicates a relationship of ownership, possession, or association between one thing and another. ▸ used as a noun. EG Both the adjective and the noun are in the genitive. ADJ CLASSIF ▸ N SING : the + N genius /dʒiːnɪəs/, geniuses. 1 Genius is 1.1 very great ability or skill in a particular subject or activity. EG The restless, innovatory genius of an island race of adventurers... ...the British genius for compromise. 1.2 an outstanding quality or character which makes something distinct from everything else. EG That is the genius of the capitalist system. N UNCOUNT = flair / N UNCOUNT : USU + of = beauty

2 A genius is 2.1 a person who has very great natural ability and talent, especially for art, literature, music, or in scientific research. EG That man was a genius... He was one of the very greatest scientific and mathematical geniuses. 2.2 a person who is very clever and successful at a particular activity. EG The principal was a young man and a genius in the way he handled us... He was a genius with flowers. 2.3 a person who has a lot of influence over a group of people. N COUNT / N COUNT : USU + SUPP = expert / N COUNT + SUPP = spirit genned up /dʒɛnd ʌp/. If you are genned up, you have all the details or information about something that you need; used mainly in informal British English. ● to gen up: see gen. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = well-informed genocide /dʒɛnəsaɪd/ is the deliberate murder of a whole community or race; a formal word. EG He was a tyrant and guilty of genocide. N UNCOUNT ⇑ killing genre /ʒɑːnrə/, genres. A genre is a type of literature, art, music, etc, which people consider to have the same style or subject; a formal word. EG ...a whole new genre of sentimental fiction. N COUNT = class gent /dʒɛnt/, gents. 1 A gent is the same as a gentleman; an informal and old-fashioned use. EG They'll behave like real gents... They are very tough gents indeed. N COUNT

2 A gents or the gents is a public toilet for men; used mainly in informal British English. EG He had just got back from the gents. N COUNT = lavatory genteel /dʒɛntiːl/; a rather formal or literary word. Someone who is genteel 1 is respectable, well-bred, and refined. EG He came from one of these genteel Calcutta families... ...a genteel eccentric, an amusing oddity. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG She lived a genteel, careful, frugal life. ▸ The genteel refers to people who are genteel. EG ...the rich, the genteel, the powerful. 2 pretends to be of a higher social class than they actually are, especially in order to impress people. EG Oh, she was very genteel: she said 'excuse me' whenever she burped. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG ...her supposedly genteel accent. ◊ genteelly. EG She was genteelly swearing. ADJ QUALIT ▸ ▸ N PLURAL : the + N ADJ QUALIT ◊ ADV WITH VB gentian /dʒɛnʃə[ə]n/, gentians. A gentian is a small plant with a blue or purple flower shaped like a trumpet which grows in mountain regions. N COUNT gentile /dʒɛntaɪl/, gentiles. A gentile is a person who is not Jewish; a technical term. EG She seemed to regard me, an Englishman and a Gentile, with some suspicion. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...the gentile world. N COUNT ≠ Jew ▸ ADJ CLASSIF ≠ Jewish gentility /dʒɛntɪlɪtiˈ/; a formal or literary word. Gentility is 1 the respectability and high social status of the upper classes. EG The family had made a swift descent from gentility to near-poverty. 2 polite and well-mannered behaviour. EG ...the courtesy and gentility of these beautiful girls. N UNCOUNT ⇑ rank / N UNCOUNT = refinement gentle /dʒɛntə[ə]l/, gentler, gentlest. 1 Someone who is gentle is kind, mild, and pleasantly calm in character or behaviour. EG ...a gentle, sweet man... The young woman was gentle and religious... ...a gentle, sensitive nature. ▸ used of someone's behaviour. EG Her gentle manner was comforting. ◊ gently. EG She smiled gently at him... 'You have nothing to worry about,' he said gently. ◊ gentleness. ADJ QUALIT = quiet ≠ tough, wild ▸ = tranquil ◊ ADV WITH VB = softly ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If someone's voice or expression is gentle, it is calm, quiet, and kind. EG He greeted me with a very gentle voice... She had very gentle blue eyes. ADJ QUALIT = soft

3 Movements that are gentle are even and calm, and do not harm or damage things in any way. EG ...the gentle rocking of his mother's chair. ◊ gently. EG He patted my hand very gently... I shook her gently and she opened her eyes... She sat gently caressing the baby in her lap. ◊ gentleness. ADJ QUALIT = light ◊ ADV WITH VB = lightly ◊ N UNCOUNT

4 If weather is described as gentle, it is pleasant and calm and not harsh or violent. EG There was a gentle breeze... ...the rain became gentler. ◊ gently. EG ...it rained gently. ADJ QUALIT = light ◊ ADV WITH VB = softly

5 Scenery or landscapes that are gentle have soft, soothing shapes and colours that people find pleasant, relaxing, and calming. EG ...a gentle little landscape... The scenery was gentler, neater, and more ordered than at home. The beach stretched away before them in a gentle wave. ◊ gently. EG ...gently sloping hills. ADJ QUALIT = pleasing ◊ ADV WITH VB ≠ abruptly

6 Gentle jokes, hints, parodies, etc, are quite kind and not malicious or meant to hurt people. EG ...a very gentle parody of American life... ...a gentle hint... When Colonel Daintry's name arose he poked gentle fun at him. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ kind = mild ≠ spiteful gentlefolk /dʒɛntə[ə]lfɔʊk/ are people who come from the middle or upper classes; an old-fashioned word. EG ...a rest home for retired gentlefolk. N PLURAL = gentry gentleman /dʒɛntə[ə]lmə[ə]n/, gentlemen. 1 A gentleman is 1.1 a man who comes from a family of high social standing. EG ...a country gentleman... City merchant banks still project the image of a gentleman's club... ...the highest class of gentleman farmers. 1.2 a man who is well behaved, educated, and refined in his manners. EG He is old enough to behave himself like a gentleman... ...the perfect gentleman... He was a terribly nice man–a real gentleman. ● A gentleman's agreement or a gentlemen's agreement is an informal agreement in which people trust one another to do what they have promised. The agreement is not written down and does not have any legal force. EG It was a gentleman's agreement. Kurt did not have to sign anything. N COUNT / N COUNT : USU USED AS C ≠ rogue / ● PHR : USED AS C = understanding

2 You can also use gentleman when you want to refer politely to any man, for example a man whose name you do not know, or gentlemen when you are addressing a group of men. EG Lawyer Didlington read the old gentleman's will... If you will excuse me, gentlemen... ...the gentlemen of the Press... ...a continental gentleman... ...her many gentlemen friends. N COUNT ⇑ man gentlemanly /dʒɛntə[ə]lmə[ə]nlɪˈ/; a rather formal or literary word. 1 If a man is gentlemanly, he has perfect manners and is very well-behaved; used showing approval. EG Arnold had always been so reserved and gentlemanly and had never called her by her first name. ▸ used of a man's behaviour. EG ...a courteous, gentlemanly gesture. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ polite = well-mannered / ▸ = well-mannered

2 If a man is of gentlemanly rank, status, or position, he belongs to a noble family, owns property, and has enough money so that he does not have to work but employs others to work for him. EG His gentlemanly status was ignored entirely. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB gentlewoman /dʒɛntə[ə]lwʊmən/, gentlewomen; an old-fashioned word. A gentlewoman is 1 a woman of high social standing. EG Skill with the needle was considered a necessary quality of a gentlewoman in the early nineteenth century. 2 a woman who is cultured, educated, and refined in her manners. manners. N COUNT = lady / N COUNT = lady gentry /dʒɛntriˈ/. The gentry are people of high birth and high social status, ranking just below the nobility; a formal and old-fashioned word. EG He was an extreme right winger from a family of landed gentry... The power of the gentry has gone. N SING : the + N, OR N UNCOUNT, VB CAN BE SING OR PL ⇑ aristocracy genuflect /dʒɛnjə[ə]flɛkt/, genuflects, genuflecting, genuflected. If you genuflect, you bend one or both knees, especially in church, as a sign of respect for someone or something; a formal word. EG They both genuflected and crossed themselves. ◊ genuflection /dʒɛnjuːflɛkʃə[ə]n/, genuflections. V ⇑ kneel ◊ N COUNT / UNCOUNT genuine /dʒɛnjʊɪn/. 1 Something that is genuine is real and exactly what it appears to be, and is not fake or an imitation. EG The experts decided that the painting was a genuine Constable... ...genuine Ugandan food. ◊ genuinely. EG ...genuinely democratic countries. ◊ genuineness. ADJ CLASSIF = authentic ≠ artificial, imitation ◊ ADV ◊ N UNCOUNT

2 A feeling, emotion, or reaction that is genuine is really and truly felt by someone and is not simply displayed in order to deceive someone. EG She looked ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ real = sincere at me in genuine astonishment... ...genuine love.

◊ genuinely. EG I was genuinely angry with him. ◊ ADV
◊ genuineness. ◊ N UNCOUNT
3 If you describe a person as genuine, you mean that they are honest, truthful, and sincere in the way they live and in their relationships with other people; used showing approval. EG They seemed nice, genuine fellows. ADJ QUALIT genus /dʒiːnəs/, genera /dʒɛnərə/. A genus is a class or group of similar things, especially a group of animals or plants that contain several closely related species; a technical term. N COUNT ⇑ family geographer /dʒɪɒgrəfə/, geographers. A geographer is a person who studies geography or is an expert in it. N COUNT geographic /dʒiːəgræfɪk/ means the same as geographical; a formal and rather old-fashioned word. EG ...geographic and political boundaries. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = geographical geographical /dʒiːəgræfɪkəl/. Something that is geographical is concerned with or relates to geography. EG ...the characteristics of any geographical region. ◊ geographically. EG ...geographically separated species. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = geographic ◊ ADV OR ADV SEN geography /dʒɪɒgrəfi/. 1 Geography is the study of the countries of the world and of such things as land formations, seas, climate, towns and population. N UNCOUNT

2 The geography of a place is the way that features such as rivers, mountains, towns, streets, etc, are arranged within it. EG ...the geography of the United States. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS geological /dʒiːəlɒdʒɪkəl/ means relating to geology. EG ...an interesting geological site. ◊ geologically. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ◊ ADV geology /dʒɪɒlədʒi/. 1 Geology is the scientific study of substances such as rock and soil in order to find out about the origin, structure, and history of the earth. ◊ geologist, geologists. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT

2 The geology of an area is the structure of its land, together with the types of rocks and minerals that exist within it. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS geometric /dʒiːəmetrɪk/. Something that is geometric consists of regular shapes and lines, such as squares and circles. EG ...geometric blocks of concrete... ...the geometric scars of the long canals. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = geometrical geometrical /dʒiːəmetrɪkəl/. 1 Something that is geometrical relates to or involves the principles of geometry. EG ...a purely geometrical problem. ◊ geometrically. EG The four wooden chairs were arranged geometrically round the square oak table. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ mathematical ◊ ADV ⇑ regularly

2 Geometrical can also mean the same as geometric. EG ...abstract geometrical designs. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB geometry /dʒɪɒmɪtri/. 1 Geometry is a mathematical science concerned with the study and measurement of lines, angles, and curves, and with the shapes which are formed when several lines are joined together. EG ...the laws of geometry. N UNCOUNT ⇑ mathematics 2 The geometry of an object is the way that it fits together, especially when it has a very regular shape or pattern; a formal use. EG ...the church's geometry. N UNCOUNT : USU WITH POSS = layout geophysical /dʒiːəfɪzɪkəl/ means relating to or concerned with geophysics. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB geophysicist /dʒiːəfɪzɪsɪst/, geophysicists. A geophysicist is someone who studies or specializes in geophysics. N COUNT ⇑ scientist geophysics /dʒiːəfɪzɪks/ is the branch of geology that uses physics to examine the earth's structure, climate, oceans, etc. N UNCOUNT geopolitical /dʒiːəpɒlɪtɪkəl/ means relating to or concerned with geopolitics. EG ...those problems are political in nature, not geopolitical. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ geographical geopolitics /dʒiːəpɒlɪtɪks/ is the study of the effect that the geographical position and features of a country have on its politics and its relations with other countries. N UNCOUNT ⇑ geography

Georgian /dʒɔːdʒən/ is used in Britain to describe the eighteenth century and the style of architecture, literature, etc that was popular at the time. EG ...a large late Georgian house. ADJ CLASSIF geranium /dʒɪreɪnɪəm/, geraniums. A geranium is a plant that is grown in gardens or in pots inside people's houses and has small red, pink, or white flowers. N COUNT gerbil /dʒɜːbəl/, gerbils. A gerbil is a small, furry animal with long back legs that is often kept as a pet. N COUNT ⇑ rodent geriatric /dʒeriætrɪk/. 1 Geriatric is used to describe very old people, their illnesses, and their treatment; a technical term in medicine. EG ...a geriatric ward. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...the treatment of geriatrics in Rio. ADJ CLASSIF ▸ N COUNT

2 Geriatrics is the study of the illnesses that affect old people and the methods of treating them. N UNCOUNT germ /dʒɜːm/, germs. A germ is 1 a very small living thing in food, other substances, or in your body that causes disease. EG ...a flu germ... The germs are easily passed from person to person. 2 the beginning of an idea or feeling which may become more important. EG It contains the germ of an idea which might save us... This germ of alarm began to spread. N COUNT ⇑ organism

N COUNT : USU SING : of ⇑ start = seed

German /dʒɜːmən/, Germans. 1 Something that is German belongs or relates to West Germany, East Germany, their people, or their language. EG She's German... ...the German economy. ADJ CLASSIF
2 A German is a person who comes from West Germany or East Germany. EG The Germans offered to help... ...a Frenchman or a German. N COUNT
3 German is the language that is spoken in West Germany, East Germany, and parts of Austria and Switzerland. EG They spoke to him in faultless German... ...German lessons. N UNCOUNT germane /dʒɜːmeɪn/. Something that is germane to a situation or idea is connected with it in an important way; a formal word. EG It is clearly not germane to present-day conditions... ...issues most germane to socialist policy. ADJ QUALIT : PRED : to = relevant

Germanic /dʒɜːmænɪk/. 1 If you describe someone or something as Germanic, you think that their appearance or behaviour is typical of German people or things. EG ...his Germanic nature... ...very Germanic in everything they did. ADJ QUALIT
2 Germanic is also used to describe the ancient culture and people of northern Europe, and the language they spoke, from which the modern Scandinavian languages and English, German, and Dutch derive. EG ...a Germanic tribe... ...Germanic mythology. ADJ CLASSIF

German measles is a disease which causes you to have a cough, a sore throat, and red spots on your skin. N UNCOUNT = rubella germinal /dʒɜːmɪnəl/. Something that is germinal is in an early stage of its development, or is causing something else to develop; a formal word. EG ...a germinal force in re-establishing industry. ADJ CLASSIF = generative germinate /dʒɜːmɪneɪt/, germinates, germinating, germinated. 1 If a seed germinates or you germinate it, it starts to grow; a technical use. EG You need cool, moist weather for the seed to germinate. ◊ germination /dʒɜːmɪneɪʃən/. V ERG ⇑ start = develop ◊ N UNCOUNT 2 If an idea, plan, or feeling germinates, or someone or something germinates it, it comes into existence and begins to develop; a formal or literary use. EG This was enough to germinate the guilt which had lain dormant for years... New concepts germinate before your eyes. V ERG ⇑ start = originate germ warfare is the use of germs in a war in order to cause disease in enemy troops or to destroy crops that they might use as food. EG This treaty bans germ warfare. N UNCOUNT = biological warfare gerontology /dʒerɒntɒlədʒi/ is the study of the process by which we get old, how our bodies change, and the problems that old people have: compare geriatrics. ◊ gerontologist, gerontologists. N UNCOUNT ◊ N COUNT gerrymandering /dʒerɪmændərɪŋ/ is the act of altering political boundaries in order to give an unfair advantage to one political party or group of people; used showing disapproval. N UNCOUNT ⇑ cheating gerund /dʒerənd/, gerunds. In grammar, a gerund is a noun formed from a verb and expressing an action or state. In English, gerunds end in -ing. N COUNT gestalt /gəʃtælt/. A gestalt is something that you see or think of that has particular qualities when you consider it as a whole which are not apparent when you consider only the separate parts of it; used especially as a technical term in psychology. EG ...patterns from different editions, the gestalt clear, but shifting in size... ...Gestalt psychology. N SING WITH DET ⇑ pattern gestation /dʒesteɪʃən/ is 1 the process in human beings and some animals in which babies grow inside their mother's body before they are born, or the period of time during which this process happens; a technical term in biology. EG ...the shortest gestation period in any mammal. 2 the process in which an idea develops or a plan is carried out; a N UNCOUNT = pregnancy N UNCOUNT ⇑ development formal or literary use. EG The road had been sixty years in gestation.

gesticulate /dʒɛstɪkjʊˈleɪt/, gesticulates, gesticulating, gesticulated. If you gesticulate, you make movements with your arms or hands, often while you are talking, for example because you are excited or describing something that is difficult to express in words; a rather formal or literary word. EG We sometimes gesticulate even when talking on the telephone... Stuart gesticulated angrily. ◊ gesticulation /dʒɛstɪkjʊˈleɪʃəⁿn/, gesticulations. EG ...the gesticulations that accompany conversation... There were head-shakings and gesticulations.

V ⇑ move = gesture

◊ N UNCOUNT/COUNT = gesture

gestural /dʒɛstjʊrəl/ means consisting of or relating to gestures. EG We share the same kind of gestural language.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

gesture /dʒɛstʃʊ/, gestures, gesturing, gestured. 1 A gesture is 1.1 a movement that you make with a part of your body, especially your hands or your head, to express emotion or information, either instead of speaking or while you are speaking. EG She made an angry gesture with her fist... He held one hand over his eyes in a gesture of pain. 1.2 something that you say or do in order to express your attitude or intentions, often something that you know will not have much effect. EG The only gesture he made was to change its name... The demonstration is a gesture of defiance against the government... She thanked him for his thoughtful gesture.

N COUNT ⇑ sign

N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ act = token

2 If you gesture, you use movements of your hands or head in order to tell someone something or draw their attention to something. EG He gestured at one of the larger suitcases... Frey gestured with his head towards the closed door... He gestured to me to lie down... The operator gestured the Frenchman to a cabin.

V : REPORT-CL, V + A, OR V + O + A (to) ⇑ signal = motion get /gɛt/, gets, getting, got or gotten. Gotten is the American form of the past participle of the verb. In most of its uses get is a fairly informal word. 1 If someone or something gets cold, angry, bored, etc, they become cold, angry, bored, etc. EG She got massively fat... The sun shone and I got very brown... She began to get suspicious... I was getting quite hungry... If things get any worse you'll just have to come home... Being alone got awfully boring sometimes.

V + C = grow

2 If you get yourself, someone, or something into a particular state, you cause yourself or them to be in that state. EG He got himself into frightful trouble recently... I was getting drunk every night... My father talked about getting in touch with his lawyer... Should religious leaders get involved in politics?... The girl finally got the door open... He got her pregnant.

V + O (NG/REFL) + C/A

3 If you get someone to do something, you cause them to do it by asking, persuading, or telling them. EG She gets Stuart to help her clean... We managed to get him to talk about Brighton... I could get someone else to do it.

V + O + to + INF = persuade

4 If you get something done, you cause it to be done. EG I got safety belts fitted... He has to get a tap taken out... It's important to get the ringleaders put on trial.

V + O + PAST PART

5 If you get somewhere, 5.1 you arrive there. EG When we got to Firle Beacon we had a bit of a rest... My typewriter had been stolen before I got to the Customs... What time do they get back?... I got there about 8 o'clock. 5.2 you move in a particular direction or manner. EG Frankie and Clive were trying to get through the window... Nobody can get past... We got along the street as best we could... They had a terrible job getting down the gangplank.

V + A = reach

V + A ⇑ go

6 If you get someone or something into a place or position, 6.1 you cause them to move there. EG I got Allen into his bunk... I have been trying to get him over here for four years... He was trying to get his face in front of the general's. 6.2 you bring them there. EG I'll just get it for you... Please get me the documents now... Morris hurried off eagerly to get a cab.

V + O + A = manoeuvre

V + O, V + O (NG/REFL) + O, OR V + O + A (for) = fetch

7 Get is often used in place of 'be' as an auxiliary verb to form passives. EG I get asked to so many things... Suppose someone gets killed... He failed to get re-elected... If you have things on the floor, they get trodden on... The difficulties tend to get exaggerated by the media.

AUX + PAST PART : FORMS PASS = be

8 If you get something that you want or need, 8.1 you obtain it as a possession or as something that you are going to use. EG He's trying to get a flat... You can get a dog from a pet shop... He had managed to get himself a large armchair. 8.2 you obtain advice, medical treatment, education, etc. EG You may have to get help... Get advice from your local health department... You can get free dental treatment... Their first priority is to get an education... I told him to get a good lawyer. 8.3 you obtain something such as sleep or exercise that you need in order to keep your body healthy. EG Try to get some rest... The children get all the exercise they need... It will do you good to get a breath of fresh air. 8.4 you obtain a job, a place at a school or college, or a part in a play or film. EG He got her a job with the telephone company... George Farr might get the editorship... I got the part of Ophelia. 8.5 you obtain a qualification. EG Are you going to teach French, when you get your degree?... The reason I came to this class was to get my certificate.

REFL) + O, OR V + O + A (for) = acquire

V + O, V + O (NG/REFL) + O, OR V + O + A (for)

V + O, OR V + O (REFL) + O

V + O, V + O (NG/REFL) + O, OR V + O + A (for) = land

V + O : NO PASS

9 If you get something as a result of an official or legal decision, you obtain it. EG I am going to get a divorce... Desiree was sure to get custody of both children. He got ten years in jail... They don't have to get planning permission for it... We had to get a temporary five-year licence... He managed to get a week's leave in August.

V + O, V + O (NG/REFL) + O, OR V + O + A (for)

10 If you get something as a gift or prize, you receive it. EG I got the anorak for Christmas... Everybody gets a prize in this school.

V + O : NO IMPER, NO PASS

11 If you get a letter, telephone call, or response from someone, you receive it. EG She got these letters every day... I got a call from the President... Next day I got an answer from him. I should get an apology.

V + O : NO IMPER, NO PASS

12 If you get a particular sum of money, you receive it regularly as your wages or salary or as an allowance. EG He was getting a very low salary... They got a hundred pounds a week... She gets a state retirement pension.

V + O : NO PASS = be paid

13 If you get a loan, grant, etc, you are given or lent it for a particular purpose. EG They found it impossible to get a bank loan... I couldn't get a grant unless I had five years' teaching experience.

V + O : NO PASS = obtain

14 If you get a particular result, you obtain it from some action that you take, or from a calculation or experiment. EG It would take time to get results... How did you get that answer, Ian?... You can get this effect quite easily.

V + O, OR V + O + O, OR V + O + A (for) : NO PASS = arrive at 15 If you get a particular price or sum of money for something, you obtain that sum by selling it. EG She ought to get at least eight pounds for it.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN for, NO PASS = receive

16 If an object gets a particular price or sum of money, it is sold for that amount of money. EG His old teapot got two hundred dollars.

V + O : NO PASS = fetch

17 If you get food or drink, you eat or drink it. EG I thought you'd get a nice breakfast at the club... We stopped along the way to get a drink of water.

V + O : NO PASS

18 If you get a meal, you prepare it. EG Kate's just getting the dinner.

V + O : NO PASS

19 If you get a seat, flight, room, etc, you succeed in making a reservation in a theatre, plane, hotel, etc. EG I rang up to see if I could get seats... I'll try and get a flight tomorrow.

V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (for) = book

20 If you get the time, chance, or opportunity to do something, you have the time or opportunity to do it. EG We get little time for sewing... I didn't get a chance to introduce myself.

V + O : USU + to INF, OR for + ING, NO PASS/IMPER/CONT

21 If you get an idea, impression, feeling, etc, you begin to have an idea that something is true or to have knowledge or understanding of something. EG I got the impression he'd had a sleepless night... You get the feeling that it could easily happen here... You can get an idea what it's all about... We spent the time talking to people and generally getting the feel of the place.

V + O : USU + REPORT-CL/of, NO PASS, NO IMPER ⇑ receive = pick up

22 If you get a particular physical or emotional feeling from an event or experience, the event or experience produces that feeling in you. EG She got a lot of fun out of sweeping the front porch... I get a real thrill, when I read a piece of his... Poor John will get a surprise... When I opened the door I got a nasty shock... I'm getting a pain in my side.

V + O : IF + PREP THEN from/out of, NO PASS, NO IMPER

23 If you get a look, view, or glimpse of something, you have a view of it. EG Come back here so you can get a better look... A delivery boy might get a glimpse of him.

V + O : NO PASS = catch

24 If you say that a place gets snow, rain, sunshine, etc, you mean that it usually has that type of weather, for example at a particular time of year. EG We get a lot of sun on the south coast... Scotland will be getting rain this weekend. V + O : NO PASS, NO IMPER = have

25 If you get a mark or grade, you are given it in a test or examination. EG I got an A minus... You have to get 120 marks to pass. V + O : NO PASS, NO CONT = obtain

26 If you get to do something, 26.1 you gradually reach a stage in which you do it, or in which you have a particular appearance, feeling, or belief. EG The kids would have a chance to get to know him... The Prime Minister got to hear of the rumours... Every capital city in the world is getting to look like every other... I got to like the whole idea... I got to hate surprises. 26.2 you eventually succeed in doing it. EG We never got to see you play... They all got to play leading roles. V + to-INF = come; V + to-INF, NO IMPER = manage

27 If you get to be something, you become a particular kind of person or thing. EG I'm getting to be an old man, Davis... You may get to be a Cabinet officer... Pegler's manners got to be a national scandal. V + to-INF

28 If you get moving, going, working, etc, you begin moving, going, working, etc. EG We can't seem to get moving... Get digging! V + ING = start

29 If you get to a particular stage in your life, career, or action, you reach that stage. EG You have got to an important stage in your career... I got as far as dismantling the plug... I had hoped this conversation wouldn't even get this far... It got to the point where we were having to share desks. We'd only got up to stage three. V + A = come

30 If it gets to a particular time, it is that time. EG It got to five o'clock... It had got to Christmas morning... It's getting late. V : it + V + to ⇑ reach

31 If you get a joke or the point of something that is said, you understand it. EG I tried to tell somebody your joke and they didn't get it... I don't really get the point of the story... 'I don't get you,' he said. V + O : NO IMPER, NO PASS

32 If you get news or information, 32.1 you obtain it, especially by taking some deliberate action in order to obtain it. EG Harry switched on the radio to get the latest news... I'll try and get the information for you. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (for)

32.2 you receive it, especially by having it brought to you by another person. EG He was with us when we got the news. V + O : NO IMPER, NO PASS

33 If you get an illness or disease, you become ill with it. EG She got chicken pox. V + O : NO IMPER, NO PASS

34 If you get a train, bus, etc, you leave a place on a particular train, bus, etc. EG We walked to Ipswich and got the train to Colchester... Where do you have to go to get the plane? V + O : NO PASS = catch, take

35 If you get a person or animal, you succeed in catching, killing, or hitting them. EG Perhaps the police got him in the end... Do you think the shark got Ben? V + O ⇑ catch = do for

36 If something gets to you, it causes you to suffer physically or mentally. EG The fatigue and backache are getting to me now... What got to them sooner or later was an inability to reconcile these two things. V + A (to) ⇑ affect

37 If someone's behaviour gets you, it annoys you. EG It's the bossiness that gets them... What gets me is the way Janet implies that I'm fascinated by her husband. V + O : NO CONT/PASS/IMPER ⇑ annoy = bug

38 If you get a newspaper or magazine, you regularly buy it. EG I used to get 'The Times' but now I get 'The Guardian'. V + O : NO CONT/PASS = take

39 If you can get a particular radio or television channel, you are able to receive broadcasts from it on your radio or television. EG We can't get BBC 2. V + O : NO PASS/IMPER = pick up

40 If you get someone alone or to yourself, you succeed in meeting them without anyone else being present. EG She was not a cosy person, except when you could get her alone occasionally... If only I could get you to myself. PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ monopolize

41 You can use you get instead of 'there is' or 'there are' to say that something exists, happens, or can be experienced. EG You get some rather curious effects... In the Finale you get the grandest melody that Sibelius ever wrote. PHR + NG = you have

42 The word get is also used in the following expressions. 42.1 If you say that you are getting somewhere, getting nowhere, etc, you are talking about the progress or the lack of progress that you are making. EG Now we're getting somewhere... You're not getting anywhere with this plan. 42.2 If you say to someone that a particular type of behaviour will get them nowhere, won't get them anywhere, etc, you are expressing disapproval and advising them not to behave in that way. EG Rudeness will get you nowhere. PHR : VB INFLECTS

42.3 If you get a lot out of something, get little out of something, etc, you experience that amount of pleasure, satisfaction, or stimulation from it. EG Children get a lot out of these visits... He's not getting the most out of his relationships. 42.4 If you say 'How lucky can you get?', 'How stupid can you get?', etc, you are expressing your surprise that anyone could be as lucky, stupid, etc as the person that you are talking about. EG How daft can you get? PHR

42.5 As hot as you can get it, as accurate as you can get it, etc means as hot or as accurate as it is possible to make it. EG The fluid is as hot as you can get it. PHR : USED AS C

42.6 Get stuffed, get knotted, get lost, etc, are very offensive ways of expressing contempt for someone, disagreement with someone, or refusal to do something. PHR : ONLY IMPER = on your bike

43 The word get is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to get no change out of somebody: see change. ● to get cracking: see cracking. ● to get someone's goat: see goat. ● to not get a look in: see look-in. ● to get the message: see message. ● to play hard to get: see play. ● to get used to something: see used. ● to get in the way: see way. ● to get out of the way: see way. ● to get your way: see way. ● to get weaving: see weave.

44 See also getting, got.

get about. 1 If you get about, you go to a lot of different places as part of your way of life. EG I can't get about as much as I used to. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = get around

2 To get about also means the same as to get round. EG Startling rumours began to get about in next to no time. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + REPORT-CL get across. When something gets across or when you get something across, you succeed in making other people understand it. EG We managed to get our message across. PHRASAL VB : V ERG + ADV ⇑ communicate = get over get after. To get after someone means to try to catch them, especially when they have committed a crime. EG It is their job to get after the villains as fast as possible. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = pursue get ahead. If you get ahead, you are successful in your career. EG The bright young man can get ahead quickly in industry. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ succeed = advance get along. 1 If you get along with someone, you have a friendly relationship with them. EG They just can't get along together... I used to get along really well with my boss. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A (together/with) RECIP = get on

2 If you are getting along with something such as a task or a machine, you are being successful in doing it or using it. EG How are you getting along with the new photo-copier? PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A = fare get around. 1 To get around a problem or difficulty means to overcome it. EG To help get around this problem, some tanks are now equipped with radar. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = surmount

2 If you get around a rule or law, you find a way of doing something that a rule or law is intended to prevent, without actually breaking the rule or law. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = bypass

3 If news gets around, it becomes well known as a result of being told to lots of people. EG The word started to get around about the awful scripts for the new show. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + REPORT-CL = get round

4 If you get around, you visit a lot of different places as part of your way of life. EG She must be able to get around. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = get about get around to. If you get around to something, you eventually do something that you would have liked to avoid doing or that you were unable to do before because you were too busy. EG I only got around to doing this a few days ago. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP get at. 1 To get at something means 1.1 to succeed in reaching it. EG The goats bent down on their knees to get at the short grass. 1.2 to succeed in discovering the truth about something. EG I must get at the fellow's secret. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = find out

2 If you get at someone, you keep criticizing or teasing them in an unkind way; an informal expression. EG You're always getting at me. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = pick on

3 If you ask someone what they are getting at, you are asking them to explain what they mean, usually because you think that they are being unpleasant or are suggesting something that is untrue or unfair. EG I don't know what you are getting at. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = insinuate get away. 1 If you get away, 1.1 you succeed in PHRASAL VB : V +

leaving a place or a person's company. EG You've got away from home... I was itching to get away. 1.2 you go away for a period of time in order to have a holiday. EG Is there any chance of you getting away this summer? ● If you get away from it all, you have a holiday in a place that is very different from the place where you normally live and work. EG Get away from it all-fly to the sunshine!

ADV, USU + from
PHRASAL VB : V + ADV
● PHR : VB INFLECTS

2 When someone or something gets away, or when you get them away, they escape. EG They got away through Mrs Barnett's garden... George Watin got away and is presumed to be living in Spain. ● See also getaway.

PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV

3 If you get away from something, you do a job or a task differently from the way that it has been done before. EG They wanted to get away from the rigid timetables of the past.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN from = break away

4 If you say you can't get away from it or there's no getting away from something, you are emphasizing the fact that something is true; an informal expression. EG There's no getting away from the fact that they are better organized than we are.

PHR

5 People sometimes say 'Get away' or 'Get away with you' to say to someone that they cannot accept what has just been said because they think that it is foolish or untrue. EG Get away! We can't have that.

EXCLAM = go on

get away with. If you get away with something, you are not punished for doing something that you should not do. EG Nobody gets away with tearing my coat... He might have bribed her-and got away with it. ● to get away with murder: see murder.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP

get back. 1 If you get back to something, 1.1 you are in the same state, condition, or situation that you were in before. EG Eddie wanted to get back to sleep... Things would soon get back to normal. 1.2 you start talking again about something that you were talking about before. EG Let's just get back to the argument... She got back to what she had really come for. 1.3 you start doing something again after you have stopped doing it. EG He eventually got back to work again... Maybe you could get back into journalism.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to = go back
PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to = return
PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to/into = go back

2 If you get something back, you have it again after you have lost it or after someone has taken it from you. EG He would get back his old job... All he wants to do is get his girl friend back.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = regain

3 If you get back, you move away from a person or a place. EG If you come near, I'll scream. Get back!

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

get by. If you get by, you just manage to survive and have a fairly satisfactory life. EG He had managed to get by without much reading or writing... They slide through life, getting by as best they can.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A = cope

get down. 1 If something gets you down, it makes you unhappy. EG The quiet got them down... It isn't just the work that gets her down.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV = depress

2 If you get down, you lower your body until you are sitting or lying on the ground. EG They got down on their knees... We got down on the ground.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV : USU + on = go down

3 If you get something down, you write it, especially something that has just been said.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

4 If you get food down, you swallow it, especially with difficulty; an informal expression. EG I eventually managed to get it down.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV

get down to. If you get down to something, you begin doing it, especially when it is something that requires a lot of attention. EG I got down to work... Let's get down to business.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP ⇑ start get in. 1 If a political party or a politician gets in, they are elected. EG What would Labour do if they got in ?... She got in by more than 5,000 votes.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

2 If you get something in, you manage to do it at a time when you are very busy doing other things. EG The idea was to get in a little golf... They get in all the work they can.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = fit in

3 To get crops or the harvest in means to gather them from the land and take them to a particular place. EG They wanted to get the harvest in.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = bring in 4 When trains, buses, planes, etc, or the people travelling in them, get in, they arrive. EG What time does the coach get in, do you know?... We get in at five.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

5 If you get something in, you eventually manage to succeed in saying something, usually because a lot of people are talking at the same time or one person is talking non-stop. EG 'What I wanted to say,' I finally got in, 'is that I've a set of instructions at home.'... Tinker had to get in the last word. ● to get a word in edgeways: see edgeways.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, OR V + ADV + QUOTE/ REPORT-CL = chip in

get in on. If you get in on something, you take part in an activity that other people are already involved in; an informal expression. EG He even gets in on the photography shows.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP ⇑ join in get into. 1 If you get into something such as a conversation, argument, or fight, you begin it with another person or group of people. EG It usually took that long to get into a serious conversation... I always get into arguments with people.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = embark on

2 If you get into a particular habit or way of doing something, you have begun to have it. EG She'd got into the habit of sulking... We tend to get into a certain way of thinking.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = develop

3 If you get into something, 3.1 you take it up as an interest or a hobby; an informal expression. EG She got into health foods and astrology. 3.2 you become involved in a particular kind of work or activity. EG He was determined to get into Federalist politics.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP
PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

4 If you get into a school, college, or university, you are accepted there as a pupil or student. EG There has been a demand to get into various schools... Darwin failed to get into medical school at Cambridge.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ⇑ enter

5 If you ask what has got into someone, you mean that they are behaving in an unexpected way; an informal expression. EG What's got into her?

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, NO CONT/ IMPER/PASS

get in with. If you get in with someone, you become friendly with them, often because you think that they can help you because they are rich or important. EG She takes good care to get in with the people who matter.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP ⇑ befriend get off. 1 If you get off a bus, train, etc, you leave it. EG When the train stopped, he got off... Get off at Mayfield Church.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP/ADV ⇑ get out

2 If you get off something, you move your body from an object that you have been standing, sitting, or lying on. EG She started to get off the table... He got off his bicycle.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

3 If you get off a piece of land, you leave a place where you should not be. EG I told them to get off the university playing fields.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = clear off

4 If you get off, 4.1 you leave somewhere. EG I have to be getting off now. ● to get off on the wrong foot: see foot. ● to get off to a flying start: see flying. 4.2 you are not punished for breaking a law or rule, or are given only a very small punishment. EG He got off with a £50 fine... He expressed relief that he had got off so lightly.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV
PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV = be let off

5 If you get something off something else, you remove it, especially when it is stuck. EG ...stains you can't get off your skin... I can't get the top off.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV/PREP ⇑ remove

6 If you get a letter or parcel off, you post it. EG He eventually got his letter off... Try to get that one off early so it reaches them tomorrow.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV = take off

7 If you get a piece of clothing off, you remove it. EG Get your shirt off and let's have a look at that arm right away.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV = take off

8 If you get off or get off to sleep, you succeed in falling asleep in spite of something that makes it difficult for you to sleep. EG I just couldn't get off last night.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + to = fall asleep

9 If you get off on something, you become very excited by it; a very informal expression. EG He really enjoys blowing people up-he really gets off on it.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + on = get high

10 You can say 'Get off', 'Get your hands off', etc, to tell someone not to touch something. For example, a woman might say this to a man who is touching her. EG Get your hands off. And don't call me 'love', thank you... Get your greedy hands off that cake, it's for tomorrow.

PHR : ONLY IMPER

11 If you tell someone where to get off, you tell someone who is behaving in an arrogant way that they are not as important as they think that they are; an informal expression. EG I should tell them where to get off, if I were you.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

get off with. If you get off with someone, you begin a romantic or sexual relationship with them. EG Mike thinks I'm trying to get off with his girlfriend.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = make it with get on. 1 If you get on with someone, you have a friendly relationship with them. EG Mother and I get on very well... The two communities are not prepared to get on together... I have never been able to get on with Cyril.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV OR V + ADV + A (together/ with) : RECIP = get along

2 If you get on with something, you continue with something that you have started doing or you start something that you were about to do. EG I get on with my work most weekends... Perhaps we can get on with the meeting.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + with = press on

3 If you get on, 3.1 you have a particular degree of success with something that you are trying to do. EG I always get on far better if I can draw a diagram... How's he getting on? 3.2 you are successful in your career. EG She's got to study to get on.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A, NO IMPER = manage
PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, NO IMPER

4 If you get on a bus, train, etc, you get into it. EG She got on the bus every morning... Some new passengers were getting on.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP/ADV = board

5 If you get a piece of clothing on, you put it on. EG Get your coat on... She told them to get their scarves and gloves on.

PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV

6 If someone is getting on, they are old. EG Now I'm getting on I find these stairs a little difficult for me.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

7 If you say that time is getting on, you mean that there is not much time left before something will happen. Often this is a way of saying that something should be done quickly.

PHR : AUX INFLECTS

get on to. 1 If you get on to a topic, you change to it during a lecture, conversation, etc. EG That's something we'll get on to in the future... Somehow we got on to grandparents.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = move on to

2 If you get on to someone, you contact them in order to ask them to do something or to give them some information. EG I'll get on to her right away.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP

get out. 1 If you get out of somewhere, 1.1 you leave a vehicle, room, building, etc. EG We got out of the car... I got out and examined the right rear wheel... Brody got out of bed... Get out of here! 1.2 you leave a place because you want to leave it, or because you are made to leave it. EG I'm going to get out of New York... They told me to get out. ● to get out while the going is good: see going.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ leave
PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV = clear out

2 If you get out of something such as an organization, you withdraw from it. EG The Common Market? The sooner we get out the better.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = pull out

3 If you get out, you go to places and meet people, usually in order to have a more enjoyable or interesting life. EG Get out and enjoy yourself... You've got to get out and make friends.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A = go out

4 If you get something out, you take it out of a cupboard, pocket, bag, etc. EG He got out a book and read... After a few drinks he would get his clarinet out.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = produce, take out

5 If you get a stain out, you remove it from a surface or a fabric. EG I couldn't get the stain out of your green dress... It's got stuff spilt on it you can't get out.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

6 If you get out a report or a statement, you produce it for people to read. EG The American Cancer Society got out its first report in 1954... Production schedules had to be got out.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

7 If you get out of something, you succeed in avoiding doing something that you do not want to do. EG She always got out of washing up... We'll do anything to get out of work.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + of ⇑ avoid

8 If you get something out, you manage to say something, often with difficulty because, for example, you are out of breath. EG She couldn't get a word out for the moment... I had barely got out my name.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

9 If news or information gets out, it becomes known. EG The news got out in the end... The word got out that he would go ahead.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + REPORT-CL, NO CONT

10 If you get out of a habit or particular activity, you stop doing it.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + of

get over. 1 If you get over an unpleasant or unhappy experience or an illness, you recover from it. EG Have you got over the shock?... George did not get over his homesickness for some time... She's just getting over mumps.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

2 If you get over a problem or difficulty, you overcome it. EG One mother got over this problem by leaving her baby with someone else.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = get around

3 If you get your meaning over, people understand what you are saying. EG He got his meaning over to Jo at the fourth time of trying.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, IF + PREP THEN to = get across get over with. If you get something over with, you do something unpleasant or tedious that must be done. EG Can we just get this questioning over with?

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV + PREP ⇑ finish

get round. 1 If you get round a problem or difficulty, you overcome it. EG Irving got round the problem in a novel way.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = get over

2 If you get round a rule or law, you find a way of doing something that a rule or law is intended to prevent, without actually breaking that rule or law. EG She knew the ways to get round the rules.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

3 If news gets round, it becomes well known as a result of being told to lots of people. EG The word got round that Morris was going to England.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + REPORT-CL = get about

4 If you get round someone, you persuade them to allow you to do or to have something by pleasing them or by flattering them. EG She could always get round him in the end.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS ⇑ persuade = win over get round to. If you get round to something, you eventually do something that you would have liked to avoid doing or that you were unable to do earlier because you were busy doing other things. EG It took you six weeks to get round to telling me about Melanie... I didn't get round to taking the examination.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = get around to get through. 1 If you get through something such as a task, you complete it, especially when it requires a lot of effort. EG It is difficult to get through this amount of work in such a short time... We tried to get through the whole play in two hours.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = wade through

2 If you get through a period of time during which something unpleasant is happening, you manage to live through it. EG They helped me to get through that time... How do John and Sylvia ever get through Minnesota winters?

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = survive

3 If you get through a large amount of something, you completely use it up. EG He had got through all his money... I got through about six pounds worth of drink.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = run through

4 If you get through to someone, 4.1 you succeed in making them understand something that you are trying to tell them. EG Howard, how do I get through to you? 4.2 you succeed in contacting them on the telephone. EG I finally got through at twenty past ten.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to ⇑ reach = get
PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

5 If you get through or get through an examination, you pass it. EG They haven't got a chance of getting through... He qualifies if he gets through his two subjects this year.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP ⇑ succeed

6 If a law or proposal gets through, it is officially approved by something such as a parliament or committee. EG If this new White Paper gets through, there will be no subsidized meals... The bill might not have been able to get through Congress.

PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV/PREP = go through

get together. 1 When people get together, they meet in order to discuss something or to spend time together. EG Workers and supervisors get together to discuss their grievances... Do you think we could get together at Christmas?... Can you get together with Henry to arrange the wedding reception? ● See also get-together.

PHRASAL VB : V-ERG + ADV, ALSO V + ADV OR V + ADV + A (with) : RECIP = come together

2 If you get something together, you assemble it from several parts, for example you build a machine or you form an organization. EG He's spent a whole afternoon trying to get the thing together... It now only remained to get the company together. ● to get your act together: see act.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = assemble

3 If you get money together, you succeed in getting all the money that you need in order to pay for something. EG Almost all of the children had got the money together themselves... Somehow we have to get the fees together.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = scrape together

get up. 1 If you get up, 1.1 you rise to a standing position when you have been sitting or lying down. EG I had to get up from my stool... He got up off the floor... Please, Don't get up. 1.2 you get out of bed. EG You've got to get up at eight o'clock... He was always the last to get up.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A = stand up
PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + O + ADV = rise

2 If you get something up, you organize something such as a public event, especially with very little preparation; a rather old-fashioned expression. EG An impromptu dance was got up in his honour.

PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = arrange

3 If you get yourself up in something, you dress in a particular kind of clothing. EG ...children got up in spaceman outfits... He had got himself up like a U.S. marine. ● See also get-up.

PHRASAL VB : V + O (REFL) + ADV + in/like = rig out

get up to. If you say that someone gets up to something, you mean that they do things that you do not approve of. EG He got up to all sorts of things... When I found out what they used to get up to I was absolutely horrified.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP ⇑ do getaway /getəweɪ/, getaways. If someone makes a getaway, they leave a place in a hurry, especially after committing a crime. EG I was busy packing up to make my getaway... They leapt aboard the getaway cars.

N COUNT : USU SING ⇑ departure = escape getting /gɛtɪŋ/. 1 Getting is the present participle of get.

2 In informal English, getting on for means the same as nearly. EG They have getting on for a hundred stores in England... The place must be getting on for four hundred years old. PHR : V + ADV + PREP get-together, get-togethers. A get-together is an informal meeting or party, usually arranged for a particular purpose. EG We're having a little get-together to celebrate Helen's promotion. N COUNT = gathering get-up, get-ups. A get-up is a strange or unusual set of clothes worn by someone on a particular occasion. EG ...Albert Finney in a Mexican get-up smoking a cigar. N COUNT = outfit, rig gewgaw /gjʊgɔː/, gewgaws. A gewgaw is an attractive and brightly-coloured ornament or piece of jewellery that is of little value; used showing disapproval. EG ...a bag of fancy gewgaws. N COUNT = trinket geyser /giːzə/, geysers. A geyser is 1 a hole in the Earth's surface from which hot water and steam come out forcefully, usually at irregular intervals of time. EG ...steam geysers and hot water springs... ...volcanoes and geysers. 2 in British English, a device for providing hot water, usually a large metal container with water pipes and a gas burner inside, fixed to the wall of a bathroom or kitchen. EG There was a geyser above the bath. N COUNT ⇑ eruption; N COUNT ⇑ appliance

Ghanaian /gɑːneɪən/. 1 Something that is Ghanaian belongs or relates to Ghana or to its people. EG ...Ghanaian musicians. ADJ CLASSIF

2 A Ghanaian is a person who comes from Ghana. N COUNT

ghastly /gɑːstli¹/. 1 If you say that someone is ghastly, you mean that you do not like them at all, especially because of the way they behave. EG ...those ghastly Hewson-Smarts and their idiot guests... 'Ghastly, isn't she?' ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unpleasant = awful

2 If you say that something is ghastly, 2.1 you think that it is vulgar and poor in artistic style. EG ...ghastly scarlet lipstick... ...ghastly office blocks. 2.2 you mean that it is very unpleasant to taste, smell, hear, or look at. EG The empty glasses and full ash-trays were a ghastly sight... ...a ghastly bowl of soup. ADJ QUALIT = frightful; ADJ QUALIT = repulsive

3 A ghastly experience or situation is one that you find very unpleasant, for example because it makes you unhappy or embarrassed. EG For a ghastly moment I thought she was going to ask me to stay... We wouldn't be in this ghastly mess if you had kept quiet... ...ghastly long arguments. ADJ QUALIT = hideous, awful

4 If something is ghastly in appearance, it makes you feel afraid, because there is something strange, unnatural, or evil about it. EG The great fangs gleamed a ghastly white... They jerked through their ghastly dance, the priest, the hangman and the convict. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ frightening = spectral, macabre

5 If someone looks ghastly, they look very ill or unhappy. EG She was crying, blowing her nose and looking simply ghastly. ADJ QUALIT : PRED = awful

6 If you describe events, situations, or news as ghastly, you mean that they involve suffering or death. EG ...the ghastly news of the murder... The scene after the battle was ghastly. ADJ QUALIT = horrifying, grim

7 Something that is ghastly is extremely severe in its effects. EG They had made a ghastly mistake... ...a new and ghastly economic slump. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB ⇑ extreme = serious gherkin /gɜːkɪn/, gherkins. A gherkin is a small green cucumber which has been pickled in vinegar and is eaten as part of a snack or meal. EG ...crisps, gherkins, and cocktail onions. N COUNT ghetto /gɛtəʊ/, ghettos, ghettoes. The plural can be either ghettos or ghettoes. A ghetto is a part of a town or city in which many poor people or many people of a particular race, religion, or nationality live in isolation from the majority group in the town or city; used showing disapproval. EG It's about this black kid growing up in the ghetto... ...ghetto life in European cities... ...slums and ghettos. N COUNT ⇑ area ghost /gəʊst/, ghosts, ghosting, ghosted. 1 A ghost is a dead person that some people think they see or feel the presence of, and that they usually find frightening. EG ...the ghost of Mrs Dowell... Her ghost would haunt me all my life... I don't believe in ghosts... Do you know any good ghost stories? ● See also Holy Ghost. ● If you say that someone looks like they have seen a ghost, you mean that they look very shocked or frightened. N COUNT ⇑ apparition = spook; ● PHR : AUX INFLECTS

2 A ghost of something is a faint trace of it; a rather literary word. EG ...a ghost of a smile. N COUNT + of : USU SING

3 If you say that someone has not got the ghost of a chance of doing something, you mean that they have very little chance of succeeding in doing it; an informal expression. EG We have not the ghost of a chance of changing Father's will. PHR WITH BROAD NEG : USED AS O

4 If you say that someone has given up the ghost, you mean that they have died; an informal expression. PHR : VB INFLECTS = die

5 If you say that a machine has given up the ghost, you mean that it has stopped working properly and cannot be repaired. EG The car took us across Europe, only giving up the ghost in the last stages of the journey. PHR : VB INFLECTS = die, conk out

6 If you ghost a book or other piece of writing, you write it for someone, who then puts their name on it. EG ...a famous play, and even that was half ghosted... He published his ghosted memoirs in a Sunday newspaper. V + O = ghost-write ghostly /gəʊstli¹/. Something that is ghostly is slightly frightening in its appearance or effect, because it does not seem real or natural. EG He saw them far overhead, ghostly in the moonlight... ...a ghostly laugh... ...ghostly rumbling noises. ADJ QUALIT = eerie, sinister ghost town , ghost towns. A ghost town is a town which was once busy and prosperous but which people no longer live in, especially one where the buildings are still standing. EG ...a ghost town in New Mexico. N COUNT ghost-write, ghost-writes, ghost-writing, ghost-wrote, ghost-written; also spelled as one word. If you ghost-write an article, speech, or book, you write it for another person, for example a politician or sportsman, who then publishes or uses it as his or her own work. EG The speech was in fact mostly ghost-written by Stockman. ◊ ghost-writing. EG ...a piece of ghost-writing on Mailer's part. V + O; ◊ N UNCOUNT ⇑ writing ghost-writer , ghost-writers; also spelled as one word. A ghost-writer is someone who writes articles, speeches, or books for other people. N COUNT

ghoul /guːl/, ghouls. 1 A ghoul is an imaginary evil spirit, especially one which eats dead bodies. N COUNT = fiend

2 If you say that someone is a ghoul, you mean that they are interested in things that usually shock or upset other people, such as torture, death, and dead bodies; used showing strong disapproval. N COUNT

ghoulish /guːlɪʃ/. Something that is ghoulish is concerned with torture, suffering, or death; used showing disapproval. EG Ghoulish rumours race through the community. ▸ used of people who are interested in such things. EG ...their ghoulish desire for grisly details... ...a ghoulish smile. ◊ ghoulishly. EG She licked her lips ghoulishly. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ unpleasant = macabre; ▸ = gruesome; ◊ ADV WITH VB

GHQ is an abbreviation for 'General Headquarters': the place where the people work who organize military forces or a military operation; a military term. EG She agreed to meet him at GHQ at four-thirty. ▸ used of the people who work there. EG GHQ would not offer an official estimate. N UNCOUNT

GI /dʒiː aɪ/, GIs. A GI is a soldier in the United States army. EG The GI hadn't removed his cap... Eighty GIs had died in combat. ▸ N UNCOUNT : VB CAN BE SING OR PL; N COUNT giant /dʒaɪənt/, giants. 1 A giant is an imaginary person of great size and strength, especially one mentioned in myths and children's stories. EG ...stories of cruel giants and wicked witches... ...one-eyed giants in Greek legends... ...like a giant's armchair. N COUNT ⇑ creature

2 A very large business company or organization is often referred to as a giant in newspapers, magazines, and economic journals. EG ...the electronics giant, Hitachi... ...competition from the American giants. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...the giant chemical concern, Hoechst. N COUNT + SUPP; ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 Anything that is much larger than the usual size can be referred to as a giant. EG ...a giant of a man with wavy white hair. ▸ used as an adjective. EG ...giant Christmas trees... ...the giant Post Office computer. N COUNT = colossus; ▸ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = colossal

4 Giant is used as part of the name of some species of animals that are different from similar species in size and other characteristics; a technical term in zoology. EG ...the giant anteater... ...the giant pandas. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

5 Giant is also used to describe events or situations that are considered to be very important, especially when they are part of a larger process. EG ...giant steps in the conquest of a disease... ...giant conspiracies to defraud management. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ important = major gibber /dʒɪbə/, gibbers, gibbering, gibbered. If you gibber, you talk very fast and in a confused manner, often because of fear or madness. EG ...naked men gibbering in their terror... 'I shouldn't have told you,' she gibbered. ◊ gibbering. EG ...a gibbering idiot.

V OR V · QUOTE = babble
◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

gibberish /dʒɪbəˈrɪʃ/ is words or ideas that do not make any sense; often used showing disapproval. EG He was talking gibberish... Could the theory be sheer gibberish?.

N UNCOUNT ⇑ nonsense

gibbet /dʒɪbɪt/, gibbets. A gibbet is a gallows; an old-fashioned word.

N COUNT

gibbon /gɪbən/, gibbons. A gibbon is an animal that lives in southern Asia and looks like a monkey but has no tail.

N COUNT ⇑ ape

gibe /dʒaɪb/, gibes. A gibe is a jibe.

N COUNT

giblets /dʒɪblɪˈts/ are the parts such as the heart and liver that you remove from inside a chicken or other bird before you cook and eat it. Some people cook the giblets separately to make soup or a sauce.

N PLURAL ⇑ innards

giddy/gɪdiˈ/, giddier, giddiest. 1 If you feel giddy, you feel unsteady and think that you are about to fall over, usually because you are not well or are very tired. EG He had a headache and felt giddy... He tried to get up and failed, feeling too giddy. ▸ used of the feeling or the cause of the feeling. EG It gave him a giddy feeling when he looked out of the window... ...the giddy heat of the garage. ◊ giddiness. EG ...giddiness and sea-sickness.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED = dizzy, faint
▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = dizzying
◊ N UNCOUNT = dizziness

2 If something makes you giddy, you feel 2.1 slightly worried and confused, because you are thinking hard or cannot understand it properly. EG It made me giddy to hear so much subtle analysis. ▸ used of the cause of the feeling. EG ...the giddy heights of responsibility. 2.2 happy and full of energy. EG The news made me giddy with excitement. ▸ used of the feeling or the period of time that it lasts. EG ...the atmosphere of giddy joy... ...after those first giddy weeks at home.

ADJ QUALIT : PRED = dizzy
▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB
ADJ QUALIT
▸ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = intoxicating

3 In old-fashioned English, someone who is giddy is mainly interested in having fun and not in serious matters; used showing disapproval. EG ...her husband's giddy cousin.

ADJ QUALIT = flighty gift /gɪft/, gifts. 1 A gift is something that you give someone as a present. EG Give her a scarf as a gift... ...buying a gift for his hostess... ...the gift of a handful of primroses... ...a gift from the Russian ambassador to Charles II... ...a parting gift.

N COUNT

2 If someone has a gift for doing something, they have a natural ability for doing it. EG John has a real gift for casual conversation... Rudolf had the gift of being liked by everyone he met... ...his gifts as a storyteller.

N COUNT : USU SING + for/of = talent

3 In informal English, if you say that something is a gift, you mean that it is much cheaper or much easier to do than usual. EG At £50 it was a gift... That exam question was a gift to anyone who'd read the book.

N SING : a + N = give-away

4 In informal English, if you say that someone thinks that they are God's gift to someone or something, you mean that you believe that they are very arrogant and conceited; used showing strong disapproval. EG He thinks he is God's gift to women.

PHR : USED AS C

gifted /gɪftɪˈd/. Someone who is gifted 1 has a natural ability to do something well. EG She was a gifted actress... He was gifted with extraordinary powers of memory... ...the most gifted of all living musicians... She is very gifted at French. 2 is more intelligent than average; used of children. EG Even gifted children fail to progress without good teaching.

ADJ QUALIT = talented
ADJ QUALIT

gift-wrapped means wrapped in pretty paper in order to be given as a present.

ADJ CLASSIF

gig /gɪg/, gigs. 1 A gig is a performance, especially one by pop musicians; an informal use. EG No group has played a gig there since 1960... They started out doing free gigs in bars.

N COUNT

2 A gig was a small, open carriage that had two wheels and was pulled by one horse. EG A farmer came in his gig.

N COUNT

gigantic /dʒaɪgæntɪk/. Something that is gigantic is unusually and surprisingly large in size, amount or degree. EG The entire area looked like a gigantic rubbish heap... ...mistakes on a truly gigantic scale... ...gigantic amounts of money... ...a gigantic effort. ◊ gigantically. EG ...the smooth sides of the mountain rising gigantically from the plain.

ADJ QUALIT = colossal
◊ ADV

giggle /gɪgəˈl/, giggles, giggling, giggled. 1 If you giggle, you make quiet and repeated laughing noises, because you are happy or occasionally because you are nervous or embarrassed. EG The absurd sound made her giggle... 'Oh dear,' she giggled, 'I'd quite forgotten'... ...giggling helplessly at her own joke. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a nervous giggle... We had a good giggle about that. ● If someone has the giggles, they cannot stop giggling; an informal use. EG This gave Lynn the giggles... ...a fit of the giggles.

V OR V = QUOTE ⇑ laugh = chuckle, titter
▸ N COUNT
● PHR : USED AS O

2 If you say that something is a giggle or if you do something for a giggle, you mean that you think that it is fun to do and will not do any harm to anyone; an informal expression.

PHR : USED AS C : A = a lark

giggly /gɪgliˈ/. If people are giggly, they are happy and amused or slightly nervous. EG They returned, rather giggly. ▸ used also of people's behaviour. EG ...a giggly shyness.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ amused

gigolo /dʒɪgəˈləʊ/, gigolos. A gigolo is a man who is paid to be the lover and companion of a rich and usually older woman; used showing disapproval. EG She had a drunken row with her gigolo.

N COUNT

gild /gɪld/, gilds, gilding, gilded. 1 If you gild a surface, you cover it in a thin layer of gold or gold paint. ◊ gilded. EG The priest chants before gilded altars... ...the ornate gilded mirror. ◊ gilding. EG The gilding is thinner than he expected.

V + O
◊ ADJ CLASSIF
◊ N UNCOUNT

2 If something is gilded, it appears golden; a literary word. EG The hedges were gilded by the sun... ...his face gilded in the glow from the stove.

V + O : USU PASS ⇑ light

3 If you say that someone is gilding the lily, you mean that they are spoiling something that is already beautiful or perfect by trying to improve it or by praising it too highly.

PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ overdo = spoil

gilded /gɪldɪˈd/. If you describe someone as gilded, you mean that they are rich and belong to a high social class. EG ...the gilded aristocratic audience... I was an heiress in my gilded youth.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ fortunate = fashionable gill, gills. The word gill is pronounced /gɪl/ for paragraphs 1 and 2, and /dʒɪl/ for paragraph 3. 1 Gills are the organs on the sides of fish and other water creatures through which they breathe by taking oxygen from the water.

N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ organ

2 If you say that someone is pale or green about the gills, you mean that they look sick and ill, often because of shock or fear; an informal expression.

PHR : USED AS C = queasy

3 A gill is a unit of measurement for liquids that is equal to a quarter of a pint or 0.142 litres. EG ...a gill of rum.

N PART + N UNCOUNT

gilt /gɪlt/, gilts. 1 Something that is gilt is covered with a thin layer of gold or gold paint. EG ...three small gilt chairs... ...paintings in dark gilt frames... ... gilt lettering. ▸ used as a noun. EG The gilt had been chipped... ...adorned with gilt.

ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ⇑ coated = gilded ▸ N UNCOUNT ⇑ coating

2 Gilts are gilt-edged stocks or securities. EG Gilts, stocks and shares...

N COUNT : USU PL ⇑ stock

gilt-edged. Gilt-edged stocks or securities are issued by the government for people to invest in for a fixed period of time at a fixed rate of interest. With gilt-edged stocks there is very little risk of investors losing their money.

ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ secure

gimcrack /dʒɪmkræk/. Gimcrack things look attractive but are badly made and so are of little use or value; used showing disapproval. EG ...some flashy gimcrack boat. ▸ used also of ideas. EG ...gimcrack theories.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = rubbishy

gimlet /gɪmlɪˈt/. 1 A gimlet is a small sharp tool used for making small holes in wood.

N COUNT

2 If you say that someone has gimlet eyes, you mean that they look at things very carefully and notice every detail. EG His gimlet eyes blinked at her.

ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ sharp = piercing gimmick /gɪmɪk/, gimmicks. A gimmick is an unusual action, object, or device that is not really necessary or important but whose main purpose is to attract attention, interest or publicity. EG The manufacturer needed a new sales gimmick... ...fancy gimmicks on the steering column... ...an election gimmick.

N COUNT ⇑ contrivance

gimmickry /gɪmɪkriˈ/ is actions or objects that are not necessary or important but whose main purpose is to attract attention, interest, or publicity. EG No legal gimmickry will save the animals... ...computers loaded with gimmickry.

N UNCOUNT

gimmicky /gɪmɪkiˈ/. If you say that something is gimmicky, you mean that it contains a lot of things that are not necessary or important but are included mainly to attract attention, interest, or publicity; an informal word. EG The production was rather gimmicky... Good ideas become standard, gimmicky ones die quickly.

ADJ QUALIT ⇑ superficial

gin /dʒɪn/, gins. Gin is a colourless alcoholic drink made from grain and juniper berries. Gin is usually drunk with tonic water or fruit juice. EG 'A gin and tonic, please.'... ...a dozen empty gin bottles. N MASS ginger /dʒɪndʒə/. 1 Ginger is the root of a certain plant, also sold in the form of a powder, which has a spicy hot flavour and is used in cooking. EG I added a chopped onion and a little ginger... ...a ginger cake. N UNCOUNT

2 Ginger is also a bright orange-brown colour. EG ...a man with ginger hair and nervous blue eyes... ...his ginger moustache... ...a young ginger cat. ADJ COLOUR, OR N UNCOUNT ginger ale, ginger ales. Ginger ale is a fizzy, sweet, non-alcoholic drink that is flavoured with ginger. N MASS ginger beer, ginger beers. Ginger beer is a drink that is made from syrup and ginger and is sometimes slightly alcoholic. N MASS gingerbread /dʒɪndʒəbred/ is a sweet cake or biscuit that is flavoured with ginger. The biscuits are often made in the shape of a man or an animal. N UNCOUNT ginger group , ginger groups. A ginger group is a group of people who have similar ideas and work together, especially within a larger organization, to try to persuade others to accept or approve of their ideas. EG ...an independent ginger group in the union. N COUNT = pressure group gingerly /dʒɪndʒəli[1]/. If you do something gingerly, you do it in a careful, hesitant manner, usually because you expect it to be dangerous, unpleasant, or painful. EG They walked gingerly over the rotten floorboards... ...holding it gingerly by its corner... Gingerly she rubbed the wounded spot. ADV WITH VB ⇑ carefully = tentatively, delicately gingery /dʒɪndʒə[ə]ri[1]/ means slightly ginger in colour. EG ...his curly gingery locks... ...a gingery tweed jacket. ADJ COLOUR gingham /gɪŋəm/ is cloth made of cotton which has a pattern of small squares or stripes, usually in white and one other colour. EG She was dressed in her brightest gingham... ...a pink gingham shirt... ...gingham checks. N UNCOUNT ginseng /dʒɪnsɛŋ/ is the root of a plant found in China, Korea, and America which some people believe is good for your health. N UNCOUNT gipsy /dʒɪpsi[1]/. See gypsy. N COUNT

giraffe /dʒə[ə]rɑːf, -ræf/, giraffes. A giraffe is a large African animal with a very long neck, long legs, and dark patches on its yellowish skin. N COUNT gird /gɜːd/, girds, girding, girded; an old-fashioned word. 1 If you gird yourself with something such as a belt, you fasten it around you. EG ...the cords with which they gird themselves. V + O (NG/REFL) + A (with)

2 If you gird yourself for a fight or contest, you prepare yourself for it. EG We girded ourselves for the fray. ● If you say that someone is girding their loins or girding up their loins, you mean that they are preparing to do something difficult or dangerous. EG Both sides in the argument were girding their loins. V OR V + O (REFL) : USU + A ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ prepare = steel yourself

3 If something is girded by something else, it is surrounded by it. EG ...as if girded by an invisible wall. V + O : ONLY PASS = be encircled girder /gɜːdə/, girders. A girder is a long, thick piece of steel or iron that is used in the framework of buildings and bridges. N COUNT ⇑ beam girdle /gɜːdə[ə]l/, girdles, girdling, girdled. 1 A girdle is 1.1 a piece of clothing that fits tightly around the stomach and hips and is worn by women underneath other clothes so that they look slimmer. EG She didn't wear a girdle any more... ...bras and girdles. N COUNT ⇑ garment = corset

1.2 a cord or belt that you wear around your waist, sometimes in order to fasten a piece of clothing. EG ...a robe, tied round the waist by a girdle. N COUNT

2 If you girdle something, you surround it with a circle; a literary word. EG ...the rings which girdle Saturn's surface... ...a mansion girdled by a black path. V + O = encircle girl /gɜːl/, girls. 1 A girl is 1.1 a female child. EG ...a girl of eleven... The boys and girls cheered... ...when you were a little girl... ...a girls' school. N COUNT

1.2 someone's daughter, whether they are a child or a woman. EG She has two girls and a boy... My little girl was called Ida... ...the Talbot girl. N COUNT

1.3 a young woman, usually a teenager. EG ...a girl of nineteen... ...calendars showing naked girls... ...a working girl. N COUNT

1.4 a man's girlfriend; a rather old-fashioned word. EG The soldier and his girl... I had a girl in Cornwall. N COUNT : USU POSS + N IN SING

2 You can refer to a woman of any age as a girl, especially when you are talking about a woman who is younger than you or when you are in a position of authority over her; an informal use. EG ...the girl behind the bar... He married a Spanish girl... ...telephone girls. N COUNT : USU SING

3 You might address a girl or woman as girl or my girl when she is younger than you or when you are in a position of authority over her. EG You've got spoiled in your ways, my girl... Be more careful, girl!... My dear girl, what does it matter? N VOC = lass

4 Women say girls when they are talking to or talking about a group of close women friends or women whom they work with; used showing affection. EG Come on, girls, don't be afraid... ...the other girls at work. N PLURAL : DET + N, OR VOC = ladies

5 If you refer to a young woman as a girl Friday, you mean that she is employed by a business man or woman to be their personal assistant and to do general office work. N COUNT : USU SING girlfriend /gɜːlfrend/, girlfriends. 1 A man's or boy's girlfriend is a girl or woman with whom he is having a romantic or sexual relationship. EG His girlfriend walked out on him. N COUNT : USU POSS + N ⇑ lover

6 See also head girl, old girl.

2 A girlfriend is also a female friend. EG She went to the movies with some girlfriends. N COUNT ⇑ friend girl guide, girl guides. 1 The Girl Guides is an organization for girls which teaches them to become disciplined, practical, and self-sufficient. N PROPER the + N, VB CAN BE SING OR PL

2 A girl guide is a girl who belongs to the Girl Guides. EG The method I was taught came from a girl guide. N COUNT girlhood /gɜːlhʊd/ is the time during which a female human being is a girl, before she becomes an adult. EG The sisters had both been sponsored in their girlhood by Irving and Ellen Terry. N UNCOUNT ⇑ youth girlie /gɜːli[1]/. In informal English, girlie magazines or calendars are ones that show photographs of naked or almost naked women in a way which is intended to please men but which is offensive to many women. EG He was reading a girlie magazine. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ pornographic girlish /gɜːlɪʃ/ means behaving or looking like a girl, especially showing such qualities as playfulness, liveliness, or sweetness. EG ...girlish giggles... She suddenly felt a surge of girlish nervousness. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ youthful girl scout, girl scouts. 1 In America, the Girl Scouts are an organization similar to the Girl Guides. N PROPER : the + N, VB CAN BE SING OR PL = Girl Guides

2 A girl scout is a girl who belongs to the Girl Scouts. N COUNT

giro /dʒaɪrəʊ/, giros; used in British English. 1 Giro is a system in which a bank or post office transfers money from one account to another when they receive instructions to do so. N UNCOUNT ⇑ banking system

2 If someone has a giro account, they have an account at a post office which they can use in similar ways to a current account at a bank. N BEFORE N

3 A giro or a giro cheque is a cheque for a certain amount of money that is given by the government to people who are unemployed or ill. Giros may be cashed at a bank or post office. N COUNT girth /gɜːθ/, girths. 1 The girth of something is the measurement around it; a fairly formal word. N COUNT

2 A girth is a leather strap which is fastened firmly around the middle of a horse to keep the saddle or load in the right place. N COUNT

gist /dʒɪst/. The gist of something is the general meaning or the most important points of a long piece of writing, a speech, or a conversation. EG I missed the lecture; can you give me the gist of it? N SING : the + N, USU + of ⇑ summary = drift give /gɪv/, gives, giving, gave, given. 1 Give is one of the most common verbs in English. It is often used in expressions where it does not have a very distinct meaning of its own, but where most of the meaning is in the noun that follows it. So, for example, 'she gave a smile' means almost the same as 'she smiled.' This structure is often chosen in order to emphasize that an action or event has a definite beginning or end, or in order to be able to add more information about the noun. The following paragraph shows give used in this way. 1.1 with nouns that express physical actions. EG Jill gave an immense sigh... He gave a short laugh... She gave Etta a quick, shrewd glance... Judy gave Bal's hand a squeeze... She gave the door a push. V + O, OR V + O + O

1.2 with nouns V + O, V + O + O, OR that express speech actions. By using 'give' you can avoid saying what the report, account, etc, was actually about. EG They gave her bad news at the hospital... My father gave me all the information I needed... He gave a humorous account of his journey... I don't understand why I couldn't have been given some warning... The Foreign Office said it was unable to give an immediate answer. V + O + A (to)

1.3 with nouns that express opinions, thoughts, decisions, etc. EG That's the best advice I can possibly give... She hadn't bothered to give it particular thought... Politeness prevented her mother from giving the real reason... Could you give me a few examples? V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to)

1.4 with various swear words to express indifference, dislike, etc; an informal use. EG He clearly didn't give a damn about his passengers. V + O : IF + PREP THEN about, USU WITH BROAD NEG

1.5 with nouns that are related to speaking or performing in public. EG He was due to give a lecture at the Polytechnic that evening... He doesn't often give interviews... No one gave any speeches at the dinner last night... I think Roger Rees gives a remarkable performance in 'Hamlet'... The film is a record of several concerts given by the group in New York. V + O, OR V + O + O

2 If you give something to someone, 2.1 you offer it to them as a present. EG I gave Catriona the silver chain I was wearing... What are you giving Rachel for her birthday? V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to)

◊ giving. EG Giving and sharing are spontaneous expressions of love. ◊ N UNCOUNT

2.2 you hand it over to them. EG Joe, give the Colonel another martini... He gave her father some money... The woman gave me a dollar tip. V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) ⇑ present

3 If you give someone a piece of information or a message, you tell it to them or write it down for them. EG Castle gave the porter the message... Give my regards to your daughter, Mrs Donovan... Marsha gave her name... Rudolph gave her Julie's number. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) ⇑ communicate

4 If you give someone something that they want or need, 4.1 you provide them with it. EG We'd love to give you a pay rise, but we are not making enough profit just yet... I was given a large bedroom at the Taj Mahal... She went without giving me time to protest... He gave her a lift back to London... ...a tutor who came to give lessons to my son. V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to)

4.2 you help them by providing money, time, care, etc, for them. EG ...people who are able to give money to the charities of their choice... He promised to give her any help he could... Much of the aid given has been wastefully used... They won't want to give the rest of their lives to caring for their elderly relations. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) ⇑ provide

5 If something gives you a particular physical or emotional feeling, it produces that feeling in you. EG The idea gave me pleasure... I thought I'd give you a surprise... Working on the car has given me an appetite... That noise gives me a headache. V + O, V + O + O ⇑ cause

6 If something gives you a particular idea or impression, it causes you to have that idea or impression. EG What gave you that idea?... It was Harold who gave me the clue... They tried to give the impression of being detached. V + O, OR V + O + O ⇑ suggest

● If something gives you to believe or to understand a particular thing, it causes you to think or believe it. EG The boys lose out through being given to understand that their emotions must never be shown... We are given to believe that there will be an election soon. ● PHR : VB INFLECTS

7 If someone gives their life, they die or are killed; a formal or literary use. EG People had given their lives to save their fellow men. PHR : VB AND N INFLECT ⇑ die

8 If you say that you would give your right arm, give your eye teeth, or give anything to have or to do something, you are emphasizing how very keen you are to have or to do it. EG She said she would give anything to stay in China... A dramatist would give his right arm to have Laurence Olivier act in one of his plays. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + for/to-INF ⇑ want

9 If you give a party, show, etc, you organize it and are usually the host at it. EG They gave a farewell party for her... Every year he gives a lunch in his garden for his family and friends. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (for) = hold

10 If something gives you a particular power, right, rank, etc, you have that power, right, or rank as a result of the official position that you hold or the situation that you are in. EG His leadership gives him the right to command... Death gave Davis a kind of stature... This gave them standing in the community. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) = accord, grant

11 If you give someone a particular right, responsibility, or privilege, you allow them that right, responsibility, or privilege because you are in a position of authority. EG Children in large families are often given responsibility when they are young... His permission was given... This is a generation which expects women to be given equal opportunities with men... The court gave them the custody of the child. V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) = grant

12 If you give something importance, attention, etc, you treat it with the importance or attention that it deserves. EG Priority will have to be given to unemployment... Teachers are more tolerant than they are often given credit for being... The report was rediscovered and given its full importance. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to) = advance

13 If you give something as a cause or reason, you say that it is the cause or reason for a particular situation. EG 13% gave bad housing as their main source of worry. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to/as)

14 If you give an amount, time, or value, you estimate it or offer it based on calculations that have been made. EG I give him a week before he has a nervous breakdown... The polls had given the President a 10 to 15 point lead... Judging by the wind, the major gave the storm three minutes before it reached us. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to)

15 To give a judgement means to formally announce a legal decision. EG He had been given ten years in prison... The train robbers were given sentences ranging up to 30 years... Judgement was given against him, with costs... The umpire was wrong to give the batsman out. V + O, V + O + O, OR V + O + A (to)

16 If someone gives, they yield and admit that they may be wrong. EG Someone's got to give, or the miners will be on strike for ever. V = surrender

17 If something gives, it collapses or breaks, especially when pulled or put under pressure. EG His legs gave beneath him... The catch suddenly gave and a hundred and fifty seven empty bottles tumbled onto the floor. V = give way

18 If a woman gives herself to a man, she allows him to have sex with her. V + O (REFL) : IF + PREP THEN to

19 Give is the ability that something has to bend or stretch when it is pulled or put under pressure. EG Be sure that the neck opening has sufficient give to get the vest over the baby's head. N UNCOUNT ⇑ elasticity

20 The word give is used in the following informal expressions. 20.1 You use give me to say that you would rather have one thing than another, especially when you have just mentioned the thing that you do not want. EG I can't take too much reality. Give me passion, romance... Give me Majorca any day! PHR + O

20.2 If you say to someone 'Don't give me that', you mean that you do not believe them or that you do not accept what they are saying. CONVENTION

20.3 You say 'I'll give you that' to indicate that you admit that someone has a particular characteristic or ability, even if you do not like it very much. EG You're a bloody good liar, I'll give you that! CONVENTION ⇑ I admit

20.4 If someone gives as good as they get, they fight or argue as well as the person they are fighting or arguing with. EG They were young enough to give as good as they got in rugby practice. PHR : VBS INFLECT ⇑ retaliate

21 The words give way are used in the following expressions. 21.1 If something gives way to something else, it is replaced by it, especially because it is old-fashioned or the new thing is more important. EG The old world was giving way to the new... Her look of joy gave way to one of misery... The woods where he picked blackberries were giving way to new brick houses. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + to = surrender

21.2 If something gives way, it collapses. EG In an old house the walls might bend or the floors give way... My eyes widened in horror as two of the bridges gave way. PHR : VB INFLECTS = collapse

21.3 If you give way to someone or something, you eventually agree to allow someone to do something, even though you really disagree or disapprove. EG In the long run it proved easier to give way to his demands, though his mother profoundly disliked doing so. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + to = give in

21.4 If you give way to an emotion, you allow yourself to show how you feel about something, especially by losing control of yourself. EG He was angry with himself for giving way to tears. PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + to = give in

21.5 If you give way when you are driving a car or other vehicle, you slow down or stop in order to allow other traffic to go in front of you. EG Give way to traffic coming from the right. PHR : VB INFLECTS, IF + PREP THEN to

22 The word give is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● to give someone hell: see hell. ● to give notice: see notice. ● to give someone a ring: see ring. ● to give rise to something: see rise. ● to give vent: see vent.

give away. 1 If you give something away, you give it to someone, either because you do not want it or because you want to give them a present. EG She has given away jewellery worth millions of pounds... I could not decide whether to keep the money he left me or give it away. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ≠ keep

2 If you give away information that should be kept secret, you make it known to other people, sometimes by mistake. EG I didn't feel like giving away more information than I had to... The synopsis doesn't give the plot away. ● If you give the game away, you let people know something that should be kept secret. EG What are the clues that give the game away? PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ reveal = divulge ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ reveal

3 When someone gives a woman away, they officially present a bride to her husband at the wedding ceremony. EG She asked her uncle to give her away. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

give back. If you give something back, you return it to its owner or to the person who gave it to you. EG If I didn't need the money, I would give it back again... It's mine. Give it back. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV

give in. 1 If you give in, you admit that you are defeated or that you cannot do something or that you will have to do something you did not want to do. EG We mustn't give in to threats... I resolved not to give in. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN to = surrender, yield

2 If you give a book or paper in, you hand it to someone who has asked for it or who has authority over you, especially a teacher or an official. EG ...students giving in dissertations. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = hand in give off. If something gives off a substance such as heat, light, smoke, etc, it produces it and sends it out into the air. EG ...the tremendous heat given off by the fire. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ produce give onto. If a door or window gives onto a particular place, it has a view of that place, or it goes straight to that place. EG The narrow Cockpit Steps give onto St. James's Park. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = front onto give out. 1 If you give out a number of things, you distribute them to a number of different people. EG Howard gave out drinks to his guests. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = hand out

2 If something gives out, 2.1 it stops working, usually because it is very old or because it has broken down. EG The fuse within a plug will give out occasionally. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = conk out

2.2 it is completely finished or used up. EG Turn all the taps on until the water gives out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

3 If news or information is given out, it is made known to people. EG It was given out that the Princess was expecting a baby. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV OR V + O + ADV + REPORT-CL give over. 1 If something is given over to a particular thing, it is set aside for a particular purpose or use. EG ...land given over to agriculture... The response was so great that a whole page had to be given over to readers' letters. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, USU PASS + to ⇑ assign

2 In informal English, if you give over, you stop doing something, especially something that is annoying other people. EG If you don't give over, I'll smack you... She asked me to give over humming. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + -ING = leave off

3 If you give something over to someone, you hand it over to them for them to look after it or have responsibility for it. EG I'm quite thankful to give the business over to the girls now. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV, IF + PREP THEN to = relinquish give up. 1 If you give up something, you stop doing it or believing in it. EG It's unrealistic to give up smoking to save money now... I don't have any intention of giving up politics... She never completely gave up hope. ● If you give someone up for dead, you believe that they are dead EG His brother had been given up for dead years ago. ● If you give up your life, you die, especially for a particular cause. EG They were ready to give up their lives for their country. ● to give up the ghost: see ghost. ● to give something or someone up as a bad job: see job. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O = renounce ● PHR : VB INFLECTS ● PHR : VB AND N INFLECT = die

2 If you give up, you admit that you cannot solve a problem, puzzle, or joke. EG I don't know. I give up. What is it? PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = give in

3 If you give up your job, you resign from it. EG She'd had to give up her job... She was required to give up her throne in the cause of love. PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV ⇑ leave = relinquish

4 If you give up an object, you allow someone else to have it; a fairly old-fashioned expression. EG 'Give up that book!' she hissed. 'Give it up.' PHRASAL VB : V + O + ADV = hand over

5 If you give a person up, you let the police or other people know where that person is hiding. EG They tortured her, but still she wouldn't give me up. PHRASAL VB : V + O (NG/REFL) + ADV = betray give up on. If you give up on something, you abandon all hope of doing it or of understanding it. EG ...a kind of mystery that one gives up on. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP give up to. If you give yourself or your life up to a particular thing, you devote all your time, thought, and energy to it. EG She gave herself up to an inner vision of happiness... ...a life given up to sexual excess. PHRASAL VB : V + O (NG/REFL) + ADV + PREP, USU PASS give-and-take; also spelled without hyphens. Give-and-take is 1 a willingness by all the people involved in something to listen to other people's opinions and to compromise where necessary. EG ...a believer in the give-and-take of democracy... ...a free-and-easy, give-and-take relationship. 2 a smoothly flowing exchange of ideas in a conversation, with everyone listening and joining in. EG ...the give and take of the vocal exchanges. N UNCOUNT N UNCOUNT give-away, give-aways; also spelled as one word. A give-away is 1 something that allows plans, secrets, or intentions to become known. EG ...'The face of the Seventies' exhibition-the title is the give-away... ...a give-away remark. 2 something that is given free, especially when you buy something else. EG When I bought perfume yesterday, I got a lipstick as a give-away... ...giveaway Sunday colour magazines. N SING WITH DET ⇑ disclosure N COUNT ⇑ gift = freebie given /gɪvə^{n}/. 1 Given is the past participle of give. 2 A given date or time is one that has been fixed or decided on previously. EG At a given moment we all cheered. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = specified

3 If you talk about any given society, any given time, etc, you mean the particular society, time, etc that you are discussing. EG One cannot look at the problems of any given society in isolation from the rest of the world... A majority of the electorate at any given time is concerned with the preservation of the status quo... Often people don't know what's happening at any given moment. PHR : USED AS MOD = any particular

4 In formal English, given the chance, given the opportunity, etc means if you have the chance, the opportunity, etc. EG My husband was a hard worker given the opportunity... She could have done just as well as you have, given the chance... Remember that on radio, given imagination, anything is possible. PREP

5 If you say given a particular thing, or given that something is true, you mean if what is mentioned is taken into account. EG This was the best place to study, given my interest in Kant, Hegel, and Marx... It seems churlish to send him away, given that he wanted to get photographs of Aboriginals at work. PREP, OR CONJ SUBORD = considering

6 If you are given to something, you have a particular habit or tendency. EG He was given to claiming that he was related to the Queen... ...a family given to bouts of melancholia. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to = prone given name, given names. A given name is a person's first name, which they are given at birth in addition to their surname; used especially in American English. N COUNT = Christian name give or take. If you say give or take a few, give or take ten, etc, after you have mentioned a particular quantity or amount, you are indicating that the amount you are mentioning is not completely accurate. EG It's three hundred miles to Edinburgh, give or take ten... The results turned out to be exactly the same, give or take one percent. PHR + NG = plus or minus glacé /glæseɪ/. Glacé fruits are ones that have been preserved in a thick sugary syrup and then dried. EG ...glacé cherries. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ sugared glacial /gleɪsjə^{l}/. 1 Glacial means relating to glaciers or ice. EG ...a glacial landscape. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB

2 If you describe a person as glacial, you mean that they are unfriendly and hostile towards you. EG She is self-sufficient, composed, and also slightly glacial. ▸ used of a person's behaviour. EG ...glacial stares. ADJ QUALIT = icy, cold ▸ = icy glacier /glæsjə/, glaciers. A glacier is a huge mass of ice which moves very slowly, often down a mountain valley. N COUNT glad /glæd/, gladder, gladdest. 1 If you are glad about something, you are happy and pleased about it. EG I'm so glad that your niece was able to use the tickets... Ralph was glad of a chance to change the subject. ◊ gladly. EG He gladly accepted their invitation to dinner. ◊ gladness. EG His heart was filled with joy and gladness. ADJ QUALIT : PRED, USU + PREP/to-INF/ REPORT-CL = delighted ◊ ADV WITH VB ◊ N UNCOUNT = happiness

2 If you say that you are glad to do something, you mean that you are willing and eager to do it. EG There are several people coming up to retirement ADJ QUALIT : PRED + to-INF = happy, keen who would be very glad to work half time... Lexington was only too glad to oblige. ◊ gladly. EG To set you free I would gladly admit to the murder myself. ADV WITH VB = willingly gladden /glædᵊn/, gladdens, gladdening, gladdened. If something gladdens you, it makes you feel very happy and pleased. EG He went to tell her how much he had missed her and how it gladdened him to be home... The sight of it would have gladdened Philip Swallow's heart. V + O ⇑ please = cheer glade /gleɪd/, glades. A glade is a grassy space without trees in a wood or forest. EG ...a forest glade. N COUNT = clearing gladiator /glædiˈeɪtə/, gladiators. A gladiator was a man who, in the time of the Roman Empire, used to have to fight against other men or wild animals in order to entertain an audience. N COUNT ⇑ fighter glad-rags. Your glad-rags are smart clothes which you wear for special occasions such as parties. EG Go and put your glad rags on! N PLURAL glamor /glæmə/. See glamour.

glamorize /glæməraɪz/, glamorizes, glamorizing, glamorized; also spelled glamorise. If you glamorize something, you make it look or seem more attractive than it really is. EG The truth is sometimes glamorised. V + O ⇑ improve = dress up glamorous /glæmərəs/. Someone or something that is glamorous has glamour. EG ...a photograph of a glamorous model... ...glamorous parts of the world. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ attractive glamour /glæmə/; also spelled glamor in American English. Glamour is the charm and excitement that seems to surround an interesting, fashionable, and attractive person, place, or job. EG Acapulco has lost much of its glamour. N UNCOUNT ⇑ attractiveness = glitter glance /glɑːns/, glances, glancing, glanced. 1 If you glance at something, you look at it very quickly and then look away again immediately. EG Jacqueline glanced at her watch... I kept glancing in the rear-view mirror to see if we were being followed... Rudolph glanced around to make sure nobody was watching. V + A

2 If you glance through or at a newspaper, report, or book, you spend a short time looking at it without reading it very carefully. EG During breakfast he reads his letters and glances through the morning paper. V + A (through/at) ⇑ read = flick

3 A glance is a quick look at something. EG He cast a quick glance at his old friend... The women exchanged glances... He signed the letters with only a cursory glance at what I had written. N COUNT : IF + PREP USU at

4 If you see, tell, recognize, etc, something at a glance, you see or notice it immediately, and without having to think or look carefully. EG He could tell at a glance that she was upset... She recognized at a glance the implication of his statement. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ immediately = at once

5 If you say that something was true or seemed to be true at first glance, you mean that it seemed to be true when you first saw it or thought about it, but that your first impression was probably wrong. EG They looked the same at first glance but in fact they were different. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ initially = at first

6 If the sun glances on something shiny or wet, it shines on it and makes it sparkle; a literary word. EG The sun outside the windows glanced on the knives and forks. V : USU + A ⇑ shine = glint glance off. If something glances off another object, it hits it at an angle and bounces away in another direction. EG The ball glanced off his foot into the net. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP, HAS PASS IF PREP ⇑ bounce off glancing /glɑːnsɪŋ/. A glancing blow is one that hits something at an angle rather than from directly in front. EG The glass hit him a glancing blow on the forehead. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB ⇑ slanting gland /glænd/, glands. A gland is an organ in the body which makes chemical substances for the body to use, or that allows substances to be passed out of the body. EG ...the thyroid gland... ...sweat glands. N COUNT : USU MOD + N glandular /glændjᵘlə/. Something that is glandular relates to or affects your glands. EG ...glandular fever. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB glare /gleə/, glares, glaring, glared. 1 If you glare at someone or something, you look at them with a hard or angry expression on your face. EG They stopped arguing and glared at each other... He just stood there, glaring and breathing heavily. V : IF + PREP THEN at = glower

◊ glaring. EG ...glaring defiant eyes. ◊ ADJ QUALIT

2 A glare is an angry, hard and unfriendly look or expression on someone's face. EG He shot a suspicious glare at me... ...a glare of hostility. N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ stare

3 Glare is very bright light that is difficult to look at. EG The windows were heavily tinted to reduce the glare... ...the glare of the sun. N UNCOUNT : USU + SUPP

4 If the sun or a light glares, it shines with a very bright light which is difficult to look at. EG ...the low sun that glared over the hill... A harsh thin light glared through the windows. ◊ glaring. EG ...the glaring sun. V : USU + A ⇑ shine = blaze ◊ ADJ QUALIT ATTRIB

5 If someone is in the glare of publicity, public attention, etc, they are constantly being watched and talked about by a lot of people. EG At home he can relax once he's away from the glare of publicity. N SING : the + N = spotlight glaring /gleərɪŋ/. 1 If you refer to something as glaring, you mean that it is very obvious and easily seen or noticed; used showing disapproval. EG ...glaring inequalities of wealth... ...the glaring weakness of all those arguments. ◊ glaringly. EG It had become glaringly obvious that he had no idea what he was doing. ADJ QUALIT : USU ATTRIB ⇑ clear = conspicuous ◊ ADV : USU + ADJ = patently glass /glɑːs/, glasses. 1 Glass is a hard transparent substance that is easily broken. It is used to make windows, bottles, bowls, etc. EG He sweeps away the broken glass under the window... They crept up to the glass doors and peeped inside. N UNCOUNT

2 Other meanings of glaring can be found at the entry for glare.

2 A glass is a container made from glass, which you can drink from and which does not have a handle. EG I put down my glass and stood up. ▸ Glass is also used to refer to the drink inside it or the amount of drink it contains. EG We'll just have one glass and go away... He poured Ellen a glass of wine, then filled his own. N COUNT ▸ N COUNT : ALSO N + of + N UNCOUNT ⇑ amount

3 Glass is also used to mean objects made of glass, for example drinking containers and bowls. EG ...a house crammed with beautiful furniture, glass and china. N UNCOUNT = glassware

4 Glasses are 4.1 two transparent lenses in a metal or plastic frame, that someone with bad eyesight wears in front of their eyes in order to help them see better. EG He wore thick glasses... ...a rather serious girl with glasses and long hair. 4.2 binoculars. EG When he lowered the glasses, he could barely see the boat. N PLURAL : ALSO a pair of + N = spectacles N PLURAL

5 A glass is also 5.1 a mirror; a rather old-fashioned use. EG The man down the bar caught his eye in the glass and smiled. 5.2 a barometer. EG The glass is rising. N COUNT N SING WITH DET glass fibre is a cloth made from short thin threads of glass. It is used to keep heat in or to strengthen plastic. N UNCOUNT = fibreglass glasshouse /glɑːshaʊs/, glasshouses. A glasshouse is a large greenhouse. EG ...a tropical plant in a glasshouse. N COUNT ⇑ building glassware /glɑːsweə/ is objects made of glass, for example bowls, drinking containers, and ornaments. N UNCOUNT = glass glassy /glɑːsiˈ/. 1 Something that is glassy is very smooth and shiny, like glass. EG ...smooth, glassy water. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ shining

6 See also dark glasses, magnifying glass.

2 If you describe someone's eyes or the look in their eyes as glassy, you mean that they show no feeling, emotion, or understanding in their expression. EG ...a glassy stare... He gazed at the street with dull, glassy eyes. ADJ QUALIT = blank glaucoma /glɔːkəʊmə/ is an eye disease which sometimes causes a person to go gradually blind. N UNCOUNT glaze /gleɪz/, glazes, glazing, glazed. 1 If you glaze a piece of pottery, you cover it with a thin layer of a special liquid and then put it in a very hot oven so that its surface becomes shiny and non-porous. ◊ glazed. EG ...glazed clay pots. V + O ⇑ coat ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

2 When you glaze food such as bread or pastry, you spread a layer of beaten egg, milk, or other liquid onto it before you cook it in order to make its surface shine and look attractive. EG She glazed the pie with egg and a sprinkling of sugar. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with ⇑ coat = brush

3 A glaze is 3.1 a thin layer of liquid that is put on a piece of pottery and that is dried in a very hot oven so that it becomes hard and shiny. EG There are hundreds of different glazes. 3.2 a thin layer of beaten egg, milk, or other liquid that you spread onto food in order to make the surface shine and look attractive. EG Use milk or egg as a glaze for pastry. N COUNT ⇑ coating N COUNT ⇑ coating

4 If you glaze a window, you fit a sheet of glass into a window frame. V + O

glaze over. If someone's eyes glaze over, they PHRASAL VB : V + become dull in appearance, usually because the person is no longer interested in what they are looking at or being told. EG I can see people's eyes start to glaze over at the mention of Chomsky. ADV = go blank glazed /gleɪzd/. If you describe someone's eyes or the look in their eyes as glazed, you mean that their expression is dull or dreamy, especially when they are tired or have difficulty concentrating on something. EG His eyes took on a slightly glazed, distant look. ADJ QUALIT = glassy ≠ alert

GLC is an abbreviation for Greater London Council; an organization which, until 1986, was responsible for local government in the London area. N PROPER : the + N ⇑ council gleam /gliːm/, gleams, gleaming, gleamed. 1 If an object or a surface gleams, it reflects light because it is shiny and clean. EG He polished the gold until it gleamed... The polished red cello gleamed in the dim light. ◊ gleaming. EG ...the gleaming brass on the altar. V ⇑ shine = glisten ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = glistening

2 If a light or the sun or moon gleams, it shines faintly; a fairly literary use. EG The many lighthouses of the islands gleam and wink above the surf. V = glimmer

2 A gleam is 2.1 a pale, clear light. EG There were no lights on outside but there was a gleam from a window downstairs. 2.2 the way that something reflects light or shines in light. EG ...a gleam of water... ...a gleam of white silk. 2.3 a quick expression that you see briefly on someone's face. EG A gleam of triumph crossed the older woman's face... ...a gleam of pride... ...a malicious gleam in his eye. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of N COUNT : USU SING N COUNT : USU SING, IF + PREP THEN of = flicker

3 If your face or eyes gleam, they show a particular expression. EG Her face gleamed with one of her rare, soft smiles... His eyes gleamed with pleasure. V : IF + PREP THEN with = shine glean /gliːn/, gleans, gleaning, gleaned. 1 If you glean information about something, you find it out slowly and with difficulty. EG Much of the information he gleaned was of no practical use. V + O : IF + PREP THEN from ⇑ discover = cull

2 If you glean grain or glean a field, you collect the small amounts of grain that are left behind on a field after the crop has been harvested. EG ...bowls of mixed wheat and oats which she had helped to glean nearly a year ago. V OR V + O

glee /gliː/ is a feeling of joy and excitement, often caused by someone else's foolishness or failure; sometimes used showing disapproval. EG ...the glee with which the media report scientific calamities... He smiles with a hint of glee. N UNCOUNT ⇑ pleasure = delight gleeful /gliːfʊl/. Someone who is gleeful is full of joy and excitement, often because of someone else's foolishness or failure. EG 'Perhaps we're lost,' cried Liz, gleeful at the thought. ◊ gleefully . EG He gleefully rubbed his hands. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ pleased = exultant ◊ ADV WITH VB = exultantly glen /glen/, glens. A glen is a deep, narrow valley, especially in the mountains of Scotland or Ireland. N COUNT : ALSO IN NAMES glib /glɪb/, glibber, glibbest. Someone who is glib talks too quickly and confidently, often making difficult situations sound easy, so that you feel that you cannot trust them; used showing disapproval. EG MPs are a bit glib, assuming that they can cure all... He was bitter and glib. ▸ used of people's ideas or what they say. EG MacIver was always ready with glib promises. ◊ glibly. EG 'Oh well, that's life,' she said glibly. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ quick ▸ = slick ◊ ADV WITH VB = easily glide /glaɪd/, glides, gliding, glided. 1 If you glide, you move silently and in a smooth and effortless way. EG The snake glides smoothly towards its prey... The canoes glided by... Tim glided to the door and down the stairs. ▸ used as a noun. EG ...a fast glide. V : USU + A = slip, slide ▸ N COUNT ⇑ movement

2 When birds or aeroplanes glide, they float on air currents. EG ...an owl gliding silently over the fields. V : USU + A ⇑ fly glider /glaɪdə/, gliders. A glider is an aircraft that does not have an engine but flies by floating on air currents. N COUNT gliding /glaɪdɪŋ/ is the sport or activity of flying in a glider. N UNCOUNT glimmer /glɪmə/, glimmers, glimmering, glimmered. 1 A glimmer is a faint, gentle, often unsteady light. EG The faint, far-off glimmer of the dawn... ...glimmers of light. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of = flicker

2 If you see a glimmer of interest or emotion in someone or something, you see a faint sign of it in them. EG He showed no glimmer of interest in them... ...without a glimmer of a smile. N COUNT + SUPP : USU + of = trace

3 To glimmer means to produce or reflect a faint, gentle, often unsteady light. EG The pearl glimmered faintly as she moved... Dawn glimmered through the blinds. ◊ glimmering. EG ...the glimmering night sky. V ⇑ shine ◊ ADJ CLASSIF glimmering /glɪməˈrɪŋ/, glimmerings. A glimmering of an idea or emotion is a faint sign of it. EG ...a glimmering of forethought... ...the first glimmerings of hope. N COUNT + SUPP = glimmer glimpse /glɪmpˈs/, glimpses, glimpsing, glimpsed. 1 A glimpse of something or someone is 1.1 a very brief sight of them, in which you do not see them very well. EG ...the first glimpse I caught of Fanny... ...the fleeting glimpse of a figure hurrying by... ...a glimpse of the morning paper. 1.2 a brief experience of them or an idea about them that helps you understand or appreciate them better. EG ...glimpses of his kindness... ...glimpses of the future... ...a glimpse into his youth. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of ⇑ look N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of = flash

2 If you glimpse something, you see it very briefly and not very well. EG ...a village they had glimpsed through the trees... She glimpsed him out of the corner of her eyes. V + O = catch sight of

3 If you glimpse an idea or thought, you briefly experience it or learn something about it so that you understand or appreciate it better. EG She glimpses something of what life ought to be about... I glimpsed a bleak future. V + O = perceive glint /glɪnt/, glints, glinting, glinted. 1 If something glints, it produces or reflects a quick flash of light. EG His spectacles glinted in the sunlight... The sun glinted on the walls... His pen glinted as it fell. ◊ glinting. EG ...the glinting water. V ⇑ shine = glisten ◊ ADJ CLASSIF = twinkle

2 If someone's eyes glint, they shine and express a particular emotion. EG Her small green eyes glinted with mockery... His eyes were glinting at her, and a slow smile crossed his face.

3 A glint is a quick flash of light. EG ...a few glints of weak, yellow light... ...the glint of water. N COUNT = gleam

4 A glint in someone's eyes is a brightness that expresses a particular emotion. EG There was no glint of humour in the man's eyes... ...a glint of aggression. N COUNT ⇑ look = gleam glisten /glɪsəˈn/, glistens, glistening, glistened. 1 If something glistens , it shines or sparkles, usually because it is smooth, wet, or oily. EG His face glistened with sweat... ...golden sovereigns glistening in the sunlight. ◊ glistening. EG ...glistening lips. V = gleam ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = glossy

2 If someone's eyes glisten, they are bright and express a particular emotion. EG His eyes glisten with contempt. V = glitter glitter /glɪtə/, glitters, glittering, glittered. 1 If something glitters, it shines in a sparkling way, for example when light is reflected off many small pieces of metal. EG Her jewellery glittered under the spotlight... Stars glittered in a clear sky. ◊ glittering. EG ...glittering Christmas trees. ● If you say all that glitters is not gold, you are warning someone that something which seems attractive or exciting at first may not be as good as they think. V = sparkle, twinkle ◊ ADJ CLASSIF ● PHR

2 If someone's eyes glitter, they are bright and express a particular emotion. EG Her eyes glittered as she described these wonders. ◊ glittering. EG ...his glittering eyes wide with alarm. V = glint ◊ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB = glassy

3 If someone or something glitters, they impress you by their appearance, success, or behaviour; a literary use. EG Mrs Todd glittered at the elegant table. ◊ glittering. EG ...a glittering career... The glittering prize was a holiday in Hawaii. V = shine ◊ ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB

4 Glitter is 4.1 a sparkling light, usually one that is reflected. EG ...the glitter of the sea... ...the glitter of coins. 4.2 superficial attractiveness, but actually being of poor quality or of little real use or value. EG ...cheapness and glitter... ...the glitter of consumer gadgetry. 4.3 the excitement and glamour that a situation or lifestyle has. EG ...the glitter of the election... ...his life of bluster, glitter and power. 4.4 the brightness in someone's eyes that shows a particular emotion. EG ...the dangerous glitter in her eyes. N UNCOUNT = glint N UNCOUNT = tinsel N UNCOUNT N SING : USU the + N = glint glittery /glɪtəˈriˈ/. Something that is glittery shines with a sparkling light. EG ...glittery jewellery. ADJ QUALIT gloaming /gləʊmɪŋ/. The gloaming is the dull light in the evening when it is beginning to get dark; a Scots or literary word. EG Dusk is falling and you are roaming in the gloaming. N SING : the + N = twilight gloat /gləʊt/, gloats, gloating, gloated. If you gloat, you show great pleasure at your own success or at other people's failure in an arrogant or uncar- V : IF + PREP THEN over ⇑ delight

ing way; used showing disapproval. EG They were gloating over my bankruptcy... He hadn't come there to gloat. ◊ gloating EG ...gloating self-satisfaction. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF

glob /glɒb/, globs. A glob is, in very informal English, a small amount of something soft or liquid that has a rounded shape. EG ...a glob of milk... ...globs of foam. N PART : USU + N UNCOUNT = blob global /gləʊbə^{9}l/ means 1 concerning or including the whole world. EG ...the global energy output... ...protests on a global scale. ◊ globally. EG ...half the wheat sold globally. 2 involving or relating to all the parts or aspects of a situation. EG These marks give a global picture of their progress... ...a global judgment. ◊ globally. EG ...globally accepted ideas of beauty. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB ◊ ADV WITH V B ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = overall ◊ ADV

globe /gləʊb/, globes. 1 The globe is used to refer to the Earth, especially when you are emphasizing how big it is or that something is true in many different parts of it. EG ...television pictures seen all over the globe... ...countries on the far side of the globe. N SING : the + N = world

2 A globe is 2.1 a spherical model of the Earth that is usually fixed on a stand and has a map of the world drawn on it. EG ...maps, charts, and globes. 2.2 any object that is round in shape like a ball. EG ...a series of globes, one inside another... ...the orange globe of the sun. N COUNT N COUNT : USU + SUPP ⇑ sphere globetrotter /gləʊbtrɒtə/, globetrotters. If you refer to someone as a globetrotter, you mean that they spend a lot of time visiting places all over the world. N COUNT globular /glɒbjə^{9}lə/. Something that is globular is round in shape like a ball; a formal word. EG ...a globular helmet... ...the globular front part of the tadpole. ADJ CLASSIF : USU ATTRIB = spherical globule /glɒbjuːl/, globules. A globule is a tiny round particle of a substance, usually a liquid; a formal word. EG ...a globule of blood... ...tiny globules of gold. N PART + N UNCOUNT = droplet gloom /gluːm/. 1 Gloom is a state of partial darkness in which there is still a little light. EG He peered through the gloom at the dim figure... ...the gloom of their cell. N SING : the + N = obscurity

2 Gloom is also a feeling of unhappiness or despair. EG He viewed the future with gloom... Valentina was plunged into deep gloom. ▸ used of a place or its atmosphere that causes this feeling. EG ...the pervading gloom of the place. N UNCOUNT ⇑ sadness ▸ = desolation gloomy /gluːmi^{1}/, gloomier, gloomiest. 1 If a place is gloomy, it is almost dark so that you cannot see very well. EG ...the gloomy mud-walled prison... ...the hallways were mysterious and gloomy. ADJ QUALIT = shadowy ≠ light

2 If the weather is gloomy, the sky is covered by clouds and the light is very dull. EG We drove under a gloomy sky, up a winding road... The day was gloomy. ADJ QUALIT = overcast

3 If people are gloomy, they are unhappy and have no hope. EG He looked gloomy again... The fishing industry is gloomy about the E.E.C. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG There was a gloomy silence. ◊ gloomily. EG 'Trouble,' Rudolph said gloomily. ADJ QUALIT = despondent ▸ = dismal ◊ ADV WITH V B

4 If a situation is gloomy, it does not give you much hope of success or happiness. EG He could only see the gloomy possibilities of modern science. ADJ QUALIT = dispiriting ≠ promising glorified /glɔːrɪfaɪd/ means very ordinary in reality, but having a name or title that suggests something of higher quality or greater importance; used showing disapproval. EG The 'yacht' was a glorified sailing boat. ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB = jumped-up glorify /glɔːrɪfaɪ/, glorifies, glorifying, glorified. 1 If you glorify someone or something, you praise them or make them seem important. EG His newspapers glorified his charitable donations... A group that glorified the values of law, order, and tradition. ◊ glorification /glɔːrɪfɪkeɪʃə^{9}n/. EG ...denouncing the glorification of war. V + O, OR V + O + A (as) = extol, eulogize ◊ N SING WITH DET + of

2 If you glorify God, you express his greatness by speech or action, for example by singing hymns of praise. V + O ⇑ worship glorious /glɔːrɪəs/. 1 Something that is glorious 1.1 is very beautiful and impressive in appearance and often very colourful or large. EG ...the most glorious flowers ever seen... ...villages in the glorious valleys... What a glorious colour! ◊ gloriously. EG ...gloriously embroidered pictures. 1.2 makes you feel very happy. EG ...a glorious carefree feeling of joy... We have glorious memories of that holiday. ◊ gloriously. EG ...arriving gloriously dirty and tired. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ splendid = magnificent ◊ ADV ADJ QUALIT ⇑ wonderful = heavenly

1.3 involves great fame or success. EG ...a great and glorious Empire... ...the glorious future opening before them. ◊ gloriously. EG The soldiers had failed where he had gloriously succeeded. ADJ QUALIT = illustrious ◊ ADV

2 If you describe the weather as glorious, you mean it is hot and sunny. EG We had glorious sunshine... The weather was glorious. ◊ gloriously. EG The first few days were gloriously hot. ADJ QUALIT = gorgeous ◊ ADV = marvellously glory /glɔːri^{1}/, glories, glorying, gloried. 1 Glory is 1.1 the fame and admiration that you gain by doing something. EG The warriors valued glory and honour above life itself... I did it for the theatre, not for my own personal glory. 1.2 the greatness of God. N UNCOUNT ⇑ approval = prestige N UNCOUNT

2 If you talk about the glory of something, you are referring to 2.1 its great beauty or impressiveness.. EG The glory had gone from the afternoon... ...the glory of the play. 2.2 the most beautiful or impressive part or feature of it. EG The great glory of the castle is the ballroom ceiling. N UNCOUNT : SUPP N UNCOUNT : SUPP = marvel

3 The glories of a person, country, etc are 3.1 the occasions on which they have done something famous or admirable. EG ...a shrine to the glories of the French Army... He became sentimental and talked about past glories. 3.2 the things that people find most attractive about them. EG ...the glories of Venice... ...the glories of French language and literature. N PLURAL : SUPP = triumphs N PLURAL : WITH POSS = splendours

4 If you say that someone is bathing in reflected glory, you mean that they are gaining fame or admiration not because of any personal achievement, but because of the success of someone or something that they are connected with. EG Barnes bathed in the reflected glory of Rolls Royce's triumph. PHR : VB INFLECTS

5 If you say that something is done to the greater glory of someone or something, you mean that it is done in order to praise them or to increase their fame. EG ...to the greater glory of the Fatherland... The Cathedral would be rebuilt, to the greater glory of God. PHR : USED AS AN A ⇑ honouring glory in. If you glory in something, you very much enjoy doing it or being in a particular situation. EG The women were glorying in this new-found freedom. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = revel in gloss /glɒs/, glosses, glossing, glossed. 1 A gloss is 1.1 a bright shine on the surface of something such as furniture. EG The wood has a high gloss... ...the harsh gloss of the royal-blue hat. 1.2 an appearance of attractiveness or good quality which sometimes hides less attractive features or poor quality. EG ...the gloss and glitter of consumer gadgetry... Crowe had added gloss, pace, and colour to Bill's play. 1.3 the ability to behave in an acceptable and polite way in society. EG ...that middle-class gloss... The social gloss that Sloane lacked. N SING WITH DET = sheen N UNCOUNT = polish N SING WITH DET + SUPP = polish

2 If you gloss a difficult word or someone's ideas, you provide an explanation of them. EG ...lower middle-class backgrounds (Howard will gloss this for you). ▸ used as a noun. EG Carmody's gloss of nineteenth-century thought. V + O = elucidate ▸ N COUNT = elucidation

3 Gloss is gloss paint. N UNCOUNT

gloss over. If you gloss over a problem, a mistake, or an embarrassing moment, you try and make it seem unimportant by ignoring it or by dealing with it very quickly. EG 'I was leaving anyway,' I said, to gloss over the tense moment... Truffaut glosses over such contradictions. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O ⇑ hide = smooth over glossary /glɒsə^{9}ri^{1}/, glossaries. A glossary is an alphabetical list of words or expressions and the special or technical meanings that they have in a particular book, subject, or activity. EG Glossaries were provided in French and Spanish... ...a Dictionary and Glossary of the Koran. N COUNT gloss paint is paint that forms a shiny surface when it dries. N UNCOUNT

glossy /glɒsi^{1}/. 1 Something that is glossy is 1.1 smooth and shiny. EG She had glossy brown hair... ...glossy black railings. 1.2 attractive in appearance but of poor quality or little real use or value; used showing disapproval. EG ...glossy but unsatisfying substitutes for what he really wanted. ◊ glossily. EG ...a glossily packaged product. ADJ QUALIT = lustrous ADJ QUALIT = slick, glittering ◊ ADV

2 Glossy is used to describe books, magazines, and photographs that are produced on expensive, shiny paper, usually in colour. EG ...a glossy booklet... ...a glossy snapshot... ...the glossy pages of Cosmopolitan. ADJ QUALIT : ATTRIB glossy magazine, glossy magazines. A glossy magazine is a magazine printed on expensive, shiny paper with colour photographs, usually of fashionable clothes, famous people, expensive houses, etc. EG ...the fashion models you see in glossy magazines... The glossy magazines carried detailed pictures of the Royal Wedding. N COUNT glove /glʌv/, gloves. 1 A glove is a piece of clothing which covers your hand and wrist and has individual sections for each finger. You usually wear gloves to keep your hands warm or dry or to protect them. EG He pulled his gloves on... Wear rubber gloves or you may scald yourself. ● If something fits like a glove , it fits exactly. EG I tried it. The enormous thing fitted like a glove. N COUNT : USU PL ● PHR : VB INFLECTS glove compartment, glove compartments; also spelled with a hyphen. A glove compartment is a small cupboard or shelf inside a car below the front windscreen. EG ...a screwdriver in the glove compartment. N COUNT gloved /glʌvd/ is used to describe a person's hand when they are wearing a glove. EG He gripped it with his gloved hands... She bent her gloved fingers over it. ADJ CLASSIF ⇑ clothed glow /gləʊ/, glows, glowing, glowed. 1 A glow is 1.1 a dull, steady light, for example the light produced by a fire when there are no flames. EG ...the glow increased and the branch took fire... ...the blue glow of a police station light... ...the delicate pink glow along the horizon. 1.2 a red colour on a person's face when they are excited about something, or after physical exercise. EG The conversation brought a glow to her cheeks and a smile to her lips. 1.3 a strong feeling of pleasure or satisfaction, often causing a person to have a bright, cheerful expression. EG His glow of pleasure gave him away... He got a certain glow out of being helpful. N COUNT : USU SING = gleam / N SING WITH DET : USU a + N / N SING WITH DET : USU + SUPP = thrill

2 See also boxing glove. ● hand in glove: see hand.

2 If something glows 2.1 it produces a dull, steady light. EG A cluster of stars glowed above us... The bedside lights were glowing beside her. 2.2 it produces heat and a dull reddish light by burning slowly. EG Only embers glowed in the fire... ...three cigarettes glowing in the dark. ◊ glowing. EG ...glowing coals. V ⇑ shine / V, OR V + C (ADJ) = smoulder

2.3 it looks bright by reflecting light, for example from the sun or a lamp. EG ...children's faces glowing in the light of the camp fire... Its windows glowed yellow and red. ◊ glowing. EG ...the glowing kitchen. V, OR V + C (ADJ) ⇑ shine

2.4 it is bright, attractive, and colourful or full of colourful things. EG ...the Church glowed with colourful African patterns and fabrics. ◊ glowing. EG ...the glowing colour of its pink fruits. V, OR V + C = be vibrant / ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

3 If someone glows, 3.1 their face looks red or hot because they are excited or have been doing physical exercise. EG After her exertions, her face glowed with a healthy red sheen. 3.2 they have a bright, cheerful expression because of a pleasant emotion which they feel. EG Her eyes glowed with a passionate fervour... Aunt Agnes glowed with joy. V : IF + PREP THEN with = shine / V : IF + PREP THEN with

4 See also glowing.

glower /glaʊə/, glowers, glowering, glowered If you glower, you look angrily at someone or something. EG He glowered resentfully at Ash... She paused, glowering out across the playground. V : USU + A = glare glowing /gləʊɪŋ/. A glowing description or opinion is one that praises someone or something highly or supports them strongly. EG ...the book, of which I had read such glowing reports... ...an account of them in glowing terms... ...glowing tributes. ● See also glow. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ favourable = rhapsodic glow-worm, glow-worms; also spelled as one word. A glow-worm is a type of beetle. The females and young glow-worms have special organs on their bodies which produce a greenish light. N COUNT ⇑ insect glucose /gluːkəʊz, -əʊs/is a type of sugar that exists in plants and which animals and people make in their bodies from the food they eat. Glucose provides your body with energy and can also be bought in the form of a powder or tablets. N UNCOUNT glue /gluː/, glues, glueing, gluing, glued. The forms glueing and gluing are both used as the present participle of the verb. 1 Glue is a sticky substance used for joining things together, often for repairing broken things. EG The hat seems to be stuck on with glue... ...mending things with glue. N MASS = adhesive

2 If you glue one object to another, you stick them together using glue. EG ...gluing messages on to cards... A new piece was glued into place and repainted... Glue the bits together. ● If you say that something is glued to something else by a substance that is not glue, you mean that it is firmly fixed. EG ...a chop glued to the plate by a thick sauce... ...his hair glued to his head with hair cream. V + O + A / ● ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to ⇑ fixed to

3 If you say that someone is glued to something, you mean that they are giving it all their attention. EG They were glued to their TV sets watching the latest news. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to ⇑ attentive

4 If you say that someone's eyes are glued to something, you mean that they are watching it with all their attention. EG Their eyes were glued to the scene below... ...keeping his eyes glued on the ball. ADJ CLASSIF : PRED + to/on glue sniffing is the dangerous practice of inhaling the vapour from glue in order to become intoxicated. N UNCOUNT

gluey /gluːi[1]/. Something that is gluey is very sticky. EG ...gluey sweets. ADJ QUALIT

glum /glʌm/, glummer, glummest. 1 Someone who is glum is sad and quiet, usually because they are disappointed or have lost hope in a particular situation. EG Don't look so glum... She felt alone and glum... His glum face brightened. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG ...a glum conversation... ...a glum smile. ◊ glumly . EG 'It's no use,' Eddie said glumly... He stared glumly at the window. ADJ QUALIT = forlorn / ▸ = doleful / ◊ ADV WITH VB = gloomily

2 A place that is glum looks dull and unattractive and has a sad atmosphere. EG ...endless glum streets... ...a glum frontier village. ADJ QUALIT = desolate glut /glʌt/, gluts, glutting, glutted. 1 A glut is 1.1 a situation in which there is too much of something, especially goods or raw materials, so that not all of it can be sold or used. EG The oil glut has forced price cuts... ...the glut in the French wine market. 1.2 a large quantity of something that is more than you need or want. EG ...the enormous glut of detail. N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN in/of ⇑ excess = surplus / N COUNT : IF + PREP THEN of = torrent

2 If something is glutted with goods, raw materials, etc, it is provided with too great a quantity of them. EG The market may be glutted. V + O : IF + PREP THEN with = swamp, flood

3 If you glut yourself, you eat or drink more of something than you really need or want. EG ...watching them glut themselves on cakes... Glutted with bread, he returned. V + O (REFL) : IF + PREP THEN on/with ⇑ fill = gorge glutinous /gluːtɪnəs/. Something that is glutinous is very sticky. EG ...glutinous cakes... The leaves are fairly glutinous... ...banks of glutinous mud. ADJ QUALIT glutton /glʌtə[ə]n/, gluttons. 1 A glutton is someone who eats too much in a greedy way. EG He is a glutton and a drinker... ...as quickly as a glutton swallows food. N COUNT ⇑ person

2 If you say that someone is a glutton for something, you mean that they enjoy or need it very much. EG The British must be gluttons for satire. ● If you say that someone is a glutton for punishment , you mean that they seem to enjoy working very hard or doing something that you think is unpleasant. N COUNT + for / ● PHR : glutton INFLECTS, USED AS C = masochist gluttonous /glʌtə[ə]nəs/. A gluttonous person is one who eats too much in a greedy way. EG ...over-fed women and their gluttonous husbands. ▸ used of people's behaviour. EG ...a gluttonous binge on meat. ADJ QUALIT ▸ = piggish gluttony /glʌtə[ə]ni[1]/ is the act or habit of eating too much. N UNCOUNT glycerine /glɪsə[ə]riːn/; also spelled glycerin in American English. Glycerine is a thick, sweet, colourless liquid that is used especially in making medicine, explosives, and antifreeze for cars. N UNCOUNT gm, gms. gm is is an abbreviation for 'gram'. EG ...250 gms of sugar. N PART : USU NUM + N

GMT is abbreviation for 'Greenwich Mean Time': the standard time in Great Britain which is used to calculate the time in the rest of the world. EG ...at 10.20 hours GMT... ...departs Bermuda 12.42 GMT 17th Jan. N UNCOUNT : NUMBER + N gnarled /nɑːld/. 1 A tree or part of a tree that is gnarled is twisted and rough as a result of old age. EG ...the gnarled trunks of Scots pine... ...gnarled branches. ADJ QUALIT

2 A person or a part of their body that is gnarled has rough skin that looks swollen and knotty, usually because of old age or from doing hard physical work. EG ...huge, gnarled peasant's hands... She was 75 years old, wrinkled and gnarled. ADJ QUALIT ⇑ twisted gnash /næʃ/, gnashes, gnashing, gnashed. If you gnash your teeth, you rub them together forcefully, usually because you are angry, frustrated, or in pain. EG I lay gnashing my teeth in despair. ◊ gnashing. EG ...amid much wailing and gnashing of teeth. V + O, OR V = grind / ◊ N UNCOUNT : USU + of gnat /næt/, gnats. A gnat is a very small flying insect that bites people and usually lives near water. N COUNT = midge gnaw /nɔ:/, gnaws, gnawing, gnawed. 1 If people or animals gnaw something or gnaw at it, they bite it repeatedly. EG ...watching her puppy gnaw a bone... The rats had begun to gnaw at his body... Be careful that the baby doesn't gnaw the paint off furniture. V + O, OR V : USU + A = chew

2 If animals gnaw through something or gnaw a hole in something, they keep biting it until it breaks or until a hole is made in it. EG They often gnaw tunnels in wood... The ant tried to gnaw through the thread. V + A, OR V + O ⇑ bite = chew

3 If a feeling gnaws at you or gnaws away at you, it causes you to worry or suffer and is hard to get rid of; a literary word. EG These desires gnaw away at us constantly... ...a sorrow and longing gnawing at him. V + A (at/away) = nag

◊ gnawing. EG ...gnawing guilt... ...gnawing doubts about the future. ◊ ADJ CLASSIF : ATTRIB

gnome /nəʊm/, gnomes. A gnome is I an imaginary creature in children's stories that is like a very small old man with a beard and pointed hat. Gnomes usually lives underground in these stories. 2 a small statue in the shape of a gnome that some people put in their gardens for decoration. EG ...a garden gnome. N COUNT gnomic /nəʊmɪk/. Something that is gnomic seems to be very wise but is also slightly puzzling; a literary word. EG ...his calm and gnomic face... ...gnomic questions. ADJ CLASSIF = enigmatic

GNP is an abbreviation for 'Gross National Product'; the total value of all the goods produced and services provided by a country in one year; a technical term in economics. EG ...22 per cent of GNP... ...a GNP per head of $11,000. N UNCOUNT/ COUNT

gnu /nu:/, gnus. A gnu is a large African antelope. N COUNT

go /gəʊ/, goes, going, went, gone. See also separate entries at going and gone. In most cases the past participle of go is 'gone', but occasionally you use 'been': see been. 1 In this paragraph, go usually expresses physical movement away from you or from the place where you are now. If you go, 1.1 you move from one place to another, often in order to do something. EG I went to Stockholm... She went into the sitting-room... He went to get some fresh milk. 1.2 you leave somewhere. EG 'I must go,' she said... Our train went at 2.25. ◊ going. EG I felt sad at his going. 1.3 you move in a particular direction, or move a particular distance. EG A car went by... He went down another street... We've gone about thirty miles. 1.4 you leave a place, especially your house, and take part in an activity. EG Let's go fishing... She's going for a swim. ● In informal English, if you say that someone goes doing something, or if you advise them not to go doing something, you are expressing disapproval of the kind of behaviour that you mention. EG Don't go hiding in the attic... ...the women he goes chasing after. V : USU + A / V / ◊ N UNCOUNT / V + A ⇑ travel / V + ING for / ● V + ING

2 If you go and do a particular thing, you move from one place to another in order to do the thing, and you do it. EG I'll go and see him in the morning. ● In informal English, if you say that someone has gone and done something, you are expressing annoyance at something foolish that they have done. EG That idiot Antonio has gone and locked our door. V + and + VB : NO CONT / ● PHR : VB INFLECTS + PAST PART

3 If you go to school, church, work, etc, you attend it regularly as part of your normal life. EG She went to London University... ...whether people go to church or not... Having the crèche enables me to go to work. V + A (to)

4 In this paragraph, go is usually followed by an adjective that describes the state or condition of a person or thing, or changes in that state or condition. 4.1 If someone goes naked, unarmed, etc, they choose to be in that particular state. EG What would she think if people went naked? 4.2 If something goes unheard, unseen, etc, it remains in that particular state because people do not notice it or try to change it. EG Halliday's absence had gone unnoticed... Her decision went unchallenged. 4.3 If someone or something goes crazy, bankrupt, grey, etc, they change to that particular state, condition, or colour. EG The village thought we had gone crazy... They let firms go bankrupt... Her hair was going grey. V + C / V + C ⇑ continue = remain / V + C = become

5 In this paragraph, go is usually followed by an adverb which indicates the manner in which something happens or operates, how it changes, or the degree of success it has. 5.1 If a price, number, or measurement goes up or down, it changes by becoming higher or lower. EG The price of food will go up... The average age of farmers has gone down. 5.2 If you say that a period of time goes quickly, slowly, etc, you mean that it seems to pass in that manner. EG The days went quickly. ● If workers go slow, they deliberately work slowly as a form of protest in order to cause problems for their employers; used in British English. ● See also go-slow. 5.3 If you say that an event or situation went well or badly, or if you ask how it is going, you are talking about the degree of success, ease, or difficulty with which it takes place, especially when it was planned beforehand. EG Everything went pretty smoothly... How did school go? ● You say 'the way things are going' before you give your opinion of how a situation will end; an informal expression. EG The way things are going, we'll be very late. ● You can say 'How's it going?' in informal English as a friendly greeting instead of 'How are you?'. 5.4 If you say that a machine or device is going, is going well, is not going, etc, you are saying whether it is working properly or not. EG How is your car going?... The clock won't go. 5.5 If you say that a particular kind of product is going well, badly, etc, you mean that you are selling a lot of them, very few of them, etc. EG The briefcases are going well. V + A / ● PHR : VB INFLECTS / ● PHR : USED AS ADV SEN / ● CONVENTION / V OR V + A = function / V + A = sell

6 Go is used with words such as 'far', 'further', 'beyond' and expressions such as 'some way', 'a long way', etc to indicate that people's actions, claims, or success are surprising, extreme, or that they reach or pass the level mentioned. See also far, further, beyond and way. 6.1 If you go so far as to do something, you do something surprising or extreme. EG The directors went as far as to stage actual killings... How far should any of us go to get what we want? 6.2 If you go beyond a particular kind of action, you do something more extreme. EG They wanted to go beyond one-day strikes. 6.3 If an action or idea goes beyond something, it is better or more important than that thing. EG She shows a precision that goes beyond mere cleverness. 6.4 If you say you would go so far, further, etc, you are saying how much you agree with someone or support an idea. EG I wouldn't go that far... I shall go further and say that Lo is a fool. 6.5 If you say that someone will go far or will go a long way, you mean that they will be very successful. 6.6 If you say that something goes some way or goes a long way towards doing something, you mean that it succeeds in achieving it partly or to a great extent. EG That goes a long way towards explaining why people dislike the old rectory. V + A / V + A (beyond) ⇑ pass / V + A (beyond) NO CONT ⇑ advance = reach / V + A = commit oneself / PHR : AUX INFLECTS + VB / PHR : VB INFLECTS ⇑ help

7 You use go in informal English to introduce something you are quoting, imitating, or describing. 7.1 You say or write 'the story goes', 'as the saying goes', 'How does the proverb go?' etc just before you quote it or tell a part or a summary of it. EG As the song goes: I fell in love with eyes of blue... Very roughly, her theory goes like this. 7.2 You say 'the tune goes', 'the song goes', etc just before you hum, whistle, or sing it or a part of it. EG It goes something like this. 7.3 You use go just before the words or letters that represent a noise that someone or something makes. EG American sirens which instead of going 'Ow-wow' go 'Whoop-whoop'... It went 'splat' in the water. V + QUOTE/A (like) = run / V + QUOTE/A (like) = sound / V + QUOTE: REPORT-CL A (like)

8 If a bell or alarm goes, it makes a noise, usually as a signal for you to do something. EG When the alarm goes, he has to leave his work. V = sound

9 If you say that money goes in, into, or on something, you mean that it is used for that particular purpose. EG Most of the aid has gone into urban projects... 40% of his income goes on rent. V + A (in/into/on)

10 If land, buildings, or money go to someone, it becomes their property, for example when the previous owner dies. EG The ranch was going to the girls... Every penny should go to charity. V + A (to) = be left

11 If you say that something goes to someone, you mean that it is given or should be given to them. EG Some of the credit should go to the cameraman... The job is to go to a private contractor. V + A (to)

12 In a lecture, discussion, or book, if you say that you are going to a particular point in it, you mean that you want to discuss that point. EG Can we go to Question Six?... ...going back to your point. V + A (to) = turn

13 If something goes with something else, or if two things go together, 13.1 they have a pleasing effect V + A (together)

when they are placed together. EG I got the shoes to go with my coat... The colours go so very well together. 13.2 they are, or are considered to be, the correct things to have together. EG ...the hat that went with the uniform... White wine goes with fish.

with) : RECIP, NO CONT, NO IMPER

v + A (together/with) : RECIP, NO CONT

⇑ correspond

14 A go is an attempt at doing something. EG He passed the test first go... Few authors write a book at one go. ● If you have a go at something, you try to do it; an informal expression. EG I'll have a go at mending it... Go on-have a go. ● If you have a go at someone, you criticize or attack them, usually in speech or writing; an informal expression used in British English. EG Flaherty wants to have a go at the British.

N COUNT

= whack

● PHR : VB INFLECTS

● PHR : VB INFLECTS

= slate

15 If it is your go in a game, it is your turn to do something, for example to play a card or move a piece. EG It's Pam's go.

N COUNT : WITH POSS

16 You say 'Go' quickly and loudly as a signal for people to begin running a race. EG On your marks. Get set. Go! ● If you say that something happened from the word go, you mean that it happened from the very beginning of a situation. EG She complained from the word go.

V : ONLY IMPER

● PHR : USED AS AN A

17 If you say that someone is making a go of something, you mean that they are being successful, usually in a business or a relationship; an informal expression.

PHR : VB INFLECTS + of

⇑ succeed

18 has to go, has got to go. 18.1 If you say that someone has to go or has got to go, you mean that they must be forced to leave a place or job. EG The last to be hired had to be the first to go. 18.2 If you say that something has to go or has got to go, you mean that you must sell it, get rid of it, or stop using it. EG It lost three million dollars last year and it has to go.

PHR : FIRST VB INFLECTS

PHR : FIRST VB INFLECTS

19 to go. 19.1 If you say that there are a number of things to go, you mean that they still remain to be dealt with, after you have finished with others in the same group. EG Eight down and two to go. 19.2 If you say that there is a period of time to go, you mean that this time must pass before something such as an exam or a contract ends or before something happens. EG There are still two years to go. 19.3 If you say that there is a particular distance to go, you mean that you must travel that distance before arriving somewhere or finishing a race. EG We had less than three miles to go. 19.4 If you say that an item of food is to go, you mean that it is intended to be taken away and not eaten in the cafe or restaurant you are in; used in American English.

PHR : NUM + PHR

= left

PHR : USED AS AN A

= left

PHR : USED AS AN A

= left

PHR : USED AS C

20 Go is the quality of being active and energetic. EG ...men like Northcliffe, men of go. ● If you say that someone is on the go, you mean that they are busy and active; an informal expression. EG They'll be on the go until they die. ● If you say 'it's all go', you mean that you have many things to do and no time to rest; an informal expression.

N UNCOUNT

● PHR : USED AS AN A

● PHR : AUX INFLECTS

21 If someone's sight or hearing is going , it is getting worse, and they may become blind or deaf. EG His hearing is beginning to go... ...people whose eyesight is going.

v

= fail

22 If something such as a light bulb or a part of an engine is going, it is no longer working properly and will soon need to be replaced; an informal use. EG The battery's going.

v

= give out

23 If someone goes on television or radio, they take part in a television or radio programme. EG The princess agreed to go on television... The president went on the air that evening.

v + A (on)

24 If something goes in a particular place, 24.1 it is put there. EG The same engine goes into the new Talbot Tagora. 24.2 it fits in that place because it is the right size or shape. EG The silencer went on easily... Her suitcase only just went in the boot. 24.3 it belongs there, because that is where you normally keep it. EG That goes in there, and this goes on top of it.

v + A

= be put

v : USU + A

= fit

v + A

= belong

25 If a road or path goes somewhere, it leads to, from, or through a particular place. EG Off the north side go Burlington Street and Cork Street... That road goes back to the city centre.

v + A

= lead, run

26 If you say that one number goes into another number, you are dividing the second number by the first. EG Six goes into thirty five times... Six into thirty-two goes five with two left over.

v : NUM + v + into + NUM

⇑ divide

27 If you say that someone is going or has gone, you mean that they are dying or dead, but you do not want to use these words because they upset you or they might upset the person you are talking to.

v

= pass away

28 If you go one better, you do something better than it had been done before, or obtain something better than you had before or than someone else has. EG Go one better and use electronic valves... Father went one better and got a colour TV.

PHR : VB INFLECTS, USU + and/than

= do better

29 You say 'here goes' or 'here we go' just before you start to do something, especially something new, exciting, or dangerous; an informal expression.

CONVENTION

30 You say there goes something to express disappointment when something happens to prevent you getting something; an informal expression. EG There goes my chance of winning the award.

PHR : NG

= bang goes

31 You say 'there you go' in informal English 31.1 to express annoyance at someone who continues to do something that they know you dislike or that you told them not to do. EG There you go again. How you talk, honestly. 31.2 after giving someone something or doing something for them, for example after serving them in a shop. EG There you go, 20 pence change.

PHR

PHR

31.3 after someone tells you about a situation or event, in order to express the opinion that the situation cannot be changed and must be accepted, or that the event is not surprising, because you had expected it. EG There you go, what did I tell you?

PHR

= told you so

32 If someone asks 'Where do we go from here?', they mean 'What shall we do next?', usually because a problem has not been solved satisfactorily.

PHR

33 If someone says 'anything goes', they mean that anything that people say or do is considered acceptable; an informal expression, often used showing disapproval. EG Today almost anything goes.

PHR

34 If you say, for example, 'What I say, goes', or 'Whatever I say, goes', you mean that you have total authority and must be obeyed or agreed with; an informal expression. EG Martin wanted the bathroom painted and what Martin says, goes.

PHR

35 If you do something as you go along, you do it without preparing it beforehand; an informal expression. EG I was making it up as I went along... He destroyed the evidence as he went along.

PHR : USED AS AN A, VB INFLECTS

36 If you say that something goes to show or goes to prove something, you mean that it shows or proves it, especially when it agrees with your previous opinions or theories but surprises other people. EG All of which goes to show that people haven't changed.

PHR + REPORT-CL

= confirm

37 You use 'as things go' when describing one thing and comparing it with other things of the same kind; an informal expression. EG Aluminium is soft and sticky, as metals go.

PHR : USED AS AN A

38 If you go all out for something, you make the greatest possible effort to get it or achieve it; an informal expression.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

⇑ try

39 If you say your heart goes out to someone, your thoughts go out to someone, etc, you mean that you are thinking in a sympathetic way about someone, for example because they are suffering or doing something very brave; used in formal English.

PHR : VB INFLECTS

40 'Who goes there?' is used by guards or sentries as an official warning when they see or hear something, to indicate that anyone who is there must say who they are, otherwise they may be shot or arrested.

CONVENTION

41 The word go is also used in the following expressions, which are explained at other places in this dictionary. ● as far as something goes: see far. ● bang goes: see bang. ● easy come, easy go: see easy. ● touch and go: see touch. ● to go easy: see easy. ● to go flying: see fly. ● to go hungry: see hungry. ● to go to town: see town.

go about. 1 If you go about a task or problem, you begin to deal with it. EG She told me how to go about it... ...a sensible way of going about things.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

= set about

2 If you go about a regular activity such as your job, you continue doing it. EG He wanted to be left alone to go about his business. ● See also go around.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

⇑ do

= get on with

go after. If you go after something, you try to get it. EG My husband had gone after a job... Go after a better deal.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

⇑ seek

= try for

go against. 1 If something goes against an idea, a person's wishes, etc, it conflicts or disagrees with it. EG When things go against my wishes, I threaten to resign... The teaching of the Bible clearly goes against it.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

= conflict with

≠ accord with

2 If you go against other people's advice or wishes, you do something different from what you have been

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

= disregard told or advised to do. EG She went against the advice of her Cabinet and called a general election.

3 If a decision or judgement goes against someone, for example in a court of law, it is unfavourable to them, and they lose the case. EG The verdict went against his brother. • to go against the grain: see grain.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ≠ favour

go ahead. 1 If someone goes ahead with something, they begin to do it or make it, especially after planning, promising, or asking permission to do it. EG They are going ahead with the missile... 'Would you like to hear it?'–'Go ahead.'

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP/CONJ THEN with/and = proceed

2 If a process or an organized event goes ahead, it takes place or is carried out. EG The unloading had gone ahead very briskly... The May day marches could go ahead.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ begin = proceed

3 If someone goes ahead or goes on ahead, they go in front of someone else who is going in the same direction or to the same place. EG You go ahead this time... The minibus went ahead of us... Anthony had gone on ahead. • See also go-ahead.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, OR V + ADV + ADV : IF + PREP THEN of = precede go along. 1 If you go along, 1.1 you move from one place to another, usually in order to do something. EG I went along to the recording room... Go along and talk to a solicitor. 1.2 you move in a particular way. EG They go along very slowly.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP/CONJ THEN to/and

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A

2 If you describe how something is going along, you describe how it is progressing. EG It was going along nicely.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A = progress

go along with. 1 If you go along with a rule, decision, or policy, you accept it and obey it. EG You agreed to go along with the decision.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = abide by

2 If you go along with a person or an idea, you agree with the person or idea or accept that what they are saying is true. EG I am willing to go along with Celli.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP

go around. 1 If you go around or go about in a particular way, you behave or dress in that way, often as part of your normal life. EG The kids go around barefoot.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP + A = go round

2 If you go around, go round, or go about doing something, often something that other people disapprove of, you have the habit of doing it. EG I don't go around deliberately hurting people's feelings... They're always going round sticking posters on walls.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + -ING = make a habit of 3 If you go around, go round, or go about with a person or group of people, you regularly meet them and go to different places with them. EG Don't go around with them... They go round with their fellow countrymen.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A (together/with) : RECIP = associate

4 If a piece of news or a joke is going around, going round, or going about, it is being told by many people in the same period of time. EG ...the gossip that went around years ago... Some jokes go round year after year... ...so many stories going about.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP = circulate

5 If a quantity of something will go around or go round, there is enough of it to be shared among a group of people, or to do all the things for which it is needed. EG There were never enough textbooks to go around... The money just won't go round... There was always enough food to go round.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP, NO CONT, NO IMPER ⇑ suffice

go at. If you go at a task or activity, you start doing it in an energetic, enthusiastic way. EG The breakfast arrived and he went at it like a starving refugee.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = attack

go away. If you go away, 1 you leave a place or a person's company. EG She went away to think about it... Go away! 2 you leave a place and spend a period of time somewhere else, especially as a holiday. EG She had gone away for a few days.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

go back. 1 If something goes back to a particular time in the past, it was made, built, or started at that time. EG The shop goes back to 1707.

PHRASAL VB : V + A (to) = date from

2 If someone goes back to a time in the past, they begin to discuss or consider events that happened at that time. EG To trace its origins, we have to go back some thirty million years.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN to = return

go back on. If you go back on a promise or agreement, you do not do what you promised or agreed to do.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = break

go back to. If you go back to a task or activity, you start doing it again after you have stopped doing it for a period of time. EG She had gone back to staring out of the window.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = resume

go before. 1 Something that has gone before an event or subject has happened or been discussed at an earlier time. EG The meeting was different from any that had gone before... ...a topic which had nothing to do with what had gone before. 2 When people, problems, or cases go before a judge, tribunal, or court of law, they are brought or discussed there as part of an official or legal process so that a decision can be made about them. EG The matter has gone before a grand jury.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ precede

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = come before

go by. 1 If you say that a period of time has gone by, you mean that it has passed. EG Eight years went by... As time goes by more devices come on to the market. • If you say 'in days gone by' or 'in years gone by', you are talking about events that have taken place in the past, often long ago.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = elapse

• PHR : USED AS AN A

2 If you go by a person, book, rule, etc, you use the information or advice that the person, book, or rule gives you in order to do something. EG I try to go by reason as far as possible... Don't go by what he says. • If someone goes by the book, they obey rules very strictly and insist on other people doing so as well.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = follow

• PHR : VB INFLECTS

go down. 1 If you go down to a place, you walk or travel there for a short period of time; often used of places that are further south than you or further south in the country. EG I have to go down to Brighton... I'm going down to the shops.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV : to

2 If you go down, you go from one floor of a building to a lower one, especially to the ground floor. EG I must go down and put on my necklace.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP/CONJ THEN to/and

3 If you go down on your knees or on all fours, you lower your body until it is supported by your knees, or by your hands and knees.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV : on = get down

4 When students go down, they leave their college or university at the end of a term or at the end of the academic year; used in British English.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

5 In sport, if a person or team goes down, 5.1 they are defeated in a match or contest. EG Lendl went down by three sets to one. 5.2 they move down to a lower position in an official list, or to a lower division in a league.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = lose

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = be relegated

6 When a remark, speech, or artistic performance goes down in a particular way, it gets a particular kind of reaction from a person or group of people. EG The act didn't go down terribly well.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A = be received

7 If you say that something has gone down, you mean that its quality or standard has become worse. EG It's gone down a lot, the food.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = deteriorate

8 If you talk about food or drink going down well, you mean that it is eaten or drunk with enjoyment; an informal use. EG A cup of tea would go down nicely.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A

9 When the sun goes down, it sets. EG The sun went down behind the mountains.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

10 If a ship goes down, it sinks. EG They all got off before she went down.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

11 If the level of something, for example water in a tank, goes down, it becomes lower.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

12 If a computer goes down, it stops functioning temporarily; a technical term in computing.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

go down as. If an event, action, product, etc goes down as something, it is regarded, remembered, or recorded in a particular way by someone. EG Helping your neighbour can go down in the teacher's view as cheating. • to go down in history: see history.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = be regarded as go down with. If you go down with an illness or a disease, you catch it; an informal expression. EG She went down with flu.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = contract

go for. 1 If you go for a particular type of product or way of doing something, you choose it. EG Children go for the brightly-coloured ones... ...a tendency to go for even grander projects.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = favour

2 If you go for someone or something, you like them very much; an informal use. EG I really go for him... I don't go for talk like that.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = dig

3 If you go for someone or something, you attack them. EG He went for me with the bread-knife... They go for the eyes.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

4 If you say that a statement you have made about one person or thing goes for another person or thing, you mean that the statement is also true of this other person or thing. EG The same goes for Bardolph... ...and that goes for India too.

PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = apply to 5 If you say to a person or group of people 'go for it', you are encouraging them to increase their efforts to achieve or win something; an informal expression.

CONVENTION ⇑ try

go in. 1 If the sun goes in, it goes behind a cloud and can no longer be seen.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

2 If you go in, you enter a building, especially your own house.

PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

go in for. If you go in for a particular activity, you decide to do it as your job, or as a hobby or interest. EG I thought of going in for teaching. ADV + PREP = take up go into. 1 If you go into something, 1.1 you describe it fully or in detail. EG I've gone into this example in some detail... I won't go into what I've suffered. 1.2 you examine or investigate it in detail. EG My solicitors are going into the question of my jewellery... ...as one goes more deeply into a subject. 1.3 you decide to do it as your job or career. EG Ever thought of going into journalism?. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = delve into; PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = take up

PHRASAL VB : V +

2 If someone goes into a long speech or lecture, they begin it; often used showing disapproval. EG He went into a long monologue. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = launch into

3 If time, effort, or money goes into something, it is spent or used to do it, get it, or make it. EG Three years of research went into the making of those films. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP

4 If a vehicle or its driver goes into a particular kind of movement, it starts moving in the way mentioned. EG The plane went into a nose dive... I went into a skid. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP ⇑ begin

5 If a vehicle or its driver goes into another vehicle, it hits the other vehicle. EG Three cars went into me... I went into the mini in front. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = crash into go off. 1 If you go off somewhere, you leave a place, usually in order to do something. EG He had gone off to work... She went off to look at the flowers. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A

2 If you go off someone or something, you stop liking them; an informal use. EG He's gone off the idea... I think she's going off him a bit. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + ADV + O

3 If you go off, you fall asleep; an informal use. EG He went off as soon as his head touched the pillow. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

4 If something goes off, 4.1 it explodes. EG I could hear the bombs going off on the other side of the city. 4.2 it makes a sudden loud noise. EG The alarm went off but he tried to ignore it. 4.3 it stops operating. EG The light only goes off at night. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV; PHRASAL VB : V + ADV; PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

5 If an organized event goes off in a particular way, it takes place in that way. EG The meeting went off well. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A = go

6 Food or drink that has gone off has become stale, sour, or rotten. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV go off with. 1 If someone goes off with another person, they leave their husband, wife, or lover and have a relationship with that person. EG My boyfriend went off with my best friend. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = run off with

2 If someone goes off with something that belongs to someone else, they leave a place and take it with them. EG She had let him go off with her papers. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = make off with

go on. 1 If you go on doing something, or go on with an activity, you continue to do it. EG I went on writing... They can't go on with their examinations. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + -ING/with = carry on

2 If you go on to do something, you do it after you have finished doing something else. EG He went on to get his degree... These women go on to have children. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to-INF

3 If you go on in a particular direction, you continue to walk, drive, etc in that direction. EG I went on up the hill... You can't go on, there's a diversion. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A = carry on

4 If you go on to a place, you go to it from the place that you have reached. EG We had gone on to Clare's house... Go on home. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A ⇑ proceed

5 If you go on, you continue saying something or talking about something. EG 'You know,' he went on, 'it's extraordinary.'... 'Sounds serious,' I said, 'go on.' PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + QUOTE/about = proceed

6 If you go on about something, or go on at someone, you continue talking to them about the same thing, often in an annoying way; an informal use. EG I went on at my father to have safety belts fitted... Don't go on about it. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + about/at, OR V + ADV = keep on, nag

7 If a process or institution goes on, it continues to take place or to exist, often for a particular period of time. EG The fighting had gone on all through the night... We want the theatre to go on. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A ⇑ continue = last

8 If you say that a particular type of activity is going on, you mean that it is taking place. EG There's a big argument going on... A lot of cheating goes on. ● See also goings-on. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ happen = take place

9 If you say that a period of time goes on, you mean that it passes. EG I get more depressed, as time goes on. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ continue = elapse

10 In informal English, you say 'Go on' to someone 10.1 to persuade or encourage them to do something. EG Go on, have a biscuit. ...Go on you'll never know until you try. 10.2 to indicate that you do not believe what they have said. EG Go on–you're kidding. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, ONLY IMPER; PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = get away

11 If you go on a piece of information, you base an opinion or judgement on it. EG It's not much to go on... I'm only going on what I've seen at Mr Gladwell's. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS

12 If a device or machine goes on, it begins operating. EG The light goes on automatically. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = come on go on ahead. See go ahead 3.

go out. 1 If you go out with someone, you spend time with them socially and often have a romantic or sexual relationship with them. EG My parents wouldn't let me go out with boys... I went out with him a long time ago. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A (together/with) : RECIP ⇑ socialize

2 If you go out to do something, you make a practical effort to achieve it, by going to different places or by contacting people. EG They went out and inquired into matters themselves... Charities must go out and raise money. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to/and = set out

3 If a light goes out, it stops shining. EG The lights went out in the big tent. ● to go out like a light: see light. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

4 If something that is burning goes out, it stops burning. EG The fire went out... My cigar's gone out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

5 If information goes out from somewhere, it is announced or published, often officially. EG The news went out from Washington that he was dead... Word went out that he'd arrived. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A = come

6 If a television or radio programme goes out, it is broadcast. EG The series goes out on Tuesday evenings on BBC 2. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A

7 If something goes out, it ceases to exist or be used, usually because it is replaced by something else. EG Steam went out and diesel was introduced. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = die out

8 If a quality or feeling goes out of someone or something, they no longer have it. EG Some of the snap has gone out of the market... All the heart seemed to have gone out of him. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + of = die out

9 When the tide goes out, the water in the sea or in a river gradually falls to a lower level until the tide comes in again. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = recede ≠ come in

go over. 1 If you go over to someone or something, you move towards them and reach them. EG 'Mabel,' he said, going over to her... Go over and help him. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + to/and

2 If you go over something, you examine, discuss, or think about it very carefully and systematically. EG He helped me go over my books... He went over this in his mind. ● See also going-over. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = review go over to. 1 If someone or something goes over to a different way of doing things, they change to it. EG We went over to the American system... The school will go over to mixed ability teaching. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = switch to

2 If you go over to a group of people, a political party, etc, you join them after previously belonging to a group or party with very different aims or ideas. EG Who was loyal and who had gone over to the other group?... Anyone joining the police is going over to the other side. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP = desert to go round. 1 If you go round to someone's house, you go to visit them at their house. EG We went round one night but they were out. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, USU + A go through. 1 If you go through an event or a period of time, especially an unpleasant one, you experience it. EG Not all girls go through this stage... I'm too old to go through that again. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = undergo

2 If something goes round, it turns continuously like a wheel. EG The tape is still going round. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ turn = revolve

3 See also go around 2, 3, 4.

2 If you go through a lot of things such as papers, clothes, etc, you look at them, usually in order to sort them into groups or to search for a particular item. EG They went through her things... Go through the files again. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = check

3 If you go through a list, story, or plan, you say it or describe it from beginning to end. EG You'd better go through the names... Could you go through roughly what's required. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = run through

4 If someone goes through a series of actions or movements, they perform them, usually as a practice or a test. EG They watched Pat going through some of the movements she had learned. ● to go through the motions: see motion. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, HAS PASS = rehearse

5 If a law, agreement, or official decision goes through, it is approved by the people who have the power or authority to do so. EG The adoption went through. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP = be approved go through with. If you go through with a decision or an action, you continue to do what is necessary in order to achieve it or complete it, often even though it involves unpleasant experiences. EG I didn't go through with the abortion. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + PREP ⇑ pursue = proceed with go towards. If an amount of money goes towards something, it is used as part of the cost of that thing. EG It will go towards a deposit on the flat... £54m went towards investment. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP go under. 1 If a business or project goes under, it fails. EG Ten thousand small businesses have gone under. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV = fold

2 If a boat, ship, or person in a sea or river goes under, it sinks below the surface of the water. EG He thrashed about for some time before he went under. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV go up. 1 If you go up to a place, you walk or travel there, often in order to do something. EG We all went up to the pub. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A = go along

2 If you go up in a building, you go to a higher floor in it, especially from the ground floor. EG She went up to her bedroom... We can go up in the elevator. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV + A ≠ go down

3 If a building, wall, or other structure goes up, it is built or fixed in place. EG Small blocks of flats are going up... Billboards went up all over town. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV : USU + A

4 If something goes up, it explodes or starts to burn, usually suddenly and with great intensity. EG ...if one of those gas tankers goes up... In seconds it had gone up in flames. ● to go up in smoke: see smoke. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

5 If something goes up, for example the curtain in a theatre, it is raised. EG There was a burst of applause as the curtain went up. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV ⇑ rise

6 When students go up to a college or university, they begin studying there, or return there at the beginning of an academic year or term; used in British English. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV, IF + PREP THEN to

7 If a shout, a cheer, etc goes up, it is made by a lot of people together. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV

8 In sport, if a person or team goes up, they move to a higher position in the official list, or move to a higher division in a league. EG I think Stoke will go up this season. PHRASAL VB : V + ADV/PREP = be promoted go with. 1 If one thing goes with another thing, 1.1 the two things officially belong together, so that if you get one, you also get the other. EG The house went with the job. 1.2 it is usually found or experienced together with the other thing. EG ...the sigh of satisfaction that goes with pleasant tiredness. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP, NO CONT, NO IMPER = accompany

2 If someone goes with another person, they have sex with that person; an informal use. EG He never went with other women. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP = sleep with go without. If you go without something, often something that you have or do regularly, you do not get it or do it. EG The family went without food all day... If I go a day without practice, I notice it... If they couldn't get coal, they had to go without. ● to go without saying: see say. PHRASAL VB : V + PREP/ADV ⇑ lack = do without ≠ have goad /gəʊd/, goads, goading, goaded. 1 If you goad someone, you arouse strong feelings of anger, irritation, etc, in them, often causing them to react by doing something. EG She was being goaded into denouncing and mocking her best friend... Mobs, goaded by blind hatred and fed on fear, tore through the city. V + O + A (into), OR V + O (NG/ REFL) : USU + A ⇑ provoke = drive goad on. If you goad someone on, you encourage them. EG The thought of all that money goaded him on. PHRASAL VB : ORDER V + O + ADV, USU PASS = spur on go-ahead. 1 If you give someone the go-ahead, or give the go-ahead to a plan or project, you give permission or approval to someone to start doing something. EG He gave the go-ahead for the Manhattan Project... You have the go-ahead from the Prime Minister. N SING : the + N = green light

2 A goad is a sharp, pointed stick that is used for driving cattle. N COUNT

2 A go-ahead person or organization is ambitious and tries hard to succeed, often by using new methods. EG ...its go-ahead young secretary... ...promising a 'dynamic and go-ahead Britain'. ADJ QUALIT = enterprising goal /gəʊl/, goals. 1 A goal in some games such as football or hockey is 1.1 the space into which the players try to get the ball in order to score a point for their team. EG The ball missed the goal by a few inches. 1.2 an instance in which a player gets the ball into the goal, or the point that is scored by doing this. EG They beat us by four goals to three. N COUNT N COUNT

2 Something that is your goal is something that you hope to achieve, especially when much time and effort is needed in order to achieve it. EG They had at last achieved their goal of landing a man on the Moon... ...social and economic goals. N COUNT = objective, aim goalie /gəʊli[1]/, goalies. A goalie is a goalkeeper; an informal word. N COUNT

goalkeeper /gəʊlkiːpə/, goalkeepers. A goalkeeper is the player in a sports team whose job is to guard the goal and stop the other team from getting the ball into the goal. N COUNT = goalie goal line, goal lines; also spelled with a hyphen. A goal line is one of the lines at each end of the pitch in games like football and hockey, on which the goalposts stand. N COUNT

goalpost /gəʊlpəʊst/, goalposts; also spelled with a hyphen. A goalpost is one of the two upright wooden posts that are connected by a crossbar and form the goal in games like football and hockey. N COUNT goat /gəʊt/, goats. 1 A goat is an animal with a beard, horns, and a short tail, which is found in mountain areas or on farms. N COUNT

2 A goat is also an unpleasant and bad-tempered old person; an informal use. EG The old goat could walk fifty miles to my ten. N COUNT : USU ADJ + N

3 If something gets your goat, it makes you very annoyed; an informal expression. EG Don't let them get your goat. PHR : VB INFLECTS

4 If someone is acting or playing the goat, they are behaving in a silly way; an informal expression. EG Stop acting the goat and sit down! ● to separate the sheep from the goats: see sheep. PHR : VB INFLECTS = play the fool goatee /gəʊtiː/, goatees. A goatee is a very short pointed beard that a man wears on his chin but not on his cheeks. N COUNT goatherd /gəʊthɜːd/, goatherds. A goatherd is a person who is responsible for looking after a group of goats. N COUNT

goatskin /gəʊtskɪn/, goatskins. Goatskin is leather made from the skin of a goat. N UNCOUNT : COUNT

gob /gɒb/, gobs. 1 A person's gob is their mouth; a very informal use in British English. EG You shut your gob! N COUNT : USU DETPOSS + N

2 A gob of something is a mass of something thick and liquid, especially saliva; an informal use. EG He spat out a big gob of spit. N COUNT : USU N + of + N UNCOUNT = blob gobbet /gɒbɪ[2]t/, gobbets. A gobbet of something soft, especially food, is a small lump or piece of it; an informal word. EG Most animals simply bolt their food in gobbets. N PART + N UNCOUNT = chunk gobble /gɒbə[0]l/, gobbles, gobbling, gobbled. 1 If you gobble some food, you eat it very quickly and greedily; an informal use. EG Still hungry, I gobbled a second sandwich. V + O = wolf

2 When a turkey gobbles, it utters a loud sound. V

